The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Mr Denning      The trustees have ordered me to ask the Supervisor to pay to them the money arising from the hire of the glades.

Will you be so good as to inform me by the bearer, what is the amount of that money, and if it is collected -

Yours

J. Hedges
