This Is Wisconsin Women's Hockey...

Beginning its seventh season as a varsity sport, the Wisconsin women's hockey program has established a standard by which other teams measure themselves. Here are just a few of the Badger hockey superlatives:

- Six winning seasons
- Five 20-win seasons
- Six appearances in the WCHA Final Five
- Four AHCA All-Americans
- WCHA co-coach of the year
- 13 U.S. and Canadian national team players
- Nine All-WCHA honorees, 18 times
- 15 WCHA players of the week, 32 times
- 11 WCHA rookies of the week, 14 times
- 27 Academic All-WCHA honorees, 47 times
- 29 Academic All-Big Ten honorees, 44 times
- 55 letterwinners
- A yearly national leader in attendance

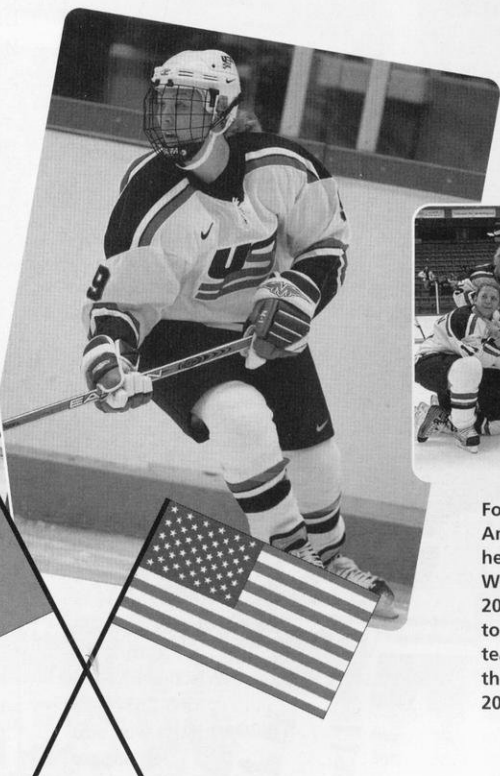

A decorated athlete in his playing days, head coach Mark Johnson excelled in coaching and continues to gain recognition for his accomplishments. Some recent awards include: 2003 WCHA Co-Coach of the Year, Lombardi Excellence Award, U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame inductee, 2005 NCAA Silver Anniversary award.

Olympic Hopefuls...

Two-time All-American Carla MacLeod scored a goal vs. host Sweden in the 2005 World Championships. Skating with Team Canada, she hopes to help the team defend its 2002 Olympic gold medal.

Former Badger and All-American Molly Engstrom helped Team USA claim its first World Championship title in 2005. She was also selected to tour with the Olympic training team and hopes to challenge the Canadians again at the 2006 Olympics in Torino, Italy.

2005-06 Season Outlook

2005-06 SEASON OUTLOOK

Each year under head coach Mark Johnson, Wisconsin has won more games and has positioned itself closer to a national championship than the previous year. The Badgers wrote program history with its first NCAA postseason berth, March 13, 2005 and though falling in the first round of the tournament (March 19), the team showed they were capable of great things. The Badgers now look to the 2005-06 season with experience and a determination to continue moving closer to the ultimate goal.

"Last year was another step in the right direction in regards to trying to win an NCAA championship," said Johnson. "They got a taste of what it's like to be in the NCAA tournament and you hope that it was a learning experience and it will springboard us as we start this season.

"With the momentum we had going into the end of the season, I thought the last five or six weeks we played as well as we had all year and as well as anyone in the country. It was a good way to finish off. Of course we wanted to win a couple more games, but so did everyone else."

After the departure of five seniors from last year's roster, including All-Americans and Olympic hopefuls Molly Engstrom and Carla MacLeod, as well as Nicole Uliasz on the blueline, power forward Jackie Friesen and all-around athlete Amy Vermeulen, the returning Badgers have large shoes to fill. Stepping into leadership roles this season are seniors Sharon Cole and Nikki Burish as captain and assistant captain, respectively, with junior scoring sensation Sara Bauer also serving as assistant captain. Supporting the captains are three other seniors—Meghan Horras, Grace Hutchins and Cyndy Kenyon—with experience and character to solidify the team's new identity.

"Anytime you have changes and you lose seniors and bring in freshmen, your team identity is going to be different than it was the last year," said Johnson. "So what this team is going to look like—time will tell. But I think the upperclassmen and the captains understand what it takes to get to where they want to go."

Seniors Nikki Burish and Grace Hutchins celebrate after Burish's goal to take the lead vs. Minnesota Duluth in January 2005.

Six players that will change the landscape of the Badger lineup are newcomers, Angie Keseley and Kayla Hagen, two top goal-scorers out of Minnesota; Erika Lawler, a 5-0 forward from Massachusetts; Alycia Matthews and Tia Hanson from Canada and Rachel Bible from central Wisconsin.

"Angie was one of the top scorers in Minnesota, along with Kayla and they are both very gifted players and both very competitive with good skill and good offensive capabilities," said Johnson. "I know they are excited about coming and being part of the program. I know they've worked hard this summer and I'm anxious to see them in a Badger uniform. I think people that come watch our games are certainly going to notice Erika. She may not be tall in stature, but she gets around the ice and is extremely competitive and a fun player to watch. The six players we have coming in are going to be noticed right away because not only will they be competing for spots, they will be playing."

With two years and 88 points, Bauer is the team's top returning scorer and will be complemented by a healthy Burish and Cole as well as younger players like Jinelle Zaugg who led the freshman scoring drive with 26 points in 2004-05. The Badgers will look to these players, among others, to generate goal production.

"It's funny because everyone says we're a defense-oriented team but you look at our statistics and we were the third-leading scoring team in the country last season, forget about the league, the country," commented Johnson. "You just can't get complacent in this business. You have to always try to look for improvement and try to become better and hopefully the playing production will increase."

Beyond scoring goals, the team will rely on some junior defenders to keep UW's opponents out of the game. With the loss of three key blueliners, the Badgers will turn to Canadian U-22 team member Bobbi-Jo Slusar as well as Kristin Witting and co-team rookie of the year Emily Morris to provide experience and guidance for Matthews and Bible.

"It's difficult to immediately replace major player-makers," commented Johnson. "But I think we have a couple people who are capable of getting out of the shadows of those players that are gone and creating their own identity within the program."

As a final line of defense, Johnson's netminders will be competing for minutes. With record-setting senior Meghan Horras, a healthy Christine Dufour and redshirt freshman Jessie Vetter all in the mix, the UW's net is sure to be secure, but with who is the question.

"Obviously competition and playing time is going to be at a premium for the three of them," said Johnson. "We'll have some tough decisions to make, but I think all three players have good character and understand the importance of being a team player and hopefully each of them will be able to bring something to the team."

Johnson is also confident that all three have worked out and conditioned themselves through the summer and will be ready if necessary to stop more pucks that may have been blocked by the departed All-American blueliners in the past.

While Wisconsin prepares through the preseason, the major note around the country is the departure of many schools' underclassmen taking the year away to prepare for and compete in the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy. On the conference level, the Western Collegiate Hockey Association looks to be as even as it has ever been.

"We lost a couple key players, Minnesota lost a big chunk of their offense, Duluth lost a key player, so top to bottom it will be very close, which is good for the league," commented Johnson. "It is good for the teams and it is going to be very competitive. In years past you might have been able to say, 'Oh yeah, this team will beat that team,' or vice versa, but this year it's going to be interesting because I think we're going to see more splits on weekends series than we have in the history of the league. It will make for a fun January and February as we get closer to the WCHA tournament."

The Badgers jump into league play right away with perennial rival

Minnesota Duluth. Wisconsin knocked the Bulldogs out the WCHA tournament in the teams' last meeting. An intense overtime goal by Cole advanced UW to the championship game and left UMD to play the third-place game. With two of the top teams in the conference facing off straight out of training camp, the Badgers will have to be diligent in training camp.

"We have to come out of training camp feeling good and ready to go," said Johnson. "We don't have any time to experiment and so we'll get off the floor and be running right away. Even though those two games are early, they could really play a big role as you go down towards the end of the season."

