NEW JAVELIN MARK IS SET ON FIELD DAY

Artistic Dance Drama Follows Co-ed Athletic Events at Randall

Phyllis Hamilton proved herself champion of the Field day, held yesterday afternoon at Camp Randall, when she exceeded the previous record for throwing the javelin by almost 20 feet. The former record held by Gladys Palmer, '18, was 71 feet 8 inches. Miss Hamilton raised the record to 91 feet 2 inches, within 8 feet of the collegiate record of 98 feet 2½ inches held by Rhea Riedel of Sargent School of Physical Education.

Two other records were broken by Esther Mainland and Olivia Fentress, both freshmen in the track division of events. Esther Mainland ran the 50 yard dash in 6.4 seconds, topping the former record by 1 second, and Olivia Fentress made the high jump at 4 feet 6½ inches.

Frosh Win Ball Game

The baseball game, deciding the championship of classes was won by the freshmen with an 11 to 8 score. The seniors made the highest class score in the track events, netting 40 points and winning easily from the freshmen, who had 24 points. The juniors finished with 10, and the sophomores with 12, Phyllis Hamilton, with a total of 15, was the highest individual point winner.

Other events of the afternoon were the archery contest, won by the sophomores, the quoits competition, also won by the second year women, and the folk dancing and winding of the maypole.

The championship quoits game was won by the sophomore team with a score of 6 to 3. The team consisted of Helen Kinne, D. Westendarps, and E. Fauerbach.

All of the tennis matches were not completed. The results and the varsity team will be determined Monday.

Sophomores Win Archery

The respective scores for the archery tournament are sophomores, 300; juniors, 253; freshmen, 145. The individual winner was Winnie Sanborn, with a score of 113.

The varsity baseball team, as announced by Leah Sutcliffe, consists of E. Klotz, B. Knight, L. Weld, L. Sutcliffe, R. Hayes, F. Drakes, E. Gaik, I. Clayton, and L. Sinaiko. Those chosen for varsity track are

12 CANDIDATES MAY PLAY TITLE BY FROSH WOMEN

Election of officers for Red Gauntlet will be held tomorrow, with ballot boxes placed in Barnard, Chadbourne, and Lathrop halls. All freshmen women are eligible to vote. Nominations took place at the Green Button banquet held at the Candy shop last Thursday. The candidates are:

President — Betty Thorkelson, Helen Kasbeer.

Vice-president — Helen Elliot, Belle Knights, Isabel Capps.

Secretary — Gertrude Heller, Margaret Henry, Isabel Ligare, Alice Ligare.

Treasurer — Cleo Parsley, Olivia Fentress, Merle Shaw.

Next year the vice-president will act as social chairman and the secretary as chairman of publicity.

"VETS" BOOST ROWING REVIVAL; SEE FRESHMEN TAKE CLASS RACE

The freshman eight pulled in a length and a half ahead of the sophomores in the fast inter-class crew race on Lake Mendota yesterday morning, finishing in 5 minutes, 36 2-5 seconds. The juniors, who unfortunately broke a seat in the first part of the race, were third.

Aboard the Cardinal following the shells with "Dad" Vail were several old varsity crew men who are back for a short visit. Donald J. McLeod, captain of the 1911 freshman crew, member of the 1912 and captain of the 1913 varsity crew, is here for a few days from Rockford, Ill.; and Raymond C. McKay, vice-commander of the 1914 and commodore of the 1915 crews, is back on a vacation from Shanghai, China. Ralph Peterson, veteran of the freshman crew of 1912 and the varsity of 1913, was also one of the group. Prof. Gus Bohstedt of the famous 1912 freshman crew and stroke of the varsity in 1913 and 1914, completed the quartet; he acted as starter in the inter-class race.

All of these men are extending every effort to have inter-collegiate rowing reinstated at Wisconsin as a major sport. Their immediate aim is a mid-west regatta featuring Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Michigan. The second two universities are seriously considering the establishment of rowing, both of them possessing excellent water facilities for training a crew; but they hesitate to start unless Wisconsin takes the lead.

The veterans of the Hudson races plan a real live session during commencement week when members of the 1914 crew will be here attending class reunions. Arno Wittich, captain of the last Wisconsin eight to row at Poughkeepsie, will be here and with his followers will launch a shell on Mendota and go over the old course again with "Dad" Vail.

