MEMORIAL UNION CAFETERIA REMODELING UNDERWAY

The doors are closed to the Memorial Union Lakefront Cafeteria and the work force is chipping away at the old decor, which has been on the walls, ceilings and floors for over 25 years.

When dinner was over on May 21, the glass doors were closed and they won't reopen until next fall when a fresh, new look will prevail. This is the first step in a project that will eventually include the Cafeteria serving line and food preparation area as well as the Rathskeller serving area.

The new decor will emphasize the room's natural setting overlooking Lake Mendota. The prevailing feeling will be of warmth and coziness with earth tones and plenty of wood. There will be wood paneling and wainscoting as well as white oak tables.

The floor will be partially carpeted and new energy-efficient lighting will be installed. An additional cashier station will be added to the existing three so that service can be speeded up during peak periods. To cut the drafts from the door to the terrace, it will be moved to the southwest corner of the room and a vestibule will be added.

The new Cafeteria will have over 570 seats in a variety of combinations. There will be one and two-person seating so that singles or couples need not occupy a full four-person table. Low-backed booths, round tables and a raised platform will provide variety and interest to the room. The platform will provide a better view of the lake for those seated away from the windows and will also double as a mini-stage for the entertainers at special dinners.

Funds for the remodeling project are from Union operating revenues and net income from prior years. There are no state tax dollars involved in the funding plan. It is expected that the first phase of the project will cost approximately $369,500.

The tables and chairs on the Union Terrace have already had heavy use this spring. The indomitable Lake Mendota ducks have returned and the Hooper sails are again whipping across the water. This summer, photo buffs will have a chance to enter their favorite terrace shots in a photo contest (which will also include an art show). First prize in the contest will be a Union Terrace chair (one of those now being produced by Wisco Industries of Oregon, Wis. for purchase by interested terrace devotees). Contest rules are available by calling 263-3924.

JULY 1 BRINGS INCREASE IN UNION MEMBERSHIP FEES

A Union membership remains one of the best bargains in town — even though the price for a membership will go up on July 1.

The new rate schedule, authorized by the Union Council and Union Trustees, will increase the annual membership fee from $35 to $40. After July 1, the non-student life membership fee, now $160, will be $180 if paid in four installments (three at $40 and the fourth payment at $60) or $200 if purchased over five years. All annual membership payments will continue to be credited toward a life membership.

Historically, membership fees for non-students have paralleled student fees. In the past few years, however, the percentage of the student fee allocated to the Union has increased; student members paid around $40 last year, while the non-member annual fee has remained a $35 since 1977. This factor, coupled with the increasing costs of maintaining membership services, led to the Council and Trustee decision. The new rate schedule also calls for an increase in the special life membership fee offered to students leaving the campus; that fee will go up from $35 to $40.

The Union's current annual members will have the opportunity to continue their payments toward a life membership at the lower fee. Information has been sent to all annual members, allowing them to pledge future payments at the old rate; pledge cards must be returned by September 1.

Information on the membership program and benefits is available from the Union Membership Office (608/262-2263).

OTHER FOOD SERVICES SET TO ABSORB CAFETERIA CUSTOMERS

While the Lakefront Cafeteria is being spruced up in its first redo since 1957, other Memorial Union food units will be providing more food choices during expanded service hours.

Tripp Commons on the second floor of the Memorial Union, will serve dinner four days a week as well as its traditional lunch. The lunch will include the popular Tripp salad bar as well as the full line of hot cafeteria items. A Sunday brunch will also be featured in Tripp. The service hours will be: Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.; Monday through Thursday, 5 - 6:15 p.m.; Sunday, 11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m.

The Rathskeller will open earlier and offer a wider variety of breakfast items and a fast service breakfast counter. Summer hours will be: Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. - 9:30 p.m.; Saturday, 8 a.m. - 9:30 p.m.; Sunday, 9 a.m. - 9:30 p.m.

The Deli will also help out breakfast seekers. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. the Deli will offer Continental breakfast items. More tables and chairs will be available in the Commons lobby for those using this service. The summer Deli hours will be: Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday, noon - 10:30 p.m.

The Stiftskeller will offer beverage service from 11 a.m. until closing Monday through Saturday and noon to closing on Sunday. The Terrace Brat Stand will expand its hours and service during the Cafeteria remodeling as needed.

MINI COURSES START SUMMER SESSION JUNE 28

The Summer Session of Wisconsin Union Mini Courses will begin holding classes this year on June 28. The program is open to all Union members, including students, and to UW Madison faculty/staff and their spouses. A complete listing of course offerings is available in the Mini Course Summer Brochure.

Interested members can register by calling 262-3156 or 262-5771 beginning June 9. Phone registrations will be accepted weekdays through June 25, and require Visa or MasterCard for payment. There is an additional $1.00 charge for processing.

Mail registrations must be accompanied by a completed registration form (in the brochure) and by payment via Visa, MasterCard, or a check or money order payable to Wisconsin Union Mini Courses. Again, please add $1.00 for processing. The address for mail registrations is:

Mini Courses, 509 Memorial Union, 800 Langdon Street, Madison, WI 53706.

In-person registration begins on June 16, from 3:30 to 6 p.m. in the Great Hall of Memorial Union. It will continue June 17 in the Commons Area of Memorial Union from 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; June 18 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.; June 21 through 24 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

THEATER'S 44TH SEASON EXPLORES A WORLD OF PERFORMING ARTISTRY

With programs ranging from the exotic Festival of the Nile to the toe-tapping rhythms of Mississippi riverboat days, the Union Theater's 1982-83 season will offer a diverse sampler of performing artistry. Five series of music, dance, drama and film events will be complemented by a number of special attractions as the Theater celebrates its 44th season.

