FOOTBALL REVIEW

OF THE WORK OF THE VARIOUS COLLEGE TEAMS.

Saturday's Game With Ripon Presages Future Victories for Wisconsin.

Saturday was the real beginning of the western football season. Although a few games were played the week previous, the season was so early, and the work so crude, that scarcely a line could be drawn on the real prospects of the various western colleges. The past week, however, has been one of hard work on the gridiron and this was evidenced by the improvement both in the condition and the playing of the men.

This year all football is essentially sectional. The schedules of the western colleges lack the national significance which marked the season of '99 as peculiar. Instead of long trips and games with eastern teams, nearly all the western colleges have so arranged their schedules as to best influence their chances for the western championship. This will naturally promote intense rivalry between the various teams and give more interest to the struggle.

The results of Saturday's games were nearly all foregone conclusions. In several cases, however, critics failed most signally in their efforts to pick the scores. Of the leading colleges Chicago and Wisconsin perhaps, put up the best showing. The sturdy eleven from Knox are always a hard proposition and the maroons on Saturday were only able to run up a score of 16. The game demonstrated very forcibly that Chicago has no line bucker like Slaker, or a dodger like Hamill, for, although the Chicago eleven showed a great defense, its offensive work was at times weak and ragged. This must be remedied or the score with Purdue next Saturday may be considerably closer than they wish. Wisconsin, on the other hand, showed a greater amount of back field material than she has had for years. During Saturday's game with Ripon twelve backs were tried any one of whom showed himself fast enough for Varsity company. With her heavy line added to these Wisconsin will prove a formidable foe for all her rivals.

Michigan and Illinois are both showing up well. Michigan's squad although light, is fast, and with an easy schedule, and a coach like Lea, the Blue and Maize will be hard to down. Iowa and Minnesota are looked upon as dark horses and are feared accordingly. In all their games this season they have shown up in exceedingly good style and the teams which are to meet them will do well to be prepared. Northwestern, although defeated by P. S. and Saturday, is expected to put a much stronger team in the field than last year.

Wisconsin 50; Ripon 0.

Wisconsin football enthusiasts are very much encouraged over the strong showing made against Ripon. Not only did the new material show up wonderfully well but the veterans played with more spirit than can be expected so early in the year. Curtis played great ball, at one time blocking a kick, catching the ball in the air and running thirty-five yards for a touchdown. Marshall, who played most of the game at right half did good work, making several good gains. Webster, who was put in at guard in the second half, played brilliantly, getting into every play. His interference helped Peele to make several good runs, the longest being forty-five yards. Schreiber, at fullback hit the line in fine style, beside showing his punts off in much better shape. Jerry Riordan played his old style game and will be a tower of strength to the team this year. It has been decided that he will act as field captain during the coming campaign.

The complete line-up Saturday was as follows:

Wisconsin	Ripon

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

The meeting was opened at 3:30 by singing, led by Mr. Nevius and accompanied by Mr. North on the cornet.

After prayer, Mr. Phelps gave a short address asking that it be distinctly understood the lower three rooms of the Y. M. C. A. building were for all Varsity men. Last year through some misunderstanding, the rooms were regarded as open only to members. He said he wished all men to use the rooms, magazines and papers, to attend the stag affairs, prayer meetings, and Bible classes.

Mr. Phelps then introduced Mr. Colton who addressed himself to the text. "The Temptations and Vices of College Life." He touched upon all the vices from drunkenness to idolatry, the last being summed up in the worship of athletics and scholarships. His closing words were, "Whatsoever a man soweth that will he also reap." If a man gives up his Bible study and prayer for some college organization, the song will go out of his life and doubts and infidelity will creep in. Sow an act and reap a habit. Sow a habit and reap a character. Sow a character and reap a destiny."

Over a hundred men attended the meeting, about half of them being new students.

Observatory Notes.

