EDITORIAL

Liberty means many things to many people depending upon the environment in which they live. To a prisoner of the state, one expects freedom from behind bars. To a person ridden with disease freedom from pain. And the person here at the hospital freedom to move about the area with as little restriction as possible. However, this is not always the case.

Building to building doctor to doctor, there are many different policies on patient liberty and it can be quite confusing, especially to the new patients. Why should this be so? Is not a person supposed to be trusted and tested in their behavior while here? What other way can this be done if they are only allowed to live in a ward situation or at most, have only token amounts of liberty? A person needs the chance to be by himself for a change of pace and to be able to collect his thoughts. Being confined to a ward or only allowed out in groups, doesn't provide this chance.

A case in point is with the Chapel policy. Here a person can go while on liberty from 4-7 P.M. Yet, many cannot go as their liberty ends at 4:00 P.M. or meal time is upon them.

Let there be a more uniform policy, hospital-wide, governing liberty. With the exception of new arrivals, perhaps more people should be granted liberty so that they may both partake in evening or weekend activities. and be given the opportunity to prove they are responsible.

WHAT IS YOUR OPINION OF THE POLICY ON PATIENT LIBERTY?

"It is no good being watched all the time and nothing to do."

George

"They are a little too strict of taking away liberty as punishment."

Dennis

"They should have twenty-four hour liberty. They should have allowed more time for liberty."

Steve .

"If they have liberty they should have full."

George

"They should have it be a group system. It should be on good behavior."

B -4 Girls

"Why are they so strict on returning on time?"

Carol

"They only give limited time; it should be extended for longer times."

Eva

"Nothing. All right you creep."

Anonymous

"They should have defined boundaries so a person on liberty knows where he can go and be."

Tom

"It is a good thing to have. It is part of the hospitalization. It helps to get frustrations off your mind because you can have fun and not think of one thing only."

Tiny Tim

"It is a great privilege to have either full or partial liberty. It also makes you feel good that 'they trust you."

E.

"They are too strict. More people should be on full liberty as most won't run away, as they know they will get caught."

Doreen

"I feel that it is fine for women in Kempster, but not for the guys because they are only authorized 3 hours during the week and an extra hour on week-ends."

Anonymous

"It's fine and dandy,
Too bad they don't serve brandy."

Marleen

"I would like liberty even when there are meals."

S.B.

"I think someone with only one hour liberty should have two hours."

Chris

"I think they should give them liberty so they won't be bored."

Anonymous

"I think it ought to be put up to two hours because you can't do every thing in one hour."

Richard

"Other means-such as those in tellurian community for punishment should be used instead of restricting liberty."

Anonymous

"A person ought to have liberty 24 hours a day."

Wayne

(MORE ON PAGE 4)

"I think it's fair except that some patients tend to misuse it then they get mad because they get dropped."

Carol

"They get dropped for little insignificant things. All clocks should be uniform in time."

Doris

"I think that when you're five minutes late because the clocks are different you should not be dropped or punished. Otherwise, the liberty hours are all right."

Sandie

"I think it's a good policy. In fact it's just fine."

Gerald

"More over-night weekends."

R.

"I don't see why we can't have allday liberty as long as we behave ourselves."

Anonymous

"I think the liberty system is great, as everyone knows they have to behave in order to get liberty. It's a nice reward if everyone behaves themselves. Liberty is the type of thing that everyone has to work toward and again, it's a reward."

Sherry

"I think that patient liberty is a good idea. It gives the patient something to work for."

Anonymous

"I think liberty at least gives the patients something to look forward to since the hospital doesn't really offer a whole lot."

Guy

"I think liberty should be given to patients that have earned and deserved to have liberty, but when liberty is taken away from a person too long when a person has earned liberty which I consider a very important priviledge to all patients man or woman which gives a person a chance to be alone and away from the ward and releas tension then I think there should be a reconsideration on the patient's part."

. CRITIC

"I think it is a fair policy and a good policy."

Jin

"Lib rty is needed by overyone thats for sure."

anonymous

"If a person has two hours for a work, it should be increased to break up the monotony."