The Theater's Great Performance Series will open with the colorful Egyptian festival as an acclaimed 40-member folk troupe makes its first American tour. The series will continue with Britain's contemporary Ballet Rambert, also on its first U.S. visit. The New York City Opera National Company will return to the Theater to present Bizet's "Carmen" and, to conclude the Great Performance Series, the sound of another era in the Riverboat Ragtime Revue. Theater-Dance 82-83 will come on stage with the Ballet Rambert. The series brings a return visit from the popular Acting Company, whose members will turn their considerable talents to Moliere's "Tartuffe," while the New Vic Theatre of London promises a lively evening of bawdy stories in Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales." Celebrating the pure poetry of movement, the elegant Erick Hawkins Dance Company will close the series.

The Concert Series, marking its 63rd birthday, once again celebrates the musical virtuosity of renowned solo and ensemble performers. The Red Concert Series will open with award-winning pianist Andre-Michel Schub. Other series artists will be Narciso Yepes, guitarist; Calliope, a Renaissance Band; The Tokyo String Quartet; and the New York Chamber Soloists in a performance of the six Brandenburg Concertos. The 1982-83 White Series brings a return engagement of four concerts by the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra. Joining the orchestra and conductor/violinist Pinchas Zukerman will be special guests, conductor Alexander Schneider and soprano Jessye Norman.

The Theater's globe-trotting balloon will also be up and away this season with visits to San Francisco, Ireland, Quebec, Labrador, India and Spain slated on the 1982-83 Travel Adventure Film Series itinerary.

Season subscribers to the Red or White Concert Series or to the Great Performance Series or Theater-Dance 82-83 are also eligible to purchase advance tickets for two special attractions, a concert by the distinguished Dresden State Orchestra and "The Villains Still Pursue Me," a discourse on evil and evildoers by actor Vincent Price. Complete details on the series and special events are available from the Union Theater Box Office (608/262-2201).

PARKING TO BE REVAMPED

Parking lot number one to the east of the Memorial Union will be closed for refurbishing in June. To be known as the Class of '41 Mall, the parking lot will have a tree-lined walkway from Langdon Street to the lake. This is part of a continuing improvement of the area around the lake. In the next couple years the area between the Union Lakefront Cafeteria and the lake will become an expanded terrace adding to the total look.

STUDENTS AND FORMER STAFF MEMBER HONORED

Twelve UW-Madison students and a former Union staff member recently received awards from the Wisconsin Union.

Ralph Sandler, Madison Civic Center director, was one of the recipients of the Porter Butts Creative Arts Award. Sandler was Union Theater program director before moving to the Civic Center in January.

A second Porter Butts award was given to Hollis Wormsby, student chair of the Wisconsin Union Directorate Cross Cultures committee, who brought a variety of arts programs to campus in 1981-82 and who is himself a poet.

The Porter Butts Awards are made annually to students or staff members who have contributed to the creative arts programs of the Wisconsin Union. The award was established by the trustees of the Memorial Union Building Association (MUBA) with money contributed by friends and former associates of Butts upon his retirement as Union Director in 1968.

P. Qadir Islam, student from New York, received the Henry B. Herman Award. He served on both the Art and Cross Cultures areas of the Directorate and chaired the Prison Art Show at Union South during African-American History Month. The Herman award was established by his family and friends as a memorial to the former Program and Associate director of the Wisconsin Union.

Ten student volunteers of the Wisconsin Union Directorate were given special awards by the Memorial Union Building Association. They were: Paik-Swan Low, a member of the Cross Cultures area and chair of International Friendship Hour; John Hirsh, chair of the Theater Arts area; Stuart Utley, member of the Ideas and Issues area and former Hooper president; Cindy Hanson, sub-chair of the Union South blood center; Beth Barber, member of the Fine Arts committee of Theater Arts who arranged the Mornings with Mozart program in the Rathskeller.

Annie Ottery, member of the Art area who chaired the 54th Student Art Show; Mary Ruedinger, Memorial Union Social area member who arranged for entertainment bookings; Robert Shapiro, Art area member who chaired the Wisconsin Union Craft Exhibition; Suzy Umans, member of the Directorate newsletter committee and chair of the Union Council Personnel committee; and Mark Zimmer, Union South Social area member who staged the College Bowl.

SUMMER SUNDAYS ON THE TERRACE RETURN TO THE UNION

The Memorial Union Terrace will be the scene of the revived Sunday evening food-and-entertainment events called Summer Sundays. Union members and their families are invited to the informal gatherings to relax and enjoy the Terrace atmosphere. The program begins at 5 p.m. with food and entertainment running to 7 p.m.

SIX SUMMER STORIES SCHEDULED THIS SUMMER

The popular Summer Stories for children will be held again this summer at Union South. Children of Union members as well as faculty, staff and students are invited to join in this free Tuesday morning program.

The programs scheduled include creative dance movement, gymnastics, a small animal show, youth theater, story-telling and puppetry. (See the calendar listing on P. 3 for details) The festivities begin at 9:30 a.m. and run to 11 a.m. in Dag Hammarskjold Hall starting June 22.

CANOES, CAMPING EQUIPMENT FOR RENT

Wisconsin Union members are eligible to rent canoes and rowboats from the Memorial Union Outdoor Rentals in the Boathouse. In addition, tents, sleeping bags, backpacks, camp stoves, lanterns and car top carriers are available for rental at nominal rates. Knowledgeable personnel will answer any questions you have regarding the choice of proper equipment. Outdoor Rentals is open from 11 a.m. to sunset Monday through Thursday and 9 a.m. to sunset Friday through Sunday. The phone number is 262-7351.
