DOCTOR ELY IS ALL RIGHT

THE REGENTS HAVE EXONERATED HIM.

WELLS IS SEVERELY CENSURED.

Report of the Investigating Committee Presented—Resolutions Passed.

The board of regents held its regular quarterly meeting yesterday afternoon. All the members were present except State Superintendent Wells and Dr. Dale, who was detained at his home. The usual routine business was disposed of and then the committee appointed to investigate the teachings of Prof. Ely presented the following report:

"To the Honorable, The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin: Your committee appointed to investigate the charges made by Superintendent Wells against Dr. Richard T. Ely in his letter published in The Nation on the 12th of July, 1894, and re-published in the New York Evening Post on the 16th of July of the same year, report as follows:

"We find that Dr. Ely did not at his own house or elsewhere either entertain or consult with a walking delegate who came from Kansas City somewhat more than a year ago to counsel and assist the Democrat Printing company strikers and he neither directly nor indirectly advised, aided, nor abetted this strike. The other strike referred to in the letter of Superintendent Wells is one which occurred in the printing office of Tracy, Gibbs & Co. of this city. Dr. Ely neither directly nor indirectly advised, aided nor abetted this strike; he did not demand of the proprietors of the establishment that their office should be made a union office nor did he threaten to take his printing away from this office if it were not made a union office. This company continued to do his printing as long as he was the secretary of the association for which it was done. Dr. Ely did not assert in conversation with one of the proprietors of this office that 'where a skilled workman was needed a dirty, dissipated, unmarried, unreliable and unskilled tramp, if a union man, should be employed in preference to an industrious, skillful, trustworthy, non-union man who is the head of a family; neither did he state that the latter would have no ground of complaint as he could easily remove the objection to him by joining the union; nor that 'conscientious scruples against joining the union would prove the individual to be a crank.'

"We further find that there is no foundation in fact for the charge that 'Professor Ely, director of the school of economics, believes in strikes and boycotts, justifying and encouraging the one while practicing the other,' or the charge that 'he is an individual who can say to citizens and taxpayers stand and deliver or down goes your business,' and to laboring men 'join the union or starve with your families;' or the charge that 'Professor Ely, director of the school of economics, differs from Ely the socialist, only in the adroit and covert method of his advocacy,' or the charge that 'a careful reading of his books will discover essentially the same principles but masked by glittering generalities and mystical and metaphysical statements susceptible of various interpretations according as a too literal interpretation might seem for the time likely to work discomfort or loss to the writer,' or the charge that 'his books are studiously indefinite or ambiguous,' or that 'they abound in sanctimonious or pious cant' or 'pander to the prohibitionist' or 'ostentatiously sympathize with all who are in distress,' or that 'the careful student will discover their utopian or pernicious doctrines' or that 'their general acceptance would furnish a seeming moral justification or any justification for attacks upon life or property.'

"And finally we find that the charge that 'a sort of moral justification for attacks upon life and property is supported by the teaching or the practice of the University of Wisconsin' is absolutely false. The university is supported by the law; it teaches and practices submission to the law. All of its teachings and all of its practices are hostile to anarchy, disorder and violations of the law. The spirit of its teaching and practice is well illustrated in the baccalaureate address delivered by President Charles Kendall Adams at its last commencement.

"In his sweeping charge against the teachings and practices of the university Superintendent Wells may have had reference only to the teachings and practices of Dr. Ely, but his language in the letter published certainly appears to give them a much wider significance. We have been unable to find any teaching or practice of Dr. Ely justifying attacks upon life or property, but we do find that he has repeatedly and in the strongest language admonished against both. Neither do we find any such teachings or practices on the part of any of the members of the faculty.

"The University of Wisconsin is fortunate in having more than one professor who stands high in his chosen field of study, and several who have written and published works of great recognized ability. We were surprised to find that during the last eighteen months nearly two hundred books, pamphlets and magazine articles have been written and published by our professors, lecturers and students, among the subjects treated are Magnetism, Botany, Housekeeping and Cooking, the Law of Wills, Cheesemaking, Astronomy, Sheep-farming, Geology, Economics, Socialism, Repudiation of State Debts, The Independent Treasury System of the United States, Social Reform in New Zealand, Apple Scab and Mildew, Noxious Weeds, Vegetable Pathology, The Old Comedy of Rome, Roman Mythology, Electro-Magnetism and the Construction of Dynamos, Hypnotism and Marvels, Silo Construction, Bacteriology, Dirt in the Dairy, Money and Credit, Education and the Social Aspects of Pauperism and Crime. Without doubt some things may have been written not only on social economics, but also on history, hypnotism, geology, psychology, education and law, with which

FRESHMEN TRY TO DRILL

BUT THE SOPHS ATTACK THE LINE.