Other men of Poughkeepsie experience now in the university are Art Wickham, captain of the 1913 freshmen, and Howard Grant and Ira Slocumb of the 1914 freshman crew.

SET WEDNESDAY AS BADGER DAY

Two Thousand Yearbooks Arrive With Others Promised Tuesday

Distribution of The 1921 Badger is assured for this week, with the arrival of 2,000 copies and the promise that the remaining 3,000 will be sent out Tuesday night by special truck, if weather conditions permit, reaching Madison Wednesday morning.

In accordance with an old custom the first person in line when the doors of Music hall open on Badger day will receive a free copy.

Last year in spite of a pouring rain the steps and walk in front of the building were crowded with specially delegated frosh. Theta Xi has secured the awarded volume in the last two years. Rumor has it that there will be keen competition for it this year.

About 1,000 books can be given out in an hour, according to plans of the business managers. Subscribers must present their receipts and be ready to pay in full for their copies. The price will remain at $4.25.

Persons who cannot present their receipts must wait until the second day, since the records cannot be resorted to in the first issue.

All books reserved must be called for within three days of the first issue, after which they will be placed on open sale and disposed of to persons now on the waiting list.

"AGRIC"-COMMERCE TILT FOR THE TITLE

The "Agric" nine defeated the Law school 14 to 7 yesterday afternoon on the lower campus, breaking the three-cornered tie in the inter-college baseball competition.

"Agric" and Commerce teams will clash for the championship tomorrow at 4:30 p. m., on the lower campus.

The Commerce men have won four out of five games and the "Agrics," five out of six. In the tilt for the championship Pfrang and Vanderhoof will be the battery for the "Agrics" and Paddock and Prokop for Commerce.

BADGERS THIRD IN CONFERENCE TRACK CLASSIC

Illinois Wins Meet With 10-Point Lead Over Michigan

(Special to The Daily Cardinal)
ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Illinois, scoring in ten of the 16 events, took the twentieth annual western conference track and field meet honors here Saturday afternoon by a 10-point margin over Michigan, victor in the classic last year and the year before. Wisconsin, a contender all the way, was a good third. Other points were scattered.

The final results were Illinois 40; Michigan 30; Wisconsin 25½; Missouri 14½; California 11½; Notre Dame 10; Nebraska 10; Chicago 7; Purdue 6; Kansas Aggies 5; Minnesota 5; Earlham 4; Cornell 3; Ohio State 2½; Ames 1; Indiana 1.

Score in Hurdles

Wisconsin took nine points in the two hurdle races, despite loss of a certain first place in the high hurdles when Knollin of Wisconsin was disqualified for knocking over three hurdles. He had previously won his heat in such easy style as to warrant him a final winner.

Endres did some pretty aviating in winning the pole vault for the Badgers, clearing 12 feet 3 inches. Four vaulters tied for second, among them Merrick of Wisconsin.

Records are Tied

Scholz of Missouri took individual honors in the meet by winning both dashes in fast time. He took the century sprint, after a short hard rain had softened the track, in 10 seconds flat and won the 220 yard dash in 21 3-5 seconds, tying the conference record.

One other record was equalled, Illinois tying the mile relay mark of 3:21 4-5, and one record was smashed, Huffman of Michigan, who had beaten the old record in the javelin throw in the preliminaries yesterday, hurling the spear for 172 feet 10 inches, seven feet and 11 inches further than the mark established by Griffith of Ohio State two years ago.

A heavy shower swept Ferry field shortly after the opening of the meet, driving the 8,000 spectators to shelter. The mile run and 440 yard dash were run off during the downpour. The skies soon cleared, however, and within 20 minutes the meet was resumed.

The summaries:
One mile run—Won by Yates, Illinois; Burke, Notre Dame, second;

SENIOR VESPERS ON MUIR KNOLL THIS AFTERNOON

Senior Vespers will be held on Muir Knoll today at 4:30 p. m., with all senior women in caps and gowns escorted by underclassmen dressed in white.

Speakers will include Dean F. Louise Nardin, Helen Snyder, outgoing Blue Dragon president, Louise Weld, Amy Jobse, Phyllis Hamilton, Dorothy B. Wood and Marguerite Shepard.

