WILL ANNOUNCE CANDIDATES FOR OFFICES SUNDAY

First Class Party Lists Will Be Ready For Publication

Publication of the names of candidates for class and other offices to be voted on at the general election on November 3 will start in The Cardinal tomorrow.

Reviews of the activities of heads of the various tickets with those of the personnel of the ticket will be published immediately after Dean Goodnight has sanctioned their candidacies. No petitions had been passed upon the Dean's office up to last night.

Following are the offices to be filled:

Class officers: presidents, vice-presidents, secretaries, treasurers and sergeant at arms.

Prom chairman.

Senate representatives: Five seniors, two juniors and two sophomores.

At a special meeting yesterday afternoon the student senate election committee decided to place the senate representation referendum before the students on the regular election date, November 3, and to have the representation on the legislative body regulated this year according to colleges as has always been the custom.

Because the referendum which passed last year regulating the senate representation according to colleges was worded indefinitely, the election committee feels that it should be regarded unfit to be incorporated into the constitution of the student senate. It was drawn up by the senate which was in power in 1920-1921. The referendum which will be voted upon this fall will be worded so that whichever alternative the students pass can be incorporated into the constitution. Only fully registered male students will be eligible to vote for the referendum.

Contrary to a previous statement all students running for office will not be required to speak before a mass meeting. However, if a petition bearing 25 names and calling for the appearance of a candidate before mass meeting is received by the student senate that body has the power to summon a meeting at which the candidate in question must speak. In case the candidate fails to appear on such occasion, he must forfeit his privilege to run for office.

Rules Strict

Rules of eligibility applicable to other activities and offices in school apply to candidates for these offices, Dean Goodnight pointed out Friday. Publication of candidates will have to be retracted openly in case candidates are ineligible.

All qualified male and female electors are qualified to vote for their respective class officers. Freshmen are qualified to vote for their class officers only. Only men will be permitted to vote for repre-

FROSH TO SIT IN NEW STAND TODAY

Freshmen will attend the Carleton game at Camp Randall this afternoon in a body.

The class of 1926 will meet at 1:30 p. m. on the lower campus and follow the band out University avenue to the stadium where seats will be reserved for them at the west end.

Songs and yells will be printed for the newcomers and freshmen cheer leaders will try out for the class office. The annual frosh snake dance will be the center of attraction between halves.

Let all of the class of 1926 assemble on the lower campus and proceed on the traditional march to Camp Randall. All the freshmen should be together and should get their tickets before coming to the gate," "Gus" Tuckerman '23, varsity cheer leader said last night.

FROSH WOMEN HOLD ELECTION ON OCTOBER 17

All First Year Women Are Qualified to Cast Ballot

Primary election for Green Button, an organization composed of all freshmen women on the campus, will be held in Lathrop hall Tuesday, October 17. Katherine O'Shea '24, chairman of the elections committee is in charge.

Tables for casting ballots will be open from 8:30 to 5. An unusually large poll is expected, due to the exceptional representation at the nomination meeting. A complete list of freshmen will be on file and names checked off as ballots are filled out. Final elections will be held about a week later.

Ima Winchell '23, S. G. A. office secretary, reports that practically the entire stock of green buttons have been purchased.

"We are very proud of the large sale of buttons, but particularly proud of the fine spirit the entire body of freshmen women have displayed in wearing their emblem on the campus," Miss Winchell said.

SOCIETIES HOLD FIRST DEBATE

Emerson Ela Makes Address Before Members of Philomathia

Debates and talks by members of the societies and a talk by Emerson Ela '99, president of the Madison Commerce association, who addressed Philomathia, made up the programs in the men's literary society last night. He spoke on "The Opportunity of the Forensic Field."

"I ascribe the greater part of my success since leaving the university to my four years' grind in forensics" Mr. Ela said. "If you prize the well balanced mental capacity to do the big things in life that you will be called upon to do, there is no better place to develop it than on the floor of a forensic society."

Mr. Ela was a member of Philomathia's winning joint debate team in 1898.

Harold Sporer '25, and F. Nimmer '24 presented the affirmative of the question "Resolved, that the United States government should buy and operate the coal mines." The decision was won by Ernest E. Green '24 and Pat Erickson '24 who upheld the negative.

Athena Debate

Athena's program included a debate on the question "Resolved, that the University of Wisconsin should require four years of athletic training instead of the present two," in which W. L. Jackman '25, affirmative, was victorious over Louis Berkoff '25 negative. E. G. Williams '24 and M. H. Steinberg '24 spoke on current topics.

