The thirtieth edition of the Wisconsin State University Conference Directory and Records Book is dedicated to retiring WSUC Sports Information Director, Tom Butler, who has provided outstanding sports coverage for our conference for the past 29 years. It is with our deepest appreciation for his many years as an advocate of the conference that we dedicate this edition to him.

TOM BUTLER, WSUC SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR

Tom Butler joined the WSUC staff part-time May 1, 1967, to assist the Commissioner with the dissemination of sports information. The Madison native graduated from East High School in 1942.

Following three years in the Navy during World War II, he received a B.A. degree in journalism from the UW-Madison in January of 1950. After working as sports editor of the Stevens Point Daily Journal and the Daily Jefferson County Union (Fort Atkinson), Butler joined the Wisconsin State Journal as a sports writer February 1, 1953. He retired from the State Journal June 30, 1987. He covered practically every Badger athletic team at one time or another and wrote a regular sports column for 26 years. He was voted Wisconsin Sports Writer of the Year in 1964 and 1965.

Butler is the author of "The Badger Game," a reflection on UW-Madison football from Mickey McGuire to Al Toon. The book recounts highlights from some 55 years of Badger football and includes stories about many of the great teams and players during that span. Butler covered Badger football as his principal "beat" at the State Journal for 25 years. His job with the WSUC ended June 30, 1996.

1996-97 DIRECTORY AND RECORDS BOOK

The Wisconsin State University Conference presents this 30th edition of the Directory and Records Book as a means of informing educators, writers, broadcasters and staff of the excellence of athletic competition displayed by teams and individual student-athletes of member institutions. This book is published annually to provide a record of all sports in the conference-sponsored program.

It is the function of the Wisconsin State University Conference to encourage intercollegiate athletics on an amateur basis, with institutional control, and under the instruction of coaches who have faculty status, in order to assure maximum educational benefit from intercollegiate athletic contests among the member institutions.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM

The University of Wisconsin System marks its twenty-fifth anniversary in the fall of 1996. The UW System was created in October 1971, by a law placing all of the state's public university campuses under a single Board of Regents. The UW System is composed of 13 universities and 13 two-year UW Centers, and UW-Extension which provides outreach services from offices in every county. Although only 24 years old, the UW System was one of the first statewide higher educational systems in the nation and has pioneered in developing coordinated and high quality programs and services on a statewide basis. System administrative offices are in Madison.

Universities are at Eau Claire, Green Bay, La Crosse, Madison, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Kenosha (Parkside), Platteville, River Falls, Stevens Point, Menomonie (Stout), Superior and Whitewater. Centers are at Baraboo, Fond du Lac, Janesville, Manitowoc, Marinette, Marshfield, Menasha, Rice Lake, Richland Center, Sheboygan, Waukesha, Wausau, and West Bend.

DR. GARY KARNER, COMMISSIONER OF ATHLETICS

Gary F. Karner, a native of the Milwaukee area, was named commissioner of the newly merged Wisconsin State University Conference and Wisconsin Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, effective July 15, 1996.

Karner came to the WSUC-WWIAC office in Madison from the National Collegiate Athletic Association headquarters in Overland Park, Kansas, where he had served as a compliance services representative since 1988.

Karner's background in athletics includes strong ties to Wisconsin. He was born in Brown Deer and graduated from high school there in 1971. He received his undergraduate degree in education from UW-Stevens Point in 1975 and a master's in educational administration from UW-Madison in 1978. While earning his doctorate in educational administration at UW-Madison he served as an intern in the division of intercollegiate athletics (1982-83) and was an administrative assistant in the WSUC office in Madison during 1983-84.

The new commissioner taught and coached at North Fond du Lac (1975-1977) and at Waunakee (1977-79). He was an assistant district administrator at Woodruff from 1979-82. Athletics were not part of his assignment at Woodruff, although he remained active as an official in several sports.

After completing his doctorate in 1984 Karner served as district director of athletics/activities in Woodland Park, Colorado, until joining the NCAA staff.

DON PAGE, WSUC SUPERVISOR OF OFFICIALS

Don Page retired as UW-River Falls athletic director in 1992 following a varied career in athletics as a player, coach, administrator and official. The Madison native starred in five sports at West High School (football, basketball, tennis, track and volleyball) and went on to win letters in basketball and tennis at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

He earned All-Big Eight Conference honors in football and basketball twice when the Regents won titles in each sport both years. He won the conference basketball scoring championship twice and sparked West to the WIAA state basketball championship in 1945. He also won the Big Eight tennis singles championship twice.

