TEAMS BEGIN PRACTICE FOR BIG DEBATES

First Varsity Contests With Michigan and Illinois March 18

Intensive preparation for the 1921 intercollegiate debating season started yesterday afternoon when the department of speech divided the squad of 12 men into tentative teams.

The first triangle is scheduled for March 18 against Illinois and Michigan on the question of immediate recognition of Soviet Russia. The Wisconsin affirmative team composed of Thomas Amlie, Ralph Axley, and Samuel Sygmund will meet Illinois at Madison while the negative squad composed of I. Arnold Perstein, Martin R. Kriewaldt and Charles D. Assovsky will lock horns with Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Three weeks later another triangle will be held with Minnesota and Northwestern on a question to be decided this week. The choice of a question lies between the open shop and granting Philippine independence. Melbourne Bergerman, Arthur Inman, and B. W. Allin will attempt to win over the Methodists while Lawrence W. Hall, Herbert Kraege, and Wayne Morse will try to make up for Wisconsin's defeat at the hands of the Gophers last year.

No Decision Contest

The debates against Illinois and Michigan will offer an interesting departure in the field of intercollegiate debating in that both contests will be no-decision affairs.

State and University Officials Unite in Praise of Committee

State and university officials unite in declaring the 1922 Junior Prom given at the Capitol last Friday evening to be "the best Prom ever," and above criticism in respect both to the success of the party as the biggest social affair of the school year, and to the orderly conduct of all Prom goers.

Dean Scott H. Goodnight commended the Prom committee on the general spirit of the party and commented on the fact that the music furnished by Isham Jones' orchestra was exceptionally good dance music, with none of the "jazz" frequently heard at dances.

"I have nothing but the sincerest congratulations to offer to the Junior class on the most successful Prom," said Dean F. Louise Nardin. "I have absolutely no criticism to offer in regard to the conduct of Prom goers, and any rumors to the

IN CHARGE OF BIG "LIT" DRIVE

HORACE B. POWELL

Horace B. Powell '23 will have charge of the final cleanup subscription drive which the Wisconsin Literary Magazine will open on Monday. The "Lit" will be offered for the remaining four months of the school year for 75 cents, and the circulation staff hope, with this special short term offer, to reach all those who failed to subscribe last fall.

Powell is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and a sophomore in the Course in Journalism. He is circulation manager of the Wisconsin Literary Magazine, sophomore assistant on the 1922 Badger, and a member of the University Press club. His home is in Milwaukee.

PROM GOERS CAN OBTAIN PROGRAMS

Prom goers who failed to receive their programs at the door of the Capitol on Prom night, and who desire to have a program as a souvenir of the 1922 Prom, should present their program checks to Walter W. Schwinn at the Sigma Nu house, 625 N. Henry street, or call B. 197 between 6 and 7:30 o'clock Thursday or Friday evening. "The Prom committee regrets sincerely that a few scattered Prom goers were unable to receive their program," said Dale Merrick, Prom chairman. "Everything will be done to set right the error, and all who were disappointed should call or see Schwinn tonight or tomorrow night."

"SPIT BALL" CAUSE OF SPLIT BETWEEN AMES AND IOWA "U"

Because Ames has a fondness for the "spit ball," to which Iowa objects, there are indications that there will be no baseball game between these two universities next spring. The dispute dates back to Iowa's first game with Ames last spring when the Iowa coach objected to the Ames pitcher's use of the freak ball.

HARESFOOT COMEDY NAMED "MISS QUITA"

Will Be Presented in Eight Cities During Spring Tour

"Miss Quita" is the name given to the Haresfoot musical comedy, with book and lyrics by Horace Carver '21, Paul Gangelin '23, Horace Gregory '23, A. C. Hamilton '23, and Kirby Ramsell '23, and with music by Earl Carpenter '21. The play was written entirely by students and will be used as the twenty-third annual Haresfoot production on the club's spring tour of eight cities in Wisconsin and Illinois.

The music of the play is especially good, and is pronounced by many to be the best ever written for a Haresfoot show. Seventeen songs, as well as opening and closing choruses, and orchestral bits were written entirely by Earl Carpenter, who fitted every musical selection to a certain, definite portion of the written play. The Mexican atmosphere of the play is well sustained in the music.

