Wisconsin Song.

By J. N. DAVIDSON.

Tune: "AMERICA."

Wisconsin, favored state,
In Union true and great
With East and West;
One people, happy, free,
With North and South are we,
With dwellers by the sea;
A nation blest.

They came from far and near
Who hold Wisconsin dear
Nor farther roam;
From states grown great and strong,
From realms of fame and song,
They came in eager throng
And here found home.

With strength of sturdy arm
They wrought the field and farm,
Built town and school.
And when, from Sumter strand,
War's thunder shook the land
They fought at just command
For righteous rule.

With cheerful heart and voice
Their children now rejoice
In happy song.

We love lands east and west,
Broad plain and mountain crest,
But love Wisconsin best:
Her praise prolong!

Fair land of oak and pine,
Of prairie, lake and mine,
Our chosen state;
United would we be,
Our nation serve and thee,
In loyal duty free;
God make thee great!
