Y. W. C. A. OPENS 1ST CONFERENCE WITH INDUSTRY

Delegates Represent 5 Schools

The first Y. W. C. A. Student Industrial conference in the United States is being held here today and tomorrow.

Fourteen students and 14 industrial workers will meet together in this conference to discuss the causes of war in industry and in education. The women students represent Milwaukee normal, Milwaukee Downer, Northwestern university, Chicago university and the University of Wisconsin. The industrial workers come from Chicago, Milwaukee and Madison.

Is First Conference

This conference is the first of its kind actually to be held, although there have been tentative plans for some time. The success and accomplishments of this meeting will determine the future of such gatherings under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. in other parts of the country.

Special speakers who will address different sessions are Miss Katherine Halsey, national student secretary, Miss Anna Pyott, national industrial secretary, Miss Regina Growes and Prof. D. D. Lescohier of the economics department.

This morning talks to the whole group will be made on the general subjects and questions which the conference has been called together to discuss, namely the causes of war in industry and in education. This afternoon there will be a general discussion by all of the regular members. This evening Miss Anderson is giving a supper at her apartment, after which the discussion will be on adult education.

Program Starts Tomorrow

Tomorrow morning the program will start with devotions, afterwards there will be a technical discussion of student-industrial cooperation. The conference will close with the regular Y. W. C. A. sessions at which Miss Pyott will speak on the life work of Miss Sims, a national worker who has recently died.

This conference carries out the work done by the student industrial groups which have met at different times through out the year for discussions and interchanges of ideas. Different groups have been definitely organized. Mary Burchard '24 has been at the head of the Y. W. C. A. part of the work.

ORDER BLANKS ARE ON HAND

Mail order blanks for performances of "Kikmi" in all of the towns which will be played are on hand at the Haresfoot loft in the Union building, according to Thomas A. Tredwell '23, manager of the club.

It is the desire of the club this year, Tredwell announced, to have as many students see "Kikmi," the twenty-fifth annual production, in their home towns as can. The mail order blanks can be sent to the theaters where tickets will be served.

"Haresfoot, with its annual tour, is a widespread Wisconsin activity, and our greatest advertisement in each town is that given by students from that town," Tredwell asserted last night.

The Haresfoot office is open every day from 1:30 to 6 o'clock.

Blue stain costs the cooperage industry $800,000 a year, according to a study made by the Forest Products laboratory, Madison.

STAFF POSITIONS

Several positions as index assistants are open on the editorial staff, preferably to junior or sophomore men. Previous experience in filing or index work is desirable but not necessary. Apply at the editorial office of The Cardinal between 4:30 and 5 o'clock.

Wilson M. Cross, senior in commerce, is one of the three assistant general chairmen of the eleventh annual Military ball which will be held in the capitol on April 20. He is directing the work of special features, boxes, transportation, floor and decoration and service committees. He is a major in the cadet corps and a member of Scabbard and Blade and Delta Sigma Pi. His home is in Geneva, Indiana.

Mrs. Cross formerly from Huntington, Indiana, will be his partner. She is a freshman in Home economics.

Judging from the present large number of applications, the requests for boxes at the Military ball this year will be larger than ever before," Cross said yesterday. "We expect to adhere strictly to the policy of giving those parties making early arrangements the most desirable boxes. Therefore it will be advantageous to answer immediately the letter which will be sent out by the committee."

STUDENTS TO EDIT PAPERS

Groups in Journalism Class Take Charge For One Week

Five Wisconsin weekly newspapers will be entirely edited and published by five groups of students from the Course in Journalism, and a sixth group will assist in the editing of another paper, during the week of April 5 to 12.

The papers which will be taken over by the students are the Rice Lake Chronotype, the Burlington Standard Democrat, the Algoma Record-Herald, the Prairie du Chien Courier, and the Darlington Republican-Journal. The Chippewa Falls Herald will have the assistance of two students.

This plan of putting students of journalism in charge of papers was first tried out last year when two groups of students took over the Prairie du Chien Courier for a week each. They succeeded so well that all the students in the community newspaper class this year are being given an opportunity to try out their ideas in a practical experiment.