Tryouts for parts and positions in the cast, chorus, business staff, and production staff of "Miss Quita" will be held next Wednesday evening, Feb. 23 at 7 o'clock in the auditorium of the Wisconsin high school.

SPRING?

Weather Man at North Hall Predicts a Continued Mild Winter

Not since the Florida-like winter months of 1878-9, the mildest of the past century, has there been a winter so mild as the present one, declared Eric Miller, forecaster at the U. S. Weather station at North hall, yesterday.

All the predictions made by Mr. Ground Hog, recently, that the winter was scheduled to continue six weeks longer, were punctured mercilessly by Mr. Miller. According to the Old Timer's saying, as the animal could have seen his shadow on the fateful day, the destiny of the weather has been already determined.

"The weather will likely continue to remain mild for the remainder of the winter," stated Mr. Miller.

That the mildness of this winter is due to a cycle of oceanic conditions which occur in the North Atlantic, is the belief of the local Vespers are held regularly every Sunday and are open to all university women.

MANY WITNESS PRACTICE WITH YEARLING FIVE

Varsity Cagemen Display Flashy Teamwork in Contest

About 300 persons witnessed the varsity basketball team in a successful scrimmage against the freshman five last night. The practice was characterized by spurts of flashy teamwork and airtight defense on the part of the Badgers.

The freshmen were completely bewildered at first, and fast accurate passing resulted in three baskets in as many minutes for the varsity. The yearling defense tightened up, however, and the Badgers experienced more difficulty in getting the ball within scoring distance of the basket. The varsity defense was practically impregnable, the freshmen rarely getting a short shot at the basket. Meanwell's team scored consistently, the baskets being evenly divided among the five men. An outstanding feature of their teamwork was the lack of individual play, the men passing until a short shot could be had.

Lineups Changed Often

Taylor, J. Williams, and McIntosh filled the forward positions and Ceaser played at center. R. Williams, Tebell, and Frogner alternated at guard, all three performing very well.

The freshmen lineup was changed a number of times. Irish, Johnson, McDonell, Sykes, and Reeves started, but Gage, Foy, and Taft were all used for a time. The varsity was outweighed about 15 pounds to the man, but superior weight was weather forecaster. One year the ocean winds blow the warm waters of the Gulf stream far into the North Atlantic, melting the ice. The melting ice sends fresh water upon the surface despite its coldness, although it eventually mixes up with the salt water.

The temperature of the ocean is greatly cooled by the melting ice, the atmosphere becomes cooled, and within one year for one and a half year's cycle, Europe enjoys a mild winter, while this country experiences severe weather. But during the last half of the cycle, the cold wave due to the cooled ocean waters blows as usual north-east over Europe, causing a reverse in temperature in North America.

The cause of the past spring-like winter months, which have been the mildest in 40 years, is attributed by the local forecaster to this scientific theory. The explanation is further strengthened by a recent news report that inhabitants of English coast towns along the North sea claim the winter has been severe enough to even kill fish on ocean beds, as they have been rising dead in great numbers.

"Winters in Madison, as a rule, alternate in temperature every year," Mr. Miller asserted. "Severe winters are followed by mild winters. The mean average temperature last winter was only 14 degrees, while the average so far this winter has reached 28 degrees."

Regardless of science, the best laid plans of mice and men go astray occasionally. While the weather is expected to continue mild, don't sell that sheepskin. There's many slips together, 'tween the forecast and the weather.

Newspaper Plant is Dynamited by Foes

ROCK ISLAND, Ills.—The plant of the Rock Island News, a sensational weekly, was dynamited at 4 o'clock this morning, two explosions slightly damaging the building and machinery. The office is located in the Hill residential section and the explosions broke windows and awakened hundreds of people in nearby homes. Dan Drost, editor of the paper, was asleep on the second floor, but was uninjured. Twelve years ago the plant was completely wrecked by dynamite but those responsible were never apprehended. Drost, several months ago, was convicted of criminal libel in Davenport, Ia., and sentenced to a year in jail. He is at liberty on bond pending a retrial. The publication has been condemned by local organizations, but officials have refused to suppress it.