All in all, it looks to be a positive season for the Badgers and women's hockey. The U.S. and Canadian Olympic teams will tour throughout the U.S. and Canada in preparation for the February Olympic Games. One tour stop for Team USA includes a series against the WCHA All-Stars. The unannounced roster will be coached by Johnson and is slated to face Team USA in Minneapolis and Duluth, Minn., the final weekend of September.

"The exposure standpoint for women's hockey should be real good this year," said Johnson. "When we get into February, we'll get an opportunity to watch the Games on TV with everybody else in the country. In general, there are a lot of exciting things happening in hockey, the NHL is back playing. It will be a fun winter."

Senior Meghan Horras is the Badgers' most veteran goaltender with nearly 3,000 minutes played and a 32-11-3 record.

Head Coach Mark Johnson

With strong ties to Wisconsin as a coach's son, player and assistant coach, Mark Johnson stepped into the role of head women's hockey coach beginning with the 2002-03 season. In three seasons, Johnson and the Wisconsin women's hockey team have continued to shatter school records and make program history. Johnson's crew has set a new school record for wins each season he has been at the helm (22 in 02-03, 25 in 03-04, 28 in 04-05). Despite a heart-breaking loss to end the 2004-05 season, the Badgers displayed strength and poise throughout the postseason and proved to have what is needed to compete at such a level.

As an accomplished athlete, coach and humanitarian, Johnson continues to be honored with awards year after year. He also received the NCAA Silver Anniversary award, one the most prestigious honors given by the NCAA, in 2005 for his accomplishments in the 25 years following his days as a student-athlete. In 2004 he was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame for his individual accomplishments as a player and coach. He was previously inducted as a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic hockey team in 2003. Vince Lombardi Charitable Funds also honored Johnson's volunteer work by presenting him with the 2004 Award of Excellence.

Named the 2003 WCHA Co-Coach of the Year and also one of eight finalists for the American Hockey Coaches Association Division I Coach of the Year, Johnson guided Wisconsin to a 22-8-5 overall and 14-6-4 WCHA record that season.

In the 2004-05 season, the Badgers made history under the supervision of Johnson, winning a program-record 28 games (28-9-1) and earning the program's first-ever NCAA postseason berth. The team climbed as high as second in the national rankings by defeating then-No. 2 Minnesota Duluth in the WCHA tournament semifinals and dramatically forcing overtime by scoring two goals in the final minute of regulation vs. No. 1 Minnesota in the championship game.

Leadership

The third head coach in the program's history, Johnson joined the staff after serving as an assistant coach with the men's program from 1996-2002.

During that time, he helped the team to a WCHA regular-season title during the 1999-2000 season, as well as a WCHA Final Five championship in the 1997-98 campaign.

Prior to his time with the Badgers, Johnson coached professionally, directing the expansion Madison Monsters to a 37-30-7 mark in the 1995-96 season and earning Colonial Hockey League coach of the year honors.

He also led a pair of area high schools, serving as the head coach of Verona from 1994-95 and as the assistant coach for Madison Memorial from 1993-94.

Johnson served as an assistant coach with the 2002 U.S. Men's National Team that competed in the International Ice Hockey Federation World Championship in Gothenberg, Jonkoping, and Karlstad, Sweden. He had previously served in a similar capacity for the 2000 World Championship in St. Petersburg, Russia.

Most recently, he spent time in Lake Placid coaching at the 2004 USA Hockey 17-18 Year-Old Player Development Festival.

In September 2001, he served as an on-ice assistant coach at the U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Orientation Camp in Colorado Springs, Colo., featuring 38 of the top American players in the National Hockey League.

On the Ice

In his playing career, Johnson helped Wisconsin to the 1977 national championship during his freshman campaign. The first Badger ever to win WCHA Rookie of the Year honors, he went on to become the school's second all-time leading scorer with 256 points on a school-record 125 goals and 131 assists in just three seasons.

The 1978-79 WCHA MVP, Johnson was a two-time, first team All-WCHA pick and a two-time All-American. In 2002, he was also selected as one of the WCHA's "Top 50 Players in 50 Years."

Johnson has represented USA Hockey as a player in 13 international tournaments, with his most recent appearance as part of the U.S. national team at the 1998 IIHF (A-Pool) World Championship Qualification Tournament in Austria. Most notably, he led the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team's gold medal-winning effort with 11 points, including two goals in the "Miracle-On-Ice" against the Soviet Union and an assist on the game-winning goal against Finland in the final contest.

The team attended the opening ceremonies of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games to light the flame and was honored by Sports

In 2004, Disney produced the blockbuster movie, Miracle, chronicling the 1980 USA hockey team's unlikely climb to the top.

The Next Level

Following his Olympic experience, Johnson embarked on a successful 11-year NHL career. He began his pro tenure with the Pittsburgh Penguins (1980-82), before moving onto the Minnesota North Stars (1982).

He also enjoyed stints with the Hartford Whalers (1982-85), St. Louis Blues (1985) and New Jersey Devils (1985-90). Over his 669 career NHL contests, the forward collected 203 goals, 305 assists and 508 points, highlighted by his 87-point season as captain of Hartford in 1983-84. He also tied an NHL All-Star ame record with three assists that season.

Johnson led fans at Wrigley Field in the seventh inning stretch during a Cubs game in 2004.

A Hockey Family

A 1999 inductee into the International Ice Hockey Federation Hall of Fame, Johnson is the son of legendary Wisconsin men's head coach Bob Johnson (1966-82) and brother of former men's assistant coach Peter Johnson (1987-91).

One of Wisconsin's most decorated athletes in any sport, Johnson was inducted into the State of Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003 and is also a charter member of Wisconsin's National W Club Hall of Fame.

Johnson, 48, earned his bachelor of science degree in kinesiology from Wisconsin in 1994.

He resides in Verona, Wis., with his wife Leslie and his five children: Douglas, Christopher, Patrick, Mikayla and Megan.

Deputy Athletic Director Jamie Pollard presented Johnson with the NCAA Silver Anniversary award at the annual NCAA awards banquet in 2005.

A three-year letterwinner for the Badgers from 1976-1979, Mark Johnson is the UW's all-time leading goal scorer with 125.

A charter member of the National W Club Hall of Fame, Mark Johnson was inducted into the State of Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003. Pictured here with his brother and mother, Johnson stands next to the Wisconsin Hall of Fame plaque of his father, "Badger" Bob Johnson.

“The University of Wisconsin provides our students-athletes with a first-class experience, both in the classroom and on the ice. Madison itself is equally intriguing, offering all the attractions of a big city, while holding true to its small town charm. I can’t think of a better place to work or go to school. Dane County is also a biking paradise ... nothing beats the lakes and rolling hills of south central Wisconsin!”

Ashton, Ontario native Tracey Cornell begins her seventh season at Wisconsin. She has been with the program since the drop of the first puck and has done everything from recruiting to co-coaching the team during her tenure.

The energetic Cornell came to Madison after spending the previous year as girls hockey head coach at Cushing Academy in Ashburnham, Mass. Cornell led Cushing Academy to a 24-4-2 mark, the most successful season in the history of the program. Her team captured second during the regular season and advanced to the NEPSAC Championship. Most recently, Cornell volunteered as a Team Leader at Canada’s Under-22 Selection Camp in August 2005.

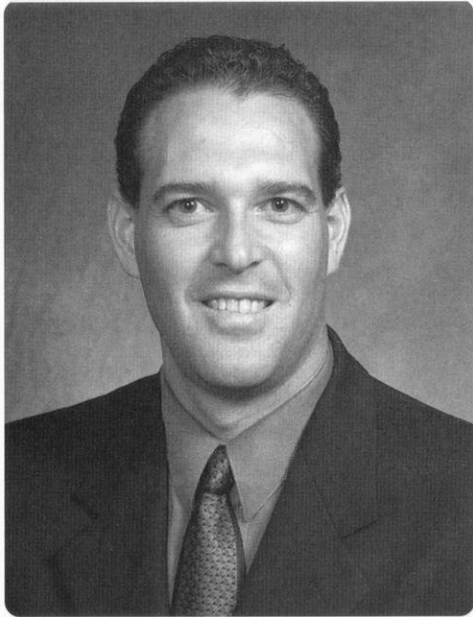

Cornell’s playing experiences include four years at Cornell University, as well as one year as a professional in Switzerland for the SC Reinach Lions. While at Cornell, she co-captained the hockey program her senior season and earned Academic All-Ivy honors both her junior and senior years. Cornell helped the Big Red to the Ivy League hockey title during the 1995–96 season and served as assistant captain during the title run. The one-time Cornell rookie of the year also earned team honors as most inspirational player as a sophomore and senior.

