STAGGER CHICAGO IS SLOGAN CALL FOR BIG SEND-OFF

Students to Cheer Team at 6:45 A. M. on Lower
Campus

"Stagger Chicago" will be the slogan that will greet students climbing the hill this morning. The sign which has been hung over the entrance to Bascom hall is the first step toward getting out a crowd for the team's send-off tomorrow morning.

"Varsity Out."

The team will leave over the Northwestern railroad at 7:25 o'clock tomorrow morning. Students are requested to meet on the lower campus at 6:45 o'clock to escort the team to the depot in the red wagon.

Those in charge are endeavoring to get the biggest turnout to send the team off to Chicago in the history of football. Attempts have been made to get the university whistle blown before 6:45 o'clock. The pep band will lead the march in escorting the team to the station. House presidents have been especially requested to co-operate in getting everyone out.

Team to Elect Captain.

The cheer leading staff under the leadership of "Shorty" Walsted will be on the hill this afternoon to broadcast the time and place of the meeting of the students as was done before the Michigan game.

Following the custom of the past six or seven years, the team will elect a captain for next year after a dinner to be given the team at the Cooper-Carlton hotel Saturday evening. "As far as I know, the team will follow the custom this year and will elect a captain for 1925 at that time," T. E. Jones, athletic director said when interviewed last night.

BLUE SHIELD TAKES IN 17 NEW MEMBERS

Blue Shield formally initiated seventeen members last night at Wesley foundation. They are Merton Peckham '28, Floyd Wolberg '28, Edith Cuff '26, Amo Herpick '27, Ruth Hardaker '25, Louis Petroff '26, Reva Gilder '25, Kathryn Knopp '27, Verona Schaefer '26, Helen Emery '25, Myrtle Oetting '26, Amy Colby '27, Romona Enge '28, Ferna Taylor '26, Carrill P. Wilste '26, George W. Sanderson, grad, and Russell L. Hinkins '27.

WILL SHOW STORY OF BAKELITE IN MOVIES

"The Story of Bakelite" will be the subject of the second of a series of chemistry movies to be presented in the auditorium of the Chemistry building at 4:30 o'clock today. The movie is part of the series showing interesting phases of chemistry that the chemistry department has arranged to present at least once a month during the coming year. Professor F. C. Krauskopf is in charge of the picture today which is open to all interested.

MEDICAL SCHOOL STAFF ADDS TWO

Dr. Van Valzah, Former Clinic
Head, is Added to Faculty List

Dr. Robert Van Valzah, who was in charge of the free clinic for 13 years, has been transferred to the staff of the new State Memorial hospital and to the faculty of the university Medical school.

Facilities to accommodate students have been greatly bettered with the opening of the new state hospital. Consultation hours have been extended into the morning. The increased medical staff insures a steady improvement in the care of student health.

Dr. B. H. Hager, a graduate of the University of Chicago and of Rush Medical school and a specialist in surgery of the kidneys, will join the medical staff in January.

Rain or Snow, "Stagger Chicago" Is War Cry on Eve of Big Battle

Rain, snow or hail will not dampen the spirits of the enthusiastic students who will leave Madison tomorrow for Chicago. With the war cry "Stagger Chicago, or —" thousands of Wisconsinites are planning celebrations for the week-end event.

Tomorrow morning the exodus of students will begin, and will continue until Saturday. They will go down hilariously on the train, will ride down in cars in all stages of dilapidation, and even a few more venturesome ones will hike. Madison will be left with only a scattering of unfortunate students whose attendance at the game will only be via the gridgraph.

The Drake hotel and the various theaters will overflow with Wisconsin students, and the "W" will be flaunted on the arm of each loyal co-ed. Cardinal red will be the vogue in Chicago this weekend.

And in the afternoon, all thoughts of the coming midsemesters and their drastic results will be abandoned while 3,000 students will watch the last game of the season on the Midway.

BAND CAN TAKE 100 TO CHICAGO

Student Committee is Unable to Provide Space For Entire Band

Because of last minute action on the part of University of Chicago ticket authorities, 45 men from the regimental bands will be unable to go to Chicago with the organization or to attend the game.

Action of this kind was taken by the Chicago committee because of the crowded seating arrangements of the Midway stadium. The news came as a surprise to the band officers and the men who have been planning and drilling all fall for the pageant which is always put on by the combined Chicago and Wisconsin bands between halves.

Major Morphy has been forced to pick 100 of the noisiest, most showy instruments to make the trip, leaving 45 clarinets, flutes and oboes at home. He attempted to obtain seats for these men and to take them along to the city, but received final word yesterday that the Chicago student life and interest committee has set 100 as the absolute limit, and will not permit the bringing of any more men.

"We are very sorry that this should happen at this time," Major Morphy said. "It makes useless a large part of the work which we have done this fall, and leaves the boys without recourse in the matter of obtaining seats for the game."

MADISON AIR-PICTURES ARE TAKEN BY DIEMER

Some of the best still photographs taken from an airplane were obtained by Dr. M. E. Diemer of the photographic laboratory recently when he took a number of pictures of Madison, the university grounds, and the lakes.

The pictures are unusually free from blurs or streaks that often characterize airplane photos and are remarkably clear. Dr. Diemer states that he will copyright them in case he wishes to use them for commercial purposes.

Some of the views of the university may be used in the Badger, Dr. Diemer said. It is possible that a page or two of them will be included.

Saddle and Sirloin Club to Hear Cole Talk on Livestock

"European Livestock" will be the subject of the talk to be presented by Prof. L. J. Cole of the genetics department at the regular meeting of the Saddle and Sirloin club at 7:30 o'clock tonight in Agricultural hall.

Professor Cole has just returned from an extensive visit in foreign countries and has thoroughly studied genetic and livestock problems.

The Wisconsin stock judging team members will relate their experiences at the Kansas City show. The team won fifth place out of 12 entries and is expected to place among the winners at the Chicago International, November 29. The members of the team are C. J. Weyker '25, F. D. Crutcher '25, H. E. Hill '25, C. H. Whitworth '25, H. M. Wood '25, and S. J. Arnold '25.

Alumni Club Holds Pep Meet Friday at Hotel La Salle

The annual banquet to arouse pep for the Chicago game will be held at the Hotel La Salle, Friday evening by the University of Wisconsin club of Chicago. This is the annual rally to stimulate enthusiasm, hear speeches, and make noise. A delegation of the band will be sent to furnish the music.

Prof. James F. Pyre, of the English department, has been asked to speak. When asked what his subject was, he stated that he would talk on some phase of athletics.

Mr. Austin, president of the club, spoke at the Homecoming mass-meeting and made an announcement of the club's plans. He urged all students, as well as alumni to turn out for the rally at the Hotel La Salle.

TUTORING CLASSES GIVE WAY TO CONFERENCES

That tutoring classes for freshmen will not be held in all the departments in which freshmen are taking work this semester was decided at the student-faculty dinner held last night in the cabinet room of the Y. M. C. A.

A list of special conference schedules and the office hours of instructors in all departments, by which students may obtain help, will be ready for use in the Y. M. C. A. office early next week. Freshmen may get extra help by arranging with C. V. Hibbard, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Because of these facilities, no tutoring classes will be organized unless there is a demand for such a class by 10 or 12 students. Students are urged to make use of the arrangements made for helping them by the departments.

INITIATE 11 MEMBERS INTO ITALIAN CLUB

Six active members and five honorary members were initiated into the Italian club last night when it met at the French house. The honorary members elected are Professors C. D. Zdanowicz, C. D. Cool, R. B. Michell, H. A. Smith, and E. D. Schlatter. Chloe Tilden, grad, Katherine Ehrigott '28, Marian McCullough, grad, Carol Hubbard '25, Leroy Wallace, scholar, and Margaret Treille, grad, were initiated as active members of the club.

SENIOR WOMEN GET CLASS RINGS TODAY

The Blue Dragon rings have been in the hands of the W. S. G. A. for the past two days and will be distributed at that office today from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. There were 116 orders placed with a jeweler's representative and 40 of those have not as yet been called for. It is urged that every girl who has ordered one come to the W. S. G. A. office today and get her ring.

HILL ENDORSED FOR AGRICULTURAL POST

Charles L. Hill of Rosedale, Wis., was endorsed for the position of secretary of agriculture in President Coolidge's cabinet by the alumni association of Fond du Lac county at its pre-homecoming dinner November 11. Copies of this resolution will be sent to President Coolidge and Senator I. L. Lenroot.