The students who are to make the field trips are:

Rice Lake—Fred L. Kildow, Gordon Hamley, Mary James and Ethel M. Zimmerman; Burlington—George W. Harris, Jerome O. Bjork, Anna W. Hilpert and Wilfred C. Wille.

Algoma—Edward S. Wright, M. Anne Cantrell, Waldo W. Batten and Maynard W. Brown; Prairie du Chien—Harold F. Diehm, David Steenberg, Harold R. Maier and Ralph E. Ammon.

Darlington—Gladys Mai Davidson, William G. McGregor, Reed Thorpe and Charles H. Wiseman; Chippewa Falls—Marjorie A. Ruff and A. Irene Davis.

Recess Starts April 3; No Cut Rule in Force

Spring Recess will begin at the close of recitations Tuesday, April 3, and will terminate Tuesday, April 10, according to an official announcement from W. D. Hiestand, registrar. Regular work will begin Wednesday morning, April 11 at 8 o'clock. The no-cut rule will apply. Students absent from classes preceding and following the recess will not be admitted to the examination at the close of the semester in the class which was missed.

SENATE BODY MOVES ELECTION DAY AHEAD

Petitions must be filed in the office of the dean of men before five o'clock, Friday afternoon, April 20, the announcement states. The change was made in order to permit the persons elected to the Badger offices to have time to outline their plans for the yearbook before school closes in June.

PRIZE NUMBERS ARE ON DISPLAY

Announce Results of Spring
Shopping Contests in Local Stores

The winners of the "red circle" store prizes in Madison's Spring opening were decided last night. Many are now holding coupons which they have secured during their shopping.

The coupons deposited in the stores with the names of the people written on them were taken to the Association of Commerce last night at 5:30 and drawings made for the various prizes.

Tonight the numbers will be placed upon the prizes in the windows of the Red Circle stores. People, holding the coupons, should do their "window shopping" tonight and see if their numbers are on any of the prizes. They should present their coupons in the stores in which they see their numbers on prizes and claim the prizes. The lucky winners may have purchased articles in one store and find that their coupons entitle them to prizes in another store, for the coupons from all the stores will be jumbled together and the numbers drawn for all the prizes.

In spite of the snow storm Thursday a great many shoppers were out to view the new spring styles and buy their spring clothes. With the fine weather yesterday it promised to be a record-breaker for the retail stores.

THE Y. M. C. A. SICK VISITS

Editor, The Cardinal:
Sometimes a word that meant but a collection of letters changes to a vital, living thing. I have been in the university infirmary for eight days, — in bed with grippe and tonsilitis. A few friends have come out, but not many.

Driving this time a man from the Y. M. C. A. has called twice each day and offered to get anything that anyone needed. It's necessary to be sick for a few days to appreciate what that means. When the "Y" delegate returns each day, he looks like an old-fashioned peddler; he carries everything from newspapers to tooth brushes.

Last fall the campaign of the Y. M. C. A. meant nothing to me. But now that I've been visited by these men every day and have seen how much good they really are doing for the victims who are here during the two semesters, I would like for those who are fortunate enough to escape the "bugs" to just how these men from the "Y" are serving.

Next fall I hope for those who haven't come in contact with the "Y" when the annual campaign is made that on some day the "Y" may be a real thing to them, — then if they've helped, they won't be as ashamed as I.

MENOMINIE IS DEFEATED BY SHAWANO TEAM

To Enter Consolation Series

Shawano High school remained in the running for the consolation series title last night when the Red and Black took a close game from the light Menominie team by a 28 to 24 score.

The burly Shawano men got going for the first time since they have been in Madison last night and they piled up a 18 to 7 score by the end of the first half.

Only the fight and the nerve of the little Menominie men kept them in the running, but they had their opponents worried by the last few minutes when they had climbed to within winning distance.

Bantams Thrill Crowd
The excellent work of Radke and Bandy, diminutive forwards on the Menominie team was the feature of the game. These two bantam weights thrilled the crowd time and again when they wriggled through the arms of the heavy Shawano guards to work the ball into scoring distance.

