Media Information

● Media Credentials

UW Women's Basketball credential requests should be made in writing and in advance through Tam Flarup at the Women's Sports Information Office, (608) 263-5502. Game-day credentials for the Kohl Center will be left at the parking attendant at Lot 91 east of the Kohl Center or at the table at the media entrance off Frances Street.

● Parking

Parking for media during Wisconsin basketball is reserved on a limited basis near the Kohl Center. Special arrangements must be made in advance. Please contact the Sports Information Office for parking credentials at least one week in advance of the event.

● Media Services

Working facilities for all media are located courtside at the Kohl Center. Electrical outlets are available at every seat. Telephone lines must be installed in advance of the game by calling Rex Owens at the Kohl Center, 608-265-4705. Event programs, media guides, event notes and computerized statistics will be available in the interview/work room adjacent to the main floor at the Kohl Center. The credentialed media entrance is on the Frances Street (East) side of the Kohl Center adjacent to the media parking area. The media entrance is open two hours before tip-off.

● Photographers

Photographers may work from either end of the Kohl Center court in the section designated for photographers. Photographers may not work from in front of team and scoring benches, or in front of media row. Contact Rex Owens at the Kohl Center, 608-265-4705, to arrange for the rental of strobe lights.

● Post-event Interviews

All post-event interviews will be conducted in the media interview room located adjacent to the Kohl Center main court. The large interview area contains recording couplers for hookup to the house sound system for TV and reporters. The visiting

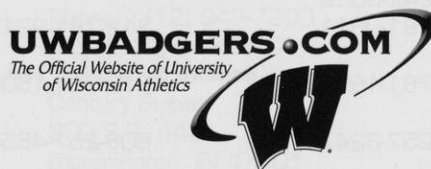

The University of Wisconsin benefits from its ties as a major institution in a top athletic conference, and from being the capital city. All three television network carriers are located in Madison as well as two daily newspapers, and two UW student papers. In addition, the Milwaukee daily paper and numerous area radio stations regularly cover Wisconsin sports.

coach and players will be interviewed approximately 10 minutes following the completion of the event. The Wisconsin coaches and players will follow immediately. All requests for interviews should be directed to the sports information personnel prior to the completion of the event.

● Practice and Interviews

The UW women's basketball practice is open to media and the public. Interviews are generally conducted after practice on Tuesdays or Wednesdays. Media must contact Tam Flarup at 608-263-5502 at least one day in advance to arrange player or coach interviews.

Jane Albright appears every Monday at the UW news conference at 1 p.m. in the Kohl Center. This season weekly Big Ten teleconferences with all 11 coaches will be held every Tues., 9-11 a.m. CST, beginning Jan. 2 through the Big Ten Tournament.

● UW Information Retrieval

ON THE WEB AT UWBADGERS.COM

The Wisconsin women's basketball news releases, statistics, box scores and post game story and quotes will be posted same day on the official UW athletics web pages. Athlete and coaching bios, photographs, daily news updates, weekly news conference recordings and the national attendance survey conducted by Wisconsin will also be available.

The University of Wisconsin Athletic Department operates an FTP site to download all athlete, coach and staff portrait photos. As this site is not available to the general public, please contact the Sports Information office for access information.

FAX-ON-DEMAND

Call the Info Connection System at 770-563-1131 (you will need your own pin code). From your fax machine, enter the passcode and select the information you wish to retrieve, then push the start button of your fax machine. You may also have any UW women's basketball information automatically emailed or faxed to you by signing up at the media logon teamlink connection in the righthand column at UWBADGERS.COM.

● Television Broadcasts

Many UW games will be available regionally and nationally on television this season. BadgerBall will appear nationally on ESPN 2 at Texas Tech

Feb. 17, and will make two appearances as part of the Big Ten television package on Fox Sports Chicago. In addition, Fox Sports Midwest, Wisconsin Public Television and local cable channel TVW will broadcast games locally and statewide.

Wisconsin Public Television is entering its 10th year of broadcasting

Badger Women's Basketball on its statewide network.

The WPT announce team features veteran announcer Ken Syke, and former UW assistant coach, Dawn Crim. Syke has been calling play-by-play on television for more than two decades at the high school and collegiate level.

Crim, a former player at Virginia, called women's hoops for Penn State as a graduate assistant there. She has a unique insight on BadgerBall drawn from her four years with the UW team.

The Badgers have made several national broadcast appearances making their national network debut in 1998 in a thriller on CBS while beating Georgia in overtime. Wisconsin has also appeared on ESPN and ESPN2 numerous times.

● Badger Radio Broadcasts

For the sixth straight year, nearly all of the home and away UW women's basketball games will be broadcast by WIBA Radio 1310 AM or WTSO 1070 AM and Learfield Communications.

Many games are available via the internet by logging into www.broadcast.com available at UWBADGERS.COM.

The radio voice of BadgerBall belongs to Brian Posick, sports director at WIBA and WTSO and morning sports anchor for WIBA and ESPN Radio 1070.

A communications graduate of UW-Stevens Point in 1989, Posick became the play-by-play announcer for the national champion Pointer hockey team. He arrived in Madison in 1991, and lobbied the station to catch up with the public's enthusiasm for BadgerBall. He begins his sixth full season as the "Voice of BadgerBall" for both home and away games.

Sports Information

In a new role as Web Site Services Director, Tam Flarup celebrates her silver anniversary this year with the UW Athletic Department. The longtime director of women's sports information for 24 years, Flarup's primary duties are now to manage the overall content of Wisconsin's official web site for all athletics areas. She is also responsible for local, regional and national media support for Wisconsin women's basketball and men's and women's golf programs.

Flarup is a 25-year veteran in the sports information field and has been a member of the NCAA Communications Committee working every NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four since 1995. 2000-2001 BadgerBall Review

No. 24 Wisconsin completed its year with an 18-10 record after an NCAA first-round loss to Missouri, 68-71, at the subregional in Athens, GA. It was the sixth-best record in school history. The 10th-seeded Tigers went on to upset second seed and host Georgia, 78-65, to earn a berth in the Sweet 16.

Participants in the WNIT the previous two years, it was Wisconsin's fourth trip to the 'Big Dance' under Coach Jane Albright, and the first trip since 1998. The Badgers also were NCAA invitees in 1992, 1995, and 1996.

Although disappointed by the premature NCAA exit, Wisconsin did establish several program bests during 2001. UW completed the Big Ten regular season with its best conference finish since 1984, tying Iowa for second place with a 12-4 (.750) record. The conference mark tied the 1996 squad for best conference record. Second place was the best Big Ten finish in 17 years since the 1984 team was second with a 13-5 record (.722) when the conference played an 18-game round robin schedule.

Prior to its one-and-done finish in the the Big Ten and NCAA tournaments, Wisconsin had won 10 of its last 12 games with the only losses on the road and both in overtime to then-No. 6 Purdue and Indiana.

● Badger Milestones

• WINNINGEST COACH: With the win over Northwestern Feb. 11, Jane Albright became Wisconsin's winningest women's basketball coach surpassing the record for most wins held by Edwina Qualls, 1976-86 (131-141, .482). Albright already owned Wisconsin's winningest Big Ten mark at 69-43 (.616) with 48 percent of UW's 144-184 Big Ten wins coming in her seven-year tenure.

• ALL-TIME GAMES RECORD: Senior LaTonya Sims became the school record holder for most games and most consecutive games played with 124 (surpassing 122 by Dee Dee Pate, 1996-00). She also set the UW record for most double-figure games scoring with double points in 105 career games. She was just the sixth UW athlete to score 1,500 points, and finished her career fourth in scoring with 1,857 points.

• WINNING SENIORS: The four-person senior class tied the 1998 seniors for most wins in program history with 78, and finished third in winning percentage at 78-46 for .629 percent. The 1998 squad finished its four-year tour with a 78-38 record for a .672 winning percent. Wisconsin's seniors included Sims, Judy Ebeling, Krista Bird and Rachel Klongland.

• RECORD FIELD GOAL PERCENTAGE:

UW set a school record for field goal shooting hitting .486 percent on the year. The mark ranked first in the Big Ten and among the top 10 nationally. The old school record was .466 set in 1993-94.

• POLLS: The Badgers spent 14 weeks in the polls this year, the second-longest stretch in UW history, and finished the year at 24th in the AP poll.

● Accomplishments

• 1,000 POINTS: Two Badgers scored their 1,000th career points with junior guard Tamara Moore becoming the 17th Badger (and ninth fastest) to score her 1,000th career point in her 80th career game. Junior 6-3 forward Jessie Stomski became the 16th Badger and the sixth fastest player to earn the honor in her 71st career game.

• TREYS: Kyle Black was Wisconsin's sharpshooter and completed the season with the second-best three-point percentage in school history. She tied her own school record hitting 4-of-4 vs. Michigan and hit 5-of-7 three-point goals enroute to a career-high 23 points vs. Green Bay. Black, who ranked first in the Big Ten hitting .406 from beyond the arc, was responsible for 54 of UW's 119 treys. She hit at least one three-point goal in every game but one (Feb. 11).

• DOUBLES & DOUBLES: All five starters scored in double figures in five games this season. Junior Jessie Stomski led UW at 16.2 points per game which ranked fourth in the conference. Stomski ranked second in the Big Ten in rebounding with 8.1 per game. Both were career bests. She led the Big Ten in double-doubles with 11 and has 24 in her career.

• FIELD GOAL PERCENTAGE

DEFENSE: UW was second in Big Ten field goal defense allowing opponents to shoot just .401. UW held the opponent to 40 percent or less in 16 games. The 10-point halftime total by NU, and the 12 points at the half by MSU were the first and second lowest opponent totals at the half under Jane Albright (since 1994).

Senior guard Tamara Moore led the Big Ten in steals last season with 3.6 per game, and was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year by both the coaches and media.

• STEALS: Junior guard Tamara Moore ranked first in the conference and 15th in the nation in steals per game with 3.57; she is fourth in UW career steals with 263 and set the UW freshman record with 80. She is on pace to break both the UW (327 by Keisha Anderson) and Big Ten (372 by Stacey Thomas of Michigan) all-time steals records by the end of her career.

• HOME RECORD: The Kohl Center is a welcome place for the Badgers to play with a 42-11 record (.792 percent) since opening in January of 1998.

Wisconsin was 11-3 last season in the Kohl Center. The seven-year Badger record at home under Coach Jane Albright is more ominous for opponents having won 82 percent (78-17) of the games since 1994-95 at both the UW Field House and the Kohl Center.

• ROAD RECORD:

UW was 7-7 on the road this season and was 5-3 in conference road play for the best road record since going 5-3 in 1995-96 (overall was 11-6 for .647). The best-ever Badger road record of 10-4 (.714) was set in 1981-82 (UW finished 19-8 overall).

Jessie Stomski was the 16th Badger to earn her 1,000th-career point, and Tamara Moore was the 17th. Both passed the milestone during 2000-01. Jessie receives the commemorative game ball from Coach A.

● All-Big Ten Honors

• ALL-BIG TEN HONORS

Wisconsin's Tamara Moore (Minneapolis, MN) was tabbed as the 2001 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year by both the Big Ten coaches and media in balloting. The junior guard led the conference and was among the NCAA leaders with 3.57 steals per game during the regular season while running the point for UW. Moore was named first team all-Big Ten by the media, and second team by the coaches. Moore was also named Associated Press All-America honorable mention, and first team all-Defensive all-American by the Women's Basketball Journal.

• ACADEMIC ALL-BIG TEN

With six Academic all-Big Ten honorees this year, Wisconsin had the most honors of any Big Ten School. Purdue had the second most with five. The Badgers have had the second-most honorees of any Big Ten school since Jane Albright arrived in 1994-95 with 28. Purdue had 29 in the same time period. Since the award began, Wisconsin and Northwestern are tied at 51 for most all-Big Ten Academic honors.

UW's six 2001 honorees include junior guard Kyle Black, business; senior guard and three-year member Judy Ebeling, business; sophomore guard Leah Hefte, elementary education; sophomore forward Jessica Liegel, undeclared; sophomore forward Kristi Seeger, undeclared; and junior forward Jessie Stomski, journalism.

