PRESENTATION

---

We herewith hand the citizens of Beloit our fourth annual edition of the Hand-Book of Beloit

During the past year the growth of the city has been steady and satisfactory.

Very extensive additions have been made to our already great manufacturing establishments, and more are in contemplation, making the outlook for the continued prosperity and material progress of the city exceedingly gratifying.

While the population of the city has not largely increased, the close and careful census taken discloses the very important fact that the number of the unemployed has been reduced to a minimum.

On pages X and XI is presented a list of advertisers, which includes those enterprising business men whose generous co-operation with the publishers makes the publication of this Hand-Book possible.

Thanking the people of Beloit for courtesies shown in the preparation of this work,

We remain, very truly,

W. F. McCABE & CO.

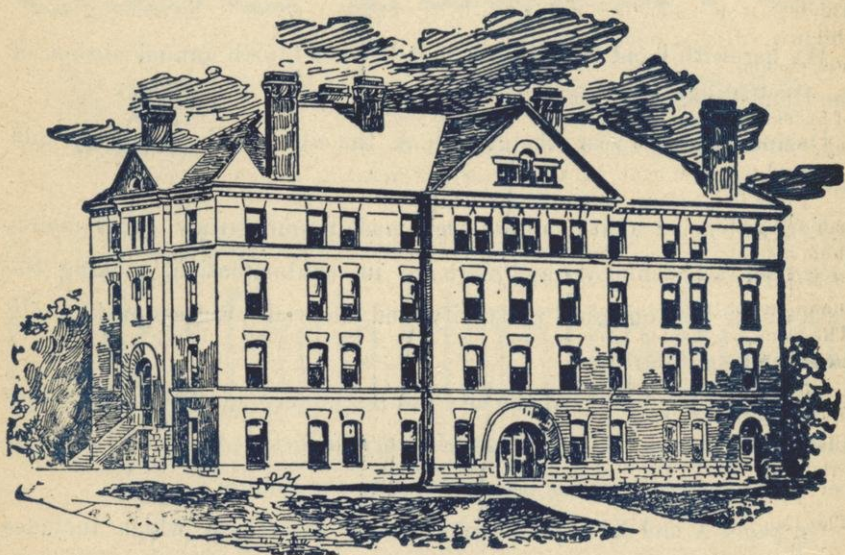

Beloit, September, 1892.

HISTORICAL.

The city of Beloit has attained the age of fifty-six years. After the Mound-Builders and the Indians, came the white man, the way having been cleared by the Blackhawk war.

The first white man to live on the site of Beloit was a French Canadian, Joseph Thiebeau, (his name is variously spelled), who had two Indian wives and several children. His log house stood just about where the office of the Keeler Lumber Co. now stands.

Caleb Blodgett was the first real settler. He was here exploring with one or two of his sons as early as May, 1836. Through the latter half of that year he was farming, building, and getting ready for his family, who came in December. His house stood on the river bank, back of where J. B. Gordon's store now stands.

From Colebrook, N. H., about that time, "The New England Emigrating Company" sent out Dr. Horace White, Robert P. Crane, and Otis P. Bicknell, to find them a suitable place. Dr. White, as financial agent, bought for the Company a part of Mr. Blodgett's claim; it became the "east side" of the future Beloit. The other members of the Company came scattering along through that year and the next. The Company began housekeeping in Thiebeau's log house. Their fame led many steady and high-minded people to cast in their lot with them.

They set up a sawmill, which cut its first boards in April, 1837; these made a floor for the Blodgett cabin. The first death in the community was that of Horace Clark, Dec. 2d, 1837, the interment being made in what is now the City Green. The grist mill began grinding, and the first store was built in 1838.

The post-office for the first year was Chicago; then Rockford; then Roscoe. The Beloit post-office was established in 1839.

The settlement was first called Turtle, but that name did not suit; then Albany, or New Albany, was proposed; the name Beloit was selected by a public meeting in the fall of 1838.

The city bridge dates from 1840, a stock company being then organized to erect a toll-bridge. Finally the village paid the bill, and the bridge was made free. This bridge brought the west side land into market.

The Rock river dam dates from 1844.

One of the earliest structures was the "Beloit House," erected where the Milwaukee railroad station now stands. State street was then called Turtle.

The Methodist church was organized as a class Dec. 27th, 1838; the First Congregational church began to be on Dec. 30th of that year. The Baptist and Episcopal churches soon followed, and in due time the rest.

