STUDENT BODY TO GIVE TEAM BIG SENDOFF

Meet on Lower Campus at 3:30 to March to Depot

The entire student body will turn out this afternoon to give Captain "Red" Weston and his band of football men a rousing send-off as they board the train at 4:10 from the St. Paul West Madison station for Columbus, where they will meet Ohio State Saturday.

Cheer Leader "Bill" Pickard has taken charge of the affair, and has planned a parade to the station. The band will lead the procession, and every student who has no classes at that hour is expected to fall into line. The parade will form on the lower campus promptly at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Coach Richards sent his men through a strenuous work-out last evening in preparation for one of the crucial games of the 1920 schedule. Neither Wisconsin nor the Buckeyes have been defeated this season and Saturday's battle will eliminate one of the teams from the conference race. Last night's work consisted in a long hard scrimmage against the "All-Americans," who made futile attempts to pierce the varsity line with Ohio plays.

Richards will send his strongest line-up against Ohio this week-end. Every man on the squad is in good condition physically, and determined to ruin the Buckeye hopes for a conference title. The entire squad of 32 men will make the trip to Columbus. Those men who were named by Coach Richards to report at the station this afternoon are as

AD CLUBS TO HEAR ADDRESS BY EXPERT

James W. Young, vice president of the J. Walter Thompson Advertising company, Chicago, will address a joint meeting of the university and city advertising clubs under auspices of the former organization at a banquet tonight at the city Y. M. C. A. Mr. Young's subject is "Ideals in Advertising."

Committees for the year will be appointed at this time by the president, Irwin Maier.

New members were elected to the student organization at a meeting Wednesday noon including Arthur Nelson, Pauline Cornish, Loyd M. Strobe, Vernon W. Sell, Kenneth Cullen, class of 1921; David Smith, Corrington Gill, William Rendel, class of 1922; Blanche K. Field, Allen Muller, class of 1923.

Plans for an intercollegiate association of advertising clubs were discussed. Regular meetings of the club will be held hereafter every Tuesday noon at the University Y. M. C. A. cafeteria.

Y. M. C. A. AND Y. W. C. A. WILL RAISE $6,500 IN CAMPUS DRIVE NEXT WEEK

111 Co-eds on 10 Teams to Conduct Canvass for Women's Work

Exactly 111 women will make a personal canvass of every woman on the campus from Monday to Friday next week, in the annual financial drive of the Young Women's Christian association to make up a quota of $2,500 for the budget for the coming year.

The campaigners, divided into ten teams comprising ten members each, will work in ten districts captained by Josephine Walter, Margaret Duckett, Cleo Parsley, Josephine Doring, Belle Knight, Mary Baldwin, Katherine Barthoff, Pearl Lichtfeld, Ellen Swetil, and Frances Caswell. The drive is in charge of Ellen Correll.

The budget for the year is as follows:

Receipts
Student pledge	$2,500
Faculty	700
Alumni	100
Ways and means	200
Bazaar	500
Total	$4,000
Disbursements
General secretary	$1,800
Office secretary	500
National pledge	300
Printing and postage	200
Conferences	300
Contingent fund	150
Committees	550
Total	$4,000

There will be a meeting of the canvassers Saturday, 2:30 p. m., Lathrop hall.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE NETS $500

Over $500 was raised yesterday in the Salvation Army university tag day under the auspices of Mildred Rogers, representing the Y. W. C. A. and Wesley Travers, representing the Y. M. C. A.

Starts Second Year as Y. W. Secretary

MISS MARY ANDERSEN

Miss Mary Andersen, general secretary of the university Y. W. C. A., assumed her duties last year upon her return from France where she spent 14 months with the national association in the hostess house for nurses of Base unit 27 from the University of Pittsburg.

She is a graduate of Lake Forest college, where she was a member of Y. W. cabinet, and Columbia university, from which she received her Master of Arts degree in sociology. She was general secretary of the Y. W. at the University of Iowa two years before going abroad.

Miss Andersen is actively interested in the establishment on the campus of a hostess house as a center for university girls, similar to the one which has been so successfully operated at the University of California, Berkeley.

Earle Tower Heads Organization to Stage Men's Campaign

The annual drive of the Y. M. C. A. to start Monday morning for student contributions of $4,000 to support its work on the campus the coming year is to be conducted in a more thorough manner than any "Y" drives of the past, if the extensive plans now perfected by the students and officials of the organization go through as the workers say they will.

The organization of the men's campaign is in the hands of Earle J. Tower, chairman of the finance committee of the Y. M. C. A., assisted by a large deputation from the workers of the Sophomore commission, 20 of whom will act as captains of the campus teams. It is planned to have the campus entirely covered by the Y teams, four men and a captain to each team, who will take from ten to 15 names in a district to the man, and who personally will see every man on their lists.

Although reaching the goal of $4,000 will require the hearty support of each Wisconsin man, the known service of the association on the campus is expected to make the task of the solicitors easier.

The drive will close Wednesday night, at which time reports of the team captains will be turned in and the reports of the fraternity canvass will be heard.

The Y. M. C. A. budget is as follows:

Lobby supplies: Paper, magazines, records, etc., $500; employment, $600; tutoring, $125; printing, stationery, $500; News Sheet publication, $350; religious conference, $300; Badger club, $300; fellowship meetings, $175; discussionals, Bible study, $100; foreign student work, $100; boys' work, deputations, and Americanization, $25; sick visitation, $50; social, $250; hand-book and Frosh welcome, $500; conferences, $150; light, $233.33; short course, $150; fuel, $1,500; water, $75; phone, $50; repairs, $100; finance, $500; postage, $100; equipment (multigraph, etc.), $700; miscellaneous, $100; contingency, $46.67; state and international aid, $150; salaries, $4,520.

The total reaches $12,250. Four thousand dollars of this amount is asked from the students.

CASH, JOBS, ROOMS, BOOKS, ADVICE "Y" IS EMPORIUM FOR ALL THESE

"If you want anything, go to the 'Y' for it," is a pithy saying among men of the university that expresses the service ideal for which the university Y. M. C. A. stands.

