IOWA FIVE WINS MID-WEST TITLE

STUDENT FUND FOR MEMORIAL HALF PLEDGED

Total Boosted to $50,075 as Result of Canvass
Yesterday

The Union Memorial building fund passed the half-way mark last night with a total of $50,075.54. Yesterday's subscriptions amounted to $3,597.

A $300 pledge, the largest on record so far, was made yesterday, and there was also one for $250. Seventeen students pledged $100 apiece.

"The drive is going fine," said Loring Hammond, treasurer of the Union board, last night. "To pass the half-way mark after two weeks of the drive was the aim of the Union board, and we feel proud that the Wisconsin spirit has done it."

Changes and additional returns from fraternities and sororities are as follows:

Chi Psi .....	$2,423
Phi Kappa Sigma .....	874
Alpha Delta Phi .....	750
Delta Kappa Epsilon .....	501
Pi Beta Phi .....	840
Delta Gamma .....	813
Alpha Phi .....	600
Alpha Chi Omega .....	436
Chi Omega .....	218
Alpha Omicron Pi .....	71

Subscription blanks will be sent Monday to every student in the university. The plan now is to have the pledges come in by colleges, according to Alfred Taylor, chairman of the campaign.

"Each college will have a day of its own in the drive," he said, "the Law school, the College of Engineering, College of Agriculture, and College of Letters and Science. Watch The Cardinal, and when your subscription day comes put your pledge in the boxes on the hill. Get together and put your college over the goal."

Wednesday will probably be the engineers' day, and plans are being pushed to have a big celebration on the hill.

EDITOR CONTEST FOR "LIT" WILL CLOSE APRIL 15

Stories, plays and verse intended for the competition in the election of next year's editors of The Wisconsin Literary Magazine must be in the Lit box at the Union building, or in the hands of one of the editors by April 15. Hereafter the editors of the Lit are to be elected on the basis of material submitted for that purpose. Prof. C. J. Campbell, Prof. W. E. Leonard, and Prof. R. E. N. Dodge, with the present editors of The Wisconsin Literary Magazine will be the judges.

Those submitting literary work to be entered in the competition for editorships must indicate this on the manuscripts, otherwise the material will be considered merely for publication. All literary material is acceptable, whether prose, drama or verse, and must be in by April 15.

NAME JUDGES TO PICK PRIZE ACTS AT UNION VODVIL

Three Best Skits to Be Given Loving Cups at Big Show

Jack Bigler, production manager for Union Vodvil, announced yesterday the names of the judges who are to select the prize winning acts of this year's Vodvil performance.

The men chosen are Prof. Eugene H. Byrne, John McPherrin and "Dick" Tyrrell, all of whom have extensive dramatic experience. Professor Byrne is at present member of the faculty dramatic committee and is prominently connected with the Curtain club, the faculty dramatic organization. McPherrin and Tyrrell are both Haresfoot men. Tyrrell was production manager for last year's Haresfoot show and McPherrin is publicity manager for this year's production. Both McPherrin and Tyrrell are members of Pi Upsilon Delta, honorary dramatic fraternity.

The judges will pick the three best acts presented at the Union Vodvil performance. Announcement of their decision will be made shortly after the final performance.

The three prize winning acts will be presented with silver loving cups. The cups have been ordered from Chicago and will be on exhibition at the Candy shop this week. Each cup will be engraved with the name of the act to which it is awarded and the participants.

PROF. BLEYER TO SPEAK AT IOWA NEWSIES' MEET

to be Feature of Convention

Prof. Willard G. Bleyer of the Course in Journalism is to be one of the foremost speakers at the fourth annual Iowa College press convention to be held at Colfax, Ia., April 9 and 10. The list of speakers contains the names of many men distinguished in the field of journalism who will speak on various phases of newspaper and magazine work.

One of the features of the program will be a front page make-up contest in which each college paper will submit five front pages. Practical newspaper men will select the best sheet, and a banner will be awarded the winning paper.

The convention this year promises to eclipse any yet held. More spirit has been shown by all the schools in the association and an extra large assembly is expected.

FORMER DEAN LEADS LAST VESPER SERVICE

Mrs. Lois K. M. Rosenberry will lead the last of the series of vesper meetings on "Practical Application of Christianity on the Campus" this afternoon at 4:30 in Lathrop parlors.

Orvin Sayle will give a violin solo and Marguerite Myer a vocal solo. Helen Harp will preside.