Her stay with the SC Reinach Lions was also successful. The Lions placed second overall in the top Swiss hockey league and were crowned Zurich Cup Tournament Champions during her 1997-98 season.

Cornell earned her bachelor of science degree in marine ecology from Cornell University in 1997. In the fall of 2004 Cornell began pursuing her M.B.A. in the graduate program at Wisconsin. In addition to her time with the hockey program, Cornell played forward for a year with the Big Red women’s soccer team and is an avid cyclist who has tried her hand competing in triathlons over the past year.

Head Coach

La Crosse Logan/Central High (1996–99)

“I think the University of Wisconsin is the premiere spot to coach. You compete and train in some of the best athletic facilities in the country. The campus and city provide you with scenic landscape and extremely supportive Badger fans. As an athlete you benefit because of the confidence your gain on the ice, in the strength room, and in the classroom. Each day you are training and playing alongside some of the best players from North America. To top it off, you can come away with a degree from on of the best universities in the country.”

Dan Koch enters his fifth year with the women's hockey program. The assistant helped lead the team as co-coach during the second half of the 2001–02 season and since has been a valuable member of the staff in recruiting and mentoring.

Koch (pronounced Cook) came to Wisconsin following two seasons as an assistant coach with the women's hockey program at St. Mary's (Minn.) University working with the forwards and goaltenders. While also working as a third-grade teacher at Franklin Elementary School in La Crosse, Wis., Koch helped lead St. Mary's to a Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title during the 1999–00 season and a third-place finish at the national tournament in the 2000–01 season.

Before his experience with the Cardinals, Koch was the head coach of the La Crosse Logan/Central High School boys ice hockey team from 1996–99. He coached all-conference and all-state players during his three-year stint. Koch also coached various ice hockey teams from 1986–95 at all youth levels including park and recreation leagues and travel squads. He also coached soccer in the Madison area as an assistant varsity girls coach at Madison La Follette and as an assistant for the boys team at Monona Grove High School from 1986–90.

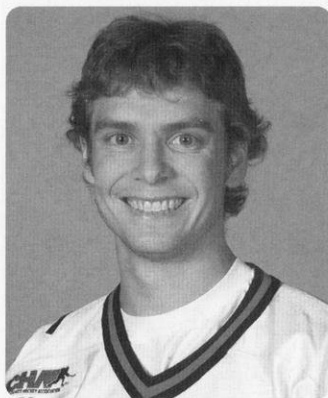

Koch earned his master's degree in education, teaching and learning in 2001 from St. Mary's University after earning his bachelor of science degree in elementary education in December of 1991 from the UW. He is a 1985 Madison La Follette High School graduate.

Koch and his wife Jody, a school psychologist, have sons Connor, Jacob and Malik.

Support Staff

Volunteer Assistant Coach Jeff Sanger

Jeff Sanger is a Madison native and 1997 graduate of Edgewood High School, where he posted a 72-13-3 record during his four-year prep career and helped his team win three consecutive Wisconsin Private School state championships.

He earned all-rookie and second-team all-USHL honors with the Sioux City Musketeers in 1997-98 before attending Colorado College. He is CC's all-time leader with 76 victories in net and 16 shutouts during his collegiate career. His seven shutouts as a senior in 2001-02 also is a school single-season record. Sanger's career goals-against average of 2.48 stood as an all-time best for the Tigers until his successor, two-time All-American Curtis McElhinney, graduated last spring with a 2.32 GAA (2001-05).

The brother of former UW volleyball player, Angie, Sanger works and resides in Madison.

Athletic Communications Assistant Jennifer Werner

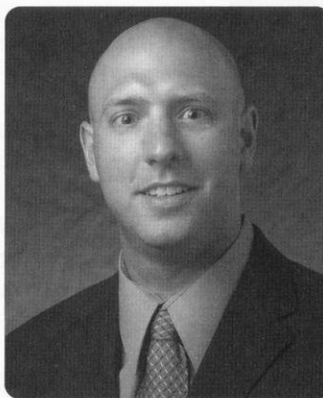

Jen Werner is in her fourth year with the UW athletic communications department and her second as a staff assistant. She is the primary contact for women's hockey and men's soccer as well as overseeing wrestling. In her first year with the women's hockey program she coordinated publicity for the team's groundbreaking NCAA berth. She has worked in a media relations capacity for numerous Big Ten and national events including the 2003 Big Ten Wrestling Championships and 2003 and 2004 Big Ten football media days. In addition, she coordinated the media relations efforts for the 2004 USTA/ITA Women's National Team Indoor Tennis Championships.

Werner spent two years as a student assistant in the office working primarily with volleyball, women's basketball and women's tennis. Prior to interning with the Badgers, Werner also worked as a page in the Wisconsin State Assembly and as an intern for State Senator Alberta Darling. Werner enjoyed a short stint reporting state and local news for campus paper, The Badger Herald.

Werner graduated from the University of Wisconsin in May of 2004 earning her bachelor's degree in journalism and political science. A native of Oconto, Wis., Werner now resides in Madison.

Director of Women's Hockey Operations Paul Hickman

Paul Hickman begins his seventh season with the women's hockey program.

Hickman, who graduated in 2002 from the UW with a degree in zoology, serves as director of operations and equipment manager for the Badgers.

Hickman, a native of Oakton, Va., spent three seasons as a student equipment manager with the program prior to his full-time position. A former Reston Raiders goaltender in Reston, Va., his duties include coordinating team travel, purchasing and maintenance of equipment. Additionally, he worked as the 2003 U.S. Women's Under-22 team's equipment manager during a three-game series against Canada. He worked in a similar capacity for the 2001 WCHA All-Star team, at the 2003 16/17-year-old and 2004 17/18-year-old Girls Player Development Festival in Lake Placid. Most recently, he handled equipment duties for the 2005 WCHA All-Star team.

Hickman is a third-generation Badger; his father Jack and grandfather John both graduated from the UW. Grandfather John Hickman also holds a master's degree and Ph.D. from Wisconsin and is a UW Hall of Fame member and former swimming coach and associate athletic director.

Program Assistant Sharon Eley

Sharon Eley has been with the women's hockey department as program assistant since the program's inception. She is now in her second season serving in the same capacity for the volleyball program.

Previously, the Monona, Wis., native was instrumental in opening the Athletic Department Welcome Center located on the first floor of Camp Randall Stadium while working for athletics administration.

Eley earned her degree from Fullerton College (Calif.) after graduating from Monona Grove high school. She was a flight attendant with Northwest Airlines and a teacher's aide before returning to the Badger State. She and her husband Dennis have four children and two granddaughters. They attend Badger games of all kinds, and travel and golf as often as possible.

Strength and Conditioning Coach
Mike Potenza

Mike Potenza returns for his third year serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Badger women's hockey team.

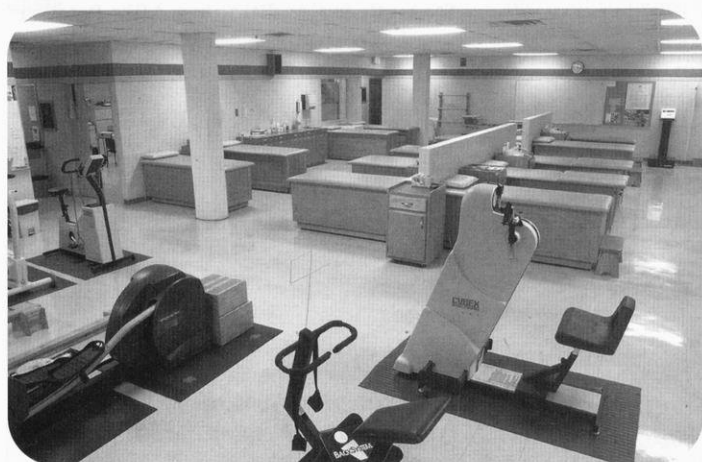

A 2000 Springfield College graduate, Potenza earned his bachelor of science degree in applied exercise science. From there, the Providence, R.I., native went to Boston University where he was a graduate assistant until 2002, earning his master's degree in human movement science.

