THE GIRL I LOVED IN OLD VIRGINIA.

Words by Andrew B. Sterling.

Music by Max Dreyfus.

Moderato.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in G major, marked 'Moderato' and 'mf'. The introduction consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system of piano accompaniment is followed by the vocal melody. The lyrics are: '1. Oft, in fan - cy, I am roaming Thro' the meadows, in the gloaming, Far a - 2. From the arm-chair where I'm dreaming, I see children's faces beaming, There are way 'neath old Vir - gin - ia's sun - ny sky; And I brok - en play - things scat - ter'd on the floor; And I seem to live life o - ver, As I wan - der thro' the clo - ver, With the hear sweet voic - es call - ing, As the twi - light shades are fall - ing, But I'. The piano accompaniment continues throughout the song, providing harmonic support for the vocal line.

CHORUS.

Now the brook runs thro' the mead-ow, and it sings the same sweet song; We used to sit and list-en to its mu-sic all day long. I am dreaming of the day that's gone and the girl I loved in old Vir - gin - - ia.