Chandler to Head Student Senate; Giles is Secretary

"Either get the existing powers of the senate into operation, or make a complete revision," said Wes Dunlap '25, retiring member, in a short talk outlining the matters confronting the present Student senate at their meeting in the Union building offices last night.

The main purpose of the meeting was the election of officers and members of the various committees. Officers elected are Fergus Chandler '25, president, and Ralph Giles '25, secretary and treasurer.

The members of the executive committee are, James R. Hemingway '25, chairman; Stanton Taylor '25, and the president, Fergus Chandler '25; judiciary committee, Hampton Snell '25, chairman; William A. Rorison '25, and Harold Haase '25; joint government committee, Ralph Giles '25, chairman; Bert Hilberts '25, and Lester Kissell '25.

FRESHMEN HOLD DANCE NEXT WEEK

Class Officers Name Committees For Annual Affair at Lathrop Gymnasium

A freshman dance to be held in Lathrop gymnasium Wednesday, November 26, has been announced by the freshmen class officers. A ten piece orchestra including Arnie Jarvis and Bunny Lyons will furnish the music. There will be no program. Tickets are being sold at $1 per couple by the freshmen committee of 50 and by members of the dance committee.

Eugene Kinkaid is general chairman of the dance. Other chairmen together with committeemen are:

Music—Wilbur Peterson, chairman; Lee O'Brien, Helen Dickens, Grace Wagner and James Sifle.

Decorations—Doris Larsh, chairman; Virginia Brown, Greg Clement, Ralph Safford and Dorothy Bauch.

Refreshments—Harriet Olds, chairman; Charles Newcomb, Everette Fox, Mary Rae and William Brandt.

Ticket distribution—Paul Rothert, chairman; Jack Roe, William Crouch, Burton Depue and John Stehn.

Publicity—Donald Jones, chairman; Kerwin Haggerty, Dona Hall, Margaret Cole and Mildred Train.

GERMAN STUDENTS GIVE HUMOROUS SATIRE

A humorous takeoff from "Max and Mauritz," German satire, was presented by the undergraduate students at a meeting of the German club at their house on Frances street, last evening. The entire production was in the hands of the students, and was very cleverly worked out, according to Miss Flora Buck of the department.

Will Give Second Act of "Mollusc" Over WHA Tonight

The second act of the Mollusc is to be read over the radio from WHA tomorrow night. The cast which presented it originally November 7 and 8 will read it this time. The cast is Louis Mallory, Maxine Walker, Agatha McCaffery, Gordon Abbot, and William Tannevitz, a member of the speech department of the university and who has general charge of the Friday night programs. Arrangements are being made for the reading of the third act the following week.

November 28 "The Constant Lover" is to be presented, with Paul Faust and Agatha McCaffery, who took part in comedy night last spring.

December 12 Mrs. Helen Colby Holcombe will give a reading, and Gladys Borchers and William Tannevitz will read "Beyond the Horizon."

FEDERAL COURT MAY TAKE HAND IN TICKET SALES

District Attorney Would Act
Against Alleged Scalpers
With Hunters' Evidence

Rumors of prosecution in Federal court of students and others thought guilty of scalping football tickets were again current last night, as more incriminating information came into the hands of Paul F. Hunter, director of ticket sales. Inquiries at the ticket sales department and at the United States district attorney's office revealed that no action had as yet been started. It remains for Mr. Hunter to submit his evidence to federal authorities who will prosecute immediately.

Hinder Alumni

"If the students will cooperate, we can stop this scalping," Hunter said. "They call me hard boiled, but I'm here to protect the vast majority of students who are honest. I have had to take tickets away from students, and it hurts me to do it. We published the information that students could get two tickets for the Chicago game by presenting their own fee cards. They stampeded us and many succeeded in getting through the line a second time on other fee cards. We turned dozens and dozens away but many slipped by."

All the dozens of loyal alumni, whom we are now turning away, could be supplied with tickets if others had not cheated by using other fee cards than their own to get tickets," he declared.

May Prosecute Offenders

Stanley Ryan, United States attorney, said that he was prepared to prosecute any cases that were brought to his attention, and added that there would be no delay, once prosecution had started. E. H. Burlingame, chief field deputy of the United States department of internal revenue, is now in Milwaukee. It is quite possible that he may be asked to take charge of investigation when he returns from Milwaukee Friday.

Commenting on the situation, Attorney Ryan said, "Action on our part is not really worth while from the financial standpoint. We are used to handling cases where such trivial amounts hardly ever appear. Nevertheless, I feel it highly important that we treat the cases that

ENGINEERS LEAVE ON ANNUAL TRIPS

100 Seniors Inspect Large
Plants This Week; to See
Chicago Game

This week 100 mechanical and electrical senior engineers are in the East or the West inspecting various manufacturing plants and organizations.

About one-third of them chose the eastern trip and are seeing the hydro-electric plants at Niagara Falls, the plant of the Electrical Manufacturing company in Pittsburg, and that of the Incandescent Lamp company at Cleveland. The Lakeside steam stations in Milwaukee, the Nash Motor plant at Racine, American Sheet and Brass company plants in Chicago, the American Sheet and Wire company plants in Waukegan and the steel works at Gary are some of the places those on the western trip are visiting. The large telephone exchanges at Chicago and Buffalo are to be inspected by both sections.

The social side of the trip is being furnished by the alumni associations in the various cities in the form of dinners to greet the visiting engineers. The engineers are to be away the entire week and will return to Chicago in time to witness the football game.

Shwarze, Bonini, Sauger
on Line

Mystery pervades the atmosphere at the Badger training camp. Only 36 Cardinal jerseyed gridders and a corps of coaches were allowed inside the stadium walls. Only these and no more.

All this week rumors have been spread about town as to various changes that Coach Ryan will make. Some claim that Jack Harris will be back at his old position at half; others that Teckemeyer will be shifted to end; and endless other rumors that have sprung up from no where and have no backing.

However, one change is being contemplated that has some backing. That is that Schwarze, Bonini

Coach Jack Ryan and his football squad will leave tomorrow morning at 7:25 o'clock over the Northwestern road for Chicago. They will stay at the Cooper-Carlton hotel, and Friday afternoon will take a short workout at Stagg field. Friday night the team and coaches will be guests of the Chicago Alumni club at and Sauger, the giants of the squad, will be used in the center of the line to stop the onrushes of McCarty, the Chicago fullback, who caused such great consternation to the Zuppen in the Illinois game. This seems a logical move since it is the Maroon fullback who is most feared in the Badger ranks and these beefy lads ought to be able to stop his five yard plunges through the center of the line.

Exactly what the lineup will be and what method of attack Coach Ryan will use will not be brought to light until the two teams face each other on the Midway gridiron this Saturday. This will be the last game of the season for the Badgers and anything that might be held in reserve for future opponents can be called into play in a final effort to end the season in glory by dethroning the leader of the Big Ten grid teams.

Four of the men, Captain Harris, Biebersterin, Miller and Teckemeyer will play their last game for Wisconsin and can be depended upon to give all they have in their last battle for their alma mater.

Stagger Chicago! NEW YORK—Robert F. McAllister, former national indoors sprints champion, today was acquitted on a murder indictment growing out of the shooting of Vincent Gighera, last August.

1924 FOOTBALL SEASON MARKED
BY BIG UPSETS; UNDERDOGS WIN

By GEORGE DENNIS
History repeats itself. Every so often the underdog is bound to come into his own. In biblical times David conquered Goliath; later the tortoise outran the hare; and this year supposedly weak football combinations have upset the dope of sport scribes by handing a defeat to the giants of the pigskin world.

At the start events took place that were in discord with the true run of things. Missouri invaded the Windy city and went away with the scalp of the Maroons hanging from its belt. Now Chicago is at the head of the Big Ten and stands in a fair way to win the championship.

Northwestern Picks Up
The next surprise was the showing made by Northwestern this season. Usually weak, the Purple have been a menace this year to every team they have played. This-tlewait's team won its first conference game in two years from Indiana, a team that later handed Ohio a defeat. Last week the Purple held Chicago to a 2 to 0 score; the Maroons held the touted Illini to a tie game.