Potenza boasts an assortment of strength and conditioning coaching and internship experiences. At the University of Miami, he served as a weight training, speed and post workout coach for the Hurricanes' nationally ranked football team. While earning his master's degree at Boston University, he instructed professional, amateur and collegiate athletes for Mike Boyle Strength and Conditioning in various weight training, conditioning, agility, plyometric, rehabilitation and stretching programs.

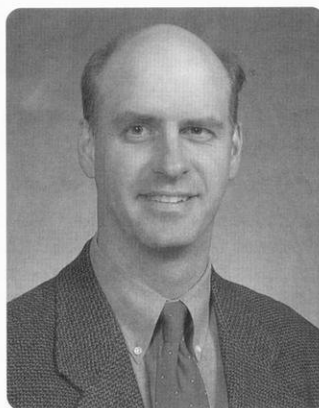

Since graduating from BU, Potenza has held notable positions for Harvard University in Boston and most recently, Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y. His duties were to assist and supervise the strength training programs for all men's and women's intercollegiate sports. At both Harvard and Colgate, his primary coaching responsibilities were with football, men's and women's hockey, men's and women's basketball, lacrosse, and field hockey.

Married in 2004, he resides in Madison with wife Bonnie.

Athletic Training and Sports Medicine

The Wisconsin women's hockey team and all UW student-athletes have access to the McClain Facility's state-of-the-art sports medicine center (pictured above). In addition, the women's hockey team is supported, year-round, by an athletic trainer specializing in hockey. The trainer attends every practice and travels with the team for road games.

2004-05 Season Review

In three seasons under head coach Mark Johnson, the Wisconsin women's hockey team has continued to shatter school records and make program history. With 28 wins the team set a new record for wins in a season. The Badgers also garnered the program's first NCAA postseason berth. Though falling to Dartmouth in the quarterfinal round, Wisconsin displayed the strength and poise needed to compete at such a level.

Goals are a Girl's Best Friend

The Badgers maintained a high standard with an impressive 4.47 goals-per-game average, the third highest output nationally. Their opponents scored just 59 combined goals last season.

The team scored 31 goals in the season's first four games—the most goals Wisconsin has ever scored in any four consecutive games. Two sophomore Badgers collected that hockey rarity, a hat trick, during those games. Sara Bauer earned the first of her career Oct. 8, while Lindsay Macy notched the second of her career against Wayne State, Oct. 9.

Bauer earned her second trick two weeks later against St. Cloud State on Oct. 29. She had an impressive five points that day by adding two assists. Her third triple-goal performance of the season came in the UW's 7-2 rout of Minnesota State on Feb. 6.

All of Wisconsin's 20 skaters—not including the three goaltenders—registered a goal for the Badgers and 17 recorded more than one. Even one of the goalies, Meghan Horras, got in on the scoring with two assists last season.

Smart Skaters

Nine Badgers earned Academic All-WCHA honors for excellence off the ice: Sara Bauer, Nikki Burish, Sharon Cole, Heidi Kletzien, Carla MacLeod, Lindsay Macy, Meaghan Mikkelson, Phoebe Monteleone and Amy Vermeulen.

Demonstrating Wisconsin's additional talents off the ice, all nine Badgers achieved at least a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average to be selected.

National Teams

Senior assistant captain Molly Engstrom skated with Team USA winning the country's first gold medal at the 2005 IIHF World Championships in Sweden. The title game was vs. neighbor Canada who had enlisted senior captain Carla MacLeod.

Both Engstrom and MacLeod were selected by their native country's teams, respectively, to train for the 2006 Olympics in Torino, Italy.

At the Under-22 level, sophomores Meaghan Mikkelson and Bobbi-Jo Slusar skated dominated the competition with Team Canada's U-22 team at the 2005 Air Canada Cup in Germany.

“Last year was another step in the right direction in regards to trying to win a NCAA championship.”

Players of the Week

Straight off the first weekend of women's hockey action, this season's Badgers began earning league and national weekly honors for their strong performances on the ice.

In total, Wisconsin earned eight WCHA weekly awards, led by four defensive player of the week honors.

Two Badgers were twice honored this season by the league, including back-to-back rookie honors for forward Jinelle Zaugg for the weeks of Feb. 7 and Feb. 14.

Sophomore forward Sara Bauer and junior goaltender Meghan Horras were named USCHO players of the week this season.

Bauer earned the national distinction Oct. 11 following a five-goal, six-point performance in a series vs. Wayne State.

Horras garnered nation-wide honors on Jan. 17 after shutting out Minnesota Duluth 3-0 and nearly repeating the feat the next night holding the Bulldogs scoreless through 55 minutes and 49 seconds of the second game.

30 and Counting

Sara Bauer (55 points), Lindsay Macy (43), Sharon Cole (38), Nikki Burish (34) and Molly Engstrom (32) eclipsed the 30-point barrier in 2004-05. Only 11 Badgers have ever had 30+ seasons. Seven have had 40+ and three 50+, while Meghan Hunter holds the record with 78 points in the 2000-01 season.

Wisconsin boasted two 40-point scorers (Bauer - 55; Macy - 43) in a season for the first time since the 2000-01 season when Meghan Hunter (42-36=78); Kendra Antony (19-31=50) and Kerry Weiland (12-37=49) all collected at least 40 points.

Coaching Excellence

2005 marked the 25th anniversary of head coach Mark Johnson's final season skating with the UW's hockey team. Each year the NCAA recognizes former student-athletes who have distinguished themselves in the 25 years following their playing days with the Silver Anniversary Award.

Johnson was honored, along with the five other recipients, Jan. 9, 2005, at the Honors Dinner during the NCAA Convention in Dallas. The Silver Anniversary Award is one of the highest distinction bestowed by the NCAA.

Johnson was also inducted to the National Shrine of American Hockey in Eveleth, Minn., on Oct. 7. Previously inducted as a member of the legendary 1980 U.S. Olympic hockey team, Johnson was named this year for his individual accomplishments as a player and coach.

Polls

After making its debut at third in the USCHO poll and fifth in the USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine poll, Wisconsin remained a constant at fourth in both polls throughout the season. Heading into the postseason the Badgers made a jump to third for three weeks and even climbed as high as second in the USA Today rankings.

After dropping in the first round of the NCAA tournament, Wisconsin fell to sixth in both final polls, its lowest position all season.

UW has been ranked in 72 straight USCHO polls and 75 USA Hockey polls.

This is the Western Collegiate Hockey Association

With a noteworthy past that spans six decades and marks its 54th season overall in 2005–06, three characteristics that continue to define the Western Collegiate Hockey Association are history, tradition and success.

From the founding days as the Midwest Collegiate Hockey League (MCHL) from 1951–53, to the Western Intercollegiate Hockey League (WIHL) from 1953–58, and ultimately on to the Western Collegiate Hockey Association in 1959, this prestigious athletic conference has developed and maintained a tradition of excellence that truly is second to none.

In fact, no collegiate conference—in any sport—can top the impressive list of national scale accomplishments of the WCHA and its member teams. Since its founding in 1999–2000, teams representing the women's WCHA have now captured six consecutive national championships in 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005. And since 1951, teams representing the men's WCHA have earned a record 35 NCAA (national) championships, finished as the national runner-up another 27 times, and qualified for a berth in collegiate hockey's national championship round—the NCAA Men's Frozen Four—in 50 of 53 seasons overall.

In addition to its successes in national championship tournament play over the years, the Western Collegiate Hockey Association owns an enviable reputation for producing outstanding coaches and student-athletes, with hundreds upon hundreds of its alumni moving on to successful professional and Olympic playing careers. On top of the more than 100 league alumni who have Olympic experience playing for the likes of the U.S., Canada, Italy, Norway, Austria and France, conference-member teams and players have also received additional international exposure on a regular basis since 1951. The women's WCHA has regularly put together all-star teams, with the 2005–06 season bringing WCHA All-Star Team games against the U.S. National Team at both Xcel Energy Center and the Duluth Entertainment & Convention Center. In 2004–05, a total of 16 conference players participated in the annual women's IIHF World Championship in Sweden, including five on the gold medal-winning U.S. Team.