AND THE FRESHIES ARE PUT TO FLIGHT.

Plenty of Innocent Fun—A Crowd Out to See the Sport.

About 250 freshmen assembled for the first drill of the season in front of the gymnasium yesterday afternoon. The line was formed at the foot of lower campus by Lieut. Chynoweth and the non-commissioned officers. The ranks presented a rather novel appearance, as the recruits persisted in covering the intervals between the front rank men instead of the men themselves.

The crowd of spectators, consisting principally of '97 men, was very large and as the recruits were falling in they were greeted with encouraging cheers and the voluminous sophomore yell. The work of counting and taking down names had scarcely begun, when a rush was made from the rear upon the center of the line, which was so demoralizing that many recruits asked permission to return home. The greater portion of the freshmen, however, stood their ground well until a stream of water was brought to play upon them from the barn just in rear of the line.

The names having been registered no further drill was attempted for the day on account of the exposed position of the men. As soon as this became evident the war between the freshmen and sophomores was taken up in earnest and the campus was covered with contending parties until after 6 o'clock. The fun was all good-natured and few bruises resulted.

The drill will be continued on Thursday, when the regular work will commence. The relation of the officers to the men will be somewhat different this year than heretofore. Each officer has a certain squad assigned him permanently, and will be held responsible for their condition and progress.

DEPARTMENT OF HEBREW

Prof. Williams of the Department of Hebrew and Hellenistic Greek is again in personal supervision of his work and is much improved in health.

The department is very large this year, about 60 being enrolled in the various courses. This is the largest number of students attending a department of this kind of any college in the country.

WASHBURN OBSERVATORY

This evening, it being the third Wednesday in the month, the Washburn observatory will be open from 7:30 to 9:30 to all students who wish to use the telescope. Early in the evening some of the fixed stars will be viewed, but later the glass will be turned on Mars or the moon. This will be a good opportunity for new students to delve into astronomy.

DEGREES CONFERRED.

At the evening session the board voted to confer the degree of LL. D. on ex-Senator J. C. Spooner, of Madison, Bishop Fallows and J. L. High, both of Chicago.

Samuel Fallows, a bishop of the Reformed Episcopal church, was born in England December 13, 1835. He removed with his parents to America in '48 and came to Wisconsin. After graduating from the U. W. in '59 he held many positions of honor as an educator and preacher. He was vice president of Gainesville University till 61, when the union claimed him as one of its supporters. After serving his country faithfully during the war and attaining the rank of brigadier general, he became a regent of the U. W. for 10 years and state superintendent of public instruction during the same period for 6 years.

In '74, he was elected president of the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, but after a year here he united with the Reformed Episcopal church and became rector of St. Paul's, Chicago. During the year '76 he edited the Appeal (the organ of his church), and in the same year was elected a bishop.

Bishop Fallows has received the degree of D. D. from Lawrence University and is the author of several books. During recent years he has been a prominent lecturer on timely topics.

J. C. Spooner was born in Lawrenceburg, Ind., Jan. 6, '43. His father, Philip Spooner, who was a judge, removed to Madison in June, 1859. Here Spooner, Jr., attended the state university and graduated in 1864, when he entered the army and served for a short interval, until '66. He then entered the law office of his father and after being admitted to the bar his rise was rapid. He was successively private secretary to Gov. Fairchild, assistant state attorney, member of the assembly and a regent of the university of which he graduated.

In '85 he was elected to the United States senate and served one term. He was considered one of the ablest men in congress. He is at present practicing law in this city.

THE COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

The college of pharmacy has opened this year with a larger number of students than ever before. The tendency at present seems to be towards the longer courses, as the enrollment in the second course is very small.