In Hesperia, Harold Hartwig '23 discussed "Campus Problems", and Ralph Axley '23 talked on "The Primary Election in Wisconsin and other states."

The Agricultural Literary society decided in favor of the soldier's bonus in the meeting held last night. The question "Resolved, that the United States adopt the Adjusted Compensation Act as our policy for the Soldier's Bonus" was decided in favor of the affirmative which was upheld by W. P. Meyer '23, G. F. Gregor '24, and Edward E. Rohrbeck '24. The negative was upheld by S. H. Matteson '24, V. J. Olson '24, and M. Schaars '24.

Women's Societies

Castalia and Pythia literary societies held their regular weekly meetings in Lathrop last night. Castalia featured an open meeting in which girls interested in the society were given an introduction to its program.

Pythia amended its constitution at a closed meeting held for this purpose. It will hold an open meeting for guests on Friday, October 13.

BADGERS FACE CARLETON IN FIRST GRIDIRON BATTLE AT CAMP RANDALL TODAY; INVITE 5,000 BOYS AS GUESTS OF THE UNIVERSITY

Madison Lads Occupy Own Cheering Section

An invitation to all of Madison's 5,000 boys of twelve years and under to attend the Wisconsin-Carleton game as guests of the university, has been issued by the athletic department.

The juvenile delegation will occupy a cheering section in the south end of the east side of the stadium. "Shorty" Goddard, University High's acrobat, will direct the cheering and will vie for honors with the Frosh rooting section on the opposite side of the gridiron.

Stadium Holds 13,000

The stadium will easily accommodate the crowd as at the present time it has a permanent seating capacity of 13,000, and with the circus seats and bleachers a capacity of 28,000. The concrete section completed this summer will accommodate 4,000 spectators as in comparison with the 1,800 seating arrangement of the wooden structure which burned to the ground last June.

When finally completed the Randall Stadium will hold 63,000 people and will be one of the finest in the middle-west.

Student tickets for today's game will be on sale for the last time from 9 to 11 o'clock. No tickets at the student rate will be sold at the game. All seats are rush seats.

Lillian Stuart Elected Art Society Official

Lillian Stuart '22, a member of the local chapter, was elected vice-president of the Delta Phi Delta national art honorary organization at the national convention held in Topeka, Kansas, last June.

Wisconsin chapter of Delta Phi Delta held its first meeting Thursday night to install the new members and to formulate the plans for the coming year.

The officers for this year are: Martha Groan '23, president; Gertrude Kehl '23, vice president; Agnes Tuttle '24, secretary; Helen McLandress '23, treasurer.

Frosh Women Hazed By Sophomores at Barnard

Hazing of freshmen women at Barnard hall lasted twenty-four hours this year instead of one week, as heretofore. The women were summoned by the fire gong Tuesday night and marched before a judge, impersonated by Martha Semelroth '25. They were required to do stunts for the amusement of the upperclassmen.

On Wednesday two freshmen women were assigned to each sophomore, and were required to carry dolls around, give peanuts to all the men who called at Barnard that evening, roll onions on the floor with their noses, and do all the usual freshman hazing stunts.

A children's party was held on Wednesday night with the freshmen women dressed as little girls and the sophomores as little boys. A program of songs, dances and stunts was given between the courses of dinner. The hazing was in charge of Martha Semelroth '25, Alice Cummings '25, Lois Longenecker '25, and Margaret Knauf '25.

WEATHER: RAIN

Showers were predicted for Saturday and probably Sunday by the weather bureau last night. Not much change in temperature is expected.

Canes For Lawyers; Pipes for Plumbers?

Every senior "shyster" now has a visible means of support, a staff and a prop for the ravages of old age as will be seen at today's game.

The canes of these suddenly distinguished personages also make admirable weapons of offense so let the engineers beware lest they suffer assault and battery.

It is rumored that certain of the other schools will try to dignify their sages in a similar manner. The engineers, for instance, will probably tote pipe wrenches and the Ag's a milking stool or possibly a cow bell.

OPERATION MAY CURE CRIMINALS

—DR. LORENZ

University Professor Discusses Brain Pressure Cases

Much speculation has been aroused over cases like that of Roy Gardner, notorious bandit now serving a sentence in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth. Gardner is awaiting permission from the government for an operation to relieve a supposed pressure on the brain which is said to be the cause of his criminal tendencies.

There arises the question, "Can operations cure criminals of antisocial tendencies?"

"Not unless there is definite abnormality like a tumor or growth or a bone deformity which causes irritation or pressure of the brain," says Dr. Wm. F. Lorenz, professor of neuro-psychiatry, here.

