TEAMS NAMED FOR MEMORIAL FUND CANVASS

Union Board Members Act as Captains for $100,000 Drive

The campus organization for the Memorial fund drive to be launched here Monday is progressing rapidly. Teams have been named and organized and are ready to commence the canvass of university students immediately after the Monday massmeeting. The following zone captains have been chosen from members of Union board: Ronald B. Ramsey, Loring Hammond, John H. Draper, Richard H. Tyrell, Lawrence W. Hall, Alfred D. Hotton, Dale M. Merrick, and Alfred H. Taylor.

A meeting of all the workers will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 at the Union building, at which time final instructions will be given all canvassers.

Classes Dismissed for Convocation

The campaign committee has already received pledges of support from practically all the student organizations. The university quota is $100,000. In order that the student body may do its share in supporting this undertaking, it will be necessary for every student to pledge $24, to be paid within two years.

The all-university mass-meeting on Monday afternoon will be the biggest one of the year. The convocation is set for 3:30 in the armory, and all classes will be dismissed at that hour. A live program has been planned, and some of the best speakers of the alumni and other prominent men of the state will be there to help launch this drive. The complete program will be announced later.

GYMNASIAT FRAT PLEDGES FOUR MEN

At its annual banquet and business meeting last night Gamma Sigma, honorary gymnastic fraternity, pledged the following men: Merrill E. Hanson, Loyal Kletzien, Frank Kubosch, and Walter Torth.

Although only this year recognized by the student senate Gamma Sigma dates back to the days when Schlatter, Nelson, Deming and McChesney held high gymnastic honors at Wisconsin. The aim of the honorary fraternity is to furnish a goal for prospective gymnasts in order to stimulate a wider interest in the sport.

The freshmen material this year was of such exceptional quality as to warrant the election of three yearlings. Membership is restricted to men who have won numerals, "W", or "G. W. T's", and have shown finished work in dual meets.

HORSE SHOW TICKETS

Tickets for the horse show are now on sale at the following places: Hook Brothers Music store, Morgan's, Badger Pharmacy, and University Pharmacy.

DEBATE STARS WHO CLOSE BADGER ARGUMENTS IN TWO MEETS FRIDAY

HAROLD M. GROVES

LERoy J. BURLINGAME

Two of Wisconsin's premier debaters will close the inter-collegiate debates against Minnesota at Madison and Ohio State at Columbus tomorrow night.

Harold M. Groves, '19, Lodi, is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa, Artus, and Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensics fraternity, White Spades and Iron Cross. In 1917 he represented Wisconsin in the Hamilton Oratorical contest at Chicago and the next year was the Badger representative in the Northern Oratorical league contest at Michigan. He closed his undergraduate career as president of the senior class, a commencement orator, and a Cardinal editorialist. In addition, in his undergraduate days, he served on the student senate, the Forensics board, as president of Hesperiia, and on three inter-collegiate debating teams. Groves will close against the Gophers in the debate at Music hall tomorrow night, immediately after the Chicago game.

Leroy Burlingame, '18, Madison, who will close against the Buckeyes, has represented Wisconsin in five inter-collegiate debates which have carried him from California to New York. His record recently resulted in his being elected a Rhodes scholar. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Delta Sigma Rho, White Spades, Chi Phi, and Iron Cross.

In 1917 he represented Wisconsin in the Hamilton Oratorical contest at Chicago and the next year was the Badger representative in the Northern Oratorical league contest at Michigan. He closed his undergraduate career as president of the senior class, a commencement orator and a Cardinal editorialist.

Although both are graduate students, Groves and Burlingame have been premitted to take part in these debates because debating activities were suspended here for the past two years on account of the war.

BIGGEST CROWD AT LAST GAME

First Day of Seat Sale Disposes of Most of Tickets

The largest crowd of the season will pack the armory Friday night for the final basketball game between Chicago and Wisconsin, if the first day's sale of tickets is any indication.

From the moment the sale began at 2:30 yesterday afternoon until the close at 5 o'clock there was a continuous line in front of the ticket window and practically all of the 75 cent seats and most of the $1.00 ones were sold by 5 o'clock. This means that coupon holders must hurry if they are to secure seats in exchange for their coupons, for the 50 cent tickets will doubtless be all gone by noon today.