Pierson, rangy Menominie center, worked well on the follow shots and counted four field goals during the last half of the game.

The Schwiers brothers were powerful factors counting towards a win for their team. The center garnered a pair of field goals and made five free throws while his brother, playing at guard, counted twice from the field.

The Score
The game was somewhat rough but for thrills it was on a plain with any the tourney has afforded this year.

Menominie Downs New Richmond, 24-18

Menominie recovered some of their luck in their game with New Richmond which they won yesterday morning at 11 o'clock by the score of 24 to 18.

The little New Richmond fellows again displayed some pretty team work and put up a hard fight but again failed when it came to scoring. Menominie on the other hand found their stride and tucked away 12 field baskets.

Bundy who starred in the game Thursday was the only offensive man off form. He played a nice game but came through with only one tally. Pierson, lanky Menominie center, tore loose with five baskets. He was also able to get the tip-off nearly every time and the Blue team showed some good starting plays as a result.

The two little Lynch brothers, Jack and Paul, worked well together at forward for the New Richmond aggregation and did practically all the scoring for their team.

Pierson, Radke at forward and Hardy at guard, were going good for the winners. Radke scored four pretty baskets and was working hard in the defense as well as the offense all the time.

Changes Recommended in Basketball Free Throws

Drastic changes in the regulations for free throws for fouls were recommended by the executive committee of the Eastern collegiate basketball league Monday. The proposed rules will be submitted to the national joint rules committee at its meeting on April 10. To do away with the individual goal tossing star, each member of the team who is fouled would be required to try for goal.

APPLETON WINS FROM SUPERIOR

Will Enter in Finals of Consolation Series Tonight

Appleton won the right to compete in the finals of the consolation series tonight by defeating the Superior basket ball team 26 to 18 in a hard fought game yesterday afternoon.

The Appleton basketeers jumped into the lead shortly after play began, and held the advantage through the entire contest. The defense of the Fox River valley quintet held the Superior team without a basket during the first half, while the fast floor combination of the victors enabled them to count five field goals.

The close guarding of Briese, Appleton star, was the feature of the tilt. The stocky cager was the mainstay of the Appleton defense and succeeded in counting ten points.

Ashman scintillated on the offense by garnering five baskets. McCreary, Northern forward, was high point getter of the game. He tossed three long shots into the net and tallied eight out of thirteen free throws.

The box score follows.

HOCKEY TEAM AWARDED SIX W's AND TWO aWa

Six "W's" and two aWa awards were made to men of the hockey team by the athletic council Wednesday.

Men who received Ws are: Captain Howard R. Combacker, E. E. Johnson, R. I. Blodgett, George R. Fisk, John Mokrejs, and T. A. Tredwell.

Willis Wood and M. E. Moran were awarded the aWa emblem.

The Bader puck team went through a fairly successful season doing especially good work near the end of the schedule. Woods and Moran both worked well during the latter part of the season after having become eligible at the beginning of the second semester.

While captain and three regulars of the team will be lost this year through graduation, there is a nucleus about which to build a team next year which should rate well with teams in other conference schools.

Fisk and Johnson, speedy Wingmen will be in school again next year and Woods and Moran will be eligible.

Among the other men who worked with the team this year are Campbell, Von Czeleski, Hilsenhoff, and Haugh, all men who will be in school next year, and many likely looking freshmen.

The town of Burke will hold its annual caucus at the town hall on the Sun Prairie road at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Gill is Silent on Future of Illinois Track Squad

The University of Illinois was out of running in the Western Conference meets as a result of her loss of splendid track athletes last June, but is she eliminated? Harry Gill, veteran coach undoubtedly knows, but true to his nickname of "The Silent Coach" does not venture to answer the question. So far, Gill isn't glum. His marvelous success in combining old-time methods with new-time ideas has put Illinois in the front ranks in other years, and may do so again.

CERWONKY IS SWIM CAPTAIN

Star Performers Competing For National Honors at Princeton

Hugo E. Czerwonky, '24, was elected to captain the Wisconsin swimming team for the next season when the team met to choose its leader-elect yesterday.

