JUNIOR PROM TO ESCAPE RULING, MORGAN SAYS

Urges Invitations to Prom and All Student Dances

That the Prom and the Military Ball will not be affected by the city dance ordinance, was the statement made by Attorney-General W. J. Morgan yesterday.

The recent city ordinance regarding public dances says in part: "The term 'public dance' shall be taken to mean any dance or ball to which admission can be had by the public general payment of a fee, or any other dance to which the public generally without any restriction may gain admission with or without the payment of a fee."

Not Affected by Ordinance

No official opinion has been given by the attorney-general respecting the application of the city ordinance to student dances, but in an interview he stated that student subscription dances, admission to which is limited to invited subscribers, are not affected by the ordinance.

As only invited guests are present at the subscription dances given in fraternity and sorority houses they do not come within the realm defined by the ordinance.

Require Invitations

"The Prom committee could undoubtedly so conduct Prom that it could be held in the capitol without violation of the ordinance" Mr. Morgan, added, "If the Prom committee was to require that all persons wishing to attend should first procure an invitation to the function, and use discretion in the issuance of such invitations, Prom would be taken out of the definition of 'public dance' as defined in the city ordinance."

"A Prom cannot be given like a mere public dance without any supervision over the character of those attending and remain unaffected by the ordinance", the attorney-general concluded.

The Military Ball will not be affected by the dance ordinance, in any way, for the usual time of closing this dance has been 12 o'clock midnight. A special concession was made last year by the student life and interest committee allowing a 1 o'clock ball. This concession was made to accommodate the large number of service men in school last year, and will not be asked for again, according to advices from the committee on social affairs.

BREED IS ELECTED PISTOL TEAM HEAD

Officers of the Pistol club for the coming year were elected at a meeting last night. Elected officers are: P. K. Breed '24, president; D. E. Aultman '24, vice president; C. C. Kyle '23, secretary; D. A. McArthur '23, treasurer; and Sergeant Mason, coach.

Breed predicts a championship for Wisconsin at the national meet to be held at Camp Perry this year.

"We have most of last year's squad back," he said, "new material is showing up especially well this year."

Contests have been arranged for next spring with 15 other universities.

"Kitty Corner" Sales of Haresfoot Club Are Good

"Kitty Corner" sales by Haresfoot club on the campus Wednesday totaled more than 40 copies, according to a statement made yesterday by T. A. Tredwell, '23, manager.

The popular scores of last year's Haresfoot comedy, written by university students, are receiving equal favor among this season's popular music. In consequence the sale is passing all expectations of the club.

The Hook Bros. Music Co. has a few copies of the songs still on sale.

Lawyers Will Revive Campus Cane Custom

The senior law students will carry their canes the first time this year at the football game Saturday. From then on the canes will be carried to classes and to all University functions until Thanksgiving.

The dark cane with its silver tipped handle is a familiar sight on the campus. It was carried by the senior lawyers last year. The custom was begun with the idea of establishing a tradition in the Law school. Clifford G. Mathys '24, chairman of the committee on canes, states that all eligible men have been personally asked to cooperate in making the custom a success.

That the radio fans in this territory are greatly interested, is shown by the dozens of letters and telephone calls received daily.

PITCHED BATTLE ON CAMPUS BETWEEN FROSH AND SOPHS IS AVERTED BY FEW LEADERS

Student Senate Head Warns Against Hazing

Freshmen or sophomores who participate in future hazing outbursts will be placed immediately on disciplinary probation, Robert B. Stewart '23, president of the Student senate, announced following the hazing demonstration last night.

"Wearing of the green cap does not give the yearlings the right to participate in hazing," Stewart asserted. "Freshmen who are caught challenging sophomores will be placed on disciplinary probation not only for the duration of their freshman year but also until the end of their second year."

"Sophomores also are liable to probation penalties for violation of the student regulations. Freshmen who wear the green caps will be protected by the senate against all forms of hazing."

U. W. GRAD WINS SPECIAL HONOR

First Woman Student in World To Get Speech Degree

The first doctor's degree in speech to a woman was given to Sara M. Stinchfield at the summer session of the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Stinchfield is the only woman in the world to hold such a degree. She is now a member of the speech department of Mt. Holyoke college.

The voices of freshman girls at Mt. Holyoke were measured this fall by standard speech tests perfected by Dr. Stinchfield. These tests are the result of five years' observations at the Iowa State university hospital, the Iowa Child Welfare Research station, in the public schools of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and under the direction of Dr. Smiley Blanton, the speech clinic at the university.

More than 500 cases have been recorded, including the type of defect, the frequency, results of training and treatment. Adenoids, tonsils, and imperfect teeth are sometimes the cause of imperfect speech. These physical hindrances can soon be removed.

The voices of Wisconsin freshmen were surveyed by the speech department in 1921. There were more speech defects among the men than among the women. Among the 1356 students observed, 20 stuttered, 30 stammered, five lisped, 78 had unpleasant voices, — high-pitched, hoarse, or husky, and the speech of 133 was too slow, monotonous, or rapid.

Ag. Students Turn Out For Saddle and Sirloin

More than 200 Agricultural students and faculty members attended the first booster meeting of the Saddle and Sirloin club in Agricultural hall last night.

Addresses by prominent faculty members and students were made. After the meeting more than 25 men joined the organization.