In 1844 began the conventions that resulted in the organization of the College. Middle College was begun in 1846; the first instruction was given Nov. 4th, 1847.

The village became a city in 1856.

WATER SUPPLY.—The city of Beloit has one of the finest water supplies in the country, which is remarkable for its medicinal qualities and its purity. The source of supply is evidently the same as that of Waukesha, Palmyra and other notable Wisconsin waters in this part of the State. The water is supplied by innumerable springs bubbling up in the bottom of a huge well 30 feet in diameter and 40 feet deep. It is so clear and colorless that a cut glass when filled to the brim looks no different than an empty glass of the same style, and the great pureness of the water is demonstrated by heating the residue, which does not change its color.

We give below the chemical analysis of the water made by Prof E G Smith of Beloit College who is an acknowledged authority on these matters.

ANALYSIS.

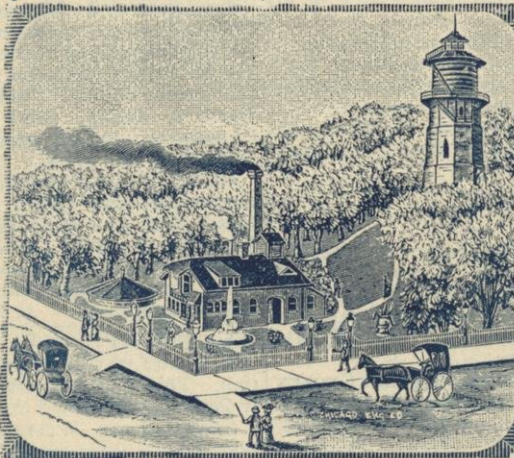

- 1.—SOLIDS.
 Volatile Residue...2.8 grains per gal.
 Fixed Residue...12.6 “ “
 Total Residue...15.4 “ “
- 2.—AMMONIA.
 Free Ammonia.....000,000,01
 Albuminoid Ammonia...000,000,025
- 3.—OXYGEN CONSUMED.

 “ 30 “ .....000,000,2
 “ 60 “ .....000,000,5
 “ 10 “ Boiling...000,000,7
- 4.—CHLORINE.....000,002,2
- 5.—NITRITES.....none
- 6.—NITRATES.....none

- 7.—HARDNESS (Clarke's Scale).
 Temporary.....12.7 Degrees
 Permanent.....5.9 “
 Total.....18.6 “

8. OTHER DATA.—Residue unchanged in color on heating.

INTERPRETATION OF RESULTS:—The low amount of Free Ammonia, Albuminoid Ammonia, Oxygen Consumed, and Chlorine; the absence of Nitrites and Nitrates; and finally the Physical properties indicate an almost absolute freedom from organic matters. (2) The Hardness is about the average of our surface waters. (3) The results of the analysis show this water to rank among the very best city supplies.

Signed, ERASTUS G SMITH, Ph. D.

The grounds of the Water Works occupy about five acres on the East bluff of the city. The water tower, nearly 100 feet high, is built of stone and is the finest and largest piece of stone masonry of the kind in the West. The tower sustains a large cypress tank, holding 100,000 gallons of water, which is kept full at all times, day and night, and gives from its own head 60 pounds pressure to the business portion of the city. The pump gives a direct pressure of 125 pounds when required for fire purposes. The city has over nine miles of water mains and eighty fire hydrants, thus giving splendid fire protection as well as beautiful and healthful water for domestic purposes.

Fact!

The path that leads to a Loaf of Bread
 Winds through the Swamps of Toil;
 And the path that leads to a Suit of Clothes
 Goes through a flowerless soil.
 And the paths that lead to the Loaf of Bread
 And the Suit of Clothes are hard to tread.
 —Yankee Blade.

Stated Monthly Meeting of Directors, 4th Friday of each Month.

Annual Meeting, for election of officers, 3d Friday in November.

This Association offers advantages both to the stockholder and borrower second to none. It pays a larger percentage on the investment than any other banking institution, and gives to the borrower who builds himself a home such low rate of interest that when his stock matures he realizes that a home has practically been given him for simply the rentals he otherwise would have paid.

Any one who can save 50 cents a month can become a member of the Association, and be a sharer in its mutual benefits and profits, and can in time save, and own a home.