May Change Individual

"These abnormalities should be corrected, for an improvement of mentality might result which would bring about a change in the individual's inclinations. In epileptic cases an operation might prove beneficial, but there is no promise of a favorable outcome. Such cases are intricate and involved," Dr. Lorenz states.

Dr. Lorenz bases his opinions upon 17 years' work with mental conditions of all classes of people many of them criminals. During this time he has handled from 10,000 to 12,000 cases and has never performed any such operation, although he treated many criminals at Waupun.

Mental Defects Cause Crime

"Are these abnormalities the cause of many criminals?"

To this question Dr. Lorenz said that within his observations there were no criminals produced by physical deformities but many by mental defects.

"From my observations I am a firm believer in environmental influence making criminals more than hereditary, except in obvious cases of feeble mindedness, and the intellectually feeble are by no means always criminal," says Dr. Lorenz.

Although the results of such operations have not been encouraging the psychiatrist feels that there is much study and speculation to be made in this field.

Student Directory May Be Ready In 2 Weeks

The first section of the student directory, containing names from A to G, went to press last night. The entire directory probably will be completed within two weeks. The early edition, which has been made possible by the omission of classifications, will consist of one complete student and faculty list, and a separate student list.

Prospects of Fast Game Spoiled By Steady Rain

BY CHAS. J. LEWIN

Probable Line-up

Carleton	Wisconsin
Bates	R. E. .... Tebell
Middlemist	R. T. .... Murry
Hawkins	R. G. .... Hohfeld
Brown	C. .... Nichols
Rokola	L. G. .... Christianson
Sims	L. E. .... Irish
Montgomery	Q. B. .... Barr
C. O'Brien	L. H. Williams, or Whitten
Cassell	R. H. .... Gibson
Capt. H. O'Brien	F. B. .... Taft
Officials	referee, J. C. Masker, Northwestern; umpire, J. J. Schommer, Chicago; field judge Anthony Haines, Yale.

The stage is all set for Wisconsin's initial gridiron battle of the season at Camp Randall.

Making their first scheduled appearance this afternoon, John R. Richards' battling Badgers will engage Carleton college, Northfield, Minn., in a test game which will enable the Wisconsin coach to gauge the defensive and offensive strength of his squad.

A cool breeze last night indicated that ideal football weather would prevail for the first game, but rain setting in steadily later in the night spoiled chances for fast play.

Williams Injured

A crippled team may take the field when Referee Masker's open whistle inaugurates the 1922 football season at 2:30. Capt. "Rollie" Williams is suffering from an injured leg. He was withheld from practice on Thursday afternoon and was not even permitted to go through the light signal drill yesterday. Christianson is also limping and his place in the line may be taken by Bieberstein.

Harris, substitute back, and Hohfeld are also said to be nursing injuries, but it is expected that Hohfeld will start. If Williams is unable to lead the team into its first action, "Bob" Whitten has the call for left half. Whitten has been going lightly during the last week having received some hard knocks in the preliminary scrimmages.

Carleton Hopes Low

The Carleton college squad arrived in Madison yesterday and took a light workout at Camp Randall late in the afternoon. Coach C. J.

OUTING CLUB WILL PICNIC THURSDAY

Huge bonfires, quantities of sizzling hot dogs with the skins just bursting open, heaps of big buttered buns, juicy oozing pickles, young mountains of ruddy apples, clever costumes, side splitting costumes collected from every where and apparently put together by a blind man, snappy fall weather,—sounds like the Hobo Picnic that Outing club has every year for their first meeting.

That's what it is too, for the Hobo Picnic is to be held on Thursday. This is primarily for the new women and gives them an idea of what Outing club really is.

Norma Carl '23, is the general chairman of the picnic, and is being helped by the following sub-committees: Wilma Trost '23, stunts; Sarah Pauline Wild '24, posters; Dorothy Simpson '24, food; and Frances Warren '24, publicity.

The groups will meet at Lathrop and start out in different groups at 4:30 and 5 o'clock. The destination is always unknown to everyone except those on the committees in charge.

OREGON FAIR IS AIDED BY GRADS, PROFESSOR SAYS

Fuller Tells of Experiences at Big Oregon State
Exposition

"Wisconsin graduates and former students played an important part in the development of the Oregon State Fair," declared Prof. J. G. Fuller yesterday.

Professor Fuller has just returned from Salem, Oregon, where he had been judging horses at the Oregon State Fair.

"The Oregon State Fair is one of the leading fairs west of the Rocky Mountains," Professor Fuller said. "There was a large live stock show with all of the departments well represented. The horse show was well supported by dealers and breeders."

