L.D.S. CHURCH- BELFRY THEATRE

It may be of interest to those who attend the plays at Belfry Theatre to know something of the history of the building.

The building was built in 1888 by members of the Reorganized Church of Jesus of the Latter Day Saints. Three years before the congregation was formed at the Anthony DeLap home on the corner of what is now STH 50 and Elkhorn Road.

The settlement included several families which had come from Hancock County, Illinois, where in 1838, the entire following of Joseph Smith had settled and founded the cities of Nauvoo and Plano. Others had come from near Burlington, Wis. where Strang had founded a similar sect.

Chas. Burr, one of the members was the architect and supervised the construction while the group of 40 members gave liberally of their means and time for its building.

Some of the members during its existence as given by Mrs. Paul DeLap, wife of a grandson of Anthony were: Henry Southwick, who gave the land and his wife; Mr. and Mrs. A. DeLap; Mr. Burr, wife and daughter, Stella; Albert Hare and wife; Willis Mc Dowell and wife; Lester Williams and wife; Gene Gaylord, wife and daughter, Daisy; Fred Ball and wife, Frank Ball and wife; Albert DeLap and wife; Mrs. Squires, mother of Mrs. Mc Dowell; Ed. Williams.

The church prospered and took in many members, the first to be received being Mrs. Emma C. DeLap. However in 1930 the membership had dwindled to just a few, due to so many having moved away and the church was closed and title to the property given to the main body with offices in Independence, Mo.

The sect believes thoroughly in the Bible and in Jesus and except for its organization and the belief in the Book of Mormon could feel at home in other church groups.

Joseph Smith claimed and submitted proof sworn to by several that in 1823 an angel visited him and again in 1827, this time to reveal to him the bible of the Western continent. Though written on gold plates and bound together with gold rings in a strange language, he was able to translate it with the aid of the Urim and Thummin which accompanied it and thus write the "Book of Mormon" which he published in 1830.

Dissensions arose in the group of followers over the question of polygamous marriages and many of them broke away and formed an independent body. This local group being followers of the new sect, which still believes that Joseph Smith did not countenance the plural marriages and point out that the Book of Mormon contains strong denunciations of polygamy.

Joseph and his brother Hyrum were shot to death in Carthage, the county seat of Hancock County on the night of June 27, 1844.

The group believe in the power of healing by the laying on of hands by the Saints and that today as of old the Lord is revealing himself to his followers and that it is possible to be a prophet and tell of God's will to men.

It is to Mr. and Mrs. George Hotton that the idea of using the abandoned building for a place to hold the practices for the plays came one day in passing the building and through Mrs. Paul DeLap taking the matter up with the home office in Independence, Mo. a lease has been secured.

Some day the Belfry Players vision the possibility of owning the land and building.

The Belfry Players deserve the support of the community and last night, tonight and Saturday night are giving a play entitled, "Saturday's Children" by Maxwell Anderson, written up last week.

LADIES NIGHT AT MEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING

The Men's Community Club will hold its next meeting at the College Camp Dining Room at 6.30 p.m. Tuesday, August 6th.

The committee on arrangements: F.M. Van Epps, F. A. Anderson and Eric J. Werner, has met with Mr. Robert R. Vernon, Business Manager of George Williams College and perfected arrangements.

The Camp will furnish the dinner for 50¢ per plate and will also arrange with Mr. Paul Mc Mains to furnish the musical numbers on the program.

The Committee agreed that the president of the Community Club, William H. Freytag, who has spoken throughout the County to many business men's meetings should be the speaker of the evening.

Representatives of the subdivisions, which have organizations, will make brief statements.

The meeting will be informal and one of good fellowship. All members and their ladies and the men of the subdivisions and their ladies are invited to attend.

Tickets can be secured from the committee or the Club secretary, Alfred Hotton.

Frazier Hunt, globe trotter author and reporter, on his 14,000 mile coast-to-coast tour-"Listening to America," has this to say of a visit made to this part of the State when he attended the banquet last Spring given by the Lions Club at Walworth., which was also attended by many of Williams Bays' merchants and professional men., there being about 400 men in attendance from the surrounding communities., and at this banquet, the speaker was President Glen Frawley of the State University. Frazier Hunt says-Quote"-While Frank talked I watched the faces of his country audience. I challenge New York City or Chicago or San Francisco or any other American city to bring together a more intelligent, shrewd, level-headed bunch of men than these Wisconsin farmers and small town business and professional men. If we had 20 million more like them our worries would be over."

SCOUT JAMBOREE

The Boy Scouts of this region who intend to participate in the National Jamboree at Washington, D.C. later in the month, meet this week end at the local Scout cabin. Most of these boys will come from Beloit bringing their camping equipment. Earl Rice, Scout Executive, will give them the necessary instructions to prepare them for the coming great adventure. From the latest reports it appears that nearly 30,000 Scouts and leaders will gather in the national capital from Aug. 21 to 31.

Williams Bay will be represented by William Horvath, Carl Cable Bjorge and Edwin Van Biesbroeck, who will find their leader, Blair Plimpton in Washington.

The local Troop which has kept active during the summer under the leadership of Roy Johnson, was disappointed last week to find that someone had broken into the cabin and borrowed the gasoline lantern that lights the meetings. Would not the borrower have the heart to return the lantern to the boys? After helping with the expense of their delegates to Washington, their funds are too low for replacing the missing light.