The WCHA also continues to lead the way in college hockey attendance—for both men and women—as member teams, who regularly play in some of the sport's finest facilities, regularly top the Div. I ranks in average home attendance. In 2004–05, the women's WCHA marked its sixth straight season at the top of the national rankings while the men's conference drew a total of 1,508,427, the second consecutive season in excess of 1.5 million fans and the 12th consecutive season in excess of one million.

Over the last decade, the WCHA has been able to showcase its exciting brand of hockey to an ever-increasing number of fans, thanks to such impressive facilities as Ralph Engelstad Arena in Grand Forks, Colorado Springs World Arena, the Kohl Center in Madison, Magness Arena in Denver, Mariucci Arena and Ridder Arena in Minneapolis, the National Hockey Center in St. Cloud, and Midwest Wireless Civic Center in Mankato.

Under the leadership and guidance of Commissioner Bruce M. McLeod and Associate Commissioner Sara R. Martin, the Western Collegiate Hockey Association will proudly celebrate its 54th season of men's competition and seventh in women's competition in 2005–06.

Facilities

The women's hockey team uses new locker room facilities located on campus at The Shell, adjacent to Camp Randall Stadium.

The Shell

Wisconsin holds practice at the Camp Randall Memorial Sports Center, also known as The Shell, located adjacent to Camp Randall Stadium.

Beginning with the 2002-03 season, the team has had use of a brand new locker room built as an addition to the south end of the practice facility.

Included in the complex is a skate sharpening room, coaches' room, classroom complete with practice goal and boards, as well as dress down and locker rooms. The new area is part of the expanded Wisconsin Athletic Wall of Fame.

The McClain Facility

The women's hockey team also makes use of the McClain Athletic Facility, just north of the Shell. The McClain houses the 15,000 square-foot Fetzer Academic Center, where student-athletes can take advantage of 40 personal computers, 11 study rooms, open area with 30 study cubicles, a 55-seat auditorium and a full-time advising staff.

The McClain Facility includes a weight room with more than 50 weight machines and 45,000 pounds of free weights, a 90-yard indoor football practice field and one of the finest sports medicine complexes in the nation.

The Kohl Center serves as the Wisconsin Badgers' home ice.

The Kohl Center

Starting its seventh season, the women's hockey team settled into the Kohl Center as its home ice. After shuttling around various Madison area city rinks in the earlier years of the program, the Badgers played every game of the 2004-05 season at the Kohl Center and will play all their home contests on that ice in the 2005-06 season as well.

The 15,237-seat arena, the second largest college-owned facility in the country, is named after U.S. Senator Herb Kohl, a 1956 UW-Madison graduate who donated $25 million to the project.

The $76.4 million building contains an ice surface 200 feet long by 100 feet wide. The arena is also used for men's hockey, and men's and women's basketball, as well as concerts and other special events.

Artists such as the Backstreet Boys, Shania Twain, Matchbox 20, The Dave Matthews Band, AC/DC and Elton John, among others, have graced the Kohl Center stage.

The Camp Randall Memorial Sports Center, also known as The Shell, is conveniently located next to the stadium and the McClain Athletic Facility.

History of Wisconsin Women's Hockey

On April 17, 1998, the University of Wisconsin Athletic Board unanimously voted to add women's ice hockey to the intercollegiate athletic program.

The sport was brand new to the athletic department, but it already had a longstanding history at the UW.

A women's hockey club had been on the Madison campus for over 25 years. Founded in 1973 by three women—Marianne (Anderson) Larson, Jill Steinberg and Karen Schwarz—the UW Women's Hockey Club has had hundreds of players take to the ice over the years.

The first head coach for the varsity Badgers was announced on July 9, 1998, when Julie Sasner was introduced to the Madison media and public.

A former member of the first U.S. National Team in 1990, Sasner came from Cornell University, where she had coached for five years and mentored current Wisconsin assistant coach Tracey Cornell. Sasner currently coaches the MIT women's hockey team.

The Badgers officially opened their history on October 8, 1999, when 3,892 people watched the Badgers face Minnesota Duluth at the Kohl Center.

With Olympic gold medalists Cammi Granato, Karyn Bye and head coach Ben Smith, along with Gov. Tommy Thompson in attendance, the game was televised around the state on Wisconsin Public Television.

Five years later, the team notched its 100th program win during the 2003-04 season. Continuing to exceed the previous year's standard, the Badgers started another chapter in Wisconsin history with the 2004-05 season. After winning a record 28 games during the season, Wisconsin earned its first NCAA tournament berth on March 13, 2005.

The city of Madison is now fortunate to have five rinks and a wealth of enthusiasm for the sport of hockey. Attendance at Wisconsin women's games grows larger every year.

The Wisconsin women attracted an average of 1,190 fans to each game during the 2004-05 season, ranking second in the nation behind Western Collegiate Hockey Association rival Minnesota.

The Badgers had at least 1,000 fans at 11 of 16 home contests, with a season-high 2,583 against St. Cloud State on Oct. 29, 2004.

WELCOME TO THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

The Memorial Union Terrace on the shores of Lake Mendota is a popular gathering spot for UW students

A World-Class University

The University of Wisconsin is a world-class university, nationally and internationally recognized for its academic excellence, incredible students, inspiring faculty, exceptional value, and an amazing campus and community.

The UW was founded in 1848 with the first class of 17 students enrolling on Feb. 5, 1849. Today, Wisconsin ranks as the nation's ninth largest university with 41,169 students.

On a single campus, students can find a complete spectrum of liberal arts studies, professional programs and student activities. As one of the nation's first land-grant universities, Wisconsin maintains a strong research emphasis in agricultural and life sciences. Award-winning research spanning the academic disciplines, however, has earned Wisconsin a place among the world's elite institutions of higher education. The quality of its undergraduate, graduate and research programs is recognized around the world.

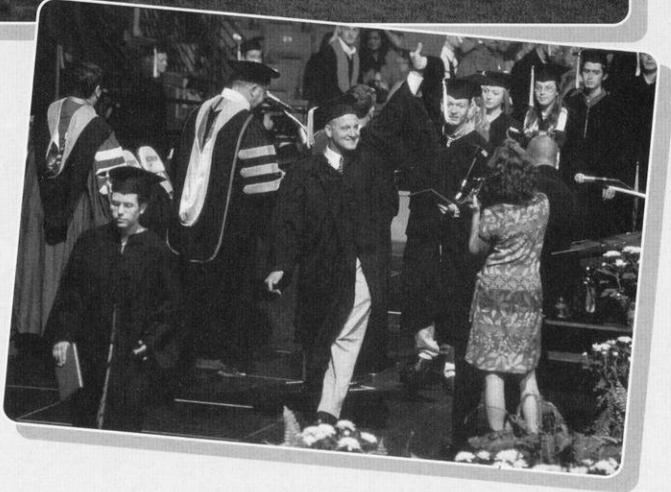

The flagship school of the state system, UW-Madison offers the only public schools of law, medicine and veterinary medicine in the state and is one of only two state-supported schools to offer doctoral degrees.

One of the most picturesque college campuses in the country, Wisconsin sits along the shore of beautiful Lake Mendota. The city of Madison and the University were designed to be linked, signifying the interrelated nature of academic and political life at Wisconsin.

Growing with the times to meet changing needs in education and research has kept the university great. With an eye to the future, the university continues to change, guaranteeing a community and environment where true learning can take place.

► Patents—Ranks fifth in patent revenue and 15th in the power of its patent pipeline according to The Scientist magazine.

Student Life

Student life at Wisconsin is more than books, term papers and exams. Some of the most important lessons learned at Wisconsin occur far from any lecture hall or lab.