Among the former Wisconsin students who helped to make the show a success were C. V. Ruzek '08, professor of soils at the Oregon State college, R. V. Gunn '16, professor of farm management, Oregon State college, O. N. Nelson '13, associate professor of animal husbandry, Oregon State college, and E. H. Hughes '12, who judged swine at the fair.

Illinois Shows Increase Of 400 In Enrollment

Registration in the University of Illinois has increased by more than 400 students over the total registered at this time last year, it was revealed yesterday by figures released by G. P. Tuttle, registrar. At present there are 9,220 students registered of which 895 are attending the three Chicago colleges, leaving 8,325 in Urbana.

BEEKEEPER LIBE IS MOST COMPLETE

"The Dr. C. C. Miller Memorial Library placed in the Agricultural library will contain the most complete collection of literature on bee-keeping and will make the University of Wisconsin the bee center of the United States," says Prof. H. F. Wilson, of the College of Agriculture.

At the death of Dr. C. C. Miller, one of the most prominent bee raisers in the country, a committee of five men decided to establish the library at the Agricultural library of the university. Up to date donations amounting to $2,000, designated to enlarge the collection, has been obtained.

Every beekeeping publication in the world has been asked to give one free permanent subscription to the library.

The committee plans to have the library dedicated at the next Beekeepers chautauqua at Madison, August 13 to 18, 1923 according to Professor Wilson.

Dean Schlichter Talks To The International Club

"Make your business meeting as short as possible and give as much attention as possible to your social activities" is the advice of Dean Schlichter of the graduate school to the members of the International club at the meeting last night.

Dean Schlichter also told of his trip to Minneapolis as a member of the executive committee of the Cord-Fiatref association of cosmopolitan clubs.

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

BIG TEN TEAMS START SEASON'S OPENERS TODAY

Most Contests Will Be Practice Games For Elevens

With the exception of Illinois, every grid team in the Big Ten conference swings into action today. In spite of the fact that every game is supposedly more or less practice for the Conference teams, some good exhibitions are expected to take place.

Georgia is bringing a heavy and experienced team to do battle with Chicago. Every man on the Georgia "Bulldogs" has had from two to four years experience on that team and knows the game. The team which barely missed defeating Harvard last year is intact, and Stagg's men may expect some real opposition.

Michigan Strong This Year

Minnesota will oppose North Dakota. There is nothing sure of the regular line-up for the Gophers as yet, and Coach Spaulding expects to use most of his first string men in the game.

Northwestern is not expecting any great amount of competition from Beloit, and it is expected that about 200 men will be used during the game. Beloit has been having some hard luck lately, and will not be able to put its full strength into the field.

Michigan has great hopes for a winning team this year, and will try to start its winning streak against Case. Captain Goebel will probably not be used.

Ohio to Miss Workman

Iowa may find some stiff competition in its tilt with Knox. The Illinois team is in good condition and should put a strong team in the field.

Indiana will be without the services of several regulars when it faces DePauw. Injuries have forced some of the regulars to the sidelines.

Purdue opposing Purdue, is not in very good shape owing to the injuries in the DePauw game a week ago. Purdue is not anticipating defeat.

Ohio State will face Otterbein without the services of Noel Workman, star quarter back. "Hoge" Workman, Noel's brother, will probably take the position in today's game.

First Interfraternity Bowling Games Played

The first of the series of games played in the interfraternity bowling was completed last evening.

The scores are as follows:

Sigma Nu—3; Alpha Pi Delta—0.

Alpha Chi Sigma—3; Phi Kappa Sigma—0.

Zeta Psi—3; Delta Tau Delta—0.

Kappa Sigma—3; Sigma Phi—0.

Pi Alpha Delta—2; Theta Chi—1.

Delta Pi Epsilon—2; Phi Delta Theta—1.

Delta Upsilon—2; Chi Phi—1.

Cardinal Exchanges With Ten College Newspapers

Exchanges with ten collegian newspapers are being conducted by the Daily Cardinal.

Among the newspapers exchanged are: Minnesota Daily; Cornell Daily Sun; Indiana Daily Student; Green and White, Ohio University; Industrial Collegian; South Dakota Weekly; Daily Illini; Oklahoma Daily; Daily Texan; Michigan Daily; Purdue Exponent and Iowa State Student.

Any student in the university who is interested in these papers may find them at the Cardinal office on second floor of the Union building.

Boat Isabel Will Be Put Up For Winter On Nov. 15

Isabel, the life-saving boat of the university and the pet motor-boat of Capt. Isabel, will be put up for the year on November 15 by its pilot and his crew. The Cardinal has already been taken from the water to undergo repairs, and the removal of the Isabel will close the university life-saving station until April 1, 1922.