Speeches and Stunts Will Feature at Grad Mixer

The Graduate club will hold a mixer tonight at Lathrop parlors to promote goodfellowship among the graduate students. Eugene Holden president has arranged a program of speeches and stunts. The admission will be 50 cents. Prof. and Mrs. A. L. Mc Nall will chaperon the party.

Senior Averts Serious Fight; Hazing Party Goes Home

Coolheadedness on the part of several upperclassmen, and a spirit of willingness to listen to reason by a number of sophomores and freshmen, prevented what might have been a pitched battle late last night between the yearlings and the sophomores.

Immediately after the close of the sophomore meeting in Music hall approximately 75 freshmen who are reported to have been in hiding near Bascom hall, started down the upper campus shouting defiance at the sophomores.

Class Skirmish Occurs

The column veered off to the left when the sophomores charged across the campus. The two groups slowed up as they came together. A small skirmish took place in the front ranks. A senior who happened to be in the thick of the melee, stopped the fight before it became serious.

Approximately two-thirds of the freshmen then started a snake dance down State street, followed by the second-year men who harassed them from all sides. At State and Lake streets the freshmen ranks began to break, and the sophomores closed in, bent on punishing their rivals.

Thomas Savery, a freshman, crowded to the center of the group and succeeded in making himself heard.

Prevents Serious Fight

He urged the members of his class to go home quietly, stating that the class would be held responsible if its members persisted in antagonizing the sophomores. Savery set the example by walking away.

The larger part of the column of freshmen turned south on Lake street with the rapidly-growing group of Sophomores in pursuit. Upperclassmen again stepped in and prevented the students from starting a fight, this time directly in front of the Luther Memorial church. At the same time the upperclassmen told the freshmen they must disband immediately or make themselves liable to disciplinary action by the student senate.

Most of the yearlings complied, a few unwillingly. The sophomores also were asked to go home quietly and leave the matter to the senate. No later disorders were reported, although individual groups of each class were seen throughout the city until a late hour last night.

"FORD FOR WHITE HOUSE" ADVOCATED

"Henry Ford for President in 1924," will be advocated by A. A. Cooper '25 this evening at the first formal meeting of the Athenae Literary society.

A new feature in the society's activities will be a one-man debate on the question that the University of Wisconsin require four years of athletic training. The affirmative will be upheld by W. L. Jackman, '25 and the negative by L. S. Barkhoff '25. E. G. Williams '24 will speak on "Some Elementary Principles of Parliamentary Procedure."

BADGER DRIVE ON NEW PLANS

Sale of Annual Year-book Will Begin Monday, Lyman
States

The Badger campaign for this year will be conducted on an entirely new plan, which means that united co-operation is needed from all to make 5,000 sales a reality." Howard Lyman '24, business manager of the Badger, declared last night at a circulation meeting held at Lathrop hall.

The sale begins next Monday, and will continue throughout the entire week. Inter-sorority competition is to be eliminated and replaced by competition for prizes this year. Conspicuous selling on the hill and along the streets will also be eliminated under this new arrangement in connection with a big selling campaign conducted by the women.

Sixteen Teams in Drive

This year's campaign will be carried on by 16 teams of 10 women each under the general direction of Helen Kingsford '24 and eight teams under the general direction of Howard Lyman '24. These teams will be assigned to definite district divisions and will canvass every one in the University systematically.

A gold fountain pen will be awarded to the man and to the woman turning in the highest number of individual sales, each member of the winning men's team and the winning women's team will receive a gold fountain pen. Besides the five staff positions are being offered to the five men and five women having the highest individual number of sales to their credit.

Captains of Girls' Teams

Nearly a Million Used For Student Loan Funds

Approximately $705,000 is being used by the University for loans to students and farmers in the state, according to M. E. McCaffrey, secretary of the board of regents. This amount is composed of 24 smaller funds including such scholarship and loan gifts as the James L. Lewis prize fund, the Carl Schurz memorial fund, and the William Jennings Bryan fund.

These funds are given as scholarships and fellowships in Latin, Greek, history, English, German, law, and chemistry.

The fund, which is now in trust, has grown from $64634 in 17 years.

HUMPHREY SEES CATTLE FUTURE FOR ARGENTINE

Professor of Agriculture Returns After Extensive Trip in Southern Climes

That there is a splendid opportunity for the development of a Wisconsin cattle market in Argentina, is the opinion of Prof. G. C. Humphrey, of the College of Agriculture, who returned to Madison with his wife Tuesday after a two month's trip in South America.

Prof. Humphrey judged dairy cattle of the National Live Stock show of Argentina at Buenos Aires where over 3,000 head of cattle were exhibited. Although beef cattle predominated at the show, there were many fine herds of Friburg, Normandy, Holstein and Jersey cattle, according to Prof. Humphrey.

CARLETON TEAM PLANS TRICKS IN BADGER GAME

Squad Will Arrive Today For Short Workout Before Contest

The Carleton college football squad will arrive in Madison today. The team will take a light workout in preparation for its game with Wisconsin at Camp Randall on Saturday afternoon. The college squad under the leadership of Coach Hunt left Northfield, Minnesota, late yesterday.

Realizing that their lighter players will be unable to cope with the heavy Wisconsin outfit, the collegians have a bag crammed full of tricks which they will spring in an attempt to hold down the score. Forward passes will probably form the bulwark of their style of play.

