

The daily cardinal. Vol. LXXXVI, No. 59

November 14, 1975

Madison, Wisconsin: University of Wisconsin, [s.d.]

<https://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/YSX6ORO7MD6K38E>

The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Scab lettuce heads res halls menu

By DICK SATRAN
of the Cardinal Staff

Purchasing agents for the University Residence Halls said Wednesday they will continue to buy the cheapest lettuce available despite a loophole in state statutes that would allow them to buy the higher priced United Farm Workers (UFW) Lettuce.

UFW supporters who have been picketing residence halls eating facilities, asking for the removal of non-UFW lettuce, have amassed hundreds of signatures in support of their position.

"WE ARE DELEGATED to purchase under the same rules and regulations as any state agency," said Donald Coch, food purchasing agent for residence halls eating commons. "We have no choice but to buy from the lowest bidder."

The subchapter on purchasing from the Wisconsin Statutes reads: "All materials, supplies, equipment and contractual services except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (7) when the estimated cost exceeds $3,000, shall be purchased from the lowest bidder."

Subsection three provides the loophole by which UFW lettuce could be purchased. It states that in the "best interests of the state: patented or proprietary" articles may be purchased "without the usual statutory procedure."

The purchase of UFW lettuce could qualify as being in "the best interests of the state" because of the potential of losing thousands of dollars in University eating facilities that are being boycotted. The Memorial Union lost $50,000 in the fall of 1973 due to a boycott called because the Union was selling non-UFW lettuce.

PURCHASING AGENT COCH argues that lettuce is not included under the clause because "the competitive nature of the commodity" does not allow for it to fall under the heading of "patented or proprietary" materials.

According to Black's Legal Dictionary, the standard legal reference, proprietary articles are "the exclusive title to a thing; one who holds the title to a thing in his own right."

State Attorney General Bronson La Follette termed the clause "nebulous."

La Follette said, "It's a crazy law."

The UFW support group is seeking legal assistance in the matter. (continued on page 2)

Portugal

What's goin' on

By JONAHAN GLADSTONE
of the Cardinal Staff

A forum held Thursday night by the International Solidarity Committee (ISC) was an effort to make it possible to understand exactly the forces at work in Portugal, and how they are progressing.

THE FORUM, HELD at the Memorial Union, began with an analysis of the role of Portugal's colonial empire in forcing the eventual overthrow of the fascist regime.

Pointing to the great expenditures in colonial wars, speaker Jeff Hermanson, of the ISC and the American Worker's Party, began to outline the recent history of Portugal. He said the resources for those wars were coming from the working people of Portugal. Most significant was the great cost in lives in the wars; mostly working-class lives. (continued on page 2)

Leaning On a Lamppost
Chicago may have been a little windier than normal lately as winter chills set in.

Judge tells Fish story

By ALAN HIGBIE
of the Cardinal Staff

Dane County Circuit Court Judge Richard Bardwell ordered the State Dept. of Justice Thursday to complete within 15 days a report on its investigation of alleged felonies committed by Menominee County Sheriff Kenneth "Paddo" Fish.

Fish is currently under investigation because of charges by the Menominee People's Committee and the Menominee Legal Defense/Offense Committee that he fired a pistol and aimed a shotgun at a group of Menominee Indians and their friends while he was drunk, though they had committed no offense.

MARY KAY BAUM, an attorney for the People's Committee, asked Bardwell to issue a writ of mandamus that would force Gov. Patrick Lucey to suspend or remove Fish from office.

State law provides that the governor is required to remove a sheriff once the governor is "credibly informed" that the sheriff has committed a felony. Baum said the governor has been credibly informed because he received 15 affidavits that described the alleged pistol and shotgun incidents.

But Bardwell said that in his interpretation of the statute, the governor has not been credibly informed.

(continued on page 3)

UFW boycott

(continued from page 1)

The assistant to the Attorney General, Leroy Daltons, said the key to the issue was that any exception to the bidding procedure must be in the best interests of the state.

"The 'best interest' has to be determined by the Dept. of Administration," said Dalton.

Legal counsel retained by the UFW group, James Yeadon, said he definitely felt there was room for legal action.

"THERE SEEMS TO be a loophole in the law allowing them (the state) to purchase certain commodities if it's in the best interest of the state without taking bids."

So far Yeadon has taken no legal action, but he plans to confront the purchasing commission in the near future with the UFW support organization.

"I am researching the question," he said, "and looking into the possibility also of a legal suit against the University."

One food manager from Gordon Commons said he saw no difference in the amount of lettuce being consumed at the commons since the picketing began.

He said students should have a choice in what they eat and therefore the UFW supporters had no mandate for removal of non-UFW lettuce.

"WE THINK OUR students at each meal can vote by their appetite," he said, adding, "There are salads available—cole slaw jello, and cabbage.

~The Salad Course~

As one very aware UFW supporter summed things up: "At this point, what is going to make the difference is if every student who eats at the dorm cafeterias stops eating scab lettuce and signs the petitions demanding its replacement with United Farm Worker Lettuce. And this is what we're working for."

Soviet's continue Angolan power bid

Johannesburg, South Africa (AP)—The Soviet Union—loudly cheered by its allies in Africa—is making a major bid to gain a foothold in strategic and mineral-rich Angola.

At least one African nation, Uganda, is balking at the Kremlin power play and their relations have been "temporarily" snapped. But the reasons may be more financial than ideological.

THE SOVIETS HAVE poured arms and funds into the newly independent nation for over a year and recently introduced Cuban troops and advisers to support the Marxist Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA), which controls the capital of Luanda.

The MPLA-run radio station in Luanda announced Wednesday the Soviet Union has recognized the MPLA as the sole representative government of the "People's Republic" now wracked by a major civil war.

Soviet sources in Luanda said the Soviet Union would establish a full-scale embassy, possibly the largest in the southern hemisphere, including military advisers.

The quick Soviet recognition of the Communist-oriented movement appears to be aimed at facilitating a massive aid program to bolster the MPLA against rival movements seeking control of the former Portuguese territory.

THE MPLA HAS suffered serious military setbacks in recent weeks at the hands of the National Front for the Liberation of Angola (FNLA) and the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola (UNITA), which are backed Zaire, China, the United States and several Western European countries.

The two movements apparently also enjoy some clandestine from South Africa, Zambia, former Portuguese officers and other white mercenaries.

A joint FNLA-UNITA column of troops and mercenaries armed with armored cars and helicopters has swept northward over the past two weeks to capture Sa Da Bandeira, Mocamedes, Benguela, Lobito and most recently Novo Redondo, 175 miles north of Luanda.

The fast-moving column is advancing on the capital from the south while the main FNLA army of an estimated 20,000 men is poised about 15 miles north of Luanda.

MPLA control of Angola is tenuous and comprises little more than a strip of land about 200 miles wide eastward from Luanda through Salazar and Malanje to the Zaire border and a few scattered outlying areas.

The Soviet action in Angola has been enthusiastically welcomed by its allies in black Africa.

WSA passes Little funds

By DAVID KATAJA
of the Cardinal Staff

The Wisconsin Student Association (WSA) Senate voted Thursday night to give $195 to the Joanne Little Defense Fund. The Madison Student Coalition Against Racism requested the money to bring Little's defense attorney, Karen Galloway, to the campus to speak on Dec. 5.

Galloway will donate what she makes to Little's defense. Little has been cleared of murder charges but still faces a charge of breaking and entering.

WSA ALSO DEBATED a by-law revision dealing with legislation initiated by students. Originally, students needed 100 signatures on a petition to bring about a referendum. Craig Holman suggested increasing the number to 1,000.

Senator Nelson objected and called for a 4,000 signature minimum, expressing the fear that on the Madison campus it would be possible for 1,000 people to get together and abolish WSA, and the senators would have to comply. Nelson's proposal passed 14-12.

The senate refused to give Students for Quality Education any funds to bring educator, Jonathan Kozol to Madison to deliver a free speech.

Portugal forum

(continued from page 1)

It was not surprising that the military was, in fact, the organization which initiated the coup d'etat. The Armed Forces Movement (MFA), a group of army officers which had been meeting for more than a year to try to become an effective pressure group, finally realized that their only choice was to overthrow the old government.

WHEN THE MFA did seize power they were faced with the choice of how to proceed. In an attempt to make the transition as easy as possible, General Spínola, not a member of the MFA, and a rightist, was appointed President.

Spínola soon showed himself to be opposed to many of the programs of the MFA and called upon the "silent majority" of Portugal to march on Lisbon in support of his policies.

The march was a failure. Although there were those who did head toward Lisbon, they were stopped by MFA supporters before they got into the city. Soon after, Spínola resigned.

This left General Goncalves, a supporter of the Communist Party, as premier.

GONCALVES WAS eventually ousted by a coalition of right and far-left groups who united against the MFA, and more specifically the CP, which Goncalves was associated with.

The speakers at the forum believe that foreign intervention is responsible for most of the turns to the right which Portugal has taken.

Bill Zipes, of the Wisconsin Alliance, one of the groups participating in the ISC, commented on the foreign intervention which has taken place.

Citing admitted contributions to the revisionist Socialist Party by the CIA and the sabotaging of factory operations by foreign owners, Zipes began a long list of activities undertaken to prevent Portugal from being the first country in Western Europe to become socialist.

ZIPES ALSO pointed out that the media in the foreign countries has made very little effort to tell what is really happening in Portugal, and that what he saw during his recent visit there bore little resemblance to the picture that the press portrays.

He concluded his statement by saying that he believed that forums such as theirs were also important in helping to spread understanding of social upheavals, and to help combat the image of such changes being uncontrolled mass terror.

The point that the ISC wanted to stress most strongly was that the greatest support of the progressive socialists comes from the workers themselves. Thursday's surrounding of the Parliament complex by 20,000 construction workers, who were supporters of Goncalves demonstrates to the ISC that this is true.

They believe that only by relying on the people themselves; can the revolution move forward.

Brief

PHILOSOPHY COLLOQUIUM SERIES

A colloquium series sponsored by the University philosophy department will be held weekly through mid-December.

