Dear Carl & Charles!

As I promised to write to you, I will fulfill my promise now, as it is Friday night (pretty near Saturday morning) & I can wait with studying till to-morrow.
Well, the first thing to say, I presume would be: Hello, boys & then "How goes it" & then the subject would be changed & the talk would be of the weather, horses, rinks, shooting (I mean hunting) etc. But we will change the general order of conversation & I will ask you: What are you reading nowadays? Roe gave me quite a no. of St. Nicholas magazines & if you want them, I will let you have them at some convenient time. There are nice things contained in them (not many big words) such as: "The six boy kings," "Adventures etc."

Well, how are all my acquaintances getting along? How is Shadde & Phenai's brothers & all the rest of 'em?
Give Mary my love, tell her to write soon & a nice long letter.

You also must answer this letter soon, for you must know that you have more time to write than I have. Tell me all about your school, Charles & tell me what studies you take.
Give my love to uncle & auntie & a kiss to the little ones.

With many regards to both of you I am as ever Your sister & cousin Hannah.

Wadi,