Coach John R. Richards let up on the Badger squad yesterday afternoon, although its workout was longer than usual, it consisted mainly of signal drills and preliminary practice. The coaches paid a great deal of attention to the line and assisted the wall in perfecting its shift formation.

Drill in Forward Passes

Barr, the remainder of the backfield and the ends, were drilled in the forward pass game, which, it is evident, will be Wisconsin's line of attack throughout the season. "Irish" and Tebell nabbed the oval in fine style.

Richards again shifted his lineup. He kept Capt. "Rollie" Williams out of the signal drills altogether. Sykes started at tackle, but Below replaced him. Bieberstein worked at guard for a while. Carlson and Whitten were in at left half.

Eagleburger was given special attention in the backfield. He followed the Varsity eleven during the early part of the practice and then went in at halfback. The southpaw is a clever open field runner as well as being fairly accurate kicker with his left pedal. The frosh were sent against varsity for a short time.

Issued Jerseys and Numbers

The entire squad has been issued Cardinal jerseys and numbers. Players, their positions, and numbers follow: Tebell 42, end; Taft 13, full; Irish 12, end; Harris 34, half; Pulaski 9, end; Gibson 10, half; Christianson 36, guard; Whitten 27, half; Below 30, tackle; Pearce 28, center; Murry 25, tackle; Hohlfield 31, guard; Radtke 26, full; Williams 21, half; Scherneck 29, tackle; Barr 43, quarter; Nichols 23, center; Saari 44, half; Alton 35, center; Smedal 17, guard; Bieberstein 32, guard; Miller 15, guard; Risteen 45, end; Millman 4, quarter; Eagleburger 8, quarter; Carlson 2, half; Smith 33, tackle; Bentson 10, tackle; Schneider 3, half; Sykes 20, tackle; Paige 16, tackle; Slaughter 18, guard; Nolte 14, end; Field 5, end.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO MICHIGAN GAME IS ASSURED BY ROAD

Special Offer is Made to Students for Wolverine Event

That a special train with reduced round-trip fare will be run to Ann Arbor for the Wisconsin-Michigan football game on November 18, was assured yesterday in an announcement by A. B. Batty, passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul railway.

"A fare of $18.13 will be made for a round trip via the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul railway and the Michigan Central for a party of 125 traveling together," Mr. Batty informed.

"For a party of 250 a rate of $15.16 will be made. Tickets will be on sale the day preceding the game, limited for return leaving Ann Arbor not later than midnight, November 18. A sleeping car rate of $4.50 also has been established between Madison and Ann Arbor.

Special service between Madison and Minneapolis will also be arranged for the Minnesota game on November 4.

5,000 KIDDIES IN CITY INVITED TO SEE GRID BATTLE

Department Opens Doors to Boys First Time in History

Five thousand Madison boys for the first time in the history of the university, are invited to be the guests of the University of Wisconsin tomorrow at the opening game of the football season.

Thomas E. Jones, director of the physical education at the university announced today that boys under 12 years of age will be admitted free to the concrete stands on the east side of the field at Camp Randall tomorrow for the Carleton game.

The students, faculty and public will occupy the West stands, leaving the more than 5,000 concrete seats erected on the east side last year for the youngsters. The only requirement will be that boys find seats immediately upon entering the stand and remain in their seats until the game is completed.

The Carleton team is the only one which comes to Madison on a guarantee instead of percentage basis, and therefore this is the only game where the kids could be admitted free.

The lads will be admitted at the south entrance and will be directed to the south sections in the east stand, the new sections erected this summer will not be used until the rings are in place.

PURPLE STAR OUT OF TEAM

Northwestern Player, Backfield Ace, is Classed Ineligible

EVANSTON, Ill.—Gloom of the deepest kind spread over the Northwestern university campus following the announcement from the faculty that Morris Blumenthal, Purple backfield ace and only veteran quarter back, had been hopelessly ineligible and forbidden to enter classes.

Blumenthal who last year attracted much attention, had been counted upon as one of the main stays of the Purple backfield.

Heavy Guard is Injured
Injuries have also added much to the uncertain outlook of the team. John Lane, heaviest of the guards and promising varsity candidate received an injury to his back which according to King Brady, trainer, will keep him off the squad for two weeks.

William, varsity half will be out of practice for a week due to injuries. Ole Dahl has a broken nose that King Brady says is the worst he has ever seen.

Ralph Countryman's injury to his right elbow will probably keep him out for the remainder of the season. The other casualties are as follows: Wright Erwine, injury to shoulder, Reading Putman, injured foot, and Mills, minor injuries.

Many Players are Shifted
Coach Thistlewaite is having a hard time in finding a permanent combination. He has constantly shifted his men from position to position in order to obtain the best possible arrangement.

No man on the squad knows where he may be shifted from day to day, and it is a certainty that no man knows whether he has a berth on the team yet.

Thistlewaite is having a hard time also in bringing his men to conform with the new ruling that all motion on the offensive team must have stopped before the ball is snapped. This new ruling will be especially hard on the Purple's team, because of the extensive use they made of the motion play in the past years.

The following men are likely to make the team: Mikkelson and C. Johnson as ends, Penfield, Davis, and Hastings as tackles, Horton or Hallowell at center, the quarter either Weinecke or Rembe, Palmer, McElwain, and Lauter at halves, and Capt. Paterson and Wolfe as full backs.

