Wisconsin State University Conference

13th edition

The Wisconsin State University Conference presents the thirteenth edition of its Records Book as a means of informing the educators, writers, broadcasters and staff of the excellence of athletic competition displayed by teams and individual student-athletes of member institutions. This booklet is published annually to provide a record of all sports in the Conference-sponsored program.

It is the function of the Wisconsin State University Conference to encourage inter-collegiate athletics on an amateur basis, with institutional control, and under the instruction of coaches who have faculty status, in order to assure maximum educational benefit from intercollegiate athletic contests among the member institutions.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM

The University of Wisconsin System is marking its eighth anniversary in the fall of 1979. The UW System was created in October 1971 by a law placing all of the state's public university campuses under a single Board of Regents. The 13 universities and 14 two-year UW Centers served 147,934 on-campus students in 1978-79, and UW-Extension provides outreach services from offices in every county. Although only eight years old, the UW System was one of the first statewide higher educational systems in the nation and has pioneered in developing coordinated and high quality programs and services on a statewide basis. System administrative offices are in Madison.

Universities are at Eau Claire, Green Bay, La Crosse, Madison, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Kenosha-Racine (Parkside), Platteville, River Falls, Stevens Point, Menomonie (Stout), Superior and Whitewater. Centers are at Baraboo, Fond du Lac, Janesville, Manitowoc, Marinette, Marshfield, Medford, Menasha, Rice Lake, Richland Center, Sheboygan, Waukesha, Wausau, and West Bend.

PREVIEW 1979 FOOTBALL SEASON

La Crosse and Whitewater would seem likely prospects to repeat their 1978 football co-championship but Wisconsin State University Conference "watchers" learned long ago favorites accept their role cautiously in this league.

Whitewater, though, appears capable of going all the way again with a strong nucleus that includes quarterback Mike LaLoggia, wide receiver Jerry Young, defensive lineman Tony Azarian and Tom Stuebe from the secondary. Veteran Coach Forrest Perkins starts with the kind of offense where the pass could open things up for the run.

LaLoggia threw for 1,103 yards last season and Young caught 29 of those aeriels, so the stage is set for some interesting fireworks in Warhawk Stadium.

La Crosse finds itself in a little more precarious position at the outset, having lost college division All America linebacker Joel Williams and quarterback Dave Draxler, the WSUC's most valuable player last fall.

The Indians earned a berth in the 1978 NAIA Playoffs and could do it again if Coach Roger Harring finds suitable replacements for Williams and Draxler. He still has All Conference defensive end Frank Novotny, offensive center Mike Hanratty, running back Jim Pieper and an outstanding pass receiver in Craig Chrest.

Leading challenges could come from Eau Claire and Stout again as most observers take a "wait and see" stance with Oshkosh, River Falls, Platteville and Stevens Point. All have figured in WSUC championships in the past three years and with a few additions this fall could battle into the thick of the fight again.

Oshkosh Coach Dave Hochtritt has a new offensive coordinator, former St. Norbert mentor Howie Kolstad, to perk up the attack and complement a defense that performed adequately during 1978.

Coach Mike Farley can call on a veteran offense at River Falls, including wishbone quarterback Dale Mueller, who led the WSUC in rushing last season. The Falcons suffered from a non-existent passing attack, though, and a defense that yielded three or more touchdowns in six games last fall.

Platteville remains a question mark under George Chryst, the only new coach in the conference this year. Chryst succeeded Bob Seamans in May and spent his early weeks on the job trying to catch up in a new situation.

The former UW-Madison offensive line coach hopes to exploit the talents of his returning Pioneers and will do so with a winged-T offense and the conventional "52" defense. Returning quarterback Todd Gundlach, All Conference offensive center Jeff Ruzicka and split end Mike Walker are principals around whom he hopes to build a winner.

Stevens Point dropped from first to a share of seventh in one year and Coach Ron Steiner needs some surprises this year to spark his Pointers back into a contending position. He has a "good nucleus" of starters returning but needs some game-breakers on offense to threaten the favorites.

Eau Claire made a strong run at the leaders a year ago, finishing only a game behind La Crosse and Whitewater. Although Coach Link Walker has lost key personnel off that 8-2 outfit, some quality people return and the Blugolds could win it all.