Last, but far from least, is the recent downfall of Illinois. For the major part of the season "Red" Grange and his teammates scintillated in footballdom and, sweeping all before them, they appeared to be a certainty for the conference championship. The first blot on the clean record of the Illinois team was the tie game with Chicago. What the Maroons failed to do in the way of completely wrecking the Illini chances was taken care of by Minnesota last Saturday. The Gophers stopped Grange and the Illini in what was the biggest grid upset of the season thus far.

More Upsets Expected
On a comparative basis Wisconsin should be able to beat the Illini. The Badgers and Gophers played a tie game early in the season; now Illinois. It is not at all improbable that there will be more upsets when various teams line up this Saturday. Wisconsin has a good chance to dethrone the doughty Maroons who are leading the conference. Someone may yet defeat Notre Dame and it is not at all improbable that Ohio will beat Illinois, especially since Grange may be out of the lineup.

Badgers Have Won 8 Games;
Maroons Are Victors 9 TimesChicago Defeated Wisconsin
Last Year 13 to 6; Tie
Year Before

Beginning with the year 1900, the Cardinal of Wisconsin has acquired eight victories while the Maroon of Chicago has annexed nine. Three games have been tied, while the two teams did not meet in 1906, 1907 and 1918. The 1900 fray was won by Wisconsin, 39-5, and the Badgers likewise took the 1901 game, 35-0. Chicago turned the tables successfully for the next four years, winning in 1902, 1903, 1904 and 1905, by scores of 11-0, 15-6, 18-11, and 4-0, respectively. Walter Eckersall, then the wonder of the gridiron, won the last game for the Maroon with a drop kick.

The two teams did not meet for two years, but relations were resumed in 1908 which resulted in a Maroon victory. The following year the two teams battled to a tie, 6-6. The Cardinal acquired a 10-victory in 1910, but the following year Stagg's men won again. Wisconsin's last Big Ten championship team crushed Chicago 30-12 in 1912, but 1913 saw the Maroons reverse the verdict 19-0. Evenly matched in 1914, the teams fought to a scoreless tie.

In 1915 the Badgers lost by the disheartening margin of one point, 14-13, but under the tutelage of Dr. Paul Withington, new Columbia coach, avenged themselves amply the following year, 30-7. In 1917 Wisconsin won, 18-0.

The war prevented a meeting in 1918, but in 1919 Wisconsin came out on the profitable end of a 10-3 score, and Allan Davey's talented toe gave the Cardinal a 3-0 victory in 1920 after a desperate battle. The equally talented boot of Milton Romney spilled the Badgers in a like manner the following year, 3-0. The two tams fought on v terms in the 1922 game, 0-0; while Jimmy Pyott was largely instrumental for the 13-6 Maroon victory of last year.

Harriers to Leave
Today; Hope For Conference Title

This afternoon at 5:40 six determined harriers, one manager and Coach Burke, equally determined, will entrain for Ann Arbor to run in the conference cross country run to be held Saturday.

Realizing that a conference championship is within their grasp the team can be depended upon to put forth every effort to attain a goal towards which most of the members of the team have been working for four years.

The team will arrive at Ann Arbor tomorrow morning and will take a light workout over the course in the afternoon. The race will be run Saturday morning and the members of the teams will be the guests of the Michigan athletic department at the Michigan-Iowa game in the afternoon.

The men making the trip are Captain Piper, Perry, Kubly, Bergstresser, Petaja, and Link; Jackman, senior manager, is also going.

GRIDGRAPH MOVED
INTO GYMNASIUMWill Depict Badger-Maroon
Grid Battle Saturday
Play By Play

The gridgraph has been removed to the men's gymnasium and will portray, play by play, the Chicago-Wisconsin game which is to be played in Chicago Saturday. The changing of the gridgraph from the stock pavilion back to the gymnasium is due to the fact that a great number of students will journey to Chicago to witness the game. Each play will be received by direct wire from Chicago and will be portrayed on the gridgraph in precisely the same manner as it was played on the gridiron.

"Shorty" Walsted, varsity cheerleader, will be in Chicago, but one of his assistants will remain here to direct the cheering. An effort is being made to have as many members as possible of the pep band in the gymnasium and play during the time the game is in progress.

WOMEN REGISTER
FOR INDOOR SPORT
ACTIVITIES TODAYSwimming, Bowling, Basketball, Dancing, Baseball and Riding to Be Offered

Registration for women's indoor sports today and tomorrow offers to the underclassmen a variety of new and well organized gymnasium classes in the department of physical education.

Swimming, under Miss Alice Brownell, and bowling, under Miss Cynthia Wesson, the two most popular sports in previous years, will again be offered. Rifle practice, supervised by Major Lampert, a new sport last year, will be given regular W. A. A. credit this year. Due to the competition between the Wisconsin squad and squads from other universities interest in this sport is keen.

Miss Carol Rice will instruct the basketball classes, Miss Margaret Doubler the dancing classes, and Miss Alice Call the indoor baseball classes.

Besides the regular and advanced gym classes, a special class conducted by Miss Wesson to specialize in apparatus work will meet every Tuesday and Thursday at 1:30. The purpose of the class is to develop such an efficiency in apparatus work that its members can pass the tests for secondary and advanced apparatus honors, for which 25 and 50 points respectively are awarded by the W. A. A.

Not only will those registering in the riding classes be taught how to ride, according to Mr. Bruckner, manager of the Blackhawk academy, but because in the winter the smaller classes give opportunity for much more individual attention, the students will be taught how to saddle, bridle, and take care of a horse. During the winter, Mr. Bruckner plans to conduct many special events, such as fox hunts and paper chases.

Golf classes instructed by J. C. Hackbarth are divided into 24 periods, and meet in the basement of the Co-op. The registration is expected to be twice what it was last winter.

Seniors Win By Score of 54 to 5; 40 to 28 is Junior Outcome

In the second interclass swimming meet the seniors swamped the freshmen by a score of 54-5 while the juniors won from the sophomores 40-28.

In the senior-freshman meet '25 swam off with all places except the second in the 40 yard side, the third in the 40 yard breast and second in diving. These places were won by Herbster, Edmonds, and Bauch, respectively.

In the plunge Barry failed to do her usual 60 foot stunt, stopping at 50, which was about ten feet greater than any of her opponents. The relay between the senior and the freshmen did not take place due to the inability of the freshmen to get a team ready for the event.

Summary:

40 yard breast stroke—Elna Mygdal '26, first; Beatrice Marks '26, second; Minna Lauter '26, third.

20 yard back stroke—Estelle North '27, first; Elna Mygdal '26, second; Beatrice Marks '26, third.

40 yard free style—Miriam Wollaege '27, first; Elna Mygdal '26, second; Beatrice Marks '26, third.

40 yard side stroke—Minna Lauter '26, first; Evelyn Hamer '27, second; Elizabeth Kuenzli '27, third.

BADGER CAGEMEN
START PRACTICE

Grilling Season Ahead; First Game December 12; Team Shows Ability

With the first fall of snow the varsity basketball team starts its work more in earnest, for they realize that the winter months are approaching and with them the grilling basketball season. The 12th of December is set as the date for the first game and the squad is working hard to be in shape for the initial game.

Four nights out of the week the first year men are called out to scrimmage the first string men. The freshmen have been giving the varsity men a good bit of practice. Several times the yearlings have been able to run up a score; although it was far from that of the varsity, yet it at least gave the first squad competition. The men that Coach Meanwell is working with have been drilled on the offense and show real ability at hitting the net. The team has at last found the smooth working order that is characteristic of Meanwell's teams. Although this is far from perfect, yet it shows promise of being a fine machine.

The definite lineup for the team is far from even apparent, for so many men have been tried out at their various positions, that it is not even possible to guess who will fill the different positions. As usual Coach W. Meanwell refuses to make any statement as to the team and their conference chances, but all of the fans look for another championship team.

Women's Rifle Classes Will Start With Winter's Arrival

With the coming of the winter season the women's indoor rifle shooting classes at the concert room start. This sport after a very successful first season last year is showing all indications of taking a permanent place as a winter sport. Last year a varsity team was developed and meets were fired with several universities and colleges. Major Lester L. Lampert, who had charge of the classes last year, has already received challenges from the University of California and the University of Montana.

A course of preliminary instruction has been arranged by Captain Lee S. Gerow, who will conduct the class work this year. Captain Gerow comes to the University of Wisconsin directly from the Infantry Service School at Fort Benning where he has taken study in marksmanship.