"Our rule is never to turn away a man who wants help," says "Dad" Wolf. "We either try to give him what he wants, or tell him where he can get it."

"So general has the idea become of the 'Y' being able to get a person what he wants, that many persons throughout the state, even in adjoining states, have adopted the habit of writing us for information and advice.

Make Amusing Inquires
"Some of these appeals are quite amusing.

"For instance, one woman in the state decided to buy twenty Victrola records and wrote us for advice in choosing them.

"On another occasion, the parents of a student here, contemplating a camping trip in the northern part of the state, wrote and asked us if we could get them a cottage."

The services that the "Y" performs for students are many and varied. Important is the help it gives to entering students. It writes to men and welcomes them as soon as they decide to enter school. It is open during the summer months for the benefit of men desiring information before entering in the fall. This summer, the association had two stenographers, sometimes three, busy answering letters from students inquiring about rooms, employment, or other matters. Through the Sophomore commission, hundreds of men were written personal letters, while about 1,200 letters more went out from the office of the general secretary.

Meet Incoming Trains
In the fall, new men were met at the station and taken to their rooming places. Seventy trains were met during the first three days of school. During this time, someone was on duty all night long at the "Y" to take care of students who might come there looking for information.

Last year the "Y" cashed $60,000 in checks for students. It gave out 1,200 pieces of employment.

It served 70 different organ-

"The scene is laid in Venice, beau-

"Day after day they saw one another, as she passed in her little gondola. And as she passed she always waved, and he sent back a ripple.

"And then, one bright morning she missed him, until she was almost by him. Then she turned to give the usual greeting, but alas for her eagerness: She fell in!

"He saw her sink, and manfully tried to reach her, but oh, how slowly he seemed to move. Once, twice, three times, she sank. And then he grabbed her.

"Speak to me, Oh speak to me," he cried. But not a word. She seemed not to hear him. They sank.

"As they came up he again tried to rouse her. 'Listen to me,' he frantically shouted. But she seemed not to hear.

"And, as they rose for the eighth time, he pulled a ring from his vest pocket, and held it dripping over her. 'Listen. Look, I have a diamond ring for you.'

"And with that the lady seemed to recover, for she smiled and spoke to her brave rescuer. Which, proves, dear people that she was not stone deaf."

FACTORY GIRLS
THROUGH CLUBS

It is the purpose of the educational work committee of the Y. W. C. A. to bring the university girl and the industrial girl closer together.

Ten industrial clubs, which have as advisors ten university women, are already provin by their enthusiasm that co-operation between the two groups is possible.

The opening banquet of the clubs held at the city Y. W. C. A. building, was attended by 150 girls representing the different industries of Madison. The clubs meet once a week for supper. Recreation follows, after which classes in dramatics, first aid to beauty, and Bible study meet. The class in dramatics is conducted by Dorothy Dwight, a university woman.

The advisers assist in making plans, but the members carry them out. They visit the factories and offices where the girls work in order to meet them at their work and understand better their lives and problems.

15 PARTIES PLANNED
BY JUNIOR COUNCIL

Plans for 15 parties for university men and women at the homes of various faculty members in different parts of Madison are being formulated by the Y. M. C. A. junior council co-operating with the Y. W. C. A.

Besides providing for the social life of students and aiding in discussonal classes, the junior council has charge of the arrangement of classes in tutoring through the month of January before final examinations. Chemistry, mathematics, French and Spanish classes will be held.

The council includes Harlin Loomer, president, Ralph Heibreder, Henry Katz, Harold Metcalf, Wesley King, Clarence Wille, Leo Kohl, C. P. McGinnis, Birney Miller, Fred Brewer, Walter Franz, and Robert Desmond.

UNIFORM TEXT BOOKS

MANITOWOC — Uniform text books for the schools of Manitowoc county were assured here when at the convention of the county school boards, they voted 65 to 23 to adopt the plan. The schools believe it will secure higher results. The new system will go into effect at an early date.

COMMISSION WILL BE CHOSEN NOV. 5

Announcement of the 25 girls who will make up the freshman commission will be made at the Y. W. C. A. banquet Nov. 6.

"Capability, leadership, and the interest in Y. W. are the qualities which we are looking for in the selection of girls for the commission," said Helen Cheetham, vice-president of Y. W. and head of the freshman commission.

The purpose of the commission is to help the freshman girls to become acquainted by dividing them into groups, with a freshman commission girl at the head. Parties will be held and other means used for promoting a good fellowship spirit among the girls.

EDDY COMING AS LEADER OF RELIGION MEET

Lothrop Follett is Chairman Shaping Plans for March Conference

The all-university religious conference, which will be held Friday, Saturday, and Sunday of the first week-end in March, promises to be one of the most interesting ever held at the university, according to "Dad" Wolf, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A.

The religious conference was founded and has been maintained annually for many years by the "Y." This year the Y. W. C. A. and the Campus Religious council will co-operate with the Y. M. C. A. to make it as successful as possible under the student chairmanship of Lothrop Follett. The purpose of the conference is to place the idea of religious life before the student body in an intirely undenominational manner.

Eddy Has New Message

The chief speaker at the conference this year is to be G. Sherwood Eddy, who has been called, next to Dr. John R. Mott, the best known man in the world.

For 20 years Mr. Eddy has traveled all over the world. He has addressed large gatherings of students and natives throughout Europe and Asia, and is thoroughly acquainted with the condition of peoples everywhere.

This year he has been visiting the devastated regions of Sweden, Denmark, Russia, Poland, Austria, and Czecho-Slovakia. The conditions, he reports, are far more serious than most persons imagine. In Austria, for example, professors are tutoring for ten cents a day, denying themselves food and actual means of sustenance in order to aid the wretched natives. Many boys and girls have not so much as seen a piece of candy for four and five years.

Mr. Eddy says he has a message for students of America this year different from any he has presented before.

Gordon to Direct Music

Lothrop Follett, student chairman, has obtained promise of the services of Prof. E. B. Gordon, who plans to organize a student chorus of 500 voices to sing at the meetings.