Prof. David Gauthier of the University of Toronto will speak Friday (Nov. 14) on "The Social Contract as Ideology." Prof. Nancy Holmstrom of the University will talk Nov. 21 on "Marx, Machinery and Alienation."

Prof. Terry Parsons of the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, will lecture Dec. 5 on "A Meinongian Analysis of Dream Objects." Prof. Dennis W. Stampe of the University will speak Dec. 10 on "Meaning and Reference in a Causal Theory of Representation."

The last colloquium will be held Dec. 12 with Prof. P. H. Nowell-Smith, of York University, Canada, speaking on "What is (Historical) Evidence?"

All sessions will be held at 3:30 p.m. in 4281 Helen C. White Hall, and are open to the public.

BEADED MIRRORS

ATTRACTIVE BEADED MIRRORS FROM TAIWAN CAN ADD A DISTINCTIVE TOUCH TO YOUR DECORATING. AVAILABLE IN SEVERAL DIFFERENT SIZES, SHAPES AND STYLES, THESE MIRRORS ARE A VERY POPULAR ITEM. PRICES RANGE FROM $5 to $31

Open Monday & Thursday till 9

ORIENTAL SPECIALTIES

548 State Street, Madison, Wisconsin 53703, Phone 255-9651

The Daily Cardinal
Founded April 4, 1892

THE DAILY CARDINAL is owned and controlled by elected representatives of the student body at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. It is published Monday through Friday mornings through the regular academic year, also on the following Saturday's: Sept. 13, 20, Oct. 4, 25, Nov. 1 and 15, 1975. Registration issues are one week prior to each semester.

THE DAILY CARDINAL publishes Tuesdays and Fridays during the Summer Session on the Madison campus, including the Fall Orientation Issue. The Daily Cardinal is printed in the University Typography Lab, and published by the New Daily Cardinal Corporation, 821 University, Madison, Wis. 53706.

THE DAILY CARDINAL is a non-profit organization completely independent of University finances. Operating revenue is generated solely from advertising and subscription sales. Second class postage paid at Madison, Wisconsin. Business and Editorial phones at (608) 262-5854.

Catcalls in court

(continued from page 1)

BARDWELL SAID HE COULD not order Gov. Lucey to suspend or remove Fish from office until the Dept. of Justice completes its investigation.

"I have to agree with the governor that until the investigation is completed he is not credibly informed," Bardwell said.

Baum and Bardwell ended the court proceeding with a series of arguments which drew catcalls and shouts from the spectators in the courtroom.

Baum asked Bardwell if, because of the seriousness of the situation in Menominee County, he was going to order the Dept. of Justice to deliver a copy of its report to Gov. Lucey.

Bardwell replied, "If the governor doesn't receive a copy within 15 days I'll order that he get one. But until then I'm going to assume that he'll get one, and until then your motion is premature."

THIS BROUGHT A titter from a group of Menominee County residents and their supporters who were in the back of the courtroom.

Baum then asked Bardwell to order the governor to conduct an investigation that would be independent from Menominee County District Atty. Richard Stadelman. She said the Dept. of Justice will turn over its report to Stadelman, but that the report will only contain information and no recommendations on whether criminal complaints should be filed.

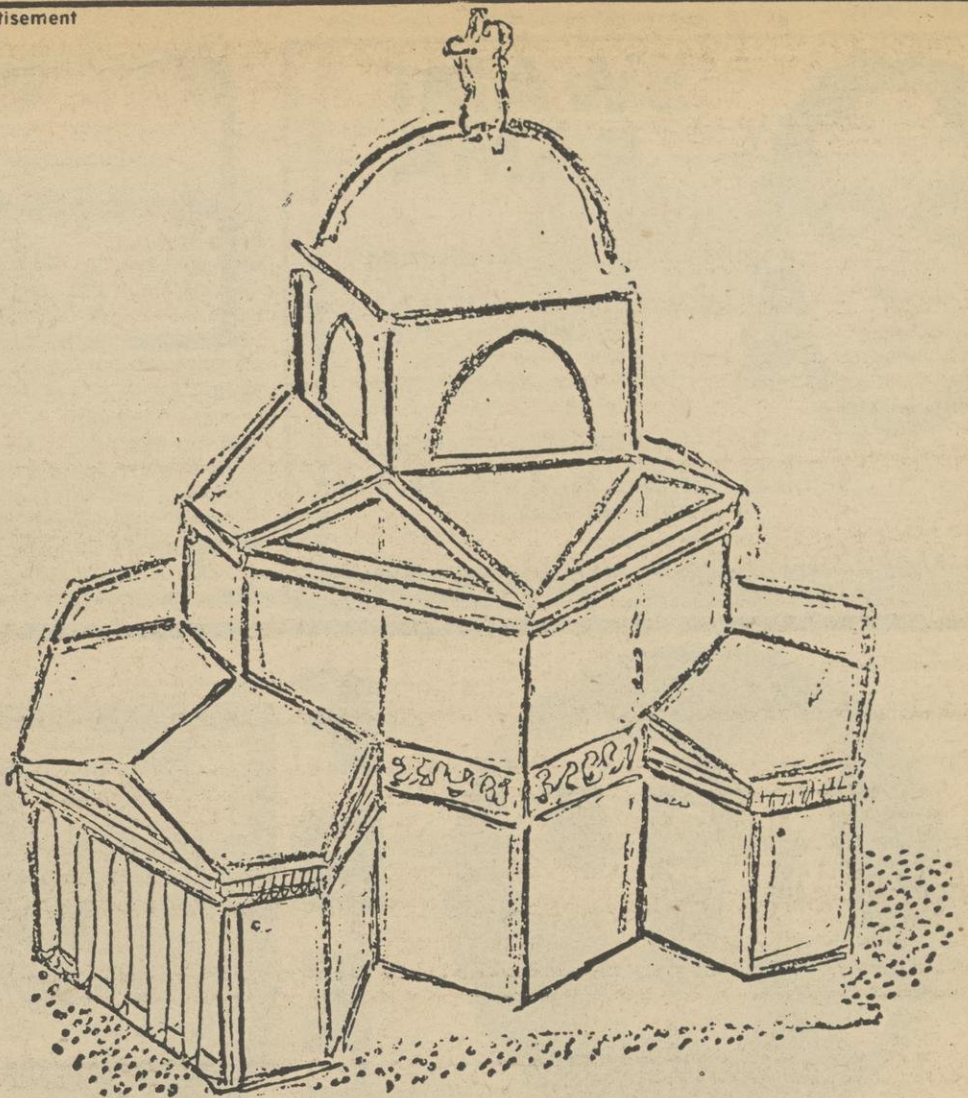

Baum said because of Stadelman's involvement, many Menominee County residents are reluctant to come forward with information.

Bardwell said, "You can write a letter, you can ask the governor to conduct an investigation in that manner, but I'm not going to order him how to conduct his investigation."

Several of the spectators yelled after Bardwell said this. Bardwell then stood up abruptly and said, "Thank you," and left the room.

Spectators then hooted loudly and calls of "whitewash" broke out.

advertisement

U.S.A. STUDENT SENATE
 THE ISSUE IS VERY CLEAR NOW FROM THE STANDPOINT OF AMERICAN MANHOOD: WHY IS PUBLIC MONEY GOING INTO PSYCHOLOGY AT U.W. MADISON AND NONE SUPPORTING ARCHITECTURE?
 Yours truly Kenneth Council ARCHITECT MADISON

page 3—Friday, November 14, 1975—the daily cardinal

Staff Meeting

Important—

editorial election procedures

BIGSBY and KRUTHER'S

Thanksgiving Trade-in Pant Sale

STARTS TODAY!! ENDS THANKSGIVING DAY

Cords, Jeans, Cuffed Pants

$200
OFF

Bring in any pair of pants and get $2.00 OFF on any pair of pants purchased. All pants traded in will be donated to local Madison charities.

$200
OFF

Bigsby & Kruthers
 502 STATE

SWAMI RAMA

"Art of Meditation"

Lecture, Fri., Nov. 14 at 7:30 p.m.
1127 University Ave.

"Meditation & Self-Fulfillment"

Seminar, Sat. Nov. 15, 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
7118 Old Sauk Rd.

Yoga Meditation Society of Madison 255-5007

OFF THE WIRE

Compiled from the Associated Press

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) Bands of gunmen took over Beirut streets Thursday in a wave of kidnappings that touched off renewed clashes between Christian and Moslem militias. Army commandos killed two armed men in an exchange of fire at Beirut International Airport. The gunfire spread panic among hundreds of passengers awaiting flights out of the jittery Lebanese capital.

THE RENEWED VIOLENCE emptied offices and shops. Most Beirut residents fled home, fearing the 10-day-old cease-fire in Lebanon's civil war was heading for collapse. By late afternoon the city was deserted.

Premier Rashid Karami called an emergency meeting of his cease-fire commission consisting of heads of Moslem and Christian private armies, national security chiefs and Palestinian guerrilla leaders.

A police source said there was increasing evidence militia leaders and guerrilla captains were unable to control their own gunmen, leaving local cease-fire committees powerless to halt the abductions.

More than 17 persons were captured by roaming gangs before nightfall, police reported, adding to the 12 captured overnight. The victims often are held only a short time but sometimes are tortured or killed if their captors believe they have links with opposing forces.

David Dodge, a long-time American resident of Beirut, was picked up by gunmen Wednesday evening and robbed of his car and about $50 before being released unharmed.

ACQUAINTANCES SAID the kidnapers accused Dodge, an oil pipeline executive, of helping smuggle arms to the right-wing Christian Phalange party militia.

The kidnapers allegedly identified themselves as members of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, but a spokesman for the front denied any connection with the incident. He said right-wing gunmen or "just plain thieves" covered their acts by claiming to be members of the Palestinian resistance.

Reliable government sources said the gunmen in the airport shootout were members of Saiga, a Syrian-backed Palestinian guerrilla movement. Airport sources also identified them as Palestinians.

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Deeds to the former Alexian Brothers novitiate in Shawano County were turned over Thursday to a non-profit educational and counseling organization and to the town of Richmond.