Mrs. Rosenberry, who was formerly dean of women, is well known in university circles for her messages to Wisconsin women and it is expected that vespers today will be both interesting and appealing in conclusion of the series which followed up the thoughts of the recent Religious conference.

Superior in Third Place; Consolation Cup to Detroit

A single point decided the first and second place winners in the finals of the inter-state basketball tournament last night when Cedar Rapids, Ia., defeated Winfield Kan., in a terrific battle, 21 to 20, and thereby earned the title of champions of the Middle West. Third and fourth place honors went to Superior and Canton.

Detroit Northwestern high school won the first place cup in the consolation series by a 19 to 12 win over Elkton, S. D., in the only game played in the afternoon. These two teams earned the right to meet by defeating Centralia Ill., and Valley City, N. D., in the morning contests.

Big Crowd at Final

A crowd almost as large as those which attend the average conference game turned out for the two evening scraps with Superior and Canton battling for third and fourth places in the first contest and Cedar Rapids and Winfield fighting for first and second. In the morning Superior had suffered its first beating since coming to Madison two weeks ago—a decisive defeat, 23 to 4. Winfield's participation in the finals was won by a defeat handed Canton at 10 o'clock, 41 to 19.

The championship contest at 8 o'clock was a battle royal. Cedar Rapids gained an early lead which she held throughout the first half, with the Kansas five battling hard to catch up but being prevented by the close work of the Iowa guards. Winfield seemed to be a little off color but improved as the half progressed. The score at the end of this period was 14 to 9 in favor of Cedar Rapids.

Winfield in Comeback

The second half opened with Winfield taking the offensive and gradually crawling within one point of the Hawkeyes. With 6 minutes to play Cedar Rapids was leading by two points after the Kansas team had shown a burst of speed which put them within striking distance. A moment later Peterson fouled and Rief made the free throw giving the Iowa team only a one-point lead. The Winfield lads began shooting desperately and several times had the ball so close to the basket that it seemed impossible for it to bound out but the game ended before luck would return to give them the two needed points.

Both teams showed a brand of basketball which is exhibited by only the very best of high school fives and to say that one team was superior to the other would be unfair to both. Practically every man on each team starred to such a degree that four Cedar Rapids and Three Winfield men were placed on the all-western first and second teams picked by a committee of coaches and players.

Hold "W" Banquet

Communication

Dear Ed:

The Sigma Chi have been the victims of a hoax. For the last two weeks the campus has been agog with stories concerning the wonderful dinner-dance that was to be given at their lawdge Friday standing feature of this affair was to be music, for Joseph C. Smith of the phonograph fame, had been engaged at enormous expense to play for this promising affair.

However, for the sake of veracity, the orchestra which played at the Sigma Chi house was not the Joseph C. Smith orchestra that makes the Victor records. The orchestra was "Smith" orchestra from Versailles, Kentucky, and is a well-known throughout the east, where they play quite frequently for the high-brow universities. Although the latter are really very good, it is only fair to the great Joe C. that the fact in the case became known and the matter cleared up. We wish, however, to beg the Sigma Chi's pardon for calling attention to this little error.

LECTURE TO STIR NEW INTEREST IN WORLD RELATIONS

Prof. Fish to Discuss Attitudes of Britain and America in Talk Wednesday

Prof. Carl Russel Fish will speak on "The Importance of Intimate Relationships Between the United States and the British Empire," at 4:30 Wednesday afternoon, in 165 Main hall. Professor Fish has been in close touch with Angle-American relations all his life and during the period of the war was director of the London branch of the American University union. In this position he was particularly favored with opportunities for studying relations with the British Empire. The lecture is to be held under the auspices of the Angle-American club, of which Professor Fish is honorary president.

The idea of establishing British-American clubs in both countries for the purpose of promoting a deeper interest in the relations between them, was conceived during the time that the United States army student detachment was stationed among the various universities of the British Isles last year. The parent organization is the British-American club at Oxford university, of which Viscount Bryce and American Ambassador Davis are the honorary presidents, and of which President E. A. Birge is an honorary member. The Angle-American club of Wisconsin was the first of these clubs to be organized in this country, although similar clubs have been or are now being organized at Harvard, Yale, Pennsylvania, and other leading universities and colleges.

The local club was organized last fall by several students who were members of the British university army detachment. At its semi-monthly meetings such topics as

MODERN COLLEGE MAN IS SETTLING DOWN TO WORK

CHICAGO—Is the American college student reversing the time-honored tradition and letting his studies interfere with his college life?

The Interchurch World Movement says "yes." Reports received by the movement in connection with a nation-wide survey of education indicate that young men in college have settled down to work.