A special musical number will be given by four violinists.

Senior Vespers, the last Y. W. C. A. meeting of the year, is in the nature of a farewell to the senior women. It follows swingout and is considered one of the biggest and most impressive services of the year.

TO "SUNBEAMS" Sun-worshipping has never been my creed, Yet for your incandescent intellect,
Before which my weak limer-icks recede
And pale and fade, I hold profound respect.

You chide me for a cynic of your sport
Because I loathe your daybreak serenade; Say, is there "sun-tanned pleasure" on the court,
While dawn enfolds the earth
in murky shade?

The joys of sun-kissed courts
I do not scorn,
And to your day-time sport I don't object;
But when, in the wee hours of the morn,
You seek me from my couch
to resurrect,

Oh "Sunbeams," if I ever catch you then,
'Twere better you were fodder for baboons;
Your milky liver, bleaching yet again
Will match your snow-white tennis pantaloons.

I'm sorry, sweetheart, if your pride still hurts,
It grieves me to have lacer-ated it;
But there's an ancient proverb which asserts—
The dog that whimpers is the dog that's hit.

The Reason Why

Jenny Martin and Eb Jones announced their engagement Friday night, and Saturday noon Eb went up to the A. O. Pi house to get his newly-acquired fiancée. The whole chapter, with Helen Thompson at one end and Mrs. Langley at the other, rushed out and demanded the usual salute. Whereupon, Eb rolled up his sleeves and went to it with a will. When he came to the end of the line, exhausted and weak, a youngster on a tricycle approached the onlooking Sigma Nus and asked,

"What's that feller doin' that for?"

"Well, whaddya think he's doin' it for?" came Chuck Dorries, right back.

The little feller turned and deliberately sized up each and every girl.

"Well," he signed, philosophically, "Either they're making him do it,—or else he's a crazy darned fool."

STUDENTS' CASES ARE POSTPONED

The cases of Julien Lunney and Jesse Cohen, university freshmen, who have been charged in superior court with the theft of the barber pole over which the tragic death of Carl E. Jandorf occurred, was brought up again Saturday morning.

A. C. Umbreit of Milwaukee is attorney for Lunney, while C. H.
Crownhart of this city is defending Cohen. Both cases were continued

HOOVER WINS IN STRAW VOTE TAKEN AT LAWRENCE

APPLETON, Wis. — Although much interest and enthusiasm concerning the presidential elections has been shown in the past few weeks, there were only 292 votes cast in the straw vote held at Lawrence. Similar nominations have taken place in the various other colleges of the state. The results of the Lawrence vote was as follows: Hoover 129, Wood 65, Low-

MENORAH STARTS MOVE TO SECURE BIG CONVENTION

Organization Ends Successful Year With Banquet Attended by 75 at Capitol

"The Menorah association stands for the scientific investigation of the products of Hebraic Culture and Ideals," said Prof. B. H. Schlom-ovitz, of the Marquette Medical School and president of the national organization, when he presented the shingles at the ninth annual banquet of the local chapter in the Capitol cafe last night. "Menorah" he said "it stands for the development of an inspiration for the advancement of such culture in an emphatically non-sectarian spirit."

The banquet was featured by the attendance of a number of other national officers, including Prof. I.
Lubin, of the University of Michigan who spoke on "Menorah Ideals in the New Era." About 75 persons attended.

A movement was put on foot which if it materializes will bring to Wisconsin the next national meeting of the organization, insuring representation of about 70 universities and colleges throughout the United States and Canada.

William Stern, president of the local chapter presided as toastmaster. Toasts were responded to by Prof. L. B. Wolfenson, Prof. R. E.
N. Dodge, Dr. H. M. Kay, and Miss Celia Wolfson, president of the Chicago chapter. Following the banquet and speeches the time-honored ceremony of presenting each member with a shingle signifying membership in the national Menorah was conducted by President Schlom-ovitz.

STAND BACK OF WISCONSIN

THE month of June is "good-bye time" for graduating classes. A few short days and another class, the largest that has passed through the halls of Wisconsin, will say farewell to the Badger campus. Consider, members of the class of 1920—how strong is to be the tie that binds you to old Wisconsin?