Czerwonky has made a brilliant name for himself not only at Wisconsin but with all other conference teams who have come to fear him with his powerful breast-stroke and his winning back stroke.

The captain-elect has figured greatly in the past two years of Wisconsin's success and he should be an able leader.

Jonnie Bennett, captain of this year's team, and holder of conference records, has had to step lively during the entire season to keep even with Czerwonky in scoring honors.

The star water performer is now in New Jersey to compete for the swimming championship of America in the breast stroke in the meet which is being held under the auspices of Princeton university.

With Faircy, of Minnesota, out of the race at New Jersey Czerwonky should have an excellent chance for the championship. Faircy has been the only man to succeed in beating the Badger fish in his event.

Half mile—Won by Ehrhart, TT-2:30; Hoebel, TT-11, second; Shelds, MW-11, third. Time, 2 minutes, 15 seconds.

High jump—McGivernan, MW-11; and Kreglow, TT-3:30, tied for first; Haggard, TT-11, third. Height, five feet, seven inches.

Pole vault—Won by Head, TT-11; Wheeler, TT-11, second. Height nine feet.

Broad jump—Won by McGivernan, MW-11; Kreglow, TT-11, second; Lewis, TT-2:30, third. Distance, nineteen feet, eleven inches.

Relay—Won by Berg's MW-11 class (Pitzner, Shaner, Zeichold, McGivernan); Mead Burke's TT-11 class, second. Time, two minutes, thirty-one seconds.

TITLE CHASERS DROP GAME TO OSHKOSH, 24-16

Hard Strain Tells on La Crosse

George Kaegan's title chasing La Crosse basketball team dropped its claims last night in a heart-breaking game which Oshkosh took by a 21 to 16 score.

Kaegan's men showed evidence of long and careful drill and they fought throughout the game to keep in the running but the strain of two hard games had told on them and they did not show the dash which won for them the respect of all fans who viewed the River City squad work in the preliminary games.

Oshkosh took the lead early in the game and while the contest was one of the closest of the tourney they never allowed La Crosse to tie them. The score was close at the end of the first half when Oshkosh held a 10 to 9 lead.

Hotchkiss played a brilliant floor game for Oshkosh and his pretty dribbling was a feature of the game. Besides being a keystone of the entire machine work of his team, he succeeded in getting away for a pair of field goals and five free throws for a total of nine of the 21 points.

Barsch, star guard, netted three field goals and Navotny followed with two. Johnson counted the other two points.

Harget continued his good work for the La Crosse five but he could not get through the Oshkosh defense. Saltz worked well until he was removed after fouling four times.

OTHERS SETTING THE PACE

We wish we could say the same of Wisconsin:

A GRATIFYING INTEREST

Probably the entire Michigan legislature will visit Ann Arbor in the near future in accordance with President Marion L. Burton's invitation to inspect the university building program. The invitation was accepted by both houses two days ago, and a committee appointed to make plans for the trip.

This shows that the legislature really has the interest of the university earnestly at heart. There is untold satisfaction in knowing that the body upon which so much depends in the proper maintenance of the university is co-operating with it, for without this coordination little could be accomplished.

So it will be with the greatest pleasure that Michigan will welcome the legislative body to Ann Arbor. Only an eye-witness can see the difficulties under which the university is working. A person on the spot will understand why the university must inaugurate a building program and why she is asking for more space and more decent surroundings in which to do her work.

Michigan Daily.

SHOULD BE INTERESTING

Haresfoot and the Military ball by joining hands on the night of April 20 will make the evening advantageous to both organizations and particularly detectable to the student populace.

The conflict of dates appears to be unavoidable. The legislature would grant the use of the capitol for a particular night only. The night happened to be the same scheduled for Haresfoot's opening Madison performance. The situation at best was disappointing to both organizations.

But active cooperation of the heads of both functions to dovetail the entertainment of the evening has turned shadowy prospects into brilliant ones with the net result that the student body will be presented a program of lively, intriguing musical comedy followed by three hours of capitol dancing, a combination that is unbeatable where an interesting, carefree evening is concerned.