Freshmen and first-year transfer students are not eligible for Academic all-Big Ten status.

● Lost to Graduation

Four seniors comprised the class that tied for most wins by any senior class with 78. Graduating from the Wisconsin program last year was LaTonya Sims (Racine, WI), Wisconsin's most enduring player. Sims set the UW record for most consecutive games played with 124 having played in every game in her four years. She completed her career among the top five in scoring (4th), rebounding (3rd), field goals made and attempted, free throws made and attempted (2nd), double-doubles and double figuring scoring (1st with 105 games.).

Also graduating were reserves Rachel Klongland (Sun Prairie, WI), Judy Ebeling (Bloomington, MN) and Krista Bird (Owatonna, MN).

Also not returning is sophomore center Nina Smith (Waterloo, IA) who transferred out of the state. Smith started 26 games and averaged 12.6 points and 6.3 rebounds. Her .595 field goal percentage set a Badger single-season record.

2001-2002 BadgerBall Preview

With much anticipation, Wisconsin approaches what could become its finest season to date. A trio of senior starters lead a talented group of 10 experienced returning players. Together they hope to build on the momentum of last season's 12-4 conference mark and second-place Big Ten finish, the best finish in 17 years.

A shortened visit to the 2001 NCAA Tournament also leaves the returnees hungry to improve, and the four newcomers ready to step in for the now-graduated senior class that tied for the most wins in a four-year period with 78. The Badgers, 18-10, were upset in the first round of the NCAA tournament by Missouri, who went on to beat No. 2 seed Georgia and qualify for the regionals.

● Returning Players

Wisconsin returns three of its top five scorers led by senior Jessie Stomski (Oakdale, MN). Stomski hit a career-best 16.2 points per game and averaged 8.1 rebounds while hitting .557 percent from the field. The 6-3 forward earned Kodak all-America honorable mention as a district honoree, and was named all-Big Ten first-team by both the coaches and media. The Badger's MVP had her best overall game of the year in the NCAA tournament with 29 points and 11 rebounds on 12-of-18 field goal shooting.

Senior Tamara Moore (Minneapolis, MN) is in the hunt for Big Ten records in steals, leading the team for the second straight year in steals and assists averaging 3.57 steals, tops in the Big Ten, and 5.39 assists. Also a Big Ten first team honoree and the conference Defensive Player of the Year, she was third on the team in scoring averaging 12.6 points and added 4.6 rebounds per game. She tried out for the USA Basketball University Games team, and was a finalist for the 12th and final spot on the team that went to the World University Games. Stomski was also invited to attend the tryouts, but sprained an ankle on the first day.

Senior Kyle Black (Indianapolis, IN) had a career year as UW's fifth scorer averaging 9.1 points per game and hitting a Big Ten best .406 from the three-point line. She has her eyes on the school records in three-point shooting where she currently ranks fifth hitting 113-317 for .356 percent.

Filling the shoes of departed starters LaTonya Sims (14.5 ppg) and Nina Smith

Senior Kyle Black was the Big Ten's best three-point shooter last season hitting .406 percent of her treys.

(11.9 ppg) will fall to 6-5 sophomore center Emily Ashbaugh (Woodinville, WA), 5-6 junior guard Candas Smith (Madison, WI), 5-11 junior Leah Hefte (McFarland, WI), 6-4 center Sarah Jirovec (Stevens Points, WI) or 6-0 junior Kristi Seeger (Stoughton, WI).

All saw considerable playing time last season with Ashbaugh averaging nearly 16 minutes per game and contributing 3.4 points and 3.1 rebounds. Smith spelled Tamara Moore at the point averaging 1.8 points and 1.4 assists in 12 minutes per game. Seeger averaged over 10 minutes per game and contributed 2.7 points and 2.3 rebounds. Hefte is a three-point specialist who contributed 2.0 points and hit .345 percent from beyond the arc. Jirovec averaged 1.5 points as a reserve center.

● The Recruits

The Badgers also welcome four freshmen including the 2001 Gatorade Player of the Year in the State of Iowa and the 2000 Gatorade Player of the Year in Wisconsin. Stephanie Rich (Crawfordsville, IA), the two-time state player of the year in Iowa, and Shawna Nicols (Milwaukee, WI), the Wisconsin top player in 2000, should bolster the Badger backcourt.

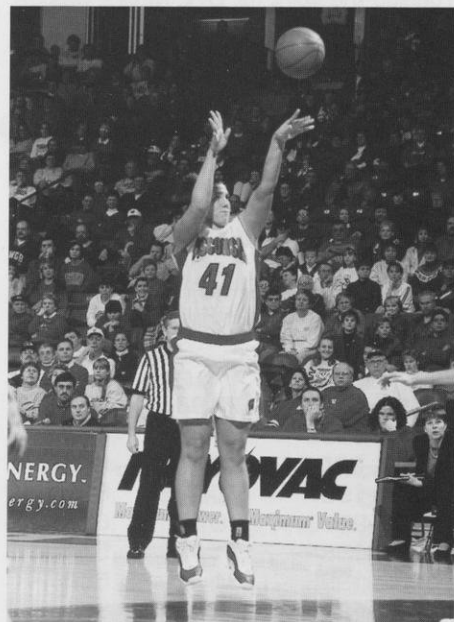

Rich, a 5-11 guard at Washington High School, was a two-time MVP of the Iowa Class 3A State Tournament and Street and Smith Honorable Mention All-American. She averaged 20.7 points, 6.3 rebounds, 6.3 assists and 5.4 steals as a senior. Her team was the first to win three-straight state 3A titles.

Nicols led Pius XI to three consecutive state private schools titles and put them in the finals of the combined WIAA state tournament as a senior. The 5-10 point guard averaged 9.7 points, 5.2 rebounds and 3.5 steals and earned Street and Smith Honorable Mention All-America honors as a senior.

Also joining the Badgers are 6-3 forward Ebba Gebisa (West Lafayette, IN), and 6-3 center Leslie Jauch (Baraboo, WI). As a junior at West Lafayette High School, Gebisa averaged 20 points and 12.8 rebounds per game as a senior, and carried a 3.95 grade point average. Jauch set the all-time scoring record for girls and boys at Baraboo High School averaging 16.7 points per game.

The Badgers begin the regular season over Thanksgiving at the Paradise Jam in the Virgin Islands with Florida, USC, and Texas. Also appearing on the non-conference schedule are NCAA participants Washington, Arizona, NC State and Drake. Wisconsin opens the Big Ten slate Dec. 28 with NCAA runnerup champion Purdue for the third straight year. The Big Ten Conference tournament returns to Indianapolis, March 1-4.

Senior Jessie Stomski was an all-Big Ten first team pick who led the Badgers in scoring and rebounding last season.

WISCONSIN Women's Basketball

It's been said the Badgers are poised for their best season on the books. What makes you think that? What are your team goals?

Coach A: Experience is really the best indicator you have to go by when you're a coach. In my experience as a head coach, I've never had a group work as hard individually in the spring, over the summer, and continuing into the fall pre-season as this one.

This group is also the culmination of learning how to handle success and learning how to handle failure. Coming off a WNIT championship, we had great success last season, winning in venues where previously we hadn't won. Being runners-ups in the Big Ten Conference for the regular season was a great thrill. Yet, our failure at the end of the season presented a combination of success and failure that really propelled the team in the off-season with confidence and also hunger for this season.

Talk about your senior class.

Coach A: First, I have a senior class who sincerely cares about each other, our staff and our team. They have worked extremely hard and have made the most of opportunities and experiences here. I think it is safe to say that it's time for this group—Sarah, Jessie, Kyle and Tamara—to make a legacy and take us places that we've never been.

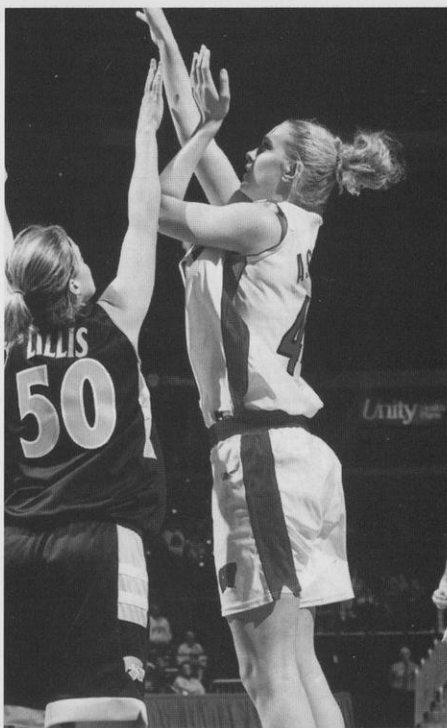

What can you take into this season from the strong Big Ten finish a year ago and the return to the NCAA Tournament?

Coach A: Success and failure. We did a much better job particularly down the stretch of competing day in and day out in one of the toughest conferences in the country. During the regular season, we were able to go in places and win where the program had not been able to even compete well. We were much better marathon runners. We were poised for distance, and really learned how to control our momentum and not spend all of our emotion on one game and not have any for the next one. That was the good part. The bad part was our extreme disappointment in our post-season games/losses, both in the Big Ten and the NCAA tournament. We must train for the sprints, also, and those losses really forced us to look at our inability to focus and perform well in big moments.

Is there a different approach that you'll take to the post-season next year or is it just maturation?

Coach A: I hope it's just the natural process of maturation. In 17 years of Division I coaching, one of the biggest contrasts with my teams from Northern Illinois and here is post season performance. At NIU, we played our best basketball at our conference tournament and NCAA tournaments. We have not been able to duplicate that here, although we dearly desire to do that. I obviously need to figure that out and change what I need to change. It's still something that I'm spending a lot of time thinking about. I'm also smart enough to know that I can't really recreate it until tournament time. But all year we will be talking a lot about mental toughness and extra effort. In fact, we put "MMTXE" on the seat of our practice shorts!

What does it mean to return two first-team all-Big Ten players?

COACH A: It means that two of the people who will be running our team have been in the trenches of warfare every day for three years. Day in and day out, Jessie and Tamara have seen the good and the bad. They know what to expect, how hard it's going to be to reach our goals, and what demands they must meet as an elite Division I student athlete. They've experienced success and failure. They've made mistakes and have been able to correct them and mature. I expect this year to be the best year of their young lives.

Did you expect Jessie Stomski to have led the team the past two years in scoring and rebounding?

Coach A: Yes and no. I'm the coach who likes to give upperclassmen every opportunity possible before the younger people take over. In Jessie's freshman year, I didn't start her for our exhibition games. Then she just very quietly went in and showed what she can do. I think she missed two shots, and I figured out quickly that Jessie should be in the game. After being named Freshman of the Year, Jessie has quietly built a lot of momentum in her life, not just on the basketball court but off the basketball court as well. She was our team MVP last season. She

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- ★ Since the award was initiated in 1986, Wisconsin has garnered 51 Academic all-Big Ten honors tying for 1st for the most Academic all-Big Ten honorees in the history of the conference
- ★ The Badgers had six all-Big Ten Honorees in 2001, and have had two or more Academic all-Big Ten honorees every year since Jane Albright's arrival [1994—present] has continually worked hard on her skills and conditioning, and has truly developed as a top player in the Big Ten. I'm as proud of her as I've ever been of any person I've ever been associated with.

The Big Ten's Defensive Player of the Year was Tamara Moore. What does she bring to your team?

COACH A: Besides defensive prowess, Tamara brings instant energy, enthusiasm, leadership, one-on-one scoring, and she's a catalyst for all that we do. She converts defense to point production as well as anyone I've ever coached. Finally, her love for the game is contagious to all of us.

What did playing on the Big Ten all-Star tour do for Kyle Black and Emily Ashbaugh?