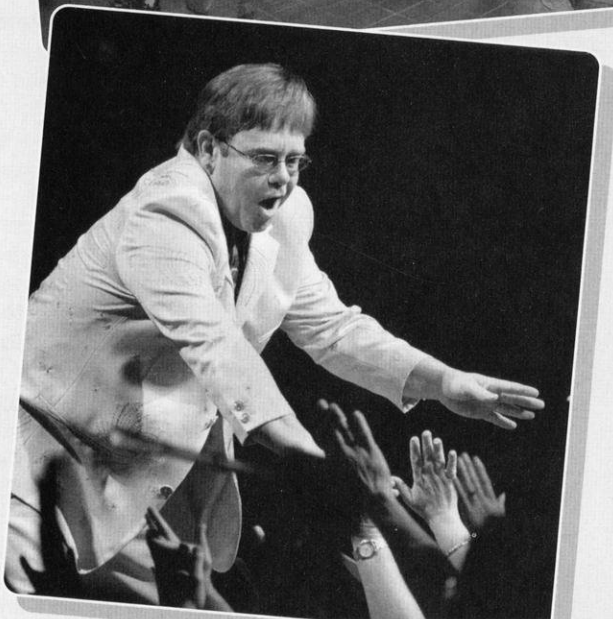

UW-Madison is a community that embraces diversity—both in the people who live, learn and work here and in the experiences that enrich life in the classroom and beyond. Our students come from every state in the nation and some 120 countries, bringing an abundant mix of life experiences and cultures. The campus provides services and student life programs designed to meet a broad range of student needs and concerns

More than 700 student organizations, extensive recreational programs, modern fitness facilities, performing arts groups, Big Ten athletics, and ongoing cultural, social, and political events will provide you with hundreds of ways to get involved and challenge yourself. Whatever your interests, you can connect with others who share your enthusiasm.

The hub of student life on campus is the Memorial Union. With good food, live music, freshly made Babcock ice cream, movies and study lounges, you can eat well, be entertained, enjoy a good book or good company. The Union welcomes more than 15,000 students through its doors each day. It's no wonder the Union is considered the "living room of campus."

"The primary purpose of the University of Wisconsin-Madison is to provide a learning environment in which faculty, staff, and students can discover, examine critically, preserve and transmit the knowledge, wisdom and values that will help ensure the survival of this and future generations and improve the quality of life for all."

DID YOU KNOW?

Wisconsin is the only university in the nation with two student newspapers.

A Beautiful Campus

The University of Wisconsin campus rolls for 933 acres along the shores of Lake Mendota, encompassing wooded hills, friendly shores, and the streets of downtown Madison.

Relax on the Memorial Union terrace with sailboats, canoes, sailboards, and kayaks in the background. The Lakeshore Path is a pedestrian and bicycle-only trail that runs from the Union to Picnic Point, a peninsula that juts out into Lake Mendota. Along the way are numerous beaches or spots to stop and enjoy the beautiful lake views.

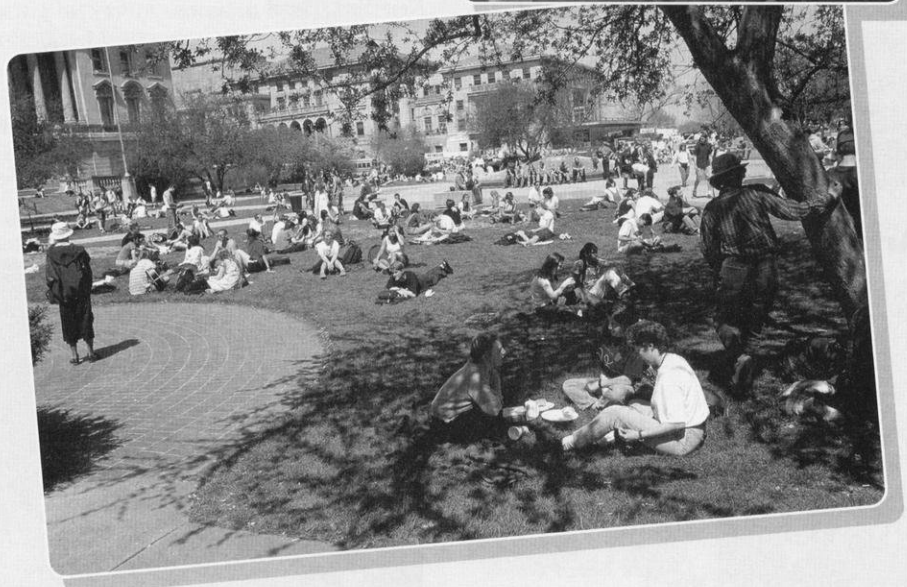

Spend an hour alone with your thoughts walking the trails of the UW Arboretum, a 1,262-acre nature preserve right in the middle of the city. Or visit Wisconsin's majestic State Capitol building only minutes away from campus.

And if ever you find yourself with a free afternoon, you may wish to enjoy lunch or a latté with friends at one of the many restaurants lining State Street in the heart of downtown Madison.

OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

- More than 700 student organizations
- More than 500 performing arts events each year
- Campus has 325 acres of natural areas for teaching, research and public enjoyment plus the 1,262-acre arboretum
- More than 40 club and intramural sports
- Five indoor athletic facilities and 63 areas of outdoor field space

University & Athletic Administration

Chancellor John D. Wiley

Chancellor John D. Wiley has worked to amplify the Wisconsin Idea and build on the research and teaching strengths that have made the University of Wisconsin so rich in accomplishment and tradition.

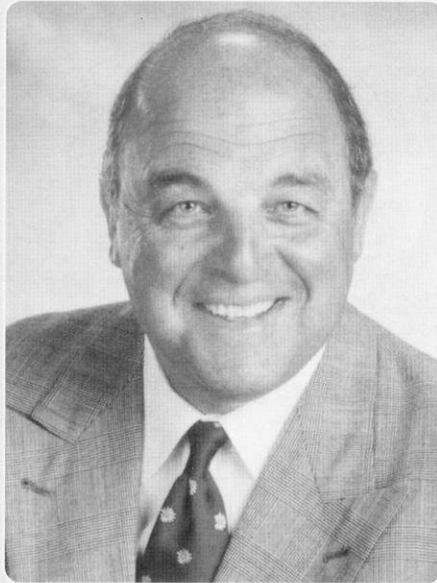

Since being named as the UW-Madison's 27th chancellor on Jan. 1, 2001, Wiley has aimed to enhance the university's role in creating a new, more viable economic future for Wisconsin while opening avenues to innovation and learning.

Wiley has presided over unprecedented growth on the west side of campus, which is being transformed into one of the nation's great health-sciences centers.

He also has mapped an east side redevelopment that will create a vibrant arts-and-humanities district to anchor the lower State Street area.

The chancellor has been a leader in efforts to expand on-campus student housing to meet demand, stem high-risk drinking and integrate athletics into the mainstream of university life. Wiley has reached out to the private sector by creating the Office of Corporate Relations to serve the increasing needs of the business community and help to build a more prosperous Wisconsin economy.

Wiley received his bachelor's degree in physics from Indiana University in 1964; attended graduate school at UW-Madison as an NSF Fellow and received master's and doctoral degrees in physics in 1965 and 1968, respectively.

Athletic Director Barry Alvarez

Barry Alvarez is in his second year as the only person among Bowl Championship Series schools serving in the dual role of Director of Athletics and Head Football Coach. The Badger football coach since 1990, he is in his second campaign as athletic director.

Alvarez has been at the forefront of the revival of the Badger athletic program during his entire tenure in Madison. He has guided Wisconsin to three Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles (including back-to-back in 1998-99) en route to becoming the winningest football coach in school history (108-70-4 record).

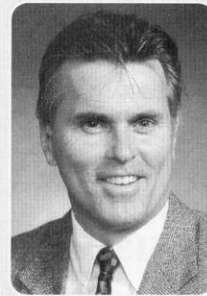

His 7-3 (.700) record in bowl games with the Badgers is among the best in college football history. The 1993 national coach of the year, he is a two-time (1993 and 1998) Big Ten coach of the year and was a finalist for ESPN's coach of the decade (1990s) honor.

Alvarez is a 1969 graduate of the University of Nebraska, where he played linebacker and went on to earn his master's degree. He received a Distinguished Alumnus Award from his alma mater in 2003.

Alvarez and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of three grown children: daughters Dawn (Mrs. Brad Ferguson) and Stacy (Mrs. Mike Delzer); and son Chad (wife Stephanie). Barry and Cindy are grandparents to Joe and Jake Ferguson, and Grace and Jackson Delzer.

A Winning Athletic Program

The University of Wisconsin offers its student-athletes one of the premier intercollegiate athletic programs in the country. Its student-athletes receive the best in education, coaching, support services, travel and competition on the national and conference levels.