Two of the big pluses are quarterback Bob Semling and an experienced defensive unit. That's a good parlay for openers. If everything else falls into place this could be the year of the Blugolds.

Stout, which last fall compiled its best record since the 1965 championship team, could duplicate that feat and maybe even improve on it this year if Coach Lyle Eidsness can develop a competent offensive line. Returning quarterback Ken Kartman, running star Steve Burr and an experienced defense brighten the picture.

Superior Coach Mertz Mortorelli expressed confidence this is the year his Yellow-jackets will put some sting in their attack. He hopes his youth program of the past two years will pay dividends in 1979, but everybody else in the league seems to be improving, too.

Highlight of an interesting non-conference schedule will be Whitewater's encounter with Morningside College of Sioux City, IA, in Mexico City October 13. The game is part of a NAIA exchange program with Mexico's National Institute of Sport.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979

Picturesque Eau Claire County, where the Chippewa River bisects the Blugold campus, generally is considered basketball territory. But, Coach Link Walker's football warriors snatched a piece of the glory last fall with their 8-2 record and third place finish (6-2) in the WSUC.

Although Walker, starting his 12th season as head coach, lost a strong contingent off that fine 1978 squad, enough experienced performers remain to field a contender again this year. Most difficult to replace will be running backs D. J. LeRoy and Tim Lewitzke, who gained 869 and 1,051 yards, respectively, last season to form the most potent ground tandem in the school's history.

Also gone is Tim Burrows, an outstanding wide receiver, and Randy Schneider, the conference's leading punter. But, among returnees from the league's No. 1 total offense team a year ago is tight end Tyrone Cooper, All Conference in 1977, along with quarterback Bob Semling, center Jeff Olson and guard Jeff Lutz.

An experienced defensive unit is headed by All Conference end John White and bolstered by tackle Scott Thompson, linebacker Dave Henquinet and safety Scott Dahl.

Walker said, "We have a bunch of kids with a great attitude. They have been a great group in their off-season training program. We have 11 seniors with lots of experience." He figures the Blugolds will be a sound team by the time conference play starts in the third game.

			(NAIA Div. I Quarter-Final)

PROSPECTS FOR 1979

Roger Harring finds some gaping voids to fill as he begins his 11th season as coach of the Indians. His 1978 team shared the championship with Whitewater and advanced to the NAIA playoffs, bowing to Grand Valley State (Mich.), 24-14, in the quarter-finals.

Most difficult to replace will be CD All America linebacker Joel Williams and two other All Conference performers, Dave Draxler, the league's most valuable player, and guard Nick Harring. Among 43 returning lettermen, however, Harring does have six offensive starters and eight from the defense.

Besides finding a replacement for Draxler, who led the conference in passing and total offense last fall, the Indians need another running back to fill graduated Paul Radcliffe's spot. Radcliffe formed half of La Crosse's solid one-two running punch with Jim Pieper, who led Indian rushers as a freshman last fall with 583 yards in eight conference games and a 4.3 average.

La Crosse's forte this year appears to be speed at the skilled positions and a strong defense. Craig Chrest finished second in conference pass receiving in 1978 with 35 catches for 584 yards, four touchdowns and an average of 16.7 yards per reception. Junior Mike Durnin and transfer Jim Kildahl figure to get the first shot at quarterback.

All Conference defensive end Frank Novotny, offensive center Mike Hanratty, Pieper and Chrest could provide the leadership to make the Indians a playoff contender again.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979

The Titan offense remains a "total question mark" as Coach Dave Hochtritt strives to get his team back on the winning track. Oshkosh slumped to 5-5 two years ago and 4-6 last fall after sharing the conference crown in 1976. It won't be made any easier with such standouts gone as hard running Jay Schmick, wide receiver Bruce Wild and guard Jarrell Oliver.

Hochtritt is taking a new tack this year. He wants a more balanced attack and plans to throw the ball more than in the past. Last fall the Titans passed just 90 times in eight conference starts and averaged only 57 yards a game through the air. Their running attack wasn't very effective either, but the lack of passing pulled them down to last place in the league's total offense statistics.

In an effort to remedy the situation Oshkosh has hired Howie Kolstad as offensive coordinator and backfield coach. Kolstad was forced into retirement this year after 19 seasons as head coach at St. Norbert College. Hochtritt is enthusiastic about his new assistant and said, "He can exploit a defense as well as any coach I've seen."