STAGG REPORTS ILLINI SQUAD IS UNUSUALLY GOOD

Many Veterans Are Included In Ranks of Players This Year

(Special to The Cardinal)
CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 6.—With two weeks of intensive drill behind them, Stagg's Maroons are rounding into championship form. A strong line and fast backfield promise to make the team the best in five years.

The lack of a veteran quarterback however, offers a problem that remains as yet unsolved. Heinie Schultz, Varsity baseball man, has been showing good form of late and will probably be seen in this berth. McMasters and Curley are also strong candidates for this position. King and George Hartong are both well able to hold the pivot position. Alex Proudfoot has shown fine form of late and will go in at guard. Dawson, Gowdy, and Fletcher, one of last year's veterans, will hold the tackle positions. Otto Strohmeier will take care of one of the wings while Dickson Lampe and Weiss are running an even race for the other.

Backs Strong

Jimmy Pyott will be one of the backs and his running mate will be either Cullie Byler, Harry Thomas, or Caruso. Byler has been doing some snappy field running and will be a valuable man this season.

Johnny Thomas will take his old place at full-back and may be relieved by Zorn who has been ripping up the line in good form during scrimmage.

Coach Norgren has been looking over his corps for a man that can boot the oval with accuracy and consistency. Jim Pyott, Strohmeier, Caruso, and Curley are the leading candidates. Pyott seeming to be the best of the lot.

Rush New Building At Ohio State School

Construction of buildings at Ohio State university projected in the spring are nearing completion, and additional structures stand almost ready for use as the fall quarter opens. Pomrene hall, the new woman's building, which houses the gymnasium in addition to reception halls, reading rooms, and offices for the dean of women, needs only interior decorating and furnishing before it will be complete. The building which will serve the purpose of the biological building, which is to be razed in preparation for the erection of the commerce building, is ready for use. The roof is being laid on Mack hall, the new woman's dormitory. This will be finished about Feb. 1.

Rev. H. C. Hengell Gives Apologetic Sermons

Apologetic is to be the general theme of a series of sermons to be delivered by Rev. H. C. Hengell, pastor of St. Paul's University chapel, this winter.

The Redemptorist Fathers of Oconomowoc are assisting Father Hengell this year and one will come over each week to take charge of the 8 and 9 o'clock masses.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY
The Agricultural Literary society will meet in the auditorium of Agriculture hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

"JAB" MURRY, RETURNED VET, MAY BE STRONG MAN IN LINE

Starting in his first game as a regular Varsity football player, Donald "Jab" Murry will be at right tackle when Wisconsin stacks up against Carleton college at Camp Randall this afternoon.

Although Murry has never played in a conference contest, he is an experienced gridiron and can be depended upon to put up a steady battle in the forward wall.

It was in 1919 that "Jab" was a star tackle on the Wisconsin freshman eleven. He dropped out of college for one year and a half, returning last semester.

When he reported to Coach John R. Richards at the beginning of this season, Murry was immediately assigned to the right tackle positions and he has held it without interruption although hard pushed by Schnerner, Varsity man last year.

Murry will receive the "acid test" in his maiden game today. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

TO HOLD FIRST RACE TODAY

Over 30 Varsity Runners to Compete Against All-Americans

More than 30 Varsity squad harriers are expected to go to their marks at 11 o'clock today in front of the gymnasium when a trial meet against the All-American team, composed of ineligible runners, will be held over the three mile university short course.

The meet, which is the first race of the season, is being held in order to test the mettle of the Varsity candidates. Until today Coach Mead Burke has not had a chance to size up his men. The contest this morning will therefore go a long way in deciding the personnel of the 1922 Badger team. The race will also put the harriers into shape for the first dual meet, which, the athletic council decided yesterday, is to be run against Michigan at Madison on Oct. 21 over a distance of three and one-half miles.

Michigan is Strong

Michigan has a large number of promising runners this year headed by Captain Bowen, a veteran of great ability. Arndt, Visse and Davis are other experienced Wolverines, and Coach Steve Farrell has a wealth of material from last year's freshmen.

The meet with Michigan comes on the day of the Indiana football game and will create much interest because it is the first dual contest the Badgers have had with the Maize and Blue cross country team. The Cardinal runners, naturally, will be keen to win from the visitors.

Line-Up

The members of the All-American squad who will try to give the Varsity men the acid test today are: Powell captain, Lessing, Haase, Sherman, Stewart and Weyker. Some of the Varsity men competing are: Ramsay, Wade, Moorhead, Rossmeisel, Chase, Tschudy, Herriman, Link, Valley, Trier, Grubb, Perry, Bergstresser and Cizor.

