THEATER'S 1980-81 SEASON OFFERS MORE THAN 50 ATTRACTIONS

Itzhak Perlman, the Guarneri String Quartet, Emmylou Harris, Barry Tuckwell, the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, "A Chorus Line," Sonny Rollins, Vincent Price, "Don Giovanni," Murray Louis, "Macbeth," the Guthrie Theater, Janos Starker, the Dance Theatre of Harlem and the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra with Carlo Maria Giulini are among the attractions which promise to make the 1980-81 season a lively and memorable experience for Union Theater patrons.

The Theater's 42nd season will feature more than 50 events in seven different series and a number of special non-series events. A detailed schedule of all of the Theater programs is included in a season brochure which will be mailed to all Union members the last week in August.

Orders are now being accepted at the Theater Box Office for the Red and White Concert Series, Great Performance Series A and B, Theater-Dance Series A and B, and the Travel-Adventure Film Series. The Box Office staff can also provide information on procedures for ordering tickets for other Theater attractions scheduled later in the season.

Regular Box Office hours are from 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 1 to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. On the evenings of performances, the main box office remains open until 7 p.m., and the lakeside box office, at the entrance to the Theater, is open from 7 p.m. until curtain time.

CRAFTSHOP OFFERS CREATIVE ARTS FOR CHILDREN

Ten different courses in a variety of arts and crafts media will be offered this fall for children of Wisconsin Union members and University faculty and staff between the ages of three and twelve.

The courses will begin on Sept. 6 and registrations should be made soon, since the classes are filled on a first-come first-served basis. If you did not receive your brochure about the classes, call 262-1282 or 262-0330 for information.

Topics for this fall include: mixed-media; drawing and painting; small sculpture; ceramics-handbuilding; ceramics-beginning wheel; creative play with clay; batik and tie-dye; printing; fibers; and marionettes.

TUDOR DINNER INFORMATION AVAILABLE NOVEMBER 1

Wisconsin Union members will receive a mailing about the 1980 Tudor Holiday Dinner Concerts around November 1. The mailing will include the menu, price and dates for ordering tickets. This year's festive dinner-concerts are scheduled for Dec. 4 through 10.

MENDOTA LAKEFRONT IMPROVEMENT UNDERWAY

Construction began this past summer on the improvement of the Lake Mendota shore from the end of Park Street to the Limnology Building.

Promoted for years by the Wisconsin Union's Hoofers Sailing Club, the project will provide improved facilities for boat storage, piers and ramps, an access road, a running and bicycle path, walkways, and an observation deck on the top of the Lake Lab at the foot of Park Street.

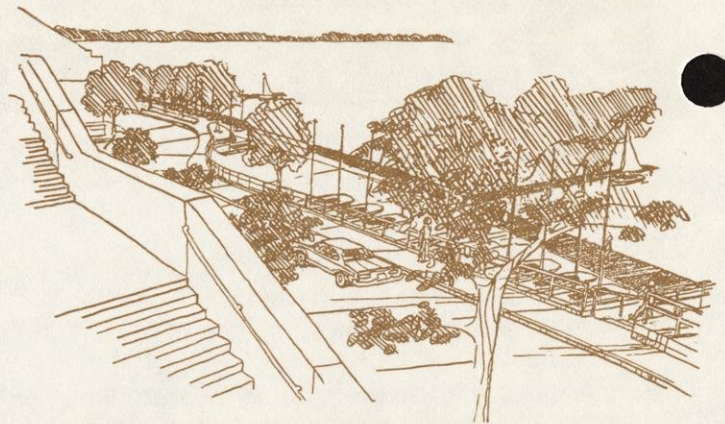

The new facilities will make it possible to store Hooper boats well up on dry land away from the lake where the club annually lost many boats in storms. The Hooper boats will also be stored there in winter eliminating the necessity to move them inside the Memorial Union boathouse.