Coach Lowman let the regulars off with an easy workout last night but put the seconds through a stiff scrimmage with the freshmen. It

Well, Well, Watson— This is Far From Being Clear

Tea dancing "Scotty" and "Shorty" Barr, all in one sentence—and, better still, all in one afternoon! Can you picture that? We almost got ready to admit that there "ain't no such animal"—the thing is, you'll agree, "theoretically non-existent," but this time theory doesn't work, because it's true—every word.

Yes, boys and girls, "Scotty" and "Shorty" have deserted the ranks of the stalwart, manly rough-necks and joined the low-collared tea hounds. From football to tea dancing and matinee jazz! It's the sad, sad truth. The scene of the fateful backsliding, is the Candy shop—they're going to do it in the real way, you see—and the day is March 27 and the time somewhere between noon and sunset—the orthodox hour for the hot house plants to bloom.

Picture, then, the scene all set and "Scotty" and "Shorty" and the rest of the bunch that we had more faith in—you know, the firm, faithful, brawny heroes—all dressed up and set to go. Why, there's even a rumor that in spite of the matinee hour the antique dress suits

SCHEDULE FOR HIGH SCHOOL TOURNEY OUT

Games Start Thursday Instead of Friday as First Planned

The schedule and entries for the basketball games of the state high school tournament to be held on the armory floor Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of next week have been announced by the athletic department in accordance with the final drawings made yesterday afternoon.

The winners of the nine sectional tournaments held at the normal schools last week who will compete in the first state championship meet ever held in Madison are: Madison, La Crosse, Menominee, Superior, Stevens Point, Racine, Platteville, Neenah, and Eau Claire.

Games Start Thursday

Because of the number of contests to be played the first games will be held Thursday evening, March 18, instead of Friday, as originally planned. On that night at 7:15 Superior and Menominee will clash and one hour later, at 8:15, Madison and Stevens Point will meet. The schedule games for Friday will be played in the afternoon between La Crosse and Monroe at 2:30 and Eau Claire and Racine at 3:30. It may be necessary to schedule at least one game of the semifinals Friday night because of the full schedule of final games to be played off Saturday.

Because there are an odd number of teams entered, the schedule for the Neenah five cannot be determined until the first day's games are played, and the winners of those games will draw for the right to play the odd team. The winners and losers of Thursday's and Friday's games will play in the semifinals and finals on Saturday, on which day games will have to be played in the morning, afternoon, and evening. This will make it necessary for the winning teams to play two games in one day.

First Tourney for Wisconsin

This year will be the first that Wisconsin has had charge of a state basketball tournament. The tournament was for several years held at Lawrence college, where the entered teams were invited and not selected by virtue of their championship of a certain district.

Later the normal schools of the state took charge of the tournament and picked teams according to merit, but found that the financial end of such an undertaking was more than they had bargained for and were forced to give up the plan. It was then that the university authorities agreed to take over the tournament with the intention of making it an annual event.

Committees in charge of the entertainment of the high school players, who will be the guests of the university for three days, are planning many forms of amusement. Fraternities who wish to entertain men during their visit should notify "A" Spafford by calling B. 191, as quickly as possible.

GYMNASIUM

WE suppose you thought—if you gave the matter any thought—that the faculty had handed us the royal raspberry. But we mean to say, you know, they did no such thing. And now that spring is almost here—merrily sing lykelle—we are moved to shatter our slothful shackles and burst into print again. It serves you right. Turn over and read the editorials.

The following couldn't be helped:

SPRING

Come, let us tune our gay and festive lyre,
For spring has come, and we are fain to sing,
Our blood is quickened and our footsteps spryer;
Ah, gentle spring!

With shouts of joy we cast aside our heavies,
And from the closet drag our lightest suit;
In festive garb the Wrens go by in bevvies,
Gosh—aren't they cute!

In garments new they troop up to their classes,
—The air is full of strange, seductive smells,
The engineers break out—the silly asses—
In violent yells.

As up the Hill the fair co-eds are flocking
We note the absence of the gross galosh,
And in its place peeps forth the silken stocking.
O Gee! O Gosh!

The lake will soon be open for canoeing,
And full of giggles—pianissimo;
Beware, oh man, it leads to your undoing,
(Full well we know.)

And couples touched with spring's sweet necromancy Depart for Picnic Point or Maple Bluff,
And oh, the Drive! what scenes, what sights—(we fancy We've said enough.)

