CONTINUING THE STORY OF
YERKES OBSERVATORY

BEGINNING THE STORY OF
GENEVA LAKE

YERKES OBSERVATORY
( Instalment No. Three )

THE GREAT REFRACTOR

The 40 -inch objective is the largest ever constructed and successfully used for astronomical observations. It consists of two separate peices of glass of which the front, or crown glass, is  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches thick in the center, and tapers off toward the edges. The second lens, made of flint glass, is about 8 inches farther down the telescope tube and is about 2 inches thick. The lenses were made as thin as possible in order to reduce the absorption of light within the glass. They were figured in such a way as to bring to a focus at a distance of 62 feet a parallel beam of light coming from a star.

The chief advantages of a large telescope are its great light-gathering power, which is defined by the aperture of the lens, and its magnification, which is defined by its focal length. The light-gathering power of the 40-inch objective is approximately 35,000 times greater than that of the unaided eye. The highest magnifying power theoretically possible for this telescope is 4,000 diameters. In actual practice atmospheric conditions are never good enough in this locality to allow the use of such high magnifications- powers exceeding 1,000 diameters are rarely used. The resolving power of the telescope is such that two stars a tenth of a second apart can just be measured. The smallest amounts measured on photographs taken with the 40 -inch telescope correspond to 1/100 of a second of arc, which is about the apparent diameter of a quarter viewed at a distance of 300 miles.

The telescope is mounted upon a massive brick pier, which rests upon a solid concrete foundation set in the prevalent gravel formation. The column is of cast-iron in four heavy sections. The center of motion of the telescope is 61 feet above the ground. The length of the telescope is 63 feet; when the spectroscopic attachments are added this is increased by nearly six feet.

The dome is 90 feet in diameter, which allows enough space for attaching spectroscopes and other apparatus to the end of the telescope. It is turned on 26 wheels by an electric motor which actuates an endless wire rope extending around the dome. Six minutes are required for turning the dome completely around. The opening through which the sky is observed is 11 feet wide, and it is closed by shutters 85 feet long. These are constructed so that they are easily moved by hand. Canvas screens, which may be raised over part of the opening, serve to break the force of the wind. A rising floor, 75 feet in diameter, has a range of 23 feet from the lowest to highest level. The moving floor and the turning dome are fascinating to visitors.

The dome is never heated and the observers have to work from 29 degrees below zero to 100 degrees above.

The telescope is used for observing stars on every clear night and the sun on nearly all clear days. The average number of night hours during which the telescope is in actual use is 1500, about 50 % of the total night hours.

( This is the third instalment of a series of articles which are given by the editor from material furnished by the Observatoty faculty.)

Art, who was a protege of "Hank" Stark at the Bay swimming pier a few years ago, won the 100 meter free style swim at the Olympics in Berlin last summer, representing the United States.

The team of Forty at the Stadium is composed entirely of professionals with Eleanor Holm Jarrett, and is on a coast to coast tour.

LAKE SHORE LOOKS MUCH BETTER

The fill which the village truck has been putting along the lake shore over the rubbish has been a real improvement. It will be smoothed off to make more parking space and then a background of willows and lilacs, and the village flower, hollyhocks, planted. The fishermen are busy putting up their piers and platforms, getting ready for the season which begins on the 15th of May.

FISHING SEASON OPENS ON MAY 15

Dig out the fishing equipment. Oil the reel and test the line. You can go fishing on May 15 and catch anything but Black Bass. You must wait until June 20th for that "big catch". Better have your license though or the game warden might see you. Non-resident fishing license is $3.00, for residents it is $1.00.

This is National Music Week and some wonderful musical programs are being heard on the radio each day. With a flick of the finger you can tune in and get any kind of a musical program you wish.

ANOTHER GOOD REASON THE HIGHWAY
ALONG THE LAKE SHOULD BE PAVED

What might have proved a very serious accident occurred last Saturday evening at the bridge at the east side of the lake shore highway when a car driven slowly by Eph. Brannum, IV, Winnetka, with Miss Sue Vilas, Evanston, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Melgas, went into the muck at the north of the highway.

Just as the car approached the bridge another car passing from the opposite direction blinded the driver so that he did not see the post and guard on the north side of the road and after knocking off the post the car was hurtled across the ditch and landed on its side in the soft earth.

Aside from the shake-up and a few bruises the occupants were able to crawl out of the doors and get help. A wrecker was called from Lake Geneva by Clayton's Garage and with the help of bystanders, the car was uprighted and hauled out not seriously damaged.

This particular bridge should be removed as it was put in several years ago by the Knickerbocker Ice Co. as a run-way for hauling ice to icehouse which burned years ago, and it does not serve any waterway. If it is not removed there should be a well guarded approach. Attention should be given to the other bridges at the same time to be certain a similar accident may not occur.

MR. SIDNEY T. SJOBERG OF DELAVAN
SPEAKER AT MEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

The Men's Community Club has a rule that their regular meetings commence at 6:15 and close at 7:30 P.M. and anyone is free to leave at that time. Last Tuesday night Mr. Sjoberg gave such an interesting account of his experience in Japan where he represented Ford Motor Co. for six years, that without exception all stayed through to 8:15, altho he was willing to close his story any time. The talk was illustrated with moving pictures showing the cultivation of rice and native festival scenes.