FROM TATTING TO PALMISTRY... MINI COURSES TEACH ON

Some 200 different courses including such subjects as Strategies for Returning Students, Understanding Dreams, Basic Cooking, 20th Century Women Artists, Palmistry and Tatting, will be offered during the fall semester by the Wisconsin Union Mini Courses.

Fall classes will begin on Sept. 15 and continue through Oct. 25. Walk-in registration begins on Wed., Sept. 3 from 4 to 7 p.m. in the Union Theater. You may also register Mon., Sept. 8 to Thur., Sept. 11 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Commons lobby of the Memorial Union. After Sept. 11, registrations will be taken in the Mini Course office, room 509, Memorial Union. Registrations may also be mailed through Fri., August 29. Catalogues are available in both Unions or at various points throughout the campus. If you want a catalogue mailed to you or need more information call the office, 262-3156.

Mini Courses are a self-supporting program of the Wisconsin Union Directorate and the course fees cover all instructional and administrative costs. Union members pay a discounted fee.

The Lakefront Improvement project, which will cost approximately $250,000, is funded jointly by the State, the UW classes of 1927 and 1928, the Brittingham Foundation and the Wisconsin Hoofers.

POST GAME PARTIES AT BOTH UNIONS THIS FALL

Football Saturdays promise to be even more eventful this fall as both Union South and Memorial Union plan post-game parties.

Union South will continue its popular "Badger Bash" following each home game with Roy B and the Collegians and Doc De Haven playing polka and Dixieland music, respectively.

However, this year home games will also be followed by post-game parties in the Rathskeller from 4 to 6 p.m. Many different types of music will be featured throughout the season with "Steam Heat" playing rock and rhythm and blues for the first party on Sept. 13.

The games will again be preceded by an appearance of the marching band at Union South and the customary Union South brats. Another football season repeat will be "At the Coach's Table" lunches in Dag Hammarskjold Hall at Union South beginning Sept. 15. These Monday noon sessions will be held after all games from noon to 1:30 p.m.

TRAVELING ON WITH THE UNION TRAVEL CENTER

"Fall is a perfect time to travel," says Jane Johnson of the Union's Travel Center. "The weather is excellent most places, destinations are less busy and off-season rates are in effect in the fall," she adds.

The Travel Center is currently making plans for the 1980-81 season and they would appreciate your help. By giving them your travel preferences on the form below, they will have a better idea of what Union members have in mind for this year.

Special rates are available for fall trips to Florida, the Caribbean, Europe and many more exciting destinations.

Group trips in planning stages for the spring semester include an early January departure to Freeport, Grand Bahama; Jamaica and Hawaii.

In addition to these trips, scheduled Icelandair flights to Luxembourg, Europe charters and group flights will be offered again in late spring and summer. Check for information around the first of the year.

MAKE IT DINNER BEFORE THE THEATER THIS SEASON AT THE UNION

The Memorial Union catering department has planned a full calendar of pre-theater dinners for this season. Events which will feature dinners are starred on the calendar in this issue of the Quarterly.

The buffet dinners, with cocktails and wine service available, will begin at 5:45 p.m. and continue until 7 p.m. For menu information and reservations, call 262-2511 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

In addition to the pre-theater dinners, the catering people will also be offering beverage service before and during intermission for most theater events.

Three art exhibits by Native American artists are on the opening schedule of the Union this fall. Carl Gawboy, who did "Crossing the Big Water," shown below, is a Chippewa artist from Ely, Minnesota. His work will be featured in the Class of 1925 Gallery of the Memorial Union from August 27 to Sept. 28. The Main Gallery will house an exhibit of work by Winnebago artist, Truman T. Lowe, director of the Native American Studies Program at the UW-Madison, on the same dates. At Union South, the Susan B. Anthony Gallery will feature "Woodland Indian Art," a collection of serigraphs by Ojibwe artists. The Union South exhibition runs from August 29 through October 5.