Page earned his Bachelor's degree from the UW-Madison in 1950 and his Master's from there in 1953. While an undergraduate he was a regular forward on the 1949-50 Badger basketball team that compiled a 17-5 record and finished second in the Big Ten Conference.

Following coaching stints at Edgerton and Madison West High Schools, Page was head basketball, baseball and tennis coach at UW-River Falls and served as the university's athletic director from 1970 to 1992.

Page was a football official from 1949 to 1993 and officiated basketball from 1949 until 1982. He taught two officiating classes at UW-River Falls for 30 years and served as an official observer of football and basketball officials in the WSUC for 22 years.

He developed the "Football Course Outline" for the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association and is a member of the National Federation Interscholastic Officials Association. He recently received "Distinguished Service Awards" from the Wisconsin High School Football Coaches Association, the National Federation of Interscholastic Coaches Association, and the Pierce/St. Croix Officials Association. He was inducted into the Madison Sports Hall of Fame in 1988.

Page is probably the only person in Wisconsin history to play (1945 champions), coach (1957 runnerup) and officiate (1968, '70, '72, '73, '74) in the WIAA State High School Boys Basketball Tournament.

He also officiated the first WIAA Class A Girls Basketball Championship game in 1976 and has worked Shrine All-Star and State High School Football Playoffs.

NCAA DIVISION III NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

PREVIEW OF 1996 WSUC FOOTBALL SEASON

When WSUC coaches met at St. Norbert College in the summer of 1995, they picked La Crosse to win the championship that fall almost to a man. In fact, Stevens Point coach John Miech said at that time, "Coaches got together and decided to let Roger (Harring) win so he retires. And, I'm talking about the national championship. Win it all and get out of here!"

Well, Harring, the dean of WSUC coaches, did just that. He led his Eagles to the NCAA Division III title but he's still around. He didn't "get out of here," and rival coaches will have to put up with him again in '96. Last year Harring was the only coach who balked at labeling La Crosse the favorite. It appears as if that's the case again, if preseason comments from rival coaches are any indication.

"Stevens Point, Whitewater and River Falls are all chasing La Crosse," said Falcon coach John O'Grady. "La Crosse will win again with a great defense." And, he asked rhetorically, "Can anyone score enough to beat La Crosse?" Last season the Eagles outscored seven conference opponents, 247-55.

The biggest job facing Harring at the outset will be to find a replacement for all-world quarterback Craig Kusick. The Eagles possess quality players on offense to complement the new signal-caller, including tackle Erik Halverson and wide receiver Troy Harcey. And, they always seem to start in good field position, thanks to return specialist John Barrett.

O'Grady touts La Crosse's defense and the foundation of that unit centers around tackle Michael Ivey, linebacker Mike Maslowski and Ryan Goodno in the secondary. These three along with Halverson, Harcey and Barrett were all-conference last year.

Miech and Terry Owens surveyed the situation from Stevens Point and concluded, "La Crosse, Stevens Point, River Falls and Whitewater will again separate themselves from the rest of the pack. Who is left standing from among those four will earn it." Kicking could be the key in some games and Miech features punter Erik Berendsen and placekicker Fred Galecke, both all-conference last year.

"Taking our performance to the next level," is the aim of Whitewater coach Bob Berezowitz. He has a pair of all-WSUC performers in running back Eddie McKennie and offensive line standout Derrick Levake, who also is a heavyweight wrestling all-American.

River Falls starts its quest for the Falcons' first title since 1987 with Woody Fangmeier in the defensive line and all-purpose back Craig Boen, both all-conference in '95. Platteville coach Jim Kinder will build his offensive line around Troy Bonlander. The coach says, "A lot of younger and inexperienced players will have the opportunity to make their mark this season."

Oshkosh starts its 102nd year of football with optimism and one of the best pass receivers in the conference in Rob Stoltz. Eau Claire's new coach Bob Nielson wants mainly to establish a winning attitude, and Stout coach Ed Meierkort plans some offensive changes. "We want more of a San Francisco 49ers/Green Bay Packers look offensively rather than a (Wisconsin) Badgers look," he said.

So, Kinder summed up what other coaches were thinking with this succinct comment: "Nothing new here. La Crosse is the team to beat. River Falls, Stevens Point and Whitewater will challenge."