Ah spring, sweet spring!—thy joys pass comprehension,
In valleys now the streams begin to gush,
The city streets are warm (but did I mention
The melting slush?)

So let us tune our gay and festive lyre,
For spring (Ka-chee) has come, and we must sing;
Our—(Woof!—that's twice we've sneezed, or we're a liar,
Oh, damn the Spring!

YOU can say what you will, but as long as we live in a cheerless world where a bock-beer sign is impossible, we can't recognize the existence of spring at all.

NOT even when the sororities start putting up their porch swings, One W. Foster Clifford, who used to infest these columns, was wont to regard the Gamma Phi porch swing as the first real sign of spring, and he used to make poems about it too—with lines like "Merrily sing, tra la!" but we don't dare to do that.

And having mentioned the—read above.....once, we can't do it again. But if we could, which we can't, we would like to ask what that Ga—that stationery with a certain sorority name on it, and a handy fountain pen laid on top, is doing in the Camera-Craft window. Is it a new rushing stunt?

NOW to be fair, we must mention some of the others. The Alpha Phis went to the Grand Sunday night (dear me!) and sat in the top row of the coop. One of them kicked us, but we suppose it was accidental. The Kappas are digging a new trench. Scouts report the Spring offensive as most formidable. The Pi Phis live so darned far off we can't get any reliable news about them, but probably those Breyley girls are up to something or other. The Thetas must have some trained glow-worms, although it seems a bit early for them, but anyhow, our correspondent says he has seen little points of light on their fire escape. The D. G's were serenaded the other night. This is more than enough.

The Internal Femme

MOST of the young things who went up to Jake Jastrow's lecture Tuesday afternoon when they might have been gargling malted milks were frightfully disappointed. He didn't tell them how to read character at all—and he compared women to monkeys.

IF you are not one of that hardy tribe of which Burdette Kinne is a charter member, you now have a chance to doff your Sylvas. Our advice is—don't. This is a frightfully unreliable month.

HOWEVER, that new feminine fashion of which we spake last Fall may be expected to be much in evidence—er, no we don't mean that—to be much in existence, these balmy days.

The rumors that Carl Russell F. will ride a Percheron in the horse show are persistently denied at headquarters.

And we believe that this story to the effect that Dean Nardin will do a song and dance in Union Vodvil is somewhat exaggerated.

BUT speaking of dances, we were smitten with amazement to learn that Shorty Barr is to be present at a tea dance on the 27th. And we are filled with curiosity as to what organization is standing sponsor for the aforesaid hop. Somebody said it was the Phi Bettas, but we asked Pansy Hammond and he denied it. So did Bill Hoard. So it can't be anything intellectual.

THE chap who took the catcher's mitt from the Gym still seems to be avoiding trouble.

WE read the Fuller advertisement, and rise to state that if any female wants to take us to the show, we're as willin' as Barkis ever was. Please state age, give references, and mention sal—no, that doesn't belong here.

HENRY the Hypochondriac says, "One swallow may not make a summer, but it would be an awful lot of help."

AS the Ancient Mariner said, "Water, water, everywhere, but who in hell cares?"

WE'VE often smoked the Camp bells. Now we're gonna join 'em.

FOR President—Valentine Blatz!

BRIDES BID FOR CLASS IN HOME DECORATION

Beloit and Kenosha now have group classes in home decoration and furnishing each consisting of between 30 and 40 women and merchants who meet once a week, for six weeks. They were organized this week by the University Extension division. The class in Kenosha was requested by several brides. These classes are similar to those held in Plymouth, Sparta, and La Crosse last fall and in Stoughton, Watertown, Fort Atkinson, Milwaukee, and Madison in previous years. They are conducted in response to the growing demand by housewives for education along house decoration lines.

BONUS STUDENT DOES THE BEST

Beats the Regular Student in Colleges and Schools throughout State

The soldier bonus students at the university in the engineering college are doing much better work than the regular students.

E. A. Fitzpatrick, secretary of the State Board of Education, in making public this report said: "From reports received from other schools and colleges, the soldier bonus students have done remarkably well and have settled down to the day to day work with greater earnestness and very evidently "with more than average success."

Dean Phillips' report to Major Fitzpatrick says in part:

"The percentage of grades below 70 in regular freshman mathematics is less than one-half the percentage of grades below 70 received by regular students. This same relation exists in sub-freshman mathematics.