BADGER ELEVEN HAS FIRST GRID CONTEST TODAY

Prospects of Fast Game Spoiled By Steady Rain

Hunt declared that he had no hopes for a Carleton victory.

"The eleven made a miserable showing against St. Mary's college last week," he said.

Although the Blue and White defeated St. Mary's by a 15 to 6 score, ragged playing characterized its work in the first game. With a week in which to iron out the rough spots and prepare an open attack, Hunt may have developed his team into a worthy opponent for Wisconsin.

Coach Richards sent his men through a light workout at Randall yesterday. "Shorty" Barr called signals for the first eleven while the second team also under went a signal drill.

Taft May Start at Full

Whitten and Gibson were at the halfback positions for Varsity. Irish, Below, Christianson, Nichols, Hohfeld, Murry, Tebelle were in the line, and Bieberstein also got a chance to run through the numbers.

Taft will undoubtedly start the game at fullback. Because of his punting ability, he appears to have the edge on Radtke and Harris, but his plunging and defensive work are mediocre.

Carleton is pinning its hopes on Capt. Harry O'Brien, fullback, and his flashy backfield. The Northfield men are said to be adept in the aerial game and may spring a surprise. It is unlikely that Wisconsin will open up with its stuff unless Carleton proves tougher than is expected.

Game Will Be "Acid Test."

For many of the men, the game will be what Coach Richards called the "acid test." Taft, Nichols, and Murry are playing their first season with the regular Varsity eleven and their work will be closely watched. Irish, a sub last year, is also a comparative newcomer. Several substitutes will be given an opportunity to "do their stuff" and before the contest is over, a complete reserve team may be in the lists for Wisconsin.

Today's game at Camp Randall will be the first since the completion of the large new sections of bleachers which replace the wooden grand stand. More than 5,000 Madison kids will be permitted to watch the show free of charge.

Menorah To Give Annual Frosh Welcome Tonight

The Menorah society will hold its annual Frosh Welcome mixer at the Badger room tonight. The society has more new members this year than it has ever had. Already more than 200 tickets have been sold and indications are that the Badger room will be filled to capacity.

"We are making preparations to receive the largest crowd that has ever attended any Menorah dance," said Harry Katowitz '23, vice-president and social chairman of the Menorah. "Novelty dances and comedy sketches during intermission will be features of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woldenberg will chaperon the party.

Cat Concerts Must Cease, Say Neighbors

A terrible war was waged in the neighborhood of Frances and Langdon Thursday night, but unfortunately, no blood was shed. The cats and squirrels of thereabouts have been making life miserable for would-be-sleepers the past week, but general patience held out until the big yowling last Thursday night. Then it is rumored, a few bricks thudded around, and slippers flew, and numerous vocal expressions floated in the air—but to no avail. However some fighting rights are in jeopardy, so cats beware!

POLITICAL VOLCANOES

FROM the misty recesses of yesterday has been resurrected an ancient ordinance whose few terse sentences bid fair to stir the campus to its very depths. Within this long lost legislation lies a germ that may grow and expand to a magnitude which will hold the college world spellbound.

The Student Senate has discovered a ruling that upon petition a class meeting may be called and that at that meeting candidates may be required to appear before their fellows and orate. Once again Music hall may reverberate with the plaudits of the mob as a gifted speaker ends his plea in a burst of oratorical fire works.

Imagine, the far reaching results of this political find. Who knows but that history may be made; who knows but that the famed Lincoln Douglas debates may fade into oblivion before the blasting rays of a debate between two aspirants to class presidencies.

Picture a meeting in 165. An impatient restless mob, then the persuading, entralling voice of a would be Prom chairman, and the audience becomes quiet, held by the speaker's magic.

Suddenly a co-ed springs to his feet, "Who are you going to take to the Prom if you are elected?" she demands. The candidate falters he is not ready to meet that vital issue. Bedlam breaks forth. He tries compromise, but it is too late, and with bowed head he leaves the platform, a broken man.

Consider the spectacle of State Street, unromatic State street, blaze up forth in the glory of a torch light procession; for when political frenzy is fired by the impassioned voice of man, it knows no bounds.

The magnitude of the picture is thrilling. We wait, eager and expectant, for the re-birth of political oratory, which has so long been dead.

Thanks! Mr. Morgan

THE statement of Attorney-General Morgan to the effect that the city 12 o'clock closing rule on public dances will not apply to the Junior prom nor to student subscription dances, if conducted with some degree of exclusion is one that is welcome to students.

It would have been a bitter pill to swallow if the big social event of the year had been limited to hours suitable for an ice cream social.