Coach A: The Big Ten all-Star tour was a wonderful experience for both of them—educationally and athletically. The opportunity for playing time gave them each a chance to experience individual and team success. For Kyle, that meant the chance to polish her offensive game while leading the team in scoring. She also had the chance to use her leadership skills, as she was one of the oldest on the team and served as a captain. For Emily, it gave her a chance to showcase all the hard work she had put in over the summer. She's stronger now, so she had playing time with her "more mature" body. She was very successful offensively and defensively in contributing to our wins, so it is my hope that the experience gave her a lot of confidence.

Who are your projected starters this season, and give a little description on how each might contribute.

Coach A: I think you have to look again first at our senior class of Kyle (Black), Jessie (Stomski) and Tamara (Moore) who are obvious major contributors. Jessie will be asked to carry a load again in areas of rebounding and scoring. She has worked to become more versatile offensively, so we'll be even more effective in our offense.

Tamara's role will increase as a scorer. We will use her high energy, her athleticism, and her versatility to help us win. Last year she was the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, so we'll call on her to lead our defense.

Kyle's role will increase and I expect her to be a very efficient shooting guard. Kyle is a gym rat and her hustle plays will always add to what we are doing. I think Emily will be our starting center. She is much improved and ready for the challenge to start. She should prove to be a great defensive center and dominant rebounder. Her shooting touch is nice and one of my favorite things about her is her excellence in free throw shooting.

I expect lots of competition for our fifth starting spot. Candas, Kristi and Leah will certainly get our first look, but I expect our freshmen to challenge for it, also. The key here is versatility. I don't believe we will have a set starting five for the entire year.

Talk about the recruiting class and who might contribute immediately?

Coach A: I think our class is an infusion of great young talent, and exactly the weapons we needed. As a staff we talked a lot about specific needs of our program and we actually identified some things we felt needed to be changed on and off the court. This class is the answer to our needs.

This is a group with whom we were very, very selective. They're extremely different, but they're also alike. They are four of the best students we've ever recruited. They pursue excellence in their lives, not just in basketball. They're team players and well-rounded individuals. I have never recruited a class that had seven state championships represented. Usually a recruiting class has a person that has one, but that means again they have demanded excellence of themselves and the people around them as a unit. That's very contagious.

What would be the depth chart at each position?

Coach A: Point guards: Tamara Moore, Candas Smith, Shawna Nicols

Shooting guards: Kyle Black, Leah Hefte, Stephanie Rich

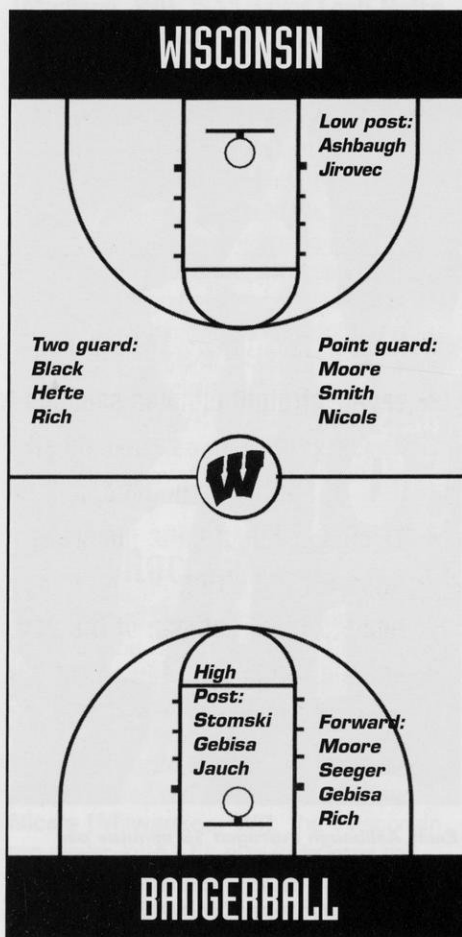

Small forwards: Tamara Moore, Kristi Seeger, Ebba Gebisa, Stephanie Rich

Power forwards: Jessie Stomski, Ebba Gebisa, Leslie Jauch

Centers: Emily Ashbaugh, Sarah Jirovec

Wisconsin gets closer every year to breaking its Big Ten tournament stigma of early-round losses. How close are the Badgers to becoming a semi-final round or championship finals team?

Coach A: There's no one in the state or country that wants to win those games more than myself and this coaching staff.

BADGERBALL'S RECORD ATTENDANCE

- ★ Wisconsin has led the Big Ten in cumulative attendance four years, and ranked among the top eight in the nation in attendance since 1995.
- ★ Wisconsin set school and conference marks in 1998 averaging 10,455 overall. The Badgers set a league record with 12,274 attending Big Ten games and set a single-game conference mark of 16,329.

We have certainly given our tournament experience a lot of thought. It is my hope that this year's team can blend experience, talent, confidence, and hunger to be a successful tournament team. We know that's a monkey that we want to get off our back. In fact, it's a gorilla by now, and we'll try to get ready for it!

Last year the Badgers were a stellar offensive team setting a school record from the floor (hitting .432 percent from the field). What are going to be your points of emphasis this year?

Coach A: I think that points of emphasis this year will be similar. We will be blending our talents to get the most out of everybody, individually and as a team. When we get to the big moments, we want to perform as a very strong unit.

I was very pleased with our blend last year. We had an effective outside-inside game. We had good defense and no one really totally took us out of anything. We outrebounded most of our opponents. All of this was against an extremely tough schedule. I would like for this team to be known as a great offensive team by scoring lots of points in a high percentage system. Still, I know our strength must be our team defense. We will change up defenses when the need arises.

What do you anticipate are the team's strengths?

Coach A: This team loves hard work! They care about each other and are extremely unselfish. Our versatility will allow us to try different things so we should be harder to guard. Finally, one of our biggest strengths will be great senior leadership.

What can you say about Wisconsin's schedule this year?

COACH A: Our schedule this season is very challenging. There's a possibility of playing 12 NCAA teams from last year's field. We will certainly have lots of opportunities and challenges to get us ready for a tough Big Ten schedule. But that's the way these players wanted it. That's why they came here. To be the best, you have to compete against the best.

What does coaching in the Big Ten mean to you?

COACH A: It is a real treat to be able to recruit and sign the best student athletes in the country. I am proud that we had six Academic all-Big Ten athletes last season! I am proud of the 500+ hours of community service our team performed last year. In short, having the opportunity to coach great people who strive for excellence in the classroom and on the court is a dream come true.

You have the great fortune to have a veteran staff returning. What does that stability lend to your program?

COACH A: My staff is a unique blend of experience and talent. As a unit, I have confidence that we can handle any challenge. They all take care of individual responsibilities within our program, and stand united with me when things are grand as well as when things are tough. With this staff, our jobs never seem like work! I truly believe this strength is obvious in everything they do and I am so fortunate to have them here with me.

ATHLETIC SUCCESS

In the last seven years, BadgerBall has achieved unprecedented success:

- ★ seven-straight winning seasons for the first time in school history
- ★ appeared in the post-season six times including four NCAA tournaments
- ★ won the WNIT title in 2000, and was the runner-up champion in 1999
- ★ 17 all-Big Ten athletic honorees
- ★ three WBCA District all-Americans
- ★ two Big Ten Freshmen of the Year
- ★ one Big Ten Coach of the Year honor
- ★ one WBCA District Coach of the Year honor
- ★ tied the record for most wins in program history three times (21)
- ★ four 20-win seasons in the past seven years

Watch a Game with Coach A

Wisconsin's Coach A is animated and encouraging on the sidelines. Catch a game from her perspective in the following photographs.

Coach A enters her eighth year with a vision for unprecedented success having recorded seven consecutive winning seasons for the first time in school history.

Head Coach Jane Albright

Badger Coach Jane Albright has led Wisconsin to an unprecedented seven consecutive winning seasons and became the winningest coach in program history in 2001.

In just seven short years, Jane Albright became the winningest coach in Wisconsin's 27-year history bringing unprecedented success to the University of Wisconsin women's basketball program. In her tenure, the Badgers have had seven consecutive winning seasons for the first time in school history (.135-.74, .646), including four 20-win seasons and six post-season bids.

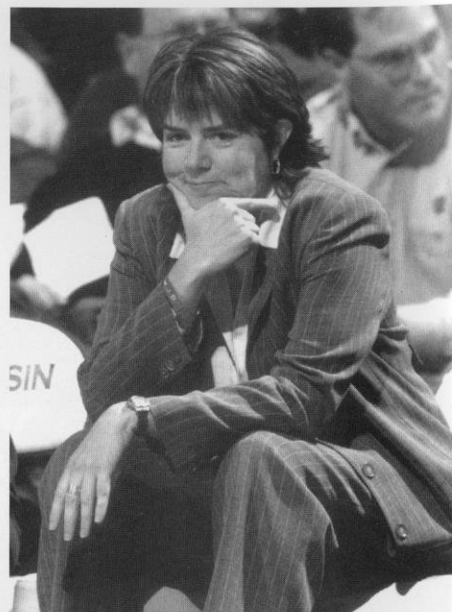

Under Coach "A", the UW women's basketball program has been revitalized. She has been responsible for many program 'firsts' including best record overall (21-8), best Big Ten finish (2nd in 2001), most fans, and most NCAA appearances and wins. All this after she took over a program in 1994 that had just one winning season in the previous 10 years and a 102-176 record.

She responded by taking her first teams (1995 and 1996) to the NCAA tournament, and returned to the Big Dance in 1998 and again in 2001. Wisconsin gained its first major basketball title by winning the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) title in 2000, and finished as the runner-up WNIT champion in 1999.

During Coach A's first two years, the Badgers had back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time in school history. The 1996 team tied for the most wins and posted the best record in school history at 21-8. The 1998 squad tied 21 wins finishing at 21-10, and the 2000 squad matched that figure again finishing 21-12. Albright has posted nine 20-win seasons in the past 12 years, and has taken her team to eight NCAA tournaments in the last 11 years (at both Wisconsin and Northern Illinois).

Albright earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in her first season at Wisconsin. Her team was 20-9 and received just the program's second bid to the NCAA Championship losing in the second round. The Badgers placed third in the Big Ten Conference with an 11-5 record, improving from ninth place in 1994. She achieved her 200th win during that season, and was an Associated Press and WBCA National Coach of the Year finalist.

Winning and attending the NCAA tournament is the rule rather than the exception for Albright, who left Northern Illinois in 1994 with a decade of accomplishments to her credit. The all-time winningest basketball coach at NIU, she held a 188-110 (.631) mark, and was 140-48 (.744) her last six years, which included five 20-win seasons and four NCAA tournament appearances. Her last two teams at NIU finished with 24-6 records, and were Mid-Continent regular-season or tournament champions and NCAA qualifiers.

The four-time conference coach of the year in the Big Ten and both the North Star and Mid-Continent Conferences, Albright began her coaching career in 1981 under Pat Summit, one of the game's best. While a graduate assistant under Summit, the Volunteers were NCAA Final Four participants in 1982, and NCAA quarter-finalists in 1983.

In 1983, she joined the University of Cincinnati coaching staff as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. A year later she assumed the head coaching position at Northern Illinois where she established a program worthy of national recognition.

Albright has coached six players who have earned eight Kodak District IV all-America honors, two Olympic Festival athletes, five professional players, and two USA team participants. She earned Women's Basketball Coaches Association

Coach A's popularity and BadgerBall have become the rage in Wisconsin with record attendance at games and at summer camps. Nearly 1,000 young athletes attended the 2001 BadgerBall Summer Hoops camp, and over 10,000 campers have joined the BadgerBall family since 1995. Left: Coach A and staff take part in wild hair day at the BadgerBall Summer Hoops Camp.

(WBCA) District IV "Coach of the Year" honors in 1995 and 1990.

Active in USA Basketball, she was the head coach of the 1996 USA R. Williams Jones Cup team which won the gold medal in Taipei, Taiwan, with a perfect 9-0 mark. In 1993, she was the assistant coach for Team USA which earned a bronze medal at the World University Games with a 6-2 record.

Albright assisted the 1992 USA Junior National team to a 4-1 record and silver medal performance in the Pan American Confederation World Championship in Mexico, qualifying the United States women for the 1993 Junior World Championship. A year earlier, she was the head coach of the gold medal-winning 1991 U.S. Olympic Festival South squad.