"In topographical engineering none of the bonus students received conditions or failures, while approximately ten percent of the regular students received grades below 70.

"The percentage of failures received by bonus students in English is only about three-fourths the percentage of failures received by regular students.

"You may also be interested in knowing that one of the bonus students secured 42 grade points. If this student continues to earn as many grade points per credit as he received at the end of the first semester, he will be entitled to high honors at graduation.

The number of students who have applied for the educational bonus now numbers very close to 5,000. The number of students taking correspondence instruction is about 2,000 and 8 classes in evening school instruction have been organized.

Enter the Horsehair; Latest Style of Bow Tie

That nifty neckwear need not necessitate the needless and worthless neoteric knots which the modern beau brummel seems to take such a ghastly delight in is the sound conviction of the style editor of one of our exchanges.

It cannot be gainsaid that the craze has also hit our noble institution of higher learning. The run on shoestrings is appalling. Now it's "down to Nick's for a couple of new cordovan neckties." The bow tie has suffered diminution in direct proportion to the four-in-hand. If you wanna be ultra bitter hide 'em under your collar.

Did the women think the dignified male was dozing when they cut the bottoms off their skirts and the tops off their shoes and threw their hats away? Our dandies of neckwear have showed 'em. Rumor has it that a big, husky, black horse hair is going to be the meanest cravat on the hill for the Easter season.

The only possible explanation for this awful capitulation to the invisible necktie is that our artistic temperaments, formerly signified by the billowing Windsor, have been so dulled by being deprived of that elixir of life which stimulated abnormally the poetic, the harmonious, and the beautiful in our former great masters, that memories of said Windsor and of all other neck adornments of legitimate size were buried with J. B. Let us sit tight and see what effect the rejuvenation of our 2.5 per cent will have on the mania.

CURTISS DESIGNS NEW WATER "SCOOTER" WHICH IS DRIVEN BY AIRPLANE ENGINE

Glenn Curtiss, famous airplane designer, has invented a new type of low draft boat which is propelled by an air propeller driven by an airplane engine. The motor is of a 400 horse power. The "Scooter," as he has named the craft, is fifty feet long, with a ten-foot beam. It has a draft of only three inches when running and eight inches when anchored. It makes fifty miles an hour. A roomy cabin accommodates ten persons and there is ample deck fore and aft for fishing or harpooning. The boat has been tried out at Miami, Fla.

PYTHIA SOCIETY TO HOLD "OPEN HOUSE" FOR EVERY CO-ED

Tryouts, Limited to 15, Expected to Report Friday Night

For practically the first time in the history of the society the meeting of Pythia Friday night will be open to all university women.

The change in ruling has been made to give those who expect to try out for Pythia next week a chance to see what the society is like, and to give the members of the society a chance to see what those who try out are like.

Tryouts will be limited to the first 15 applicants and all those who intend to try out are asked to attend the meeting Friday night.

Lydia Lacy, junior in the College of Letters and Science, is chairman of the tryout committee.

Subject matter for the tryouts may be anything of a musical, literary or forensic nature, but should be limited to three or four minutes.

will be unsheathed from their casings of tissue papers and moth-proof bags and athletic shoulders will be squeezed painfully into the conventional "soup and fish." But we don't want to be quoted on that, remember! Anyway, real tea bound habiliments will be in order. And when everybody gets there—then you'll see and hear the real surprise that's better even than "Scotty" and "Shorty" executing some unexpected stunts—the attraction of the day—Smith's Orchestra.

Real jazz is more than enough to run the ancient sirens a close second, and "Scotty" and "Shorty" and all the rest of the crowd haven't a thing on the helpless fishermen. For Smith's famous orchestra is real, bed-rock, first-class inspiration in the way of jazz. It comes from Louisville, Kentucky, and they're the ones that make the Victor dance records.

But the deep, bottomless mystery about this is—what's the student activity that has lured "Scotty" and "Shorty" into such an exhibition as a tea dance? Will you kindly go over the list of secret organizations, Watson?

HOUSE O. K.'S PEACE TIME ARMY BILL

Dent Says Army Organization Should be Up to Congress

WASHINGTON—An authorized peace time army of 289,000 enlisted men and 17,820 officers was approved today by the house, which by a vote of 79 to 25 refused to amend the army reorganization bill so as to fix the maximum strength at 226,000 men and 14,200 officers.