The donations of the 242 acre estate by the Chicago-based order marked another milestone in a controversy that began Jan. 1 when a group called the Menominee Warriors Society took over the estate and held it under siege for 34 days.

THE MAIN PART of the estate, about 186 acres including the buildings, was turned over to Crossroads Academy, a Milwaukee-based organization that specializes in the training of young people who have not adjusted to public schools.

A spokesperson said the academy planned to survey both Indian and non-Indian residents in the Shawano County area before determining exactly what kind of program it would offer.

Arthur Kriewaldt, Richmond town chairperson, said the 56 acres along the Red River that were donated to the town would become a public park.

Ada Deer, chairperson of the Menominee Restoration Committee, which is the tribe's governing board, said: "We wish them well with their plans, as we hope they wish us well with ours."

SEVERAL OTHER Indian leaders expressed surprise that they had not been contacted by the religious order in advance of Thursday's press conference here announcing the deed transfers.

Spokespersons for the warriors' society could not be reached for comment.

The Indians' siege of the novitiate ended Feb. 2 after the disident group was assured that the tribe would be given the property for use as an Indian health or education center.

(continued on page 5)

ADVERTISED ITEM POLICY

Each of these advertised items is required to be readily available for sale at or below the advertised price in each A&P store, except as specifically noted in this ad.

Prices Effective Thru Sat., Nov. 15, 1975

8-16 OZ.
Returnable Bottles

PEPSI COLA
98^c WOW PLUS TAX & DEP.

FREE

Coupon Good Mon., Nov. 10th Through Saturday, Nov. 15, 1975.

FREE

One 1-Lb. Pkg. Nutley Quarters
MARGARINE

With This Coupon and a $7.50 Purchase, Excluding Fair Trade or Minimum Markup Items. Limit One Coupon per Family.

This Coupon Good Mon., Nov. 10, 1975 Through Saturday, Nov. 15, 1975.

Shank Portion
SMOKED HAM

79^c

ENGLISH MUFFINS

ALDONS BRAND

3 Pkgs. Of 6 $1

SPECIAL SALE

MUSHROOMS

STEMS & PIECES

3 4-OZ. CAN 89^c

Pennsylvania Dutchman

SPECIAL PURCHASE

Light Chunk

Del Monte TUNA

44^c

6 1/2-Oz. Can

Brief

NOW DINNER
The local chapter of the National Organization of Women (NOW) is sponsoring a fund-raising dinner at the Sheridan Hotel Nov. 14. The guest speaker at the dinner will be Warren Farrell, author of the book The Liberated Male and national co-ordinator of NOW's Task Force on Men.
People are invited to come to the dinner and the speaker or to just hear the speaker at 8:15. A $3.00 donation is requested, for the speech only. The dinner is $10.
photo by Michael Kienitz

eskimo arts and crafts

An exhibition and sale of Canadian Eskimo Soapstone carvings, prints, reproductions and crafts (cards, calendars, dolls, etc.) will be held on campus at the
HILLEL FOUNDATION
611 Langdon St. 256-8361
NOVEMBER 19 & 20. Wed. 1-10, Thurs. 10-10
ADMISSION FREE

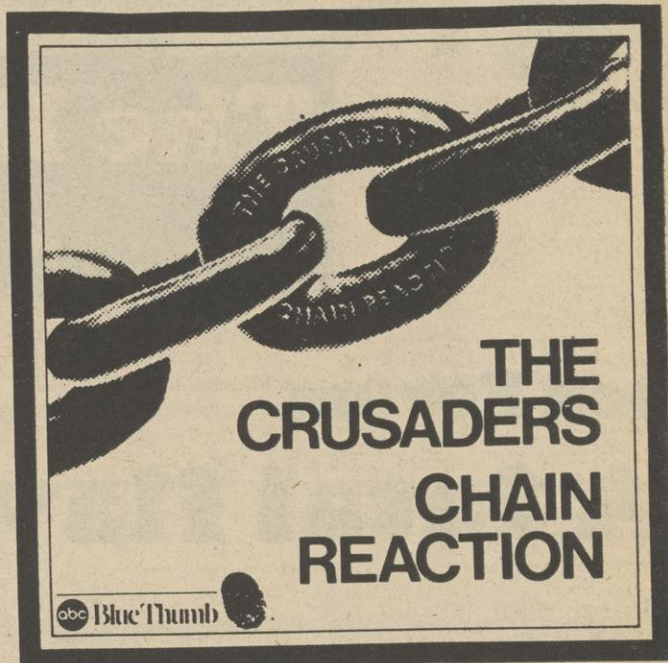

Novitiate

(continued from page 4)
But the Alexians announced this summer they would seek other arrangements because, they said, no tribal official would agree to accept title to the abbey.
BROTHER MAURICE WILSON, Alexian board secretary, said that the Menominee tribe and the warriors' group were not represented on the committee that studied the disposition of the property or involved in making the final decision.
"We hope they will react well because the program will be open to them," he said.
Wilson said there was "no financial consideration involved in either deed transfer transaction."
Bruce Cook, executive director of Crossroads, said he expected that his group would offer "services to youth in an area where comprehensive youth programs are much needed."
He added that he expected that the program would employ residents in the area.

abc Records

abc Records

abc Records

V W REPAIR
TUNE UPS BRAKES ENGINES PARTS TIRES
on busline
MOVED TO 1824 South Park Street
257-0047
VALKS HAUS

T.G.I.F.
4-7 p.m. $1 pitchers
50c Drinks
The Stone Hearth
103 N. PARK

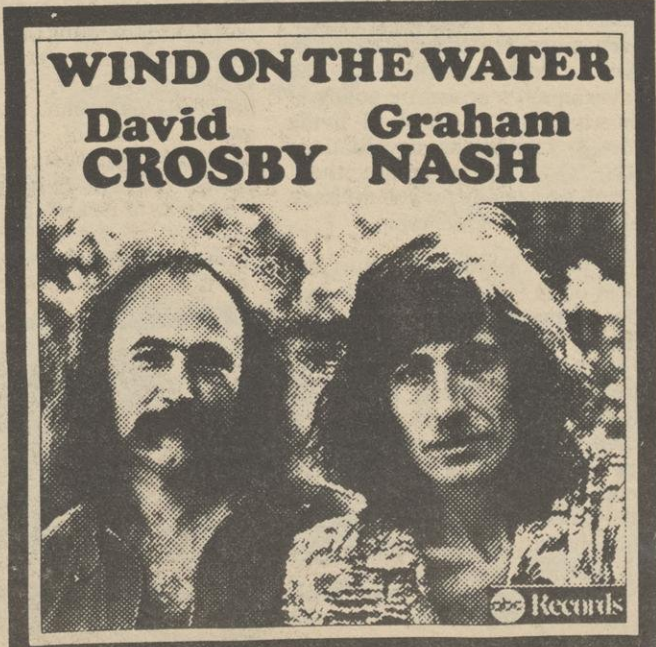

FRIDAY LUNCH SPECIALS
11:00 to 2:00
FISH SANDWICH & FRIES 95c
HAM SANDWICH AND POTATO SALAD $1.10
GREAT SALAD BAR EVERYDAY 65c
AT The Church Key
Corner of Lake & University

Blue Thumb

ALWAYS $4.18 EACH OR 3 FOR $12.00

abc Records

640 State St.
MADISON, WISC 53703
(608) 255-3182

Visions of Charles Colson and Donald Segretti over at Union South and Memorial Union these days. Cheap, underhanded tricks by management in recent weeks resulted in the firing of one worker and the suspension of two others. Back in October, Union management hired spies to uncover pilfering among student employees.

In a rather confusing set of events over the last week, the Memorial Union Labor Organization (MULO) first intended to call for a boycott, then decided to hold off until its legality was clarified by the Wisconsin Employment Relations Council (WERC). Under the contract, strikes, sit-downs, mass resignations or sick calls are prohibited. Another section of the contract says "under no circumstances will there be any interruption of services by employees."

THE QUESTION, of course, is survival. Survival of the workers vis-a-vis holding onto their jobs, and survival of MULO as a strong, effective union. If WERC ruled that a boycott would be illegal under the contract, MULO would have to reconsider. However, there can be little doubt that the management will stall on arbitration by WERC. Union management must agree to take the contract to arbitration before it can occur, and should they refuse, they would force MULO into an illegal action if it decided on the boycott.

Further, the MULO Stewards Council says it has decided to postpone the boycott after the Union Council decided not to employ any spies in either Union next month. According to a MULO spokesperson, "By delaying the boycott, we're telling management that we're serious about being a union—we could lose respect for ourselves by violating the contract."

In this corner, however, it is extremely difficult to rationalize the Stewards Council taking what the Union Council says at face value. Management says there will be no spies employed during the month of December. Yet, who was aware that any spies were even doing their dirty work in October? Union management has been underhanded up until this point, and what evidence is there to suggest such attitudes and actions won't continue?

Furthermore, MULO's collective guarantees under the Bill of Rights would be violated should management refuse to take the contract to arbitration. A boycott, it seems, is simply an expression of opposition to something, and in this case, MULO certainly should express itself. Freedom of expression is an important concept which union management will effectively abridge by refusing to go to arbitration.

MULO, AND ALL UNION workers, obviously cannot depend on management to resolve the spy problem to their (MULO's) satisfaction. Why should they? The initiatives are solely up to MULO and it seems to be a mistake to believe there will be no spies at the Unions.

Certainly, the problem of a possible violation of the contract has some validity. The workers at the Unions are trying to sustain themselves, pay tuition, and all the rest. Violating the contract might result in harsh repercussions by management. Nevertheless, were the WERC to rule a boycott illegal, what alternatives would remain? Put up and shut up? That simply is not a reasonable course of action when some undercover lackeys are slinking around the Union just waiting for the opportunity to turn someone in. Such working conditions are repressive, and union workers must protect themselves.

The Union Council says there will be no spies in the Unions during December. Remember, Kissinger told us "peace is at hand."