In 2001, Albright took the Big Ten all-Stars on a nine-day tour of Switzerland and France earning a 5-0 record. Her 1999 Big Ten tour team posted a 3-1 record after a 10-day tour of Germany and Belgium.

The Graham, N.C., native graduated cum laude in health and physical education from Appalachian State University in 1977, where she was a letterwinner in both basketball and volleyball. She taught and coached four years at Spartanburg High School in Spartanburg, S.C., prior to beginning her collegiate coaching career at Tennessee.

Deeply committed to community service, Albright serves on the boards of several organizations including Buckets for Hunger Board of Directors; MACC Fund Board of Directors (Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer); CAP Fund Board of Directors (Child Abuse Prevention); FCA (Fellowship of Christian Athletes) Board of Directors

She has been a featured speaker and clinician at: the BadgerBall Coaches Clinics; the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Fall Clinic; Minnesota High School Coaches Association Clinic; Iowa Basketball Coaches Association Fall Clinic; the nationally renowned "Recruiter's Institute" and the Kevin O'Neill Coaches Clinic.

The Jane Albright Television Show

Coach Jane Albright took her second Big Ten All-Star team on a European tour this past summer earning a 5-0 record. Albright is 8-1 in Big Ten summer tours. Joining her from Wisconsin were (L-R) center Emily Ashbaugh, Coach A, guard Kyle Black, Director of Basketball Operations Melissa Bruner, and Assistant Coach Erika Lang-Montgomery.

Coach A, her staff and the UW players talk about all facets of BadgerBall weekly on 'The Jane Albright Coaches Show'. Now in its third season, the show appears nationally and locally on Fox Sports North and TVW. WISC-TV's Angela Jacobs of Madison's CBS affiliate serves as the host.

● Albright's Pledge to Community Service

Away from basketball, Jane Albright is an enthusiastic participant in, and promoter of, community service. Her projects are quite diverse, and she takes her concern for others beyond the status quo addressing such topics as domestic violence and literacy. She requires her team's participation in community service as well as assisting with such events as 'Buckets for Hunger,' which raises money for the local food pantry.

Jessie Stomski (L) and Kyle Black work from a scaffold while helping build a house for Habitat for Humanity, one of many community service activities the Badgers take part in during the year.

ABOVE: Coach A was mesmerized by the 'Wizard of Westwood' when she met John Wooden in 1996. They discussed all facets of basketball and coaching from philosophy to x's and o's. Says Jane of John, "He's the greatest."

Coach 'A' is a much sought-after speaker and regularly assists with charity and athletic department fundraising events. The community groups she typically serves include elementary and middle school students, church organizations, and service clubs such as the Lions, Optimists, Rotary, Madison Sports Hall of Fame, United Way and Habitat for Humanity.

She has served as the spokesperson for the Share Your Holidays campaign, the Lake Monona Spokeout (bike ride) to Prevent Child Abuse, the Children's Service Society of Wisconsin (CASA), the Community Action Coalition, and is on the advisory board of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, from which she received a national award in 2001. She has also appeared in numerous public service television and radio spots speaking against domestic violence, and in support of the literacy efforts for the Wisconsin Library Association.

Assistant Coaches

● Kate Peterson, Assistant Coach

Wisconsin native Kate Peterson has been the Badgers' chief recruiting coordinator for the past three years, and begins her fifth year overall at Wisconsin. It is a position with which she is quite familiar after four years as the women's basketball assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Eastern Illinois University from 1993-97. Peterson has helped the Badgers bring in two top-10 rookie classes in the past three years.

Hailing from River Falls, Wis., Peterson graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point where she was a four-year basketball starter earning all-conference honors. She was named Kodak all-America as a senior while setting an NCAA Division III national record for three-point goals made per game in a season (3.85 per game). She was inducted into the UW-Stevens Point Hall of Fame on Sept. 30, 2000.

Peterson completed her degree in psychology from Stevens Point in 1991, and completed her master's degree in educational psychology at Indiana University in 1995.

While at Indiana she gained familiarity with the Big Ten Conference as a graduate assistant one year, and later became a restricted earnings assistant with duties in scouting, on-campus recruiting and on-court coaching in 1992-93. She joined Eastern Illinois as the chief assistant in 1993.

In addition to her college coaching experience, Peterson served as the coach for an Athletes in Action camp held in São Paulo, Brazil in 1992, and has worked a variety of summer basketball camps including directing the UW-Stevens Point summer basketball camp in 1991.

● Erika Lang-Montgomery, Assistant Coach

Former University of Southern California assistant, Erika Lang-Montgomery, begins her second year as an assistant coach with the Badgers. A 1995 graduate of the University of Florida, Lang-Montgomery has experience with four Division I basketball programs including Florida, plus coaching stops at Purdue, Florida State and most recently USC.

Lang-Montgomery assisted then-coach Lin Dunn at Purdue from 1995-96, before going to Florida State with Chris Gobrect as her third assistant. She followed Gobrect to USC where she was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator from 1998-00. USC signed back-to-back nationally-ranked recruiting classes during her tenure.

As a player at Florida from 1988-92, Lang-Montgomery earned all-SEC freshmen team honors in 1989. She averaged 14.2 points and 8.9 rebounds her junior season, but was injured much of her senior year. She finished her career among the top 10 in rebounds with 647, blocks with 45, and collected 959 points.

Graduating with a degree in exercise and sports science, Lang-Montgomery served as a student-assistant coach at Florida from 1992-93. She was the head coach of the girls' varsity basketball team at St. John's Country Day School in Orange Park, Fla., two years from 1993-95, and was the head junior varsity girls' coach at F.W. Bucholz High School in Gainesville from 1992-93. She married Larry Montgomery in 1997.

Lang-Montgomery is one of Wisconsin's national recruiters and is the primary post position coach while also assisting with other on-court coaching duties.

The Badgers have an experienced coaching staff that embraces life's values in addition to teaching basketball fundamentals. (L-R) Kate Peterson, Kelly Kenny, Jane Albright, Erika Lang-Montgomery, Melissa Bruner.

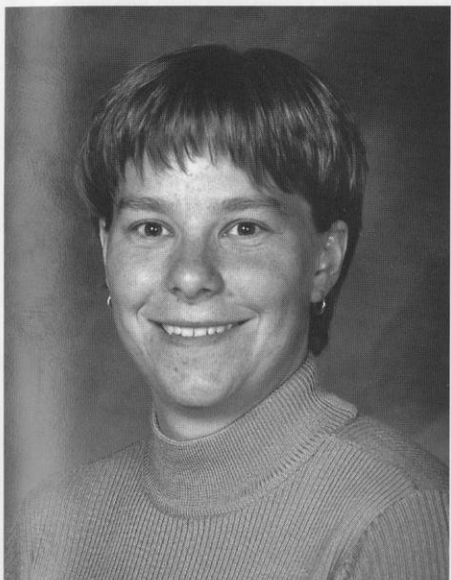

● Kelly Kenny, Assistant Coach

Kelly Kenny has been a welcome addition to the Badgers since her arrival in 1998. An experienced 17-year coaching veteran, she is the primary scout of UW opponents, and her game strategies and evaluative abilities are used often in the Badger huddles.

A native of Sterling Heights, Mich., Kenny graduated from Oakland University in 1983, with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. She began her coaching career at her alma mater serving as an assistant coach from 1983-86 at Oakland University in Rochester, Mich. She continued her assistant coaching duties at Eastern Michigan University, a Mid-America school from 1987-91. Her duties included scouting, recruiting, academic supervision of athletes, team travel and budgets, as well as on-the-floor coaching of the guards and team defense. She served as the assistant coach at Wayne State University in Detroit the year prior to joining the Badgers, and was the assistant coach at Macomb Community College in Warren, Michigan, in 1996.

In addition to coaching at the college level, Kenny was the varsity girls basketball coach at Dexter High School, Dexter, Mich., from 1991-95, where she organized the high school and middle school basketball programs. She also assisted at Dearborn High School (Dearborn, Mich.) for two years.

While a player, Kenny was a four-year starter and captain for Oakland. At point guard, she led the Pioneers to an NCAA Division II Final Four appearance in 1982. A prep all-state player at Henry Ford II, Kenny still holds the school marks in assists and steals.

● Melissa Bruner, Director of Basketball Operations

Melissa A. Bruner is beginning her seventh year at Wisconsin as the Director of Women's Basketball Operations. The Ohio native received her business administration and accounting degree at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and earned her master's degree in physical education with a concentration in athletic administration from Ohio University in June of 1995. At Ohio, Bruner served as a graduate assistant and teaching associate providing the athletic director with various student academic services and assisting in compliance issues.

While pursuing her studies at Coe, Bruner was a multi-sport letterwinner and earned high distinction for her academic pursuits as a member of Mortar Board and Phi Kappa Phi honor society.

She lettered in softball four years, and basketball, tennis, and volleyball two years. She earned academic all-conference honors in each sport, earning recognition for her athletic and academic achievements, and was a national GTE Academic all-American her senior year. She also served as a residence hall supervisor and was active in several student activities committees.

In her position at Wisconsin, Bruner assists Jane Albright in public relations scheduling, team travel and practice arrangements, serves as the camp liaison, hoop troop booster club liaison, team academic coordinator, and assists with all administrative matters regarding Wisconsin Women's Basketball.

Last season the Badger Coaching staff orchestrated its fourth NCAA bid and the best Big Ten Conference regular-season finish since 1982, tying for second place with a 12-4 conference mark.

Community Service

Community Service Award

The Badger women's basketball program has received national recognition for its community service projects. The entire team has helped with such projects as building with Habitat for Humanity or dishing out food at the Salvation Army soup kitchen, among many other team and individual service projects arranged by the basketball players and staff.

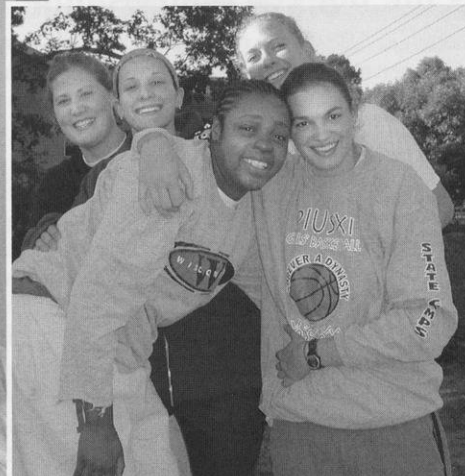

Coach A's philosophy is, "To whom much is given, much is expected." The Badger players assist with a variety of service projects such as visiting sick children in area hospitals, and participating in the Big Sister program.

The coaching staff annually recognizes the athlete or athletes who have shown a great interest and invested the most time in community service.

● GTE/CoSIDA District IV Academic All-America

Academic all-America status recognizes an athlete for excellence in athletics and academics. Athletes must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.2, must be a district winner, and are then placed on a national ballot for voting on by a panel of the college sports information directors association (CoSIDA).

Kay Fredrickson	Durand, WI	Business	1989
Katie Voigt	Woodruff, WI	Mathematics	1996

● Big Ten Medal of Honor

The award is given annually at each Big Ten institution to the senior male and female student-athlete demonstrating proficiency in scholarship and athletics. The Badgers have had one woman basketball athlete so honored.

Janet Huff	Milwaukee, WI	Recreation Resources Management	1984

BadgerBall Tops Big Ten Academic Honors

Wisconsin and Northwestern are tied for first for the most Academic all-Big Ten honorees of any conference women's basketball team. With 51 athletes, the Badgers and the Wildcats each comprise 13.6 percent of all honorees over the past 15 years since the academic team honors began in 1987.

The Badgers have had the second most honorees of any Big Ten school since Jane Albright arrived in 1994-95 with 28. Purdue had 29 honorees in that same period.

Letterwinners who maintain a 3.00 or better cumulative grade point and who are not freshmen or first year transfers are eligible for Academic all-Big Ten status.