Jack

"Posple locked up are like e god animals and the liberty policy gives them an incentive to work for. I think it is a fair policy."

anonymous

"I feel it is a good policy."

Dennis

"If I had liberty I could participate in more activities, but I think it is a good policy and expect to receive his rty soon.

liko

"I wish all the patients had full liberty so that when we are tryin to clean (especially the Boors), there wouldn't be so many in the way. We could do a much bitter job and the building ould lok botter longer.

Housokeeping

"It h s been all right with mo as far as I am concerned.

RURAL Vow Showld Know

WHO CAN HAVE A HOME VISIT?

Home visits are granted to both single and married individuals. Your doctor will decide when you are well enough to have a home visit.

WHOM DO I ASK FOR A HOME VISIT?

Contrary to the printed card in the "Pamphlet" (if you received one), your doctor is the person to see when you desire a home visit. While you can contact the nurses's station in your ward for an appointment with your doctor, it is he who okays the visit.

WHEN WILL I HAVE MY FIRST HOME VISIT?

Ordinarily, home visits are granted when your doctor feels that it would be beneficial to you. In case of emergency, however, a home visit will be granted upon informing your doctor of the circumstances.

WHAT TYPE OF PREPARATIONS SHOULD I MAKE FOR MY HOME VISIT?

When you ask your doctor for a home visit, be sure you know the method of transportation. Will someone pick you up and return you to the hospital, or will you take the bus.

If you need clothing or personal items from your stored luggage, contact your nurses' station and they will make out a slip, listing the items required. You then take this slip to the Admission and Discharge Office. You should have your doctor sign a money withdrawal slip if you need money from your account in the Cashier's Office.

WHEN IS THE CANTEEN OPEN?

The Canteen, located in the Service Building, is open: Monday and Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 4:15 p.m., Wednesday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday at 12 noon to 8 p.m.

ARE DAILY NEWSPAPERS AVAILABLE?

Each ward receives a copy of The Daily Northwestern Monday through Saturday.

WHEN ARE SING-ALONGS HELD IN THE CANTEEN?

Sing-alongs are held every Thursday evening at 7 o'clock with Clarence Weber at the organ. Special programs with visiting artists will be announced in advance.

DOES THE HOSPITAL HAVE A LIBRARY?

The Patients' Library is located in the basement of Sherman Hall. Mrs. Joyce Marsh is head librarian.

Library hours are 8:30-11:45 a.m. and 1:00-4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

WILL I HAVE A JOB WHILE I'M HOSPITALIZED?

Your assignment to a job will be initiated by the Industrial Therapy Department upon a recommendation by your doctor.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORS:

TO THE CUE:

I think that I am speaking for many of the inmates in the hospital. Just how much does it all add up to when every patient in here pays $44.57 a day for being here to be helped to get back on the outside?

But can a lot of them say they are being helped? Maybe they are afraid to say "no" or they have been left that way too long to say anything.

I am not speaking for myself, for it is too late for me. Sure, the hospital staff and the rest of their help think they are doing so much to help patients.

Do you call that helping them by making fun of them? I mean making fun of us patients and making up lies. Saying one thing that we can do or go and then turning around and telling the patient something else.

We are put here to get well and not to be experimented on. The doctors have animals to do that to and there is a farm near Marshfield where they do this. We are human beings not animals.

The doctors make the patients feel they are being helped here. But here is one big hospital. Somewhere near us there is One Doctor who is over us all.

And the day will come when he will come and ask all of us, "Are you well enough to come home?" I know what my answer will be.

What wil you answer the doctors, nurses, aides and the patients? Can you tell the truth?

on the Sober Side

CHRIS COLUMBUS - YES OR NO

To the fact that Chris set foot on the New World we can say "So What?" Well, if Chris hadn't been an alcoholic, the Indians might still own Makhattan. It's true that the history books mention nothing about old Chris having a weakness for the bottle, but somehow the whole story makes us suspicious.

First of all, why did this man want to leave Italy, overflowing with its grapes, where wine flows like water? Try adding together these facts: he was out of a job, dead broke, restless and unhappy. Then opens up the picture of one who had been hitting the grapes early and late, and just might have been ripe for a geographical case.