PROSPECTS FOR 1996

Establishing a winning attitude will be one of the goals for first-year coach Bob Nielson during the 1996 season. The Blugolds have won just three games in the past two years and have not enjoyed a winning campaign since the 1989 team went 7-3. Nielson brings to the program a 48-22-1 record in seven seasons as head coach at Ripon College and Wartburg College.

The new coach inherits 39 lettermen from last year's 1-9 team, including 17 on offense, 20 on defense and two kicking specialists. Four players who started all 10 games on offense, including three lettermen, are back along with seven players who started five or more games on defense. He says his No. 1 priority is establishing a sound defense that will play consistently and aggressively.

The Blugold defense allowed 26.1 points and 385 yards total offense per game last season. Only three times all season did they limit an opponent to less than 20 points. Nielson hopes to build a quality defense with the foundation of veteran linemen Joe Frenkel, Pete Vacho, Sam McMahon and Scott Eades with Matt Vinopal, Geoff Zernicke, Jon Schueller and Steve Crutchley in the secondary. Schueller and Crutchley were shifted from offense last year but may return to that side of the ball to take advantage of their speed.

Jim Hoffmann returns at quarterback and Nielson figures to adapt the offense to his abilities. The Menomonie senior threw 12 touchdown passes last season and had only six passes intercepted in 293 attempts. The Blugolds lose their top two receivers but return leading rusher Chad Hoiska, who gained 463 yards and scored seven touchdowns. The line will be anchored by two-year starter Ted Solberg at center flanked by guards Eric Sharp and Aaron Hank.

Nielson thinks he will have some talented skill position players but will be looking to "find a way to give them space to operate." He wants the offense to take advantage of scoring opportunities. Confidence will be the key. The Blugolds converted just 32 percent of third down situations last season compared with 42 percent for their opponents.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996

Roger Harring has 28 years under his belt as head coach at La Crosse, three national championships and the healthy respect of opponents across the country as well as throughout the WSUC. The Eagles won all 14 games they played last season and claimed their second NCAA Division III title in four years.

Gone from that group, though, are quarterback Craig Kusick, the Division III player of the year, running back Trevor Rogers, fullback Jason Tarkowski and defensive back Craig Driessen, along with several other standouts from last year's unbeaten team. The offensive backfield must be rebuilt from scratch and much work lies ahead to bolster an extremely thin secondary.

The cupboard isn't exactly bare. Some outstanding veterans return, including offensive tackle Erik Halverson, center Chris Schultz, all purpose back John Barrett, wide receiver Troy Harcey and defensive tackles Michael Ivey and Dan Kloepping. The Eagles return eight starters from a defensive unit that ranked sixth in the nation last season in scoring defense.

Finding a quarterback will be a high priority item at the outset. This hasn't caused a major problem in the recent past. After Dennis Goettl left, Jason Gonnion stepped in and led conference passers two straight years. Panic didn't set in when Gonnion graduated because Kusick took over and the offense didn't miss a beat. Ryan Antony, the only returning letterman at quarterback, will get the first look in preseason drills.

The Eagles still are favored to defend their WSUC championship on the strength of the program's tradition, quality veterans manning key positions on offense and defense, a strong receiving corps and Harring's long-time cohesive coaching staff.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996

The Titans want to take the next step after finishing 5-5 last season, their best record since 1988. However, they were only 2-5 in the WSUC and coach Ron Cardo wants his team to start making an impact in the conference. Oshkosh displayed a potent offense in 1995, moving the ball an average of 361.4 yards per game. Defense poses the problem. That side of the ball was racked for 400.4 yards each outing.

Cardo greets 36 lettermen for preseason drills, including all-conference split end Rob Stoltz and sophomore quarterback Brian Tomalak, who missed the last five games in '95 with an injury. Stoltz led the Titans with 39 pass receptions and seven touchdowns last fall, while averaging 18.8 yards per catch. He needs 38 catches this season to become Oshkosh's all-time leading receiver.

Versatile Ryan Hinske returns at the other split end position and will serve as a backup to Tomalak. Starting at quarterback the last five games, Hinske completed 60 of 126 passes for 867 yards and three touchdowns. Joining Tomalak in the backfield will be sophomore running back Colyn Bruss, who came on strong late last season. Tight end Tony Church is another offensive threat. The 6-7 junior caught 19 passes for 283 yards in 1995.

The biggest question mark for the offense lies with the line. Four starters have graduated from the group that enabled the Titan rushing attack to average 194.3 yards per game last season. The only returning starter is left guard Jason Krausfeldt, a junior.