The rooms in South hall which the department will occupy are rapidly approaching completion and will present a very pleasant appearance when finished. The laboratory in practical pharmacy will be situated in the lower part of the building and is to be very complete in its appointments. The instructor in this branch of the work, Mr. Richard Fischer, is expected to arrive today. Work in pharmacognosy will begin next Saturday, when Mr. Vivien makes an excursion with the class.

—Mr. Edgar Patterson, law '94, has left for Milwaukee where he will open a law office.

—There are more than four hundred students taking German at the university.

The report of the investigating committee although expected yet is none the less gratifying to the friends of Prof. Ely and the university. Yet it is to be regretted that such an investigation should have been rendered necessary by the action of the state superintendent. If the charges had been made directly to the board the matter could have been cleared up in a much pleasanter manner. Although the position of the professor has been much strengthened by the committee it has been in such a way as to be extremely distasteful to him and the university. Charges made indiscriminately frequently go farther and are more widely believed than the refutation of these same charges.

The Madison high school is making a great effort to place a fine football team in the field and in this, as in all other departments of athletics, they should be encouraged by the students. A little help will do a great deal now while the players are young and inexperienced, and when they enter the university, as most of them will, they will be good football players and be ready to start on to the team if their individual excellence warrants it. The same can be said of all departments of athletics. Many of the universities are beginning to recognize this, and interscholastic field meets and tennis tournaments, held under the auspices of the universities, are becoming quite common in the east. The athletic association might well do something officially in some such way for the aid of the high school athletes.

At the evening session the regents one of the rooms in the gymnasium has been set apart as the trophy room of the university. The university has won a number of pennants in the various departments of athletics, and these should be collected at once and arranged in the trophy room. An effort should be made to find any of these pennants which may be missing. The record board which has disappeared from the university hall for over a year should be found, the records revised and the board placed in the trophy room. The one thing in which the room should be complete is the photographs of the teams. For some years all of the athletic teams have had photographs taken and copies of these can probably be obtained from the photographers of the city. When such a collection is started it will be a comparatively easy matter to keep it up to date as all of the teams will be glad to furnish one of their photographs for the trophy room. The directors of the Athletic association should appoint a standing committee as soon as possible to look after the room and see that it is kept up.

The result of the recent investigation of Dr. Ely's teachings is most gratifying to the friends of the university and of free thought and free speech everywhere. Startled as it was at the first announcement of Superintendent Wells' charges, the public was hardly ready to believe them true at any time and it was only the position of the accuser that gave any strength at all to them. We are glad to feel there is some power to check the blunderings of an irresponsible state superintendent and that our regents have shown by their resolutions their disgust at the actions of the present holder of that office. There is one thing in this connection with which we as students can console ourselves and that is the fact that there is no possibility of Superintendent Wells holding his office for another term, he having been "turned down" by his own party at its recent convention. By this action the university is freed from one whose actions have ever been anything but friendly and the state from an official who has never been an exceptionally able public servant.

It would have been a queer state of affairs indeed if in one of the broadest and most liberal institutions of learning in America a professor should have lost his place for his liberal teaching. Dr. Ely is a man whom we cannot spare and whom any institution would be proud to own as a professor and, as a prominent eastern educator said during the recent investigation "if Wisconsin don't want him there are many other colleges and universities in the country that will be glad to get him." But Wisconsin does want him and means to keep him. We are glad to count as a member of our faculty a man of whom President E. Benjamin Andrews of Brown University said: "Although I do not agree with him in all his teachings, at the same time I consider him today with the possible exception of Francis A. Walker, the foremost teacher of political economy in America."

many good people could not agree. We cannot, however, be unmindful of the fact that many of the universally accepted principles of today were but a short time ago denounced as visionary, impracticable and pernicious. As regents of a university with over one hundred instructors supported by nearly two millions of people who hold a vast diversity of views regarding the great questions which at present agitate the human mind, we could not for a moment think of recommending the dismissal or even the criticism of a teacher even if some of his opinions should, in some quarters, be regarded as visionary. Such a course would be equivalent to saying that no professor should teach anything which is not accepted by everybody as true. This would cut our curriculum down to very small proportions. We cannot for a moment believe that knowledge has reached its final goal, or that the present condition of society is perfect. We must therefore welcome from our teachers such discussions as shall suggest the means and prepare the way by which knowledge may be extended, present evils be removed and others prevented. We feel that we would be unworthy the position we hold if we did not believe in progress in all departments of knowledge. In all lines of academic investigation it is of the utmost importance that the investigator should be absolutely free to follow the indications of truth wherever they may lead. Whatever may be the limitations which trammel inquiry elsewhere we believe the great state University of Wisconsin should ever encourage that continual and fearless sifting and winnowing by which alone the truth can be found.

