GREEN OLD HILLS.

7

GREEN old hills! our country's glory,
Proudly in the midst ye stand.
Linked with many a sweet old story—
Theme of many a minstrel band.
Northward, southward, broadly stretching
Where the Susquehanna gleams
Through Virginia's land of beauty,
Far away to Southern streams.

2

Here the dusky hunters proudly
Chased the deer in days gone by,
Here the mountain echoes loudly
Woke the warrior's battle-cry,
Here the white invader boldly
Drove him from his haunts away,
And the winds are sighing sadly
While he takes his westward way.

3

Green old hills of Alleghany,
Oh! to climb your heights once more!
Westward lie the mighty rivers,
Eastward frowns the Atlantic shore.
Oh! with proud heart bounding wildly
On yon highest cliff to stand!
While Columbia's sweetest vallies
Sleep beyond, on either hand.

4

Green old hills, our country's glory,
We will proudly sing your praise,
You shall be the theme of story,
Wake the minstrel's sweetest lays.
Fate may bid our footsteps wander,
Yet for you each spirit thrills,
Naught our faithful hearts shall sunder
From our country's green old hills!