Some day, in some clime, some state university may be founded which will enroll all its graduates as active boosters in its alumni association. It is a goal that seems far distant; yet there is no time like the present in which to bend our energies to attain it. If the start is made and a new mark set, other classes will work hard to better it. There is no record of which the university could be more proud that that a graduating class enrolled 100 per cent in the Wisconsin Alumni association.

What is your reaction from this thought, member of '20? Did it ever occur to you that almost half of your classmates will leave familiar campus scenes as alumni of the University of Wisconsin, but not as active boosters who have joined the roll of the Alumni association? This is what will happen if the class of '20 follows in the path of other graduating classes.

There is only one way to remain a booster for Wisconsin, one way to keep in touch with campus activities. Loyal, active alumni have shown us that that way is to join the Wisconsin Alumni association. What percentage of the class of 1920 is going to follow their lead?

Those who stand back of Wisconsin are the alumni who have responded to the appeal for united support—and who have joined the Wisconsin Alumni association.

FREEZE OUT THE CLOAK ROOM BANDIT

PERHAPS at a future halcyon day when the Chimes have been paid for, some benevolent and practical-minded senior class will decide to equip the library and other university buildings with thief-proof umbrella racks.

Doubtless almost from the days of the deluge umbrellas have had a proverbial predilection for easy disappearance.

But a rain-stick hanging on a cloak-room hook with a person's hat plainly is no orphan. Students who steal umbrellas from cloak rooms—and they have done it during the last week—probably, in most cases, would not think of appropriating articles of wearing apparel that did not belong to them. But the fact that an umbrella is an umbrella does not absolve them from the indictment either of being endowed with weak-kneed and sophistic morality, or of being wilfully guilty of plain small-bore crookedness.

And there have been cases during the year of the theft of more valuable articles, such as overcoats.

Wisconsin has no place for the cloak-room bandit. If a representative of his species ever is caught he should be vigorously dealt with.

Wanderlust Beckons Students to Far Climes; Many Cross Ocean for Vacation Adventures

By RAYMOND BARTELS

With the war over and a spirit of "let's cut loose" gayety in the air, many university students have planned trips from coast to coast, while still others will tour foreign lands.

Already William D. Trueblood and George A. Hill, sophomore engineers, and Floyd Bailey, freshman in Commerce, have left for Europe, planning to work their way across on a tramp steamer. They will return next fall.

Five students living in the Norwegian house expect to see a bit more of the world before they return to their studies in the autumn. The men are Finn Aanesen, Alfred Ihlen, Harold Bryn, Hans Gudy, and Tom Norberg. They plan to leave Madison June 16, spend some time in New York, then sail June 25 for Christiana, Norway, where they will remain part of the summer with their parents. If possible, on their way back they will visit Paris and London, then cut over to America.

May Have to Stow Away

"We're going," said Tom Norberg yesterday, "but how we're going we don't know. All tickets have been sold up as far as September, I understand, so that we may ship as waiters, coal heavers, cabin stewards, or any job we can get—but we're going."

Many students are going to France and England this summer. Some perhaps will ramble among the musty castles which their history instructors tell about, while others will investigate the wild life of Paris and London.

At the French house yesterday it was learned that Marguerite Treille, a post graduate student, will sail June 19 from Montreal for Paris, where she will visit her parents. She will return in the fall to become an instructor in French.

Bridal Couple to India

Ruth Smith, senior in Letters and Science, plans to visit her brother and sister who are in Paris at present. Leslie Ross, too, will go to Paris, where he will study at the University of Paris.

But some are piercing farther into the realm of adventure, seeking happiness in the land where the Hindu dwells. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ferger, the recent bride being Abbie N. Parmelee, '20, will go to New York, via Niagara Falls, the St. Lawrence, and the Hudson, and thence to India, where Mr. Ferger will teach.

Back to the Trenches

It is rumored that some of the service men are getting "homesick" for France, and are planning to return this summer.

While many will be "seeing the sights" of foreign lands, numbers of students will be touring this country by rail, by auto, and afoot. One of the first students to signify his intentions of traveling was "Dave" Weiss. According to his statement, he may resort to all the methods ever devised for an adventurer. After receiving his master's degree this June, he will allow himself six weeks to get to Berkeley, California, and there take up work at the university, to receive a doctor's degree. During his trip he hopes to "scoop" a few stories for the newspapers, and in that way held pay his expenses.

