The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Dear Bonnie and Gail:
Frightfully hot & humid - won't!
Maybe you can scout away for a little vacation?

Not feeling well - I do nothing but stay put in a chair or take naps.

I saw the Fayette Golygon - Irene hour of about two weeks ago - ~~Oh~~ What sensitivity,
nothing more so anywhere!

I'll perk up after cooler weather comes. Reading Fr. Enlightenment - Diderot, Rousseau, some too of von Humboldt. I did so want

Viderot's Letters to Sophia Volland
 but runs into several volumes
 and around a hundred dollars.
 Rousseau sure is a rogue if Juvet saw one, still. He is Rousseau.

I guess you saw LN in May 31st
 Sun. Milwaukee Journal? Back page.
 I have an extra if you'd like one sometime. We must get together as soon as it cools.
 I need a brisk breeze from the northwest. Hope you're all O.K.
 Louise