Wednesday evening will be the first open night at Washburn Observatory. At that time the telescope will be pointed at the moon. The other open night this month will be Oct. 17.

Professor Comstock spent about ten days in the east immediately after commencement attending the astronomy and astrophysical society meetings. His new text book on astronomy for high school and college work is in press at present and will be placed on the market in a few days by Appleton and Co.

—Assistant Librarian William Henry Dudley and Miss Agnes Lura Potter were married at the bride's home in Broadland, S. D., on the twenty-seventh of last June.

REPUBLICAN CLUB

TO FURNISH DEMONSTRATION NEXT WEDNESDAY.

Will Take Active Part in Campaign —Speaker Henderson Here Wednesday Evening.

Saturday evening at 8 in the Assembly Chamber of the Capitol, Chairman J. W. Hicks called the meeting of the University Republican club to order. E. Ray Stevens, candidate for Assemblyman and Geo. P. Miller candidate for state senator were introduced. Mr. Stevens emphasized the importance of the student vote in this campaign. Plans for reaching the students were discussed. It was decided to obtain the names of all students wishing to join the club and expecting to march on Wednesday evening, when Speaker Henderson will deliver an address in the Assembly Chamber. Mr. Buch-holz, Mr. Erickson, and Mr. Lucas were appointed as a committee to take charge of the procession, which will form in front of the gymnasium at 7:15, Wednesday evening. They want every good Republican to come out with horns and torches. The regular campaign cane with flag attached will be carried and can be purchased at the gymnasium. A section of seats, probably the gallery, will be reserved for the marchers.

Emerson Elia, President University Republican Club.

Of course at this early date no fancy marching will be attempted but later a regular well drilled marching club will be organized. It was also decided to organize a campaign quartette. Plans are being prepared for a grand student demonstration such as took place in Minneapolis at Senator Beveridge's recent visit. The meeting then adjourned until Wednesday.

The officers of the club are: President Emerson Elia; vice president, E. B. Cochems; secretary, John Watson; treasurer, W. D. Buckholz. Mr. Watson has not returned to the Varsity and a new secretary will be elected at the next meeting.

The Joint Reception.

Extensive preparations are being made by the social committees of the two Christian associations for the great reception to the men and women of the University next Saturday night. Library Hall will be decorated for the occasion. One of the best orchestras of the city will furnish the music. A list of patrons and patronesses will be announced later. Several special features are being provided. This is the all-University social event of the year and every new student should keep the date open. Old students will need no second invitation.

TEMPORARY CHANGE.

President's Poor Health Necessitates a Rest.

Students will be much surprised to hear that President Adams will retire for an indefinite period to recover his health, which has been delicate the last two years. It is understood that under the advice of his physician, Dr. Adams will travel in the Mediterranean. The Board of Regents have therefore appointed Dean E. A. Birge of the College of Letters and Science, as acting president. The necessary change will cause no inconvenience in the instructional force. Dr. Birge will carry on the work of the presidency in connection with his regular duties as a professor. An allowance of $1,000 has been granted Mr. Birge in addition to his regular salary as dean.

Ex-Senator William F. Vilas has been directed by the board to prepare a statement, part of which appears as follows:

"It is fortunate that Dr. Birge, while accepting the added labor, feels himself able also to continue his customary service in his department so that no additional instructional force will be necessary in it. Financially this arrangement will somewhat diminish the expenditure provided for in the University budget for the current year, and it is confidently believed also that with contribution of extra efforts proffered by the faculty and instructional force in the emergency, the high efficiency of the University will be fully maintained.

Registration of Students.

The registration of students continues to keep ahead of last year and it seems evident that this year will eclipse all previous years in attendance.

During the past week two hundred more students were enrolled than during the corresponding week last year and many have not come yet. Thirty registered today before noon. The upper classmen and those taking post-graduate work are especially slow in returning to their studies.