HESPERIA PICKS HARVEY MEYER AS NEW LEADER

Literary Society Discusses Fraternity Question at Final Meeting of Year

Harvey Meyer has been elected president of Hesperia literary society for next year. Leo Kohl will be vice-president, and C. W. Osgood secretary and treasurer. Carl Lunn was chosen a member of the Forensic board.

The joint debate team which will meet Philomathia next year was elected, to include Ralph Axley, Leo Kohl, and Halsey Kraege. Philip Voltz was elected as alternate.

A spirited discussion took place on the question of fraternities at Wisconsin. Each member gave a four-minute talk on the subject. While it was admitted that there certain objectionable features, every speaker opposed the abolition of fraternities in the university.

Hesperia has closed a successful year of forensic activity and has defeated both Athena and Philomathia in debating.

A banquet of all present members and all Madison alumni will be held on Tuesday night. Plans will be made at that time for activities next year.

MUSEUM GETS OUT GUIDE FOR HIKERS

A new supply of copies of a leaflet entitled "Little Walks About Madison," which was prepared by Charles E. Brown, chief of the State Historical museum, especially to meet the needs of students desirous of taking short hikes and picnic jaunts, has been received and copies may be obtained at the museum office, Mr. Brown announced yesterday. The leaflet describes nine rambles of from one to seven miles in length to attractive points near Madison.

CHINESE TO HAVE INDUSTRIAL UNIVERSITY

SHANGHAI—It is the plan of the Chinese educators and industrial leaders to erect in Shanghai an industrial university to cost $5,000,000. One of the novel features of the proposed university is that it will be incorporated with a complete cotton mill which will employ its students and require them to do some productive toil as well as their school work.

MICHIGAN NINE MAY PLAY TITLE GAMES IN EAST

Victory Over Badgers Clinched Wolverine Claim for Big Ten Championship

With but one more conference game to play, the Wolverines are leading the Big Ten with nine wins and no defeats. Ohio State, second to Michigan, wound up its season by winning from Wisconsin. This victory for the Buckeyes gives them a percentage of .800 with 8 wins and two losses. By winning from Wisconsin Friday Captain Parks and his men gained an undisputed claim to the title. Illinois was played at Urbana yesterday.

Possibilities of scheduling post season games with one or more of the eastern schools now looms up as quite feasible. Princeton, Pennsylvania, and Yale, are the leaders of the Eastern Inter-collegiate and games with any of these schools would give the Wolverines a chance to test their strength with the east.

Maize and Blue supporters would welcome the resumption of relations with the eastern neighbors. Michigan versus Pennsylvania or Michigan versus Princeton would give the Wolverines a chance at the National title.

Miss Hazel MacKaye.

It is not often that two members of a family excel in the same thing, but Hazel MacKaye, director of the department of pageantry and drama of the Y. W. C. A., may some day rival her brother. Percy MacKaye, poet and dramatist, has written scores of successful masks, but his sister makes pageants her specialty and confines her work to the Y. W. organization.

JURY VERDICT HOLDS WEAVER

Reckless Driving Charged; To Be Arraigned in Few Days

Upon recommendation of the coroner's jury, Robert Weaver, driver of the car in which Miss Amanda Hansen met her death in the Memorial day accident at N. Broom and W. Johnson sts., was held on a charge of reckless driving. The verdict of the jury stated that "the immediate cause of death was a fracture of the skull, caused by being hurled by the force of the collision from the auto in which she was riding; that the said machine in which she was riding was being driven at reckless speed by Robert Weaver of Madison, Wis.

The jury added a request that Judge Hoppmann "appoint a committee of representative citizens to work out a plan whereby all responsible automobile drivers shall pledge themselves to report all cases of reckless driving to the authorities so that further accidents of this nature may be averted."

Dance Drama Pleases

Thoroughly artistic in every detail, the dance program presented last night in the open air theater as the final event of Field day was, with its many-colored costumes and its freedom of expression, entirely in keeping with its simple outdoor setting. Just as the sun was going down, the program began with "Sunbeam and Moonbeams," in which the moonbeams, danced by Gladys Hawthorne, Dorothy Shaper, Dorothy Ware, and Elizabeth Waterman struggle with the sunbeam, Frances Dummer, until he finally drives them out.