Eight starters return on defense, including strong safety Howard Spearman, who led Oshkosh with 121 tackles last season. Joining Spearman in the secondary are two other 1995 starters, free safety Todd Skarban and cornerback Justin Lotharius. Other starters returning are linebackers Greg Herlihy, Tim Gilkey and Dan Pfandler along with end Mike Washington. Also back is Mike Alioto, who does the punting and placekicking for the Titans.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996

The Pioneers are hungry to rise above the .500 mark in coach Jim Kinder's fourth season as head coach. They were 3-4 in the conference last fall, good for fifth place, and are 13-17 in Kinder's first three years at the helm. Some 37 lettermen are expected back for the 1996 season, including a dozen starters from a year ago.

The offensive line is a good place to start building and that is where the Pioneers return with the most experience. Led by 6-5, 315-pound all-conference tackle Troy Bonlander, along with guards Daryl and Russ Yurs and the team's most improved offensive player, tackle Ken Perra, the foundation appears to be solid.

Also keys to Kinder's wing-T offense will be returning running backs Dominic Caminiti and Adam Grossen. Caminiti, a senior, led the Pioneers in rushing last year with 620 yards and four touchdowns. Grossen added 222 yards on 62 attempts in '95. Forrest Paul and Jason Skurkay will be bidding to start at quarterback.

The front seven hold the key to Platteville's defensive fortunes. End Clark Peplinski, tackle Dowe Dornfeld and linebackers Tom McCormick and Burt Steffes were starters a year ago. The departure of all-conference linebacker Dan Fox leaves a huge void and senior Mark Mueller, a starter there for two years, is contemplating a switch to tight end on offense this season. The secondary presents some major problems.

Kinder and his staff are looking for increased productivity from Eric Newton, a dangerous return specialist and pass receiver. The junior was a workhorse in '95, leading the team with 22 punt and 28 kickoff returns. He averaged 20.7 yards on kickoff returns and is being looked at as the go-to guy in Platteville's passing attack.

The Falcons, who went to the NCAA Division III playoffs for the first time in school history last season, have 53 returning lettermen, including 24 seniors. With so many veterans coming back, coach John O'Grady is excited about the 1996 campaign. "We normally have just eight or nine seniors," he said. "Those seniors should give us leadership."

Two of those senior are 1995 all-conference players Woody Fangmeier and Craig Boen. Fangmeier, a defensive lineman, had 12 quarterback sacks and six forced fumbles last season. Boen, an all-purpose back, scored 12 touchdowns last year.

The team's strength will definitely be its defense. The unit has nine of 11 starters returning. Last year the defense forced 36 turnovers. Other top defensive players besides Fangmeier include defensive linemen John Melvin and Wade Oberpriller and defensive backs Kris Esteb and Brian Vensland.

Most of the major problems that need to be solved are on offense. First and foremost, O'Grady must find a replacement for quarterback Adam Kowles, the 1995 WSUC most valuable player. O'Grady also needs to find four new starters in the offensive line. Fullback is a concern as well.

Pat Simones is the leading candidate to replace Kowles. Simones, a senior, played well in 1995 when Kowles missed two games because of injury. Randy Johnson, who played a lot of halfback during his freshman season last year, also is expected to contend for the starting job.

Besides facing each of the WSUC opponents in a rugged conference schedule, the Falcons must contend with three NCAA Division II opponents in Southwest State, Winona State and Moorhead. This is a large order as the Falcons attempt a return trip to the playoffs.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996

Most teams would be satisfied with an 8-2 season but 1995 turned into a huge disappointment for Stevens Point's football program. Riding a school-record 12-game winning streak into mid-October, the Pointers saw their streak snapped by perennial nemesis La Crosse. No problem, NCAA post-season play was still beckoning. But, River Falls dashed those hopes in the second-to-last game of the season.

Heading into 1996, the prospects appear as bright as in any of the past three seasons, a span that has seen the Pointers go 23-7. Fueling that optimism on the offensive side of the ball is the return of lineman Joel Hornby, quarterback Tom Fitzgerald, running back Nate Harms and tight end Craig Drummy, along with punter Erik Berendsen and placekicker Fred Galecke, both all-conference performers.

Also back in addition to Harms are running backs Stan Strama, Jody Damitz and Jason Luedtke. Also, wide receivers Jose Banda and Bill Ott provide big-play ability and able targets for Fitzgerald. The line was hurt by the loss of three seniors but still returns nine veterans.