"Rifle shooting is a particularly fine sport," says Major Lampert, "because it requires that the shooter be in the pink of physical condition. Any man or woman can learn to shoot fairly well, but it takes painstaking care and a firm nerve to learn to shoot excellently. It is expected that many of last year's members will be back in the sport again this fall. Every girl will be put through the preliminary instruction regardless of whether she has fired a rifle before or has been on a rifle team, consequently every girl will start on an equal footing and the team selections will not be made until everyone has had an opportunity to fire under competition conditions," declared Major Lampert.

In a letter from the executive officer of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, permission has been granted to C. J. Randall L2, to organize a Wisconsin Women's Rifle club and to have it admitted to full membership in the National Rifle association. Randall, honorary colonel in the cadet corps, was assistant to Major Lampert last year. He attended the national matches of 1924 at Camp Perry, Ohio, as R. O. T. C. instructor in rifle marksmanship.

"Although many women took part in the national matches this year, they were in the majority of cases the wives of competitors. Only one organized club of women participated. They were from the Hamilton club of Chicago, and I don't see why the girls who fire on the Wisconsin team throughout the year can't make a very creditable showing at the national matches if they desire to send a team," Cadet Colonel Randall said yesterday.

So It Seems

Aha! We have secrets. Michigan aspires to the Big Ten championship again this year. Should aspirations come true, Michigan will have held the pennant for three successive years. After Wisconsin followers, Michigan enthusiasts will be second in hopes for a Badger victory at Chicago. Should the Cardinal warriors win, and should the Wolverines defeat Parkin and his legionnaires, another trophy will find its resting place in the kingly courts of the Maize and Blue.

Following the game at Stagg field Saturday, the football team will meet to elect a captain for next year. This election will be important as next year promises to be interesting and fruitful, with all but four men back and many good frosh coming in to strengthen the Badger ranks.

There are several likely candidates, but it is my prediction right now that Steve Polaski, hero of the Wolverine game two years ago and star end this year, will be the player elected to this important post. Steve is a fighter and a real leader. This prediction is not based on prejudice, either, but on a careful weighing of the possible candidates for the job.

The outstanding men are Polaski, Doyle and Leo Harmon, and McAndrews. Polaski has been on the team longer and has proved more consistent. McAndrews has been coming into his own and will undoubtedly be a big star next year.

If Polaski, now recovered from his injuries, plays a good game against Chicago he will be the choice of most critics for the all-conference end position, alongside of Rokusek of Illinois.

But that isn't all. The fraternity element may figure in the election. It is only natural that it should.

Sportive Rambles
in Aphasia
By KEN COOK

Having nothing to do, as usual, I dropped into the armory annex the other day to watch some of the boys running around the track. As I stood there on the cinders where I could get a good look at the running men as they went by I heard a fellow yelling "track."

Just then a bunch of fellows went by me so rapidly I couldn't tell their names from their faces so I forgot about the guy who was yelling "track."

Then again I heard him yell, even louder, "TRACK." And another bunch of fellows went by so fast that they left dust in my pockets. Then I knew why that guy was yelling track so loud. He was one of those coaches issuing a call for candidates and the men who went by so fast were answering the call.

Once again I heard the man yell, seemingly with all his might and it sounded as though he were angry. Probably there was a scarcity of material.

Yesterday I was released from the infirmary where they said that something had hit me on the head. Perhaps a shoe flew off one of those fellows as they ran by me; because they found footprints on my face.

I wonder if that coach got his track material??

Weighing the fraternity affiliations of the team members it is seen that a good majority are Kappa Sigs. Polaski is a Kappa Sig, as is McAndrews.

Some of the other good leaders on the squad are only sophs this year, and so will get their chance later. If Polaski is elected, he will be the first captain to hold down the end position since Red Weston.

COLUMBUS, Ohio.—A college education in preference to the Greenwich Village Follies was the choice of Betty Kent, a co-ed at the University of Ohio. Miss Kent was dancing in a local studio when Karl Randall, reputed to be one of the best dancers on the stage, saw her. Later came the offer to dance in the Follies. Last summer she turned down an offer to dance in another Broadway show.

STAGG PRACTICES
CARDINAL PLAYS
IN LONG SESSION

Badgers Have Good Line; Maroons Practice Bucks and Passes

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 19.—Studying Wisconsin plays, line plunging, and passing occupied the Chicago football team's practice last night. Knowing the Badgers are coming strong and full of fight, Coach A. A. Stagg ran the Maroons through a long practice after being kept inside for two days on account of snow.

The Cardinal is reputed to have a powerful forward wall, all veterans with the exception of the tackle position. With this in mind, Stagg drove Harry Thomas, McCarty, Kerwin and Marks through the yearling and second string lines. No doubt when the whistle blows Saturday this quartet of pounding backs will line up against the Badger aggregation.

Bob Curley, diminutive quarterback, spent time on dropkicks. This man's educated toe has saved the Maroons twice this year. Last week in the Northwestern game Curley booted one over to win the fracas. In the Ohio game of this year he made a field goal to tie the Buckeyes. With this man, Stagg expects to win if it is impossible to shove the ball over the line.

"The Old Man" is worrying about a reliable punter. In this department of the game it is feared that the Badgers will have an edge and Stagg is working hard to put the Maroon grid team on an even basis.

A successful forward pass attack is being worked up. All year the Wisconsin team has been weak in coping with the overhead game and Stagg figures that if a reliable heavier can be found touchdowns will come easier.

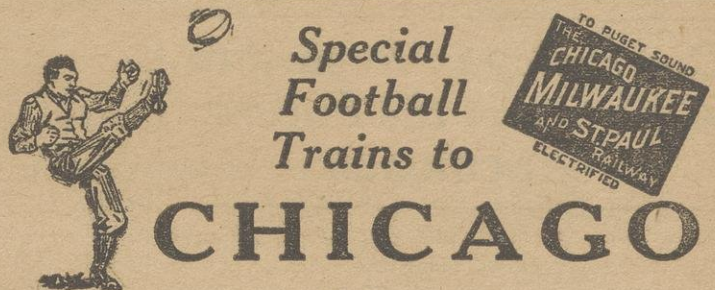

The Chicago team is working hard to develop the same kind of spirit that they had when they faced the Illini two weeks ago. If this can be done a big part of the job to win will be over.

Our Policy in Regard to Athletics in the Future: GO GET CHICAGO

There was some talk some time ago about a retaining wall being placed along the inside of the walk on the Langdon street side of the lower campus to keep the mud off the sidewalk. It is still a good idea.

STAGGER CHICAGO?

This is the slogan! This is what is going to be done! The entire university is going to be on the lower campus at 6:45 o'clock Friday morning to send the team, our team, off to the final game of the year.

We tied the team that beat Illinois; we will beat the team that tied Illinois, and we are going to do that Saturday—at Stagg field—in spite of all the dopesters.

Wisconsin spirit does not die. There are no quitters here. At no game this season has the "gang" lost its enthusiasm; at no game have great numbers left the field before the game was over; at every game, no matter what the outcome, and some of the outcomes have been bad enough, has the beautiful strains of the doxology been depressed or sad. Wisconsin can sing in spite of defeat, because it knows that such things cannot go on for ever.

It is inconceivable that the great University of Wisconsin will not win a single conference game in a season. It is not only inconceivable, but it is impossible.

We are going to Chicago to beat Chicago! We are going to STAGGER CHICAGO! And the first move that we can make in this enterprise is to get up and at 'em Friday morning on the lower campus and show the team what kind of men and women are backing them up, what kind of men and women they are fighting for. Let them know—make them know that Wisconsin spirit is worth fighting for.

HOW ABOUT THOSE CAPS?

Do the freshmen think that the green caps should have ear muffs on them? Well, they shouldn't, and they are to be worn anyway. The caps are to be worn all day every day until Thanksgiving.

All fraternities signed a pledge at the beginning of the semester promising that their freshmen would maintain this ancient custom. Let us see these fraternities get busy and have a shakeup in their disciplinary committees. There is need of action.

We hate to think that the sophomore class is so emasculated that its members cannot keep the frosh obedient even in their own groups. Let's go '27!

SOME SLIDE

Every time it snows miracles happen—dozens of them. Why there have been no serious accidents on the slippery sidewalks on the hill are the most inexplicable miracles. Especially on the two walks between Bascom and Sterling halls. Many students can tell of their harrowing escapes from broken skulls on the tiers of steps. And those stories are not exaggerations either.