Tom Woolf

The Daily Cardinal

a page of opinion

Open Forum

A fatal flaw for the last ghetto

Glen Zui Yago

One awaits Claude Lanzman's much applauded film Porquoi Israel with interest and hope—interest that someone has finally raised the question, "Why Israel?" and hope that Lanzman offers a critical answer.

But one leaves disappointed: the question "Why Israel?" was asked only rhetorically. The film is a four-hour, liberal, "well-meaning" piece of propaganda.

LANZMAN ANSWERS the politically critical question "Why Israel?" with a simplistic, emotion-bound: "Well but of course, Israel...two thousand years of suffering...pioneers of the wilderness...refugees from the Exile..." In short, Lanzman only gives us the dominant ideology of Israel and Zionism that has been spoon-fed to the Israeli and American public for years.

For Lanzman to have sincerely asked the questions "Why Israel?" he would have had to show why the question is asked at all, especially in the course of recent history. He would have been obliged to ask: Why is Israel's history one of periodic territorial expansion? What is the historic cost of Jewish sovereignty? Is maintaining an artificial demographic Jewish majority in Israel / Palestine the only way to "security?" What does security mean in a situation of increasing military technical sophistication and "global strategy" where Israel plays less a part in protecting U.S. imperialist interests? Why do the African-Asian Jewish majority (Sephardim) occupy minority positions in Israel's social and political structure? Why does Israel deny that the Palestinians exist? Why are there waves of strikes in Israel?

Finally, most important, why is Israel's main battle not only for real estate (which in turn becomes defined as its existence), but consistently an ideological struggle for the hearts and minds of all Jewish people? Why are all Jews pressured into believing the mythologies of Zionism—that Jews cannot exist without Zionism, that the interests of a Jewish State are the same as the interests of the Jewish people? How many wars till this charade ends?

These questions are unasked and unanswered. He begins his film with a jaundiced view of "the Jewish question," and "the Jewish mystique." Lanzman, through numerous interviews, describes the Jewish question not as one of a people's oppression (as socialists and early Zionists discussed it), but rather as a legal definition or mystical connection.

WHAT LANZMAN FAILS to note is that the question, "Who is a Jew?" is important because it is an obfuscating question which takes the heat off important questions of power and domination in Israel's capitalist society. It also draws attention away from who might benefit from asking such a question.

What about: Who are the Palestinians? Who exploits and who is exploited in Israeli society? These questions are addressed in every other country, why not in the holy land?

Lanzman offers us a series of vignettes in the film. We see Israeli paratroopers receiving their Bibles at the Western Wall and soldiers marching in the dark by torchlight, receiving their historic message from their mysterious and ancient past. Then Lanzman switches to scenes of arriving Russian immigrants at Lod Airport.

But somewhere, the sincerely moving reunions of lost brothers are uncritically ideologized into a rationalization for Israeli soldiers cruising and searching for Gaza refugees. Whether the film is showing Israeli's stalking Palestinian commandos in orange groves or soldiers searching shopping baskets, it monotonously rings the popular cliché "No Alternative" into our ears.

AND SOMEHOW THE concrete and devastating destruction of European Jewry gets lost in the mist of Lanzman's camera. Allusions are continuously made to the Holocaust, but Lanzman forgets that there is also an accepted political term for that period—Fascism. Ironically, the Palestinians have a similar term for their national experience of the loss of their country—"alkaretha"—the disaster.

What is the connection between the Jewish refugees of World War II and the Palestinian refugees of 1948, 1967, and 1973? Must they always be driven into a death struggle against each other, so that one or the other is continuously battered and destroyed? Is there really no alternative? Lanzman forgets to ask.

ALMOST OBLIGATORILY, the French liberal offer the American audience its first view of Israeli workers, Black Panthers, (slum youth groups with no relation to American Black Panthers), leftists (only those from the Kibbutz), thieves, and rapists. As if he had never left Paris, Lanzman interviews Ashdod dockworkers and asks: "Do you consider yourselves engaged in class struggle?" These workers are some of the most militant in Israel. They have fought the police when they occupied their docks. Their strike activity has brought the possibility of detention orders and military trials—legal tools usually reserved for Palestinians. Such stern measures are the result of their violent opposition to the Government's economic policy of lowering the standard of living through continuous devaluations (The government wants the Israeli people pay for the military follies of their leadership.)

It might not be surprising for most of us to find out that before the 1973 earthquake in Israel, Zionist ideology and patriotism were as commonplace as Americanism during and after WWII. But, Lanzman is shocked when these workers say "NO, we are only fighting for our rights, we trust our government, we love our army, we are happy with our portions in life..."

Lanzman presents the ethnic question (African-Asian versus European Jews) as a situation where the Sephardim have a hard time since some of them have criminal records and cannot enter the army. In Israel, if you can't enter the army your path to social mobility is blocked.

But why should military involvement be a determinant of social success? And after Lanzman's film was made (1973) the conditions for entering the army were changed. But nothing happened; the Sephardim weren't suddenly affluent. Rather, their struggle became directed at decent housing, education and jobs. And Lanzman forgets to mention how the Black Panthers after numerous demonstrations demanding rights for the poor, were arrested and brutally beaten.

INSTEAD, LANZMAN offers us a blur of scenes showing that Israel is "normal," complete with prisons, police and young folks who don't like their government. Ho-hum. Somehow, there is no connection.

For Lanzman, there is comfort in journalistic eclecticism. As long as he keeps jumping around, no one can pin him down on an analysis of the multi-dimensional reality of Israel in the Arab world. He can distill the complex reality into a simplification that passes as documentary art: gee-whiz, guys, Israel has had a hard time, give them a break; don't apply time-tested truths of historic and political analysis to this beleaguered little country; trust in the spirits of Israel's ancient past.

Thus, we have Lanzman's film leaving all the myths intact:

"Israel the realized dream," "Israel the liberal conquerors," "Israel the creator of facts." Lanzman seems all too ready to uncritically accept these convenient explanations and Israel Forum is all too ready to advertise them.

If Zionism was to liberate the Jews, then why has Israel become an armed ghetto? Marx wrote that one nation which oppresses another cannot itself be free. As long as the Palestinian question is unasked, can the question of classes in Israel ever be posed?

SLOWLY, SINCE 1973, these questions have been emerging in Israeli popular culture. As Israeli novelist Dan Ben-Amotz wrote: "It is on our shoulders to clarify to ourselves the basic questions from anew. Indeed, is there a historical necessity for the existence of the Jewish peoples' concentration within the framework of a specific territory? Indeed, was it worthwhile to overcome the ghettos in order to create one big ghetto here for us all?...Is it not better to duty a lying theory (Zionism, nationalism,) instead of burying the warriors of that theory?"

Such questions lead us to seriously pose the question not only of "Why Israel?" but also how will the Israeli people continue to exist as a national minority among the Arab majority of the Middle East. Failing to recognize these questions is not only an artistic shortcoming of Lanzman's film, but could be a fatal flaw for the last ghetto.

Staff Meeting
FRIDAY
3:30 p.m.
At The Cardinal
Editorial election procedures

Welfare program: sterilizing the poor

page 7—Friday, November 14, 1975—the daily cardinal

THERE MUST BE MORE

What is the dollar value of a black woman's fertility? Low—if the woman happens to be a welfare mother in South Carolina.

For some years now, an Aiken, South Carolina, obstetrician named Clovis Pierce has been refusing to deliver welfare mothers with two or more children unless they agree to sterilization. Two Aiken women—both black—Virgil Walker, twenty-five, and Shirley Brown, twenty-six, went to Federal Court this past summer claiming that Dr. Pierce had, among other things, violated their civil rights. The obstetrician is white.

MRS. WALKER WAS actually sterilized, while Mrs. Brown was kicked out of Aiken County Hospital with her day-old infant when she refused to undergo the procedure. Yes, the Federal jury agreed, Virgil Walker's civil rights had indeed been violated; she was awarded $5 in damages. Shirley Brown was given nothing for her suffering.

Dr. Pierce considers the whole business terribly unjust and is appealing the decision. He has a good deal of support within the medical community. Dr. H. Curtis

Wood, an obstetrician who heads the Association for Voluntary Sterilization, told Les Payne of Newsday some months ago: "I admire his (Pierce's) courage. I'm sympathetic to his point of view. However, I question his method."

It is likely that a good many more stories similar to the Aiken one will be coming forth soon. One night, while in Los Angeles, Bernard Rosenfeld and I went to the Martin Luther King Medical Center in Watts, where we encountered a group of newly arrived interns from Howard University Medical School, Washington, D.C. One young physician told me:

"When I was at Howard, a woman came in through emergency and when I noticed she didn't have any children I asked her why. She said she came from a town in North Carolina and that in this town they sterilized the daughters of every woman who was on welfare when the girl turned fifteen. That's what happened to her."

"I SAW A FEW cases like that, too," said another former Howard medical student. "They were mostly from that area—North Carolina, South Carolina. They were routinely sterilizing the girls whose mothers were on welfare."

A third intern, a young woman, joined in: "I was at Mount Bayou, Mississippi, Tufts Health Center and two young women came in for a check-up. One was sixteen. One was eighteen. The sixteen-year-old, I did a routine pelvic on her. She didn't have a uterus and she didn't even know it...The eighteen-year-old had a tubal ligation. I was only there three weeks and I found two cases. There must be more."

reprinted from Progressive Magazine

News

Analysis

By FRITZ SIMMONS

Former Teamsters Union leader James Hoffa was found Thursday in University Hospitals spokesperson Henry Daniels said.

Daniels said Hoffa mysteriously appeared in the maternity ward, and told nurses there that he wanted to organize labor.

THE UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORE Top 10 Best Sellers 11/11/75

Centennial
When I Say No I Feel Guilty
Small is Beautiful
The Ebony Tower
Liberated Man
Something Happened
Helter Skelter
Gulag Archipelago Two More Joy of Sex Tales of Power

Michner
Smith
Schumacher Fowles
Farrell
Heller
Bugliosi Solzhenitsyn Comfort Castenada

711 STATE ST.

WES ZULTY SPORTS TWO LOCATIONS Anniversary SAVE 10% to 50% SALE

Wes Zulty Sports Walk-In Warehouse 1ST ANNIVERSARY SALE

18,000 Sq. Ft. of Name Brand Sporting Goods

CAMPING
GOLF-TENNIS ATHLETICS

POOL TABLES
WINTER SKIING
BOWLING

FISHING EXERCISE
ICE SKATES

CLOTHING
HUNTING SHOES

PRICES CUT!

