DRAMATICS TONIGHT

HARESFOOT CLUB WILL PRESENT ITS ANNUAL PLAY.

Large Advance Sale of Seats—Successful Dress Rehearsal—Will Make Tour of the State.

"A Colonial Girl," to be given at the Fuller tonight by the Haresfoot Dramatic club, bids fair to be the most elaborate amateur dramatic performance seen here for a long time. The advance sale of seats was the largest of the year. A full-dress rehearsal was held last night and everything is now ready for tonight's production.

The play is a romantic drama and necessitates a large cast, twenty-four in all, and elaborate scenery and properties. The setting of the mill scene was painted Wednesday by Mr. Howard Tuttle, a scenic artist of Milwaukee. The costumes have been especially imported from Philadelphia and are expected to be fully up to the professional standard. For the last few days the bill-boards of the city have been decorated with the regular posters used in the professional presentation of the play. Tomorrow and Monday and Tuesday evenings the play will be given in Oshkosh and Green Bay.

The dramatic talent comprised in the cast is perhaps the best aggregate ever gotten together in the university.

Miss Laura Case.

Following is the complete cast: Godfrey Remsen, a young American Walton Pyre
Jack Osborne, also an American, his friend Edward Jenner
Sir Henry Danvers, English official

—There will be no football game this year between Northwestern and Wisconsin. This was definitely decided last night by the purple's athletic committee. It was a question whether Michigan or Wisconsin should be taken on the schedule and the selection of the Wolverines lessened the chances for a game with the Badgers. Manager King offered Nov. 2 as a second date however, but this was considered as being too close to the Chicago contest especially as Northwestern has two hard contests the preceding weeks.

Harry J. Masters, Assistant University Editor, $20.
Ralph S. Gromann, Athletic Editor, $15.

THE JUNIOR PROM.

List of Patronesses for That Social Event.

Preparations for the Prom. are going on actively and the attendance promises to be unusually large. Dancing will begin after the concert which lasts from 8 to 9. The Prom committee requests that the ladies do not carry flowers, as falling petals soon give the floor an untidy appearance.

The tickets are printed on dark green, red, light green and brown cardboard corresponding respectively to the tenth, twelfth, fourteenth and sixteenth supper dances.

The patronesse will be:
Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Pabst, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Murphy, Governor and Mrs. La Follette, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Stevens, Judge and Mrs. Bardeen, Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, Dr. and Mrs. Keenan, Professor and Mrs. Scott.

The reception committee consists of the following:

Dean and Mrs. Birge, Dean and Mrs. Johnson and Miss Mayhew.

Prom Number of Sphinx.

The Prom number of the Sphinx will be out either tomorrow afternoon or Monday morning. The cover-design, center-page drawing and literary matter are all along the line of prom celebrations. The prizes have not yet been awarded, the time having been extended.

Post-Exam. Jubilee.

Saturday evening at 8 p. m. the University Christian Associations will hold the annual Post-Exam Jubilation in Library Hall. This event has been well called the "Jolly Eight O'clock." Every effort is being exerted to make it the most enjoyable informal gathering of the year.

All students and members of the faculty are cordially invited.

—The battleship "Wisconsin" went into commission last Tuesday.

NO CARDINAL UNTIL TUESDAY.

The Cardinal will resume regular publication next Tuesday.

Haresfoot Tonight.

The advance sale of seats for "A Colonial Girl" has reached a very high amount and the play is sure to be not only a financial success but from a histrionic point of view the most elaborate and finished amateur production of years. The club has spent an immense amount of time and effort upon the perfection of the piece and it will more than repay the attendance of every one. The surprising development of Varsity dramatics in the last few years is a source of gratification to all University people and ought to have every support.

The Cardinal along with its readers heaves a long sigh of relief because it has emerged unscathed from the mix-up of exam week, takes a look around, finds things running in accordance with the preordained fitness of things, and retires again until next Tuesday.