Stock in the Association can be purchased and applications for Loans be made of the Secretary, at his office every day, (Sundays excepted,) and any information relative to the working details of the Association will be cheerfully given. Call on or address,

E. S. GREENE, Secretary.

The high standing and well known business integrity of the officers of the Association are a sufficient guaranty that its affairs will be conducted upon a safe and reliable basis.

Some go to the mountains,
 And some to the sea,
 And some stay at home
 'Neath their own fig tree
 And I'm a mosquito,
 So happy and free,
 With nothing to do,
 But to do them all three—
 And you bet
 I will.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU—This Bureau is maintained by the College Y M C A and forms a very convenient and successful medium through which students desiring employment for their spare time may secure suitable work. No commissions are charged, and those wishing to avail themselves of its advantages should hand their name, together with the kind of work desired, to the Secretary, C M Mayne, Chapin Hall.

Y M C A—The Beloit College Young Men's Christian Association grew out of a Missionary Society which was formerly organized in 1849. Any student of good moral character may be elected associate member by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting.

ORATORICAL CONTEST—All members of the Archaean Union are members of the Wisconsin State Oratorical Association and of the Inter-State Oratorical Association. Eight speakers from the Senior class are elected for the Home Contest; the two winners represent Beloit College at the State Contest; the winner in this contest represents the state at the Inter-State Contest.

Truth and justice are eternal,
Born with loveliness and light;
Secret wrongs shall never prosper
While there is a sunny right;
Truth, whose world-wide voice is singing
Boundless love to you and me,
Counts oppression with its titles
But as pebbles in the sea.

—Bacon.

"Christianity, with its revelations of God and unfading glories to come, assures us of recognition and reunion with friends hereafter. The soul wakes up in the future world, or passes into it as it passes from one city to another, with as little interruption of its faculties—retaining personality, intellect, emotion, will, the real manhood. Multitudes there stand waiting to receive us expecting our arrival."—Rev. Dr. W. Morley Punshon

STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE.

EXPLANATORY.—Beloit is numbered according to the Germantown plan, with 20 feet as the unit of measure.

All streets running north and south, count from the State line, with the even numbers on the west side of the street. The first block begins with 100, the second 200, the third with 300, etc., increasing by 100 with each succeeding block; but Bushnell street and Bridge street form a correction line, which corrects to 600.

All streets running east and west, count eastward and westward from Fifth street, with the even numbers on the south side of the street. The correction lines in passing eastward are Pleasant street, correcting to 500, and Park avenue, correcting to 900. In passing westward, Bluff street corrects to 300; Eighth street to 700, and Hackett street to 900.

On streets which cross Fifth street, "w" is annexed to the number of each house west of Fifth street, thus: St. Paul's Church, 102 w Bridge.

Seven or eight of them were talking in the court house the other day about the best position in which to sleep. "I lie on my face," said one. "I lie on my back," said another. "I lie on my left side," said a third, and so on until it reached an old fellow writing at a desk. "It doesn't make any difference to me how I lie," said he, without dropping his work, "I'm a lawyer."

Exchange.
 Twin echoes from "Erinside."

Ministers, I find, are liable to be misunderstood in their pulpit utterances like a clergyman who, one Sunday, announced that during the week he should endeavor to visit all members of his congregation living on a certain street, and hoped to find all the ladies at home. He said that in the past he had been unable to see the servants, "and in the future I hope I may be given an opportunity to embrace the servant girls."

A husband called the new nurse "birdie,"
A trifle which was doubtless true;
His wife, who happened to hear him say it,
Opened the door, and the "birdie" flew!

There is no arbitrary tribunal beyond this earth, where every one shall stand to be judged by some positive power, individualized and intelligent; but there is a tribunal erected in every soul, and if any one supposes that this will be more merciful and less exacting than the arbitrary tribunal that you have been taught of by old theology, called the judgment-seat of God, then he is very much mistaken.—Pierpont.

An Arab Proverb

Says that there are four kinds of men, namely :

1. He who knows not, and knows not he knows not. He is a fool. Shun him.
2. He who knows not, and knows he knows not. He is asleep. Wake him.
3. He who knows, and knows not he knows.
 He is ignorant. Instruct him.
4. He who knows, and knows he knows. He is wise. Follow him.