Defensively, linebackers Clint Kriewaldt and Nate Van Zeeland and defensive back Ryan Krcmar bolster a relatively young but hungry group. The line returns eight veterans. The linebacking corps, always a strength at Stevens Point, also includes starter Greg Anderson. In the secondary Krcmar and Jason Thomas stand out, with five others ready to step forward.

Add to the above-mentioned an outstanding group of new recruits and a number of talented transfers waiting to make their mark, all of which give ninth-year head coach John Miech increased reason for optimism heading into the new campaign.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996

The Blue Devils, after aiming towards a minimum of a .500 record last year, finished 3-7 overall and 1-6 in the WSUC. Coach Ed Mierkort was disappointed in the record but not in the direction of the program because of the young players he has coming back. Stout will return 36 letterwinners and is working to form a new look.

"We look to get more involved in the passing game," Meierkort said. Quarterback Forrest Schneider has graduated, so it appears that Matt Bunyan, who saw limited action last season, will battle for the starting quarterback spot with red-shirt freshmen Rick Lindus and Marty Goryl. "This quarterback spot must be resolved early, the coach said. "All three are capable and provide great athleticism and vision."

The offensive line is young but big, anchored by Jason Lehman (310 pounds), who moves to the offense from defense this year. Ben Leslie (295) and John Lippert (320) are projected as starters. Matt Heinzmann (260) is considered the lightweight of the line but Meierkort said, "I am excited about the physical size and the playing ability of our line."

Veteran Matt Doke, who caught 47 passes for 796 yards last fall, heads the receiving corps. Running back Gene Cameron and fullback Jason Bouche figure to start at those spots. Cameron averaged 4.9 yards a carry in '95 and Bouche 4.6.

Mike Olson and Andy Wickstrom anchor the defensive line and LaRue Pierce leads the linebackers. A speedy secondary is headed by Ryan Zeman, Chuck Morning and Tony Aizupura. Defensively, Stout needs to be more aggressive on third down situations, according to Meierkort. And, he wants a dramatic change in statistics that show Stout turning the ball over 25 times last year, while forcing only 13 turnovers.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996

Coach Bob Berezowitz shocked even Whitewater sports information personnel when he pondered 1996 prospects and boldly pronounced: "This could be our best team since 1990 when we won the WSUC title and played in the NCAA playoffs. We could be as good as any Division III school in our area." What ever happened to "Stagg Fears Purdue!"

Both Berezowitz statements were couched with the word "could" but a stable of returning veterans puts his Warhawks in a contending mode at the outset and he knows it. Eight starters return on offense, including all-conference performers tackle Derrick Levae and running back Eddie McKennie. Joining them are guards Sean Stout and Jeff Mathwig, tight end Matt Behrend, wide receivers Rich Newton and Jamal Patterson and fullback Ryan Schmidt.

A major problem looms on offense with the departure of last year's starting quarterback Dan Runaas. This position, of course, will be a priority item when preseason practice starts. Brian Aufdermauer, the backup last fall, and UW-Platteville transfer Ty Grovesteen will get the first snaps at the outset. But, there is a chance some newcomer might step forward and challenge for the starting job.

The defense lost all-conference lineman and most valuable Warhawk Eric Melka and the team's leading interceptor David Dodds. Developing defensive depth in another concern. Last year, when Chad Pearson went down with a knee injury, Shane Burt and Mike Mallegni stepped in without missing a beat. Berezowitz isn't confident that the Warhawks have the right players in reserve yet, ready to step in when injuries occur.

Another concern, according to the coach, is whether his charges can take the program to the "next level" as a team. Berezowitz is counting on the right team chemistry to propel the Warhawks into the season. Several redshirts and transfer could make in impact in 1996, but with 14 seniors and numerous returning starters, Berezowitz won't have to count on them as he enters the season. Their impact will be felt in specific situations right away, and some undoubtedly will move into prominent roles as the season takes its toll.

PREVIEW OF THE 1996-97 BASKETBALL SEASON
WISCONSIN STATE UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

A year ago WSUC basketball fans wondered what Platteville could do for an encore after the Pioneers went 31-0 the previous season, not only winning the conference title but capturing the NCAA Division III championship.

Well, coach Bo Ryan led his Pioneers to a repeat WSUC crown, although they faltered in postseason competition, losing to conference rival Whitewater in the opening round after knocking off the Warhawks twice during the regular season.