The next two numbers were group dances in which the vari-colored costumes were particularly effective against the green background. "Dream Gate," the music for which was composed by Bertha Ochsner, was a charming little dance drama. A mortal child, Eleanor Riley, wanders through the dream gate, represented by Dorothy Shaper, Adeline Briggs, Mary Aide and Elizabeth Waterman, and for an hour is entertained in the magic garden. There a plaster rabbit, Frances Ellen Tucker, the languid poppies, Janet Epstein, the kindly gentian, Catherine Meyer, a poor old dandelion, Bertha Ochsner, and the Canterbury bells, Elizabeth Schon and Agnes Samuels, dance for her but at the end of the hour of happiness she reluctantly leaves the garden.

The next number was a group of nursery rhymes, cleverly interpreted, for which Miss Ochsner composed the music. The rhymes were read by Eleanor Riley. Catherine Meyer's interpretation of Old King Cole was especially humorous.

In "Tarantella," the sixth number, Julia Hanks attended by Catherine Meyer and Louise Sammons, portrayed with unusual temperament the part of the poor peasant girl doomed to dance until she falls exhausted. The next number called "Dance Divertissement," consisted of five solo or group dances, "Frieze," Minuet, "Chopin Waltz," "Circle Dance," and "Vagabond." Of these one of the most delightful numbers was Minuet, in which Aline Smith, in a dainty old fashioned gown, gave a novel interpretation. Julia Hanks as the "Vagabond," gave a clever character dance.

The program closed with "The

VARSIITY TAX VETO STANDS

Solons Adjourn Without Further Action on Means of Raising Funds

The special session of the Wisconsin legislature adjourned without taking any action upon Gov. Philipp's veto to the Severson surtax bill or on his veto to the Pullen bill which sought to increase the amount of aid to county training schools from $3,000 a year to $6,000 a year. All other bills passed by the legislature were signed by the governor.

It was only after an effort that the senate was able to adjourn. Sen. Geo. Staudenmayer of Portage wanted to have the entire legislature recalled to pass upon the veto of the governor. It was finally arranged that the senate should take no action on governor's veto.

Two bills were passed at this session authorizing increases in salaries and other operating expenses at university and normal schools. There are probably sufficient funds in the treasury to take care of this situation up to Jan. 1st and for that reason the legislature adjourned without taking action on the governor's veto to the Severson bill which sought to raise this money by an income tax. The issues presented in the Severson bill will, however, become a campaign issue in many of legislative districts in the state and may play some part in the gubernatorial campaign. It is doubtful if the senate could have passed the Severson bill over the veto of the governor had it returned. When the measure was under discussion 13 senators voted in favor of governor's plan and 14 voted in favor of the Severson plan. The vote in the assembly was much larger in proportion in favor of the Severson plan.

"Sleeping Princess," the most elaborate of the numbers. Elizabeth Schon as the princess, Eleanor Riley, Bertha Ochsner, and Agnes Samuels as attendants, Frances Ellen Tucker as Sleep, and Catherine Meyer as the fairy prince, interpreted the old fairy tale with so much gracefulness and charm that it formed a fitting ending for this delightful and well balanced program.

The dance program executive committee included Miss Margaret N. H'Doubler, general director; Agnes H. Samuels, W. A. A. representative; Lee Bacon, state manager; and Mrs. E. C. Trumpf at the piano and Frances Lathrop as leader of the orchestra.

HOSPITAL GRADS TO HEAR DOCTOR H. GIDEON WELLS

Dr. H. Gideon Wells of Chicago will give an illustrated lecture on "Some Observations on Pestilence and Famine in Roumania and the Balkans during the War," at the University of Wisconsin Medical Society meeting June 8 at 8 o'clock in Madison high school auditorium.

Dr. Wells spent much of the war period in studying and fighting typhus and other epidemics on the ground. His experiences were tremendously interesting, and he is a particularly entertaining speaker as well as an unusually keen pathologist and epidemiologist. His lecture will be as interesting to the public as it will be to the medical profession. All are invited to be present.

The occasion of Dr. Wells address will be the graduation exercises of the Nurses' Training School, Madison General Hospital.