OIL CONTRACT LET

Mr. H.L. Sarrington of the Sarrington Milling Co. which has had the contract for oiling the streets of the village for several years, attended the village Board meeting on Monday evening and was awarded the contract for this year.

Mr. L.A. Rasmussen, Chairman of the Highway Department requests that all persons interested in having oil put on private streets to let him know this week so he may arrange to purchase the oil at the same time and have it spread. The oil will be put on as soon as the weather permits. The company is working on Linn Roads now and will do Fontana and Walworth also.

Jean Delap has returned to school after spending a week in Chicago with her mother and relatives.

Mr. Plimpton was a visitor in Chicago over the weekend.

Williams Bay team played the Clinton team Thursday, April 29, at Clinton. The boys played a great game but were defeated by Clinton by a score of seven to eight.

Friday, April 30, the tenth grade social studies class gave a program in the main room. They had been studying magazines, papers and books. They gave a very interesting program on these subjects.

We are happy to learn that Dorothy and Betty Okeson, because of their impersonations of the De Zurich sisters in the W.L.S. Amateur Show recently, have won an audition at W.L.S. radio station, Chicago, subject to call.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES (Con't)

TO THE SENIORS

Oh! seniors, who must soon from school depart,
Forget not joys of school days that are past;

But live in happiness unto the last

And in each worthy task, O, do thy part;

Courageous, earnest, and sincere in heart.

Dear Seniors, how ambitious is thy class!

Some of thy numbers are by fortune cast;

To seek their way in life, far, far apart.

And O! that all may ever choose the right,

Continually assisting freedom cause,

Helping the world with all their strength and might;

America needs honest men and laws;

Nothing can quell desire for truth and right,

When man's request for justice will not pause.

THE "AUNT JENNEY" LAUNCHED

The "Aunt Jenney" which was designed by Henry Grebe from suggestions given to him by Mrs. A.F. Gartz and custom built by the Great Lakes Ship Building Corporation slipped silently into the silvery waves at the Lake Geneva Yacht Club at just twelve o'clock noon last Saturday, May first, amid a cheering group of guests who had been invited by Mrs. Gartz to witness the launching. It was christened by her daughter Gail.

As if timed to the moment the sun broke through the clouds which had been threatening all morning, at the moment the boat hit the water; then a cannon gave the appropriate salute.

Mrs. Gartz, who is lovingly called the Rear Admiral of the Lake Geneva Yacht Club, was a splendid hostess and was kept busy greeting the many guests who had been invited to the launching ceremony. Refreshments were served on the shore of the lake with the new boat off shore in the background. "Bud" Gartz, her son, who is the Commodore of the Yacht Club, and his wife, ably assisted her.

The boat is a day cruiser type, 33 feet, 6 inches in length. Has a canopy; is in natural wood color and has a Lincoln Zephyr Motor. As Mrs. Gartz said—"It is roomy, comfortable, quiet, and has no vibration; we can ride and carry on a conversation with ease."

Among the guests were noticed: Mr. and Mrs. A. (Gus) Maxwell; Mr. and Mrs. A.M. Castle, Chicago; Mr. Daniel Peterkin; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Peterkin, Jr.; Mr. J. McCord; Mrs. E.B. Frost; Mr. and Mrs. James Friend, Pine Lake, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. John B. Buckstaff, Oshkosh, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Gifford; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter; Mr. Nathan Hunt, Harvard, Ills.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jennings; Mr. and Mrs. John Perrigo; Dr. Wm Gehl, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. B.E. Adams, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce P. Adams; Mr. Robert (Bob) Ferris, Harvard, Ills.; Mr. Brant Stark; Mr. and Mrs. Armand Brand; Mrs. Frank Rehm; Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Baker; Mr. and Mrs. H.V. Fitzcharles; Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Beauvais; Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Campbell, Delavan Lake; Mr. and Mrs. James Rawleigh; Mr. E.J. Lehman and Mr. Otto Lehman, Lake Villa; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ford, Winnetka; W.L. Dewey, Chicago; Mr. D.W. Buchanan, Oconomowoc; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bryan, Lake Forest; Emery Jaeger, Delavan Lake; Ephraim Bannum IV, Winnetka; Miss Dorothy Scholl; Mr. Jack Vilas and Miss Sue Vilas, Evanston; Don Waterbury, Chicago; Bob Calloway; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Melgas; Ernest E. Schmidt.

The guests then went by car or boat to the Gartz home on the north side of the lake for luncheon. Plates were set for eighty-five.

The occasion was the first of the many Geneva Lake society events for the season and was a very enjoyable one.

There are rumors of several other new boats to be launched or old ones taken out of storage after a lay-up of several years. Let's watch the craft go by this summer.

◇ MOTHER MINE

O mother mine, I love you still,
Tho' you are old and gray.
I love you for your love to me
Nor can I e'er repay,
Your years of ceaseless toil for
me,

Your earnest loving prayers,
And even now your tender heart
My every burden shares.

O mother mine, dear mother mine,
I love you well
And while I may, O mother mine
I mean my love to tell