Actually, Platteville starts out in much better shape than last year with four starters returning, headed by Ben Hoffmann and Pete Stremlow. The Pioneers will depend heavily again on a stingy defense and their baseline-to-baseline pressure. They limited WSUC opponents to 57.5 points a game last season.

Although Platteville again figures to head the list of favorites, most observers expect to see a much more competitive race this season with Oshkosh and Whitewater the chief challengers and Stevens Point joining the wide open race along with Eau Claire. The Pointers will be under the guidance of new coach Jack Bennett. Bob Parker decided to step down as Pointer head man after last season.

Oshkosh should be able to make a strong challenge after finishing second last season under coach of the year Ted Van Dellen and compiling a 23-4 overall record, the best in school history. The Titans have four starters from that group returning, headed by all-conference Dennis Ruedinger, a first-team NCAA Division III all-American.

Whitewater will be without Allan Wassil, the conference's most valuable player last season, but among returnees is Eric Burdette, the WSUC's leading scorer in 1995-96 with a 22.6-point average. The Warhawks' 85-77 victory over Platteville in the playoffs should send Coach Dave Vander Meulen's team into the coming season with confidence it can compete with anybody in the league.

Stevens Point's new coach will find the cupboard well stocked for the coming campaign. All-conference forward Mike Paynter returns with his 15.1-point and 6.8-rebound averages, along with other 1995-96 starters Russ Austin, Curt Richardt and Brian Jauch.

Eau Claire's Terry Gibbons has a year under his belt as head coach of the Blugolds and should settle into a much more apparent comfort zone. He knows what to expect from his personnel, including, all-conference Cory Kulig, the conference's leading rebounder last season, and other starters Andy Fisher and Jeff LeClaire.

River Falls, Stout, Superior and La Crosse, who occupied the second division last season, will be facing tough odds again if returnees are any indication. La Crosse lost some tough close games in 1995-96 and if the Eagles can turn that around, they could challenge those in the top echelon. Heading returnees is 6-6 Eric Dudek, who appears ready to turn in a strong senior season.

River Falls will feature some experienced returnees but depth could be a problem. The Falcons need a strong recruiting class to shore up the bench. Coach Rick Bowen especially is looking for a shooter to replace Luke Madsen, who averaged 16.9 points a game last season, sixth best in the conference.

Superior put a much more competitive team on the floor last year under coach Jeff Kaminsky but the Yellowjackets and Stout need some talented newcomers to complement their returning players.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996-97

The Blugolds finished a highly respectable 17-7 and shared fourth place in the conference with a 9-7 record in Terry Gibbons' first year as head coach. This year they could make a serious challenge for the championship. First Gibbons must replace guard Marcus Buckley, a four-year starter and the school's all-time assist leader, and Brian Schwechel, who averaged 10.4 points and 7.9 rebounds a game last season.

Nine lettermen are back, including 1995-96 starters Cory Kulig in the post and Andy Fisher and Jeff LeClaire on the wings. Kulig made all-conference last season and led the WSUC in rebounding with 10.7 caroms a game along with his 15.6-point average. Fisher contributed 11.7 points a game while LeClaire chipped in with 10.7 points a contest.

Juniors Andy Bauschelt and John Knowles are likely to battle for the all-important point guard spot. Bauschelt has the height advantage with his 6-3 compared with Knowles' 5-10. Gibbons was reluctant to list the strengths of his club but it possibly could be overall team speed. He also said it was too early to tell what his major problem might be but conceded it could be youthfulness.

Five newcomers could figure in the mix according to Gibbons, including Nate Suhr from Watertown, Dave Mellenthin (Green Bay East), Joe Winter (Eau Claire Regis), Ben Nickols (Janesville Craig) and Andy Lerberg (Osseo, Minn.). Mellenthin and Suhr were two of the top high school scorers in the state last season and the four from Wisconsin all have state tournament experience.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996-97

The Eagles are not looking for dramatic improvement that would vault them into contenders. A .500 record would show a marked improvement over the cellar finish last season (3-13) and overall 10-14 record. La Crosse, usually top contenders in other sports, has not won a basketball championship since linking back-to-back titles in 1964 and '65.

Coach Charlie Gross and his cagers believe if the Eagles can manage to win some of the close games they lost last season, a .500 record is not out of the question. They lost a pair of games by two points and another by one point in 1995-96, along with the unfortunate forfeit to Eau Claire.

