ZORN'S DIRECTORY OF THE

City of Plymouth

1912 - 1913

CITY OF PLYMOUTH.

Population about 4000. A hustling incorporated city, very advantageously located near the center of Sheboygan County on the lines of the Chicago and Northwestern and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railways; also on the Interurban Electric R. R. from Sheboygan to Elkhart Lake. It is about 55 mi. north of Milwaukee and 15 mi. west of Sheboygan, the Co. seat. Plymouth is an ideal small city. It has features that go to make the place habitable, convenient, attractive and homelike. It has ample marketing facilities for the transacting of its commercial business and for the shipping of the commodities bought, and manufactured in the city. It owns and operates its own water works, the water being furnished from deep artesian wells, and the city also supplies Electric Light from its Municipal Plant. A regular sewer system is also provided. It has wide firm streets, the main ones being paved with concrete. A well organized Fire Department is maintained. A well selected Public Library under a competent librarian affords the citizens access to the best literature of the day. Three Newspapers: The Plymouth Post, a semi-weekly (German); The Reporter and the Review, both weekly supply their readers with the news. The city has a large percentage of the leading fraternal and benevolent orders: Two Banks, both on a solid foundation and each with ample capital to take care of the financial interests of the city. It has first class Hotels—and larger department stores that compare with the metropolitan places of business. The city has churches of the Catholic, Congregational, Methodist, Reformed, Lutheran, Episcopal and Christian Science denomination, with parochial schools in connection with the Catholic and Lutheran churches. It has a splendid and well organized public school system which centers around a modern high school building costing many thousand dollars. The city is surrounded by a rich agricultural country, dairying being the most profitable occupation of the farmer, although fruit raising is very profitable. In cheese and Dairying Plymouth easily leads the state, it being the largest cheese center in the state, and more cheese is kept in cold storage than any other city in the county. Among Plymouth's industrial institution may be mentioned 3 Furniture Factories, a Box Factory, The Plymouth Brewing Co. & Bottling Works, 2 marble works, The Plymouth Canning Factory, A Veneer Factory, Flour Mill, Parlor Frame Works, Overall & Shirt Factory, Cigar Factories, Machine Shops, Garages, etc. The Electric Railway gives hourly connections with the beautiful summer resorts at Crystal Lake and Elkhart Lake, a few minutes' ride to the north. It has a telephone system, and with its long distance connections gives service all over the state. The Wells-Fargo and the American Express Companies have offices in the city. Plymouth is an ideal city with a prosperous business population. It has Six Rural Routes and a city postal delivery.

ZORN'S DIRECTORY

OF THE VILLAGE OF

Sheboygan Falls

1912 - 1913

Sheboygan Falls has a population of about 1800. The village was incorporated in 1854 and is advantageously situated on the Sheboygan River, which at this point has a series of falls (giving rise to the name), which gives a large water-power from a series of three dams having a head of 35 feet, which gives power to the largest Woolen Mill in the state and also to one of the largest tanneries in the country. In addition to these industries Sheboygan Falls has 2 machine shops, a stanchion works, toy wagon works, foundry, flour mill, chair factory, pea and lima bean canning factory, 2 banks, one newspaper, the Sheboygan Co. News and Dairy Market Reporter, 6 churches, a High School and Ward School, electric light plant, 2 cheese and creamery factories, etc. A large stone quarry and lime kiln is in operation. It has good hotels, an Opera House, 2 Express offices, telephone connection; is connected with Sheboygan and Plymouth by the C. & N. W. R. R. and by an Interurban Electric Line, giving good service nearly every hour.

Sheboygan Falls is a live, progressive town.