SAVE AT BOTH GREAT LOCATIONS!

NOW DURING OUR ANNIVERSARY SALE!

CASH OR CHECK ONLY ON SALE ITEMS

Both Stores Open Daily 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. (East store closed Tues. Eve.)
Saturday 9 to 5; Sunday 12 to 5. Plenty of Parking at each store.

BEST DEAL in TOWN

Wes Zulty Sports

WEST: Walk-In Warehouse, 3313 University Ave.—238-3333
EAST: 1440 East Washington Ave.—249-6466

ANNIVERSARY SPECIALS

ON SKIS
SKI PKGS.
BOOTS BINDINGS
CLOTHING

BUY NOW
SAVE NOW

Manchester's

Once You Get a taste of Connie Boots . . . You'll want more, More, MORE!

Packers lace up boot with warm lining and crepe bottom. Also available in zipper style. Camel leather . . . 30.00. The Shoe Cellar at the Corner Store.

The year is 2024... a future you'll probably live to see.

a boy and his dog

an R rated, rather kinky tale of survival

LQ/Jaf presents 'A BOY AND HIS DOG' starring DON JOHNSON · SUSANNE BENTON and ALVY MOORE with a special appearance by JASON ROBARDS Technicolor® R

NO ONE ADMITTED AFTER PERFORMANCE STARTS...
IT HAS TO BE SEEN FROM THE BEGINNING!

FOR ALL SCIENCE FICTION FANS AND READERS COMES THE MOTION PICTURE VERSION OF THE NOVELLA BY HARLAN ELLISON

MAJESTIC
115 KING ST. 255-6698

SHOWTIMES
1:30-3:05-4:40
6:15-7:50-9:25

HELDOVER
3RD WEEK ENDS TUESDAY

SCREEN GEMS

By ANDREA SCHWARTZ
of the Cardinal Staff

California Split. A two week long gamblers binge sets the scene for Robert Altman's smooth, fast-paced film focusing on the friendship of two men on the casino journey. The compulsive gamblers are willing to bet on anything and the best bet yet is going to see this film. Friday and Saturday at 7:30 and 9:30 in 6210 Social Science.

Adam's Rib. Top-notch comedy with Katharine Hepburn (the wife) as a lawyer and (Spencer Tracy (her husband) as the district attorney. Tracy prosecutes the woman Hepburn is defending for shooting her cheating husband. George Cukor's direction is swift, sharp and piercing. Saturday at 8 and 10 in 19 Commerce.

Great Catherine. Awful adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's comedy about Catherine the Great. Jeanne Moreau and Peter O'Toole are wasted in this fiasco. Friday and Saturday at 8 and 10 in 5206 Social Science.

Bananas. Hilarious, though uneven Woody Allen comedy combining the best, worst, and most ludicrous gag-stuff. Allen as unwitting revolutionary leader. Friday at 8 and 10 in B-130 Van Vleck.

Law And Disorder. Fat men Ernest Borgnine and Carroll O'Connor team up as New York City cops doomed to fail. Friday at 8 and 10 in B-10 Commerce.

Phantom of the Paradise. Crazy little film that makes no pretense at being good cinema. Accept it for what it is—a rock n'rolled Phantom Of The Opera—and fare thee well. Saturday at 8 and 10 in B-130 Van Vleck.

The Four Musketeers. A silly Three Musketeers plus one ridiculous Raquel Welch. Friday at 7, 9, 11, Saturday at 2, 4, 7, 9, 11 and Sunday at 2, 4, 7, and 9.

Take The Money And Run. Woody Allen's first film as writer/director/actor is chock full of funny ideas—good and bad—as it charts the life story of a compulsive thief. Saturday and Sunday at 8 and 10 in 3650 Humanities.

Five Million Years To Earth. London workers unearth an a buried spaceship. Friday at 8 and 10 in 19 Commerce.

The Touch. Elliot Gould is miscast as the man Bibi Andersson leaves Max Von Sydow for. Who would leave anyone for Gould? Despite this, the film is interesting. Saturday and Sunday at 8 and 10 in 2650 Humanities.

Blow-Up. Pop-culture photographer is caught in his own miasma of passivity. The film is most noteworthy for its visual impact on surface and emotional levels. Saturday and Sunday at 8 and 10 in 5208 Social Science.

The Private Life Of Sherlock Holmes. A melancholy look at the famed sleuth. Directed by Billy Wilder, this much neglected film is not to be missed. Friday through Sunday at 8 and 10 in Green Lantern.

King Of Hearts. Alan Bates leads the way for insane asylum inmates in an abandoned French town in WWI. Excellent. Saturday at 8 and 10 in B-10 Commerce.

The Stepford Wives. Some horror abounds when suburban housewives are turned into enticing robots by their husbands. Two new women in town—Katharine Ross and Paula Prentiss—unveil the game bit by bit. Friday at 8 and 10 in 2650 Humanities and Sunday at 7:30 and 9:30 in 6210 Social Science.

Willie Wonka And The Chocolate Factory. The only reason for bringing this little offensive film of boy touring a chocolate factory could be traced to the fact that Gene Wilder is in it. But then, that cancels out bringing it at all. Children and all supposed adults: stay away from this death. Sunday at 1,3,7, and 9 in B-130 Van Vleck.

Southern Comfort®

tastes delicious right out of the bottle!

that's why it makes Mixed Drinks taste so much better!

great with:

Cola • Bitter Lemon
Tonic • orange juice
Squirt... even milk

You know it's got to be good... when it's made with

Southern Comfort®

SOUTHERN COMFORT CORPORATION, 100 PROOF LIQUEUR, ST. LOUIS, MO. 63132

Showtimes: 1:00-4:00-7:05-10 p.m.

THE DOCTOR IS IN!

HARRY REEMS is

IT'S (X) Rated

"DOCTOR FEELGOOD"

Shows at 2:30-5:35-8:35

WHILE THE CAT'S AWAY

ESQUIRE 257 4441
AT THE SQUARE—DOWNTOWN

Show Times
2:00
3:55
5:45
7:35
9:30

MGM's COMEDY SURPRISE
HEARTS OF THE WEST

STARRING
JEFF BRIDGES · ANDY GRIFFITH
DONALD PLEASANCE
BLYTHE DANNER
& ALAN ARKIN

PG MGM Released thru United Artists

EAST TOWNE MALL
241-2211
Cinema I & II
INTERSTATE 90, 94 & RT.151

ROBERT REDFORD / FAYE DUNAWAY

3 DAYS OF THE CONDOR

R RESTRICTED

Showtimes 2:00-4:15-7:00-9:15- Color

ALL CINEMAS EVERY DAY $1.25 'TIL 2:00

THE OUTER SPACE CONNECTION

G

FROM THE BEST SELLING BANTAM BOOK

Shows 1:30
3:30 5:30-7:30
9:30 no passes

WEST TOWNE MALL
836-3000
Cinema I & II
WEST BELTLINE & GAMMON RD.

JOHN WAYNE

KATHARINE HEPBURN

HAL WALLIS'S Production of ROOSTER COGBURN
(...and the Lady)

A UNIVERSAL PICTURE • TECHNICOLOR • PANAVISION • PG

Showtimes 1:30-3:25-5:20-7:15-9:15

PUSHBACK SEATS • ART GALLERY • ACRES OF FREE PARKING

The Steamer

A Truly DELUXE Combination Sandwich with

Three Kinds of Cheese
(Cheddar, Mozzarella, and Parmesan)

Three Kinds of Meat
(Ham, Salami, and Spiced Lunch Loaf)

Lettuce, Tomato, Olives, and Onions

This Is All Served
STEAMIN' Hot On A
Sesame Seed Bun Made
Daily On The Premises

Also Featuring:

- Vegetarian Steamer
- Hot Ham and Cheese
- Crisp Salads

New Turkey Breast Sandwich

• Now Serving Gourmet Soups!

Friday Special-Seafood Gumbo
Beef N' Vegetable-Served Daily

HOURS:

10:30 to 11:00 P.M. Daily
10:30 till Midnite Fri. & Sat.

Bring in this ad for a FREE
Pepsi with the Purchase of 14 each STEAMER

Uncle Stanley's

39 University Square
255-3355

music

Nugent: not so great

By SUE SCHUMACHER of the Fine Arts Staff

Ted Nugent's reference to himself as "the world's greatest guitar player" may explain his departure from the Amboy Dukes. Indeed, Nugent is known for his mastery of the electric guitar, and time is right for the artist to make it on his own.

With his new solo album, Ted Nugent, Nugent creates a sound which is described on the album as "one guitar and eight Fender speakers with no toys in between to mess up the signal." But there are toys in between: Derek St. Holmes on rhythm guitar, Rob Grange on bass, and Cliff Davies on drums. And the signal is messed up.

THE ALBUM ITSELF does not come through as well as it should, i.e. the instruments of the other performers often blot out Nugent's playing. Nugent's guitar is the main feature on the album. However the quality of the sound lacks clarity and therefore somewhat diminishes the possibility of a more emphatic effect. Much of the material is riff rock which becomes a bit tedious, especially in the song "Motor City Madhouse."

The choicest work is found on side one, with the first cut, "Stranghold," being the best song on the entire album. It contains riff with a heavy sustaining beat. Nugent plays his guitar solo with enthusiasm and builds streaking crescendos while at other times he creates a cascade of sounds, which is appropriate for the lyrics (reflecting his attitude of life): "Some people think they're gonna die someday/I got news/You never got to go."

Side two does not have any real substantial music and is below Nugent's standard of playing. "Motor City Madhouse" has none of the energetic movement found on side one. "You Make Me Feel Right at Home" is completely void of any examples of musical artistry which could be attributed to "the world's greatest guitar player."