Determining the No. 1 quarterback early rates top priority. He probably will be either junior Bill Hermes or Jim Marten, a transfer from Carthage College. Other transfers who figure to bolster the Titans are Dave Blajeski, a defensive tackle or tight end, Joe Wohlleber, an offensive guard, and kicking specialist Greg Calhoun.

The defense appears sold with three of the four starters returning in the secondary including All Conference safety John Cameron. Also returning is 6-1 225 defensive end Bob Prosser.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979

Generating some offensive punch appears to be a principal task for George Chryst, the new Pioneer coach, who succeeded Bob Seamans in May. Seamans, who decided to pursue a career in private business, watched his Pioneers being shut out three times last season and on two other occasions manage just a single touchdown.

Chryst brings a wealth of experience from coaching Madison Edgewood High School and UW-Madison offensive linemen. He likely will assign the job of directing the offense to 5-11, 185-pound junior quarterback Todd Gundlach at the outset. Who will carry the running load still is a major question mark. The Pioneers failed to land a single player among the top 10 rushers or leading 16 scorers last season, and as a team were eighth in conference total offense.

Although Chryst needs tackles, the defense should be the most formidable part of his team during the early going. Most of the best players returning among 34 lettermen played on the defensive unit a year ago.

The Pioneers will have trouble replacing tackle Andy Kolosso on offense, but All-Conference center Jeff Ruzicka returns along with split end Mike Walker, who caught 28 passes in eight conference games last fall. The ground attack would improve significantly if fullback Mike Rohrwasser returns to his 1976 form when he won the conference rushing crown as a freshman.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979

Coach Mike Farley's wishbone offense returns practically intact from the 1978 season. This includes quarterback Dale Mueller, who led the conference in rushing last season, averaging 112 yards, and gained 1,161 yards in all 10 starts. But, the Falcons only shared fifth place and finished 4-6 overall.

This strong offensive nucleus includes All Conference guard Gerald Sonsalla along with tackle Gene Meyer and tight end Charlie Reed. Fullback Matt Mead is the only offensive starter not returning. Farley, starting his 10th year as Falcon coach, opens practice with 42 lettermen, including nine defensive starters from a year ago and 10 offensive regulars.

The most pressing needs are found on defense, where Farley is searching for a couple big, strong tackles to help the pass rush and discourage opponents from running inside. This was a thorny area last season, too. Opponents scored three or more touchdowns against the Falcons in six games.

Fixtures in the defense are end Dean Sturz and Steve Lyons in the secondary. Most difficult to replace in that unit will be tackle Greg Steele and end Dan Zimmerman.

The Falcons again figure to run the ball almost exclusively with Mueller, who also led the league in scoring last fall, at the controls. River Falls topped the conference with 265 yards a game rushing in 1978, but averaged only 44 yards passing. The Falcons threw just 37 passes in eight games and are expected to stress the ground route again this season.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979

Two years ago Stevens Point won the WSUC championship with a 7-0-1 record, but last fall the Pointers dropped to seventh place and had a 4-6 mark overall. The rebuilding process could be slow and tedious. Coach Ron Steiner's crew has a long way to climb and needs help in just about all areas.

Besides losing two top linebackers, Steve Kennedy and All Conference Steve Petr, through graduation, All Conference wide receiver Joe Zuba dropped out of school and won't be available this fall. Zuba, a remarkable 5-9 jackrabbit, led the WSUC in pass receiving last season with 52 catches for 752 yards.

Although Steiner expects the interior offensive and defensive lines to be strong, he desperately needs running backs, linebackers and a couple of defensive backs. The Pointers finished dead last in rushing offense last fall, averaging only 45 yards a game on the ground. They did throw the ball well and passed for an average of 181 yards a game, best in the league.

The return of quarterback Brion Demski represents the Pointers' biggest plus. Demski ranked third among conference passers in 1978, completing almost 54 percent of his aeriels. But, he must find an adequate target to replace the elusive Zuba. Also, on the credit side is the return of offensive guard Andy Matthiesen and split end Tom Meyer.

Steiner still expects improvement over last year because a "good nucleus" of starters returns, the depth has improved and there's a "strong team attitude."

