Vote for President!

Daily Cardinal Polling Places: Main Hall, Law Building, Engineering Building, Library and Co-Op., open from 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. To-morrow is the last day. Be sure and vote.

ELECTION RETURNS

RESULT OF FIRST BALLOT OF CARDINAL MOCK ELECTION.

Large Vote Polled—Overwhelming Majority for McKinley and Roosevelt To-morrow Last Day.

The Daily Cardinal's mock election is a success. The interest manifested in the election by the students was exceptional and the vote polled this morning was unusually large for the first day.

The result of the first ballot was overwhelming in favor of the republican candidates, McKinley and Roosevelt.

The following is the complete vote: McKinley and Roosevelt (Rep.) 336. Bryan and Stevenson (Dem.) 75. Woolley and Metcalf (Prohib.) 6. Bryan and Stevenson (Rep.) 3. Bryan and Roosevelt (Dem.) 2. Woolley and Roosevelt 1. Debs 2. Total 455.

The polling places were Main Hall, the Law building, the Engineering building, the Historical Library and the Co-op. The heaviest votes were polled at Main Hall, Engineering building and the Law building.

It will be noticed from the statistics that three republicans voted for Bryan and Stevenson while two democrats prefer Roosevelt as Bryan's running mate, for what particular issue that "Teddy" advocates the voter did not state.

All male students of whatever age, as well as members of the faculty, are eligible to participate in this election. To-morrow will be the last day of the election and the students are urged to poll their votes early. The vote polled to-day indicates that but a small portion of the students have voted and a much heavier vote is expected to-morrow. The polling places will be open from 8:30 to 12:30 to-morrow.

It is hoped that the students will still further co-operate with the Cardinal in making this innovation a success so that the results obtained may be both complete and accurate.

The Cardinal will to-morrow tabulate and publish the results.

First Cross Country Run.

The first Cross Country run of the season, held last evening, brought out thirteen men. Young took Hahn's place as hare, and with McEchron led the hounds a fast four mile run. The course was over the "Hill" to Camp Randall, thence out to the convent. At this point the hares' stock of paper became exhausted, which necessitated the return to the gym. The course as estimated was nearly four miles, and was covered in 22 min. 1 sec. The first four hounds to arrive were Keachie, McGillis, Anderson and Barnard.

Friday there will be a preliminary run, which will begin promptly at 4 p. m. It is expected that all who possibly can will take these runs, so as to condition themselves for the harder cross country runs. Preliminary runs will be held Monday and Friday, and a cross country run Wednesday at 4 p. m., rain or shine, until further notice.

Open Practice Tomorrow.

The football management announces that the practice tomorrow will be at Camp Randall and will be open to spectators. Today's practice was secret.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY.

Fuller Opera House Saturday, Oct. 27th.

Mr. Riley is one of the most popular and gifted men of our time. The fact that he so seldom appears on the platform adds still greater interest and enthusiasm to the announcement of his coming. "The mere fact that he is to be here," said the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune last fall, "will create almost a stampede in the direction of the box office, for Riley is a man whom we all love—men, women and children." The poet will undoubtedly attract one of the largest audiences of many years. This will be true for many reasons. First of all, the man's genius and personality are such as win all sorts and conditions of people—the student, the idealist, the busy man of affairs, the toiler, the teacher, the critic or the casual reader. Each and all are interested in the poet and man. He is beloved in pulpit and pew, in the home and the school, and his later development shows an ever deepening power.

Interesting Letter.

The following letter was received yesterday by Professor Olson from Professor J. C. Freeman, U. S. Consul at Copenhagen, announcing a lecture which he will give there on Oliver Wendell Holmes. It may be of interest to Scandinavian students.

Excellent Course.

The city lecture course will open this evening with the Carberry-Durno recital. There could probably have been no more fortunate attraction for the opening number. Mr. Carberry has appeared before Madison audiences before and is sure to draw a large audience.

The course tickets for the City Lecture course have been going at a lively rate during the past two days. Inasmuch as the lowest price that will be fixed for single admission to any number of the course is fifty cents, the purchase of the course ticket for one dollar, which takes in the recital Thursday evening, Maro, the magician, the rival of Herman, on Nov. 20, Mrs. Beecher, the popular reader, on Dec. 4, Professor Moulton in January, and Jahu DeWitt Miller in February, is the most economical. There has probably never been so excellent a group of entertainments given for one dollar in the state.

Mr. Carberry has been asked to sing "The Prodigal Son" this evening. It will be remembered that Mr. Carberry sang this selection when he was here with the Max Bendix Company last season.