"TOM" NICHOLS IS STRONG CANDIDATE FOR CENTER JOB ON VARSITY ELEVEN

IOWA HOPEFUL OF '22 HONOR

Hawkeyes Expect to Make Championship in Conference

(Special to Daily Cardinal)
AMES, Iowa., Oct. 4—With two men fighting for every position on the team and a throng of veterans from last year's championship eleven on hand, Coach Howard Jones of Iowa is looking for a conference title again this year.

With Yale to be met this season in one of the most important inter-sectional games in years the Hawkeye candidates are fighting like mad for the privilege of helping to defend the honor of the West.

Led by Gordon Locke, one of the greatest fullbacks in the country, the largest collection of veterans in Big Ten football this year is being formed into a well balanced grid machine.

Powerful Line This Year
The line, undoubtedly the strongest in the conference both on the offensive and defensive, averaging 190 pounds to a man with the exception of the ends. Johnny Heldt will play in the center of the line, the same position which he held down last year. On either side of Heldt will probably be Chester Meade and Paul Minnek, both of them veteran guards from last year's eleven.

Have Plenty of Tackles
A wealth of wonderful tackles is making it hard for the coach to decide who will fit into the positions best, but it is considered likely that left tackle will be held down by George Thompson, a player of rare ability who was "found" in the Notre Dame game last year and who has been steadily improving under the guidance of Jones since that time.

Of the three candidates for the other tackle position who have shown the most knack, Karl Engeldinger, Kriz, and Johnstone, Engeldinger is favored for the job. Two years ago he won his letter at West Point. He is heavy and good on footwork, and it is certain that he will be given a trial during one of the early season games.

Ends Appear Only Fair
The ends of the line are not quite as well fixed as the rest of the team but with Kadsis of last years machine back and several men showing up well for the other end it is likely that the coach will have a smooth pair of wingmen by the first game of the season.

With Captain Locke, V. C. Shuttleworth, and "Doc" Miller returned on their jobs in the backfield, Jones is having little trouble. Locke is the most feared of conference fullbacks and has proven himself fit to captain the first of middle west football teams to be given a chance at Yale.

Shuttleworth and "Doc" Miller are two halfbacks from whom a lot is expected by the Iowa football

After nearly three weeks of preliminary practice and on the day before Wisconsin's first game of the season, "Tom" Nichols appears to be Coach John Richards' best bet for center against Carleton college tomorrow.

Although he has yet to play in a Big Ten conference game, Nichols has been working with effectiveness during early-season scrimmages. He is a "fightin' fool" in the line and flanked by Christianson and by Hohlfield, forms a bulwark which should stop anything that comes near the center.

Nichols has been pushed by Ben Pearce and more recently, Alton, for the center job. Thus far he has the edge on his opponents.

GYM TEAM IS READY TO WIN

Members Enthusiastic Despite Loss of Coach Slaughter

A very enthusiastic meeting of all Varsity gym team men was held in the trophy room of the gymnasium last night. The team which placed second in the Conference last year practically is intact. Although handicapped by the loss of Coach Slaughter who is away on leave, the team has bright prospects for a winning season.

Leitz, who is ineligible because of his work in the department this year, will act as manager. He is making tentative arrangements for meets with Minnesota, Chicago, Illinois, and Purdue. In addition to these meets, the team will go to the conference meet at Ohio State.

Old Varsity men who are in school and who will be eligible to be on the team are Captain Kitchen, Forth, Kubosch, Hansen, Bumer, Boerke, Stevens, Pfeifer, Rand, Thompson, Reinhold, Koch, Whitehead, Krieger, Hanman, A. M. Hoelz, C. E. Hoelz, and McKivett.

Material which comes from last year's freshman team is promising. The men who are eligible are Schmidt, Gebhardt, Kiess, Chomski, and Abbott.

A call for freshmen gymnasts will be issued through the Cardinal bulletin board in the near future.

Lee Parkin, a new man, seems to have first call on the quarterback job.

He is a clever passer and uses a great deal of headwork in directing the team. With a possible exception of the right end and quarterback position there seems to be no weak spot on the entire eleven.

The meeting of Iowa and Yale will not only be of historical importance but it will also result in the clash of two teams coached by brothers who played side by side at Yale years ago.

The Hawkeye team is one of the best that has ever worn Iowa's colors and the result of the contest may be a fair answer of the time-worn question is western football superior to eastern?

VARSITY EIGHT ON CREW SHOW GOOD PROGRESS

Eight Experienced Rowers Eligible For Squad, Vail Says

Although no crew meets will be held until next spring, "Dad" Vail has been trying for some weeks to iron out the rough spots in preparation for a better crew.

Few of the first string varsity men from last year will be back, but Coach Vail feels confident that when spring comes and crew is given preference to football and other activities he will be able to progress more rapidly.

The last few days have been ideal for crew workouts. "Dad" has had at least one out on an average of five nights a week.

"A man may be big and strong," Vail says, "but unless he is clever, smooth with his oar, he is merely weight in the shell."

Old Veterans are Back

Men of experience who will be back this year are Grozier, Jones, Schultz, Freeze, Pierce, Okerstrom, and Johnson. Art Platten, who was ineligible last year, will probably be out with the varsity eight this year while Backus and Klussendorf also appear to be likely material.