Wisconsin policy holders and beneficiaries were paid $53,200,000 by life insurance companies in 1934.

FIREMEN'S CARNIVAL A REAL SUCCESS CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD, RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO. Telephone 166-W-2

A visitor at the Firemen's Carnival which was held on last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, remarked that the firemen must have consulted with the Yerkes Observatory faculty regarding the weather in selecting dates for the Carnival., but whoever picked the dates could not have done better as conditions were just right all three days.

Good weather, excellent attractions and loyal workers, backed by a sympathetic community, as well as scores of visitors from neighboring communities, helped in making the carnival even better than last year.

The playing of the local band was appreciated Friday night, and it is the wishes of many that the band might be heard oftener. How about it? the parade of the Delavan Drum and Bugle Corps on Saturday evening drew applause. They made an inspiring sight in their marching and drill work.

The barrel fights went over big. Lake Geneva team won over Fontana the first night. On Sunday Afternoon Delavan Lake was downed by Walworth. Whitewater tried to beat Walworth Team but couldnt make it. Lake Geneva won over Walworth and carried home the trophy, a silver cup, donated by W.S. Darley of Cedar Point Park, to keep until a better team wins it. The cup is now being proudly displayed in the window of Bucknall's Store for Men, Lake Geneva. The names of the members of the winning team are-Carl Hass, Jack Hicks and Lloyd Kayes.

As an added attraction, a Whitewater team challenged Lake Geneva Team for a real water fight but didnt succeed in winning. Hats off to Lake Geneva.

Frank Vavra, the treasurer of the firemen's Association, hasnt all the returns as yet. A complete report will be made at the regular meeting in August, but it is under-

Monday night the "PICKUPS" and Bob Burton's Team played off one of the most exciting games of the season. It was not the case of a baseball game but it was also in the form of a trial, both sides retaining attorneys and Mr. Zabler, umpire for the judge. It was finally decided not to count the two FORCED IN RUNS and the score ended 4 and 4. Tonight (Thurs) The tie will be played off and the winner take both games.

WALWORTH COUNTY FAIR

Horse race fans are beginning to look forward to the opening of the Walworth County Fair on Labor Day, and horsemen who are now training their horses on the track in Elkhorn promise to keep up the standard of the Fair. Some of the best horses in the State are now stabled in Elkhorn and are trained daily on the track of the Fair grounds.

Because of the fact that approximately one hundred have been training on the track at the Fair grounds this summer, it is in the best of condition. The entry list of more than one hundred fifty for the 94th Walworth Co. Fair shows the best racing blood that could be exhibited in one show. Owners of race horses state that they bring their best horses to the Walworth County Fair because of the large purses and good racing conditions.

SOME MORE TALL HOLLYHOCKS

The following Wms Bay residents report some tall ones of the pretty colored plants-Mrs. Rudolph Johnson, 10 ft. 6in. Carl Siems, 10 ft., 6 in., Frank Ludwig, 10 ft., 6 in., Mrs. Gina Jensen, 9 ft., 5 in., Mrs. Clara Gramley, 9 ft., 5 in.,. The tallest one reported is from the gardens of Will Davis on the Walworth Road is over 12 feet.

A well informed botanist of Williams Bay has informed us that if the growers will cut off the stalks of the plants after they have blossomed and that if the Fall season should be a long one, the plants might bloom the second time this season.

ELBORN RASMUSSEN WINS "CHANGE OF VENUE"

Elborn Rasmussen, indicted for the murder of Peter Checowskee has through his attorney, Clarence Darrow, (Arthur Pederson) won a change of venue. He will be tried in the Court of Chief Justice Lawrence Hollister instead of before Judge Malcolm Stenstrom. Prosecuting Attorney Robert M. La Follette (Bob Mockenhaupt) fought the change, but so far the defense has won a point. As the weeks roll quickly by to the time for the great trial, the interest has reached a fever heat., almost matched by the 90' in the shade in Chicago and it has been decided to have guest editorial writers to cover the trial. Walter Winchell- (Eugene Johnson), will cover the trial in his own inimitable manner Will Rogers (Harold Hansen) will also give the "dope" in the good old Rogers "fashion".

Tickets are on sale this week and a contest will be staged between the boys and girls, men and women. The boy or girl bringing in the largest number of sales will win a prize. Mrs. Man Biesbroeck and Carl Bjorge are in charge of the tickets.

The jury which is being impaneled this week will appear in costume and will provide a real surprise at the trial. Also the children of the prisoner are being chosen.

The Costume Committee composed of Gladys Peterson, Mrs. Karen Steele, Mrs. V. Keiser, Mrs. Lou Hennes and Mrs. George Hotton, are reporting splendid progress toward the costumes and offers from people to loan costumes. We are however, still needing a Spanish sash, a clown suit, another tall hat, some more fancy dresses and some skins for Tarzan. Anyone having these items, please notify Gladys Peterson. We are also in need of a moicicle for George Arliss.

TRIAL OF ELBORN RASMUSSEN (Con't)

Johnson) Clara Bow-Gene Raymond-Guila Grimm-Granville Williams) Mary Pickford, Clark Gable (Marjorie Bjeck. W. Horvath) Polly Moran-Cab Calloway (P. Johnson-E. Mochenhaupt) Mae West-Gary Cooper-(Jesse Hennes-H. Williams.