Gross starts with 12 returning lettermen, including Eric Dudek, a 6-6 senior with considerable experience. The biggest void to fill is point guard where Wes Warren has graduated after leading his team with 12.2 points a game in the conference last season.

Experience, defense and depth look like assets as the Eagles start preparations for the coming season. But, Gross is looking for a go-to-player, more rebounding, mental toughness and offensive consistency. Encouraging to the coach is that his charges displayed those attributes in victories over Oshkosh and Eau Claire last season.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996-97

Oshkosh will be bidding for its first WSUC title in 19 years after enjoying one of its best runs in school history last season. The Titans compiled a school-best 23-4 record, finished second to Platteville in the conference and snapped the Pioneers' 30-game WSUC winning streak.

Ted Van Dellen, WSUC coach of the year last season, must replace Forrest Olson, the school's fifth all-time leading scorer, and Brent Nerat, another scoring threat and rebounding force. Olson, who led the WSUC scoring in 1994-95, was a four-year starter and Nerat started the last three years.

Leading nine returning lettermen is senior guard Dennis Ruedinger, a 1996 NCAA Division III first team all-American and West Region player of the year. Ruedinger averaged 15.7 points, 4.6 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game last season on the way to his all-conference selection. He led the team in three-point field goals with 53 and converted 85 percent of his free throws.

Also back are point guard Brett Davis, Joe Imhoff, Jake Browarski and Matt Aslakson, who led the WSUC in field goal shooting last season, making 67 percent of his shots. Aaron Harding, the Titans' sixth man the past two seasons, is expected to play a bigger role in the coming campaign.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996-97

The Pioneers will be bidding for their third straight WSUC championship and fourth in five years when they tip off conference play in December. Some thought they would falter last season but a 15-1 record vaulted them to another title. Coach Bo Ryan's club could be even stronger in 1996-97.

Eight lettermen, including four starters from last season, return. Ryan's major problem will be replacing two-year starter John Paulsen at small forward. Paulsen led the Pioneers in scoring last season, averaging 15.5 points a game. Returning starters are Ben Hoffmann, Pete Stremlow, Scott Borroughs and Erik Holmgren. Hoffmann had 16.1 points and 3.2 assists in all games last season.

What makes the Pioneers conference favorites in most people's eyes is their great depth and experience heading into the coming season. Nobody expected much last year at this time because Ryan had lost seven players, including his three top scorers from the 1994 National Champions.

Defense, always a strength under Ryan, figures to be potent again. The Pioneers ranked second nationally in defensive average last season. They limited conference opponents to 57.5 points a game in 1995-96 and 57.9 in all games.

The Falcons are shooting for a first division finish after slipping to a 5-11 record last season. Contemplating the strength of the conference, coach Rick Bowen conceded he doesn't have the name players of some other teams but said, "We will be a very respectable team and hope to finish in the upper division."

Four starters return along with some quality reserves, but Luke Madsen, the conference's sixth leading scorer with a 16.9-point per game average, has graduated. Returnees include Chad Meschke, Jason Beeler, Matt Chitwood and Tony Fisher. "We are more experienced than last year, but still a young team," Bowen said.

"We have three quality players returning," Bowen added, "but we must add depth. And, we need a shooter to replace Luke Madsen. In order to move up in the WSUC standings we must address the issues of athleticism and depth."

The Falcons are looking for a consistent scorer who can deliver game in and game out. Bowen's recruiting was incomplete at this writing, but he is hoping to find immediate help. "We have just one senior," he noted. "We are deep with average talent. We will compete, but we need a good recruiting class if we are to contend."

PROSPECTS FOR 1996-97

New coach Jack Bennett will inherit 14 lettermen with the potential to contend for the WSUC title. His major problems will be solving the lack of consistent play and rebounding. Although the Pointers posted a 17-8 record last season, they did not live up to some pre-season hopes.

All-WSUC guard Brad Hintz has graduated, but forward Mike Paynter, another all-conference performer, leads the returning corps. Paynter averaged 15.1 points and 6.8 rebounds a game last season. Also back are starters Russ Austin and Curt Richardt at the guards and Brian Jauch at center.

Stevens Point partisans believe they have as much experience coming off the bench as many starting lineups in the conference. These reserves include guards Dan Denniston and Graham Diemer, forward Jim Danielson and center Bob Blessington. Also back is guard Dave Grzesk, who sat out last season with a broken wrist.