Football claims most of the likely sophomores, among whom are: Oscar Teckemeyer, Robutson, Smedal, Miller, Runte, and Scott. Kingston, who rowed with the fresh crew last year is not in school this semester.

Ski Club Plans For Successful Tournament

The members of the Badger Ski club, which held its first meeting of the year last night, are looking forward to one of the most successful seasons it has ever enjoyed.

The success of the main tournament this year depends on attracting all of the greater ski men of United States and Canada to this meet. The last year's trips of the jumpers to Canada and Cary, Illinois, and the competing of two of the men in a tournament on Mt. Ranier, in Washington last July 4, have made the members confident of success.

Muir Knoll will be put in condition this week end for the coming snow.

Girls Buy Majority Of Carleton Tickets

More than 1100 student tickets, and 76 outside tickets for the Carleton game Saturday, were sold at the gymnasium yesterday.

This number is comparatively small. A larger number of seats is expected to be purchased in the last two days.

An unusual feature was the pre-eminence of girls in the ticket line.

AMAZON CO-EDS TAKE UP BOXING AT ILLINOIS U.

Clubs Give Exhibition of Sport In Cities Throughout State

(Special to Daily Cardinal.)
CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — Boxing, which is now interesting a small group of university women on the campus, is not a new sport among Illinois women. According to newspapers of Davenport, Moline and Rock Island, it has reigned supreme among the athletic girls of these towns for a year and the Oberlin women have held a growing interest for the last four years.

The Kilenny club, composed of girls situated in the tri-cities, introduced boxing there. Last winter as basketball season was drawing to a close the club found an opening for another sport, and chose boxing. In two months the club was giving exhibitions to girls' athletic clubs within the radius of 100 miles.

For the last four years the sport has flourished at Oberlin. First the girls learned to punch the bag, then they exercised and now they are developing into mat work.

TROUBLE AVERTED

A small mob of freshmen, arrayed in old clothes and looking for trouble, broke loose on the upper campus last night and tried to pick a fight with those leaving the sophomore meeting at Bascom hall.

The sophomores this year have shown mighty good spirit in refraining from hazing the green-topped. They have given a first rate demonstration of how friendly Wisconsin classes may be.

Sophomores continued to show that spirit last night when they averted a general inter-class riot.

Most of the freshmen have caught that spirit of good fellowship demonstrated by the sophomores. It is to be regretted that a few freshmen have not.

The freshmen who participated in any effort to start inter-class street brawling is doing the university a great injury. He is touching the spark to a magazine of pugnacity, explosions of which in the past have brought disgrace to the university.

THE AMAZING AMAZONS

THE glory of the ancient Amazon woman with all her heroism and domination over man has been outdone by certain modern co-eds.

Fair generals of that historic tribe have been excelled in bravery by the fairer women students of Northwestern university. The co-eds, by their own volition and sacrifice have decreed an ultimatum to Northwestern fusers, "No dates with us on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights."

Thus the love of athletic glory triumphs over love for masculine attention.

"Let the university interests come first. The men must acknowledge it. We will sacrifice. Northwestern must have a winning team."

That the Women's Self-Government association of the conference institution at Evanston has taken this unusual stand is an interesting news fact.

The greater interest that women are taking in world affairs is an outstanding achievement for the sex.

Susan B. Anthony has outdone Mark Anthony. The victory of the vote far exceeds Mark's conquest of Cleopatra.

The game gridiron player of today meekly submits to pummeling and punching on the practice field of football exhibits the heroic. Certainly the male student's sacrifice to aid the athletic ascendancy of their Alma Mater becomes insignificant in comparison with the stand of Northwestern women.

May beauty and athletics be happily combined forever.

May Wisconsin's women never be forced to perform the heroic by restricting their male admirers from Monday, Tuesday and Thursday night dates.

As long as Wisconsin students participate in university athletics and give the university the best of their talents and ability, the co-eds may rest in peace.

Even if such drastic punishment is meted out to ardent fusers, she can be content with the consolation that Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights are the best nights after all to bask her beauty in the radiance of some admirer's affections.

LISTING ACTIVITIES

MEMBERS of the senior class will receive Badger summary blanks this week. They will be called upon to list their university honors and activities for publication in the senior section of the year book.

Some, with a sense of relative values, will list their signal achievements with some degree of modesty.

Others will rack their brains for every possible item with which to build up an imposing accumulation. They will do their best to crowd the other seniors off the page.

For that near-great student, the pin chaser, this listing of his Badger summary will be the climax of a university career. For three years he has dabbled in every possible activity, giving none his best work. He has been in everything and has achieved little. But he has acquired a glittering vest-load of jewelry and an imposing typographical array in the Badger.

The summary has been too much glorified in the last few years; men have been too much inclined to rate their own activity records and those of others by volume rather than by quality.

This is true not only of Wisconsin but of other universities, as demonstrated by the Conference activities contest conducted last year by the Daily Iowan.

This attitude, The Daily Cardinal must admit, has been encouraged by The Cardinal's custom of printing early editions of the summary with every publicity picture. That custom will be discontinued in the hope that it may aid in bringing students into a sense of proportion with reference to university activity.

Public libraries in 19 Wisconsin cities served as training schools for the field work of students in the Library school this year.

About one-fourth of the men and one-tenth of the women at the university earn part or all of their college expenses.

Physicians in a dozen Wisconsin cities took postgraduate medical courses this year through clinics arranged in those cities by the Extension division.