Aberdeen-Angus Men To Lunch Thursday

Wisconsin Aberdeen-Angus breeders will hold a luncheon Thursday noon at the college of agriculture stock pavilion, it was announced Wednesday by W. H. Premo, president, and James G. Fuller, secretary. Charles Gray, secretary, and F. H. Higgins, assistant secretary, of the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' association, are expected to attend the meeting.

Light Practice Today

Immediately after noon today the team will spend an hour running singles at Camp Randall. From there they will go to the station and meet the parade of students. Richards has his team in excellent condition for the Ohio game, and expects to show Wilce's men some tricks that will be hard to stop.

Coach Lowman, who has watched the Ohio team in action this season, believes that the Badgers will surprise their opponents with their speedy gackshro123456hwhaaETAO speedy backs and strong line.

A number of students are planning to accompany the team to Columbus, several parties having made arrangements to make the trip by automobile. A block of 100 seats have been reserved for Wisconsin rooters. These may be secured from Frank Nickerson at the gymnasium office any time today.

Ohio Not Confident

Ohio's decisive victory over Purdue has not made them over-confident regarding their tilt with the Badgers. Wilce has been driving his men hard all week, and believes his backs are working better than they were in the game with Purdue last Saturday. Ohio realizes the strength of the Badgers after the outcome of the Northwestern game here.

With the exception of "Chick" Harley, the Buckeye machine has practically the same fighting front as faced Wisconsin here last fall: Stinchcomb who was the Buckeye's chief ground-gainer here a year ago, will be their mainstay on the offense. Wilce has unearthed a new quarter-back, and shifted Stinchcomb to half.

Play by Play at Gym

Complete returns of the game, play by play, are to be received here and given the students at the gymnasium. "Jack" Bigler will make the trip to Columbus and handle the play from the field for Union board.

With the departure of the varsity for the Ohio game, the freshmen squad will take the opportunity to get in some hard practices over the week-end. On next Saturday the yearlings will meet the sophomore eleven in their annual battle at Camp Randall. A number of the 1923 men have been working out under Coach Lowman on the All-American, and the frosh will be offered stiff opposition. "Bob" Quick and "Keg" Driver are driving the first year men hard for this game, and believe they will have little trouble in whipping the sophomores.

WEATHER

The highest temperature during the past 24 hours was 77 at 7 p. m. and the lowest was 60 at 6 a. m. Sun sets at 5:08.

The weather continues unsettled in the west with showers on the southern plains and in the plateau regions. It is much cooler on the northern plains. The temperature fell below freezing in North Dakota and Manitoba this morning.

Y. W. SOCIAL PLAN OUTLINED

Story Telling and "Big Sister" Movement Play Important Parts

A broad and varied program of social service work is carried on by the members of the Wisconsin Y. W. C. A. under Isabel Bacon, in cooperation with the city Y. W. C. A. and social service organizations.

"Story Telling Hour" under the Madison Welfare association, is one of the interesting activities in which university women may take part. Twelve members of the Y. W. C. A. are supplied to tell stories to children for one hour each week. Caroline Schweizer is in charge.

Aid Juvenile Court

The "Big Sisters," in connection with the juvenile court, take a place that older women could not fill. Mrs. Ferguson, at the court, gives the names of children to Harriet Hammond, and in this way girls are found to help in critical periods with advice and assistance.

The leaders of the "Girl Reserve" at the city Y. W. C. A. are also supplied by the university women, under the chairmanship of Helen Stevenson.

A novel idea in social service is the class in Religious dramatics, taught by Olivia Fentress and Helen Harper, which dramatizes some Bible story once a month.

Distribute Baskets

At Christmas time the Y. W. C. A. gives baskets of food and presents to the children of poor families. Christmas parties are given in each sorority house to poor children of the city, under the guidance of the Y. W. C. A.

In the spring Margaret Bundy helps the children at Longfellow school with their gardens.

CASH, JOBS, ROOMS FURNISHED BY "Y"

izations with committee rooms. It placed 3,000 men in rooming houses.

The maintenance of a book bureau was another form of service.

Already, this year, hundreds of pieces of employment have been given out, and the loan funds have been kept busy. The service most appreciated is of a sort that cannot be tabulated or catalogued. Every few minutes someone comes into the "Y" seeking some sort of service, often very personal and intimate.

Gives Personal Service

Every large educational institution has the problem of giving its students a variety of personal services, so easily given at a smaller school. Many colleges have given up their efforts in this line, but the university "Y" is trying to fill just such a place in the student life at Wisconsin.

"The students know, I believe," says "Dad" Wolf, "that the association is always ready at any time of the day or night to come to the aid of any man who needs it."

HANDBOOK GUIDES FROSH ON ARRIVAL

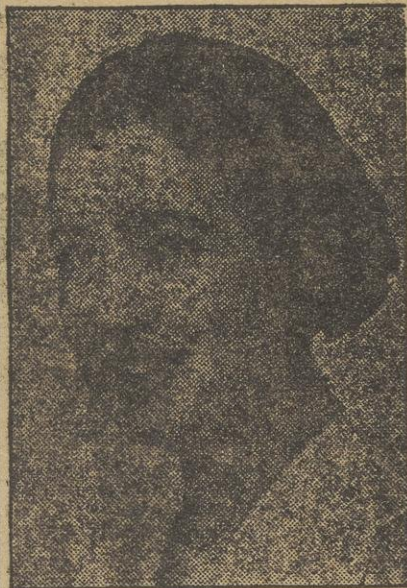

Each year a committee of Y. M. C. A. men get out the varsity handbook popularly known as "the frosh bible."

The object of the book is to furnish in brief form a bird's-eye view of university organizations. It provides a calendar, a bulletin of university events, class schedule pages, a map of the city, and blank note pages with a cash account.

The same committee has charge of the general freshman welcome. For this purpose mixers are held, early in the year and, later, the annual freshman banquet.