All of the dangerous places should be thoroughly sanded before the students go to early classes, regardless of how many men it takes to sand them. We are of the opinion that all of them could be sanded by the present staff if they did not think more of conserving sand than safeguarding the walks.

It is not necessary to make an artistic job out of it. Just get the sand on. That is the main thing.

TICKET GREED AGAIN

What might well be considered an eighth wonder is the advance which college athletics have made in the last quarter century. It is very obvious, too, that real dangers have simultaneously arisen in the realm of college sport. Football, in particular, calls for such an outlay of money as would astound those who had charge of the financing of college teams not so many years ago. As it is now, the number of tickets sold for football games is so enormous that speculation and "scalping" are not quickly detected and unfortunately profitable.

It is apparent from reports coming into the ticket office, that "scalping" of Chicago tickets is being practiced, and it is not impossible that the guilty may be prosecuted in the Federal court, as violators of United States law.

Let us hope that students are not involved in the business or, at least, that few students are guilty. It is hard to understand how anyone, by procuring more tickets than he is entitled to, can cheat Wisconsin's loyal alumni who are being left out in the cold.

Other Editors Say—

ACTIVITY PLUS

Large numbers of first year men are now attending freshman group meetings, the purpose of which is "to foster a greater class spirit and to furnish activity for the yearlings." In an institution such as Michigan the former of these two aims is admirable, the latter questionable, considering that this activity is biased and entirely confined to athletic activity.

The university of today is too large. Everyone admits this lamentable fact, but no one has yet found a sure means of discouraging the hundreds who seek education with little preparation of the proper sort and less desire for "learning." With the huge freshman classes of each succeeding year an attempt is made by the union to foster some sort of spirit which will promote unity. These have met with a varying degree of success, usually starting with a burst of youthful enthusiasm and gradually pining away into second semester oblivion.

There is a question, however, whether or not these group organizations and their leaders represent what at least should be the ideal conception of university life. There is too much anxiety that the freshman have some "activity," too little thought of something which will encourage them to devote themselves to their studies. The average freshman will do well if he obtains good grades in his courses. His time should be devoted to that. It is for that reason that he is excluded for the first semester from work on the student publications.

Just incidentally it is rather peculiar that freshmen are permitted to play football and exhaust themselves physically so as to incapacitate themselves for serious work while they are not permitted to take part in any activity which would provide an intellectual stimulus. Not that they should be permitted to work on publications—no one desires that. But why should they play football so hard? Instead of worrying ourselves concerning ways of interesting first semester freshmen in outside activity, the union, the Athletic association, and any other campus activity should be concerned with their gaining the proper sense of proportion and balance. They should learn to emphasize scholastic achievement as well as athletic ability.—Michigan Daily.

Good morning! Say, did you really subscribe for the Cardinal, too—or do you just get up a little earlier?

Do you know, I've been pondering over this problem for days and days over this most questionable utterance bespake by one of our celebrated profs the other day: "You see, he wasn't so old then; he didn't get old until later on!"

FOR MEN ONLY.

Excited Dad: "Say, Doc, I do hope you will make it a boy!"

Cool Doc: "Sorry, old man, but I've got something just as good!"

COAL DEALER READS BIBLE FOR FORTY-EIGHTH TIME, is a news item we gleaned from one of the sheets the other day. From what we have gathered from our experience with said dealers and their prices, we venture to say that the old boy better make it an even hundred if he hopes to keep from helping to distribute the fuel supply after the crack of Doom has busted.

"Well, I'll be damned!" roared the river as the booted Plumbers approached with blueprints and slippsticks in hand.

YEARNING FOR YOU.

Oh, how I hope and long for you, Through working hours and off at night!

Why must you seem to keep forever Hidden from my eager sight?

(One minute please to change pictures.)

If you were only mine, just once, How I with righteous joy would thrill!

Come with me now, my life's fond dream; Be mine, alone—ten dollar bill!

(That's all, now!) BLUE-EYED GOBLIN.

Our Own Policy in Regard to Athletics in the Future:

ON TO POUGHKEEPSIE

The little frosh over at the house was invited to a sorority party, and (poor fellow) aired his great fortune (?) about the house. One junior piped up with the admonition: "Don't think you're going to borrow any of my clothes that night, Sonny!"

Three Years Ago

Wisconsin was defeated by Chicago in a close contest, 3 to 0. Roland Williams was elected captain of the 1922 eleven.

The Men's Glee club announced a concert to be given in Chicago January 14.

Wisconsin took third in the conference cross-country meet. Illinois won the meet.

Women Call For Dairy Products of Quality—Matteson

"The women are the dairymen of Wisconsin so far as quality dairy products are concerned," stated Mrs. L. Matteson, of the Wisconsin Cooperative Creameries association, before the recent agricultural workers' conference at the university.

The farm wife determines the quality of Wisconsin's dairy products because she demands better places for the location of cream separators and dairy apparatus, also good storage places for the milk and cream of the farm, the talker reasoned.

"A standardized product always sells for more on the market," reminded Mrs. Matteson. "By standardizing our product and consolidating shipments into carload lots a very appreciable saving will be realized. The central association will handle the selling of the car lots. Field men of the association will assist both the farmer and the factories in bettering the quality of the butter."

GO GET CHICAGO.

Whereupon the greeny replied: "Say, where d'ya think I'm going—to work?"

IT WOOD.

Unchmee (reading sign—"Pete Burns!")

Punchmee (acting smart)—"So does coal!"

WHY MEN SWEAR.

Seven p. m. and a wide-open window.

Heavy beard and roommate out of blades.

Pretty girl who is also pious. A chance mealmate and forty cents in cash.

Cold in the head and hanky at home.

I SEE BY THE PAPERS THAT ONE OF THE BEST SELLERS ABOUT THE TOWN IS VAN VECHTEN'S "TATTOOED COUNTESS." HUUM! GUESS I'LL HAVE TO INSPECT THIS PIECE OF WORK!

MISS CUE.

"Please?" "No, not tonight! Father said—" "M-m-m-m-m—" "Jack, you dear!"

Some of the smart alecks around the house tried to tell me that the Profs never read the blue books anyway, but when I got mine back, there was no doubt about it—it sure was Red!

WORLD'S SHORTEST POEM.

Gee,
Ryan,
Keep Tryin'!

Foreign entanglements surely is a queer thing! Who'd ever think that a Notre Dame-Northwestern game in Chicago would have any influence on the price of football tickets in Madison!

It's mean to do it, but for Christmas we're going to present our roommate with a case of Listerine, cause he sure has halitosis of the feet!

NOW, 289 ISN'T A BAD SCORE IN BOWLING, BUT DID YOU EVER HEAR OF THE BOZO WHO BOWLED 300 AND WON?

Illustrious Verbal Exits: "Gee, I forgot my purse!"

MACBETH.

Prize Poem Will Appear in Next Number Lit Mag

The next issue of the Wisconsin Literary magazine is due to come out during the first week in December, according to information received from the "Lit" office yesterday. The issue will have many interesting features and varied contents.

A poem written by Maria Zaturanska '27, which was awarded the John Reed memorial prize for poetry in the Poetry magazine last May, will be in this issue. A series of translations of the Chinese poet, Li Po, will be the contribution of Cheng Yu Sun '25.

"How to Write a Detective Story," a story with a slightly different treatment from that of the ordinary, is the work of W. A. Moran '25. "The DoYLES," by Violet Martin '26, will be one of the short stories of this issue. "Love Money," by Willett M. Kempton '26, recounts a true story of the late war.

Book reviews by Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalism fraternity for women, will be one of the features of the December issue. As yet, the staff has not been able to obtain any article written by a faculty member, but it hopes to do so before the publication comes out.

GUYER OPENS WESLEY FORUM LECTURE SERIES

"The Bearing of Service on Religion" will be the subject of Prof. M. F. Guyer's speech Sunday, November 23 at the Wesley foundation. Professor Guyer is the first of three speakers who will appear at the Wesley forum within the next three weeks. Prof. A. K. Loebek will speak on "Genesis and Geology," Prof. L. A. Kahlenberg on "Matter and Spirit."

PAPER TO OFFER PRIZES FOR ESSAYS

"La Prensa" Only Spanish
Daily in States Announces
Contest

A total amount of $3,500 for 90 prizes is offered by La Prensa, the only Spanish daily published in the United States, for essays written in Spanish. The contest is being conducted under the auspices of La Prensa, of New York, and the American association of teachers of Spanish.