ONE O'CLOCK PARTIES

Editor Daily Cardinal:
The danger in the possible prohibition of 1 o'clock parties by the university authorities was brought out by an excellent editorial in The Cardinal, October 4. The proposal is under consideration as a result of a recent ordinance of the Madison city council closing all public dances at 12 o'clock.

Just what could be gained by shortening dance hours is hard to see. It might lessen the fatigue of the dancers somewhat, but it is always possible for those who become exhausted to leave before they collapse. Whether a dance lasts until 12 or 1 o'clock can have no influence on the morals of the dancers. It is as easy to be immoral at 11 as at 12, and if immorality is the aim of the dancer, all the rules in Christendom cannot thwart him.

A wave of sentiment for blue laws is sweeping the country, led by professional reformers, classed by Dr. J. J. Seelman, world famous pathologist of Milwaukee as sexual and religious defectives. Such defectives according to Dr. Seelman, are so constituted that they cannot be satisfied with the normal social intercourse of life, but must reach out and force others to observe their own personal rules of conduct.

The pitiful thing about the situation is that sane Americans have let themselves be drawn into a craze reform by a minority group. Madison seems to be swinging into line.

The reformers of this city have passed regulations shortening the hours of dancing. There are, of course, some arguments for the measures regarding public dances, where there is less moral restraint and less competent chaperoning.

But student parties constitute a totally different problem. They are well chaperoned. They are orderly and attended by more intelligent and stronger-willed men and women. The extra hour of enjoyment at a 1 o'clock party can have very little harmful moral effect. The 3 o'clock junior prom, occurring once a year, is as orderly at 3 o'clock as at 12.

The student vote of last year showed a striking majority for the continuation of 1 o'clock parties. It is a painfully proven fact that no law can be respected unless backed by public sentiment. The fate of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments and the apparent fate of the eighteenth amendment to our constitution are excellent examples.

Let us hope that the university authorities will take cognizance of this, and will not pass such a valueless and arbitrary measure, they will probably arouse a storm of protest and the reaction will be a disrespect for all rules.

Mme. Olga Patrova to Appear at Parkway

Mme. Olga Petrova, the Russian dancer, will appear at the Parkway theater for Saturday matinee and evening in "The White Peacock."

She will arrive in Madison at 7:30 o'clock on Saturday morning following her performance at Baraboo tonight. She intends to leave immediately after the performance.

Mme. Patrova has been a "movie" favorite for a number of years. Within the last two years she has been very successful in vaudeville and on the legitimate stage.

SKYROCKETS
CRACKS!

IT WASN'T SO LONG AGO that if you wore 'em people thought you were Scotch or else that you played golf.

IT'S KIND OF A DIRTY TRICK to make your little brother stay in all day just so you can wear his "trou" around.

During the first few days of GUS TUCKERMAN'S early knickerhood he went visiting one of his "swell friends." As he entered the front door, he was confronted by one of these dandy liveried butlers—You know, silk here and silk there. A feeling very embarrassed by his chubby, fat legs, walked up to the aforesaid butler and said, "Well, Mr. Evans, how's your golf game today?"

HORATIUS AT THE BRIDGE PARTY.

Now tables filled the Country Club
And perfume filled the air
O'f spring of the country's cream,

All were gathered there Horatius De Pyster.
Whose father made his nickels
Back in the days of 49.
By counting warts on pickles.

Lore Porsona of Kankakee.
Sextus from the village of Byrne. Their fathers made their millions

By kicking grunts from pig-iron.
Almighty host now stood around
Bedecked in grandest style,
And thought our brave Horatius

This party's sure worth while." Bring out the cards
dear hostess,

With all the speed ye may, I,
with one more to help me,
Will win the prize today. On you score card ten thousand Is easily made, you see. Now who will take the other hand
And play at bridge with me?"

Then up spake little Sextus
A bridge player proud was he "P'll take a chance with you, Horatius

If you'll take a chance with me." "Sextus," quoth Horatius,
"As thou sayest so let it be."
And then they cut the cards for deal

And Sextus cut a three.
But Lady Luck was missing.
Their opponents trumped and doubled. The score waxed high against them.

Horatius grew troubled. Then
Sextus led the Ace of Hearts,
This trick is all they need,
And then Horatius lost his head
And trumped his partner's lead,

Now Horatius is an outcast,
And his comrades cut him flat
Oh Mr. Hoyle I ask you!
How could he be so dumb as that?"

The other day Tom Tredwell was doing his bit for Haresfoot in Bascom hall. As a young gent walked up to the table, Tom said most politely, "Would you like the Haresfoot Score?" and the Y. G. said,
"Why I didn't even know they were playing, Who's pitching?"

Dean Goodnight Speaks To Rocky Mountain Club

The spirit of fight, go-getting, and stick-to-it-tiveness, the spirit of broad tolerance, and the spirit of service to fellow men are the chief characteristics of Wisconsin spirit, Dean S. H. Goodnight declared in an address to the Rocky Mountain club last night.

Dean Goodnight emphasized the sole standard, the intellectual one, and the lack of discrimination by race, color, breed, or faith, which helps greatly to solve the problems of democracy at a university.

The Rocky Mountain club is an organization of students from the western states. About 50 members attended the first meeting. Plans were made for a monthly cafeteria supper to be held in the S. G. A. room in Lathrop hall, and for an informal dancing party on Saturday night, October 21.