The renaissance of work as a college ideal is said to result from the influence of the war veterans scattered through our colleges.

These young men have passed through the sobering experience of war. They have traveled and come in contact with many different types of people. They have benefited by the discipline of military education. And in the process they have grown up. The college man has supplanted the college boy, and he is a man who feels that he must make up for the years lost in camp and field by good hard plugging.

The Interchurch World Movement sees in these veterans promising material from which to recruit the hundred thousand trained workers, lay and clerical, that will be needed by Protestant churches during the next five years for work at home and abroad.

After the banquet, which was attended by 200 visiting players and coaches and varsity "W" wearers, Coaches Lowman and Jones explained that the purpose of the tournament was to promote a keener interest in basketball and assured the guests that Wisconsin's doors would be open to those who look forward to a university education.

SUPERIOR 25, CANTON 12

In the first game of the evening, to decide third place in the tournament, Superior defeated Canton, Ill., 25 to 12.

The Wisconsin five came back strong after their defeat by Cedar Rapids in the morning and it was evident from the start that they were in condition to make a good showing.

Superior took the offensive at the start and by playing a compact game with close guarding and careful shooting piled up their end of the score in the first half with five field goals and a free throw, holding the Canton players to five counters, one of which was a free throw.

Although the Canton quintet missed several shots, seemingly through hard luck, it was evident that they did not have the shooting eye and the style of playing that won the victories in the preliminary games of the tournament.

In the second half, the Illinois tossers came back with added pep, but due to the stiff defensive of their opponents, they were only able to cage two baskets from the floor, both made by Devalt, right forward. Berry made three free throws and missed three in this period.

Up to the last 9 minutes of the final half, Superior had made but 7 points. At this stage of the game time out was called and Nevers, who has been marked a sa crack shot throughout both the late tournaments, was substituted for Perrin at right forward. Although he was closely guarded, he gathered three ringers from difficult positions and just as he was fired Hancock, the big center, dropped in a free throw, making a total of 14 for the half.

The lineup:
Superior
Perrin.....RF ..... Devalt
Trittine.....LF ..... Negley

Referee—Levis.
Umpire—Young.

DETROIT 16, CENTRALIA 15

The first game in the morning series between Detroit and Centralia, Ill., started out with a bang. Both teams were confident but Detroit exhibited more team work than did their opponents who resorted to long shots. Close guarding on both sides was one of the features of the game. At the end of the first half the score was 10 to 10.

With this score at the beginning of the half the struggle was taken up with renewed vigor. Smokiewicz, Detroit guard, and Johnson, Centralia center, tied for high score, each caging three field goals.

The lineup:
Centralia
Kurth.....RF ..... Carty
Cummins.....LF ..... Jones
Johnson.....C ..... Vreeland
Wilson.....RG ..... Smokiewicz

Free throws—Johnson 0 out of 2, Cox 1 out of 3, Carty 0 out of 1.
Substitutions—Keller for Kurth, Cox for Beaver.
Referee—Young.

ELKTON 17, VALLEY CITY 11

The Valley City-Elkton game was not as fast as the first game in the morning. The teams were fairly matched but Valley City depended more on team work for their points while Elkton team resorted to individual rushes and long shots.

The score at the end of the first half was 7 to 7. Busticker, Valley City center, made the most points in this game, caging three field baskets and one free throw.

The summaries:
Valley City

Substitution—Lyon for Ford.
Referee—Levis.

DETROIT 19, ELKTON 12

Detroit won the consolation cup by defeating the Elkton, S. D., five, 19 to 12. The ball was in Elkton territory most of the time but the good work of the Elkton guards kept the score down. Elkton had the edge in the tip-off in center, but Detroit had the heavier team and was the aggressor in the skirmishes.

The score at the end of the first half was 9 to 8 in favor of Detroit. Carty, Detroit forward, caged 6 field goals and one free throw.

The summaries:

CEDAR RAPIDS 23, SUPERIOR 4
The Cedar Rapids, Ia., quintet overwhelmed Superior 23 to 4, in the surprise game of the tourney Saturday morning. The Superior team was plainly played out after battling through two extra-period games the day before, and the Iowa tossers held the Wisconsin five to one field goal in each period.
The right guard of the Superior quintet, Smith, was seriously injured. Smith had gone down twice the day before from blows in the head and the back of the neck, and once early in the game a five minute rest period was necessary while coaches bathed his neck.

