Dear Charles and Iria:

Thanks so much for your wonderful hospitality. The music was great--especially that tune learned amidst the marsh hay. And the food was even better: we're still struggling to work off the pounds we accumulated. It was a delight, too, to walk around the farm see the log buildings, old tools, the savasauna, and the aita. We only regret not making your place our first stop.

Now we're back in Ashland organizing our tapes and notes from the week long trip. The only trouble with venturing into the U.P. is that the territory is so interesting it requires days of paperwork to fully describe our experiences.

My wife and I will be in Michigan this coming weekend (April 4-5). We would like to stop by on Sunday to visit and pay you the money I owe you. Thanks alot for trusting me with your accordion. See you soon.

Sincerely,

Matthew Gallmann
