NEW BUILDING PROGRAM LAID BEFORE STATE

Regents Present $3,000,000
Project to Board of Education

The largest university building project in 10 years, requiring more than $3,000,000 to carry out, was recently presented to the State Board of Education by the university regents.

The new building program for the next two years includes most of the projects of the past eight years, the majority of which were set aside because of the war. Practically no structure of important size has been erected on the university campus since the construction of the Physics-Economics building in 1914.

Lack of Room

Enrollment, in the meantime, has increased from 4,400 students in 1913 to 7,000 this year, with promise for an increase to 8,000 before the new building can be erected. Since 1913 university buildings have been more and more overcrowded, almost beyond the limits of safety, and almost every department is hampered by lack of room.

New Program

The new structures included in the program are as follows:

New wings for the Chemistry building to reduce hazards and to accommodate the greatly increased number of students in the chemistry department.

Steam laboratory and further shop buildings for the College of

UNIVERSITY PRESS CHOOSE DELEGATES FOR STATE MEET

Ten delegates from university publications to the state convention of the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Press association have already been named. They are: Lawrence W. Murphy, George Greene, Irwin Maier, Charles P. McInnis, Marion Goodwin, David K. Steenberg, Rodney Welsh, A. J. Fehrenbach, Helmer Casperson, and John J. Pinney.

The Commerce magazine and the Wisconsin Engineer have not yet chosen representatives. The other magazines are being represented as follows: Country magazine, John J. Pinney and Helmer Casperson; the Octopus, Rodney Welsh, and the Literary magazine, A. J. Fehrenbach.

Additional names will probably be added by the publications already represented and the Wisconsin delegation which will go to Milwaukee will probably be larger than the representation of any other school.

Because of a change in the staff of the Milton College Review, the selection of representatives from that publication has been delayed. All the other schools in the association have selected their delegates and between forty and fifty students from the various institutions are expected at the convention.

Greeks Have No Ragtime Or 'Latest Dance'---Kanellos

"We have no ragtime in Greece," and it would not appeal there. It is largely vulgar--cannibal music, I call it, with its "boom, boom, boom, dinky, dinky, dink."

It was Vassos Kanellos, premier danseur of the Royal theatre, Athens, who was speaking. He is to present a program of Greek dancing at the Fuller theatre Monday evening under the auspices of the Union board.

No Fox Trots

"We have the polka, the waltz, and the mazurka in Greece but not the fox trot nor the 'shimmy.'" Mr. Kanellos turned his palms up in impatient disgust.

"Artitophanes taught satiric dances, but those 'latest dances' would be beyond him. In the Grecian dances there is no embracing.

The nearest contact by the dancers is in touching hands. The growing tendency of dancing in America, for dancers to stand in one spot and wiggle, would be regarded as indecent in Greece.

"To the ancient Greeks, the dance was a cult, and the chief element in the religious and physical life of individual and state. The dance that was taught to the child became an important and lasting factor in the physical growth and culture of the man.

Ridiculed for Bare Limbs

"Physically undeveloped youths were ridiculed and stoned on the streets of ancient Athens because of the exposed limbs beneath the tunics. I wonder how many today would escape the stones if suddenly they were ordered to appear in tunics."

VARSIITY TRACK PROSPECTS LOOK GOOD THIS YEAR

Championship Indoor and Outdoor Cinder Teams Expected This Season

Mark H. Wall '22, was elected cross country captain last night. In the dual meet with Chicago held here this year, Wall finished in first place.

The first varsity indoor track practice of the year was held yesterday in the gymnasium annex. Prospects for a winning team are better this year than they have been before since 1917; and with ten "W" men, and plenty of good material from last year's freshman squad Coach Jones expects to turn out a championship indoor and outdoor cinder teams unless an unusual number of scholastic difficulties arise.

In the sprints and quarter-mile there are Spetz, Kelsey, and Kayser, besides Clug, Skee, Lilly, and McCandless from last year's freshman and varsity squads. Spetz won the quarter at Minnesota, running it in 50:2, and finished ahead of any Illinois man in the 100 yard dash in the dual meet with the Suckers. Kelsey won first place in the 220 yard dash against Chicago in the fast time of 22 flat.

Greater competition will be offered in the distance events with Captain Nash, Wall, Brothers, Den-

CAMPAIGN FOR RED CROSS TO START TODAY

Christmas Seals to be Sold in Dormitories and Fraternity Houses

The Varsity Red Cross Christmas Seal campaign commences today when a group of 20 men and women representing S. G. A. and all fraternities will take the field to sell 70,000 Christmas stamps.