He recovered and insisted on playing however, and got his knockout blow when he attempted to take the ball away from a Cedar Rapids man dribbling down the floor. Smith reached for the ball, and his man attempted to duck. Smith turned just in time to get the full force of a blow from the other's arm.

Members of both teams and the officials attempted to revive the injured man. Smith writhed and groaned on the floor, being apparently out of his head, and several men had to hold him while restorative were being applied.

The player was carried to the infirmary, where information concerning his condition was refused.

Skoglund replaced Smith in the line-up for Superior.

The game possessed few elements of interest. Superior appeared on the floor beaten before the game started. They were exhausted from their two hard games yesterday, and showed none of the form which has characterized them in other games here. Cedar Rapids experienced no difficulty in defeating them, and ran up eight points before Superior counted once. Superior players missed ten chances at points

PUSH TOGETHER—AND WE WIN

JUST to get real chummy with the 6,000 students who will read The Cardinal this morning, let's have a heart-to-heart talk about the Memorial Union campaign. Call this editorial a personal talk with you, student reader.

To begin with, put it down now that the proposed Memorial Union building is going to be BUILT. A. L. Sommers, national campaign manager for the drive, told us so yesterday at the Union building. A member of Union board banged his fist down on the table and declared that the campus drive WILL GO THROUGH TO THE TOP. Wisconsin's alumni, students, and friends, thousands in number, are not going to back down now that they have set themselves to raise $1,000,000 for a university memorial.

That's the situation in a nutshell, fellow student. The campaign is fully organized, alumni in many districts have exceeded their quotas, subscriptions are coming in from all sections of the country, and the drive on the campus is beginning to gather real momentum.

When the Memorial Union building is erected, what sort of interest will you have in it? There are just two ways you can feel about it—you'll be able to congratulate yourself with a feeling of pride for helping to build it, or you'll look at the completed building and then donate yourself several kicks for missing out on an opportunity to serve your university.

Of the 6,000 or more students enrolled this year, 6,000 can contribute something to the memorial without pinching their pocketbooks. Rather than have 2,000 students give $50 each to raise the campus quota, we would prefer to see 6,000 subscribe an average of $15.59 needed to go over the top.

Why not start a $15 club or a $10 club to draw in the pledges of all students? Why not, in the words of a student in a recent letter to The Cardinal, MAKE IT UNANIMOUS? Two weeks of the campus drive have slipped by. The quota is about half subscribed. If 6,000 men and women will pull together the climb will be easy. Come on in, fellow students, and sign your pledge to MAKE IT UNANIMOUS for the Memorial Union building.

THE CAMPUS BEAUTIFUL

NOW blows the balmy south wind and green grows the campus sward—also the thoughtless student digs his heels into the turf and starts a nice assortment of cow paths winding o'er the campus.

Year after year the business manager of the university has had to send out the same old request: "Keep off the grass and don't molest the university flower beds." It will come again this year. We're just anticipating it.

It seems hard for some students to resist keeping their feet off green turf. A certain number always contract the habit of making a bee-line across the campus to classes. Sidewalks don't appeal to them in spring.

In the spring the ground is soft and every footprint leaves grass marred by trodden paths, bald spots near buildings, and jagged edges alongside the cement walks.

Nature gave the University of Wisconsin a beautiful setting on the shores of Lake Mendota and a beautiful campus. The campus will be made more beautiful if every loyal student will keep to the regular walks, let the flowers grow undisturbed, and refrain from littering the ground about buildings with cigaret stubs.

ENTIRE HOUSEHOLD AT PYTHIA BANQUET

Surprise followed surprise at Pythia's tenth anniversary banquet given last evening in Lathrop hall. Besides out of town guests, the happiest family on earth, the Pythia family, were there to add to the fun of the evening. No one stayed home. Indeed not. There was the bride, Mrs. Pythia; the groom, Mr. Pythia; the two children, Pythia junior and Philomathia junior; and of course mother-in-law, Mrs. Philomathia. The children made a lot of noise, but no one minded that.

And the feast! Why, instead of ordinary china dishes, there were tin plates, tin cups, tin nut-bowls, and tin silverware. Everything glistered and shone with delight! And no one left the table hungry.

The biggest surprise of the evening came when Gladys Borchers was presented with a corsage bouquet in honor of her victory in the N. O. L. tryouts.

Bertha Davis, former member of Pythia, who has recently returned from war work in France, gave reminiscences of the history of the society in former times. Following her address was the formal initiation of the fourteen new members of Pythia.