Much of Ted Nugent appears to be written for a live audience: the music is mostly heavy rock intended to be played loud. This accounts for his popularity in large midwestern halls such as in Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis and Kansas City.

NUGENT'S EGOCENTRICITY is apparent throughout the album. He sings in a cocky tone of voice and many of the songs contain an encore effect. The most surprising display of conceit is the plug for the manufacturer of Nugent's clothes even though his outfit on the album is not too distinguishable because of the lighting and Nugent's position on stage.

After listening to Ted Nugent, the question arises as to whether or not he really is the world's greatest guitar player. His absence in the press and the curious silence from the critics speaks for the fact that Nugent has not yet developed the promise he displayed with the Amboy Dukes.

Warehouse No. 1

Friday
Nov. 14

Blue Light Band

SATURDAY
NOV. 15

CATTAIL ALLEY BAND

NO COVER
1206 REGENT

IN PERSON

FRI., SAT. 8:30

HARVEST

Watch Sat., Sun., and Mon.
Football on our giant color T.V.

Monday night specials on pitchers for students.
Always free peanuts and popcorn.

NEAR BELTLINE & PARK
251-7770

The fun place to eat and drink

All You Can Eat!

FRIDAY Fish Fry Special

$1.99

Live Entertainment!

9:00 P.M.—No Cover or Minimum Charge

Friday— PEG ELDERBROOK

Saturday— CARL RIECHE

ASK ABOUT OUR MANY EXOTIC MIXED DRINKS!
Mai Tai, Red Apple, Singapore Sling, Fog Cutter, Etc.

Open 11:00 A.M.
Sundays at 12:00
FREE PARKING

One Block East of Camp Randall at 1421 Regent

Startling proof that we are not alone in the universe...

narrated by Rod Serling
FRIDAY
THRU THURSDAY

FROM THE BEST SELLING BANTAM BOOK
NOW A MAJOR MOTION PICTURE produced by Alan Landsburg productions
RELEASED BY SUN CLASSIC PICTURES 1975

TAKE THE FAIR OAKS OR NORTH STREET BUS FROM STATE STREET TO THE THEATRE!

Eves at 7:30 & 9:30

CINEMA

2090 ATWOOD 244-5833

Sat & Sun at 1:30, 3:30, 5:30, 7:30
and 9:30

Mahogany—the woman every woman wants to be—and every man wants to have.

Diana Ross Billy Dee Williams
Mahogany

FRI THRU THU
1:15, 3:20, 5:30
5:30, 7:45
and 9:55

Panavision® in Color PG

ORPHEUM

255-6005

ROBERT REDFORD / FAYE UNAWAY
CLIFF ROBERTSON / MAX VON SYDOW

FRI at 5:30
7:45 & 10

HILDALE

238-0206

Sat & Sun at
1:00, 3:15, 5:30,
7:45 & 10; Mon-Thu at 7:45 &
10:00

1:00, 3:10, 5:25, 7:35
and 9:30

STRAND

255-5603

For Your Pleasure...

JOHN WAYNE

KATHARINE HEPBURN

A HAL WALLIS Production
ROOSTER
COGBURN
(...and the Lady)

FRIDAY
THRU THURSDAY

Professionals at their Trade

PROSTITUTION & PORNOGRAPHY in the ORIENT

IN COLOR

FRIDAY
THRU THURSDAY

STAGE DOOR

257-6655 121 W. JOHNSON

1:00, 2:30
4:00, 5:30, 7:05, 8:40,
and 10:10

The story Buford Pusser wanted told...

BCP® presents

ALL NEW PART 2
WALKING TALL

In Color PG

FRIDAY
THRU THURSDAY

MIDDLETON

836-4124

EVES 7 & 9
SAT & SUN
1-3-5-7-9

Classifieds

Housing

NORTH-EAST unfurnished housing, northeast side. Near to shopping center, branch library, and 3 bus lines. Application required. One bedroom $96-100; Two bdrm. $120-137; Three bdrm. $130-148; No utilities. store, refrigerator and water included. One year lease, no pets. 1714 Northport Dr. #5A. 249-9281. — xxx

OWN ROOM for woman in charming two person apt. Kay. 255-8034.—3x15

SUBLET: female, own bdrm. living, kitchen, fireplace, porch, Breese Terrace. Marlene. 238-7922, 266-7184. Available Dec. 1.—4x14

FEMALE ROOMMATE wanted. $95/mo. Great location. 257-4157. 251-6272.—5x15

LANGDON HALL efficiency. $146 utilities included. Furnished with kitchen & bath. Chris. 251-9018, 233-9018.—5x15

1 BDRM. APT. wanted starting 2nd semester, Vilas area, 251-1053.—5x15

EFFICIENCY SUBLET. 2nd sem. January rent free. $116. Must rent. 251-4034.—4x14

SUBLET FURNISHED APT. 2nd semester. 215 N. Frances, rent negot. 251-3563. — 10x14

WEST- UNFURNISHED two bedroom Pool, nice location, 274-0840, 263-4790. 5x17

ROOMMATE TO SHARE house. 1143 E. Gorham. 255-0663 3x14

1 SMALL Sleeping room for $60. 256-7824.—5x13

MALE ROOMMATE wanted. Own room, non-smoker, $65/mo. 241-5755, 263-2351. ask for Glenn 1x14

SUBLET: 2ND semester. Single room with shared bath and kitchen plus dinner. 10 minutes from hill and libs. 251-1648 5x19

OWN BEDROOM in two bedroom apt. 15 minute walk to campus. Avail. Dec. 10. Grad Preferred. 262-2183, 256-2570. 3x17

ROOM FOR RENT. 625 N. Frances. Reasonable, available now or Dec. 1, Call between 5 & 7 pm. 251-9516 10x26

QUIET, 2 bedroom country apt. 13 miles from campus. References required. Stove and refrigerator. 244-0549, 849-7440 7x21

Found

RING IN Natatorium last Sunday. 256-2300.—2x14

Services

COMMUNITY RAP Center Inc. If you have a problem and want to talk about it you can call 257-3522 or come to 923 Spring Street 8pm. to midnite.

WOMEN'S COUNSELING SERVICES. 255-9149, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. — xxx

FAST ACCURATE typing. Weekends only. Call 244-5210 before 8 p.m.—2x14

TYPING: thesis, term papers, manuscripts etc. experienced typist. Reasonable. 244-8497. — xxx

TYPING: Professional $.50/page dissertations. : 238-0347.—D1

ROUND THE CLOCK quality typing. 271-3181. — 20xD3

TYPING dissertations, manuscripts, papers. Foreign languages. High quality. Ten years experience. Call Catherine 257-9161.—13x26

EXPERT TYPING, will correct spelling. fast. 244-3831.—xxx

TYPING. EIGHT years experience. 831-3150. 10x26

NOT GETTING THE GUSTO? Try Vitamins, Shaklee guaranteed quality at discount prices. Good Day. 271-7152 2x15

TYPING. FAST, Reasonable. 221-0958 6x20

FAST TYPING Service. Call 238-3780. 2x15

THESIS PAPERS typed in my home. Experienced 244-1049 1x14

Wheels

'66 Ford, needs work, $150 256-4010. 5x15

1969 SAAB V-4 Good Cond. Asking $700. 256-2270. After 6.—3x15

'69 CHEVY. Reliable $200. Call 256-6612. Impala. 3x17

'69 FORD Van-Ski trip special, 9-passenger, automatic, 30,000 miles engine, transmission, ziebarted, 4 good tires. 241-1148 after 5:00 7x21

Lost

4 MONTH old puppy in the W. Doty Street area, shepard-collie mix with white diamond chest. If found call David 257-6410.

REWARD. Identification papers lost. Please return. Eduardo Bohorquez, 263-4180 or 238-6142.—3x13

SILVER TURQUOISE hoop earring. 256-3088 4x15

Personal

FEMALE PROFESSIONAL student seeks male companion. This man will be age 27-35, honest, open, communicative, independent and enjoy good food. If that describes you, drop me a note about yourself and how to contact you. Susan c/o Jacobsen, 1605 Jefferson. 3x14

SCIENTIST MIDDLE age would like to meet attractive lady. Please give phone number. James P.O. Box 2635 Madison, Wis. 53701 2x15

For Sale

NEW COATS-SUEDE with sheepskin lining. $40. Various sizes. 238-3681.—5x17

MUST GIVE dog away. 1/2 Doberman 1/2 Shepherd. Wonderful creature. Carrie 238-0048.—5x15

CUSTOM ANKLE length corduroy skirts treddle made $23.00 Anne. 251-0172 5x17

NEW COATS-SUEDE with sheepskin lining. $40. Various sizes. 238-3686 5x17

SALE: 633 E. Gorham, Sun. Nov 16th, 11 to 6. Jackets, sweaters, pants, shoes, all types of clothes for men and women! Records too! Low prices 255-8143. 1x14

GOOD DOWNHILL skis and boots. Man's and Woman's. Linda 256-5922 2x15

VOLKSWAGEN snows. 271-4610 3x17

Travel

INTERESTED IN NO-FRILLS low-cost jet travel to Europe, the Middle East, Africa or the Orient? Flights to Tokyo, Hong Kong, Bangkok and Taipei, weekly via 747 from Los Angeles. TRAVEL CENTER, 544 State St. 256-5551. — xxx

ACAPULCO HOLIDAY 1976. Jan. 3-10th. Call 257-7085 for information. — 9x14

Employment

OPENINGS FOR several Journalists on Cardinal Staff. Experienced or willing to learn. Stop by at 2142 Vilas Hall. These days a degree means nothing without experience.—4x17

OVERSEAS JOBS - temporary or permanent. Europe, Australia, S. America, Africa, etc. All fields, $500-$1200 monthly. Expenses paid, sightseeing. Free info. Write: International Job Center, Dept. WF Box 4490, Berkeley, Calif. 94704.—10x21 veterans-Need a good part time job? Troop "E", 4th Calvary has openings for prior servicemen. Earn $4.00 or more per hour, Insurance benefits, PX Privileges, and promotions. Call Jerry Hagen at 249-7603. —7x15

Pino's

Fine Italian And American Food

WEEKDAY SPECIALS SERVED IN A COMFORTABLE ATMOSPHERE

AT THE CORNER OF REGENT AND PARK

Fall Concentrate Special

5 Gallon Elderberry

ONLY $8.95

5 Gallon Cabernet Sauvignon

ONLY $9.10

CARROLL O'CONNOR ERNEST BORGnine

LAW AND DISORDER

FRIDAY NOV. 14 8:00 & 10:00 B-10 COMMERCE
LHA cardholders receive admission priority

ROCKY ROCOCO DELIVERS THE CROSSWORD PUZZLE

We also deliver pan-style pizza!