Carleton Has A Team Composed Mostly of Vets

With a team composed mainly of veterans, Carleton college is engaging in its last drills preparatory to the football game with Wisconsin at Madison next Saturday.

The collegians defeated St. Mary's college by a score of 15 to 6 last week. A large number of candidates were given an opportunity to work in the first contest, and basing his selection on showings made in this game, Coach Hunt has chosen a tentative Varsity outfit.

Because it expected one of the strongest teams in years, Carleton college framed an exceptionally hard schedule for the 1922 gridiron season. After the second game with Wisconsin on the 7th the Minnesotans play five games in succession. They meet Knox college, Illinois, at Northfield on Saturday October 21.

The probable Carleton lineup against Wisconsin, as announced by Coach C. J. Hunt, follows: right end Bates 19; right tackle, Middlemist 9; right guard, Hawkins 32; center Brown 33; left guard, Rokola 10; left tackle, Ebert 7; left end, Sims 6; quarterback Montgomery 15; right halfback, C. O'Brien 16; left halfback, Cassell 5; Capt. H. O'Brien 8, fullback.

FLAMES PERIL NORTH CITIES

100 Square Miles In Northern Minnesota Are Ablaze

NORTH BAY, Ont.—Forest fire refugees arrived here today from Haileybury reported that 50 persons had been drowned when they were crowded from a dock where they were trying to board a rescue ship. The forest fires which have been raging for the past 24 hours in northern Ontario and the valley of the St. Maurice river in Quebec have cost many lives, destroyed six towns and, according to reports reaching the Canadian capital this morning, now threatens other towns unless rain comes quickly.

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Over an area more than 100 miles square, scattered forest fires blazed today in northern Minnesota while forestry and military officials directed the fight to subdue them and hopefully scanned the skies for rain.

Many small settlements are threatened by the flames, several are reported virtually wiped out but there have been no casualties yet.

Bulletin To Teach Prevention in Schools

In conformity with legislative acts of 1919 and 1921, a bulletin on accident and fire prevention has been prepared in the departments of public instruction, the author of which is H. W. Schmidt, state supervisor of manual arts.

Wisconsin law requires that 30 minutes each month shall be devoted to instructing school children as to accident prevention, and 30 to fire prevention. The bulletin offers subject matter for such instruction, and is so outlined that it may be adapted to local conditions which are bound to be greatly variable among the 17,000 teachers of Wisconsin.

"Culture at All Costs," Gosling's Plea

Culture at all costs was the plea of Supt. of Schools Gosling in an address, Wednesday to the Parent-Teachers' association of Hawthorne school. After Mr. Gosling's talk, a little play written by Eleanor Reed was given, entitled "Chicken Hearted." A group of songs sung by the little Misses Adeline Steinhauer, Gladys Bostead, and Pearl Ackerman completed the children's contribution, the entertainment being carried by the fifth graders alone.

Miss Pratt, the school principal, then advocated buying more children's magazines.

How Parker Pens put Capillary
Attraction to actual use

IF EVER an instructor asks you to name a practical use of the scientific principle of capillary attraction—just cite the Parker Pen with its leakproof "Lucky Curve" feed.

All fountain pen makers were baffled for years by the so-called "sweating" of pens. Inked fingers still cause many complaints except from those who use Parker Pens.

For Geo. S. Parker solved the problem by inventing the "Lucky Curve" illustrated above. It forms a contact with the wall of the ink barrel—and no matter how much ink surrounds it the capillary attraction regulates the flow—it is steady; even and positive at all times.

This is one of the cardinal reasons that the Parker Pen is in such high favor with educators and student bodies. A pen that's a help—not a distraction—when one is concentrating the mind on study or instruction.

To all students—

Come and try the Parker at the pen counter designated below—try several points to find just the right degree for your individual hand.

Prices start as low as $2.50 notwithstanding that all Parker Pens have 14 K rolled gold points that cannot rust, corrode or tarnish, and all are made with the same jeweler's accuracy and finish as the famous 25-year Parker Duofold—the lacquer-red pen that at $7 became America's leader in less than a year from its introduction.

The older students know we welcome their coming to try Parker Pens whether they buy or not—and we feel the same way toward the freshmen.

Athletic Department Inaugurated New Plan For the Year

A complete program prepared for every home football game to be played by Wisconsin this year will be an added convenience to spectators who watch the Badgers battle at Camp Randall.

Proofs of the first program have received official approval and will be on the press today. Frank J. Nickerson, athletic department, prepared the booklet of information for the Carleton game on Saturday. He will be in charge of arrangements for future programs.

He has included in the Carleton souvenir the personnel of the opposing teams, positions of the players, and their numbers. These will enable spectators to follow the plays more closely.

The program explains important changes in football rules for 1922, the new try-for-point law, and the regulations regarding the shift. Pictures are also included in the programs.

Need 3000 Officers for Regular Army

The regular army is in need of 3,000 officers who will be chosen through examinations to be held Oct. 16, Col. Byron Beveridge, inspector general of the Wisconsin national guard, announced today. Any citizen of Wisconsin between the ages of 21 and 30 with proper educational qualifications may take the examinations.

Preliminary tests are held Oct. 16 and final examinations Oct. 23. All branches of the service are open to candidates who must have a college education of its equivalent.

Application blanks for information may be obtained from the commanding general, sixth corps area, Chicago.

