NO. 23

FLAG DAY, JUNE 14 TH

On June 14, 1777, Congress resolved "that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, and that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

With the admission of Vermont and Kentucky, the number of stripes and the number of stars were increased to fifteen, and this was the authorized flag until 1818, when the number of stripes was reduced to thirteen, and the plan of adding a star to the union on the admission of each new state was adopted. The star is officially added on the Fourth of July following the admission of the state.

THE FLAG

When Freedom from her mountain height
Unfurled her standard to the air,
She tore the azure robe of night,
And set the stars of glory there.
She mingled with its gorgeous dyes
The milky baldrick of the skies,
And striped its pure celestial white
With streakings of the morning light;
Then, from his mansion in the sun,
She called her eagle bearer down,
And gave into his mighty hand
The symbol of her chosen land.

Flag of the free heart's hope and home!
By angel hands to valor given,
Thy stars have lit the welkin dome,
And all thy hues were born in heaven.
Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us ?

At its regular June meeting of the Board $25 was voted from the advertising fund for the the band, with the understanding that at least four concerts be given in the Edgewater Park.

A PERFECT DAY AND A GOOD TIME

The Picnic Committee certainly picked out a grand day for the picnic. By the number of cars parked along the road, it must have been a record as far as attendance.

Everything went off according to the schedule.

The Bay High School Team won over the Sharon Base Ball Team by a score of 10 to 6.

Eighty players took part in the kitten ball games. Freytag's Team was winner.

The umpires, Ed Zabler and L.A. Hollister got plenty of razzing for their decisions.

Doc Wiswell had to leave the game for a while to get another pair of pants which had too much strain in the rear seam.

Eric Werner forgot to touch home plate after a long run.

Winners of prizes: Auction Bridge Mrs. J.F. Blakely; Contract, Mrs. L. Henyey; Chinese Checkers, Florence Krebs and Florence Mc Kinskey.

Putting, Gerald Ohl; Approach, Louis Boufford, Jr. Boys, Gramley, Kelso and Keiser. Girls: Mildred Rietz.

The Band Program in the Bowl on Vision Hill was a very creditable one and added greatly to the day's pleasure.

which disturb our guests, were discussed and referred to the Police and Ordinance Committee to consult with the attorney.

All who had licenses for last year for the sale of liquors and beer requested renewal of the licenses.

Adjourned to meet on June 22nd to act upon licenses, etc.

WEED NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to each and every person who owns, occupies or controls land in the Village of Williams Bay, County of Walworth, State of Wisconsin, to cut or destroy all Canadian Thistle, Bull Thistle, English Charlock or Wild Mustard, Goatsbeard, Burdock, Creeping Jenny, Field Fodder, Indian Mustard, Oxeye Daisy, Snapdragon, or Butter and Eggs, Perennial Sow Thistle, Quack or Quitch Grass or Wild Carrot on all lands owned, occupied or controlled by you in said village and out to the center of any highway on which such lands may abut, at such time and in such manner as shall effectually prevent them from bearing seed or spreading to adjoining property, as required by section 94.20 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

J.E. Atkins,
Village President.

A SNAKE STORY -- IT CAN HAPPEN IN WILLIAMS BAY.

There was great commotion among the birds in the editor's back yard Wednesday afternoon. Blackbirds, Robins, Bluejays and Catbirds were chattering alarm and flying excitedly among the branches of a tree.

Looking for the cause, first for a cat and then a squirrel, he noticed a yellow snake up in the tree at a robin's nest. It was wrapped around a branch and had a baby robin in its mouth. With a ladder and a long pole it was knocked down and killed by Granville Williams who stood watch below. It had already swallowed one robin.

Quite a bit of excitement was aroused on Elm Street and several came to see it. No one had ever seen a snake like it. It measured 4Ft. 4 in. in length, and had a vicious looking mouth.

The mystery is solved, however, as Lee Clayton identified it as one which had been sent to him last year from the South and had gotten away.

last Spring, a year ago. It had lived here all last Summer and had hibernated all Winter. He says that the common name for it is "Corn Snake".

The neighbors need not be afraid of seeing another as he only had the one. Besides it was harmless and was a real pet.

BELFRY PLAYERS PREPARE FOR BIG SEASON

With the arrival of the two directors for this summer's productions, the Belfry Players are getting plans under way for the biggest season in their history. Mr. Diefenthaler and Mr. Popa, the directors, arrived last week and the first two productions have already been cast and rehearsals started.

The schedule of the players is an interesting one. The community room of the local library has been rented for the summer and while one production is being prepared on the stage of the theatre, the other is being rehearsed in the community room. In this manner, two plays will always be in preparation at the same time.

The first play of the 1939 season promises to be one of the wittiest comedies written in recent years. It is called "PERSONAL APPEARANCE" and concerns a Hollywood movie star and her entourage, who are forced while on a personal appearance tour through Pennsylvania, to stop at a wayside home between Scranton and Wilkes-Barre over night. The ensuing situation brings into play many, many side-splitting situations that kept New York audiences howling for 501 performances, establishing a record run for that season. Lawrence Riley wrote the play and Gladys George, stage and movie star, played the leading role in the original production.

The cast of the Belfry production consists of actors who have made special arrangements to be in Williams Bay for this play. They come from Freeport, Rockford, Chicago, East Chicago, Indiana, and towns near Wms Bay.

"PERSONAL APPEARANCE" will be presented in the Belfry Theatre on June 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25, running Wednesday thru Sunday. A request has been made by the personnel of the group to stress the fact that reservations must be made in advance by mail or phone.