Whether the student makes Haresfoot or the Ball his chief business of the evening, one will contribute to the joy of the other.

Conflicts in major functions have occurred with frequency before. If they cannot be avoided, it will be wise for organizations to adhere to the cooperative method in arranging the respective times during the day at which there should be held the events and so gain the maximum benefit both for themselves and their supporters.

RIVALRY

Comes this from the Daily Illini: Illinois and Ohio are always looking for a chance to best each other. Among other things last year, the Buckeyes gained considerable publicity through "Upstream". But Illinois has come back with "Town and Gown." Question is who wins.

Wisconsin might enter "The Goose Step" and carry off a Big Ten championship.

JUST BLAME IT ON SIBERIA

Spring is heralded, and another snow storm descends unpityingly upon us. Who is to blame? Despite the fact that confinement because of inclement weather is good for studying, some villainous curses are inevitable.

The Russian "Reds" were once declared a menace, and their propaganda held to be an attempt to strike at the United States.

Now the weatherman informs us that these snow storms in Madison originated three weeks ago in Siberia. The blizzards were traced across the Pacific ocean, north of Hawaii to southern California.

Maybe this is another bolsheviki "plot."

If so, we're in favor of war at once.

PARIS TO MADISON

It takes two years for Paris styles to be accepted in Madison.

This is the statement of Miss Hazel Manning, assistant professor of home economics here.

Russian boots, bobbed hair and long skirts—all are affected by this long process of which few co-eds, we surmise, are aware and with which perhaps many will disagree.

Only a small number of duplicates of the French styles that make a hit on the Riviera this year will be produced now by American designers and manufacturers, according to Miss Manning.

American universities pride themselves on the fact that they reflect the best in style, as was evidenced by the Spring Fashion Number of The Cardinal this week. And American girls surpass Parisians in beauty, according to Ziegfeld. Why not let Americans then lead in style? Here's a real international problem for the co-ed.

ATHLETES AND GRINDS

(Indianapolis Daily News)
Dr. W. E. Allen, of the Scripps Institution for Biological Research, has called upon the American Association for the Advancement of Science, in a letter to Science, to wage active warfare against the commercialization of college and secondary school athletics.

Dr. Allen's contention that the dullard and shirk are protected by powerful influences if they are proficient in athletics, while the earnest scholar who is called a grind, has a position of secondary importance in school life. After quoting Professor Edward G. Mahin, of Purdue university, who had written an article dealing with this phase of college life, Dr. Allen adds:

As a matter of fact, Professor Mahin distinctly understood the case in two ways. In the first place he did not make distinct the point that the ordinary student is frequently or constantly harassed by demands for money for the use of the parasitic or predatory sporting element, and that he is even more frequently disturbed by demands upon his time for "rooting" and other "support of the team". In the second place Dr. Mahin gave no attention to the bad condition in schools below the university or college grade. Matters are bad enough in higher institutions, but, in truth, the mischief is often done before a youngster reaches college. He is discouraged by the outspoken contempt of the parasite for the "grind". He is impressed by the success of the bluffer or shirker supported by the sporting group. He is intimidated by the bluster or actual physical and social injury of the special interests of his school.

Ten thousand scientists, Dr. Allen thinks, could have some effect on public opinion if they would raise their voices in support of such protests as that made by Professor Mahin. We doubt it. This is an age of great physical energy. People live out of doors more than ever. Perhaps the automobile is responsible for this happy phenomenon. That there is danger in the conditions to which the professors point is admitted but there should be a meeting place somewhere between the so-called grind and the student who makes too much of athletics. College, after all, is a place for something more than constant study. It should develop a democratic feeling, a spirit of friendliness among its students and a wish to participate in anything that serves the best interests of the institution and of life. Athletics do that to a large extent, and such contests, therefore, are worthy of support. The danger, of course, is in going too far, but the student who does not go far enough to be interested in what his school does in sports, even if he is not athletic himself, has missed something vital out of college career.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH BADGER FOOTBALL TEAMS?

Editor, The Cardinal:

Many Wisconsin students and alumni have wondered for fifteen or twenty years "What is the matter with Wisconsin football teams?"