PROSPECTS FOR 1979

The Blue Devils will be hardpressed to duplicate last year's performance when they compiled the best record (7-3) since the 1965 championship season of 7-1-1. Coach Lyle Eidsness turned the program around in his second season at the helm. His club finished fourth in the conference at 5-3 but the Devils won't be able to sneak up on anybody this season.

The major problem to be solved, if Stout expects to duplicate last year's performance is rebuilding the offensive line. Both tackles, Bob Neuhaus and Tom Biertzer, are gone as well as guard Neil Hauke. Lack of overall offensive speed could hamper development of a super charged wishbone offense that Eidsness plans to run.

The big plus offensively centers around returning quarterback Ken Kartman and All Conference running back Steve Burr. Kartman triggered the wishbone a year ago and Burr ranked second in conference rushing, averaging 105 yards a game. The 5-9 183 junior averaged 5.8 yards a carry, best in the league, and scored eight touchdowns. He also ranked among the leaders in punt and kickoff returns.

The plus side of the ledger also shows experience on defense, headed by All Conference Joe Bullis, 6-6 252 middle guard, and linebacker Tom Paulus. The kicking game also could work to Stout's advantage in close games. Defensive end Jim Fisher booted seven field goals last year.

The Yellowjackets turned things around in basketball the last couple years and now Coach Mertz Mortorelli predicts a rosy future for Superior's football fortunes. Mertz said, "Our football program is getting stronger each year and it won't be too long before we will be contenders."

Mortorelli has fielded extremely young teams the last two years but now those youngsters have matured. He believes their experience should pay off this season. Among 32 returning lettermen are quarterback Vance Olsen, fullback Paul Kienitz (6-2 205), tackle Joe Gayan (6-2 235) as well as linebacker Jeff DePalma (5-10 250).

The 'Jackets are not without major problems. Mortorelli must find replacements for All Conference offensive tackle Mark Moselle and strong safety Terry Laube as well as wide receiver Bernie LaValley. He expects immediate help from three transfers--defensive backs Scott Moreland and Bill Stetler and linebacker Ron Masson.

Following a 2-9 season last fall, 1-7 in the conference, fans on the shores of Lake Superior don't have much to cheer about. Still, Mortorelli retains an optimistic posture and predicts his team "once again will be competitive with all conference schools."

They must come a considerable distance, though. It has been a long haul since former Coach Monte Charles forged a third place finish back in 1971.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979

Newcomers will face a difficult task breaking into the Warhawks' senior-junior dominated lineup. Whitewater shared the championship with La Crosse last fall (7-1) despite its overall 7-4 record. Included among the 38 returning lettermen are eight offensive starters and seven from the defensive unit.

Forrest Perkins, a 24-year veteran as Whitewater coach, again has lined up an ambitious non-conference schedule that includes Western Illinois, South Dakota State and an Oct. 13 date in Mexico City. The latter game will be played as part of a NAIA exchange program against an opponent from the Texas-Arkansas region yet to be announced.

Heading the list of Warhawk returnees are wide receiver Jerry Young and quarterback Mike LaLoggia along with defensive lineman Tony Azarian with Tom Stuebe from the secondary. LaLoggia passed for 1,103 yards to finish second in the league last fall. Young ranked fourth in the WSUC with 29 pass receptions.

Offensively Perkins again plans a versatile attack that will include mainly a pro-set and a I-back with an occasional use of the wishbone to keep defenders off balance.

Most difficult to replace will be specialist Jeff Anding, who did the placekicking and punting, tight end Jon Grosshuesch and wide receiver Brian Wycklendt. But, senior returnees have been involved in a winning situation at Whitewater for the past three years and Perkins expects their success to rub off on the rest of the squad.

PREVIEW OF THE 1979-80 BASKETBALL SEASON

Eight of the nine Wisconsin State University Conference basketball coaches know they must knock off Eau Claire early if the 1979-80 championship race figures to be competitive at all.

The ninth coach, of course, is Ken Anderson of the Blugolds who has made Eau Claire the perennial "team to beat" in the conference since shortly after he arrived on the scene in 1968. The decade of the '70s belongs to the Blugolds. They figured in eight championships during those 10 years, missing only in 1975 and '78.