Arthur Nelson, senior in commerce, is chairman of the committee. The other members are Glen Tinkham, Norman Johnson, Herbert Procknow, Walter Teal, Elmer Benson, Farrell Dunn, Harry Fredericks, Wilson Trueblood, Henry Everts, and R. G. Peterson.

Y. W. C. A. President is Campus Leader

MILDRED ROGERS

Mildred Rogers, president of the Y. W. C. A., has been actively interested in the association for four years. During her freshman year she was a member of freshman commission, in her sophomore year was elected secretary, and in her junior year served as chairman of the conference committee. Other activities which have claimed Miss Rogers are W. A. A., of which she is a member and S. G. A. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

"Y" SOLVES PROBLEM OF STUDENT HOUSING

An important phase of university Y. M. C. A. work lies in helping solve the student housing problem at the beginning of each year.

The "Y" takes upon itself, under the direction of the Sophomore commission, the task of keeping straight the record of approved rooms available for renting, and also undertakes to secure suites for use of faculty members. The "Y" also keeps a record of rooms for temporary use, by parents and others who come to visit the university for only a few days.

The commission already has plans under way of accommodating the guests of Homecoming week. The prospective arrival of the short-course students presents another problem which will be met by the commission.

"BILL" PICKARD

In order to give students an opportunity to get together informally on Sunday night, the Badger club was organized in January, 1919. A get acquainted period and a talk followed by refreshments constitute the program at the meetings every Sunday night.

"Bill" Pickard, chairman, is assisted by Doris Lucas and students having charge of special phases of work. "Doc" Dorward, who leads the singing, has some Scotch songs which are always welcome. The Badger Trio plays popular and classical selections. The address of the evening is on some topic of religion, art, travel, or social work. The attendance averages 250. When prominent speakers such as Jane Addams come, the capacity of the "Y" parlors is taxed to the limit.

In addition to the Sunday night programs, sleigh rides and informal parties are held for the members. The first affair of the year is to be a Hallowe'en costume party. At Christmas time, the poor children of Madison are entertained with a tree and toys and candy.

All students, men and women, are eligible for membership. A small fee is charged to help pay for the refreshments.

Prominent faculty members and citizens of Madison serve as hosts and hostesses at the Sunday night meetings.

The fall committees include Doris Lucas, Dorothy Dwight, Katherine Wheeler, Marion Debbink, Doris Bennett, Louise Thompson, Alice Chapell, Lucy Koehler, Mrs. F. E. Wolf, "Bill" Pickard, Ray McCartney, Herbert Muth, "Al" Davidson, Harold Lamb, B. A. Stein, Leon Dunwiddie, Al Gerhardt, William Dorward, Arthur Kinnan, Gustav Schliezak, G. W. Hiel, James T. Quieting Feminine Influence to Be Foiled by Rooters' Club in Male Yelling Stand

Fifty men gathered in Science hall yesterday afternoon in answer to the call for a rooters' club. A new plan to keep outsiders, and the quieting feminine influence, from the rooting section at the Homecoming game was adopted. The plan is for all male students wishing to be team-boosters to take their fee cards plus 50 cents and drop in at the Union building between 3:30 and 5:30 any afternoon or between 11 and 12 on Saturday to get reservations in the rooter section.

Chairman "Bud" Follett gave a short talk on the good results of organized cheering on the team's morale, and added, with equal punch, "No women in the section."

All rooters were told to gather more rooters as the club has only one week in which to fill the 1,844 seats composing its section. As an inducement free megaphones are promised.

Varsity Cheer Leader Bill Pickard indorsed the plan.

THE Y. M. C. A. is an organization which is of service to every man on the campus.

If the "Y" were to be closed tomorrow, a great void would be created in student activities.

From the moment the verdant freshman steps off the train until the day when he is handed his sheepskin, the University Y. M. C. A. helps him in his daily life.

The "Y" assists him in finding a room. It introduces him to the intricacies of university life. It provides him with moral and spiritual uplift. It obtains a job for him if he wants it. It lends him money when he needs it. It gets him acquainted with people whom he otherwise would never meet.

The University "Y" is a service station which knows no creeds. It bars no student from its membership. It is open to all students at all times. Rich and poor, Jew and gentile, Catholic and Protestant, atheist and Christian, all are given the same kindly consideration and always are shown the same spirit of helpfulness.

ANOTHER CHANCE TO LEAD

"WITH favorable circumstances the University Young Women's Christian association of the University of Wisconsin has opportunity to surpass its former record and become one of the two or three great university organizations in the country," is the opinion of a woman actively connected with the national association.

The financial drive scheduled for next week is an appeal for sympathetic service to a worthwhile cause, and will determine to a large extent the "favorable circumstances" surrounding the association for the coming year. In providing wholesome companionship, destroying class barriers, and offering religious influences, the Y. W. performs a service that is not duplicated by any other organization on the campus.

No one can be unmindful of the big things the association has accomplished and the bigger things that it will accomplish with the establishment of its broad membership basis free from sectarian bias.

The variety of its activities, which include the maintenance of campus standards through study and discussion groups, Americanization work in Little Italy, social service in Madison, welcome to new women and the work connected with its 12 committees, offers a wide field to the particular talents of every woman on the campus.

Of course there will be a personal canvass, but the campaigners are relying on the appreciation of the work of the Y. W. C. A. to arouse generosity. The support of every woman in the university is depended upon to raise the $2,500 which makes up part of the $4,000 budget for the year.

The financial circumstances for the year must be made so favorable that there will be no halt to the "forward march" of the association.

UNIVERSITY MEN FOSTER PROGRAM AMONG CITY BOYS

Allan Davey Heads "Y" Committee in Charge of Athletic Groups and Classes

Boy's work sponsored by the University Y. M. C. A. under the chairmanship this year of Allan C. Davey, varsity quarterback, is getting away to an active start with athletic groups and study classes organized and led by university men.

The program includes work with boys of the city "Y," the Boy Scouts, members of Sunday schools of the city, and Italian boys. Twelve groups are wanted at the city "Y," and leaders are asked for by the secretary of the Boy Scouts. F. P. Cochrell, boys' secretary of the city Y. M. C. A., is holding a class in boys' work on Tuesday at the university "Y," which all men interested are invited to attend. These meetings are expected to furnish valuable training for the program the association is endeavoring to carry out among Madison boys.