BIERMAN QUILTS AS COACH OF MONTANA

HELENA, Mont.—Bernie Bierman, former Minnesota football luminary, and captain of the 1915 Gophers, will not return to the University of Montana as football coach next season. He gave no reason for his decision when the announcement was made last week. Bierman made a good showing at Montana with rather weak material and was reported to have high standing with the student body.

LAST LECTURES ON SPIRITUALISM

No Lecture to Be Given on April 13, it is Announced

The two concluding lectures of the series given by Prof. Joseph Jastrow will be held Tuesday, March 30, and Tuesday, April 6. There will be no lecture Tuesday, April 13.

The two lectures will deal with phases of the same subject which may be called "Spiritualism and the Supernatural World." The lecture March 30 will consider particularly the history of modern spiritualism, and the nature of the physical phenomena on which so much of the evidence for the belief in spirits has been based.

The concluding lecture of the course, which will be given April 6 will consider the psychical side of spiritualism, particularly the evidence through trance mediums and the explanations of mediumistic phenomena as a part of subconscious procedures and the dissociation of personality.

The lectures will be held at 4:30 p. m. of the days as announced and will be given in the auditorium of the Chemical laboratory. The lectures are open to the public.

HARVARD GRADS ARE LOYAL IN FUND DRIVE

NEW YORK—That men from 20 to 30 years out of college are at the height of their money-making ability is the inference drawn by Eliot Wadsworth, chairman of the executive committee of the Harvard endowment fund, in his report on the progress of the campaign for a sum of $15,250,000. Mr. Wadsworth points out that "the whole campaign proves that among the alumni of a university there is an interest and loyalty which can be relied upon to support, financially, the college and the cause of education."

MONDOVI AND WATERLOO WIN

Awards Made in the Live- stock Contest; Oshkosh Boy Leads Entries

Mondovi was awarded the silver cup for first place in the fourth annual state livestock judging contest at the presentation exercises held at the College of Agriculture Saturday, and Waterloo was awarded the silver cup in the grain judging contest. The contests were staged at the stock pavilion under the auspices of the college of agriculture and the Wisconsin Livestock Breeders' association.

Teams in the stock judging contest won places as follows: Mondovi, Chippewa Falls, Oshkosh, Algoma, Greenwood, Roberts, Waukesha, Belmont, Waterloo and Milton. La Verne Taylor Oshkosh, was the individual prize winner, with Roland Cliffin and R. Sigfort, both of Mondovi, second and third. Carl Mehls, Chippewa Falls, David Skalitzky, Waterloo, Hayden Simmons, Belmont, I. Pfughoft, Algoma, Charles Witworth, Mondovi, George Brown, Roberts and Sherman Lowe were given honorable mention in the order named.

Greenwood won the banner awarded for second prize in the grain judging contest and Oshkosh was third. Individual prize-winners were as follows, in the order of their grading: Walter Wood of Oshkosh, $8; Arno Donnerlein of Plymouth, $6; David Skalitzky of Waterloo, $4; Edward Beyer of Waterloo, $3; Harold Higgins of Waterloo, $2; John Coates of Greenwood, $1; Bernard Vollrath of Greenwood, Delbert Fox of Waukesha, Edward Connell of Waukesha and Oliver Newman of St. Croix Falls. The last four received 10 pounds of seed corn each.

"With the present tendency to a condition where the supply of products of the soil will not be adequate to meet the demands of the consumers, the development of agriculture, particularly better animal husbandry is absolutely essential," said W. L. Houser to the 54 young men who competed in the judging contests.

Prof. George C. Humphrey emphasized the fact that the production of a champion is the important thing, rather than the judging. Prof. R. A. Moore urged the use of pedigreed seed. J. A. Farrell, superin-

BALGER ACADEMY TO RAISE $240,000

Christian Endeavor School Starts Endowment Fund Drive This Week

ENDEAVOR, Wis. — Announcement was made Saturday by the trustees of Christian Endeavor academy, that a fund-raising campaign has been worked out and will start at once. Its purpose is to assure a fund of $240,000, of which $40,000 is for immediate use in building and equipment and the remaining $200,000 as an endowment. Friends and the alumni of the institution throughout the state have already assured the trustees of their hearty support.

Christian Endeavor academy has been educating the youth of Wisconsin for the past 30 years. Its student course is that of the high school, but it also specializes in preparing the student with true Christian ideals. That Endeavor has been successful in this undertaking is evident from the many commendatory letters received from prominent educators throughout the state and county. Upon graduation, students are admitted to the state university without preliminary examination.

tendent of boys' and girls' club work for the U. S. department of agriculture, said the agricultural clubs all over the country are performing an important role in preserving the expertness which has been dying with each generation.