Consequently at this time I wish to suggest through your columns how the conditions seem to some of us who have made a life study of athletics and football in particular. As explanatory I would like to state that during fourteen years I was athletic director and coach of football, baseball, and track squads in three institutions. During the first four years I was learning the work; during the last ten years our football teams lost four games; we were never two years in succession without a ten-second sprinter or one that was faster; and our best baseball team won nineteen out of twenty-two games. As a result I feel that a suggestion might be tempered with experience.

First—Wisconsin football teams have been weak because the boys did not know the rules (oh yes, they had a smattering knowledge of the rules, but it was a misty or even foggy idea of what the rules really meant.)

Second—they have had only what experienced men call stock plays. They have tried to fit plays to the men instead of originating new formations and plays to fit the individual or group of individuals. For instance, with a back like Roll-

The early disappearance of the ice on Lake Mendota is a great advantage.

A canoe club has been organized at Princeton.

A resolution protesting against the appearance of Admiral Sims as the charter day speaker at the University of California was with held from a hearing by a vote of 53 to 13 in the assembly of the state legislature last Wednesday. The resolution itself never got to the floor.

About 823 Wisconsin communities used films and slides sent out by the Bureau of Visual Instruction of the University Extension division during the last two years.

lie Williams, a coach with foresight, imagination, and inspiration would have formations which sometime during a game could not fail to score on any opposing team.

Third, the boys did not know inside football. In short, they lacked knowledge of the real essence of the game.

Fourth—as a bunch the players seemed to lack barnyard knowledge, or in other words, lacked information of rudiments and first principals of football.

Fifth—and possibly most essential of all, there was a shortage of knowledge of football tactics or field generalship. When on the field they did not seem to know whether to call an end run, drop kick, or forward pass. They lacked intelligence on what plays to call in various parts of the field as well as what plays to call depending on what down it was and how far to go.

Outside of the foregoing qualifications, Wisconsin had a very good team; in fact, man for man, for many years Wisconsin has had better material than any other team in the Conference and in some years it was not excelled anywhere in the United States. Two years ago, with ten days of inside coaching, the Wisconsin boys would have defeated the "Wonder Team" of California. Last fall, the year previous and the year previous to that, with fifty cents worth of real field generalship or football tactics, Wisconsin would have won the Conference championship.

Jack Ryan is the new coach selected and from his splendid record he should be the equal of any coach in the Conference. It is the duty of every student and alumnus to get back of Ryan and help him make a team such as Wisconsin might have had and was entitled to have, if in the past a coach had been selected for his ability to develop material and turn out real football teams filled with football knowledge, field tactics, and field generalship.

Here is a toast to Ryan: "A great coach at a great university. May we have many great football teams."

DEBS WILL BE HERE IN APRIL

Eugene V. Debs

Eugene V. Debs will speak in Madison in April, it was announced yesterday.

Debs will come to Madison under the auspices of the University Social Science club. It is expected he will speak in the university gymnasium. Officers of the club have filed a request for the platform with the university committee on student affairs and expect an answer next week on the petition. While the date for Debs' appearance has not been fixed, it is expected that he will speak about April 22.

The club has also arranged for a lecture by Oswald Garrison Villard, editor of The Nation, for the early part of April.

When asked what attitude he thought would be taken by the people of Madison and the authorities of the university towards Debs' speaking here, Mr. H. B. Shier, president of the Social Science club, said:

"We assume that Debs was guilty of the charge of opposing the war, for which he was sent to prison. But we also know that Debs is an intelligent man, and one who had the courage to suffer for his convictions. It is the belief of the members of the Social Science club, that the spirit of toleration is now such at Wisconsin that Debs will find no active opposition. Debs is sincere; we want to hear him."

Debs was convicted by a federal jury and on Sept. 14, 1918, sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment. While still in prison, he was for the fifth time candidate of the socialist party for president, polling nearly 900,000 votes in 1920.

On recommendation of Atty. Gen. Daugherty, Debs' sentence was commuted by President Harding as "a gracious act of mercy." He was released on Dec. 25, 1921. He was not pardoned, so that he is not now a citizen.