The amendment, offered by Rep. Dent, Alabama, a democratic member of the military committee, also proposed that the tactical organization of the army be specified by congress instead of being left to the discretion of the president. House action on the amendment though not final, was regarded by supporters of the measure as virtually settling the future authorized strength of the army.

GET CHICAGO

WISCONSIN and Chicago end the basketball season in the final fight tomorrow night.

To vanquish the Maroons and avenge an earlier defeat is the Badger aim. Coach Page's five has the conference title cinched, but the ever keen Wisconsin-Chicago rivalry will put sharp edges on the combat.

The Badger basketeers have fought through a hard season and will finish in the first division. Wisconsin's record is fully as good as that of any team but Chicago's. Honors have been divided with those old rivals, Minnesota, Iowa, and Michigan. Ohio State has been beaten twice. The Cardinal tossers can close the season with flying colors by downing the Maroons tomorrow night.

The strongest support of the year must be behind the Badgers tomorrow night. The armory must be packed and the crowd should be on hand promptly at 7:15 when the starting whistle blows.

The early start is necessary because of the inter-college debate with Minnesota to be held at Music hall immediately after the game.

The team needs real spirit behind it tomorrow night. Be there! Be on time! You can help make the last game a victory.

TO PROVE BADGER LOYALTY

NEXT week every student will help make Wisconsin history. The greatest project in the life of the university will be launched Monday at the massmeeting, when the drive for the Memorial Union building will begin.

The ideal to be expressed by the Memorial Union building is to erect a worthy memorial to the men and women of Wisconsin who offered themselves unreservedly in their country's service, and to provide a union building which will serve adequately the needs of the men of the university. The Memorial Union building will express in concrete form our deep gratitude and love for Wisconsin's hero's, men and women, and provide on a broad-visioned scale for the students of today and tomorrow.

Our alumni are backing the campaign with heart and soul. Their quota is $900,000, nine-tenths of the total amount to be secured. The alumni in Chicago alone are raising $100,000. A strong organization which will reach every alumnus in the country is ready for action. The alumni will be as successful in this as in former services for their alma mater.

They are looking to the students for energetic co-operation. The drive is for a common worthy goal. The alumni are bearing the heaviest brunt of the campaign. They expect the students to perform their part with equal enthusiasm.

The student quota has been placed at $100,000. In order to reach this goal and push the university drive across the line, it will be necessary for every student to pledge $24. This sum seems surprisingly small when the great benefits which the Memorial Union building will bring to Wisconsin are considered. The difficulty of a subscription of this amount is reduced to a minimum by the provision which allows two years in which to pay. Your share is $24 in 24 months, $1 a month, in Wisconsin's great enterprise.

In the words of a faculty man: "The fate of the entire campaign depends upon the support that the university students give this drive." If the students do their share by raising their modest quota, our loyal alumni can be relied on for the balance of the fund.

The strategic point, the key to the situation, on which depends victory or defeat, is the university. Students must insure the success of the campaign by pushing the university drive over the top.

Students can show the alumni that the real, fighting Wisconsin spirit is still alive and strong. By pushing the total subscriptions beyond the quota, students will honor Wisconsin's heroes, share in building a greater university, and join to the efforts of the alumni an equal enthusiasm in the common cause. The response must be commensurate with the opportunity.

Hall will address the members.

PROTEST AGAINST "MY DEAR"
To the Editor of The Cardinal:

As a Wisconsin co-ed, I wish to protest against the publication in the Wisconsin Literary Magazine, so-called, of the story "My Dear," by Mr. Burdette Kinne.

The story is an insult to Wisconsin women, one of the most crude and vulgar expositions of supposed sarcasm and wit which I have yet seen. It is unfair and libelous in the extreme. It holds forth what are purported to be typical Wisconsin women to the ridicule of the world. I repeat, it is vile, contemptible, an insult to the women of the university.

Why the publishers of the magazine should have seen fit to accept such a mess of dribble is utterly incomprehensible. By publishing it, they become parties to the insult, with Mr. Kinne. If the women of the university do not resent being maligned in such a vicious manner, they are indeed a spineless lot. What should be demanded, concurredly, is an apology from Mr. Kinne and the magazine staff.

WIRELESS SENDS WEATHER REPORT DAILY TO FARMS

University Service Carries More Than 500 Miles to Stations

The sending of daily weather reports by wireless to Wisconsin farmers and others was started last week by the physics department in co-operation with the U. S. weather bureau stationed on the campus. During the first week, the reports were sent out only by wireless telegraph, but within a few days will be sent both by wireless telegraph and by wireless telephone.