NEW BUILDING TO BE ERECTED AT AMES

AMES, Ia. — Steps to relieve the congestion in certain departments as far as holding classes is concerned will be taken by Iowa State college.

It is almost certain that a Home Economics building will be erected in time for use next fall. This building will be a temporary one and will be built of wood. A temporary stock judging pavilion will also be put up as soon as possible.

For the past year the congestion of classes in stock judging and Home Economics has been such that immediate steps had to be taken or the loss of students would result. As it is in some class rooms, three classes are taught at the same time with nothing separating one class from another. The stock judging situation is identical.

Prof. J. H. Mathews, director of the Course in Chemistry, will present under the auspices of the Chemistry club Wednesday, April 1, at 4:30, p. m., in the auditorium of the Chemistry building, a free public lecture on "Color Photography," illustrated with lantern slides. Professor Mathews long has been interested in this subject and has a wonderful collection of slides, which he has taken by a variety of color processes.

At the last meeting of the club officers were elected, including Gordon Taylor, chief chemist; Mary Alice Newton, assistant chemist; Marion Ayres, recorder of data; Marie Crams, store-room keeper; and Roland Wiethaup, catalytic agent.

The Chemistry club, one of the youngest organizations on the campus, is controlled entirely by undergraduates. Its purpose is to present chemical subjects of popular interest in a non-technical light and also to promote good fellowship among students of chemistry through social affairs. Any one taking the chemistry course or majoring in chemistry is eligible to membership.

In a photoplay that's a hit of her spectacular career, Fairbanks couldn't do it any faster—nor Chaplin make it any funnier, and there's a reason for the story.

THRILLS? Yes, more than enough—you'll wonder how long she's going to live, and—

ROMANCE—ah, yes—a delightful little love affair with the charming Mat Moore as the despairing lover.

This is Miss Janis' first appearance in two years—all the time that she spent "over there" making life easier for the boys.

Modern Lochinvar in Attempt to Outdo His Namesake

O, Young Lochinvar came—

But we don't know where he came from or what his name is, for that matter. Suffice it to say that Young Lochinvar came out of the freshman class. Like the original Lochinvar he came with determination, and with a sublime conviction that the female of the species would follow wherever he led, the destination being in this case the freshman dance in Lathrop hall Friday night.

So firm was his faith that he staked $10 on his ability to persuade some girl passing by Lathrop to stop in and dance with him.

Did he win? Anyway he tried.

It all began with a joker game, in which Lochinvar lost $10. Determined to make good his loss he wagered that, during the course of Friday evening he could stand out in front of Lathrop and find a girl to go to the dance with him.

The last seen of him, he was still standing there, politely but firmly accosting every girl that approached with,

"Pardon me, but won't you come in and dance. The music sounds so good and I'm really a good dancer, you know.... Yes, of course, I'll take you home. O come on, be a sport."

Once he was heard offering to split it even.

Did he win? Well, yes and no.

Engagement Announcement

CO-OPERATIVE HOUSE FOR MONTANA CO-EDS

MISSOULA, Mont.—Girls who work their way through college at the university of Montana have established a co-operative cottage where they cook their own meals.

Between the hours of 4:30 and 7 p. m. or at other stated times, the girls go to various homes in the city and get dinner and do housework, for which they receive enough money to cover their expenses.

This does away with the unsatisfactory life of working for "room and board," where both work and hours were indefinite, and relations between housewife and girl unpleasant. The girl also feels more on a par socially with other students and less like a "hired girl."

K. W. Jameson, dean of women at Montana, states in a recent number of The Survey, that this system has many advantages.

Wake Up, '23, and Push Seniors From Lead in Memorial Union Drive, Freshman Pleads

Come on, class of 1923, show a burst of speed in the Memorial drive that will wake up every student to his duties and opportunities at Wisconsin and rival the record of the seniors in their attempt to lead all classes in the drive.

That's the challenge of J. B. McWhorten, '23, in a letter to The Daily Cardinal, in which he points out that freshmen will receive more direct benefit from the Memorial Union building than any class. His letter follows:

"To the Editor of The Cardinal:

"We shall receive more direct benefit from the Memorial Union building than any class now at Wisconsin—more benefit than any class that has ever been at Wisconsin. Yet, according to the 'statistician' of the senior class, we, as a body, have only subscribed $1.50 each towards the erection of the building.