RY. EMPLOYEE IS KILLED BY MADISON MAN

Steve Zimmerman, track man for the Madison Railways company, died Thursday night as the result of injuries received when on Main street he was struck by a Ford coupe said to have been driven by the manager of a local firm.

Zimmerman was salting a switch near the jail to facilitate street car traffic when the coupe hit him.

An inquest will be held in the death, it was determined by Coroner Joseph H. Stephenson and Dist. Atty. Theodore G. Lewis yesterday. The coroner's jury was to be sworn in at the Hoeveler undertaking parlors, 137 W. Johnson street, late in the afternoon. The jury will be dismissed after viewing the body and will meet again Monday afternoon in Superior court to continue the probe.

Marion and Florence Krug, daughters of Sheriff Julius Krug, witnesses of the accident, called their father to the scene of the accident. Sheriff Krug carried the man into the jail office and called the police ambulance.

Zimmerman, an Austrian, came to this country 12 years ago, to make his fortune with the hopes of bringing his wife and two infant children here later.

Zimmerman drifted to Madison and took up residence with a cousin, Andrew Zimmerman, 315 Grand ave. A year ago he went to work for the railway company.

This summer Steve was to have witnessed the happiest moment of his life, for his wife and the two children back in the old country were to come to Madison. Today the children are orphans and the mother a widow.

Besides Andrew, Zimmerman's only living relative in the United States is another cousin, Mikel, who also lives with Andrew.

With his wife Josephine, in Austria, are his two children, Kainel, aged 14, and Mary, aged 12.

Funeral services were held from the Hoeveler undertaking parlors at 8:30 this morning. Rev. Fr. E. J. Meyer of the Holy Redeemer church officiated. Interment was made at Holy Cross cemetery.

Few Rate Changes In 1922 Says John Cadby

MILWAUKEE—John N. Cadby, Madison, executive secretary of the Wisconsin Utilities association, attending the convention of the association which opened here yesterday, declared that "the last year has been one of considerable change in ownership of utilities, but one in which relatively few changes in rates have taken place.

"Accurate accounting records ordered by the railroad commission are rapidly diminishing the need of extensive detailed valuations. Service inspections by operating companies are largely taking the place of detailed inspections by the commission."

August Bratz, veteran employee of the state hospital at Mendota, is seriously ill with pneumonia, it was reported today. He is about 60 years old.

NEWSGood Dancing and Pageantry
Saves Show

By H. H. P.

Good dancing and colorful pageantry in the second act of "Up in the Clouds" rescued a small audience from boredom at the Parkway last night. Our optimism and sense of duty stood us in good stead; otherwise we should have left before the show began, after a mediocre cast had finished muddling a dull "book" in the first period.

But when the chorus took the stage in brilliant costumes emphasized by excellent lighting effects, we settled back and enjoyed ourselves. Some of the tableaux were strikingly beautiful, and the dancing was of high quality.

Jack Sheehan, light comedy man, was the redeeming feature of the cast; when he had good lines, he put them across. He was, however, handicapped by the excruciating efforts of his female partner to be funny. The leading man would make up well for a Haresfoot lady. Dorothy Curtis, the female lead, has a pleasant voice.

Beulah Baker as pretty and danced lightly, and the dancing team of D'Andrea and Walters was one of the best features of the show. When Melino, Listette and Reynolds, made up as old men started dancing, the audience wanted more, but didn't get it.

The second scene of the second act, a pageant representing the passage of six months, was pretty and well received, and the hoop skirt dance in the "Betsy Ross" number set everyone wondering "How do they make themselves seem to float that way?"

Shawano Wins in
Two Overtimes

Shawano won its way into the semi finals of the consolation series by defeating Rio 16 to 12 in a tight game that went two overtime periods, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

The game was rather rough, and toward the end the greater size of the winners placed them on top. Rio led at half-time, 8 to 9. The teams scored by turns with Rio usually in the lead until just before the end of the game when Shawano scored, knotting the count at 12 all.

The first five-minute period went scoreless. In the final period field goals by M. Schueers and Black won the game for the big Red team.

