The matter of cooperating with the State and United States Government in a building program was discussed and upon motion of Regent Backus, seconded by Regent Christopherson, the following resolution was adopted, Regent Grady voting "No":

RESOLVED, That the construction projects and approximate costs described in annexed schedule are hereby authorized and approved subject to being financed as part of the National Recovery Act program by the United States Government. The Executive and Finance Committees are authorized through any proper agent or agencies to complete in cooperation with the Governor of this state and other state officials all necessary arrangements to secure the necessary funds from the United States Government and to fix and establish such fees or charges in connection with said buildings and for the use of same as shall insure the repayment to the United States Government of the sums advanced for such construction to the extent that same may be required to be repaid together with interest thereon. The schedule follows:

Proposed University of Wisconsin Constructional Projects from Federal Funds

✓ Addition to the Law Building	$165,000
✓ Electrical Engineering Building	330,000
✓ Short Course Dormitory and Refectory	165,000
✓ Addition to Union Building	500,000
	$1,160,000

✓ Upon recommendation of the President and upon motion of Regent Gundersen, seconded by Regent Eimon, the list of pre- and post-summer session credits and fees as earned during the summer of 1933 totaling $1416.30, was approved. (List attached.) copy in record book

as follows: ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ X

✓ At this point Regent Wilkie requested Regent Callahan to preside. Regent Wilkie then presented the following resolution:

MOVED, That the schedule of salary waivers as adopted by the special committee on waivers on August 4, 1933, shall be changed and modified so that the scale of waivers shall be graduated from 12% to 27½% in total effect on salaries according to the schedule hereto attached, the maximum waiver on the first $1,000 of any salary not to exceed 12% and the maximum waiver in total effect on any salary not to exceed 27½% and the rate on the $1,000 between $7,000 and $8,000 to be approximately 36.5 and above $8,000 the graduation to ascend so that the total actual waiver on any salary shall not exceed 27½%.

Exemptions shall be allowed substantially as follows:

On salary or compensation of married men whose wives are not employed and who have one or more dependent children under 18 years of age, an exemption from waiver of annual compensation of $500 and $300 for each such dependent child, said amounts to be taken from lowest part of salary and waiver applicable thereto.

Same exemption for women who have dependent children and who do not have employed husbands.

On salaries or compensation of those whose time or compensation has been reduced during 1933 and applicable to the year 1933-34 no waiver shall be exacted if the cut in earnings for 1933-34 has been equal or greater than the waiver under above schedule and if less than such waiver then the waiver shall be for the difference.

In adjusting the waivers of compensation of janitors, any conflict with Sec. 36.07 Wis. Statutes shall be avoided.

The executive committee and finance committee are directed to modify the waiver schedule so as to comply as near as may be with above directions and shall make adjustments on all salary or compensation payments since July 1st to conform to the revised schedule. The matter of establishing the final schedule of waivers in accordance with above directions for the year 1933 to 1934 and making adjustments so that same shall relate back to July 1, 1933, is referred to executive committee with power to act.

The matter of adjusting time cuts or cuts in compensation is likewise referred to executive and finance committees with power to act by way of revision of the budget in this respect with the direction that so far as possible the underlying spirit and principles of the National Recovery Act shall be applied.