The campaign which is conducted here every year will be apart from the city campaign and instead of taking the form of a campus drive will consist in solicitation at dormitories and fraternity houses by members of the groups. The sale of seals will close, Friday, December 10.

The campaign is a part of the state wide move of the Wisconsin Tuberculosis association to raise funds for the battle which it has been waging during the last ten years against consumption.

Committees Appointed

Elizabeth Markham, '21, Barnard hall, has been appointed director of the campaign and will be in charge of the workers. She will be assisted by Fred Brewer '22. The committee of men consists of Tom McCandless, Robert Blakeman, Ralph Jourdon, Harold Taylor, Harry Barnes, Ralph Hawks, Carl Fischedeck, Hobart Price and Humphrey Desmond.

The committee of women which is under the leadership of Elizabeth Markham includes Minnie Beattie, Cleo Parsley, Dora Ingraham, Rosemary Lyons, Adelaide Anderson, Helen Chase, and Wilhelmina Mead.

"We wish it understood," said Elizabeth Markham, in charge of the campaign, "that we are not selling the seals with the idea of compelling people to buy them, but are giving the students an opportunity to lend their aid to this worthy cause. Almost everyone here is familiar with the Red Cross Christmas seals and understand the splendid work which is being done through their sales."

Explains Purpose

The purpose of the campaign was explained yesterday at a meeting of S. G. A. when William Doll, '22, field lecturer of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association, emphasized the necessity for a concerted effort to eradicate tuberculosis.

"The United States loses six times as many people from tuberculosis each year as she lost in the worst

PICTURES OF CREW NEEDED BY BADGER

The 1922 Badger is anxious to get action pictures of this year's or last year's crews. The pictures taken by the staff proved to be unsatisfactory due to the fact that the photographer was in a slow moving boat.

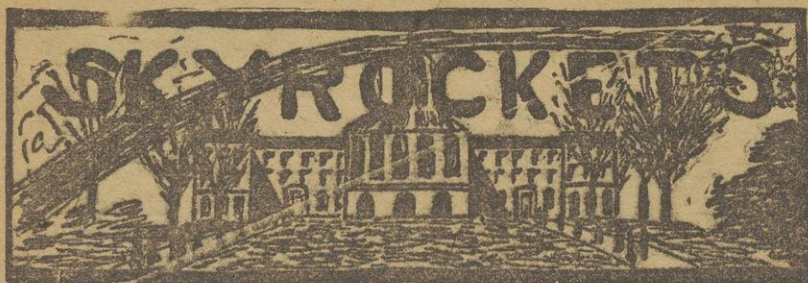

Anyone who has a snapshot of the crew is asked by the editors to bring it to the Badger office in the Union building.

By a special scoop we are able to offer choice bits extracted from the Phi Psi's chapter newspaper. The long haired tribe offered us 10,000 dollars blackmail not to print this, but we are essentially honest and here we are.

THE WISCONSIN PHI PSI (Excerpts therefrom)

"Phi Psi parties startle campus."
"Every campusite wondered what would be sprung next."

"Well modulated dignity and not prudishness marked every occasion and ushered in an esprit de corps that was largely responsible for the success of our social functions."

"It was our chance to prove that a typical Phi Psi can mix not only on the athletic field but also in the parlor and in the ball room."

"Of course we cleaned up the cream of the school in rushing."
(Of course)

"Brother Bill House has yet only two girls to meet. He will then know them all."

"Our junior politicians backed the wrong house this year and as a consequence it will probably be a somewhat more extensive prom for the brethren than the one of last year."

(You will remember the Phi Psis put on the prom themselves last year, and thereby came out with pocketbooks unscathed. You remember don't you? Of course.)

The moral of the above is that tooting one's own horn never gets him into the band.

That there is a bride to be at the Phi Psi house is straight dope. Here's to you, our Alma Mater—etc.

Ralph McKinnon and Houston

Schee thrilled the party whereat the announcement was made with some clever gymnastics. Very ticklish performance. Elliptical you might say.

A while ago we made the mistake, much to Gausewitz's disgust, of calling him a stalactite. It wasn't our fault though. Looks are mighty deceiving. Does that fix it all up, Walter?