WRESTLERS TO MEET PURPLE MAT ARTISTS

Badgers Are Weakened by the Loss of Several Varsity Men

After a final light workout tonight, the Wisconsin varsity wrestlers leave tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock for Chicago, from where they go to Evanston to meet the Northwestern grapplers in the second dual meet of the season. Although somewhat crippled by ineligibility, the team will put up stiff opposition in every one of the bouts, and each team member and the coach are expecting to take the Purple's measure.

Ivan "Cy" Peterman, 145-pounder, will captain the team on this trip, and will act as captain until the return of Glenn Culver, who so far is unable to compete because of scholastic difficulties. "Pete" has been working hard the past three weeks, is in great condition, and should make his man go the limit at Northwestern.

W. H. "Shorty" Klass, who formerly was the 145 pounder, has trained to the 135-pound division and will take care of that class. He is in fine shape, and is counted on to win his bout. "Shorty" was the only man to win in the Ames meet.

In the featherweight class E. A. Woelffer, a new man, has taken the place vacated by Livingston, who is out with broken ribs. Woelffer formerly was a 135-pound man, and is in good trim for the lower weight.

G. W. Prideaux has replaced the ineligible Posepny in the 115-pound division, and will make the trip with the team. Heretofore "Prid" has been kept out with a bad shoulder, but at present is in fine condition for a match.

The heavyweight division will be filled by Ora McMurray. The big boy has trained hard for the match and hopes to come through with a win against his Evanston opponent.

The middleweight class will be filled by H. L. Pier, who put up a fine battle against his Ames opponent in the last meet.

The light-heavy division, now that Holmes is definitely declared ineligible, is the biggest gap to fill. So far only one new man has come out for this class, G. L. Barry, a husky chap who was a member of the baseball squad last year. Barry looks like the logical man to fill Holmes place, and with another two weeks in which to learn the tricks of the game, will in all probability be taken along for the Chicago meet. There is a possibility of his going to Northwestern if the Purple agrees to produce a bantam to meet Prideaux, which so far they have refused to do.

A large squad of freshmen has turned out for the second semester's work, and Coach Hitchcock is looking forward to a good aggregation for next year. If Culver returns to the team, and Barry develops into a good man, Wisconsin will be heard from at the conference meet at Bloomington, Ind., March 10 and 11.

The challenge of Lawrence college will probably be accepted following the conference meet, and plans are being made accordingly. Members of the team and the coach feel no anxiety as to the outcome of such a match should it be made, as the local wrestlers are in good enough condition to meet any opposition in the state.

Following the Northwestern meet a dual contest with Chicago has been set for March 4. The conference meet will come next, and then matches with Lawrence and Illinois.

Sale of N. D. Bonds by Chicago Firms is Off

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Negotiations for the sale of North Dakota state bonds by Minneapolis and Chicago investment firms are off at least for the present, it was learned today. The sale of $6,000,000 in bonds had been contemplated as a means of putting North Dakota back on a sound financial basis.

In cities of the first, second and third classes, instruction of college grade may be provided by means of courses administered in the evening or at other convenient hours. The cost of instruction for such classes shall be paid by the state at the rate of $7.50 per student in average attendance for each hour of instruction per semester, but a total of not more than $3,000 per year shall be paid by the state for such classes in any one city.

The immediate administration of such college work shall be in the hands of the state board charged with the administration of the local institution; and all expenses other than for instruction shall be provided locally. But the instructors and the courses of study shall be approved by the secretary of the state board of education before any money is paid by the state.

The local board shall report at the end of each semester the number of students in average attendance for each hour of instruction. There shall be appropriated $15,000, to the state board as state aid.

Such instruction may accept gifts, legacies, devises or bequests.

PRESS CLUB PI-NITE

TOMORROW night has been set aside for Press Club Pi-Nite. What is still more remarkable, this classic novelty dance is not limited to students in journalism.

Pi-nite simply means a chance to invest four bits for four dollars worth of pleasure; to dance, to be royally entertained and feted; and what is perhaps most interesting, it means a chance to tell the aspiring campus Greeleys and Danas what you think or don't think of their endeavors.