Huff's Number 21 Retired

Theresa Huff, who played at Wisconsin from 1979-83, is the only woman player to have her jersey retired. Although only 5-11, the lithe center/forward became the school's all-time leading scorer and rebounder completing her career with 1,879 points and 1,201 rebounds.

Robin Threatt broke her 11 year-old scoring record with 1,901 points in 1993, and Barb Franke surpassed both Huff and Threatt completing her career with 1,994 points in 1996. But very few individuals will ever reach Huff's incredible 1,201 rebounding mark.

A Milwaukee native, Huff's career spanned the transition period from the AIAW to the NCAA governance. She led Wisconsin to its first post-season appearance reaching the quarter-finals of the AIAW National Championship, and she was a member of the first official Big Ten Conference team in 1981-82.

Huff distinguished herself as Wisconsin's first professional woman basketball player and was also the first American chosen to play in Spain in 1983-84. She was inducted into the University of Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998.

Each year, former letterwinners are invited back for an alumni game and reception at the Kohl Center before or after a UW women's basketball game. Always a popular event, more than 50 alumni and staff return annually for the festivities.

Moore Steals in Store for Wisconsin

Senior guard Tamara Moore led the conference in steals with nearly 4.0 per game in 2001. She is on pace to break both the UW (327 by Keisha Anderson) and Big Ten (372 by Stacey Thomas of Michigan) all-time steals record by the end of her career.

Comparisons of Moore with the UW & The Big Ten All-Time Steals Leaders

Tamara Moore, Wisconsin

2000 and 2001 Big Ten Season Steals Leader

Year	Games	No.	Avg.
1998-99	32	80	2.50
1999-00	33	83	2.51
2000-01	28	100	3.57
TOTAL	93	263	2.83

Projection: If the Badgers play 28 games this season, Moore will need to average 2.28 steals/game to break Anderson's record, or 3.89/game to break Thomas' Big Ten mark.

Keisha Anderson, Wisconsin

Wisconsin's All-Time Steals Leader and Second in Big Ten Career Steals

Year	Games	No.	Avg.
TOTAL	85	327	3.85

Pam Moore (1977-78) played only one year for the Badgers before turning to track where she became a national 400-meter champion in 1981. If her freshman season was any indication, she would have made a major impact on basketball as well as she ranks among the top three in points and rebounds. Or perhaps her niece, point guard Candace Smith, will set the records that eluded her.

UW Team History and Highlights

● Wisconsin's Post-Season Results

The Badger women have qualified for eight national post-season basketball championships in the 27-year history of the program.

In 1999 and 2000, the Badgers were one of 32 teams invited to the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT). UW won the WNIT in 2000.

Wisconsin attended its fifth NCAA tournament in 2001, including four since 1995, and has a 2-5 overall record in NCAA play. Jane Albright's NCAA record while at Wisconsin is: 2-4; her career NCAA record is 4-8 overall, and 10-3 in the NWIT

* 1982-83 was the first season of Big Ten Round Robin Competition and the first season of NCAA affiliation. 1994-95 was the first year for the Big Ten Tournament which determines the automatic conference qualifier to the NCAA Championship. Regional competition was held from 1975-82, while national championships were directed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) prior to sponsorship by the NCAA. NCAA Subregionals began in 1995.

+Attendance figure in 1977-78 reflects three double-header games with the UW men's team

@1982-83 was the first year of official Big Ten round robin competition

Women's collegiate basketball attendance has increased for 17-straight years, and Wisconsin is one of the reasons ranking among the top eight in attendance nationally since 1995.

UW led the Big Ten Conference for four of the past seven years, and set school attendance records for total attendance with 136,182 in 1999, the third most total fans in the nation behind Tennessee and Connecticut.

The Badgers set a Big Ten single game mark of 16,329 in 1998, and have helped the Big Ten Conference lead the nation in attendance for seven of the past nine years.

The 1997-98 Badgers also set cumulative and conference-only games attendance marks with a record average 12,474 in eight Big Ten games. UW set its first five-figure average with 10,455 per game also in 1998.

One of the premier athletic leagues in the nation, the Big Ten Conference is proud of its leadership in the arena of Athletics, particularly in women's athletics.

Big Ten women's athletics programs have led the nation in both women's basketball and volleyball attendance. In addition, the league receives more television exposure than any conference in the nation. More than 200 Conference athletic events are televised each year on national and regional networks.

Begun in 1895, the Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives (popularly known as the Big Ten) has changed little from its original philosophy of faculty control of athletics with emphasis on the student-athlete. Comprised of 11 institutions in eight states, the conference has long set the national standard for athletics and academics. As a whole, league institutions graduate student-athletes at overall rates between 10 and 22 percent higher than their peers at other Division I conferences. The conference celebrated its centennial anniversary during the 1995-96 season.

Women's athletics programs became affiliated with the Conference officially in 1981, although unofficial conference championships had been held among the member institutions since 1972. Penn State became the 11th university to join the conference in 1991.

Big Ten women athletes compete in conference championships in basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, gymnastics, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.

The Big Ten Conference began its conference basketball tournament that decides the automatic qualifier for the NCAA Championship in 1995. Penn State was the winner of the initial tournament, and successfully defended its title in 1996. Iowa surprised the league by winning the tournament title in 1997, and again in 2001.

Purdue has won three of the last four the titles and became the Big Ten's first NCAA champion in 1999. The Boilermakers were the runnerup champions in 2001, and also attended the Final Four in 1994. Ohio State and Iowa advanced to the Final Four in 1993. Penn State was a Final Four semifinalist in 2000. A Big Ten team has been to the Final Four each of the past three years.

The league title is based on the final regular season conference standings. All teams play a total of 16 games. Schools play six teams twice, and four teams once.

The 2000 Big Ten Conference tournament will be held on Thursday-Sunday, March 1-4, at Conseco Arena in Indianapolis. The tournament is a four-day single elimination playoff with all 11 teams participating. The top five seeds (as determined by standings) receive a first-round bye. The other six teams play each other in the first round, with the winners participating in the quarterfinals on Friday. The conference tournament champion earns the automatic bid to the NCAA tournament. All rounds of the tournament are broadcast on Fox Sports Chicago or ESPN.

In addition to its athletic success, the Big Ten Conference has led the nation in basketball attendance for seven of the past nine years. Five schools finished in the top 13 in attendance, and overall the league averaged a national record 4,530 spectators per game in 1999. It was the second-straight year the Big Ten set the national mark.

Badger pioneers are represented by these 1970's alumni who helped lay the UW women's basketball foundation. Some were members of UW's first state championship team in 1978, and also brought the Badgers into the Big Ten Conference in 1982. L-R Linda Sielaff, Anne Saeman, Kris Hallisy, Debbie Ambruso, Linda Gough, Terry Huff, Ginny Vorwald, and former assistant coach Dennis Simpson and son.

The 1981-82 Badger team attended the first post season tournament in UW history winning the MAIAW Regional championship to earn an AIAW National tournament bid. The team won its first round game over Colorado before bowing out to Texas in the quarter-finals finishing with a 21-13 record. Team members clockwise from left: head coach Edwina Qualls, asst. coach Kathy Richey Walton, trainer Jan Tappan Hellwig, asst. coach Linda Gough, Manager Kathryn Rindy, asst. coach Dennis Simpson, Terry Huff, Lizbeth Finchem, Vivan Rorer, Debbie Ambruso, Carol Jones, Chris Pruitt, Linda Sielaf, Janet Huff, Theresa Theder, Michelle Lowman, Andrea Adams, Kris Hallisy, Faith Johnson.

UW's Kohl Center

The Kohl Center replaced the UW Field House (1929) as the venue for UW basketball in January of 1998. A replica of the crest on the Field House was installed on the front fascia of the Kohl Center. The 10,000-pound crest welcomes fans to the 17,142-seat facility that also serves the university and the community for special events. The Kohl Center conveniently houses all aspects of BadgerBall including coaches' offices, lockerrooms, study and training areas, practice and competitive facilities.

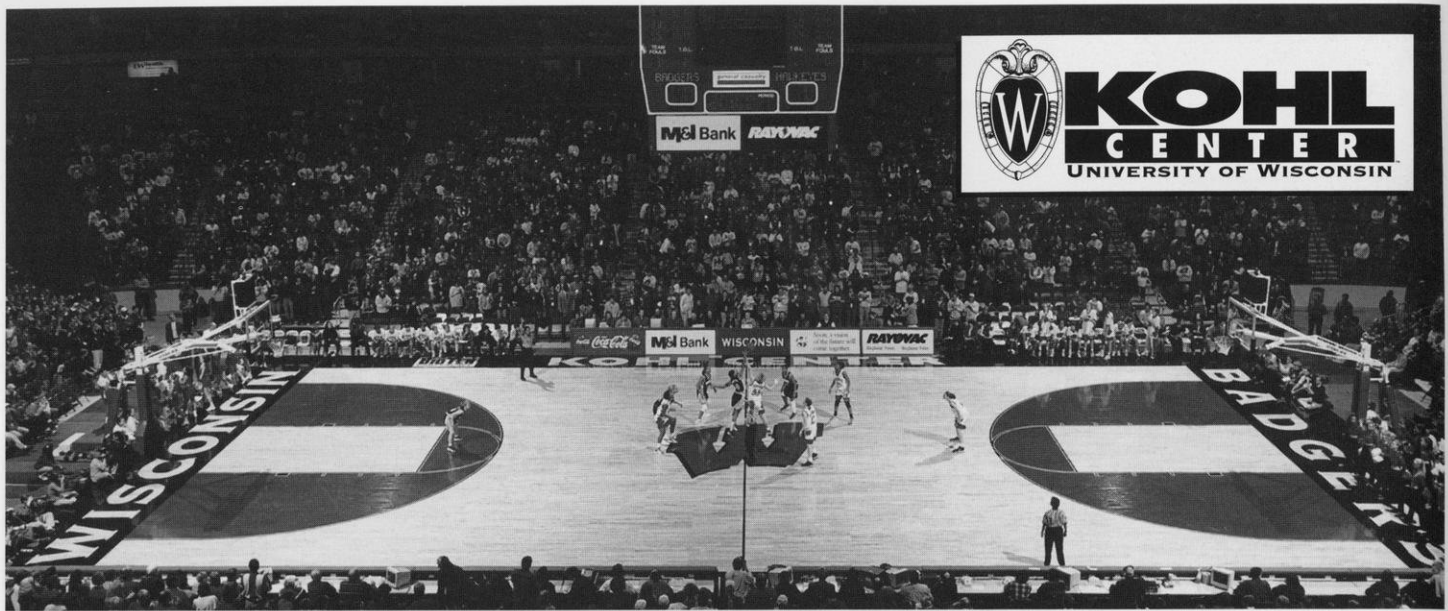

Situated conveniently in the center of the UW-campus, the Kohl Center sits across from the Southeast Dorms. Located at 601 West Dayton, it is easily accessible via Park Street and is near the intersection of East Washington Avenue and Regent Street.

"The Kohl Center provides a showcase of what we want to be. John Wooden said what took his program to the next level before he won all of his national championships was Pauley Pavilion. Very simply, it affected the recruiting. People wanted to come and play in that building. This is state of the art. It is one of the top places to play in the country."

Badger Coach Jane Albright

The Kohl Center

Wisconsin's new multi-purpose athletic center is state-of-the-art with a capacity of up to 17,142 seats. BadgerBall's tipoff was Jan. 20, 1998, with Wisconsin averaging 13,260 in seven home games that first year. The facility provides the opportunity to host stage shows, concerts and athletic events such as the 1998 Division I NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship and NCAA Men's Regional Basketball event in 2002.

The Kohl Center is the happy home for the UW Women's Basketball team having had its inaugural opening Jan. 20, 1998 with a declared sell-out vs. the University of Iowa. At the current pace of success established by the women hoopsters, the Kohl Center could very well become the home of the first Wisconsin women's basketball Big Ten championship team.

Since opening, the building has met with much success. Areas specific to the UW women's program were designed by the Wisconsin coaches with the women's program in mind. From computers to lounge areas to audio/video systems, the Kohl Center provides a competitive floor, practice and study areas all in one place. The coaching offices are also located at the Kohl Center.