411 W. Gilman — Seating — Pickup — Delivery.

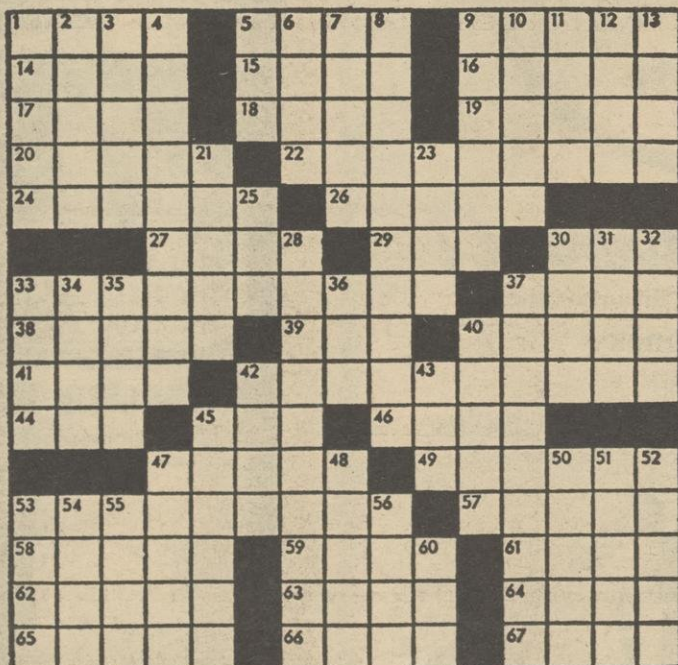

256-0600 ROCKY ROCOCO PIZZA

- ACROSS
- Dress
 - In a series
 - Book of maps
 - Asian river
 - Molten rock
 - Meat dish
 - Utility's recorder: 2 words
 - "--- him headlong"
 - Suspenseful
 - Utopian
 - Warmed beforehand
 - Homeric character
 - Direction of movement
 - Customary time
 - Insane
 - Light refreshment
 - Avoided one's work
 - Become withered
 - Satire
 - Light stroke
 - Significance
 - Cod's relative
 - Insect discouragers
 - Fall behind
 - Make lace
 - Study
 - Language of old
 - toe
 - Destroyed a great number
 - Din
 - In preference to
 - Golf club
 - Barren
 - Musical symbols
 - Suffrage
 - Logging sled
 - Regarding
 - In addition
 - Ride on snow DOWN
 - Street urchin
 - Ammonia compound
 - Controls

- 60 Indicating maiden name
- Inhaling and exhaling
 - Fatima's husband
 - Inclined passage
 - Not concealed
 - Utility's recorder: 2 words
 - Take care of
 - Go on foot
 - Bits of fluff
 - Church recess
 - Fertilized ovule
 - bin: Mental institution
 - Lettuce unit
 - Piece of floor covering
 - Occurring over and over
 - State: Abbr.
 - Asia
 - Son of Zeus
 - U.S.-Can. monetary unit
 - Operatic highlight
 - Desire greatly
 - session
 - Arils: 2 words
 - Murdered
 - Polynesian chestnut
 - Permit
 - Most submissive
 - Make more gay
 - Perfumery liquid
 - Austrian region: Var.
 - In privacy
 - Relinquished
 - American author
 - Black: Poet.
 - Pigeon shelter
 - Morse Code units

AGASP IBID SPAT
MANTA NICE ALLA
ESTES COOP MAIN SHELTER NIPPING LOVES CRANES
HADAREAL TON
AMOR SIRENSONG
REP PRECEDE BEA
PRECLUDES PEAR
RAD RIBALDRY SALUTE SLIME
ABILENE IMPASSE
FOAL ELSE ESTER
ERNE SKIN REATA
STAR SORT EDDIAS

ACACIA PRATERNITY IS REORGANIZING AT WISCONSIN

ACACIA MEANS:
FRIENDSHIPS
GOOD SCHOLARSHIP
ATHLETIC AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES
AN ACTIVE PART IN A GREAT GROUP!

BE SURE TO MAKE OUR OPEN HOUSE AT

COPPER HEARTH ROOM
1ST FLR UNION SOUTH
MON., TUES. NOV 17 & 18 7-9 PM

Skaters to face Duluth

By BILL OSTERBROCK of the Sports Staff

When the Badger hockey team faces off against Minnesota-Duluth Friday night there will be plenty of new faces on both sides. The most important new face on the Duluth side will be their coach Gus Hendrickson.

Hendrickson was brought in as coach last March after Duluth suffered through another frustrating season, posting a dismal 9-20-3 record in the Western Collegiate Hockey Assn., for an eighth place finish.

DULUTH DUMPED previous coach Terry Shercliffe and hired Hendrickson, who had just finished a successful season as coach of Grand Rapids High School in Minnesota. Hendrickson's team captured the Minnesota state high school hockey title in 1974.

After coaching high school hockey for eight years, Hendrickson finally found the job he was seeking in Duluth. According to Hendrickson, he didn't want to coach just anywhere. He was offered a college job earlier but turned it down because of his fondness for the Duluth area. "I wasn't really interested in any college job. I grew up in this area and I like it," he said.

"I applied for the job (of coach), they originally wanted John MacInnes (coach of Michigan Tech), but they took me," he said.

Because he was hired in March, Hendrickson was at a disadvantage when he went to recruit. Hendrickson, however, believes he came away with a blue chip prospect when he took winger John Rothstein with him to Duluth from Grand Rapids. "He (Rothstein) was Wisconsin's number one pick, so I think we got a good one," said Hendrickson.

ROTHSTEIN IS currently leading the Bulldogs in scoring with three goals and two assists in four WCHA games.

Duluth is 2-2 in the WCHA after losing both games last week to Minnesota in Minneapolis. Hendrickson said of the series, "We played well in both games, especially the Friday night game."

Friday night's game was a 5-4

WCHA RACE

| | W | L | PTS |
|------------------|---|---|-----|
| Michigan St. | 4 | 0 | 8 |
| Michigan | 2 | 0 | 4 |
| Minnesota | 2 | 0 | 4 |
| UM-Duluth | 2 | 2 | 4 |
| Michigan Tech | 2 | 2 | 4 |
| Notre Dame | 2 | 2 | 4 |
| Denver | 1 | 3 | 2 |
| North Dakota | 1 | 3 | 2 |
| Colorado College | 0 | 2 | 0 |
| Wisconsin | 0 | 2 | 0 |

overtime victory for Minnesota after Duluth had tied up the game with six seconds to play in regulation time. "Both teams were playing topnotch hockey. We were really hustling out there. The game could have gone either way," said Hendrickson.

Posting three wins in the first five games overall, including a 4-3 overtime victory over the U.S. Olympic team is quite an accomplishment for the Bulldogs, who have never finished higher than fifth place in the WCHA. When asked the reason for Duluth's previous record, Hendrickson said, "I could never figure it out, but I think that's over the hill now."

HENDRICKSON BELIEVES that Duluth will be a factor in the WCHA title race this year. "If we play steady hockey like we have been, we'll make other teams begin to notice us," he said.

Wisconsin will be a formidable opponent for the Bulldogs, according to Hendrickson. "From what I hear they're excellent; they've lost some games they shouldn't have, but otherwise they're young, good skaters, they hustle, and they've also got a good goaltender," he said.

When asked how the Bulldogs will do this year Hendrickson said, "I hope we do well. I've never coached a loser."

The Badgers will try to upset Hendrickson's philosophy this weekend, as they travel to Duluth to face the Bulldogs. Both Friday and Saturday's games will start at 7:30 p.m.

I have come to the conclusion that the resurrection of Jesus Christ is one of the most wicked, vicious, heartless hoaxes ever foisted upon the minds of men,

OR

The Great Resurrection Hoax

FUTURE TELLERS
Nov. 19, 8 p.m. AG HALL

Maximum Sex
Nov. 21, 8 p.m. FIELD HOUSE

The Great Resurrection Hoax
Nov. 20, 8 p.m. FIELD HOUSE

MINORITY FELLOWSHIPS FOR GRADUATE STUDY IN MANAGEMENT

You are invited to discuss opportunities for study in graduate management and business administration with

Council for Opportunity in Graduate Management Education

Work toward an MBA or MS Degree in Management at one of our ten member schools.

Berkeley, Carnegie-Mellon, Columbia, Cornell, Dartmouth, Harvard, MIT, Stanford, University of Chicago or Wharton.

Sacred Feather
HATS & CRAFTS

Featuring the largest selection of Belt Buckles in town.

We have over 100 styles to choose from! !

Pontiac Buckle $4.00

HOURS:
9:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Daily
Closed Sunday

543 STATE ST.
255-2071

DUNKIN

Jewelers

Orange Blossom
Symbol of a Dream

Moondrop

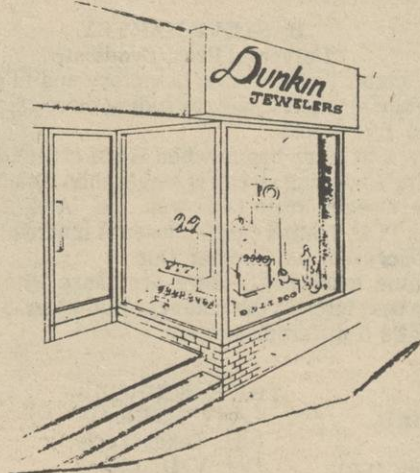

Glorie

Catch a sparkle from the morning sun.
Hold the magic of a sudden breeze.
Keep those moments alive.
They're yours for a lifetime with a diamond engagement ring from Orange Blossom.

