JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN

PREFACE.

We present to our patrons a new Directory of the City of Janesville, hoping that it will meet with their approval.

A thorough canvass of the city has been made and every effort used to obtain the names of all persons who should be represented in a Directory.

The General Directory shows 3,435 names, an increase of 400 over 1876, and from which an estimate of the number of people living in the City may be made.

The Classified Business Directory is a complete mirror of the business and manufacturing interests. The 'Miscellaneous Department shows the City and County Official Lists, and the various Public Institutions.

To those who have extended to us their aid and patronage, our thanks are due.

CITY OF JANESVILLE.

Janesville, the seat of justice of Rock county, is located on parts of the townships of Harmony, Rock, Janesville and La Prairie. It is pleasantly situated on both sides of Rock river, and was selected for a county seat in 1837.

In 1835, the first white settlement was made by a family named Holmes, and was known as Holmes' Rapids. They erected their cabin on the west side of Rock river opposite the "Big Rock," then a prominent feature in the scenery of the valley, and gave to the crossing the name of "Big Rock ford." In November Thos. Holmes laid out a "town" which he called Rockport, and which is now the fourth ward of Janesville. In 1836, other pioneer settlers came in, locating upon the east side. Among these was Henry Janes, who erected his "tavern" upon the ground now occupied by Lappin's Block, and soon "Janes Ferry" became the favorite crossing place for all the travel between the lake and the Mississippi.

Janesville is situated near the center of the county, in one of the richest and most productive parts of Wisconsin. It is ninety-one miles from Chicago, and seventy-one miles from Milwaukee; with which points it has direct railroad connections, by the Chicago and Northwestern, and Milwaukee and St. Paul Road. Rock River runs through the center of the city, and is easily approached from all directions. It gives a water-power unsurpassed in the state; is healthy, surrounded by a rich and extensive agricultural country, and possesses a beauty of location and scenery irresistably inviting to all lovers of the beautiful.