On Davey's committee are Eugene Kornreich, Richard Van Houten, Henry J. Katz, Dilbert Jones, Lawrence R. Boies, Joseph Fucille, Albert Ebentier, Eugene D. Holden, Jack Williams, and K. A. Staehle.

LITTLE PRAYER MEETING GROUP GROWS TO SERVE WHOLE VARSITY

Imagine the "Y" hall rising majestically from the middle of the lower campus.

Sounds a little queer, doesn't it? And yet it might have been, for the ground was purchased and plans at one time were made for a building in that very place.

The history of the "Y" is not by any means a dry record of Bible classes and secretaries' names. When the association first was organized in 1881 however, its activities did consist almost entirely of prayer-meetings on Sunday nights and religious classes. Now it is the largest and one of the most powerful organizations on the campus with a membership of nearly 1,000 students and activities affecting the entire student body.

Russell Early President

Dean H. L. Russell of the College of Agriculture was the second president of the association in 1886. There was no outside secretary until 1899, and the students belonging to the association lived in a residence back of the present Phi Psi house on Sterling court.

The present hall was not ready for use till 1905. The association previously occupied residences at 708 Langdon and 514 Lake streets. The first secretary was G. S. Phelps, a Minnesota graduate, who took the position in 1899, and the second was Leroy B. Smith, a graduate of Cornell. From 1903 to 1917 there were four general secretaries: "Hal" Gaffin, Thomas Kennedy, Arthur Jorgenson, and Frank H. West. The year 1917 marked the coming of "Dad" Wolf.

Wolf Serving Fourth Year

"Dad" Wolf's life is an interesting record of service and achievement. At the age of 19 he was paymaster in a large factory in Toledo, which employed 1,000 men. His subsequent successful work with boys is due in large part to the training he had here.

Mr. Wolf is a graduate of Doane Academy, Granville, Ohio, and received his A. B. degree from Denison university. He received his B. B. degree from Newton Theological institute, Boston, and from 1912 to 1915, attended the Harvard Graduate school. The summer of 1914 was spent in European travel. The year after his return he was asked to lead the Wisconsin men in the Lake Geneva conference. While there he made the acquaintanceships which led to his being asked to fill the post he now holds here, when Frank West, the former secretary, was called to war service.

Sponsor War Work

During the war the "Y" was especially active. All membership requirements were suspended, and it required the work of eight general secretaries to take care of the work. Mail was distributed to 3,000 men, and an entertainment was provided in Music hall every night in the week. At Thanksgiving every man in the service was invited to some Madison home for dinner.

The history of the University Y. M. C. A. is a story of service—service rendered to the students of Wisconsin at all times and in all needs. The association has stood ready to fill the gaps in times of emergency throughout its existence and to do equally well the unspectacular drudgery of every day demands.

NEW BUILDING FOR "Y" WILL BE BEGUN SOON

Enlarged Quarters to Provide Adequate Facilities for Association Work

Directors and members of the University Y. M. C. A. are looking forward to realization of plans for a new "Y" building that will provide adequate facilities for expanding forms of association activity, which have come seriously to tax facilities afforded by the present building.

So many organizations connected with the association work are meeting daily that it is impossible to accommodate all of them properly. In addition, the Badger club, which meets every Sunday night, has entirely outgrown the parlors.

Build Back to Lake

Special plans have been drawn for the new building which will include all the present site, from a line even with the gym down to the lake front. In addition to the service facilities installed in the present building, it is planned to have a room for the Badger club which will seat 400 persons. This room will be equipped with a pipe organ and movie outfit. It will be available for use as a banquet hall in addition to serving the Badger club.

A large private dining room for men living in the house is planned. This will overlook the lake, and will seat about 300 men at regular meals. The dormitory will be equipped for study and give such privacy as can be had only in private apartment houses.

Build First Unit Soon

Nothing has been left undone to make the plans complete in every detail. The board of directors has been considering the matter, and while it is not planned to have a special financial campaign for this purpose at the present time, it is hoped that enough money can be raised during the year to make the new unit available for use next September. The first unit would give the private dining room, added parlor and library space, and accommodate about 200 more men in the dormitory.

EXTEND SCOPE OF SICK AID SERVICE

The Y. M. C. A. committee on visitation of the sick, under Dana Taylor, its chairman, plans to add new activities to its former list by undertaking to visit students who are ill at the different rooming houses, in addition to those in the infirmary. Services rendered by the committee include writing letters, doing errands, furnishing stationery, The Daily Cardinal, current magazines, and newspapers, and, at Christmas, a Christmas tree and "eats" for the boys.

Last year the "Y" installed at the infirmary a Victrola on wheels. Last year also, at the suggestion of the "Y," a library of light fiction was given by the women of the faculty.

This year the calling room of the infirmary is to be equipped jointly by university officials and the "Y."

"Y. M." PROVIDES ROOMS FOR GUESTS

With Madison hotel registration lists already closed, the Y. M. C. A. is stepping into the breach to provide rooms for Homecoming guests.

"A record of available rooms is being taken for accommodation of visiting students and alumni," said "Dad" Wolf. "Many private homes have been offered, and arrangements for all out-of-town people can probably be made. It is essential, however, that reservations be sent in within the next two weeks, if possible. Those wishing accommodations should indicate in their request the number of guests and number of nights for which they wish provision to be made."

1,200 STUDENTS GET EMPLOYMENT THROUGH Y. M. C. A.

Association Takes Over Active Supervision of University Job Bureau This Year

Three years ago the repeated calls made upon the Y. M. C. A. for aid to students seeking employment resulted in the establishment of a student employment agency.

The system has been so successful that the entire supervision of university student employment has been taken over by the "Y" from the alumni headquarters. Last year the "Y" office gave out employment to 1,200 men, and the number is on the increase.