HARRY M. HAYS

A good story comes to us from Australia, of an English ecclesiastic, lately deceased. He was a Justice of the Peace, and presiding one day at a country police court, he observed that a certain witness, apparently with a view of escaping all risk of perjury, held the Bible in such fashion that when the oath was administered his lips came in contact with his thumb-nail instead of "Kissing the book." "Witness," sternly exclaimed the lynx-eyed judiciary, "kiss that book, sir. You may deceive the Almighty, but you cannot deceive ME!" This, says The Harbinger, caps the currently reported story about one of the esteemed ministers of the "Australian Church," who, in the course of his sermon, said: "It is stated by Christ, and there is some wisdom in the observation."

Twin echoes from "Erinside."

Among the noblest in the land,
 Though he may count himself the least,
 That man I honor and revere,
 Who, without favor, without fear,
 In the great city dares to stand
 The friend of every friendless beast.
 —Longfellow.

If I were able, I would change the public sentiment so radically that no girl should be considered well-educated, no matter what her accomplishments, until she had learned a trade, a business, a vocation, or a profession.—Mary A. Livermore.

Twin echoes from "Erinside,"

A TANGLE.—A sleeper is one who sleeps. A sleeper is that in which the sleeper sleeps. A sleeper is that on which the sleeper which carries the sleeper while he sleeps runs. Therefore, while the sleeper sleeps in the sleeper the sleeper carries the sleeper over the sleeper under the sleeper until the sleeper which carries the sleeper jumps off the sleeper and wakes the sleeper in the sleeper by striking the sleeper under the sleeper and there is no longer any sleeper sleeping in the sleeper on the sleeper.

Rejoice in the days of your youth, when the light is sweet, and it is a pleasant thing for the eyes to behold the sun; let your hearts cheer for you in these days of sunshine and nights of starlight, and "remove anger from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh," remembering "the days of darkness, for they shall be many!" And the firelight that will come to glow upon the hearth, and dance in warmth and tenderness upon the walls of your heart's chambers in those days, will be the light you are storing away now.
 —Robert J. Burdette.

Twin echoes from "Erinside,"

"Evolution, instead of teaching Jesus as an impossible kind of being—neither man nor God—teaches that he was the highest manifestation of the religious life on the earth—the divine in the human—the religious crown of the race up to this hour; God in man, reaching up from beneath, instead of God outside of man, reaching down from above"—Rev. M. J. Savage.

Peace and Love.

"Peace will finally come; and while royalty may grow weak and genius totter, love will some day triumph and rule the world."—Rev. Phillips Brooks.

Twin echoes from "Erinside."

For right is right, since God is God,
And right the day must win;
To doubt would be disloyalty;
To falter would be sin.—G. S. Faber.

"The one thing constant, the one peak that rises above all clouds, the one window in which the light forever burns, the one star that darkness cannot quench, is woman's love. This one fact justifies the existence and the perpetuation of the human race."—Ingersoll.

Twin echoes from "Erinside."

"The man that hath no music in himself,
Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds
Is fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils;
The motions of his spirit are dull as night
And his affections dark as Erebus:
Let no such man be trusted. Mark the Music."

"You look sad, Birdie; what's the matter?" were the words addressed to Birdie McAginipin by her friend Mollie Squeers, as they met on Manhattan avenue. "I'm not feeling well." "Are you sick?" "No, I'm not precisely sick; but I feel tired and overworked." "Do tell me all about it." "Well, you see our colored cook is sick and now poor mother has to do all the cooking and scrubbing and washing and ironing, and it makes me feel so tired to see the old creature, she is so slow."—Real Life.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men
 Which taken at the flood, leads on to fortune;
 Omitted, all the voyage of their life
 Is bound in shallows, and in miseries.
 On such a full sea are we now afloat;
 And we must take the current when it serves,
 Or lose our ventures."—Shakespeare.

Twin echoes from "Erinside."

A learned man has said that the hardest words to pronounce in the English language are: "I made a mistake." When Frederick the Great wrote to the Senate: "I have just lost a battle, and it's my own fault," Goldsmith said: "His confession shows more greatness than his victories."

Twin echoes from "Erinside"

In professing to be a Christian, I profess a desire to imitate Christ—to live a divine life, and do all that is possible to help and uplift all around me. This is not limitation, it is expansion. To object to Christianity in this sense, for fear of limiting our own transcendent genius and love, seems as rational as to object to the sky through which comes our light, for fear it might come into rude contact with our uplifted heads.”
—Prof. J. R. Buchanan.