Pi-nite on past occasions has been limited to members of Press club, because the organization realizes that a party par-excellence must be assured before the student body ought to be invited. The rarity of the stunts, a superb combination in an orchestra, and refreshments unique and inviting offer enough of a commendation to fill the concert room tomorrow night.

Beyond that those who want to dance tomorrow night will have to go elsewhere.

ANOTHER ANGLE

THE opening of the second semester is an ideal time for the student body to attempt an analysis of the reasons underlying the dismissal of certain students for failure to keep up in their studies.

Certain discrepancies in the system under which we operate were pointed out in these columns yesterday, and a further consideration of them at this time is obviated out of deference to consideration of another important angle. Leaving out of the present discussion those who are predestined to fail because of the whim of what has been termed a "hard-boiled" instructor, those who get a non-delectable zero because they "came up for air" during an examination, and those students who do not get proper credit because perchance they forgot to dot an "i" or cross a "t," the one salient fact of a steadfast refusal to do an hour of work for an hour of credit will be found to be the student's contribution to an overly large number of failures.

Obviously, many individual cases offer meritorious exceptions. Some students try to do more than is humanly possible; others take courses for which they are not fitted; and still others simply cannot "fathom" the work. Fortunately, very few, if any at all, of these exceptions lose out without first having been given adequate opportunity to make amends.

The average student carries a maximum of 16 hours of assigned work. For each hour of work carried a daily minimum of one hour of thorough-going preparation would bring him through with colors flying. Granting that some courses require something more than an hour of daily preparation it might be well to allot 8 hours more for the week, thereby bringing the total weekly study requirement of friend average student up to 40 hours.

A 40 hour week goes a step further than organized labor in its most enlightened era has ever attempted to go. It furnishes a far simpler task and is less of an acting requirement than those we meet after our sheepskin has been obtained and framed.

Those students who parade the campus bemoaning the fact of too much work should give ample consideration to the granting of forty hours weekly to school work. If the grant is to be effective it must be couched in no uncertain terms. It should be definitely decided that the 40 hours given take precedence over everything else. In the terminology of the banker they have a first mortgage on the student's time.

When all students make adequate preparation in all courses the deans of the various colleges will be without overly large reception committees at the close of each semester.

FRESHMAN GIRLS PLAN TEA DANCE

A tea dance will be given for the members of Green Button, freshman women's organization, in charge of Leila Ekern, president, and the chairmen of the various committees, in Lathrop parlors, Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5, for the purpose of establishing unity in the Green Button organization.

Freshman women wishing to go are asked to sign up on the bulletin boards in Lathrop hall before 5:30 Friday afternoon.

One of Thompson's best three-piece orchestras has been obtained by Clara Klosterman, head of the committee on music. Helen Keenel, chairman of the stunt committee, promises some novel surprises between dances.

CAFETERIA PROVES GOOD PLACE TO EAT

The cafeteria has pushed the college boarding house into the background at the University of Wisconsin, according to a survey of "Where students eat and what they pay for food," recently made by a faculty committee. About 39 per cent of students eat at cafeterias, and the average weekly cost of meals is between $7 and $8.

About 2,000 students stand in line at least 30 minutes each day as part of the new cafeteria system, the report estimates. The survey did not include all of the 7,000 students in the university, but was based upon reports of about 800 selected as representative of the student body as a whole.

Among the Letters and Science students who reported, 39 per cent get their meals at cafeterias, 25 per cent in fraternity and sorority houses, 15 per cent at boarding houses, 12 per cent at home, and 7 per cent are working for their meals. Among the agricultural students who reported, 53 per cent board at cafeterias, 21 per cent at fraternities, 19 per cent in boarding houses, and 6 per cent work for board.

About 80 per cent of these students spend less than $8 per week for board, while 20 per cent spend more. The scale is as follows: 4 per cent pay between $5 and $6 a week; 13 per cent pay between $6 and $7; 43 per cent pay between $7 and $8; 22 per cent between $8 and $9; 7 per cent pay between $9 and $10; 10 per cent pay between $10 and $11; and a few pay more than $11 a week.