From early in June till late in September requests come daily to the office. The student's name and a list of his qualifications is put on file as soon as his request comes into the office, and from then till the opening of the university, the Y. M. C. A. is on the lookout for the right job for him. Although the greater part of this work is done during the summer months, the bureau is kept busy in this way throughout the year.

FEET HURT?

Is It Tight Shoe or Displaced First Metatarsus? Chiroprpodists Know

Rich men's, poor men's, beggar-men's feet—they are all apt to hurt. In fact, they usually do. But is the cause of it the fashionable narrow vamp and the oft-maligned French heel? Is the co-ed's love of beauty alone responsible as she limps up the hall, or is there some more vital cause?

This was the subject of an address given by Dr. J. J. Monahan of Chicago at the convention of the Wisconsin Society of Chiroprody which was held in the assembly room of the capitol on Monday afternoon.

"That the modern shoe is responsible for much of the foot trouble is beyond question," stated Dr. Monahan. "But should not wearers of sensible shoes be free from such trouble? The peasant girl as well as the devotee of fashion suffers from bunions."

The evolution of the human foot was traced from the lowest form, which occurs in the fin formation of a fish, through the animal forms of frog, salamander, duckling, opossum, monkey, orang-outang, gorilla, and chimpanzee, to the foot of a child. The conclusion came to was that the cause of foot trouble is deeper seated than the latest fad in foot gear.

So dance on, fair co-ed, in your daintily unscientific slippers. And if you must surreptitiously kick off a silver slipper to rub an aching foot while "he" is gone in quest of a glass of punch for you, you are exonerated. Perhaps a hurting toe it is to you, and it is nothing more. But not so to the chiroprpodist. He knows that it is probably a displaced first metatarsus, and you can blame it onto some tree-inhabiting ancestor who doesn't care now what you say about him.

26 WOMEN COMPOSE SOPH COMMISSION

Twenty-six university women make up the sophomore commission of Y. W. C. A. which is a continuation of the freshman commission, with some additional elections. As a standing committee of Y. W. C. A. this commission discusses membership basis, aid in obtaining members for the association, and act as ushers at Sunday vespers.

Freshmen members of Y. W. C. A. are advisees of the sophomore commission members. The sophomores write to their advisees during the summer and give parties for them in the fall.

The first number of the Wisconsin Literary Magazine, which the editors have designated as the anniversary number, will be sold on the campus beginning tomorrow at 8 a. m.

Takes First on Holstein Heifer at Livestock Show

THURSDAY'S PROGRAM

6:00—Breakfast.
8:30—General Conference—Talk by "Red" Weston.
9:15—Judging Beef Calves—Short-horn, Hereford, Aberdeen-Angus, Junior and Senior Yearlings.
12:00—Dinner.
1:00—Judging Beef Calves and Colts—Percheron, Clydesdale or Shire Belgian.
4:00—Trip to Football Field—Talks by Coach Jones.
5:30—Supper.
7:30—Stock Sale. Stock Pavilion.

Henry Phillips, Madison, won first place with his grade Holstein heifers at the Wisconsin junior livestock exposition - Wednesday morning at the college of agriculture stock pavilion. Wednesday afternoon the first prize winners in each class were to compete for the $50 silver trophy to be awarded by C. T. Bundy of Eau Claire to the exhibitor of the grand champion dairy heifer.

The board of regents of the university attended the exposition in a body at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to witness the judging club exhibits. Later the young breeders made a tour of inspection about the university farm. They will banquet at the city Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening, with George W. Davies of Madison presiding. Hamlin Garland will be one of the chief speakers. Dean H. L. Russell addressed the conference Wednesday morning.

At the fitting demonstration on Tuesday evening Ralph Reynolds of Lodi instructed the boys and girls in fitting beef calves for the showing. Prof. G. C. Humphrey and W. L. Houser demonstrated fitting of dairy calves.

Baby beef will have the center of the stage Thursday, with J. E. Robbins of Horace, Ind., prominent breeder and showman, as judge. In the evening all the livestock will be paraded in the pavilion for the benefit of townspeople, and afterward the baby beves will be auctioned by C. L. Bennett.

L. L. Oldham of Madison, secretary of the Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Ass'n. of Wisconsin, awarded gold Elgin watches to Gordon Clark of West Salem and Ernie Gurr of Lake Mills for winning first prize in the two pure-bred Holstein classes. Henry Phillips of Madison won first prize with his grade Holstein. Ervine Nuttleman of West Salem won two first prizes with his Guernseys. Stanley Melrose and Margaret Dillon, both of Mondovi, won first prizes with Jerseys.

FIRST Y. W. "COZY" TO BE HELD FRIDAY

A "cozy," the first of a series of weekly "at homes," to be given in Lathrop parlors on Friday at 4:30 p. m., will start the social activities of the Y. W. C. A.

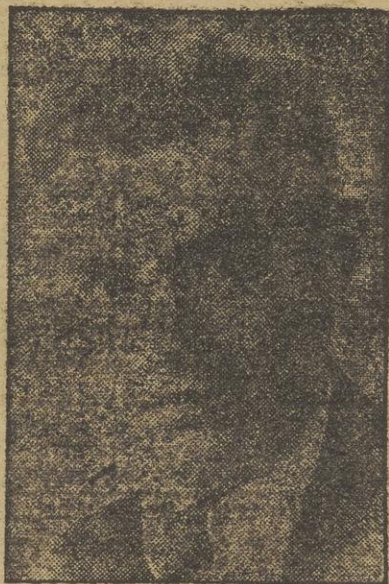

Different organizations will have charge of the affairs, and Mortar Board members will be hostesses on Friday. All university women are invited.

Friday night parties at the homes of faculty members and town friends are being planned by the social committee of which Sada Buckmaster is chairman. Ten or 12 girls will be invited each week by two or three upperclasswomen, who will assist as hostesses.

VESPERS SECURES OUTSIDE SPEAKER.

Opportunity to hear an interesting speaker from the national board of the Y. W. C. A. will be given next Sunday afternoon when Miss Charlotte Adams of the secretarial staff will address Vespers, Lathrop hall, 4:30 p. m. Miss Adams is an instructor in Bible study at the national Y. W. training school in New York City. Special music will be a part of the program.