They're back this season "new and improved" as television commercials like to puff their products. The Blugolds are "new" in that they have found a latent confidence that didn't always surface last season. That was acquired during an impressive performance at the NAIA Championships in Kansas City last March.

Improvement comes with experience and that should be evident early from such stalwarts as 7-foot center Gib Hinz, the most valuable player in the conference last season, 6-8 forward Mike Morgan, 6-7 forward Joe Merten and 6-3 guard Tony Carr, who appears ready to cut loose following the usual slow transition as a freshman.

Other conference coaches are preparing quietly to block Eau Claire's path but they admit, almost to a man, the Blugolds remain top heavy favorites. La Crosse's Burt McDonald says simply "Eau Claire" when asked to summarize the strength of the conference.

Oshkosh's Bob White mentions Superior in the same breath but always the Blugolds first. Stout's Dwain Mintz calls Anderson's team "one of the best in the nation" and makes his plans accordingly. And, Whitewater's Dave Vander Meulen looks at the Blugold returnees and concedes they must rank as the "heavy favorite."

Platteville's Dick Wadewitz lumps Eau Claire, Stevens Point and La Crosse together as "definite contenders" but expects a wide open race with Superior and Whitewater as darkhorse candidates.

While conceding that Eau Claire is the favorite, Stevens Point's Dick Bennett considers Stout, La Crosse, Whitewater, Superior, Platteville and his own Pointers "capable challengers." And recalling the balance of the past, he added, "Everyone is dangerous in this league at any time."

Lamont Weaver, who once fired the "shot heard around the state," still is trying to lead River Falls out of the conference cellar and sees a challenge every time they throw the ball up. His assessment of the conference remains the most succinct of all, "very tough."

La Crosse needs some size and improved rebounding to complement such veterans as All Conference forward Todd Herreid and hard-working Dave Wahlers, while Oshkosh lost four starters and White must rebuild almost from scratch.

Nobody can lose three starters as Wadewitz did at Platteville and come back strong immediately. The veteran coach is not singing the blues, however, and remains confident the potential is there for eventual improvement.

Weaver has three starters returning but must replace Dan McGinty and Al Rudd in the front line and that won't be an easy assignment, while Bennett can call on quality players with experience but has some injury problems that must be overcome.

Mintz is searching for consistency at Stout and this might take time, but he has a history developing "sleepers" into contenders during the meaty portion of the schedule.

Jim Gleboff has mapped out a precarious non-conference course at Superior that includes games against Drake and Wyoming and a tournament at California State-Chico. If his Yellowjackets survive this, they could make a serious run.

Vander Meulen, with a year at Whitewater under his belt, takes charge this year with more confidence and familiarity with the league. Some quality lettermen return and he has added a few impressive newcomers. The Warhawks hope to climb.

But, always the threat of Eau Claire persists. And, Tim Petermann, Blugold sports information director, dispels any notion his team might stumble because of complacency by saying, "This team had a taste of national competition and realized that nobody in the nation outclassed them. They want to go back but realize first they must win the conference and then the district before they can return. Overall, they are still young and hungry."

PROSPECTS FOR 1979-80

The Blugolds start in a favorable position again with most of their personnel returning from last season's championship squad. Coach Ken Anderson will be aiming for his ninth title in 12 years as Eau Claire coach. Few doubt his possibility to repeat with the people he has returning.

Heading the list is 7-foot center Gib Hinz, the conference's leading scorer and most valuable player last season when the Blugolds compiled a 24-7 record, including 12-4 in the WSUC, and competed in the NAIA Tournament at Kansas City. Anderson lost only reserves Bob Wittke and Jeff Greig.

Among those returning are 6-8 Mike Morgan, the conference's second leading rebounder with an 11.8 average, 6-7 Joe Merten, second in free throw average (.850) and fifth in assists (4.4) as well as 6-3 guard Tony Carr, who came on strong in the second half of his freshman season.

The Blugolds also expect help from 6-9 transfer Julian Kycia, who sat out last season but worked with the team and knows the system.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979-80

The Indians need size and, of course, rebounding help if they expect to climb from their eighth place finish in the conference last season. Coach Burt McDonald must depend almost exclusively on 6-9 Dave Wahlers in the battle under the boards. Wahlers averaged 8.4 rebounds in 16 conference games last season.