"Matty" Given Great Ovation At Polo Grounds

NEW YORK—Christy Mathewson, famous pitcher of the Giants in years ago, came back to baseball on Wednesday and the lovers of baseball gave him a fitting welcome as one of the greatest rulers in the kingdom of sport. No welcome could have been more sincere. It might have been more tremendous except for doctor's orders and Matty's modesty, both of which factors caused him to slip quietly into a seat in the press box and to remain unnoticed until a regiment of photographers marshaled themselves before him to record in celluloid the most dramatic "come back" baseball has ever known.

Then a startled, ecstatic murmur swept through the crowd immediately back of the press box. The murmur was suddenly punctured by an almost hysterical welcoming yell as the first fan recognized the most beloved hero the Polo grounds has ever known.

"It's Matty," he shrieked and almost as if it had been a magical word, the name Matty leaped up and over the ascending tiers of seats until, as the crowd rose to its feet, it was fused into a huge, throbbing heart warming roar, into a collective voice of love that said as plainly as the voice of love may speak—"Welcome Home, Matty. We haven't forgotten you. You've made a great fight and we're glad to see you back."

GREEKS BALK AT AGREEMENT

Mudania Conference Blocked by Attitude of Athens Delegates

SMYRNA—The agreement which has been reached at the Mudania conference between the allied and Turkish delegates according to Mudania messages received here was communicated to the Greek delegates who expressed dissatisfaction with it, declaring themselves not empowered to reply and that they must have instructions from Athens.

CONSTANTINOPLE—The Mudania conference was reconvened at 10 o'clock this morning with Thrace the chief subject for consideration. The attitude of the Greek delegates on this question was declared to be giving the conferees considerable concern.

PARIS—An agreement as been reached by the conference of the allied and Turkish military leaders at Mudania, and will be signed today, according to private despatches.

The main lines of the agreement are:
First, the British and Turks both to withdraw from the neutral zone on the southern shore of the Dardanelles, the British to Gallipoli and the Turks behind the line formed by the rivers Granicus and Skamander.

Second, the Turks agree that the allies remain in Constantinople during the peace negotiations, on condition that Kemalist civil authorities are also installed there. Third, the Greek army to evacuate Thrace within ten days. If the Greek government refuses to give the necessary orders, the allied fleets are to blockade the Greek ports and the Kemalists forces cross the Dardanelles and drive the Greek troops out of Thrace.

NEAR CONSTANTINOPLE
CONSTANTINOPLE—British headquarters reports the appearance of Turkish Nationalist cavalry at Kandra, in the Constantinople neutral zone.

Kandra is approximately 65 miles east of Constantinople near the Black Sea coast of the Ismid peninsula.

This is the first reported violation by the Kemalists of the Constantinople neutral zone. Ismid peninsula offers the only direct approach to Constantinople for land forces.

Student War Vets 'Mum' On Harding Bonus Veto

Organization of the university post of the American Legion will be completed at a smoker to be held within the next week or so. J. C. Fritschler, commander of the post and the only officer back in school this year stated yesterday that plans will be advanced until this meeting.

Temporary officers will be elected in the near future to fill the vacancies until the regular election on January 1.

"I am unable to say what stand the post will take on the bonus veto," Mr. Fritschler added. "We must receive first word from the state headquarters, for our stand on all such matters is dependent upon them."

FLOWERS REMOVED.

Flower beds and benches will be removed from the capitol park as soon as the first frosts appear, according to August Meyer, assistant superintendent of public property.

Laughs, Tears, Make Snappy Orph Program

(By Marion Se Cheverill.)

All fair, some better, and some best at the Orph this week-end. There are tears for the sad, laughs for the glad, and so on it goes. Jack Benny is in town again, and setting him a close pace are Jarvis and Harrison.

Grant and Wallace—It was a combination, all right, of saxaphones and tumbling, with some rather clever dancing thrown in. We liked the curls and side-burns.

Chas. Keating and Co.—Here is where the sad found tears. A vaudeville adaption of Huckleberry Finn with singing and dialogue. "The Old Swimmin' Hole" was the best part of the playlet and afforded pleasant reminiscences for some.

Jarvis and Harrison—He starts us off with a laugh and keeps us going through the act. The "sticemupist lady" looked like a million and not at all like a common porch-climber. The jokes were new, and we were sorry there was no tangible specimen of the "reversible wienie."

Jack Benny—Sure gets the laugh. He reviewed some old jokes but even they got across. His fiddle almost talked and we would have liked more of it.

Shireen, The X-Ray Girl—We are still wondering how — Have you doped her out?

PYTHIA TO ADOPT NEW TRYOUT ULAN

A new plan for try-outs will be adopted this year by the Pythia Literary society. The date for the try-outs, which will be held within three weeks, will be set at the first meeting of the organization at 6:45 o'clock tonight in Lathrop parlors. The new scheme aims to give a fairer basis for voting. The number of candidates will be limited to 40.

The meeting tonight will be of a strictly business nature. Members are requested to bring constitution, books and pencils to vote on the revision of the constitution. Reports will be made of officers and the forensic board representative.

An open meeting for outside girls will be held next Friday night. A typical program will be presented in order to give the visitors a sample of the spirit and scope of the society.

More than 500,000 letters are written home each year by students in the university according to a questionnaire recently conducted by a student magazine.