Five groups may compete in the contest. They are students in secondary schools, students in colleges, students in colleges and universities seeking an M. A. degree in romance languages, candidates for the degree of Ph. D. in romance languages, and teachers of Spanish in secondary schools.

Dictionaries, encyclopedias, and grammars may be freely consulted during the preparation of the essay. Topics for the essay for the second group must be chosen from a list of subjects which will be furnished by La Prensa, and the length of the essay must be 1,500 words. Accompanying the essay must be a statement by the head of the department of Spanish in the secondary school or college, which must certify that the candidate has composed the essay himself.

All essays in groups one and two must be written in Spanish, but those in groups three, four and five may be written either in English or Spanish.

The date of the expiration of the contest for all groups except groups three and four is April 1, 1925. The date of expiration of the other groups is September 1, 1925.

Five regional committees and one central committee will determine the award of the prizes. The regional committees will select 89 essays from each region to submit to the central committee who will make the final choice. Wisconsin is in the third region which includes Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Arkansas, and Louisiana.

La Prensa will publish in its columns the winning essays from groups one, two and three. The winning articles in group five will be published in "Hispana."

In commenting on the contest, Prof. Joaquin Ortega of the romance language department said that the contest would arouse stimulus in Spanish, and the research work required would be of educational value to the students.

The announcement of the prizes will be made on or before June 1.

Railroads Will Run Six Specials to Chicago Game

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and the Chicago and Northwestern railways are running special trains to Chicago for the Wisconsin-Chicago football game. The round trip ticket on both roads is $6.24.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul is scheduling three special trains for the Chicago game, two leaving on Friday and one on Saturday. There will be one special train leaving Chicago for Madison Sunday night, which will be provided with sleepers. Besides the specials there will be extra coaches on the regular Chicago bound trains.

The Chicago and Northwestern railroad is also running two specials on Friday and one on Saturday. A special will leave Chicago for Madison on this road Sunday afternoon.

DAIRY CLUB DEBATES ON CHEESE FACTORIES

"Resolved, that creameries and cheese factories should be located in the country," is the subject of the debate to be given by the Dairy School Debating Society at 7 o'clock Friday night in 302, Dairy building.

The affirmative will be upheld by I. E. Parkin, R. P. Gleisberg and F. M. Moore. The speakers for the Violette, and J. Kujawa, all of Violette, and J. Kujawa, all of whom are dairy students.

Other features of the program are songs, and yodeling by Ernest Seeholzer, a native of Switzerland. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

EXTEND SERVICE

SAN ANTONIO, Texas—Special delivery service now in effect in the U. S. probably will be extended to Mexico, officials said.

Varied Program is Given at Meeting of French Club

Music, drawing, and reading were all employed to entertain the French club last night at the meeting held in the concert room of Lathrop hall. Melodies from Chopin were rendered on the piano by Anna Margaret Clifford. The drawing took the form of chalk talks given by Iris Muncar-Sellen and Evelyn Waldron. Michael F. Slenkin and Leon I. Gopadze played a variety of melodies on the mandolin and guitar.

Real French atmosphere was added when Mlle. Louise Tavernier read choice extracts from "Le Livre de Mon Ami" by Anatole France.

On Tuesday, December 2, Julian Harris will talk before the club on the composer, Debussy, and will play selections from his works. The place of the meeting will be announced later.

MORGAN CONDUCTS TRIP TO EUROPE

Students Will Visit France,
Italy, Germany and England

A steamer trip down the Rhine, a motor trip through the Shakespearean country, and extended visits in Paris, London and Rome, are included in the trip which Prof. B. Q. Morgan of the German department will conduct next summer.

"The trip will be under the management of the Temple tours, the largest and most successful touring agency in this country," Professor Morgan said yesterday. "A permanent force both in Paris and London are now working to make arrangements for trips of interest to the party. Special guides will be furnished in Paris, Rome and London, and an effort will be made to visit as many different types of points of interest as possible."

The itinerary will include France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, the Netherlands and England.

The party will leave June 27, and will return either August 22 or 29. This is the second time that Professor Morgan has conducted a student trip, the first one being in the summer of 1922.

COSTERISAN TO SPEAK BEFORE JOURNAL CLUB

George Costerisan '26 will speak before the Education Journal club at its regular weekly meeting at 12 o'clock tomorrow noon in the author's room of the university Y. M. C. A. He will discuss education from the field of literature, basing his talk on an article from the Education magazine entitled "Modern Aspects of Education."

WORLD of SOCIETY

No Parties Planned as Students Leave For the Windy City

The university society world has suffered a relapse. There is not one party registered in the dean's office this week end. After the great number of dances, banquets and dinners given for the alumni last week the lack of entertainment of any kind this week is especially noticeable. Next week being Thanksgiving there will be parties on both Wednesday night and over the week end, helping to make up for the great scarcity this week. The explanation for this sudden lull is the fact that so many students are going to Chicago to attend the game at Stagg field Saturday, the Follies, the Wisconsin dance at the Drake hotel and shows.

FORMER CO-ED MARRIED TO U. S. ARMY OFFICER

The announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mildred Snell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Snell of Plymouth to Andrew Pawlus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pawlus of Whiting, Indiana. The marriage took place on November 15. The bride is a graduate of the university and the Chicago Musical college. The groom is a non-commissioned officer in the United States army and is now stationed at Fort Sheridan.

Philomathia Will Hold Tryouts For Debate in Bascom

Philomathia will hold its sophomore semi-public debate tryouts at 4:30 o'clock today in 226 Bascom hall, according to Vernon Houghton '25, president of the society. Two teams will be selected to compete in the annual sophomore event with Hesperia and Athenae literary societies.

"The trials are being held on Thursday afternoon instead of Friday evening because a large number of the contestants intend to go to Chicago," declared Houghton.

The proposition to be debated is "Resolved, that the constitution of the United States should be so amended as to permit the manufacture of light wines and beers of not more than 4 per cent alcohol."

Each contestant may give a five-minute talk on either the affirmative or the negative side. There will be no rebuttal speeches.

Rev. Soldan to Discuss Life in Federal Prison

Dog Tax Row Results In $10,000 Damage Claim

JEFFERSON, Wis.—William G. Cody, Watertown, presented a joint claim which was refused by the county board, for $10,000 against Jefferson county, the state and Otto Kuenzle, district attorney, on a charge of false imprisonment.

The claim arose out of an action to recover for an alleged forfeiture under the dog license law.

Judgment was entered in Justice court against Cody, and after his failure to pay he was committed to the county jail, until the judgment was reversed by Circuit court.

Leave Granted Teacher Injured In Car Crash

Miss Renette Jones, principal of the Lincoln school, who was severely injured in an automobile wreck while on her way to the state teachers' convention at Milwaukee a week ago, has been granted leave of absence until Jan. 1, on full pay. This is a temporary measure taken by the board of education. Miss Jones suffered a fracture of the hip.

Prof. Beatty Gives Picture of Universities in England

Prof. Arthur Beatty of the English department gives an interesting picture of university conditions in England, where he spent the last year doing research work on Tennyson and Coleridge. Professor Beatty spent most of his time in the British museum and the libraries of the universities at Cambridge and Bristol.

"The English universities do not know what to do with the crush of students who are flocking to their doors," said Professor Beatty. "Like us, they haven't money or facilities to accommodate the influx."

"Two types of universities exist in England—those which try to house their students entirely in halls and dormitories, such as Oxford and Cambridge, and those designated as provincial colleges.

"The first type is based directly on the old idea of monastic life, and represents the English attempt to bring into the life of laymen some of the phases of monastic life and learning. However, it is very expensive to attend these schools, and the universities themselves cannot accommodate the students. After a man has lived for two years in the halls, he goes out and takes to 'diggings' as they call it. He goes into a room of his own, and another takes his place in the hall."

"There are a number of province universities—Liverpool, Sheffield, Exeter, Birmingham, Bristol, Manchester, and London, which do not pretend to house the students. A woman's college at Bedford is one exception."

RADIO FANS HEAR HOW BEES WORK

Prof. Terry Lectures From
WHA on How Bees
Make Honey

To fill their honey sacks with nectar, bees fly from flower to flower and finally back to the hive, where they deposit physically and chemically ripened honey. This was part of the process of honey making which Prof. E. M. Terry of the physics department explained Monday night from station WHA, in an address on "Yum-Yum-Honey, How the Bees Make It." Prof. H. F. Wilson of the entomology department wrote the address but was unexpectedly called out of the city Sunday.