"Is it possible that we are the uninterested, don't care, let someone else do it, put it off until tomorrow type of men and women? Is it possible that we want someone else to pay for our pleasure? Don't we expect to receive more good from our stay here than just what we get on the hill? If we aren't interested and came here only for what we get on the hill, we are unworthy to be the class of '23.

"It is quite true that there are some of us who are not able to give the $24 asked, but everyone can give something, and it certainly should be more than $1.50. Drink fewer malted milks, walk instead of taking a car, stay away from the movies occasionally—these are only a few of the innumerable ways of saving money if one has the desire to save it.

"All of us are looking forward to the day when we go out from Wisconsin and are able to call her our Alma Mater. But will we have done our duty while we were here? This is the first call that has been issued for which we can do something big. Are we going to lie down on the job, pass the buck, or are we going to come across?"

"This is more than a duty; it is an opportunity. This is our opportunity to show whether or not we will carry on the traditions of Wisconsin, whether or not we will revive the old spirit of Wisconsin, the spirit of service. If we seize this opportunity now, we will be rendering a service that will not be forgotten, but which will be lasting as time itself. Men and women of '23, it is up to you! Which do you choose—honor or dishonor? And to fail is dishonor.

J. B. McWHORTEN, '23.

He is a breezy millionaire, reduced by a couple of crooks to earning a living, and his adventures are said to furnish amusing entertainment.

Tully Marshall and Theodore Roberts are also in the supporting cast. "Double Speed" was written by J. Stewart Woodhouse. It is a Paramount Artcraft picture directed by Sam Wood.

As added attractions Prizma natural colored pictures and Bray Pictograph with comedy cartoon will also be shown.

Magic, Bright Lights, and Confetti Will Reign at Jamboree

If you feel like "nothing usual, everything different," you'll find it in the armory, April 10; when Old Mother Hubbard, Weary Willie, Simple Susan, Hobo Bill, and all their kindred will assemble as guests of the student senate and S. G. A. for the costume ball whose informality bids far to outshadow the formality of Prom.

Ingenuity will come into its own at this affair and the pauper will be as the prince says the committee headed by Wyman Smith. However, if spring fever has extinguished your initiative you can get glad rags from a display of outfits to be held by a Milwaukee firm several days before the great event. Price will probably range from $1.00 up.

"Doc" Elsom of far fame will lead the mixing stunts. Chuck Morris will be a magician, the Rusty Hinge may sing, colored lights will feature some of the dances, confetti will reign, and among other things, a special committee with the cognomen of "burial" will inter.....this is a hothouse special, season too early.

We hear that some medics are going with a little sugar on their heads in order to disguise them as pills, and some of the yiddish plumbers are contemplating shirts made of greenbacks, and some of the engineers in soup-and-fish, and some of the agrics in pinched backs—but this is enuf.

DAYLIGHT LAW
IN OPERATION
IN 33 CITIES

Clocks Will be Set Ahead in New York, Philadelphia, and Elsewhere

NEW YORK—Daylight saving will go into effect at 2 o'clock tomorrow morning in at least 33 American cities, notwithstanding the repeal of the law by congress last summer, according to the National Daylight association. At that time clocks will be set ahead one hour.

The cities and towns which have adopted daylight saving ordinances are as follows:

New York—New York city, Buffalo, Cohees, Troy, Utica, Syracuse, Yonkers, Gloversville; New Jersey—Camden, Plainfield, New Brunswick, Hoboken, Jersey City; Massachusetts—Clinton, Lynn, Worcester, Marboro; Pennsylvania—Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Corry, Allentown, Harrisburg, Easton; Connecticut—Hartford, Putnam; Maine—Portland, South Portland; New Hampshire—Manchester; Michigan—Detroit, St. Joseph; Colorado—Denver; Ohio—Columbus; Delaware—Wilmington.

"We do not anticipate any confusion," said Marcus M. Marks, president of the organization which has been fighting for daylight saving. "The time adopted by New York city will be automatically observed by all cities and towns within a radius of 50 miles or more. The same can be said of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. The New York Central, New York, New Haven & Hartford; Lackawanna; Reading; Boston & Maine and Maine Central railroads are preparing to operate their local trains so as to take care of the commuters in the territory affected. Cleveland last year operated on time an hour ahead of contiguous territory but there was no confusion there."

The state-wide daylight saving bill, recently passed by the New Jersey assembly and which is now before the senate for consideration, is reported to have been indorsed by nearly 300 municipalities and is also said to have the approval of the city commissioners of Newark, Paterson and Elizabeth. New York state already possesses a law ordering the clocks turned ahead tomorrow but strong efforts are being made to obtain its repeal.