Cafeteria board ranges the highest in cost. Of those who eat in boarding houses, the majority pay around $7 or less and few exceed $8. Sorority house board is mainly between $7 and $8. Fraternity house board is about the same with a slightly larger proportion running up to $9. Cafeteria board ranges all the way from $5 to $15, but the largest groups center around $8, $9, and $10 a week.

CAN MEN KNOW GOD? ROBINSON TO REPLY

Is it possible for man to know God? "This question," says Dr. D. S. Robinson, of the department of philosophy, "arises at some time or other in the minds of all students. The student expresses his doubt in such queries as 'Is there a God?' and 'If I only knew the truth.' This doubt is natural to young people whose religious experiences are not broad enough to answer the questions to their own satisfaction."

The answers to these questions, as modern philosophy sees them, will be given by Dr. Robinson in a lecture entitled, "Can Men Know God?" at 4:30 Thursday in the auditorium of the Biology building.

This is the fourth of a series of lectures by Dr. Robinson on religion and philosophy. The lectures are open to the public, but the discussions which follow are limited to students.

One of the large plate glass windows of the Piper Bros. grocery store, crashed to the street between 11 and 12 last night. The glass measured about 8x10 feet. It is believed that the heavy wind bulged the glass loose from its fastenings.

Mr. Spafford was prominent in university athletics, having been member of the track team and also track captain for one year. He played freshman football. TEAM PRACTICE FOR BIG DEBATES

The debaters will merely present their cases in the prescribed fashion and the audience will be given permission to question the contestants after the close of the debate. The other triangle, however, will be judged.

It is entirely probable that in addition to the foregoing contests that Wisconsin will send a team to the Pacific coast late in the semester, provided that sufficient funds can be raised in the meantime. Should a California trip materialize, the three men who show up best in the regular debates will be selected for the trans-continental jaunt.

With every man on the squad experienced in platform artistry, Wisconsin should make an enviable record in intercollegiate debating this year.

Open Practice Again Today
Another open practice will be held this afternoon, when fans will be given an opportunity to watch the team in their last scrimmage before the Illinois game.

The outcome of the game Saturday night is hard to predict. Wisconsin defeated Illinois here on January 22 by a safe margin. While the Badger offense is not quite as strong as it was at that time, the defense has been considerably strengthened. The game is the most important one remaining on the Wisconsin schedule as it will determine whether or not the Badgers will occupy a leading position in the percentage column at the end of the season.

Twelve companies of the university R. O. T. C. unit have been invited to enter teams of six men each in the inter-company relay. Entries from the companies have been coming in slowly, but Earl Hirsheimer '21 in charge of arrangements for the Relay carnival believes that a sufficient number of companies will enter to insure holding this event.

Special events of the carnival will be a 40-yard high hurdles, 40-yard dash, 45-yard low hurdles, shot put, running high jump, and running broad jump. Bob Wahl '17, a former varsity high jumper who holds the annex record with a leap of 6 ft. 1½ inches, has offered a trophy for the best high jumper in the carnival. The cup is to be awarded to the winner of the event for a period of one year, and will be contested for in each succeeding carnival.

Arlie Mucks, Badger track and football star, has also donated a trophy to the best shot putter in the meet. The Arlie Mucks cup was won by Guy Sundt '22 in the 1920 carnival, with a heave of 39 ft. 11 inches. Mucks holds the annex shot put record with a throw of 49 ft. 4½ inches. Although there is little possibility that this mark will be bettered, Sundt, who has entered the shot put event this year, will find strenuous competition offered by Hans Gude '22, Malcolm Mccartney '21, and Joe J. Liscovec '21, any one of whom may shatter the record.

The list of special events and the men who have entered are:

40-Yard High Hurdles (Annex Record, Mead Burke, 5:2-5)—Knollin, Armstrong, Stolley, Newell, Salentine, Otto, Smith, Stone, Mainland, Daniels, Aderman.

40-Yard Dash (Annex Record, A. R. Tormey, 4:2-5)—Stolley, Knollin, Stone, Eagleberger, Wallis, Armstrong, Sundt, Field, Woods, Otto, Spetz, Salentine, Nehr, Fourness.