The whole matter of the city dance ordinance simmers down to the apparent fact that it has practically no application to student social life. The elimination of 1 o'clock parties at public halls seems to be the only direct application it will have.

In view of the fact that the ordinance does not affect student life directly students will await with interest the action of the faculty committee on student life and interests which has announced that it is considering the abolition of student 1 o'clock dances.

THE GREEN TO MARCH

GATHERING on the lower campus early this afternoon, a body of freshmen will march to the first game of the year in a verdant column and sit together in a mass of effect of green.

They will be carrying out a tradition, perpetuated without legislation or force by the good spirit of succeeding classes.

They will have a good time at that first frosh get-together, a good time which they will remember through four years of college. And they will form a valuable unit in cheering for the Varsity on the field.

Agric Triangle Will Hold Novel Meeting Tomorrow

The relating of summer experiences in so far as they have a direct bearing on Agric Triangle extension work by members of the organization will be the principal phase of the program at the meeting of Agric Triangle in S. G. A. Room of Lathrop hall, at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Six rural community play days have already been conducted by the members of the organization, and plans are being rapidly made to hold rural community evening entertainments.

Members of the organization and their friends will hold a picnic on Sunday afternoon. The picnic party will leave the stock pavilion at 3 o'clock. Those who attend the picnic are requested to notify Bert Langen '23.

ADVERTISING STAFF

The advertising staff of the 1924 Badger will meet at 7 o'clock Tuesday night in the Badger office in the Union building.

BADGER PICTURES BY OCTOBER 15 IS EDITOR'S DECREE

Students Who Graduate After Summer School Are Eligible

All seniors must have their sittings before October 15 in order to have their photographs ready for the 1924 Badger on November 1, E. G. Fulton, associate editor of the yearbook, stated last night.

As local photographers expect to take pictures of approximately 1500 seniors this month, every effort is being made to urge members of the graduating class to arrange for sittings at once. Summary cards have been mailed to each senior.

Those who do not expect to graduate until after summer school are eligible to have pictures in the Badger as well as the regularly enrolled seniors, Fulton added. It is likely that such students have not received a summary card. In such a case they should notify the Badger office at once.

Thesis changes can be made up to December 1, the date when the first proofs will be received from the printers. This ruling has been made for the benefit of seniors who have not yet chosen subjects.

The Badger has set November 1 the final date for the acceptance of senior summaries and pictures.

"For Goodness Sake" Says Cardinal Critic After Parkway Show

BY HICKMAN POWELL

We have always been inclined to consider the road show as the chorus girl's graveyard; but if this be truth, there was a lively lot of ghosts at the Parkway last night. Which is one way of saying that we were pleasantly surprised by a road edition of the successful musical comedy, "For Goodness Sake."

Beauteous damsels were the feature of the show, damsels of quality incontrovertible and each of a quantity comfortable withal. Examples of what plenty of good vigorous exercise can do. They exercised with agile grace.

As a musical comedy, the show was typical. A conglomeration of psychological and histrionic absurdity, mingled with a good measure of quips, kicks, and fulsome cracks, with cast selected more for physique and dancing than for vocal talent.

Somehow, the audience was slow in warming up to the first act. Perhaps its attention was distracted by the omniscience of the fish-faced chorus man with whiskbrooms in front of his ears, or by the obvious nationality and pretty features of the juvenile lead.

But when that juvenile lead and his dancing partner Franceme Dunlap, began to prance, they carted off the cookies.

Frisky Franceme, in garb of gray gossamer, designed by a dressmaker who could find a fortune working for Thomas Cusack, was easily the feminine hit. In her specialty dancing she showed remarkable understanding of comedy pose and rhythm.

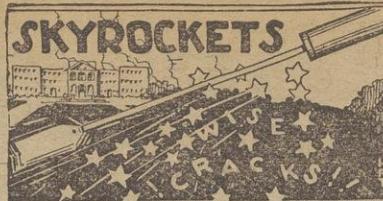

In the farcical role of jealous husband John E. Young claimed a quantity of chuckles and a load of laughs. His inebriate eulogy of "Water" in the last act made the biggest hit of any comic song.

The leading lady and man, Lorraine Sherwood and Leslie Jones, were a pair of lovers altogether pleasant, and their rendering of "Every Day," the most popular musical number of the show, was good.

"For Goodness Sake" was enjoyable, but we shall look forward much today to the presentation of Olga Petrova in her play, "The White Peacock." We have heard excellent reports of the piece and know it will be well worth seeing.