Three million women in the United States earn their own living. Four thousand four hundred branches of gainful occupations are now open to "wage-earners." Twenty-five years from now we shall have the joy of eliminating that expression from the language. The only wage will be character then, and co-operation will be the method of every-day living.—Frances E Willard.

"I denounce the word, "female," and pronounce upon it the anathema marantha of the white ribboners. As used in current speech it applies equally to a hen and to the mother of Abraham Lincoln. Let a woman be called a woman and if I had the power a statute should declare it."—
Frances E Willard.

Twin echoes from "Erinside."

"They say in France that Paris is the paradise of woman. If so, there is a more blissful place than paradise; there is another word to invent to give an idea of the social position enjoyed by American ladies. If I had to be born again and I might choose my sex and my birthplace, I would shout at the top of my voice: "Oh, make me an American woman!"—Max O'Rell.

"No gentleman, no superior would libel me and no inferior could."—Horace Greeley.

Twin echoes from "Erinside."

It is an utterly low view of business which regards it as only a means of getting a living. A man's business is his part of the world's work, his share of the great activities which render society possible. He may like it or dislike it, but it is work, and, as such, requires application, self-denial, discipline.—Common Sense.

It doesn't pay to do much talking
 When you're mad enough to choke,
 Because the word that stings the deepest
 Is the one that's never spoke,
 Let the other fellow wrangle
 Till the storm has blown away,
 Then he'll do a heap of thinking
 'Bout the things you didn't say.

"Women are better than men; their hearts are more unreservedly given; in the web of their lives sorrow is inextricably woven with the greatest joys; self sacrifice is part of their natures, and at the behest of love and maternity they walk willingly and joyously down to the very gates of death." —Ingersoll.

"Nature has wisely arranged matters so that a man can neither pat his own back nor kick himself.—Ec

And what a pity nature didn't go a little farther and so arrange that a man couldn't slander his brother man?

Twin echoes from "Erinside."

Two Men.

Nothing bothered Mr. Jones
 When things went wrong;
 He didn't waste his time in groans,
 But kept along
 The even tenor of his way,
 Till things came right;
 And he is up in Heaven to-day
 Where all is bright.
 But Mr. Smith would stew and fret,
 And make a fuss
 Whenever anything would get
 Into a muss;
 He didn't climb the heavenly way
 Where angels dwell;
 And where he is, his friends, they say,
 Don't like to tell.

—Daily Smiler.

Don't measure a man by the length of his funeral procession. A lone hearse often contains the remains of a very decent man.—Boston Post.

Twin echoes from "Erinside."

A cheerful temper joined with innocence will make beauty attractive, knowledge delightful, and wit good-natured. It will lighten sickness, poverty and affliction, convert ignorance into an amiable simplicity, and render deformity itself agreeable.

"Individuality, like the eagle's flight, has its loneliness; it has its solitude; it must tread a path no other human feet have trod; it must swing in an orbit in which no other human planet has moved, leaping forth from the mighty fountains of existence. Like the mountain stream it must thread its own way to the sea, and there empty its treasures into the infinite ocean of life."—A. B. French.

"In earth, air and sky we read a glorious destiny for man—with him a divine selfhood capable of infinite unfoldment. Though in a physical sense we die daily, the wheel of time is continually crushing the monuments of our ideals; the roses fade from our cheeks and our locks become whitened by cares and disappointments, still eternity is ours in which to measure, analyze and treasure up the golden lessons of life."—A. B. French.

Twin echoes from "Erinside."

"A creed is a very poor test of character. A man may be very orthodox in his belief and very heterodox in his life. Mr. Brockway tells me that I cannot find in the world outside any men more orthodox in their creeds than some of the men in the Elmira Reformatory."

—Lyman Abbott.

"The door of the church should swing both ways on its hinges. It should be easy for men to come in; and if they find they have made a mistake, or we find they have made a mistake, it should be easy for them to go out. The church of to-day is quite too much like a labor union into which men are coerced by threats of peril hereafter."—Lyman Abbott.

If we work upon marble it will perish ; if we work upon brass time will efface it ; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust ; but if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbue them with right principles, with the just fear of God and love of our fellow men, we engrave on those tablets something which will brighten to all eternity.—Daniel Webster.

"Faith is the very heroism and enterprise of intellect. Faith is not a passivity, but a faculty. Faith is power, the material of effect. Faith is a kind of winged intellect. The great workmen of history have been men who believed like giants."