40-Yard Low Hurdles (Annex Record, Mead Burke, 6:1-5)—Newell, Stone, Wallis, Stolley, Knollin, Armstrong, Salentine, Otto.

Shot Put (Annex Record, Arlie Mucks, 49 ft. 4½ in.)—Sundt, Gude, Mccartney, Liscovec, Slaughter, Thorsen, Timburg, Johnson.

Winner of this event receives Mucks trophy for coming year.

Running High Jump (Annex Record, Bob Wahl, 6 ft. 1½ in.)—Armstrong, Reget, Platten, Noble, Gibson, R., Gibson, J., Wilson, Salentine, Otto, Koeffler, Farwell, Kinsey.

Winner of this event receives Wahl trophy for coming year.

Running Broad Jump (Annex Record, Carmen Smith, 22 ft. 10 in.)—Sundt, Capen, Reget, May, Salentine, Armstrong, Kinsey, Holbrook.

A change in the distances to be run in the inter-sorority relay demands that the men run a half-mile, two laps, 440-yards, and one mile, respectively.

Tickets for the Fifteenth Annual Relay carnival will be on sale at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon, and

4,000 HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES ENTER COLLEGE ANNUALLY

That almost one-half the graduates of Wisconsin high schools now go on to college, university, or normal school was pointed out by President E. A. Birge, of the University of Wisconsin, recently, while discussing the remarkable progress of higher education in the state during the last decade.

"Every year nearly 4,000 Wisconsin high school graduates go somewhere to college—to the state university, to the smaller colleges of the state, to the normal schools," he said. "The same situation exists throughout the states of the great Northwest territory. The higher educational institutions must count upon admitting each year between one-third and one-half of the annual graduating classes of the high schools of their territories."

President Birge's figures are based upon a study which he has carried on to learn why during the last 10 years, while the population of the state has increased about 12 per cent, the enrollment of the state university has increased about eight times as fast—practically 100 per cent.

"Enrollment in the high schools has more than doubled in these 10 years," he said. "Attendance at the university has doubled. The other colleges in the state have grown just as rapidly."

The index of university and college growth would therefore appear to be in the high schools—not in total population. The University of Wisconsin, doubling in size each decade, increasing 40 per cent since 1916, has grown practically at the same rate as the state high schools. If the slowly increasing population of the state continues to send an ever increasing proportion of its youth to high schools, the state must expect its colleges and universities to grow at a similarly increasing rate.

"Wisconsin high schools enroll at present about 30 per cent of the youth of high school age—between 14 and 18 years. There are roughly 210,000 boys and girls of this age in the state and, of these, about 60,000 are attending high school.

"Between 8,000 and 9,000 young people were graduated from Wisconsin high schools in 1919. The next fall, the freshman classes of Wisconsin colleges, university, and normal schools totalled more than one-half that number—1,700 entered the university, 1,600 the other colleges, 1,400 entered the normal schools, totaling 4,700.

"Practically 17,000 students are enrolled in institutions of higher education in the state this year—7,000 in the university, 6,000 in other colleges, and 4,000 in the normal schools. Census statistics indicate that there are roughly 210,000 persons of college age—between 18 and 22 years old—in the state. Those who are in college constitute therefore more than 8 per cent—an enormous proportion, if you think of it in terms of the past."

"The fact that some Wisconsin students go out of the state to college does not affect the situation greatly for they are largely balanced by non-residents who come in."

Report Wood Slated For Philippine Post

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla.—Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood will be appointed governor general of the Philippines to succeed Frederick Burton Harrison, it was reported. Hardinge's disposition of this post indicates that the defenses of the island outpost will be perfected, that its affairs will be more Americanized, and that there is little likelihood of the realization of the Filipinos' dream of early independence.

the prices for the pasteboards will be 50 and 75 cents. Coupon 15 will be accepted as the equivalent of a 50 cent ticket. Seats will not be reserved, but groups may obtain tickets in blocks by calling the manager of the carnival, Earl Hirsheimer, at University J-279, between the hours of 4:30 and 6 p.m. Tickets reserved in this manner must be called for at the ticket window some time on Friday afternoon, or they will be placed on open sale.