Major Benefactors

The building is named for U.S. Sen. Herb Kohl (D-Wisconsin), a 1956 graduate of the UW-Madison, who donated $25 million to the project. Kohl's gift is the single largest private donation in University history. Kohl earned his Bachelor of Science degree in American Institutions from Wisconsin-Madison.

Former all-Big Ten basketball player Albert "Ab" Nicholas and his wife, Nancy Johnson Nicholas, pledged $10 million toward the project. The facility's practice gymnasium is named the Nicholas-Johnson Pavilion and Plaza. Nicholas received his B.S. and M.B.A. degrees from the UW-Madison.

The Kellner family—Jack F. and his sons, Ted and Jack W. of Milwaukee gave $2.5 million. All three Kellners received degrees from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

The Kohl Concourse is the main entry to the lower seating bowl and the suites. 'The Mendota Wall', a glass sculpture valued at over $1 million and created by world renowned artist and former UW graduate, Dale Chihuly, is shown above the crowd at gate A of the Kohl Center.

Capacity

The Kohl Center seats 17,142 for basketball. That figure includes 7,500 seats in the lower seating bowl and 4,500 in each of the two balconies. The unique design of the Kohl Center (with two overhanging balconies) guarantees that all fans will be close to the playing floor with excellent site lines. The facility seats approximately 14,000 for hockey, and between 15,000 and 17,000 for concerts.

Spacious Locker Rooms

The Kohl Center includes lockers for UW men's and women's basketball and hockey. Four other locker rooms (for visitors or multiple teams during WIAA tournaments) also are in the arena.

The 2,200 square-foot, state-of-the-art locker areas have been designed with the needs of student-athletes in mind including team organizational meetings, an athletes' social area, and study and computer carrels. The athletes have a lounge area with sound system, video room, computers available in the study room, and, of course, a spacious dressing and shower area complete with multiple outlets and lighted mirrors.

The $76 million Kohl Center opened in January of 1998. The arena is located on campus and has become a major showcase for Madison's cultural and sporting events. Shown above is the women's locker room (right) and the auxiliary practice facility (above); on the top right is the team meeting area.

● Practice Pavilion

The Nicholas-Johnson Pavilion houses three full-size basketball courts to be used for practice sessions when the Kohl Center is booked for other events. Pre-game booster club functions are also scheduled in the practice gym.

● Check List of Team and Fan Amenities

- For the Athletes: Huge lockerrooms that include attached lounges, video/meeting rooms, and study areas with practice facility attached.
- For the Coaches: Spacious offices with westward views of the campus including the Field House and Camp Randall Stadium.
- For the Support Areas: Sports medicine, sports information, concessions/catering, and physical plant have ample and convenient work areas. The UW ticket office has totally relocated to new offices in the Kohl Center.

- For the Fans and Suites: A state-of-the-art sound system has been implemented in the Kohl Center and TV monitors (capable of showing replays) are wired to the suites and above concessions stands throughout the building.
- For the Fans: Extra-wide concourses (two), a number of food courts on both levels, numerous restrooms and merchandise outlets.
- Also For the Fans: The cantilever design replicates the overhang effect of the former Field House (1929) without the obstructions. Sightlines are tremendous from every seat. At center court, you can look up at three ascending, cheering spectator areas—an awesome and intimidating sight for our opponents.

"The Kohl Center represents a tremendous advantage for University of Wisconsin basketball. It provides us with a state-of-the-art facility right on campus and convenient for our student-athletes and fans. The interior structure and proximity of the crowd to the court are particularly pleasing in duplicating the exciting atmosphere we had at the UW Field House. This building has helped ensure our basketball program will take its place among the nation's elite."

Badgers Make Their World Mark

Members of the BadgerBall family have made their mark on the world of basketball. In 1996, Jane Albright returned victorious from Taiwan where she was the gold medal-winning head coach for the USA Jones Cup team. Other members of the UW team have taken world tours as Big Ten all-Stars visiting such countries as Austria, Belgium, Denmark, England, France, Germany, Japan, Hungary, Australia, Slovakia, Sweden, Switzerland, and the Czech Republic. Team travels have included the Northern Lights Invitational in Anchorage, Alaska in 1997, and the Virgin Islands in 2001. Wisconsin took its second foreign tour in May of 1999 to Australia visiting Sydney, touring the 2000 Olympic venue, diving at the Great Barrier Reef, and competing in four games in a 14-day tour. The team toured New York City in 1999, and will be at Arizona in 2001.

BadgerBall has provided many student-athletes access to world-wide travel. Players have participated in the Big Ten All-Star tours since 1992, and the Wisconsin team has the opportunity to take a foreign tour every four years. The foreign-touring Big Ten all-Star teams have traveled extensively to most of the European countries, and have even ventured to Australia and Japan.

Athletes also may be invited to participate in USA basketball tours abroad. Head Coach Jane Albright returned from Taiwan in 1996, where her Jones Cup team brought home the gold medal. Former Badger Barb Franke also competed in Taiwan and Canada as a member of two different USA teams.

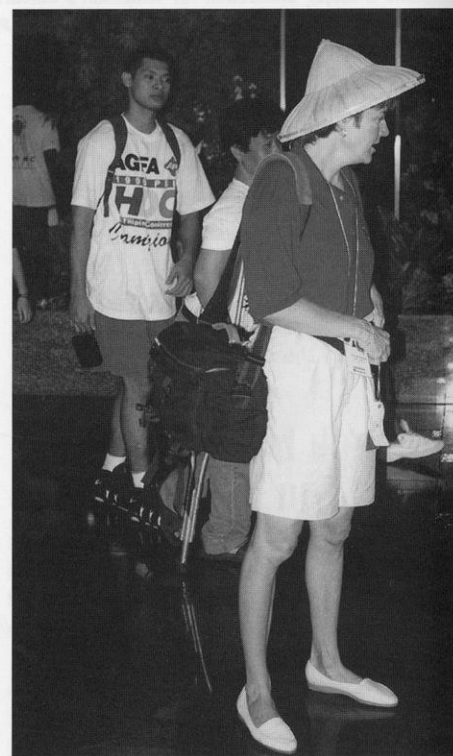

Wisconsin's foreign tours have included what most of the athletes described as the trip of a lifetime in 1999, spending 14 days seeing the sights of Australia while playing four games. Many of the sites viewed during the 27th Olympiad held in September of 2000 in Sydney were visited by the Badgers.

BadgerBall had its first foreign tour in 1995 playing a four-game schedule while traveling to Paris, France, Antwerp, Belgium and London, England.

Plans are currently being made for the next foreign tour in 2003.

Several Badgers enjoy diving and snorkeling at the Great Barrier Reef during the team's 1999 tour of Australia.

Coach Jane Albright served as the head coach of the 1996 USA R. William Jones Cup team which competed over an 11-day period in Taiwan bringing home the gold medal with a perfect 9-0 record.

The Badgers have traveled coast-to-coast and to Alaska and Hawaii in search of the best competition and adventure. The juniors choose the tournament location for their senior season. The Badgers have ventured to big cities like New York, and scenic locales like Alaska or the Virgin Islands for tournaments.

Promoting the Badgers

The popularity of BadgerBall is in part due to the efforts of Jane Albright, the players the marketing staff, and the great ideas the team and staff generate for posters.

Having fun is a part of Badger Women's Basketball, and sharing that fun with their fans is a high priority.

The players and coaches are available for autograph sessions after most games, and their posters and trading cards have become collectors' items through the years.

A World Class University

The University of Wisconsin-Madison, one of the nation's largest and most productive institutions of higher education, is dedicated to the support of academic freedom.

Founded in 1848, the first class of 17 students enrolled February 5, 1849. Today, UW-Madison ranks as the nation's ninth largest university with 41,219 students. The student body is one of the most diverse in the country with students coming from every state in the nation.

As one of the nation's first land-grant universities, UW-Madison maintains a strong research emphasis in agricultural and life sciences. Award-winning research spanning the academic disciplines, however, has earned UW-Madison a place among the world's elite institutions of higher education.

● 12 Schools & Colleges

More than 4,500 courses and 13,000 sections are offered in UW-Madison's 12 schools and colleges. Majors are available in 137 undergraduate, 157 master's, and 113 doctoral degree programs.

Wisconsin consistently ranks among the top 10 public universities in the United States. The quality of its undergraduate, graduate and research programs is recognized around the world.

UW-Madison tied for eighth best national public university in 2001 according to U.S. News & World Report. Twenty-two Wisconsin programs ranked among the top-20 universities.

"A visit to the University of Wisconsin campus might be enough to convince you to attend this institution of higher learning. The campus, filled with lakes, trees, and a rich mixture of architectural design, is spectacular.

"Another reason you'll be convinced to attend UW is its academics. The university offers some of the best programs in the country, from business to journalism to the sciences and foreign languages."

The flagship school of the state UW system, UW-Madison has always sought to return the fruits of teaching and research to Wisconsin residents. The institution offers the only public schools of law, medicine and veterinary medicine in the state and is one of only two state-supported schools to offer doctoral degrees.

The UW's commitment to public service was first voiced by Charles Van

Hise, UW president from 1903–1918. The “Wisconsin Idea” ensures that “the beneficent influence of the university (be) available to every home in the state.”

● A Scenic Campus

One of the most picturesque college campuses in the country, UW–Madison covers 933 acres along the beautiful shores of Lake Mendota.

One mile from the Capitol, traveling down historic State Street, Bascom Hall serves as a centerpiece to campus. It sits atop the beautiful tree-lined Bascom Hill, which offers a magnificent view of downtown Madison. The city was designed so the University and state would be linked, signifying the interrelated nature of the academic and political life of Wisconsin.

Madison's lakes, rolling hills, architecture, parks and arboretum enhance UW–Madison's reputation for scenic beauty.

Points of interest on campus include a bronze statue of Abraham Lincoln on Bascom Hill; North Hall, the first building on campus; the Carillon Tower in front of the Social Science building; Library Mall, with its clock tower and fountain; Picnic Point, a 129-acre peninsula of woods, trails and beaches that juts out into Lake Mendota; and Science Hall and the Armory-Gymnasium, both of which are National Historic Landmarks.

A favorite area for UW students to gather is the Memorial Union and its lakeside terrace. Here students can study or socialize against a backdrop of sailboats, canoes, sailboards, kayaks and swimmers, while enjoying the sunshine and breezes from Madison's largest lake, Mendota.

Camp Randall Stadium is the place to be on a Saturday afternoon, especially during the infamous Fifth Quarter after a football game when the band entertains. The newly opened Kohl Center is home to the UW men's and women's basketball and men's ice hockey teams as well as a regular concert stop.

● The Student Body

More than 41,000 students populate the UW campus, including more than 10,900 graduate and professional students in numerous fields.

Although a UW Board of Regents policy limits undergraduate enrollment from outside the state to 25 percent, the University still maintains one of the nation's most diverse student bodies.

Students hail from every county in the state and every state in the nation, as well as from 102 foreign countries. UW–Madison ranks ninth in the nation for total international student enrollment.

In the fall of 2000, African Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans and other minority groups accounted for more than nine percent of the student body.

Funding & Support

► Federal Grants: In 2000, UW-Madison received more than $331 million in federal awards.

► Research and Development Funds: UW-Madison ranked fifth in the country for research and development expenditures in 2000, with $566 million, according to the National Science Foundation.

► Tuition: Over the last 10 years, tuition for undergraduates at the UW-Madison has been consistently lower than the average for Big Ten schools, ranking second-lowest for resident tuition and third-lowest nonresident tuition among the public institutions.

► Private Support: With private gifts totalling $270 million in 2000, Wisconsin ranks first among all public institutions and sixth among all institutions.

► Alumni: The Wisconsin Alumni Association has a network of chapters in more than 125 cities around the world helping to serve some 300,000 alumni. The chapters have raised more than $4 million in matching-fund scholarships.

► Peace Corps Volunteers: UW-Madison has produced the second-most number of volunteers since the program's founding.