It is not our policy to mention any names whatsoever. This being so we will not mention Janet Butler and her red hat, or Jo Pierson in her capacity as a law shark.

We will not mention our own capacity as a law shark either—that capacity being really unmentionable.

This honor system is all right except in one respect; it eliminates cheating. The faculty ought to consider this.

"Athletics have not showed Mike Knapp up a bit for dancing," Coach Richards announces at this time. Is that true A. L.?

year of the recent war," said Mr. Doll. "Over 250,000 precious lives each year are placed on the casualty list of consumption, and yet medical science knows that the disease is not only curable but not hereditary."

The task of fighting this disease is therefore a problem of educating people to the true nature of tuberculosis and of caring for those who are afflicted with it.

To achieve these two purposes the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association has for the past ten years conducted the Red Cross-Christmas Seal sale and with the funds which the public has given has achieved remarkable results. Health legislation, public sanatoria and dispensaries have been part of the results of this work and the death rate in this state from tuberculosis has decreased from 107.8 per 100,000 in 1909 to 85.5 in 1920.

To carry on this work the only source of income which the association has is through the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals.

PHILIPP WILL NAME REGENT

W. S. Heddles Mentioned as Successor to
Dr. Vilas

Gov. E. L. Philipp is expected to make an appointment this week to fill the vacancy on the board of university regents caused by the death of Dr. Charles H. Vilas. The appointment will be for the unexpired term, Feb. 1925. The names of two men have been mentioned in this connection in Capitol circles. W. S. Heddles, Madison, former chairman of the state council of defense, has been suggested, as has T. E. Brittingham, a former university regent. There has also been some mention of the possible appointment of J. C. Whittet, who has served as executive secretary during the Philipp administration.

Two vacancies occur on the board of regents during the coming two years. The term of Francis G. Perkins, Fond du Lac, expires in February, and that of James Troutman, Milwaukee, at the same time. The two latter vacancies will be filled by appointments made by Gov.-elect John J. Blaine.

MILITARY ATTACHE HERE IS PROMOTED

Word has been received from Washington that Chambord H. St. Germaine, who is attached to the signal unit of the military department as a master electrician, has been appointed first lieutenant. Lieutenant Germaine was in charge of the signal unit here until this semester and has been largely responsible for the building up of the unit.

During the war he was acting as a major in the signal corps, being in charge of the training school at Laon Springs, Texas. During the summer he was assisting in the instruction of the R. O. T. C. men at the signal camp at Camp Alfred Vail, N. J.

Lieutenant Germaine has been granted 14 days leave of absence before taking over his new duties. He will leave immediately for Washington, and after a visit to his family there, will be attached to a company as first lieutenant.

It is expected that sergeant and a corporal of the signal corps will be detailed here in the near future to carry on Lieutenant Germaine's work at the university. These men will act under Lieutenant Ballard, the present signal corps officer.

Engineering because the enrollment of that college has almost doubled since the war.

Rebuilding of a fire-proof central portion of Bascom hall (formerly University hall), whose dome was burned several years ago, and the addition of a new wing. This structure, the main building of the College of Letters and Science, is so crowded that traffic rules are enforced in its halls and stairways.

Fireproof book stack room for the Law school library.

Plant pathology building, home economics practice cottage, beef cattle barn, and central feed storage structure, for the College of Agriculture.

Addition to Music hall including more practice rooms.

Completion of the remaining wing of the University Extension building.

A small addition to the service building which houses supplies and shops for the university upkeep.

Two dormitories, one to house 150 women and one to house 150 men.

In addition to the structures to be erected, the program calls for certain purchases of land and for a number of utilities, such as additional boilers for the new State General hospital, heating tunnels, water mains, track scales, coal bin improvements, and boilers for dairy building and sheep barns.

CHIPPEWA VALLEY CLUB INCORPORATES

Plans Dance at Eau Claire,
Dec. 27, for Grads and Present Members

The Chippewa Valley club will incorporate, it was decided at a meeting at the university Y. M. C. A. last night. The club was active in campus politics back in the old days after its foundation in 1909 when Hod Ofstie, Al Sands, Ed. Gelein, Al Tandberg, Cub Buck and Ray Lange were prominent members, and it has continued as an active organization since that time. Women students of the valley took an active part in club affairs last night for the first time in its history.