At The Theaters

AT THE STRAND

A delightful drama of love, hate, human emotions, with a slight sprinkling of martial scenes, is "Held by the Enemy," the Paramount picturization of William Gillette's famous play, which is now being shown at the Strand theater.

There is just enough of the Civil War flavor about "Held by the Enemy" to make it thoroughly relishable. The story has to do with Rachel Hayne, a beautiful young southern girl, who is supposedly a widow, who lives with her family in an old manor which is in possession of the Federal troops commanded by Colonel Prescott. That officer loves Rachel and he is about to avow his reciprocated love, when Captain Hayne, the husband, turns up.

Hayne escapes after being sentenced to death and after being wounded is recaptured. After several stirring incidents he commits suicide. Jack Holt as Colonel Prescott gives a finished performance, while the Rachael of Miss Ayres is artistic. The support generally is excellent.

A comedy cartoon and life of the bee will be the added attraction.

THE GRAND

Louise Glaum comes to the Grand today in a J. Parker Read, Jr., production of Louis J. Vance's thrilling story "The Lone Wolf's Daughter," a sequel to "The Lone Wolf" and to "False Faces." The supporting cast, while small, is an unusual one. Edwin Stevens, Thomas Holding and Bertram Grassby are among the leaders in the cast supporting Miss Glaum.

Louis Glaum plays the role of Sonia, a beautiful young Londoner, reared in ignorance of the fact that she is the daughter of Lone Wolf, and now the victim of a scheming band of plunderers because of an ancient feud between their leader and the Lone Wolf. She finds a good friend in Roger Karslake, posing as a secretary, but in reality a Scotland Yard man seeking to trap the bandit chieftan and his followers. The picture abounds in thrills and tense moments. It will be at the Grand for the balance of the week.

DRAMATIC SOCIETIES

Joint meeting of the three dramatic societies, Edwin Booth, Twelfth Night, and Red Domino will be held Thursday night at 7:30 in the parlors of Lathrop hall. Very important. Everybody out.

effect that dismissals from the university were made as a result of Prom indiscretions are totally unfounded. In the matter of small courtesies extended to university guests, the Junior class is especially to be praised.

Gov. J. J. Blaine stated that he enjoyed the dance very much and felt that everything had been done to make the affair a success for all attending. "It was," he said, "the most democratic Prom I have attended during eight years in Madison." He stated that he had interviewed state officials who had given up their offices for Prom boxes, and found no criticism of the conduct of the parties. Rooms were all left in good condition and none of the office furniture was damaged. Superintendent of public buildings, J. Morrissey, corroborated Governor Blaine's opinion, having received no complaints from anyone concerning the condition of their office. Guards and other officials at the capitol in charge of the building on the night of the dance especially praised the behavior of everyone attending Prom.

MANY COURSES CROWD SUMMER U. W. CALENDAR

Term Will Last Six Weeks
From June 27 to
Aug. 26

Summer school bulletins making general preliminary announcements of courses to be offered this year may now be obtained at the office of the Registrar.

Six week session starting June 27 and lasting until August 5, will be the extent of the summer school term. Undergraduates find in summer school the opportunity for making up requirements or broadening their courses by taking work for which they might otherwise not find time. Advanced credit may also thus be obtained.

Courses in the College of Letters and Science are as follows: Art, astronomy, chemistry, classics, economics, education, English, geography, and physiography, German, history, journalism, library training, manual arts, mathematics, meteorology, music, pharmacy, philosophy and psychology, physical education, physics, political science, romance languages, speech and zoology.

Courses in the Medical school include anatomy, bacteriology, clinical medicine, pharmacology, and physiology.

In the college of Engineering is offered: Applied mechanics, chemical engineering, hydraulic engineering, machine design, mechanical drawing, railway engineering, shops, steam and gas engineering, and topographic engineering.

In the College of Agriculture: Agricultural engineering, agronomy, agricultural journalism, animal husbandry, dairying, genetics, home economics, plant pathology, agricultural bacteriology, agricultural chemistry, agricultural economics, and agricultural education.

In the Law school: All first year, second year, and third year courses.

