Sheboygan's

Part in the World War

It ain't the individual,
Nor the army as a whole,
But the everlastin' teamwork
Of every bloomin' soul.

KIPLING did not have Sheboygan, Wisconsin, citizens in mind when he wrote the above verse, but it describes the way the people of that city did their part towards winning the World War.

Sheboygan never does anything by halves. When her country called she gave of her "All." Whole-heartedly, she gave hundreds of her sons, thousands of her dollars, the bounties of her factories and the patriotic fervor of her soul.

More than 2,500 men from Sheboygan County, with a population of 58,000, responded to America's call for men to win the World War for Democracy. Of this number the City of Sheboygan gave over 1,500 of her finest young men. These served with credit in all branches of Uncle Sam's service, army, navy and marines.

The first contingent to leave was well trained Co. C, veterans of the Mexican border, led by Capt. Paul W. Schmidt.

The Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and other welfare organizations also sent their quota of men and women overseas from this city.

At home, those who were unable to volunteer for service in France, contributed generously of their dollars and of their time.

March 25, 1919.

HERMAN ALBRECHT,
Mayor of Sheboygan.

Sheboygan subscribed $334,600 to the First Liberty Loan. When the second call for funds came from Washington, Sheboygan, given a quota of $1,500,000, went over the top, subscribing $2,219,750 for bonds. Right back came Sheboygan when assessed $1,226,000 for the Third Liberty Loan with a total of $1,907,450, and on the Fourth Loan, the loan which convinced Germany of her defeat, Sheboygan signed up for $2,817,250 worth of bonds.

As a result of the first Red Cross drive Sheboygan handed over $22,000 to assist in the care of her boys in service. May, 1918, Sheboygan supplemented this with another contribution of $40,000. The Y. M. C. A. raised a war chest of $30,000 in November, 1917, and the Knights of Columbus collected $7,500 in May, 1918. In the United War Work drive in 1918 $76,500 was subscribed.

The following is a record that will always be inscribed on the hearts of Sheboygan citizens of this and grateful future generations—the honor roll of those who give of their life blood that liberty might not perish from the earth.

Sheboygan men wounded in battle . . . . . 71