Celebrating more than 100 years of competition in some men's sports, Wisconsin's men's teams compete in basketball, cross country, football, golf, ice hockey, rowing, swimming and diving, soccer, tennis, track and field, and wrestling.

Established July 1, 1974, the 12-sport women's athletic program offers basketball, cross country, golf, ice hockey, lightweight rowing, openweight rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field, and volleyball.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

Since 1993, the UW has hosted five NCAA championships and an NCAA men's basketball regional. Wisconsin will add another national championship when hockey returns to the Badger state in 2006. Madison will also be the site of a hockey regional in 2008.

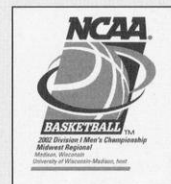

The Badgers played host to the NCAA Men's Ice Hockey championship in 1993 and 1997. The 1993 event sold out in three months, the fastest sell-out in NCAA hockey history.

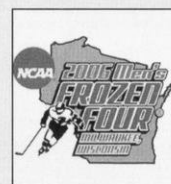

Wisconsin played host to the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship in 1993 and 1998. The Badgers shattered the attendance records for the championship match and two-day event both years.

The UW was also the site of the 1998 NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship. The event was the first national championship held at University Ridge Golf Course and the first women's championship shown live on national television.

The NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament came to Wisconsin in 2002 when the Badgers played host to a regional in the Kohl Center.

Wisconsin Traditions

SCHOOL SONGS

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
 Plunge right through that line,
 Run the ball clear down the field, boys
 Touchdown sure this time.
 On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
 Fight on for her fame.
 Fight fellows, Fight! Fight! Fight!
 We'll win this game!

Var-sity! Var-sity!
 U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
 Praise to thee we sing
 Praise to thee our alma mater
 U-rah-rah, Wisconsin!

Badger Nickname

The nickname "Badgers" was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin, which was dubbed the "Badger State." The name didn't come from the animals in the region, but rather from an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like Badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bucky Badger

Although badgers in various forms had been the University of Wisconsin mascot for decades, the version that is currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by professional illustrator Art Evans.

In 1949, a student wore a badger outfit with a papier-mâché head at the homecoming game. A pep rally was held to determine the mascot's name—Buckingham U. Badger.

Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've said it all," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karen for Budweiser beer commercials. The song has become legendary at the UW because of its polka-like rhythm.

Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer the band as it plays traditional favorites like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song.

On, Wisconsin

The tune was composed in 1909 by William Purdy, with the words written by UW alumnus Carl Beck, who rewrote them in 1951. Some 2,500 schools and colleges have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs.

Hall of Fame

The UW Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1991 to recognize and honor former student-athletes and staff for their exemplary athletic achievement and contributions to the University of Wisconsin Athletic Department.

Badgers in the Community

The Madison community is extremely supportive of the University of Wisconsin athletic teams and its many student-athletes. In return for that support, many student-athletes and staff members take time out of their busy schedules to show their appreciation and involvement in the city of Madison and Dane County through their community service efforts.

Volunteering allows student-athletes to have a positive and meaningful impact on the Madison community. Whether it is building home with Habitat for Humanity, visiting sick children at local hospitals, being a mentor as part of Big Brothers, Big Sisters or reading to grade school children with the Bookin' it with Bucky, UW student-athletes make a difference.

Student-athletes are encouraged to assist with community service projects all year long. The student-athlete in each sport who donates the most hours to community service during the year is recognized with the community service award.

The athletic department also donates a number of tickets and memorabilia to local charities for fund-raising purposes.

Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center has been helping Wisconsin student-athletes to achieve their academic goals since 1997.

The 15,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art facility serves the needs of all student-athletes. The center features an open area with carrels that can accommodate up to 30 students. There are eight study rooms of different shapes and sizes, including a 55-seat auditorium. A state-of-the-art computer lab, under coordinator Jim Eisenmann, is networked to allow access to email, the library system's electronic catalog and the web while the entire center is wired with voice/data jacks and power ports.

Associate Athletic Director David Harris supervises a staff of five advisors, four learning specialists, a life skills coordinator and a tutor coordinator who conduct the academic services offered to the more than 700 student-athletes. The advising staff of Tom Browne, Chris Butler, Jerry Darda, Mary Weaver-Klees and Alan Zussman as well as tutorial coordinator Jill Hadfield work along with learning specialists Doug Tiedt (assistant director), Dan Ott, Toni O'Keefe and Nancy Gatyas to render quality academic and personal support to student-athletes and assist coaches in providing the best possible collegiate experience. The staff, including program assistant Nancy Kreklow, has a comprehensive understanding of academics at Wisconsin, and a permanent line of communication with all university departments. Study groups, tutors and a variety of academic and career planning are available throughout the year.

Student-athletes can drop in before practice or between classes to study or meet with the advisors and learning specialists whose offices are located in the center. Sessions are offered on a one-to-one basis at a time appropriate for the student-athlete. Athletes are degree-oriented while allowing for the flexibility to explore different areas. The staff takes a personal approach to each student-athlete in determining his or her individual needs, personal or academic.

Student-athletes at Wisconsin receive recognition for outstanding academics in a number of ways on the national, conference and university level. The annual Student-Athlete Academic banquet recognizes student-athletes off the field of play.

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Services Center, a state-of-the-art facility located in the lower level of the McClain Center, opened in 1997. The $2.1 million center is one of the best in the nation and includes eight study rooms, a computer room, and a 55-seat auditorium.

CHAMPS LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

The University of Wisconsin CHAMPS (Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success) is a total development program that uses athletics as a preparation for success in life. Under the direction of Kelli Richards, the CHAMPS program provides support and opportunities for student-athletes in the following areas:

Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Service

To engage the student-athlete in service to his or her campus and surrounding communities.

Endowed Athletic Scholarships

At the University of Wisconsin, endowment funds to support athletic scholarships are created through gifts to the UW Foundation. A portion of the income from the endowed fund is used each year for scholarship support and the remainder is reinvested in the principal.

The following endowed scholarships, named for the donor or for someone the donor wishes to honor, provide grants-in-aid to Badger student-athletes.

For information about how to endow a named scholarship in athletics, please contact:

Sports Medicine

The sports medicine staff provides all University of Wisconsin student-athletes with high quality health care.

Wisconsin's Sports Medicine program features state-of-the-art facilities and the services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals.

The sports medicine staff consists of team physicians, dentists, athletic trainers, and a full-time nutritionist. The day-to-day care, prevention, and treatment of injuries to Badger athletes is supervised by a staff of 12 full-time and two graduate assistant National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) certified and State of Wisconsin licensed athletic trainers.

Under the direction of head athletic trainer Dennis Helwig, the Sports Medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Full-time athletic trainers Karen Bloch, Beth Cranley, Chuck Hart, Andy Hrodey, Laura King, Mike Moll, Clark Pearson, Henry Perez-Guerra, Kristen Walker, and Ian Wood as well as graduate assistant trainers Holli Schaible and Nicole Gehrich utilize functional measures, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve flexibility.

Full-time nutritionist Jeremy Isensee provides dietary analysis and supervises training table meals to enhance the performance of the student-athletes.

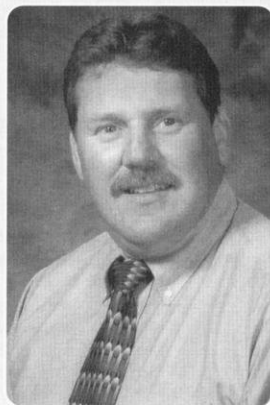

The Sports Medicine facility in the McClain Center features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment including a 50-foot, two-lane-rehabilitation pool and an on-site x-ray facility. Considered one of the nation's finest, the McClain Sports Medicine Center offers an environment conducive to expedient care and a healthy return to competition.

Should an injury occur, athletes are seen immediately by team physicians affiliated with the world-renowned UW Hospital and Clinics. Medical director Dr. Ben Graf, an orthopedic surgeon, is responsible for all services provided to student-athletes. Orthopedic care is also provided by team physician Dr. John Orwin and Dr. Lee Kaplan. General medical care is directed by the head of primary care, Dr. Greg Landry, and he is joined by Dr. David Berhardt, and Dr. Kathleen Carr.