Leads Fellowship Discussions

"WES" TRAVERS

Y. M. C. A. fellowship meetings, held every Thursday at 7 p. m. for all men in the university, are in charge of "Wes" Travers, editor of last year's Badger, and vice-president of Y. M. C. A., with "Red" Weston, president of the association, assisting whenever possible.

These meetings were begun four years ago as a small group around the fireplace in the lobby of the "Y." The informality has been preserved as much as possible. At present the program usually consists of an opening mixer, special stunts in the form of music or entertainment, and a short address.

Tonight Professor E. B. McGilvary of the philosophy department, will be the speaker on "Non-Religious Life." This is designed to open six weeks of discussions to be taken up in the study groups covering the entire campus.

The committee in charge of these meetings has in its membership Dean Kimball, R. H. Soll, W. A. Field, Haskell Coates, Wayne Beckwith, Kenneth Harwood, Arthur Knutzen, and Harold Crider.

STUDENTS FROM FOREIGN LANDS HELPED BY "Y"

Entertainment in Homes is Provided for Men and Women From All Parts of Globe

Through the consistent efforts of the University Y. M. C. A., more than 100 Madison families have offered to entertain students from foreign countries at Sunday dinner.

This year there are 100 students in the university, representing 19 foreign countries, the largest groups coming from China and the Philippines. It is hoped by the association that all of these students can be entertained in private homes.

Committee Directs Work

A committee, composed of representatives from the different countries, Van der Riet, South Africa; Henderson, Norway; Ko Kuei Chen, China; Bahadur, India; Malari, Philippines; Tasaki, Japan; Madeiros, Brazil; J. L. Salvon, France; Salvateira, Central America; and Ray Baber, Alfred Willett, and Whitefield, has arranged for special features this winter.

Next Sunday night the Badger club will have the students from foreign countries as guests. A number of them will make brief addresses. Special music will be provided by Chinese and Philippine students.

A unique plan has now been devised which will make it possible for one student from each foreign country to take a tour of Wisconsin to see the industries, dairy farms and other points of interest in this state. It is hoped by the association that this may be accomplished through the aid of the Rotary clubs of Wisconsin.

Committees Meet — The claims committee of the council meets this evening at 7:30. At 8 o'clock the finance committee meets to work on the budget.

WINIFRED TITUS IS LOCAL FIELD REPRESENTATIVE

One of the biggest positions in the Y. W. C. A. is that of undergraduate field representative for the universities of Michigan, Chicago, and Wisconsin. Winifred Titus holds the position this year.

She will spend two or three days at each of the other universities in her field, studying conditions.

At the field convention in Chicago, the representative gives exhaustive reports of the results of her study, and discusses any problems with which she may have come in contact.

There are eleven fields throughout the United States, with an average of four or five states and about fifteen representatives in each field. This is not a new position, but its importance has been recognized more fully in the last few years.

STUDY GROUPS BEGIN TONIGHT

Prof. E. B. McGilvary to Address Leaders on
"Non-Religious Life"

Prof. E. B. McGilvary will lead the first of the series of religious discussionals at the Y. M. C. A. Fellowship meeting tonight at 7 o'clock in the "Y" parlors. His subject will be "Non-Religious Life." While these discussionals are primarily for the group chairmen, all university men are invited.

It is the idea of the Y. M. C. A. to form a large number of informal groups for study to be conducted in fraternity and rooming houses, to discuss the substance of the fellowship meeting topics. Milton Borman is interviewing men who will be willing to act as chairmen of groups.

During the first semester the discussionals will center around the "Place of Jesus of Nazareth in History and Life."

Wolfenson Speaks Next

On October 23, "The Jewish Idea of Jesus" will be presented by Prof. L. B. Wolfenson of the ancient literature department. November 4, Professor Robinson of the philosophy department, will begin the first of four presentations of "Why the Gospels are True."

Two years ago there were 40 groups conducted, 20 of which were in fraternity houses, and three years ago there were 60 groups, 18 of them in fraternity houses.

Conduct Special Classes

In addition to the religious groups three special classes are to meet each week in the association building. On Monday a class in industrial relations will be conducted by Willis Wisler, chief of the bureau of Commercial relations of the university extension division. The topics will include industrial housing, wages and earnings, insurance and pensions, and vocational guidance.

E. P. Cockrell, Boys' Work Secretary city Y. M. C. A., will conduct a course in psychology and method of boys' work.

"Dad" Wolf will conduct a class in the principles of leadership. He will discuss what leadership is, personal characteristics of the leaders of men, technicalities, abuses, and the supreme opportunity for exercising leadership. At the close of the course men will be charted for leadership.

All these classes will meet for an hour a week at 7 p. m. at the university Y. M. C. A. The committee men in charge of the classes are Roy Sorenson, Eugene Bond, Walter Jaeger, Ross Rogers, and Robert Gerholz.

MEMORIAL LOAN FUNDS AID MANY IN EMERGENCIES

More than a thousand Wisconsin men have been aided by the Whitney Russell loan fund since its foundation two years ago by the parents of Whitney Russell, a "Y" man from Hyde Park, Mass., as a memorial of his death in 1917 while attending the university.

A similar fund was established by the parents of Burton Beach, a freshman engineer from Muscatine, Iowa, who died last January while living at the "Y." The Burton Beach fund was established as a supplement to the Whitney Russell fund. Twenty-six loans already have been made from this fund, which Mr. Beach, father of the former member of the class of 1923, has made known his intention of increasing.

The Whitney Russell fund has been augmented by members of the family and by friends of the association until it has now reached $450. The loans are limited to $10.

The Burton Beach fund which began with $250 in Liberty bonds has been available in larger amounts and is used only in case of emergency. A smaller number of men can be served but the loans are only made in cases of extreme need.