"The making of honey by bees is an art which developed in nature and is not yet thoroughly understood by men. The tiny bee is a minute industrial plant, in which physics, chemistry and other natural sciences are continuously working. Each colony of bees contains one queen, from 5,000 to 75,000 workers, and during the summer months a few hundred drones.

"The workers are the servants. They keep the hive clean, bring in the pollen, water, and honey, and produce the wax which goes to make the combs in which the honey is stored. For the first week or ten days after they emerge as full-grown bees, they act as nurse bees within the hive, providing food for the young. Up to the time when they are about two or three weeks old they put in considerable time producing wax for comb building, and after that period they spend almost their entire time in the field gathering nectar from the plants and bringing it in to the store house within the hive.

"We speak of honey as being made from the nectar of flowers, but nectar alone would make poor honey unless it passed through the chemical and physical process developed by the bee. The honey sack of the bees is lined with microscopic cells that give off an enzyme which helps to ripen the nectar into honey. Minute quantities of an acid, supposedly formic acid, are given off in the honey sack of the bee, and this also helps in the ripening process.

"As soon as the nectar brought in by the bees is entirely formed into honey, it is stored in pure white cells of wax, and then the cells are capped over with the same wax, and we have the honey as you see it in the store."

COOLIDGE MAKES PLEA FOR TIMBER

President Warns Country of Diminishing Forests That Must Be Safeguarded

WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Coolidge today asked for a program of timber-saving in opening the national conference on utilization of forest products.

The nation faces timber exhaustion, the president warned, and the situation must be met by diminishing waste and increasing the supply.

The resources of the nation are a trust, Mr. Coolidge declared, subject to use by the present generation, administered free of monopolies and from those "who will unwisely permit them to be dissipated." About 745 billion cubic feet of timber is left in this country, he said, and there is an annual drain of 25 billion cubic feet while the annual timber growth is only six billion feet. In the face of this situation, he declared, the nation must turn to the problem of growing wood from the soil like any other crop.

The president saw "hopeful signs" in federal legislation as enacted in the Clark-McNary bill passed at the last session making provision for fire protection and restoration and in the week's law authorizing government purchase of numerous forest tracts.

About 350 producers, manufacturers and consumers of wood and wood products assembled here today for the conference.

The conference is an outgrowth of a proposition sponsored by the research section of the forest service at the request of Carlyle P. Winslow, director of the U. S. Forest Products laboratory of Madison, Wis.

Madison Workers Situation Shows Much Improvement

Registrations at the Madison Employment bureau for October, compared with the report of the period in 1923, indicate that the industrial situation in the city has improved, according to J. F. Brahaney, superintendent.

Records of the local office are kept in periods of weeks. The October record of last year ran into five weeks while that of 1924 was for four weeks.

Figures for both years follow: 1923—men, registrations, 487; calls 479; referred, 403; placed, 268; women, registrations, 250; calls, 184; referred, 172; placed, 139.

For 1924, the figures are: men, registrations, 393; calls, 291; referred, 287; placed, 194; women, registrations, 203; calls, 126; referred, 118; placed, 90.

BOULDER, Colo.—The Boosters' club of the University of Colorado is holding a number of dances, and promoting other financial schemes in order to raise money to pay the fares of the football team to Hawaii.

AUSTIN, Texas.—That students who succeed scholastically during their university careers usually succeed in business or professions after their departure from college, was the statement made recently by Dr. W. T. Mather, professor of physics in the University of Texas. Professor Mather expressed the opinion that failure in university courses can be attributed to the fact that few college students really understand how to study.

American Musical Study Just as Good as Foreign

—ELMAN

By J. D. T.

Mischa Elman was putting away his $10,000 violin when the Daily Cardinal reporter arrived backstage at Christ church last Tuesday. In a few moments he turned, and with a friendly smile answered the first question.

"An American musical education is just as good as a foreign one. The best masters try to give the students the pieces they should have and good students accept them. But when a student refuses to play any pieces except those that he likes himself, he is hurting and hindering himself."

When Mr. Elman talks he is not a great violinist, he is a man. Every interviewer says this of his subject, but Mr. Elman seems to forget himself in his effort to answer just what one wants to know.

"You have orchestral work here?" he repeated. "It is excellent training for young musicians. It enables them to understand the literature of music, as in English, French, and their other studies. It gives them a background for their individual work. It broadens their knowledge of the possibilities of music."

The program he gave was unusual in its variety both of composers and style. "I like to give varied programs," Mr. Elman said, "because it shows my audiences different phases of music. It shows what different feelings can be aroused. It exhibits the personality of music. Music like that cannot help but appeal to those that hear it."

And thus he explains the appreciation of his audience, allowing little for the marvelous personality that he himself injects into his work.

There is a side to the artist that is little known but which is as truly a part of him as his violin playing. He is an excellent chess player and has matched his men with many experts. He is a poetry lover and always carries with him a book to read in the between-times. And further, he loves to dance.

COUNTY TEACHERS WILL MEET HERE

Eastern Dane County School Board Convention to Be Held Nov. 28

Over 390 school board members and at least 150 teachers are expected to be present at the Eastern Dane county school board convention at the Central High school, Nov. 28, beginning at 9:30 a. m.

Dr. F. F. Bowman, of the state board of health, will talk on the health of the school child. U. J. Osburn, also a member of the board, will discuss tests and measurements of school children. George S. Dick, state superintendent of rural schools, will have as his subject, equal opportunities for every child in Wisconsin.

Miss Bertrude Burnson, county nurse, will begin the afternoon session with a talk on the sanitation of rural schools. The rest of the time will be taken up by a discussion of questions brought up during the day. Miss Eleanore Weisman, superintendent of Eastern Dane county schools, is in charge of the arrangements.

UNIVERSITY CONTINUES FIRE PREVENTION WORK

Fire prevention plans now under way to insure student safety include a new fire escape at the rear of Bascom hall, and the inauguration of a fire drill in the building. The two oldest university buildings, North hall and South hall, which had become unsafe, have been remodelled recently. New fireproof halls and stairways, and re-arrangement of class and lecture rooms made for safety in the buildings.

INCREASE ASKED FOR FARM WORK

Annual Budget of Farm Bureau Asks For Increase in Funds

General increases in appropriations were asked by state departments which submitted budgets to the state board of public affairs at its initial hearing yesterday.

An increase of approximately $200,000 a year for tuberculin eradication work among cattle herds of the state, asked by J. D. Jones, state commissioner of agriculture, the agricultural department, tax commission, board of health and industrial commission submitted budgets to the board yesterday.

The following items were requested by Commissioner Jones for tuberculin eradication work; indemnity on slaughtered animals area, $250,000; accredited herds, $75,000; indemnity on other local work, $300,000; administration, $125,000. All of the items are for each year of the biennium. The only other increase in the appropriations asked by the agricultural department was $5,000 annually for cranberry inspection work. Total appropriations requested by the department for each year were $1,271,550. Appropriations for state fair operation requested were $257,000 annually.

An increase in appropriations of $5,120 for child welfare work and to meet federal aid was the chief item in the budget of the state board of health. Appropriations asked for this work were $28,120 annually. Chief items in the health department budget were: administration, $51,000; social hygiene, $36,100; communicable disease, $13,300. Total specific appropriations were $161,020 for each year and total revolving appropriations, $91,191, making the budget total $252,211 for each of the two years.

Restoration of nine state income tax assessors who were dropped from state service during the past year because of lack of funds, is sought by the state tax commission in asking an increase of $27,000 annually for assessors. Leading items in its budget include: administration, $39,200; accounting, $58,965; assessors of income, $196,000; income tax verification, $100,000; total, $433,375.

Papers Publishing 1924 Income Taxes Will Be Indicted

WASHINGTON — The right of newspapers to publish income tax returns made public under the revenue act of 1924 is to be determined through court action in a number of cases covering various aspects of the question. Although the names of newspapers involved has been withheld at the department of justice indications are that in at least one of the cases, an indictment is expected this week.

U. S. attorneys have been instructed by Atty. Gen. Stone to institute grand jury proceedings in "six or seven" cases selected from evidence submitted to him at his request from all parts of the country.

Although it has been suggested that congress may have time to make its purpose clear before any of the cases can be brought before the supreme court, attention was directed today to another proceeding, already before the court, which might have bearing on the validity of the statutes permitting publication of income tax returns.