Naturally, he had to make tracks for some place like Spain in search of bread to finance the voyage; his reputation and credit being nil in his homeland. On arrival, looking for a sucker, did he go to a slanty-eyed banker or, for that matter, to any moneyed member of the male sex? No - he put the arm on queen Isabella and conned her out of the royal jewels. Alcoholics are notoriously successful at snew jobs on otherwise level-headed women, and the one he gave the queen must have been a beauty.

In those days, people believed that the world was flat (as any fool could see) and when you got to the edge you fell off (what you landed on wasn't quite clear). Anyway; Isabella socked up Chris's wild pitch that the earth was round.

Furthermore, he sold her on his way ou' scheme of getting to the Fer East by sailing west. What alcoholic funtasies! (It's not mentioned where the king was while the upon was being snewed. Heybe he was away semewhere getting erowned).

Now for the matter of transportation. Hiving in mind the idea of our present "one man, one vote," you'd think that for Chris it would have been "one man, one bote." But he insisted he needed three. What's with this three bit? I have a hunch that two of those vessels were crammed from stem to stern with wine and grapes. Most likely, Chris's plan for a geographical cure had already changed to the vision of a beautiful bings on the brimy doep, and he damn well wasn't going to run short.

Came the day, and off sailed our boy Chris. We are teld that during most of the voy go he stayed way from his men when over possible. No doubt he was spending the leng days and nights down in his cabin, become it up. We also know that he stood alone for hours near the front of his ship, gazing into the distance. What better place could be find, in search of a cooling breeze to relieve his raging headaches? But eventually, and probably more by pure chance than by navigation, Columbus arrived at one of the Bahama Islands. By some manner of wine-fogged calculations, he placed this as being just off the coast of China. So back to Spain he went to carry the good tidings.

We could go on with other examples, but what it boils down to is this: Columbus didn't know where he was going; he didn't know how to get there, and when he get back, he didn't know where he had been, and his trip was financed by a woman. In our book that sounds pretty much like typical alcoholic irrationality, but history is gentle and time blurs the hard facts.

Even at that, we are proud as alcoholics to say that yes or no, it could have been one of us who discovered america

Smooth sailing and no long trips!

GOLFING

Lugust 14th the social charman held their meeting it Mimberly Point Park in Neemah. Together with their limited, Jeanie Marshall and a few A.T. students, the group had a pienic lunch at the park and then in a competitive spirit a velley-ball game was started with weedle and Carel being opposing team captains. Four sets were played with both teams winning two sets apiecs.

after the game, the meeting was hold and scheduling and related business was accomplished along with an explanation to the A.T. Student what the function of Social Chairman is all about.

The meeting ever, once more they boarded the bus, this time going to Golf Village where they participated in a round of wini bure golf. For some it was the first time they ever had a club in their hands and for others it was a repeat performance.

For the 18 help course some of the scores were low, others were high butin either case the game was enjoyed by all and much fun was had.

It is with the group's paraission this recorter wishes to a tend a sincere thank you to Jemie Marshall, the activity Department, and the Mospital stuff for the enjoyable evening and the opertunity to part keeping and grounds activity.

JIID O

Play ball! resounded through out the grounds as the Double Elimination W.S.H. tournament opened on the 9th of August with Sherman over Kempster and Hughes over Gordon.

Then on August 10th during the second round of games, Hughes beat Libs and Gordon beat Kempster.

Saturday the 12th was the big day when the tournament would close.

Hughes emerged the victor, but before victory came, Hughes beat Sherman and Gordon beat the Libs early in the morning. Then, at 9:45, Sherman and Gordon met with Sherman winning. Soon 11:00 rolled around and Hughes and Sherman were agin pitted against each other. Once more Hughes won and there was no doubt then who the champions were.

Around the Grounds

GOOD JOB: MR. BR.UN

Were you over wasking the grounds and needed to rest awhile? Where does one sit but on the many bonches that are placed in strategic spots throughout the area. And when taking a respite from a walk or stroll, one just sits down because the benches are there.