The Massachusetts house recently passed the state-wide measure to third reading by a vote of 135 to

While there will be no session of the Connecticut legislature this year, the mayors of 18 cities at a conference in New Haven urged the adoption of local ordinances.

WAR HISTORY OF ILLINOIS COMPILED

URBANA, Ill.—An official history of Illinois' part in the world war is being compiled by the war records section of the State Historical library in Springfield under the direction of Dr. Wayne E. Stever, D., Illinois, 1916. One section organized in July, 1919, followed the legislature's appropriation of $100,000 for the work.

The collection of records of war organizations active in Illinois was the first work of the war records section, and records of the most important agencies have already been secured. In addition a survey of Illinois industries during the war period is being made, with special reference to war materials furnished to the government, and industrial conditions in every plant affected by the war.

TEACHERS' MEETING TAKES STAND AGAINST AFFILIATING WITH LABOR

President—A. G. Kingsford, Baraboo.
First Vice-Pres—A. H. Burns Monroe.
Second Vice-Pres. — Antoinette Durant, Platteville.
Secretary—Mary Hargrave, Madison.
Treasurer — J. F. Waddell, Evansville.

AFTER ELECTING the above officers and adopting resolutions urging higher pay for teachers, but recommending refraining from affiliating with organizations other than those of the educational profession, the Southern Wisconsin Teachers' association closed its sessions Saturday morning. L. D. Harvey, president of the Stout manual training school at Menominee, reported on the work and progress of the publicity committee campaign for higher wages for teachers, and Reuben Post Halleck of Louisville, Ky., gave an address on Directions of a Teacher's Growth.

The resolutions were adopted without discussion or debate and by a mere handful of teachers, who remained at the front of the room and a few of whom heard them distinctly amid the hubbub of others leaving and talking at the back of the room. They were presented by A. H. Kingsford of Baraboo, who had just been elected president. Many teachers afterwards questioned the practical wisdom of taking a stand against affiliating with other organizations, such as the American Federation of Labor, but none of them were prepared to say anything and the resolutions went through perfunctorily.

The resolutions set forth that while the teachers are asking higher pay they recognize a reciprocal duty of maintaining a higher standard in the teaching profession. They demand a wage scale comparable with those in other lines of industry, considering the years of preparation necessary for a teacher and the limited number of years of service a teacher can give. Such increased pay, say the resolutions, can be extended without undue burden on the public. The right to organize for attaining such ends is set forth, but such movement should not be in the direction of "affiliating with organizations foreign to the profession."

Prof. Halleck's talk was along inspirational lines, urging communion with nature, the reading of great poems. If a teacher could not say that in the past year she had read a poem that restored and uplifted her he would mark her 25 percent dead. Following this, he gave the results of a specific experiment in education to ascertain the kind and number of mistakes in English usually made orally in the grades. Four verbs cause one half of all the errors of this kind in the grades, these being see, do, come and go. Fifty-seven percent of errors in English are verb errors, 11 percent those of double negatives and 10 percent pertain to redundancy. Prof. Halleck presented each of the teachers with a questionnaire containing twenty-seven questions which he desired answered along the lines of growth and asked them to return them to him at the end of the year.

President C. C. Bishop presided at the morning session.

Oh, Boy! Women, Veils, 'n Everything in Omar's Harem

Do you want to see a real Turkish harem? Would you hardened women haters, you stern ascetics of the anti-tea-hound brotherhood be even mildly interested in getting a glimpse of a real "no man's land?" List ye! Your hour has come. The more or less well known Omar Khayyam has consented to give you a peek at his select little seraglio—waving palms, and gentle music, hookahs and brilliant plumage, filmy veils and girls—Oh Boy! some harem.

Mr. Khayyam, otherwise known as Omar, will give his side show as an added attraction to the Union Vodyl performance on Friday and Saturday of this week. Illness of some of the harem almost threatened the cancellation of the act, but Mr. Khayyam has made arrangements to substitute several choice beauties from the Alpha Chi house, in fact the Alpha Chi's are going to put on quite a little act for old Omar. Wilhelmina Ehrman is going to do the Omar stunt; Reba Hayden will play the beautiful "Bird of Paradise," and has some choice birdlike notes to display; Louise Sammons will do the oriental features; Mildred Winney will star as "The Melody Man;" Mary Johnson and Marjorie Simpson have a clever little doll act and Mildred, Winnie and Percis Davis have some special duo dances of their own.

Mr. Omar's Khayyam harem will certainly be one beautiful vision of color, dance and song, says his manager.