In the latter action William J. Juneau, of Milwaukee county, Wis., yesterday asked for a review of a decision by the supreme court of that state dismissing an injunction he had obtained restraining tax officials from making public his returns under an act of the legislature in 1923. He seeks to challenge the state law in the federal court on the ground that it deprives him of rights under the constitution.

MANY GROUP PICTURES ARE NOT YET TAKEN

"A considerable number of group pictures have not yet been taken," said Otis Weiss, '26, editor-in-chief of the 1926 Badger, yesterday, "and since Thursday is the last day that pictures can be arranged for, the remaining groups will have to make special arrangements at the Badger office." The studios at which group pictures may be taken are De Longe's, Thomas' and the Badger, except in the case of outdoor pictures, which the Photoart shop has charge of. These outdoor pictures cannot be taken without special permission from the Badger office.

QUITS OFFICE ON VISITORS BOARD

Senator Titus Sends Letter of Resignation to Governor Blaine

Senator W. A. Titus, Fond du Lac, today resigned as a member of the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin. The resignation came in a letter received by Gov. Blaine today.

Senator Titus' resignation is said to be the forerunner of a bill which he will introduce in the next session prohibiting the appointment of any member of the legislature to any state position during the term for which he was elected. Senator Titus' letter follows:

"I hand you herewith my resignation as member of the Board of Visitors, a position to which I was twice appointed by Gov. McGovern, once by Gov. Philipp and re-appointed by you in 1922.

"While the office is of minor importance and carries neither salary nor per diem, I seriously question the propriety, especially in view of recent developments, of any member of the legislature holding any office at the hands of the Executive while still continuing as a member of the law making body. The questionable policy of the system was further emphasized a short time ago by a letter which I received from one of your most devoted portions in the State senate. In this letter he charged that I had accepted an office from the Governor and then failed to heed executive instructions in my legislative work. As this appointment to the Board of Visitors is the only one I ever received from you, I assumed this is what he referred to.

"I received this minor appointment without any solicitation, and in accepting it I supposed that service not obligation was implied. Had I believed otherwise I would have declined the appointment, as I felt then and still feel that no obligation can take priority over my obligation to the people who elected me and who I represent in the state senate.

"I have had this resignation in mind for some time but purposely delayed it until after election as I did not want it to appear as another of the cheap political moves that have been so apparent in our state politics during the past few years."

Because some fraternities did not receive the reminder of the deadline set on entries for interfraternity basketball, sent out some time ago, the date has been advanced to this noon, according to Bob Sykes '25. All fraternities who still wish to enter should send their application plus their entry fee check to either Sykes or George Berg at the gym. Sykes pointed out that the entry fee must accompany the application if it is to be accepted.

may develop with more than ordinary seriousness. Such flagrant disrespect on the part of a few for the rights of the many should certainly not go unnoticed," he declared.

Law Carries $100 Fine

Prosecution would be made on the basis of the provision of the Revenue act of 1921 relating to taxes on admissions. It reads:

"The price (exclusive of the tax to be paid by the person paying for admission) at which every admission ticket or card is sold shall be conspicuously and indelibly printed, stamped or written on the fact or back of that part of the ticket which is to be taken up by the management of the theater, opera, or other place of amusement.

"Whoever sells an admission ticket or card on which the name of the vendor and price is not printed, stamped, or written, or at a price in excess of the price so printed, stamped or written thereon, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $100."

BUCKEYES-ILLINOIS MEET ON GRIDIRON

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 15.—In the annual renewal of a gridiron rivalry to which only that peculiar to the Big Three of the East can be compared Ohio State, nursing a forlorn hope, next Saturday invades Illinois in what promises to be the climax of the current Big Ten season. It will be the first appearance of the Ohioans in the new Illinois stadium. When these two elevens get together, figuratively speaking, all bets are off. Regardless of what either or both teams have done earlier in the season, it seems to have little bearing on the outcome of their annual struggle.

SCHOOLS SHOULD TEACH RELIGION

Educator Says Week Day Religious Schools Should Be Created Now

"The only solution for the lack of religious education in this country, where at the present time only seven out of every ten persons between the ages of 5 and 15 years are receiving any religious training, seems to lie in the week day religious activities," said M. A. Hanline, Pasadena, Cal., at an executive meeting of the Parent-Teacher association in the city library Monday. He spoke on "Adolescence, the Boy and the Girl."

"The child, is the central figure in the educational process and the nature of the child determines its education," he said. Child nature is four-fold; the physical nature which seeks exercise, the intellectual which seeks wisdom, the social which seeks companionship and the religious which seeks God. Since education concerns itself with the entire individual, only that education which takes into consideration the four-fold nature of the child is perfect education.

"The home and the Sunday school, the two institutions which are responsible for religious education, have been found inadequate, for in many homes no religion is taught or practiced and the Sunday school reaches but a small percentage of children.

"In America today, a system of week day religious schools is being created, supplementing the public school and the Sunday school."

Dr. Hanline will speak at the First Baptist church Wednesday, afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Foster S. Randle was appointed chairman of the program committee. Reports of the association on the art program for the year showed ten schools participating in the work outlined by Mrs. E. M. Gilbert. Dudley G. Watson will lecture to the classes in connection with the art contest.

STAGG JERKS MEN WHO CUSS IN GAME

Austin McCarty, the 178 pound Chicago fullback, who was largely responsible for Chicagos tie game with the Illini, and for whom the Badgers are preparing especially was on the Chicago squad last year but warmed a bench nearly all season.

"Cussing" put McCarty in wrong with "the old man" and he didn't get to play much. It was during the heat of the Chicago-Purdue game last year that the Chicago fullback let his tongue slip. Everything that the Maroons had tried had failed and finally McCarty yelled to the quarterback:

"Gimme that football," punctuating the remark with one or two swear words. The quarterback complied with McCarty's vehement request and the plunging fullback hit the line for 20 yards.

But when Stagg heard about the "naughty words" McCarty was suspended from the varsity squad for the rest of the season for Stagg does not tolerate any cussing.

Luehr Leaves State Civil Service Body

W. H. Luehr, chief deputy examiner of the state civil service commission, has left the state service.

It became known several days ago that Luehr would be dropped from state service or transferred to another department. He is said to have opposed the latter plan. Luehr has been with the commission as chief assistant for three years.

Material for Football

EXT to good coaching, material is the most important element necessary to a winning football team. Last year we played men that were not in physical condition, but as cripples they were better than the reserve material we had. At Michigan, in desperation, the coach put in Butch Leidl before he had recovered from an injury. Result—he did not play Saturday and may not play against Chicago. In the Notre Dame game the coach knew he needed our best and Steve Polaski started at end before he had recovered from an injury. Result—he did not play Saturday and may not play against Chicago. There is not a better end in the conference than Steve, and if Butch had not been injured his name would be on all of the tongues today. Tom Long was injured in the Notre Dame game, had seventeen stitches taken in his lip. The coach needed him against Iowa and had him out running down punts with orders not to tackle. By accident one of the fellows shoved a hand in his face and opened the wound. Result—he did not play against Chicago. Tom has shown improvement in every game and will make a name for himself before he leaves school. My heart went out to Putty Nelson on Saturday. Only a person that has suffered greatly can know what he went back. There are no better tackles than Putty. You can endure great pain, but there is a limit for all of us. Those arms could not close around the man. Bieberstein was in great pain Saturday and should not have been played, and a couple of others should have been relieved for part of the game. The coach does not want to play these men, he is forced to by lack of material. Who is responsible for this suffering, this playing of men that are not in physical condition? "You are," and by you I mean every student in the University. You didn't see any cripples on the Notre Dame team. They have enough material to allow the coach to take out a player that is slightly injured and keep him out until he is well. With their abundance of material most of their subs are about as good as the regulars and better than the injured ones. My suggestion is that every student in the University write to the boys he knows in high school, find out who the football stars are and get them to come to Wisconsin. Getting material is your job and my job on the team and, if we fall down on our part, we can't expect results.

Some of us think we support the team when we go out and cheer and root and pull for the team to win just so we can watch them win. That alone is not support. Until every one of us makes every effort to get the good athletes to come to Wisconsin we are not supporting the team, the coach or the school. State colleges and normal schools are taking a great many good boys that should be here. They can make the grade in school and some of them can make the team. LET'S GET THE MATERIAL, GET BEHIND OUR COACH AND THEN WE CAN WATCH WISCONSIN WIN.

E. J. GRADY, Manager
