

LIBRARIES

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Civil War-era band in "Current Opinion".

[s.l.]: [s.n.], 1900/1920

<https://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/SLR6PUQF6WE7L8Q>

<http://rightsstatements.org/vocab/UND/1.0/>

The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Marching Through Georgia With "Sherman's Bummers"

THEIR name sounds like a joke, but they were not a joke, as the Confederates from Atlanta to the Sea well knew. For the "bummer" was the man who went ahead of Sherman's Army and found food for the men behind. Across railroads, across swamps, across ditches, over every obstacle they went. Sometimes the "bummers" brought turkeys, chickens, smoked meats and sweet potatoes. Many a time what appeared to be a quiet grave in a churchyard yielded a treasure of preserves, choice beverages and jewelry. But these seasons of feasting were followed by weeks of desperate famine.

Their adventures and the little-known detailed story of that magnificent march to the sea are told in photograph after photograph, and in fascinating story in the

40,000 SETS
SOLD
ALREADY

PHOTOGRAPHIC HISTORY OF THE CIVIL WAR

PRICE ABOUT TO GO UP

THOUSANDS and thousands of photographs taken by Mathew Brady and his followers under the eyes of the Secret Service and the Confederate guns in our Civil War. Lost for fifty years. Now at last recovered. A million words of brilliant text history by 50 great men of North and South.

Thousands and thousands of newly discovered photographs, thousands of forgotten dramatic stories, thousands of faces of men looking out of the hurly-burly of the great conflict—half a thousand ships of war, thousands and thousands of dollars of investment, fifty years of sacrifice and endeavor, one thousand one hundred and twenty days of terror and battle, of privation and death—all crammed into the covers of ten tall, superb, luxurious volumes—all yours at much less than the established price if you are prompt.

Cur.Op.
4-13

John
Wanamaker
New York

Your Chance to Save $15

Send Coupon for Sample Pages FREE to-day—for the price of this set soon goes up. The price of the War Book goes up $15 and the Wanamaker Club closes for good. Now—to-day—you can have the whole ten volumes with their thousands and thousands of photographs and their vivid story—all for less than it cost Brady to take one photograph. This is your last chance. Act now or you will be too late. Send the coupon. It costs nothing; brings you a startling story, dramatically illustrated. Before it is too late—send the coupon.

Send me FREE
12 rare and interesting war-time photographs shown in 16
sample pages of the Photographic History of the Civil War. I am interested in your offer to save me $15.
in the purchase of this work,
but am to be under no obligation.

Name.....

Address.....

Occupation.....

JOHN WANAMAKER,

New York