► Libraries: The UW-Madison has the 14th-largest university library collection in the United States, with more than 5.8 million books in 45 libraries across campus.

● City of Madison

A progressive, cosmopolitan city of over 200,000, Madison is home to the world-class University of Wisconsin, the seat of state government, and an eclectic, electric atmosphere that energizes any visitor's stay.

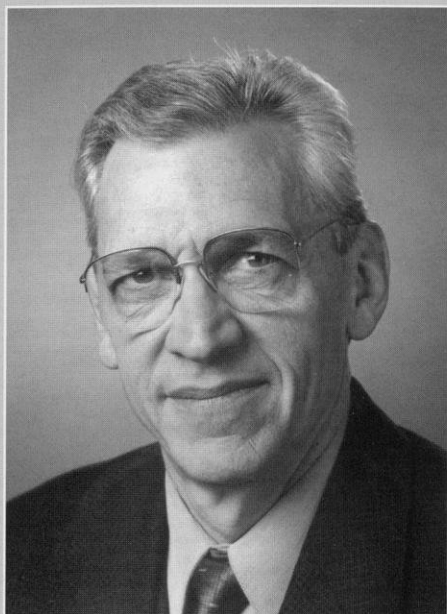

Madison offers both small town charm and a range of cultural and recreational opportunities usually found in much larger cities. And, with four lakes and over 200 parks, it is one of the nation's most scenic cities. A host of picturesque communities, many retaining their strong ethnic heritage, surrounds the city.

"Mad City" offers the "big city" spheres of politics, arts and entertainment, as well as the attributes of a small town. It is a family and action-oriented community that promotes participation in government, education, the arts, sports and recreational activities.

Madison consistently ranks as a top community in which to live, work, play and raise a family. It was named the best place to live in America in 1996 by Money magazine. Again, in 1998 Money magazine rated Madison the best mid-sized city in the Midwest. The magazine also rated Madison as one of the top 15 "great sports towns" in the country. A&E Network cited it as one of the Top 10 Cities to Have It All.

Wisconsin Administration

● John Wiley

John Wiley was named chancellor of Wisconsin in January 2001 becoming the university's 27th leader.

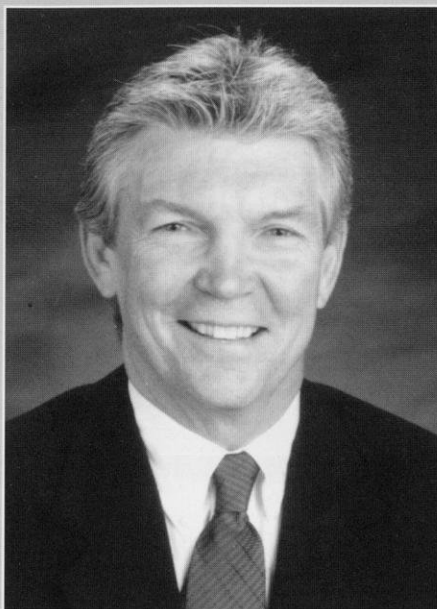

Prior to being named chancellor, Wiley served as the university's provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs. He was also the dean of the Graduate School and the university's senior research officer.

In his positions, Wiley has represented the institution for a variety of external constituencies. He has also been deeply involved in fundraising.

As provost, Wiley was chief operating officer and deputy chancellor working in the exercise of shared governance and the overall management of the institution.

Wiley received his bachelor's degree in physics from Indiana University in 1964. He attended graduate school at Wisconsin as a NSF fellow and received master's and doctoral degrees in physics in 1965 and 1968, respectively.

Wiley joined the Wisconsin faculty in the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering in 1975. He was the co-founder of several highly successful research centers.

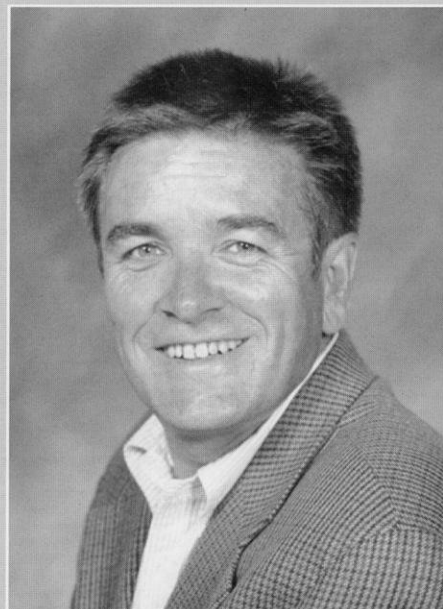

● Pat Richter

Pat Richter, a former UW student-athlete, professional football player, and successful businessman, was the perfect choice to become Wisconsin's athletic director in December of 1989.

An all-America tight end for Wisconsin's 1963 Rose Bowl football team, Richter had a distinguished career with the National Football League's Washington Redskins from 1963-71. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame.

Richter earned his bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from the UW in 1964, earning Academic all-America honors in 1962 and was named Wisconsin's Big Ten Medal of Honor recipient in 1963. He received his law degree from the UW in 1971. In 1995, he was inducted into the GTE/CoSIDA Academic Hall of Fame, and was honored as an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award winner for post-college achievements.

After employment with a Madison law firm, he joined the Oscar Mayer Foods Corp., becoming vice president of personnel prior to moving to the athletic department.

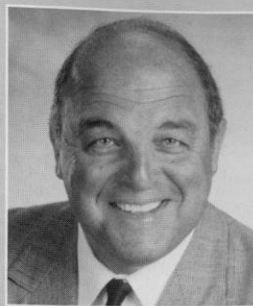

● David McDonald

David McDonald, the former chair of the UW Athletic Board, is in his first year as the Special Assistant to the Chancellor for Athletics.

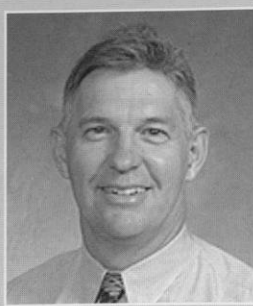

McDonald, a professor in the History department, was a member of the board since 1994 and chaired the personnel committee for one year.

A UW professor since 1988, McDonald offers courses in the history of pre-revolutionary Russia, as well as modern Europe. His research and publications cover a variety of topics including: bureaucratic politics in the early twentieth century, nineteenth century Russian thought, and the social history of the eighteenth century nobility.

A native of Saskatchewan, Canada, McDonald earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Toronto. He received his Ph.D. from Columbia University.

Wisconsin Athletics—A Winning Program

The University of Wisconsin—Madison offers its student-athletes one of the premier intercollegiate athletic programs in the country.

As a member of the prestigious Big Ten Conference, Wisconsin offers its student-athletes the best in education, athletic opportunities, coaching and on-field competition at the NCAA Division I level.

Celebrating over 100 years of competition in some men's sports, Wisconsin's men's teams compete in basketball, cross country, football, golf, ice hockey, rowing, swimming and diving, soccer, tennis, track and field, and wrestling.

Established July 1, 1974, the 12-sport women's athletic program offers basketball, cross country, golf, ice hockey, lightweight rowing, openweight rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field, and volleyball.

● One of the Nation's Best

In the last six years, Wisconsin has ranked among the top 35 NCAA Division I programs in the nation. In 2000-01, the UW ranked 19th in the Sears/National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Directors Cup competition, which recognizes the best college sports programs in the country.

The Wisconsin men's and women's cross country teams both won the Big Ten Conference Championship on their home course in 2000. The women won a record-tying sixth consecutive title while the men's team won its second consecutive championship.

Seventeen of Wisconsin's 23 sports qualified as teams or individuals for their respective national championships in 2000-01. The volleyball team finished second at the NCAA Championship while the men's cross country team was fifth. The wrestling team finished 10th as Donny Pritzlaff won his second consecutive individual title at 165 pounds.

Qualifying for post-season competition as teams or individuals were men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, women's golf, men's hockey, men's and women's rowing, women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's track and field, volleyball and wrestling.

The Wisconsin men's rowing team won the Ten Eyck Trophy, which signifies overall program excellence at the Intercollegiate Rowing Championship, for the second consecutive year.

Note: The Big Ten All-Sports standings are not officially recognized by the conference office. Points are awarded for each school's finish in 13 women's and 12 men's championships. The first-place team receives 11 points while the 11th-place team receives one point. The total points are divided by the number of sports in which each school participates.

● The Big Ten's Best

The University of Wisconsin regained its title as the No. 1 overall athletic program in the Big Ten Conference in 2000-01. The Badgers lead the league's all-sports standings last season after finishing third in 1999-2000. Wisconsin has finished first three times and second five times since 1990-91.

The Wisconsin volleyball team won the 2000 Big Ten Championship and finished second in the NCAA Tournament.

The Badgers crowned five Big Ten team champions in men's and women's cross country, men's indoor and outdoor track, and volleyball. The women harriers won a record-tying sixth consecutive title while the men's harriers won their second consecutive title. The Badger men's track and cross country teams won the Big Ten "Triple Crown", conference titles in all three running sports, for the second consecutive year and for the fifth time in the last seven years.

The Badger men's track and field team won its second consecutive Big Ten Triple Crown in 2000-01, sweeping the conference titles in cross country, indoor track and outdoor track. Wisconsin is shown celebrating its Big Ten Outdoor Track and Field title.

NCAA Championships

In the last eight years, the University of Wisconsin has hosted five NCAA Championships.

The Badgers have played host to the NCAA Men's Ice Hockey Championship in 1993 and 1997. The 1993 event sold out in three months, the fastest sell-out in NCAA hockey history.

Wisconsin played host to the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship in 1993 and 1998. The Badgers shattered the attendance records for the championship match and two-day event both years.

The UW was also the site of the 1998 NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship. The event was the first national championship held at University Ridge Golf Course and the first women's championship shown live on national television showcasing University Ridge.

The NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament will come to Wisconsin in 2002 when the Badgers play host to a regional in the Kohl Center.

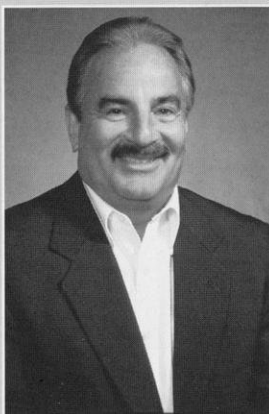

Academic & Student Services

The mission of the Academic Affairs Office is to provide student-athletes with the maximum opportunity for academic and athletic excellence. University of Wisconsin athletes have a history of academic success and much of the credit for that impressive record is due to the advising system available to the student-athletes.

Director Alan Zussman supervises a staff of five advisors and three learning specialists which conduct the program offered to the nearly 750 student-athletes. The advising staff of Mary Weaver-Klees, Thomas Browne, Chris Butler, and Jerry Darda along with learning specialists Doug Tiedt, Mary Ellen Rock and Nancy Gatyas, have a comprehensive understanding of academics at Wisconsin, and a permanent line of communication with all university departments. The staff renders quality academic and personal support to student-athletes and assists coaches in providing the best possible collegiate experience.

For those student-athletes who request assistance, advising sessions are offered on a one-to-one basis at a time appropriate for the athlete. Wisconsin athletes are degree-oriented while allowing for the flexibility to explore different areas. The advising staff takes a personal approach to each athlete in determining his or her individual needs, personal or academic.

Student-athletes at Wisconsin receive recognition for outstanding academics in a number of ways. The Big Ten Conference honors scholar-athletes with Academic all-Big Ten honors while the UW Athletic Board recognizes Athletic Board Scholars for the highest grade point average in each sport. In addition, student-athletes may be nominated for Academic All-America honors through the sports information office.

The Fetzer Student Athlete Academic Services center, a state-of-the-art facility located in the lower level of the McClain Center, opened in 1997. The $2.1 million center is one of the best in the nation and includes 11 study rooms, a computer room, and a 55-seat auditorium.

● Fetzer Student-Athlete Center

Opened in the spring of 1997, the Fetzer Student Athlete Academic Center is the newest aid to Wisconsin student-athletes in achieving their academic goals.