Depth, experience, scoring ability and versatility are the major pluses entering the season. But, the aforementioned lack of consistency and rebounding, as well as a true "take-charge" type of player were missing last season. The Pointers have all the ammunition on paper, but the above deficits must be corrected.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996-97

The 1995-96 season did not develop the way coach John Muraski and his Blue Devils had expected after their fine 17-8 record the previous campaign. The loss of Zak Alwin, Tuwan Clayton and Brian Fravert apparently was too great to overcome. The outlook is somewhat more optimistic heading into this season with several quality lettermen returning.

Heading that list are guard Justin Peters and forward Brad Markwell, a pair of seniors who have been major players in the Stout lineup the last three years. They finished 1-2 in team scoring last season with all-conference pick Peters averaging 18.3 points to finish second in the conference. He also was second in the conference in assists, averaging four a game.

Markwell was no slouch when it came to scoring, averaging 15.3 points overall. Joining Peters and Markwell will be Brent McCurdy, the team's top shot-blocker, and Tim Schulte, who filled the point guard spot the latter portion of last season. And, Andy Nicolet saw some quality minutes and should see more this season.

Muraski also is excited about his recruiting class and four redshirts who should be able to step in and help. "We fit in the middle of the pack unless our new people really mature," Muraski reasoned, while assessing prospects. "Outside of Peters and Markwell, we are very young."

Jeff Kaminsky starts his second season as Yellowjackets head coach after proving to WSUC opponents his team was no longer a doormat. The Yellowjackets showed their competitive nature last season by battling eventual champion Platteville before losing by five points and forcing Whitewater into overtime.

Kaminsky lost five experienced lettermen, including Atiwan Easley, who was the fifth ranked scorer in the conference last season with a 17.1 per game average. Also gone are Greg Burke, Rick Carl, Lance Nelson and Matt Ulrich. Ulrich averaged 11.5 points in the WSUC last season.

Heading the list of six returning lettermen is Dan Trippler, who averaged 14.2 points during the 1995-96 campaign. Trippler figures to start at guard when action begins in November. Another returnee expected to win a starting assignment is 6-5, 250-pound forward Frank Jerks, who could provide some inside strength.

With graduation losses quite severe, Kaminsky is hoping to find considerable help from newcomers. Recruiting received priority treatment from the second-year coach during the spring. He expects his team to be one of the most improved teams in the conference this season. The 'Jackets proved to be competitive in his first year at the helm. Now their competitiveness depends on the development of younger players and newcomers.

PROSPECTS FOR 1996-97

Following a disappointing 10-6 and third place in the WSUC last season, the Warhawks finished with a flourish. Although they lost twice to champion Platteville, 86-59 and 84-62, the Warhawks shocked the Pioneers, 85-77, in the first round of the NCAA Division III playoffs. That late surge should help as coach Dave Vander Meulen and his team prepare for the coming campaign.

Four of the five starters are back but gone is Allan Wassil, the conference's third-ranked scorer and the WSUC's most valuable player last season. Among returnees, though, is Eric Burdette, who led the conference in scoring last season with a 22.6-point average.

Other starters returning are Trent Towne, Lance Reed and Jeremy Hodges. The latter averaged 7.1 points and 5.6 rebounds in the conference last season. Vying for a starting job as practice opens will be redshirt freshman David Blackmon, who was the regular at point guard early last year before being sidelined with a knee injury.

The Warhawks again will depend heavily on Burdette, a sharpshooting guard who can carry a team if he gets into one of his hot streaks. He led the conference with 113 field goals last season, including 78 from beyond the three-point line.

Three Win National Titles

Stout's Terry Anders successfully defended his 400-meter championship and added two additional titles at the 1996 NCAA Division III outdoor track and field meet. Anders won the 200 with a time of 21.38 seconds, set a school-record :46.81 in the 400 and took the 100 in :10.53, another Stout record.

Anders, only the second man to win three Division III titles in one meet, was named Athlete of the Meet by the United States Track Coaches Association. He also ran on two Stout relay teams that placed as the Blue Devils finished fifth with 50 points. Lincoln won the team title with 61 points.

Eau Claire's Jason Slaikeu added the outdoor high jump crown to his indoor title, clearing 6 feet, 10 3/4 inches. He jumped 6-11 indoors. Anders also won the 400 indoors with a :48.33 clocking and La Crosse's Mike Schnur defended his pole vault title indoors, clearing 17-4 1/4.