—Secy. Phelps of the Y. M. C. A. left for La Crosse today.

MAY RAISE PRICE

BADGER BOARD CONTEMPLATING ADVANCE IN PRICE OF ANNUAL.

1902 Badger Will Have Many New Features—Support of Students Needed in New Scheme.

The Badger Board held a regular meeting in the Law building last night. The Board is making extensive plans for the annual and the outlook is very bright at present. It is the unanimous opinion of the Board that the standing of the 1902 annual must be especially high. With this in view the board is planning several special features which will undoubtedly raise the standard of the book. The expense of such features will necessarily make the cost of the book much greater than in previous years. To meet this expense it is the unanimous sentiment of the Board that the price of the book should be raised, provided that the support of the students and faculty is assured.

To determine the sentiment of the students and faculty upon this important question, The Cardinal will print each day communications relative to the proposed raise in the price. The Board believes that this is the best method by which the opinion of the students as a whole will be secured and they trust that there will be a response from both students and faculty.

The Classical Club.

The Classical Club of the University has now entered upon its seventh year. The Club, as most students know, was organized for the critical study of Greek and Latin authors. It has done excellent work in its chosen field and has proven itself a necessary adjunct to the higher classical studies pursued at the University.

The club meets every other Saturday evening at the home of some one of its members. Professors and instructors in Greek and Latin, some instructors in literature, fellows, graduate students and resident alumni are eligible to membership.

But one Greek and one Latin author is studied each year. So far the club has read, in Greek; the Plays of Euripides, Sophocles, and Aeschylus, the Idyls of Theocritus, and Dialogues of Plato, and the Iliad of Homer. The Latin authors considered are Lucretius, Horace, Plautus, Terence, and Virgil. No latin author was studied last year and none has been decided on, as yet, for the current year. The Odyssey of Homer is being read at present.

Stevenson Views University Grounds.

Adlai E. Stevenson, the vice-presidential candidate on the Democratic ticket, viewed the University grounds this noon. The distinguished man was in company with County Chairman Reynolds and spent about one hour in this city between trains. Mr. Stevenson was warm in his praises of the beautiful environment of our University. He speaks at Platteville this evening.

Interest Aroused.

The interest manifested this morning in the Cardinal's mock presidential election shows that the experiment is to be a success. Although a large number of votes have been cast already, still many students have not voted and the polls will again be open to-morrow so that the vote may be completed.

Returns are coming in constantly from other universities and these results will be published at the same time that the local returns are given out.

Numen (Solum) Lumen.

While the men are still at work on the various walks that are being laid around the new Library building. It would seem to be the time to call attention to the dilapidated and even dangerous state of the sidewalk on the north side of State street along the side of the lower campus. The boards are old and rotten and have been torn up in places, and in places they are only ready to fly up if one should step on the end of one of them.

Taken in consideration with the fact that the builders of the Library have not seen fit so to place a light as to dilute the Egyptian darkness that hovers over the sharp, shin-smashing stone steps at the southeast corner of the terrace, this is enough to render a late return up State street from the Library an achievement to boast of and a risk to get insured for. On a wet day the alternatives are presented of wading through the red mud of the campus, or swimming across the impromptu lake kindly furnished by the Madison Board of Public Works, (for truly that body, as saith the poet, hath madness in its methods), or of precariously threading one's way over the crumbling planks that send up little geysers between the cracks, and threaten momentarily to break and let one down into the slimy depths beneath.

As was hinted before, however, this does not compare as an inconvenience with a trip over the same ground in the dark. Both steps and walk are very dangerous, and incidentally, on account of the many shade trees very dark.

The championship bee is beginning to buzz in various bonnets and the papers are filled daily with computations and the recomputations on the final outcome. Yet a few days and the comparative score avalanche will thunder down upon us with destructive fury.

Local and Personal.

—Professor M. S. Frawley, member of the state board of visitors, is in Madison.

—There is a letter for the President of the Republican Club at University Library Delivery Desk.

—Prof. C. I. King has been given a leave of absence for one month to go East and visit schools and manufacturing.

—Robert Dow, '04, who left for his home at Plymouth, on account of the death of his sister, has returned to the University.

—Mr. W. L. Woodward, attorney and counsellor at law, of La Crosse, was a University visitor today. Mr. Woodward was Business Manager of the Daily Cardinal in '92 and '93.

—There was quite an exhibition of boomerang throwing on the lower campus at noon today. Profs. Snow and Wood acquitted themselves with great distinction by their command of the flighty boomerangs.