Thanks to Mr. Braun, a wonderful person, as he is the person responsible in socing that the benches are there for our use and comfort, though this is not the only job Mr. Braun has here. He has a crow of men, mostly from Shorman, who help maintain the wonderful appearance of the grounds. There are flower bods, trees, and shrubs that are in his care and with his men, they keep up the freshness and beauty of the place.

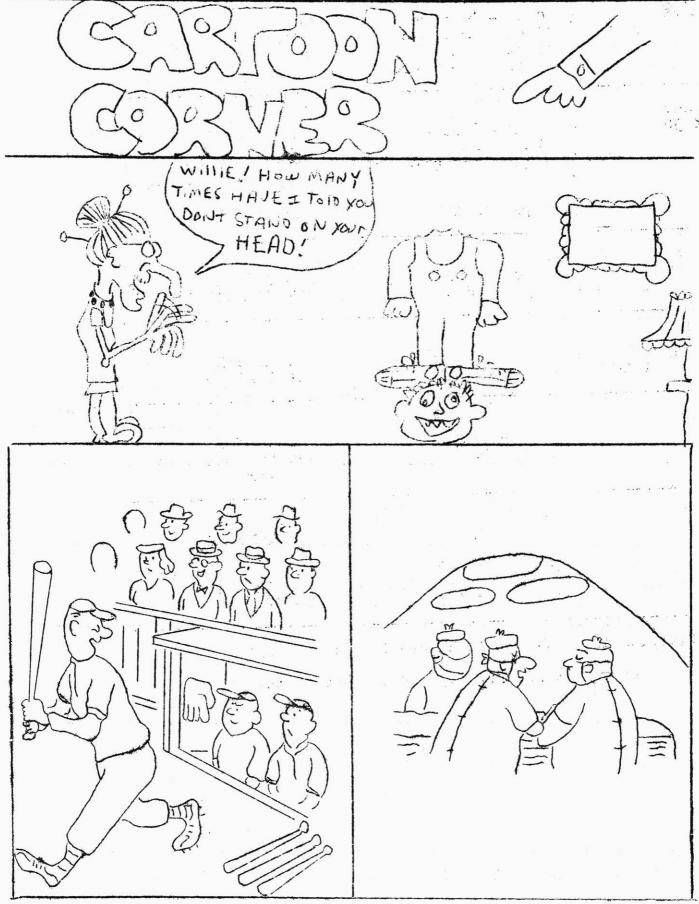

Ifr. Brun was born in Dale, Misconsin in the year 1916, where his parents had a farm. Seen they moved to Markesan, Wisconsin, where again, on a farm he was raised and helped to operate with his father. Then in 1950, he applied for work as an aid here at the hospital and for 5 years worked on most of the words as such. Seen an opening appeared on the grounds crow for which he was accepted and still works.

Much of his work is reflected by his experiences and interests in working cutside, with gardens and flowers. Then at home with his levely wife and darling daughter, he continues an interest in the outside by growing many of his own vegetables and flowers. He has also just finished painting his house as Interior Decerating is a sideline hebby with him.

Mr. Braun just doesn't work, eat, and sleep. Many times he spends leisure time on a softball field or a bowling alley, where he has quite a competitive spirit. Along with his different aspects of recrution, he takes time to travel, when on vacation, and just recently he took a trip to California where he stayed in the Los angeles and Palm Springs areas for a couple of weeks. Thile in California, he visited Disneyland and enjoyed an evening of dancing to the music of Lawrence Welk, who is his favorite entertainer and T.V. program.

In the last few weeks, one could see Mr. Braun hauling tree branches and logs from around the grounds and during the winter months, he can be seen cutting these logs into fireplace size for sale to the employees.

He is very willing to teach others about his tride and hobbies and to sit and talk with him is a very refresing and interesting time, as he reminisces about the way life was and his experiences with it. It is with his attitude and style, one can learn many things and become a better person. We therefore owe him much and in meeting him we should first congradulate him on the wonderful work he has done here and then thank him for unselfishly doing it.

"Dramatic, isn't it? Bases loaded, two out, last of the 9th, score tied, and everyone depending on me, a .037 hitter."

"May I cut in?"

DOCTOR: "What was the most you ever

DOCTOR: "And what was the least you