Lake Mendota and Madison's general situation offer unlimited opportunities for recreation in the summer, and the curriculum is so arranged that it is possible to take advantage of all opportunities thus afforded. Classes are conducted from 8 a. m. to 1 p. m., Monday to Friday, leaving the afternoons and evenings free for library, laboratory work, home study, public lectures and recreational activities.

Special opportunities for cultural development are offered students in the way of lectures, demonstrations, round tables, and recitals of which there are from two to five each afternoon. Excursions to Devil's lake, the Dells, and various points of historical interest on Lake Mendota are among the features of the summer school session.

A far greater proportion of graduate work is offered in the summer session than during the semester and the session proves exceedingly attractive to teachers for whose needs special provision is made.

PROF. GILMAN TO ADDRESS "Y" MEET

Prof. S. W. "Steve" Gilman is to address the Fellowship meeting at the university Y this evening on the subject of "University Ideals." This is his annual talk before the meetings, where he has proven a popular drawing card.

The meetings this semester are to be in charge of Frank Weston '21, and it is planned to make them one of the most important events on the weekly program of the Y. Good speakers are to be obtained, and an effort made to keep up the informal character of the meetings by various special programs.

The time of the meetings is now 7:15 to 8:15.

LIT SOCIETIES PLAN MIXER ON SATURDAY

An all university mixer will be held in Lathrop gym Saturday night, Feb. 19. The mixer is being given by a union of all the literary societies and the proceeds derived from the mixer will be divided among the several societies.

EX-SERVICE MEN TO HEAR BLAINE AND PRES. BIRGE

Gun and Blade Plans to Hold Banquet at Park Hotel

Governor John J. Blaine and President Edward A. Birge have consented to address the wounded ex-service men at the Gun and Blade banquet which is to be held in the Park hotel Friday, Feb. 25.

Prominent speakers outside the state have also promised to be present that evening as guests of the Gun and Blade. Charles W. Sylvester, Chicago, the district vocational officer of the district comprising Wisconsin, Illinois, and Michigan, will address the club and its guests on points relative to the re-habilitation and vocational education of wounded service men. Federal board students will welcome an opportunity to hear Mr. Sylvester as he has general supervision and charge of all federal board students in the district. His message to the men will be especially vital for it will give an indication of the great scope and intensive nature of the work he is directing.

Captain Adams of the Fort Sheridan Association of Illinois will also address the club. Captain Adams is already well known to many of the wounded service men as well as to men who were in training camp at Fort Sheridan. To the latter men, especially, will Captain Adams address his appeal. He comes with a special message to them and it is hoped that all men who were in training camp at Sheridan will be present at the banquet.

Arrangements have been made to seat 300 if necessary and an excellent menu is being prepared. All federal board students and Fort Sheridan training camp men are invited to attend the banquet, hear the speakers of the evening, and to attend the theater party, afterward. A block of seats has been engaged at the Orpheum for the second show and it is quite important to know definitely how many men will be able to attend, so that the right number of seats be secured. Tickets may be obtained at Mr. Tiege's office, first floor, Union building. Tickets include banquet, program and the Orpheum party, and will be sold at cost.

The club has been to considerable pains to secure such prominent men as Governor Blaine, President Birge, Mr. Sylvester, and Captain Adams, and it is felt that all wounded service men and Fort Sheridan training camp men will welcome the opportunity to hear them. There will be further announcements in the Cardinal as to the hour of the banquet and the other features.

UNIVERSITY "Y" SENDS MEN ON A SPEAKING TOUR

Frank "Red" Weston '21, Ross Rogers '21, Willard Kates '21, and Wesley Travers '21 are to be speakers on a three-day program for students of the Milwaukee School of Engineering and of Marquette university being given at the Grand avenue M. E. church, Milwaukee, this week. They are to address student meetings Friday and Saturday, and are also to speak before Junior Boys' groups. All four are to speak at a Father and Son dinner on various features of student life.

The trip is being made as a result of the work of the Deputation committee of the university Y, which has received invitations from a number of churches and civic organizations throughout the state for university students to visit them and give a series of talks. A trip was made to Waupun early in the fall, and last week a deputation visited Baraboo, where they spoke before several organizations. Other visits are planned by the committee, which aims to get out-of-town committees in contact with representative students of the university.