Registrar Heistand has not yet classified the students as to courses, and will not for some time to come, because many change their work during the first part of the year. A number of students have changed from the engineering courses to the school of commerce. The school of commerce has started out under most favorable conditions and promises to be a most practical and valuable course.

The Men's Reception.

The Men's Reception given by the Y. M. C. A. last Saturday evening was one of the most successful ever given by the association. The rooms were crowded to their fullest capacity, over half of those present being freshmen. Instrumental music was furnished by Mr. Miller during the first part of the evening after which a graphophone entertained the company for an hour or more. Mr. Quigley told, amid a round of applause, how the freshmen won the race at Poughkeepsie. This was the first of a series of "affairs" which the association will give during the year.

—Herbert McNeil, '00, who is a teacher in the Delafield Military academy, visited friends at the University today.

—Frank Marlot, '03, has taken a position in a railroad office at Kansas City, Kan.

Notice to Faculty.

Relying on the interest of the faculty of the University, the management will, according to previous custom, beginning with this evening, deliver a copy of the Cardinal to each professor and officer, taking it for granted that they wish to become subscribers, unless notice is received to the contrary.

Notice to Subscribers.

The following names have been handed in without addresses, to which the paper is to be delivered: H. J. F. Franke, O. J. Marston. The name of another subscriber who paid his subscription at the Co-op fails to appear on the slip. These persons will please send in their address.

Weekly Reports.

Each Monday during the football season the Cardinal will publish a resume of games played the preceding week with comparisons and estimates of the work of the different college elevens.

On Leave of Absence.

The news that President Adams will be granted a year's leave of absence is of interest to all students. While they greatly regret the enforced absence of the head of the institution they rejoice that the doctor's examination has revealed the fact that his health can be restored by this season of rest and travel. The president occupies a prominent place in the student life and the sorrow that has been manifested at his illness shows how deep their interest in his welfare is. To the newly appointed acting president no pledge of support is necessary on the part of the University. The respect in which he is held will insure him pleasant and helpful relations with the students in his new capacity.

Accounts Published.

With this issue of the Cardinal commences the weekly publication of the receipts and expenditures for every football game of the season. This is a move in the right direction as it is no more than due that the students who support the athletic department should be furnished regular and accurate reports of the conduct of its affairs. Students are more apt to keep up an active interest in the Association if they have an opportunity to become more familiar with the methods of management and the statements of its financial condition.

Students in Politics.

The importance to students of an active interest in the political questions of the day can scarcely be overestimated. The old days when no one went to college but clergymen and lawyers are gone and now an ever-increasing proportion of students goes directly into business and active life. To these an intimate knowledge of the questions of the day is invaluable. The student class should properly be the class most interested in the solution of these questions of government since it is from them that the great proportion of leaders and legislators for the future is to be drawn. The present campaign is an interesting and important one in so many respects that every student should take all opportunities of becoming informed on the various phases of these questions that offer themselves. In this connection should be mentioned the visit of Speaker Henderson to this city next Wednesday evening. As the leader in the House of one of the two great parties struggling for supremacy and the wielder of an immense power he should attract the voters and sympathizers of all parties. It is an opportunity that rarely presents itself and should be eagerly taken advantage of.

Dr. Jones Honored.

Dr. Edward D. Jones, assistant professor of economics and commercial geography in the University, has been awarded high honors at the Paris exposition for his exhibits of maps, charts, etc., of the commercial resources of the U. S. Dr. Jones had charge of the department of social economy at the exposition, and received remarkable recognition for his work in economy and geography. A grand prize was also awarded him for the exhibit of one hundred maps and charts illustrating the industries and resources of the United States, which was under his charge. Another was also awarded him for his photographs of industrial establishments in this country. No one else received such recognition. The University is to be congratulated upon the distinction earned by a member of our faculty.

Dr. Jones received a leave of absence last year and spent the year in Europe. Upon his return he received the assistant professorship of economics and commercial geography.