The purpose of the club is to spread Wisconsin spirit through northern Wisconsin. The big event this year will be a Christmas dance at Eau Claire December 27 for old grads and prospective students. George L. Blum, dance chairman, announced that he had engaged Thompson's orchestra.

Committees appointed by President Robert L. Wiley last night were: constitution, C. M. Russell, Edward M. Frawley, Karl Kolb, refreshments, Stella Johnson, Margaret Moses, Bertha Kneer, Margaret Berger; refreshments, Mray Ausman, Bertha Kneer, Alvin E. Bergman.

All students residing in the Chippewa valley are eligible for membership. Refreshments will be served at the next meeting, which will be held at the university Y. M. C. A. next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

FOR A GREATER WISCONSIN

TO most students Christmas vacation means a total disregard for everything connected with or allied to university life. They return to their homes entirely unmindful of what the university is giving them and what they fail to give in return; they speak only of poor grades and lose sight of the fact that diligent effort could improve them; in short, they unconsciously lower their school in the minds of their parents by an inadvertent assumption of the wrong attitude.

During the forthcoming Christmas recess a radical change of procedure will be in order. Within one week following our return to classes, the legislature will be considering matters of vital importance to the welfare of every student at Wisconsin. The urgent building projects of the past eight years, most of which were set aside because of the war and subsequent conditions, will be up for consideration. Here, then, is the chance for the student body.

The legislators are coming to Madison convinced that the 1921 session must be one of retrenchment and economy. In the weeks preceding the first call to order they will be determining methods of living up to that standard. Not unlike the case of past sessions someone will undoubtedly contend that the contemplated university appropriation is a good place to make a beginning. Such a course can easily be obviated if the members of the legislature who are ignorant of the facts learn them from an important element in their respective constituencies, the Wisconsin students.

They should consider that practically no structure of importance has been erected on the campus since the construction of the Physics-Economics building in 1914. Meanwhile enrollment has mounted from 4,400 students in 1913 to 7,000 students this year and promises to increase to 8,000 before any new buildings can be erected, granting that the appropriations called for will be made. Since 1913, university buildings have become more and more over-crowded, almost beyond the limits of safety, and practically every department is hampered by lack of room.

Moreover, the regents have always made their requests for funds consistent with state finances. Even this year, with a building program many years behind schedule their seemingly large total of $3,000,000 for additional buildings is over $2,000,000 less than that asked for a Michigan and Illinois, where present conditions are far superior to those prevailing here.

The question of forging this strongest link in the chain of a greater Wisconsin is one which cannot be postponed. A throughgoing discussion with every legislator during the Christmas recess will materially lessen the task when the legislature convenes, and possibly be the means of actually achieving the ends sought.

PRESIDENT BIRGE PAYS TRIBUTE TO LATE DOCTOR CHARLES H. VILAS

President E. A. Birge, of the University of Wisconsin wrote the following tribute to the late Dr. Charles H. Vilas, member of the Board of Regents of the university: "I will speak only of Dr. Vilas' relation with the university. He was appointed regent in 1916 and ever since that date had given himself unreservedly to this service. When he laid down the presidency of the regents last June, he mentioned the fact that during the two years of his presidency he had not been absent from any meetings of the board or its committees. This constant attention to duty has been his earlier habit and was continued until his last illness.

"He not only gave the university his service, but he also gave it his affection. During August last he accompanied the regents on a strenuous trip of a week, visiting the branch experiment stations in the northern part of the state. When the party reached Superior, it was entertained at dinner, and Dr. Vilas was unexpectedly called upon to speak. No one of the large company there present will ever forget the eloquence and deep emotion with which Dr. Vilas expressed his life-long affection for the university. He spoke of its small beginnings in his youth, of its growth during the 55 years since he graduated, and of the pride with which, in his travels of later years, he had found the university famous in all parts of the world.

"Dr. Vilas did not express his feeling lightly or trivially. We who had accompanied him on the trip had seen his deep interest in

GIVES LECTURE ON RUSS ARCHITECTURE

The development of architecture in Moscow through the fifteenth, sixteenth, and seventeenth centuries was discussed by Prof. Michael I. Rostovtzeff of the history department in his second lecture on "Russian Architecture", given yesterday afternoon in Bascom hall.

Beautiful and interesting slides of Russian churches, towers, and palaces illustrated Professor's Rostovtzeff's lecture. The four stages of development, starting with the period of Russian Byzantine architecture, and going through the period of national development, of ornamentation, and lastly that of the seventeenth century of Moscow architecture were treated fully.