AT THE GRAND

Wheeler Oakman who plays opposite Anette Kellerman in "What Women Love," which today closes its engagement at the Grand, is in real life married to Priscille Dean, the well known star. Walter Long who plays the heavy role in "What Women Love" began his screen career in the part of "Nigger Gus," in D. W. Griffith's "Birth of a Nation." Bull Montana, who was last seen as "the ape" in "Go and Get It" has the role of "trainer" for Willie the Mollycoddle. The entire cast is notable and affords excellent support to the much envied Anette Kellerman.

AT THE STRAND

"The Silent Barrier," a triumph of love on the peaks of the snow-clad Alps, is the picture which is now showing at the Grand theater.

As a special added feature there will be shown "Four Times Foiled," the first of a series of comedies in which all the stars are animals. These comedies are as good as they are unique.

NEW BILL AT THE ORPHEUM

Something of usual merit in the way of musical comedy, "Once Upon a Time," with C. Leland Marsh, Billy Roder and a quartette of pretty girls, will headline the new vaudeville program which opens tonight at the Orpheum. On this bill also as a headliner will be seen Mlle Rhea and Company in an original production of story, song, dance and music.

AT THE FULLER

Recognized as the greatest emotional actress in the world, Nazimova is now appearing in "Madame Peacock," from the story by Rita Weiman, a Metro release, directed by Ray C. Smallwood and photographed by Rudolph Bergquist.

SOPH COMMISSION AIDS IN WELCOME TO NEW STUDENTS

Meeting Trains and Smashing Baggage Keeps 60 "Y" Members Busy

Five hundred personal letters were sent out by the Sophomore commission of the Y. M. C. A. welcoming freshmen before the opening of school this year, in only one branch of the commission's work.

The commission consisting of 60 men in the sophomore class, chosen at the end of their freshman year from those interested in association work, assists materially in the freshmen welcome, fellowship meetings, the finance campaign, and the religious conference.

The president of sophomore commission is Arthur Wileden; the secretary, Harlod Rogers. Members of the cabinet include Vincent Cox, Edmund Fitchett, Fred Goetz, Carl Phillip Sousa. He and his music have become famous in every part of the globe.

Repp, Edward Ewing, Robert Hesty, Paul Mickleson, Robert Reynolds, Elmer Gesteland, and Wilson Cross, letter writing.

In addition to letters sent out by the commission to incoming freshmen before the opening of school, seventy-five trains were met, some at 4 a. m. One man slept in the lobby of the "Y" to welcome those coming late at night. One hundred pieces of baggage were handled free. Eight hundred rooms were filled.

"Many personal services were rendered," said Dad Wolfe. "The entire university was conscious of the fact that a large group of sophomores acted as hosts to the new men. A large share of the changing atmosphere in favor of giving the new men a fair deal is directly attributable to the work of the commission. Never before have the freshmen been so splendidly welcomed and so delightfully introduced as since the organization of sophomore commission two years ago.

The news sheet committee started work on their publicity Sept 1, issuing the "Y" paper during the opening days of school.

"AG" FEDERATION FILLS VACANCIES

The Agricultural College federation to fill vacancies on the federal board yesterday elected Edward H. Tibson and David Lacey from the Agricultural college and Irene Hall and Caryl Parkinson from the home economics department. The first social activity of the year will be a mixer in Lathrop hall Nov. 6.

Y. W. C. A. Banquet Nov. 6
Will End Effort to Lengthen Roster

To have every university woman who wishes to stand for Christian ideals and who is vitally interested in the work of the Y. W. C. A. as embodying those ideals as member is the aim of the university association this year.

"We want the girls not only to sign the pledge but to live it as well," said Miss Mary Andersen, secretary of the association. "Though we are striving for an active body of members, no girl who has not time will be required to do committee work."

Under the new personal membership basis, women who joined the association last year are no longer members but are invited to come into the office at Lathrop hall and sign the new pledge. The canvass for members among the new students ends next Monday. At present more than 400 names are on the list. Last year's membership numbered 1,334.

The membership banquet will be held November 6, at 5:30 p. m., in the Woman's building. The Rev. Ernest F. Tittle, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Evanston, Ill., who spoke at the banquet last year, will be the chief speaker. Lydia Lacey is chairman of the membership committee, which includes Catherine Wheeler, Helen Casebeer, Ruby Brits, Helen Elliott, Katherine Baird, Mabel Winter.

DEPUTATION WORK BEGINS NEXT MONTH

Three deputation teams representing musical, athletic, and educational and religious interests will go to Waupun the first week in November to inaugurate for the year the deputation work sponsored by the University Y. M. C. A.

University of Wisconsin deputation teams have covered practically all towns and cities of the state at one time or another. The teams make some 12 or 15 trips a year, going out on invitation of high schools, churches, Y. M. C. A.'s and business men's clubs. By various means—father and son banquets, games, athletic contests, hikes, and public meetings—the teams help to set up right ideals for the boys, and introduce and impress on the communities they visit a message along the lines of clean living, right religious thinking, patriotism, and higher education.

Walter Koehler is chairman of the committee this year.

Bad Screen Shows, "A
Most Damnable Abomination," Says Garland

Literature is wallowing in commercial stagnation, deplored Hamlin Garland last night at Lathrop parlors in an informal talk to a gathering of senior English majors and members of the English faculty.

"Young people today are superficial and regardless of the worth-while things of life," he said.

"Movies today at their best are a mere shadow-show of appeal to the unintelligent, while at their worst they are a most damnable abomination," he declared.

"Literature today is clever rather than true, chic instead of expressive of the true emotions, and on the whole insincere."

Speaking on "Songs of the Middle Border" at Music hall yesterday afternoon, Mr. Garland devoted most of his lecture to colorful anecdotes about his boyhood on the farm. His lecture, which was based upon the great novel and autobiography, "The Son of the Middle Border," was concluded by a reading from the same book about the last Thanksgiving his family had in Wisconsin together.

Last year the Northwestern Mutual Life Ins. Co. sold $326,459,215.00 worth of life insurance, or about $1,000,000 for every working day. Of this amount 49.4% was purchased by members already insured in the company. I wonder why. There must be a reason. Ask J. B. Gay, University Agent.
