VIEWS OF THE GYMNASIUM.

WAIT! WAIT! WAIT!

THE SHOW IS BUT HALF OVER

The Concert is a lot better than it might be.

Professor "Billy" Huels of the Madison Conservatory of Fine Arts presents his famous Concert Troupe which lines up as follows, i. e.; viz.; namely, to wit, thus:

Mon. Bradford—Champion club swinger of two wards in lightening, kaleidoscopic, manipulations of illuminated Indian Clubs. A dazzling blaze of blinding light.

Only and Original Florodora Sextette—Six bewitching beauties. Count em! Six!! List to them whilst they hammer away at a song or two.

Signor Eddi—Prince of hypnotists. In a phenomenal, eddying, unexplainable, performance. Assisted by his omnivorous Shaghetti chewers of the Sahara.

Mlle Alexia Bass—The budding, blushing, bewitchingly beautiful bare-o'-tone from Boston. Will lisp little, lithsome, loving, lonesome lyrics.

Herr Hans Hoffman—Hans vil eggsplanashun already yet once ein joke or doo mit some touches py natshure vot vil make der whole world grin. Yah!

Quarrelsome Quartette—Cream of Creatore's combined concert company. They will chloroform countless comic musical selections all over sixty years of age.

Professor Weld will exhibit his intensely interesting aggregation of illustrated songs. STAND BACK! STAND BACK! They are wild and fierce. Beware their fangs.

Grand Finale—The entire troupe will appear in a superb Hurrah Chorus. A mighty, merry, matchless, massive medley and magnificient, monstrous and marvelous mixture of martial magnetic and majestic music and meritricious, mirthful melancholy-killing merriment.