The report is sent daily between 9:50 and 10 a. m. and is the official weather report released at 9:30. It may be received by anyone who has a wireless telegraph or telephone receiving set tuned to the proper wave-length. Inquiries received by the department indicate that many will receive the report for, by that method, they may get it almost 12 hours earlier than by mail.

The wireless telegraph service will be sent out on about 1,000-meter wave length and will carry more than 500 miles. The wireless telephone service will be sent out on a 1300-meter wave length and will carry about 100 miles. No code will be required for the telephone service.

He is the rabbi in Temple Shalom in Chicago.

The Jewish Students' association was organized to furnish Jewish services of a type adapted to students. The organization has grown steadily in attendance and interest since its beginning last November.

BONNET PLEASES MADISON HEARER IN TWO CONCERTS

Varied and Well Balanced Numbers Feature of Organist's Programs

By Walter K. Schwinn

Joseph Bonnet, in his two Madison appearances has proven his supremacy of the organ, and last night's recital at the Presbyterian church was a demonstration of his superb mastery of that instrument. His playing most nearly approaches artistic perfection of any organist that has yet appeared here.

The program was varied and well balanced, giving Bonnet ample opportunity to display his versatility. The church was a demonstration of his power, bringing every choir of the instrument into use to gain his effects. His brilliant technique made the piece a masterful interpretation. Schumann's sketch in F minor was very sympathetically given. The quiet, sustained passages were played with remarkable sweetness and clarity, every theme being given its requisite strength.

In Frescobaldi's Toccata per l'Elvezione Bonnet played the rhythmic swing with excellent feeling. His touch gives to his playing a delicacy at times almost fragile, which was especially noticeable in Martini's Gavotte and in his own Berceuse. To the former selection, Bonnet was forced to give two encores, Romance Sans Paroles and Elves, both by himself. Bonnet's compositions are harmonious, graceful bits of music, especially adapted for organ work and his own style of performance.

Bonnet closed his recital with Guilmant's Funeral March and Song of the Seraphs, a symphonic poem in modern style. This was given in an excellent manner, much attention being given the interpretation of the themes. Widor's brilliant Toccata was the last number scheduled, but the enthusiastic audience insisted on an extra selection, Mr. Bonnet playing his own Concert Variations.

Organist Wants a Bath When He Hears Jazz

"Jazz is disgusting; one feels the need of a bath when one hears it." This is Mr. Joseph Bonnet's opinion of syncopated dance music. "It is not music; it is noise. When it is not music; it is noise. When the American people have been educated to appreciate real music, they will not listen to jazz."

"When an Englishman comes to the United States he cannot enjoy a baseball game because he cannot understand what the players do. He might think that the audience as well as the team were mentally unbalanced."

"The language of music is universal; a Frenchman or an American can realize its inspiration if he will study its language. The American people are very musical. I like to play for them because they are so quiet during the concert; they listen with so much interest."

"You say that Americans do not care for classical music? At Denver I played before ten thousand people. They were not all musicians and yet they encored, calling for another selection by Bach."

"Jazz music! It is disgusting."

LAST GAME DRAWS BIGGEST CROWD

was the last parctice of the season for the first year men, and practically the last for the varsity.

Chicago is the only team which the Badgers have not beaten, having divided evenly with every other team but Ohio State whom they defeated twice, and Wisconsin fans are hoping for a return of the style of game which defeated Illinois and ruined the hopes of that team for a championship.

The lineup which Coach Lowman will start against the Maroons is uncertain, in view of the change made in the Ohio game when Frogner started in place of Caesar, who has been playing a regular position for some time.

American expeditionary forces remaining in France gathered recently in the beautiful cathedral at Bordeaux to honor the memory of the thousands of U. S. boys who fell in the war. Civilians, many of them relatives of some of the dead heroes, attended the services.

German Papers Again Received In The Library

Foreign periodicals, including magazines from Germany, are again being received at the university library, and the sets are being filled in. The periodicals that are in the library now were published in 1919, and received here the first part of this year. They include La Petite Journal and Le Temp, French magazines; Archiv Fur Die Gesamte Psychologie, and Beiblatter Zu Die Annaen Der Physik, German periodicals, and The British Journal of Psychophysics.