Neither team displayed much passing or team work. First one team and then the other would race the ball up to the center of the court and take a long shot at the basket. K. Schueers, the Shawano center appeared to be the outstanding player of the game.

WITH THE STATE LEGISLATURE

The assembly yesterday engrossed the Miner bill providing for the licensing of chiropractors and for their examination by a state board of three members. The board would determine the fitness of applicants to practice their profession and grant them licenses upon passage of satisfactory examination and upon payment of a specified fee.

A similar bill requiring that land surveyors and engineers submit to examination by a state board before practicing their profession was killed by the assembly.

The Smith assembly bill making an annual appropriation of $275,000 for school districts which maintain high schools was engrossed. The amount allotted to each district would be determined by the valuation of school property in the district.

The Price bill requiring that all locomotives be equipped with vestibuled cabs was finally passed and sent to the senate.

Two bills by Assemblyman Prescott relating to exemptions and deductions under the income tax law were killed after the author had attempted to have them referred to the committee on taxation.

The assembly concurred in the Quick resolution, already adopted by the senate, calling for an amendment to the state constitution to permit home rule for cities. This proposal has already been favorably acted upon by one legislature, and if successful in the present session will go to the people at the November general election in 1924.

The Severson bill providing for complete repeal of the secrecy clause to the Wisconsin income tax law, was sent to third reading today by the assembly. This measure already passed in the senate, was favored in the lower house on a vote of 74 to 10.

With the final passage of the secrecy clause repeal in the assembly, Progressive Republican members of the legislature will have re-

BOMB JAM TO BREAK FLOOD

Many Are Drowned in Overflow of Missouri River

Held by an ice gorge five miles in size formed at Brassfield's island, south of here, spring flood waters of the Missouri river today threatened to sweep through parts of this city unless the jam is broken. Already the backed-up water, that continued to rise while efforts were made to break up the gorge by dynamiting, has caused one death.

Several other persons were reported drowned and hundreds of head of livestock, implements and dwellings were carried away. The property damage was estimated in excess of $100,000.

Bombs dropped from airplanes today failed to break the huge ice gorge jamming the Missouri river five miles south of here and relieve the threat of a serious flood.

Army aviators, soaring 1,000 feet above the ice packs, dropped powerful explosives which tore craters in the ice.

Braving the treacherous waters in the flooded Missouri river on a raft, two deputy sheriffs today rescued four men marooned on Duncans island.

A fifth man refused to leave the island, deciding to take his chances with the flood threatening momentarily to inundate his place of refuge rather than attempt the perilous trip through the crashing ice gorges.

throws and then followed in for the try at basket.

Free Throws Help Losers

The first half saw a pair of evenly-matched teams struggling to sink their long shots and secure the breaks. Wisconsin high managed to keep a narrow gap between its score of 8 and the Point total. Free throws by Boone, center, kept the losers close on the heels of Wisconsin high.

Holzworth uncorked his long tries in the last period and connected with enough to give his team a safe lead. Nelson also dropped in three field goals, and Stehr connected with the net for a couple of baskets.

Coach Olsen, Stevens Point, shifted his line-up many attempts in a vain attempt to stem the tide of defeat but his men were unable to stand the gaff set by the Davis players. Boone was responsible for ten of the 12 points chalked up by his team.

Boone High Scorer

The Point captain netted three field goals and four out of nine free throws. He started the game in the center position, was shifted to left forward, and then came back to the pivot job before the game ended.

Boone, with 10 points, was high scorer of the game. "Pinkey" Stehr, Badger prep captain, followed with nine counters, and Holzworth had eight. Although the Madison center is somewhat slow on the floor and in combination play, he gets a large number of shots at the basket and manages to drop in long throws during each contest.

Nelson, left forward, is also starring in matter of points scored. He made eight baskets against Two Rivers and sunk a trio of field goals yesterday. Otis is a strong guard who gets down the floor for shots at the basket.

Box Score

Stevens Point depended almost entirely upon Boone to bear the brunt of its attack yesterday. He might have been able to accomplish the task if his mates had not