"We submit herewith a full report of our investigation and would especially call your attention to the letters of Presidents Adams and Andrews and of Carroll D. Wright, Albert Shaw and Albion W. Small; also the letters and testimony of former pupils of Dr. Ely, whose views of Dr. Ely's writings and teachings are the opposite of those of Superintendent Wells.

"We regret that our appointment for such an investigation should have been considered necessary but we would state that we entered upon it with the sole desire to ascertain the truth in regard to the charges preferred. We are pleased to say that the result is a complete vindication of Dr. Ely and the teachings and practices of our university.

(Signed)

"H. W. Chynoweth,
"John Johnston,
"H. B. Dale."

"University of Wisconsin, Sept. 18, 1894."

THE BOARD ALSO ACTS.

The board at once adopted the following:

"Resolved, That the report and conclusions of the committee appointed to investigate the charges of Superintendent Wells against Dr. Ely be, and they are hereby, adopted.

"And it is further resolved, That this board disapproves of the course adopted by Superintendent Wells in publishing his attack upon Dr. Ely of the university in the New York papers instead of submitting his charges or criticism, if any, in proper form to the president of the university, or to this board. No member of this or any similar board of control of an educational institution ought to prefer charges against the managing body or its faculty, or any member of it, in the public press in the first instance. Redress should first be sought within the board itself by submitting the matter for investigation and action by the board."

—The Badger board meets this evening at Ladies' hall.

MINNESOTA FOOTBALL.

Minnesota is feeling very jubilant and very enthusiastic over football. Their old manager, J. E. O'Brien, law '95, is to have charge again, and E. P. Harding, '94, will be captain. Harding has played on the team ever since it was organized. Muir, Dalrymple, Chas. Adams, Southworth, Van Campen, and Cutter will all be back on the eleven. Muir is to take Madigan's place in the center and Van Campen will play quarter behind him. Adams and Southworth are to be halves and Cutter will be full-back. Russell Fowell, a former student there, may try for full and Matthews, one of last year's subs, stands some chance for quarter. Billy Walker of baseball fame will train for tackle. Francis, ex-U. W., will play in the right line and Slusser is to work for end.

Although the gymnasium was burned there seems to be no dismay on the part of last year's champions in their effort to maintain their national reputation as champions of the West. A match with the great eastern teams is part of Minnesota's program this year.

THE ARCHON.

The second number of the Archon appeared yesterday. From it we would judge that football and hazing have gained as large a place in the high school as in most universities. Apparently the school will turn out an excellent team this year.

THE ENGLISH DRAMA.

Synoptical Lectures by Prof. Hubbard.

A course of synoptical lectures on the early history of the English drama will be given by Prof. Hubbard Thursdays at 4 o'clock in room 42, Science hall, beginning Thursday, Sept. 20. The course on Shakespeare previously announced will not be given.

BAPTIST RECEPTION.

A large number of students and young people of the city attended the reception at the Baptist church last evening under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. No formal program was presented but the singing of college songs was participated in at different times during the evening. Refreshments were served.

NEW MUSIC.

Among the new pieces of music recently published by Lyon & Healy, Chicago, are the following:

Songs of the Fairies (piano)—Harold Leston.

O, Happy Day (Mandolin and Piano)—C. Gotze.

Spanish National Dance (Mandolin and Piano)—D. Tipoldi.

Les Sylphes (Mandolin and Guitar)—Backman.

Stephanie Gavotte (Mandolin and Piano)—Czibulka.

Song of the Night-winds (Piano)—J. Leybach.

She Was Young and I Was Old (Ballad)—Felix McGlennon.

Serenade Orientale (Piano Duet)—Van Gael.

Manager Myers has secured Thomas Cochran, Jr., Yale '94, to lecture on foot ball Thursday, Oct. 4, in library hall. Mr. Cochran will give a history of the fascinating game. During the afternoon Mr. Cochran will demonstrate his practical knowledge of the game by coaching the U. W. team.