Local Critic Praises Shireen of Orph Bill

Shireen, the girl who has the ability to see with her eyes shut, will present her offering at the Orpheum for the last times today. A well known critic on a Madison paper stated that Shireen was the most untheatrical person he had ever interviewed. She is frankness itself and talks with a sincerity and candor that cannot be disputed.

WILL COMPLETE BEAUTIFYING OF HILL THIS FALL

Work is Under Charge of Prof. Aust; To Plant 30,000 Bulbs

"Plans for beautifying the campus will be completed this fall after seven years of continuous labor," said F. A. Aust, associate professor of landscape design under whose direct supervision this work has been done. Professor Aust has been aided in his work by A. F. Gallistel, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

The trees and shrubs planted around Bascom hall and the Lincoln statue will be chiefly formal to conform with the architecture of the building. This will be the most formal planting with the exception of the work to be done this fall around the Hoard memorial.

The largest variety and number of bulbs will be planted on the campus this fall in the history of the University. The number will total about 30,000. "We have been very successful in growing our own bulbs this year, which is a most unusual occurrence," said Professor Aust.

Nearly all the bulbs used last year are in as fine condition this year as those coming direct from Holland. Bulbs used the second year in this country are nearly always classed as seconds.

Scholarship Will Not Be Offered This Year

Wisconsin men are not to have a chance for the Rhodes scholarship this fall due to the system of rotation which gives every school but two scholarships in every three years.

The scholarship is tenable for three years and the choice of the candidate is based upon character of scholarship, qualities of manhood, force of character and general attainments.

Wisconsin men will have another chance to capture this opportunity for three years study at Oxford this fall.

Ballet Booth Tickets Go On Sale Monday, Oct. 9

Tickets for Ballet Booth, the Edwin Booth annual specialty dance which will be given in Lathrop gymnasium and concert room next Friday will go on sale Monday, October 9. The tickets will be sold at $1.50 and may be secured at the University and Badger pharmacies. In order to secure perfect dancing conditions the ticket sale is limited to 200 tickets.

Your Fraternity House-- Is It Adequate?

You are interested in a new fraternity house. Either you own your present house—or you rent.

If you own and desire to get a better place, we have constant inquiries for fraternity houses or rooming houses, and can aid you in selling. Thus we can help in financing the new place by disposing of the old.

If you are renting—why not use your income for buying your own place? The first place you buy may be a modest one—it may not meet your ultimate requirements; but like all other fraternities, it will start you towards an actual ownership.

Our experience of over 20 years in financing fraternities will be of assistance to you. We have sold a large number of the present fraternity houses. We will be glad to give you the benefit of that experience. At this time we have several very excellent places for sale, ranging in price from $20,000 to $40,000 on the lake shore, and some wonderful lake shore places ranging from $40,000 to $75,000.

COMMERCE MEN TO MEET FROSH ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Prominent Professors of the Department Will Make Speeches

Professors William A. Scott, Stephen W. Gilman, Edward H. Gardner, and Fayette H. Elwell of the Commerce school will speak at the annual commerce course Frosh welcome Friday night.

Prof. W. J. Jamieson, who has succeeded Prof. Haake in the courses in business administration, will also address the men. Prof. Jamieson has recently been connected with the University of Minnesota.

"The purpose of the smoker is to make all new commerce men feel acquainted with the faculty and the upperclassmen of the school," E. Walter Anderson '23, secretary of the Commerce Advisory commission, who is in charge of the ticket sale, said yesterday.

Professor Scott, director of the Course in Commerce, will officially welcome the freshmen. Prof. "Steve" Gilman will acquaint the new men with the purpose and spirit of the Commerce school.

The welcome will be held at the Presbyterian church parlors where all commerce men will be invited.

"The Story of Christian Religion," Leader: Mr. F. E. Wolf. A discussion of the forces that entered into the making of the Christian Religion, its conflict with the Roman Empire and adaptations to various currents of thought. An attempt will be made to co-ordinate secular and religious history.

"Christianity and Present World Conditions," Leader Mr. Howard Beaver (B. 6070). This course will commend itself with the world-wide applications of Christian principles, both at home and abroad. Political, economic and social aspects will be emphasized. Students from foreign countries will find this course most interesting.

The University is very wisely restricted by its charter from teaching anything that is "partisan in politics or sectarian in religion." Experience has shown that the spirit of this provision can be carried out most happily when religion is not taught at all. Hence the University does not offer any courses in religion.

But the development of a man's Religious Life is the most important phase of his University Training. The other day 7,000 engineers were asked to state the most desirable qualities needed for success in the Engineering Profession. Ninety per cent placed character first and technical training fifth. Religion is the great builder of men of character.