The 15,000 square-foot, state-of-the-art facility serves the needs of all men and women student-athletes. The Center features an open area with carrels that can accommodate up to 30 students. There are 11 study rooms of different shapes and sizes including a 55-seat auditorium. A computer room houses 40 PC's while the entire Center is wired with voice/data jacks and power ports.

Student-athletes can drop in before practice or between classes to study or meet with the advisors and grant-in-aid staff whose offices are also located in the center.

Endowed Athletic Scholarships

As more and more colleges and universities turn to innovative and effective ways of meeting the mounting financial challenges of supporting their intercollegiate athletic programs, it becomes increasingly evident that one of the most successful strategies is the establishment of endowed athletic scholarships.

At the University of Wisconsin-Madison, endowment funds to support athletic scholarships are normally created through gifts to the UW Foundation. A portion of the income from the endowed fund is used each year for scholarship support, and the remainder is reinvested in the principal.

The following endowed scholarships, named for the donor or for someone the donor wishes to honor, provide full or partial grants-in-aid to Badger student-athletes. Many thanks to our generous supporters!

For information about how to create a named scholarship in men's or women's athletics or how to contribute to an established endowment, please contact Wayne Hansen, Director of Development for Intercollegiate Athletics, UW Foundation, 1848 University Ave., Madison, WI 53705; Phone: (608) 265-2609; wayne.hansen@uwfoundation.wisc.edu

Sports Medicine

The goal of the sports medicine staff is to provide all University of Wisconsin student-athletes with high quality health care. Wisconsin's Sports Medicine program features state-of-the-art facilities and the services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals.

The sports medicine staff consists of team physicians, dentists, athletic trainers, and other medical and allied health professionals. The day-to-day care, prevention, and treatment of injuries to Wisconsin athletes is supervised by a staff of 11 full-time and two graduate assistant N.A.T.A.-certified and State of Wisconsin licensed athletic trainers.

Under the direction of head athletic trainer Dennis Helwig, the Sports Medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Staff members Beth Cranley, Chuck Hart, Andy Hrodey, Jan Helwig, Mike Moll, Henry Perez-Guerra, Heidi Stettler, Laura Walluk, and Ian Woods utilize functional measures, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve flexibility. Full-time nutritionist Jeremy Isensee provides dietary analysis and supervises training table meals to enhance the performance of the student-athletes.

The Sports Medicine facility in the McClain Center features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment including a 50-foot, two-lane-rehabilitation pool, and an on-site x-ray facility. Considered one of the nations finest, the McClain Sports Medicine Center offers an environment conducive to expedient care, and a healthy return to competition.

Should an injury occur, athletes are seen immediately by team physicians affiliated with the world-renowned UW Hospitals and Clinics. Medical director

Strength & Conditioning

The Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is a key component of all of the Badger teams' success on the playing field. The program's goal is to increase the overall performance of each student-athlete, prevent injuries and help athletes reach their potential.

Head strength and conditioning coach John Dettman along with assistant coaches Brian Bott, Ryan Feek, Paul Goodman, Scott Hettenbach and Andrea Tyndall work with the UW coaches to develop training programs to enhance each athletes' performance.

Badger athletes work on their strength programs in weight room located in the McClain Center, Camp Randall Stadium and Kohl Center.

The McClain Center weight room is the largest of the facilities and features over 45,000 pounds of free weights and over 50 weight machines. The room has seven squat racks, eight bench press stations, eight flat-to-incline benches, six Olympic lift platforms and numerous other free weight stations.

The Badger Den is comprised of purely free weight equipment. There are five power stations with each station consisting of a platform for Olympic style lifting as well as a squat rack, bench press, incline bench press, pull up station and a station to do dips. There is also three lat pull machines as well as seated row machines. The Stadium weight room also has a complete set of dumbbells from five pounds up to 85 pounds. There is also a set of plyometric boxes for plyometrics as well as for alternative leg exercises.

"The goal of the Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is to train for total athletic excellence. We profile each student-athlete upon arrival and set up specific training regimens to help athletes reach their individual potential. The plan is to build overall strength, speed, agility and stamina. Our program is comprehensive and the end result is that we are as productive on the athletic field as possible."

Facilities

The McClain Athletic Facility features a 90-yard indoor practice field with newly resurfaced artificial turf. The lower level houses the Fetzer Student Academic Center, the headquarters of the Badgers' Sports Medicine staff, a fully-equipped weight room and locker rooms for football, track, softball, and soccer.

The Camp Randall Memorial Sports Center or Shell, which seats 2,500 fans, features a 200-meter Martin rubber track with throwing and jumping areas in the infield.

The Kohl Center is the home of the Badger basketball and hockey teams. One of the finest on-campus athletic facilities in the nation, the $76 million facility includes a separate practice gym, locker rooms and lounge areas, and coaches' offices.

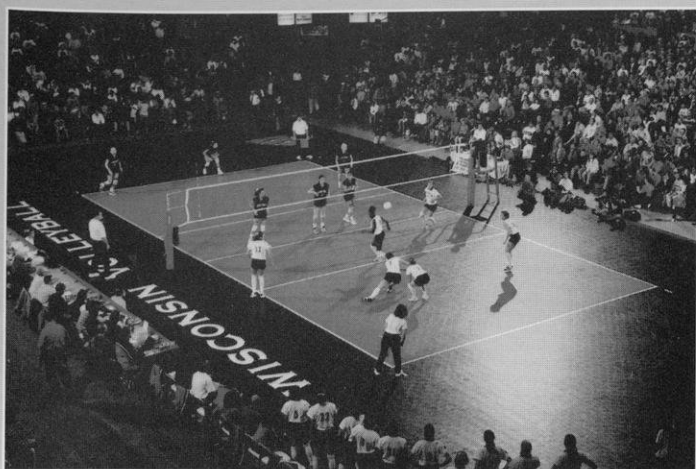

Camp Randall Stadium is the home of the football Badgers and has a seating capacity of 76,634. The stadium will be renovated beginning in 2001, increasing seating and adding an athletic department office building.

The Goodman Brothers Softball Complex has an NCAA-regulation, natural grass field with a centerfield distance of 220 feet, and left and right field foul line distances of 200 feet. The facility includes dugouts, locker areas, players' lounge, grandstand seating for 1,600 and media facilities.

The Wisconsin Field House, which seats 10,600, is the practice and competitive facility for the Badger volleyball team as well as the competitive facility for the wrestling squad.

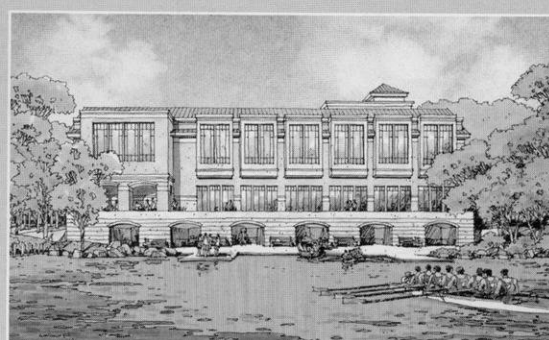

Nielsen Tennis Stadium is the year-round home of the Badger tennis teams. The stadium features 18 tennis courts (12 indoor and six outdoor), five squash courts, one squash doubles court, and seats 1,500 spectators.

The swimming and diving teams have two pools for practice and competition—the Natatorium and Southeast Recreational Facility. The “Nat” contains an eight-lane, 25-yard pool equipped with an automatic Colorado Timing System and digital readout score board. The 50’ x 40’ diving well is fitted with three one-meter and two three-meter Dura (Maxi) Flex boards. The SERF (pictured above) features an indoor long course pool with movable bulkheads that more than double the program’s training space.

University Ridge, one of the finest golf courses in the Midwest, features a par-72, 18-hole course, 15,000-square foot practice green and a 5,000-square foot chipping green.

Wisconsin Traditions

● Badger Nickname

The sports program's nickname "Badgers," was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin. The territory was dubbed the "Badger State," not because of animals in the region, but rather by an association with lead miners in the 1820's. Prospectors came to the state looking for minerals. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like Badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

● Bucky Badger

Although badgers in various forms had been the University of Wisconsin mascot for decades, the version that is currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by professional illustrator Art Evans.

The original live badger mascot was too vicious to control. On more than one occasion, the badger escaped handlers before a sideline hero recaptured the animal. It was decided in the interest of fan and player safety that Wisconsin's mascot would be retired to the Madison zoo.

In 1949, a student in the university's art department, Connie Conrad, was commissioned to mold a paper-mache badger head. Gymnast and cheerleader, Bill Sagal of Plymouth, Wis., was directed by homecoming chair Bill Sachse, to wear the outfit at the homecoming game. A pep rally was held to determine the mascot's name. The rally committee opted for its own name: Buckingham U. Badger. The name is said by some to have originated in a line from the school song, "On, Wisconsin" that exhorts the UW gridiron heroes to "buck right through that line."

● Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've said it all," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karen for Budweiser beer commercials. Copyrighted by Sandlee Publishing Corporation in 1970, the song has become legendary at the University because of its polka-like rhythm. Band director Michael Leckrone said the song's popularity got started at a 1975 hockey game. "The crowd wanted to hear a polka," he said. "I didn't have any polkas. Just by accident, we had this beer commercial in the tunes we play. I told the band if we substituted the word 'Wisconsin' for 'Budweiser' it would work."

Leckrone said the song became a football tradition after a 1978 come-from-behind victory over Oregon. "Wisconsin was behind by three touchdowns, and the crowd was really dead. I played the song to get everyone pepped up. About 20 seconds after that, Wisconsin scored a touchdown. I played it again, and Wisconsin scored another touchdown. From then on, the band could never play enough 'Bud.'"

● Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer the band as they play traditional favorites like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song. Originally, the post-game concert was designed to give fans something to listen to on their way out of the stadium, but it developed into a post-game party as the band built in audience participation.

Mission Statement

The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Wisconsin-Madison dedicates itself to the mission of providing athletic opportunities to a wide range of students and an environment in which all student-athletes can achieve their academic and competitive goals. The Division strives to provide equitable opportunities for all student-athletes and staff, regardless of gender or ethnic background. To honor its academic mission and that of the university, the Division supports the educational aspirations, academic progress and general welfare of the student-athlete. In competition, the Division fosters principles of sportsmanship, respect and fair play. In all of its activities, the Division insists on integrity, ethical conduct and accountability.

● On Wisconsin

The tune was composed in 1909 by William Purdy of Chicago, with the words written by UW alumnus Carl Beck, who rewrote them in 1951. The song was an instant hit at the Wisconsin campus and soon spread throughout the world, being very popular with military bands. Some 2,500 schools and colleges have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs.

● Varsity

The traditional arm waving that comes at the end of the song "Varsity" was the 1934 brainchild of then-UW band leader Ray Dvorak. He had originally gotten the idea from University of Pennsylvania students who waved their caps after a losing game. Dvorak later instructed UW students to wave as a salute to UW President Glenn Frank.

"Var-sity! Var-sity! U-rah-rah! Wisconsin! Praise to thee we sing Praise to thee our alma mater U-rah-rah, Wisconsin!"

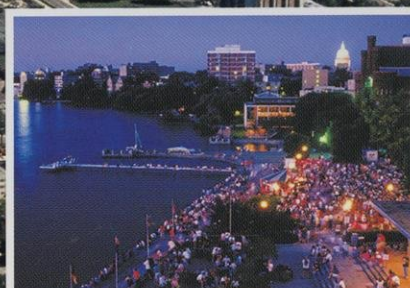

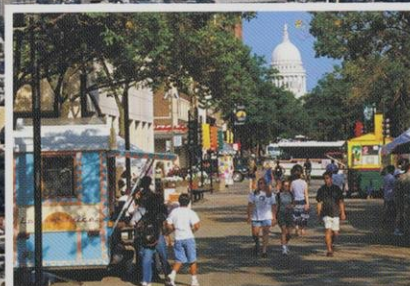

Bucky Badger and the spirit squad entertain fans at many UW home events.