Priced from $135

Master Charge • BankAmericard • Dunkin Charge
Dunkin Layaway • American Express

Now open to serve you Please Stop in at

Dunkin Jewelers' Campus Store

DUNKIN
Jewelers

1/2 block from campus at 625 State St.

255-1788

BETHEL LUTHERAN CHURCH
312 WISCONSIN AVENUE
MADISON, WISCONSIN 53705
PHONE: 257-3577

Sermon Title "Weight or Wings", Preaching will be Pastor Robert Borgwardt, Communion follows the third service. Evening Service: 6:30 Chapel 1. Contemporary Eucharist with Pastor John Ruppenthal.

BADGER OFF PARK
Colonial Heights APARTMENTS

NOW RENTING FOR SUMMER AND FALL
Everything you need in apartment living.

- 1-bedroom apartments, completely furnished.
- 1 block to shopping center
- On bus line
- 10 minutes from the Square
- Free parking
- Complete conscientious maintenance
- Heated pool, tennis court
- Reasonable rents.

MODEL OPEN DAILY
Mon. to Fri. 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Sat. 10-6 Sun. 12-6

620 W. Badger Rd.
(Park St. at Beltline)
257-0088

A Room Of One's Own
bookstore & gallery

317 west johnson street

The pampered Wisconsin Badgers

You would have to call them the pampered Wisconsin Badgers; there is really no other way to describe them.

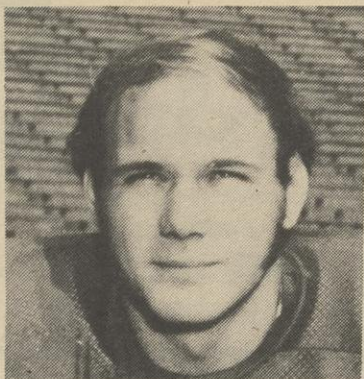

In a season which has had more ups and downs than an elevator at the Empire State Building, some members of the Wisconsin football team are claiming that the Daily Cardinal sports staff has given them the shaft.

BADGER TAILBACK Billy Marek was "fuming over what he considered 'cheap' journalism" by the Cardinal. Marek's comments appeared in an article in Wednesday's Capital Times written by Mike Lucas.

The article quoted Marek as saying: "I don't mind criticism, because we've probably deserved it this year. But it irks me to have these people laugh at us. As a team, we've worked hard all year long and we're still working hard. We haven't quit."

"But it is discouraging to me to read these articles. I just don't think some of these writers have any insight into football. We're not trying to lose. Yet our own school newspaper sits back and laughs at us."

Well Billy, believe it or not, people were laughing at the Badgers in Iowa and people are still laughing about them back in Madison. There really isn't that much you can say with a straight face about a team that supposedly was headed for a bowl game, being blown out by hapless Iowa, 45-28.

BILL MAREK

UP TO THIS week every bit of criticism that the Cardinal has directed toward the Badgers has been done in an analytical, straight-forward manner, and it has never been or never will be our intention to "ridicule" players.

Perhaps much of the reason for Marek's defensive reaction to the Cardinal's criticism of Wisconsin's disappointing season is due to the fact that the Badgers just aren't accustomed to criticism in the media, especially the Madison media. No other newspaper, radio station or television station has really come out and criticized the team—a team which has never reached its true potential.

If you watched the "John Jardine Show" you'd think Wisconsin beat Iowa 28-0. If you read the Wisconsin State Journal, Saturday's game hurt too much to even be talked about. If you read the Capital Times, Bucky saw a shrink, a grown Badger cried and Billy Marek is a great community leader.

You'd think that there must be something wrong with a team that goes from Rose Bowl contender to Big Ten pretender. If the player or the reporters who have joined their bandwagon don't want to face up to the fact that some things just haven't gone right for the Badgers this season, that's their business. The Daily Cardinal sports staff isn't known for being afraid to point a finger of criticism when it is merited.

IT IS NOT our job to be cheerleaders; it is not our job to ignore the facts when the facts are "negative"; it is not our job to paint rosy pictures during a very disappointing Badger season; and it is not our job or purpose to become close friends and drinking buddies with half the members of the team.

There must be a better way to cover a team. A reporter, who is a personal friend of the people he or she covers must always face the problem of risking a friendship if he or she wants to criticize. It is a very unprofessional position to be in for a reporter, one that can't help but lead to biased coverage.

As the "school" newspaper, I believe that it is even more difficult for the Cardinal to be critical of the team. Cardinal sports reporters may see the players in classes, at practice and even during social hours. Yet, we try not to let this sometimes uncomfortable situation affect our reporting. We as a staff would like nothing better than to cover a winning team, a team which can be praised for its accomplishments.

Chuck Salituro

The Daily Cardinal sports staff has never denied the fact that Billy Marek is the greatest running back ever to wear a Badger uniform, and the Daily Cardinal has never downgraded Marek or any other player on the team as a person. Anyone who believes or infers that the Cardinal has ever portrayed that line of thought simply hasn't read the paper.

I FIND myself being forced to defend the purpose of a reporter—to report what he or she believes to be the truth, no matter how unpopular the truth may be.

Yes, indeed, the truth does hurt. It is definitely hard to accept, especially for a team which seems to have been lulled into thinking that it could do no wrong.

Judging from some of the negative reaction to the Cardinal's coverage, losing is not a new phenomenon at Wisconsin, but reading about it is.

Weekend preview

Harriers aim for NCAA

The Wisconsin men's cross country team, which placed second behind Michigan in the Big Ten meet at Madison last week, will try to qualify for the NCAA championship meet for the fourth year in a row Saturday.

The Badgers will compete in a 24-team field in the NCAA District IV qualifying meet at Bloomington, Ind. The six-mile meet will start at 11 a.m.

The top five teams and the ten top runners not on a qualifying team will be allowed to compete in the NCAA meet, which Penn State will play host to Nov. 24.

Wisconsin, which has placed ninth the last two years in the national meet, will face some tough competition in the district this year, according to harrier coach Dan McClimon.

The field will include Michigan, defending District IV champ Eastern Michigan, the rest of the Big Ten, including Illinois' Craig Virgin, the defending individual champ, Notre Dame and most of the Mid-America Conference.

The Badgers were also one of four Big Ten teams ranked in Harrier Magazine's Top 20 teams. Wisconsin was rated seventh in the country, while Michigan was fourth; Indiana, sixth; and Illinois, ninth. Washington State is the top-ranked team.

photo by Bob Donegan

By STEVE HARVEY
Universal Press Syndicate

Together for better or for worse, in victory and in defeat, William & Mary went to eight straight losses, including three shutouts, and led The Bottom Ten for five weeks.

But Saturday, a new era began when W&M crushed VMI, 13-7. Now, William & Mary's winning streak is longer than Oklahoma's.

What's more, Oregon State (1-8) won, too. And so the only winless major college is TCU, 0-9 this season, loser of nineteen straight over all, and W & M's successor as Number One.

As for two-time loser USC, there are those who still contend the Trojans are the best team in the country. But when it comes to playing in the city—that's a different story.

TEAM, RECORD

- 1) TCU (0-9)
- 2) Bill & Mary (1-8)
- 3) Cornell (1-6)
- 4) Columbia (1-6)
- 5) Utah (1-8)
- 6) UTEP (1-8)
- 7) Virginia (1-8)
- 8) Oregon State (1-8)
- 9) Houston (1-6)
- 10) Penn (2-5)

THE RANKINGS

LAST WEEK

- 0-34, Texas Tech
- Def. VMI, 13-7
- 23-45, Brown
- 17-22, Dartmouth
- 7-40, Tennessee
- 17-21, Colorado State
- 10-61, East Carolina
- Def. Wash. St.
- 28-34, Virginia Tech
- 14-24, Yale

NEXT LOSS

- Texas
- Colgate
- Dartmouth
- Penn
- BYU
- Hawaii
- Syracuse
- UCLA
- Memphis St.
- Columbia

11) Wyoming (1-8); 12) North Carolina (2-7); 13) Miami of Florida (1-6); 14) Washington State (2-7); 15) Florida State (2-7); 16) Kentucky (2-6-1); 17) College All-Stars (0-1); 18) Washington (4-5); 19) Pentagon (Army, Navy, Air Force) (10-15-1); 20) Rice (2-6).

Others receiving votes (in alphabetical order): Kansas State.

ROUT OF THE WEEK: TCU vs. Texas.

CRUMMY GAME OF THE WEEK: Columbia vs. Penn.

SPECIAL CITATION: Reporting on 70-7 Drake loss, Associated Press wrote: "It was coach Jack Wallace's worst defeat."

WOMEN'S SPORTS

Three Wisconsin women's squads will compete in championship meets during the weekend.

The Badger volleyball team will play tonight and Saturday in the WWIAC Championship at Platteville. The Badger swimmers will compete at the same time in the WWIAC Championship meet at Eau Claire, while the cross country team will run in the AIAW national championship meet at Ames, Iowa, slated for Saturday.

WRESTLING

The Wisconsin wrestling team will begin tuning up for its season with the annual varsity-freshman dual meet at 8:30 tonight at the Field House.

Competing lettermen will include Jack Reinwand, Craig Horswill, Brian Hill, Lee Kemp. Steve Lawinger, Pat Christenson, Gordie Aschebrook and Ron Jeidy. Kemp finished second in the Big Ten while Reinwand was third and Lawinger, fourth, in their respective weight divisions.

11 a.m. Lox and Bagel Brunch

5 p.m. Finjan all you can eat deli supper

7:30 Israeli dancing

at Hillel, 611 Langdon Street

NOW FEATURING

SOUPS!

Friday Special — Seafood Gumbo

Beef N' Vegetable — Served Daily

AT

Uncle Stanley's

Open 10:30 to 11 p.m. Daily
Till Midnite Fri. & Sat.

39 University Square