McDonald does possess some pluses who will hold the fort while he concentrates on finding solutions to some of the deficiencies. No. 1 is Todd Herreid, a 6-4 All-Conference forward who finished fourth in WSUC scoring last season with an 18.5 average, while making better than 50 percent of his field goal attempts.

Herreid, as well as overall quickness and guard depth are keys for the Indians at the outset. The backcourt department includes 5-9 Jamie Thibodeau, 6-0 John Mielke, 6-2 Pete Zaher and 6-1 Dick Iverson. Mielke is a good marksman who contributed 10 points a game last season. The others, though, must provide more scoring punch.

The Indians will miss guard Dave Thiel but those returning guards should pick up the slack. Herreid and Wahlers are fixtures but could use help from a strong board man. The Indians also must find the knack of winning those close games that haunted them so in 1978-79, when they lost four overtime decisions.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979-80

Last season the Titans struggled without two-time WSUC most valuable player Ralph Sims and dropped from first to fifth. Now Coach Bob White is without Joe Claassen, Mark Gaynor, Bill Dehn and Rick Vander Wyst. The 6-6 Claassen was named to the All Conference team after finishing second in scoring (19.7) and third in rebounding (9.8) last season.

White also will miss Gaynor's 13.4 points a game and 3.8 assists, but Claassen will be the most difficult to replace. He held the squad together last season and was instrumental in the Titans eventually fashioning a winning season.

Seven lettermen return and what the Titans need most is for such players as 6-7 Todd Shockley, 6-4 Lionel Perkins, 6-5 Dave Vander Ploeg and 6-5 Dick Ritchie to emerge as solid WSUC performers. All four have shown potential but need the pressure of responsibility. They leaned on people such as Sims and Claassen too much in the past.

Sophomore newcomers most likely to crack the starting lineup are 6-foot guard Steve Banks of Portage and 6-6 Rod Eissens of Lancaster.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979-80

The Pioneers practically were decimated by graduation. Among the missing is two-time All Conference guard Keith Chapman, who finished fifth in league scoring with 17.1 average. Also gone are Dave Tetschlag, Chris Zwettler, Mark Novak, Tim Larson and Craig Keller.

Tetschlag averaged 12.6 points a game last season and Larson 11.3, while Zwettler was the second best assist man in the conference with 5.1 per game. It's obvious that Coach Dick Wadewitz faces a monumental rebuilding job despite the fact that six lettermen are returning.

There is a lack of size at the forward positions and little experience in the back-court. Still, Wadewitz insists, "This is a team with good potential but it will take time to put it all together." The veteran coach is adept at taking a green contingent and molding a solid unit by the second half of the season. He has done it in the past and this could be a repeat performance.

Returning lettermen include 6-9 center Joe Smith, 6-6½ forward John Krohn and 6-6 forward Jim Bennett. Smith at 250 pounds has the bulk to command respect under the boards. Wadewitz hopes to get some help eventually from such newcomers as Mike Douglas, Rodney Bouche, Dave Dorlack and Tom Dray.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979-80

Lamont Weaver, starting his second full season at the helm of the Falcons, still faces a struggle to excavate his team from the conference cellar. And, it won't be any easier this season with such stalwarts as Dan McGinty and Al Rudd no longer around. That was the heart of his team last season.

McGinty, a two-time All Conference performer, ranked first in rebounding, averaging 12.4 retrieves a game, and third in scoring with an 18.9 mark. Rudd averaged 15.1 points and set a conference record by making almost 64 percent of his field goal attempts. Their departure leaves a monumental void.

This will put extreme pressure on returning guard Kirk Jamison and swingman Duane Byrd at the outset. It also might mean that 7-foot center Brock Bentson, overshadowed last season by the presence of McGinty and Rudd, could emerge and provide the Falcons with the board strength they sorely need.

Weaver's returnees do have some size and speed but need experience and a floor leader. Two years ago the Falcons finished 2-14 in the conference and last season were 3-13 and 8-16 overall. Obviously that's slow progress and what they need most of all is a dynamic scorer and take-charge guy who can turn things around immediately. Weaver is looking but hasn't found that man yet.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979-80

Just about everybody favors Eau Claire this season but Stevens Point Coach Dick Bennett figures at least six teams are capable of mounting a serious challenge and includes his own Pointers as having that potential. First, however, he and his squad must eradicate several question marks that present problems before such a challenge can become a reality.