In addition to the headquarters in the McClain Athletic Facility, auxiliary athletic training rooms are located in Camp Randall Stadium, Natatorium, UW Field House, and the Kohl Center. All training areas are equipped with the finest therapeutic modalities and rehabilitative apparatus.

The Wisconsin Sports Medicine facility features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment including a 50-foot, two-lane rehabilitation pool (bottom), and an on-site x-ray facility in the McClain Center.

Strength & Conditioning

The Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is a key component in all of the Badger teams' success on the playing field. The program's goal is to increase the overall performance of each student-athlete, prevent injuries and help athletes reach their potential.

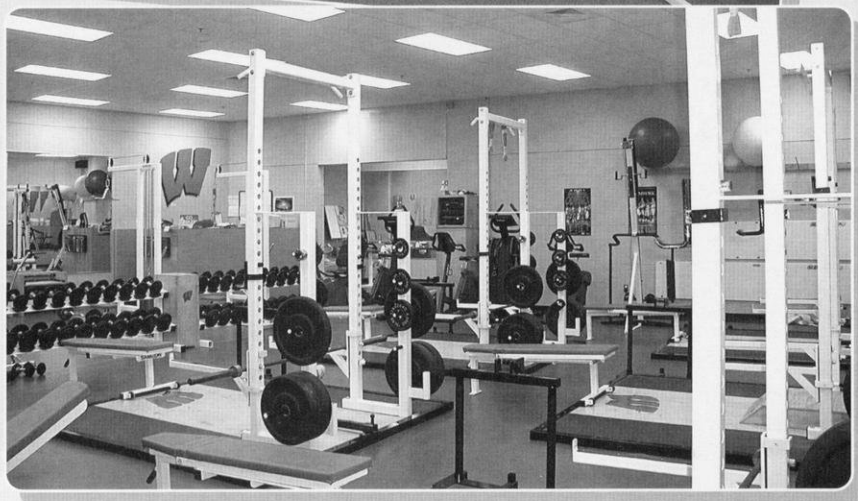

Strength and conditioning coordinator John Dettmann along with assistants Brian Bott, Ben Herbert, Scott Hettenbach, Bryan Miller, Mike Potenza and Greg Young work with the UW coaches to develop training programs to enhance each athlete's performance.

Badger athletes work on their strength programs in weight rooms in the McClain Center, Kohl Center and Camp Randall Stadium.

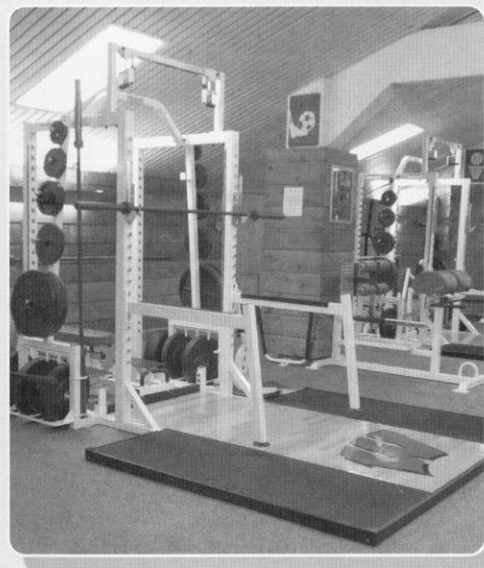

The McClain Center weight room is the largest of the facilities and features more than 45,000 pounds of free weights and more than 50 weight machines. The room has seven squat racks, eight bench press stations, eight flat-to-incline benches, six Olympic lift platforms and numerous other free weight stations.

The Kohl Center weight room is equipped with five custom-built free weight power platforms and 4,000 pounds of free weights. The room has nine pieces of cardiovascular equipment and three Vertimax jump trainers.

The Badger Den has five power stations with each station consisting of a platform for Olympic style lifting as well as a squat rack, bench press, incline bench press, pull-up station and a dip station. There are three lat-pull machines and seated row machines, a complete set of dumbbells and a complete set of plyometric boxes.

Wisconsin student-athletes benefit from seven full-time strength and conditioning coaches as well as three weight rooms in the McClain Center (top), Kohl Center (middle) and Camp Randall Stadium (right).

“The goal of the Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is to train for total athletic excellence. We profile each student-athlete upon arrival and set up specific training regimens to help athletes reach their individual potential. The plan is to build overall strength, speed, agility and stamina. Our program is comprehensive and the end result is that we are as productive on the athletic field as possible.”

Wisconsin Sports Facilities

Top: Camp Randall Stadium is the home of the football Badgers and has a seating capacity of more than 80,000. The stadium recently completed a $109 million renovation that includes a new office building, video scoreboards, suites and club seating as well as other improved fan amenities.

Right: The McClain Athletic Center features a 90-yard indoor practice field with artificial turf. The lower level houses the Fetzer Student Academic Center, the Sports Medicine headquarters, a fully equipped weight room, and locker rooms for football, track, softball, and soccer.

The Kohl Center is the home of the Badger basketball and hockey teams. One of the finest on-campus athletic facilities in the nation, the $76 million structure includes a separate practice gym, locker rooms, lounge areas, and coaches' offices. Prior to the 2004-05 season, a new video scoreboard and ring beam were added to the facility.

Left: The Wisconsin Field House, which seats 10,600, is the practice and competitive facility for the Badger volleyball team as well as the competitive facility for the wrestling squad.

Left: The Goodman Softball Diamond has an NCAA-regulation, natural grass field with a center-field distance of 220 feet, and foul line distances of 200 feet. The facility includes dugouts, locker areas, players' lounge, grandstand seating for 1,600 and media facilities.

Below: The new Porter Boathouse for the Wisconsin rowing programs opened in the spring of 2005.

Above: The swimming and diving teams have two pools for practice and competition. The Natatorium contains an eight-lane, 25-yard pool equipped with an automatic timing system and digital readout score board. The 50' x 40' diving well is fitted with three one-meter boards, two three-meter boards and a five-meter platform as well as a trampoline and dryland diving board, both with overhead spotting rigs. The Southeast Recreational Facility (shown above) features an indoor long course pool with movable bulkheads.

Right: Nielsen Tennis Stadium is the year-round home of the Badger tennis teams. The stadium features 18 tennis courts (12 indoor and six outdoor), five squash courts and one squash doubles court, and seats 1,500 spectators.

Top: University Ridge, one of the finest golf courses in the Midwest, features a par-72, 18-hole course, 15,000-square-foot practice green and a 5,000-square-foot chipping green.

Right: The McClimon Outdoor Track and Soccer Complex, which is fully lighted, features a 400-meter Martin rubber surface with throwing and jumping areas in the infield. The soccer field is Olympic size and has natural grass.

Left: The Camp Randall Memorial Sports Center, or Shell, which seats 2,500 fans, features a 200-meter Martin rubber track with throwing and jumping areas in the infield.

Madison: A Great College Town

Welcome to Madison! You will discover the best of all worlds in Wisconsin's vibrant capital city: natural beauty and outdoor recreation, stimulating cultural offerings, distinctive restaurants and shops, and a spirit of fun.

Madison is consistently ranked by national publications and their readers as one of the best places to live, work and play. As host to a wealth of cultural offerings, intellectual pursuits and recreational opportunities, Wisconsin's capital rivals the urban sophistication of larger metropolitan areas, while maintaining the ease, convenience and friendliness of a smaller community.

Built on an isthmus between lakes Monona and Mendota, Madison is also renowned for its beautiful four-season scenery. A total of five area lakes, over 200 parks and endless miles of paved trails provide an abundance of year-round outdoor activities, from hiking, biking, swimming and sailing to cross-country skiing, ice skating and ice fishing.

Throughout the year, the area welcomes a multitude of exciting annual events like February's Kites on Ice, where kites and kite enthusiasts from around the world converge to fly their brilliant kites upon one of the city's frozen lakes; April's Wisconsin Film Festival, featuring more than 100 experimental and independent films; the Dane County Farmers' Market attracting 18,000 visitors to the Capitol Square to partake in one of the finest farmers' markets in the country; and September's Ironman Wisconsin Triathlon, a grueling and inspiring race held in the Madison area.

Whatever your preference for relaxation or recreation, you'll find plenty to do in Madison.
