Dear Helmer:

Matt and I want to thank you again for your hospitality last week. It was a real pleasure spending time with you and having the opportunity to record some of your fine fiddle tunes. We also enjoyed meeting with someone in the morning, as we managed to get a good night's sleep that evening--for a change.

The entire trip went well. Now it's back to the grind of archiving the tapes and doing assorted paperwork. Matt ran off a copy of a tape made by his band which he thought you'd like to hear. We've sent it separately and it should arrive soon.

In the meantime, keep your bow rosined up and we hope it's not too long til our paths cross again.

All the best--