There must be a return at 100 percent efficiency of 6-6 Tim Skalmoski following knee surgery. Next, 6-8 center Bill Zuiker must continue to progress and perform at the level which earned him All Conference recognition last season, when the Pointers tied for third place at 9-7.

Also, newcomers have to pick up the slack with the departure of forward Bob Schultz, last year's most valuable Pointer, and guard Dave Johnson, who dealt 4.8 assists a game last season. Veteran forward Phil Rodriguez and newcomers Fred Stemmler, who becomes eligible at the semester, and Brian Koch should help in this respect.

A sleeper in the whole Pointer scheme of things could be incoming freshman John Mack, an aggressive floor man and scoring machine who led Milwaukee Tech to the WIAA Class A state championship last March. His presence could do much to alleviate deficiencies in quickness and leadership.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979-80

The Blue Devils need a rebounding pivotman more than anything else in order to become a factor in the WSUC race this season, according to Coach Dwain Mintz, who last guided Stout to a co-championship in 1975. They shared sixth place (7-9) last season and ranked near the bottom of the league in rebounding.

Key returnee is 6-5 Harvey Pearson, an All Conference forward who averaged 14.3 points and 7.3 rebounds a game last season. Mintz says Pearson must hit the boards harder this year. Pearson's shooting eye, though, ranked second in the WSUC as the sleek forward connected on almost 58 percent of his shots from the floor.

Mintz characterizes his attack as a "defensive offense" and assesses his own club as one that "can be tough defensively, should be a good shooting team with fair speed and excellent passing."

He also states his Blue Devils could get immediate help from Doug Applequist, a 6-6 freshman forward from Rockford (Ill.) Guilford High School who has demonstrated hard-nosed aggressiveness under the boards. His presence could help solve some of the rebounding problems.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979-80

The Yellowjackets were the stiffest challenge to Eau Claire last season but some of Coach Jim Gleboff's key personnel won't be around this year for another run at the Blugolds. Superior finished one game off the pace with an 11-5 record and was 21-7 overall.

Gleboff's "Killer Bees" averaged 74.8 points a game last season, best in the conference. This year, though, All Conference and team scoring leader Willie Reed will not be around to spark the attack. Also gone is guard Bob Rison, who provided 12.2 points to the attack.

Heading returnees are All Conference guard Anthony "Bubs" Watson, 6-4 Ivory Jones, 6-9 Mike Stanny and 6-0 Jake Griffith. Watson averaged 13.6 points in the conference with .512 marksmanship. Gleboff also expects help from a couple of 6-5 transfers--Casey Cebula, former Western Kentucky starter, and Mickey Crowe from St. Norbert.

Newcomers might have to carry the load during this rebuilding year. The Yellowjackets need a strong rebounding pivotman and scoring from the wings if they expect to play up to the caliber Gleboff's squads have shown the past two seasons when they fashioned second place finishes.

PROSPECTS FOR 1979-80

The Warhawks start their second season under Coach Dave Vander Meulen with nine lettermen, three starters and an abundance of optimism. They were learning an unfamiliar system and getting used to a new coach at this time a year ago but now the adjustment period should be past and they can get down to winning games.

Although the loss of Hank Anderson, Mark Murphy and Rick Demos will slow development at first, Vander Meulen can call on the experience, team speed and quickness of those returning. Leading the returning veterans will be 6-6 forward Mike Gutter, 5-11 guard Matt Young and 6-3½ guard Fred McGee.

Gutter averaged 14.8 points and 8.5 rebounds a game last season, while McGee contributed 11.4 points and Young 10.7, including almost four assists each contest. Vander Meulen's priority items at the outset are finding a competent center and shoring up the defense, which yielded 79.4 points a game a year ago, highest in the league.

Vander Meulen wants to play a running game that features precision passing. He expects much improvement from his veterans, particularly Gutter and Young, and has hopes that two freshmen can help right away. They are 6-8, 225-pound center Mike Jeffrey of Wisconsin Rapids (Assumption) and 6-6, 215-pound forward Jack Deichl of Fort Atkinson.