—Col. Wm. F. Vilas will introduce James Whitcomb Riley at Fuller Opera House Saturday night. The lecture will not begin until 8:30 in order to give the local merchants and clerks an opportunity of being present at the beginning.

—Professors Parker and Olson have been selected as judges for the competition for the best football song. They will render their decision tomorrow morning. Thirteen songs were submitted for the prizes. The best of these will be published to-morrow.

The Commemoration Day exercises of the 15th year of the founding of Princeton University were held last Saturday. The Degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon Secretary of State Hay.

University Business College.

The night school of the University Business College is growing rapidly. Students of the University should bear in mind that the short hand department is well equipped to give a thorough and practical course.

A great many students are finding that a typewriter is almost a necessity. When we remember that one can get through with from three to ten times as much work on a typewriter as with a pen it does not seem strange that they are coming into almost universal use.

The Madison Cycle Co. at 113 State street rents all makes at very reasonable rates and also carries a full line of typewriter supplies.

University of Wisconsin. Official Notices. THE MILITARY HOPS.

Headquarters U. W. Regiment, Office of the Commandant, October 24th, 1900.

(Circular, No. 1.) That the student body may understand the requirements and privileges governing these pleasant assemblies, the Commandant takes this occasion—the opening of the college year—to mention them.

1st. They are military, and no male student will be admitted to the floor of the Armory when a hop is held unless he wears the uniform of the University Regiment, the National Guard, the U. S. Army and Navy, or some other recognized and reputable military or naval organization.

2d. Members of the Faculty and Alumni of the University may attend without conforming to the requirement as to uniform, and there is no objection to their appearing in civilian full dress; but it is suggested, for the sake of example, and because it will be more in harmony with the democratic character of the hops, that they wear undress.

3. Students of similar institutions of learning visiting friends in the University, will, upon application to the Commandant, be admitted to the hops upon the terms of the preceding paragraph.

4th. Music for the military hops will begin to play at or before 8 o'clock p. m., and will cease at 11 o'clock p. m.

5th. Smoking tobacco in any form in the Armory, its hallways, or ante-rooms, is at all times forbidden.

6th. The number of military hops which may be granted is six, but failure to comply with the rules herein set down, or any behavior inconsistent with the object of the assemblies may reduce the number.

Students are reminded that there are in the possession of members of the University Regiment over five hundred uniforms and that the number of dancing men upon the floor at any military hop heretofore given has rarely exceeded two hundred. The small number of students, therefore, who are without uniforms can find no difficulty in borrowing them. There can be no good excuse under the circumstances for any one to attempt to appear out of uniform and every effort will be made to exclude those who do not conform to this military requirement.

Permission to hold the first hop will await the arrival of the new uniforms from the manufacturer.

By order of the Commandant, Gustav A. Ritsche, Major and Adjutant.

Way Down East.

Manager William A. Brady's production of Lottie Blair Parker's play "Way Down East" is being given at the Davidson theater, Milwaukee, this week, and will be in Madison on the 30th.

This is the same great play that for several months crowded the Manhattan Theater and the Academy of Music, New York, 427 times. It will be given in Milwaukee with a splendid cast, elaborate scenery and effects, with every attention to detail that tended to make its metropolitan engagement so noticeable. The play has a splendid study quality which strikes home to every heart. It is called a story of plain people, and they are plain every day characters engaged in the homely pursuits of domesticity, but the series of events which are unfolded in the course of the play are of a deep dramatic interest, enhanced by the simplicity and naturalness of their telling. The best of critics pronounce it a superior play to "The Old Homestead," or "Shore Acres." And wherever it has been presented scores of letters from clergymen, school teachers, and others have been received telling of their delight at the story that it so aptly teaches. The dialogue is stirring, the wit and the humor bright, and the love scenes deftly arranged.

Lecture Course Opens Tonight.

If the sale during the afternoon does not prove larger than anticipated, a few course tickets will be sold at the door at the Methodist church tonight. It will be safer, however, for those who can, to buy tickets before going to the concert.

The Carberry-Durno recital tonight is the first number of the course. Single admission will be 50 cents. This is the lowest price of single admission to any number of the course, and several numbers may be higher.

There are no seats reserved for tonight, so that the earliest comers will fare best as to seats.

Met the "Boys."

Dear Father:—After bucking hard all the week I took a constitutional around the pack up town and met several of the boys at the One Minute Coffee House. One fellow ordered "Adam and Eve on a raft" and a cup of fierce coffee. We all followed suit. It proved to be poached eggs on toast and the best Mocha and Java. Send me that V which ma is saying—that "calf money."

Artie.