BAD WOMAN OF SCREEN NEEDED TO TEACH LESSON, SAYS THIS BEAUTIFUL ACTRESS

Katherine MacDonald.

"The exaggerated vampire of past cinema seasons has already been eliminated by progressive producers because the character was repulsive, overdrawn and illogical, but an unconventional woman must continue to teach the value of conventions through screen comparison," according to Miss Katherine MacDonald, who is called the most beautiful actress on the screen today. "I believe the bad woman is always, without exception, an object lesson and a warning, and the result can be nothing short of inestimable good."

CHRISTMAS TREES WILL BE ANNUAL CAMPUS TRADITION

Christmas trees are to be put up every year on the campus, according to a decision of S. G. A. executive board Wednesday. It is considered desirable to make the appearance of the trees a Christmas tradition at the university.

A large tree with a small one on each side, to represent a "W," will be placed at the foot of the upper campus one week before the beginning of the Christmas recess. Gladys Haskins has been appointed chairman of the committee in charge. Special decorations will be planned by this committee. The lighting of the trees will be provided by the university.

For the past two years the trees have appeared in connection with the drive for the French war orphans, and were decorated with paper stars, each bearing the name of a contributor to the fund. The was orphan work has been discontinued, but the same system of stars may be used on the trees for any charitable work.

PRICES LOWER IN WISCONSIN

Markets Division Says General Trend is Downward

Prices of commodities in Wisconsin have been on the downward trend during October and November, tables prepared by the division of markets show. The fall which was well under way during October continued in the November market and has brought the retail prices to a level lower than for some months.

Increases were found to have prevailed in the potato, butter, and eggs market, but with decreases holding sway otherwise. A lower cost to the consumer followed generally the lower price paid farmers for their products, the marketing division found in its investigations.

The general price tendency of city milk is downward, the division says. In three cities the price was cut one cent while in other places it remained the same. Prices paid the farmer have been cut more generally than the return reduction to city consumers.

The average price paid to farmers for milk in the cities reporting for both months of October and November was $3.02 per hundred pounds in November, and $3.21 per hundred pounds in October. The average October price to consumers was 12.8 cents per quart as compared with 12.5 cents per quart in November.

Wall won the mile against the Suckers and finished second in the dual meet at Minneapolis; while Brothers won his first place against Notre Dame. Wade won his "W" and Dennis his "aWa" in cross-country this fall.

Both of the hurdle races should be Wisconsin events this year with Knollin, the star hurdler of the conference, on hand. Knollin took first place in the 220 yard low hurdles in the Western Intercollegiate meet and although disqualified in the high hurdles finished ahead of the entire field. His time in the lows was 25 seconds. Stolley was laid up most of last year with an injured knee, but was able to win an "aWa". Gibson, Armstrong, and Newell of the freshman squad are expected to show up strong in this event.

Mobley is the only varsity high jumper back, but Gibson, Gude, and Armstrong made good showings on the frosh team.

Broad Jump Looks Good

In the broad jump Sundt has made better than 22 1-2 feet, which beat all jumpers in the conference except Johnson of Michigan who graduated last June.

In the pole vault Merrick and Wilder are each capable of making 12 feet. Steele, McClure, and Wisconsin did not show up very strongly in the weights last year, but with Sundt, McCartney, Gude, Norem, Nickols, and McMurry trying out, a good showing is expected this year.

Among the 1920 stars who will not be back are: Andrews, hurdler; Malecker, dash man; Endres, pole-vaulter; Meyers and Ramsey, milers; Dayton and Crump, two milers; Donaldson and Cox, quarter-milers; Anderson, weight man; and Edwards, high-jumper.

NEW PROGRAM AT ORPHEUM TONIGHT

The new vaudeville program which opens at the Orpheum tonight, with two performances, and remains for the balance of the week including the three shows on Sunday, offers six acts and pictures of a wide variety. Headlining the list will be seen W. Horlick and the Sarampa Sisters in descriptive and variety dances. W. Horlick was Pavlova's principal dancer on her first American tour, and since entering vaudeville has been very successful. E. Healy and Allen Cress, are two clever songsters, who will present the smartest styles in songs their list running from opera to Jazz. A comedy playlet is "Mrs. Wellington's Surprise", featuring Pearl Hight, Joan Barrett, Frederic Summer and Granville Bates. The Eggsport in the person of Wallace Calvin, comedian and conjurer will entertain, and Rinehart and Duff, two Dixie Misses in song and dance together with Toschow's Cats, a remarkable exhibition of feline intelligence completes the program.