The library is also buying scientific books from various foreign countries including Germany. These may be obtained cheaply now because of the low rate of exchange. The books, however, are slow in reaching this country.

At Ann Arbor, Too.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—After an absence of nearly six years, current German periodicals are again to be found on the shelves of the university library. Since the signing of the armistice more than 5,000 magazines have been received, some coming in complete volumes ready to be bound immediately, and today Michigan stands second among the libraries of the country in respect to the completeness of her German files.

ENGINEERS HEAR TWO SPEAKERS

Short talks, one by Earl Rice on "Power Distribution in the University," and another by Mr. Garvey, representative of the Western Electric company on "Opportunities with the Company," took up the greater part of the American Institute of Electric Engineers' program last night in the engineering auditorium. A get-together session, during which doughnuts and cider were served, followed the talks.

MURDOCK AGAIN HOCKEY CAPTAIN

At a meeting of the Wisconsin Hockey club in the Y. M. C. A. last night, J. L. Murdock was elected to succeed himself as captain of the Hockey team and Theodore McQuaid was elected manager. Much interest was reported in college hockey and a big schedule was arranged for next year. Hockey is to be incorporated, the same as other intramural sports, so that it will count toward the Nelson trophy.

NOMINEES FOR S. G. A. OFFICES ANNOUNCED

Women Will Adopt Point
System to Regulate Activities

Candidates for offices in S. G. A. for next year have been announced. Two nominees for each office were chosen by the members of S. G. A. executive council and the other two were nominated at large by the women of the university. Inasmuch as this organization is personally close to all women, it is expected that student interest will be aroused and that all women will be out to vote at the election which will be held one week prior to that date. The nominees for the various offices are:

President—Marie Bodden, Hazel Wright, Frances Dummer, and Helen Harper.

Vice president—Marguerite Croxkey, Virginia Conklin, Eleanor Riley, and Hildegard Wipperman.

Secretary—Dorothy Jones, Janet Epstein, Gladys Haskins, and Marion Strassburger.

Treasurer—Rachel Commons, Isabelle Capps, Mabel Gregg, and Esther Haven.

Census chairman—Kathryn Tunstall, Cleo Parsley, Ruth Reid, and Romaine Barryman.

The woman who is census chairman of S. G. A. is in charge of the point system which regulates the extent to which individual women can participate in campus activities. Through the efforts of S. G. A. board and Keystone, composed of the heads of all women's organizations, the point system has been recently revised. Hazel Wright, present census chairman, is in entire charge of the project and will have the detailed system ready for operation next fall.

By the system a certain aggregate number of points will be allowed juniors and seniors and a smaller number allotted to the two lower classes. The presidents and heads of the major offices for women in the university will be entitled to a number of points proportionate to the importance of the office. All memberships on standing committees are eligible for points. Temporary committees are not to be taken into account, for the system must be kept simple enough to handle easily.

By this method a record of every woman who has ever engaged in any activity is recorded and may be consulted to determine her eligibility for office. A woman who is ineligible will not be allowed to be nominated.

The need for such a system has been demonstrated in elections where it has been found that a few names are invariably repeated in nominations. Many universities and colleges, including Vassar, have employed similar systems successfully.

Spring elections for the other women's organizations on the campus will follow after the officers for S. G. A., Y. W. C. A., and W. A. A. have been elected. W. A. A. has already had its elections and the other two will follow within the next few weeks.

DR. ROBINSON TO SPEAK AT FIRST FELLOWSHIP MEET

Dr. Robinson received his doctor's degree in philosophy at Harvard. During the war he was a chaplain in the navy stationed at Boston. After the talk there will follow a discussion of the subject at which time questions will be answered by Dr. Robinson.

DRAMA ACT FEATURE OF JOINT LIT PARTY

"Shading on the melodramatic movie," is the way the manager describes the dramatic act to be put on jointly by Philomathia and Pythia literary societies at their annual joint party Saturday evening.

Besides this interesting development, there will be dancing, games, and plenty of "good eats," so that everyone will be suited. This party is always known to be one of the peppiest events of the season, and this year's is expected to break all precedents in that direction.

Philomathia's part in the affair is to be managed by Anthony Pesch, and Pythia's by Vira Winchell. Marguerite Schulz has charge of the dramatic program. Plans for the program will be discussed by the societies at their regular meetings Friday night.
