THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

How many of us on this 4th day of July will look back to that first Fourth of July 1776 and reflect upon the character of the men who dared that day to affix their names to a document that proclaimed to the world defiance of King George and the whole British Empire? How many of us ever weigh the valiant courage of that small group of men? How many ever consider just what the act meant to each and every one of those signers?

Would it not be well for old and young alike, if upon this Fourth of July in the year 1936- we do hark back to that day one hundred sixty years ago, and in our minds and hearts renew the story? The doubts, the fears, the hopes, the daring to do, the almost unbelievable courage that attended the signing of the Declaration of Independence are good to think upon.

Perhaps the glorious Fourth may come to mean something more to us than a lot of noise, a great tumult, and scarifice of life. It may come to have a deeper significance of the celebration of a glorious deed.

That famous document they signed that day- The Declaration of Independence is hung in a case on the wall in the Library of Congress. How many of us have availed ourselves of the great privilege of seeing it?

Let us indeed have a glorious Fourth, a sane Fourth, a Fourth worthy of the act it commemorates.

NEWS ITEMS

The hotels in the Bay report that capacity reservations are already in for over the Fourth with many guests planning on longer stays.

Mrs. S.J. Noble has been confined to her room for several days but is now up and enjoying the sunshine and view from her porch overlooking the lake. Her daughter, Mrs. Wm Brown is managing the Hotel Normandie during her illness.

Mr. C.E. Smith who was struck by an auto a week ago is recuperating at the Hotel Normandie.

Dr. C.Y. Wiswell is sporting a new car as his other car was badly damaged when it was struck broadside by another car coming down Congress St. and Walworth Ave. a week ago. Fortunately Mrs. Wiswell and Jane who were riding in the car were not injured.

Prof. Frank E. Ross of the Yerkes Observatory staff left on Thursday morning July 2 for Berkley, Cal. He will do special research work at Mt. Wilson Observatory and return to Williams Bay next April.

Attention is called to Pat Maxon's advertisement in this issue. Pat has leased the Clayton Garage for the year and has been in charge for two months. "Pat" is well known in the village, having attended the Williams Bay High School. He has had several years of real experience repairing all makes of automobiles and we can recommend him.

Master John Hendricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.M. Hendricks on Elm St. is recovering from a recent illness.

Traffic deaths in Wisconsin were reduced 34 per cent in 1935 over the preceding year. The next lower is Nevada and New Hampshire.

The Elkhorn Shoe Factory was badly damaged last Wed. during the noon hour. There were dense clouds of smoke when the Fire Department arrived and even the spectators had smarting eyes.

The origin is unknown. The factory was not in operation that day.

The damage is estimated at from 10 to 12,000.

Messrs J. S. Hotton, Chairman of the Historical Com. and F. M. Van Epps, Executive Sec'y attended the Executive Committee meeting of the Walworth County Centennial Day Committee last Sunday at East Troy.

The Committee approved the idea of building a log cabin to house the historical exhibit this year and be a meeting place for the future fairs. The portion of the $1300 needed assigned to Williams Bay is $25. already $14 is raised through the school children.

COLLEGE CAMP

Special plans are being made for the observance of the Fourth of July with an exhibition on the water front just before the three o'clock swimming hour in the afternoon, and a display of fireworks at night on the pier.

The 1936 summer Movie Program will be initiated by the showing of the Gene Stratton-Porter film, "THE KEEPER OF THE BEES". The showing of the film will be on Thursday evening July 2 at 7:30., in the Lewis Auditorium.

Prof. Franz A. Aust, a specialist in Horticulture from the Univ. of Wisconsin, will appear as the first lecturer of the Friday night series on Friday July 10th, at 8:00 P.M. Prof. Aust will speak on the topic-"Tree Personalities."

The Rev. Francis A. Drake, pastor of the Congregational Church, North Hadley, Mass., will be the speaker at the Sunday morning worship service in the Lewis Auditorium.

Under the leadership of Mr. Wayne Hertz, Director of Music, talented members of the Camp Staff will present an hour of music, beginning at 8 o'clock in the Lewis Auditorium.

Wisconsin enjoyed a substantial increase in farm sales in 1935. An even more gratifying increase on the books for 1936. Majority of sales to city buyers, who consider rural lands among safest of present investments.

The Village Library will be open on Friday afternoon of this week from 2:30 to 4:30 instead of on Saturday.

WALWORTH COUNTY FLOAT RECEIVES HEARTY APPLAUSE AT MADISON

The Float entered by Walworth County attracted much attention and applause last Tuesday in the Parade at the State Centennial at Madison.

Around the large artist's map of Walworth County which was painted in oils, as only Mrs. G. Van Biesbroeck could have done it (the map was 8' by 8 feet with a gilded frame around it) were ten young ladies either standing or sitting.

Local girls were Peggy Ecklund, dressed in her great great grandmother's wedding dress of silk with full skirt and leghorn poke bonnet lined in lace and silk.

This costume is nearly one hundred years old.

Nancy Lou Hollister represented the typical Girl Scout of the County. Marion McKenzie, of Cedar Point Park, modeled for Bradley Knitting Co. of Delavan their latest model white panne velvet swim suit.

Others represented their Communities as follows-

Beth Bromley, LaGrange, 4H Club Girls
Jane Featherstone, Fontana, Indian

Maid

Evelyn Zipse (Walworth) Colonial maid
Mary A. Kaye, Lake Geneva, Yacht girl
Jane Mitten, East Troy, Golf Girl
Carmen Hickey, Whitewater, Teacher
Virginia Pellington, Sharon, College Girl

Arline Finley, Elkhorn, Band Girl

Alfred Johnson's truck was used to display the Float. F.M. Van Epps planned the Float and the expense is to be portioned among the Chambers of Commerce or Business Mens' Clubs of the various communities.

Mr. and Mrs. O.M. Waterbury, Miss Mereness, Mrs. L. McKenzie, Mrs. L. Hennes, Mrs. Helen Ecklund, Col. J.E. Atkins, Mrs. F.J. Martin and Mrs. F. Van Epps viewed the parade.

LET'S MAKE IT A GLORIOUS FOURTH
BY KEEPING IT SAFE AND SANE

Some people cannot enjoy themselves celebrating on any occasion unless they make a lot of noise, and of course, when they celebrate on the Fourth of July, they must make even more noise, so they proceed to spend a nice "sum" for fireworks to help the big "noise".

It is alright to celebrate in this way but they should be a little cautious in their handling of explosives and display fireworks.

Here are some D O N ' T S for the FOURTH for us all to heed.

DON'T hold a firecracker or other explosive in your hand after it is lighted.

DON'T throw your firecrackers toward any person or property.

DON'T hold a toy pistol close to a person's ear when you fire it.

DON'T shoot sky-rockets from any point but an elevated stand.

DON'T throw lighted firecrackers in the grass. This very often causes disastrous fires.

DON'T hold your face too close when lighting the colored powders.

and DON'T FORGET-STOP-LOOK-and LISTEN!

EAST TROY TO CELEBRATE JULY 4

East Troy booster parade stopped off here Monday P.M. and the High School Band played several splendid numbers at the post-office corner. The group was especially interested in stopping off to see the Burton brothers who "hail" from East Troy. By the way: the East Troy High School Band marched in the Centennial Parade at Madison just ahead of the Walworth County Float. The boys and girls of the Band with their bright red uniforms and splendid music made a fine showing.