SPECTACULAR PLAY SHOWN AT STRAND

The screen version of Jack London's famous novel "The Sea Wolf," which is now being shown at the Strand Theatre, is said to be replete with spectacular scenes. A ferryboat and a fishing schooner actually crash at sea, a ship founders in a fog, "Wolf" Larsen's vessel, "The Ghost," is beached on a desolate island. All these episodes are thrillingly recorded by the camera. However, the emphasis in the picture has been laid upon the striking story, which is at bottom a study in contrasts—the brutal sea captain who believes that "might makes right" and the aesthetic, peace-loving young idler whom he rescues after a catastrophe at sea.

Noah Beery, a man of great physical prowess, as well as a talented actor, is said to do the best work of his career as "Wolf." Tom Forman, Mabel Julienne Scott, and Raymond Hatton are also in the cast. The picture, which is a Paramount Artcraft, was produced by George Melford.

A comedy drama and the latest news weekly are also being shown.

DISCUSS BILL ON UNIVERSITY APPROPRIATION

Plans for Advertising Wisconsin Put Forth at Ad Club Meeting

Plans for aiding a state-wide campaign to advertise the university in order to bring about sentiment favorable to the passing of the $15,000,000 university appropriation bill at the January session of the legislature were considered by members of the University Advertising club at the regular bi-monthly meeting held yesterday noon at the city Y. M. C. A.

Irwin Maier '21, president of the club, pointed out the immediate need of action for the good of the university and recalled a plan used in a western university when it was imperative to bring citizens of the state to see that the institution was in urgent need of additional funds. Each student appealed to his parents, who in turn influenced their representatives in the legislature to pass the necessary appropriations.

"Spoken advertising will be the big thing," said Irwin Maier. "Urge everyone to talk up the university constantly and especially in communications and when at home for Christmas vacation. The Cardinal will head the newspaper campaign and will disseminate news to other publications throughout the state which should help to show citizens the necessity of favorable action on the appropriation bill."

The club will cooperate in every possible way in the campaign and will seek to aid the convocation committee in preparing a convocation program for the near future at which time the plan will be brought directly before the students.

E. W. Fisher, instructor in the commerce course spoke before the club yesterday, relating his experiences in connection with the J. Walter Thompson advertising agency in Chicago.

Louise Lovely is said to be nervous about her next picture. It is called "The Little Grey Mouse."

Shirley Mason has completed "Girl of My Heart" for William Fox, and has started work on "Flame of Youth."

LEATHERNECKS

Former "Devil Dogs" Forget Midsemesters to Feed, Sing and Tell Stories

Former mess sergeants were put to shame at the dinner at which some score of former marines gathered at the City Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night. Prospective midsemester exams were forgotten, as the one-time "Devil Dogs" consumed much chow and sang marine songs, to the confusion of the waitresses. Some very tall stories of action in the famous Fifth regiment of Chateau Thierry fame were told. The "leathernecks" went away forgetting the occasion one worth remembering.

Another dinner is planned for January 19, at which still more of the old timers are expected to be present.

Bread Takes Drop of Two Cents a Loaf

Bread has taken a drop of two cents and is now retailing at 15 cents. Madison bakers agree with cafe managers, however, that no drop in the prices of pies and other pastry will take place until next spring. Some of the cafeterias in the Latin quarter are now charging 1 cent for a slice of bread. The former price was 2 cents. A number of Madison grocers, who conduct cash and carry businesses are selling bread at 13½ cents, but all other grocers charge 15 cents.

PERCENTAGE OF WOMEN IN ATHLETIC WORK INCREASES

Athletic work has attracted 10 per cent more women to special work in the physical education department of the University of Wisconsin this year, in addition to the gymnasium work required of lower class women. The total is now about 160, as compared with 150 last year.

Of the total, 134 women have elected physical education as their major subject, while last year only 115 were majoring in it. About the same annual increase in the number enrolled in the department has been shown since 1912, the first year when physical education was introduced as a major subject and when there were only 12 women in the course. Of the courses which are given in the department aside from regular gymnastics, interpretative dancing and swimming are the most popular.

Many graduates from the department are now instructors in colleges and universities, in normal schools and public schools, and a greater number are in public school work.
