When the Circus Comes to Town

Written Especially for the Occasion.

Don't it kind o' sort o' cheer you?
Don't it drive away each frown?
When you hear the band a-playin'
When the circus comes to town.

Don't it make you feel lots younger?
An' you feel like droppin' roun'
Just to see the bears and monkeys,
When the circus comes to town.

An' it makes you feel like kickin'
When the rain comes pourin' down,
After plannin' for a picnic
When the circus comes to town.

Even if you're old and feeble,
Gray the locks that once were brown,
Don't you feel your heart beat quicker,
When the circus comes to town?

When you die and go to heaven,
An' get tired of harps' sweet soun',
Then you'll wish you weren't an angel,
When the circus comes to town.
