PLAN PROGRAM OF EDUCATION BY RADIO USE

To Broadcast Reports, Addresses, Music Daily in Extension Work

U. W. LEADS MOVEMENT

Taking the lead in extending the use of the wireless telephone, the University of Wisconsin has completed plans for a program of education to be broadcasted each day as a part of the extension work of the university. The announcement of this step was made late last night by Prof. W. H. Lighty of the Extension division.

To Give Civic Information

Under the new program the market, weather, and time reports of the present system will be supplemented by a series of 10 minute addresses to be given each noon probably from 1:05 to 1:15 p. m. On each Tuesday evening a program of some educational nature interspersed with musical selections will be sent out.

Friday evening will be devoted to a course of musical appreciation to be given under the direction of Prof. E. B. Gordon. The Tuesday programs will vary from week to week giving current events interpreted by university men, civic information, women's activities, and special informational studies for parents.

Name Administrative Body

Pres. E. A. Birge has appointed a committee representing all phases of university work to plan the actual programs. This committee is made up of Chairman W. H. Lighty, Prof. E. M. Terry, Prof. Grant M. Hyde, Prof. E. B. Gordon, J. H. Kolb, Miss A. L. Scott, Mrs. E. F. Hoyt, Prof. John R. Commons, Prof. W. Wisler, Prof. W. A. Scott, Director T. E. Jones, Prof. J. M. O'Neill, Dean S. H. Goodnight, and Secretary of Regents M. C. McCaffrey.

"There is no reason why radio-phone receiving sets should not be used just as motion pictures machines are used in the schools for visual instruction," declared Chairman Lighty. "Our work will expand rapidly as we progress and as our programs entertain and are of value so will the people of the state know the university in its true light."

All In Readiness For Edwin Booth Plays In Lathrop

Dress rehearsals were completed last night for the three one-act plays to be presented tonight by Edwin Booth dramatic club in the concert room of Lathrop hall. The plays are John Drinkwater's "A Night of the Trojan War," Philip Moeller's "Pokey," and Lady Gregory's "In a Work-House Ward."

The program will commence promptly at 7:30 in order that the audience may attend dances afterward. The Parlormoon dance in Lathrop parlors will not begin until the plays are over.

"In a Work-House Ward," the opener, is a sparkling Irish comedy of pauper life. Two old men, Vincent Conlin '23, and Idrys Hughes '22, are bed-neighbors in a sick-ward and amuse themselves by continually quarreling. They are sworn enemies, but when the nurse tries to separate them, it's a different matter.

Drinkwater's play is a tragic denunciation of war, and Moeller's is a historical burlesque.

Feature Cohen and Quartet at "W" Dance

A student quartet, led by "Russ" Irish '24, and Jesse Cohen's orchestra, will be the features of the annual "W" dance held at the Woman's building tonight given to defray the expenses of the annual relay carnival. Tickets for the dance can be obtained at the door tonight at $1.50.

"Many tickets have already been sold, but those who have not already made arrangements will encounter no difficulty in obtaining admission," George B. Stolley '22, chairman of the affair, said yesterday.

The "W" club is made up of all the men who have won "W's" in some sport in the university. The dance has been omitted for several years, but the club hopes to establish a precedent this year.

CARDINAL BODY ENDORSES FOUR

Candidates Have Experience; Seek to Remove Election From Politics

The candidacies of Ralph E. Balliette '23, Margaret Callsen '24, Robert L. Reynolds '23, and Joel Swensen '23 for the four vacancies on the Cardinal Board of Control, which will be filled at the spring election, April 28, were officially endorsed by the staff of The Daily Cardinal at a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Union building.

Want to Avoid Politics

Both Balliette and Swensen are present members of the board and are running for re-elections to the two one-year positions, which will be open on the board. Miss Callsen and Reynolds are now serving on the editorial staff of the Cardinal, and are candidates for the two-year board positions. If elected to the board, they will resign from their staff positions.

The Cardinal staff took its position favoring these candidates with the purpose of emphasizing the fact that Cardinal board elections should be removed as far as possible from the effects of campus politics.

This unanimous stand of the staff carries the feeling that the public support of these four contestants by the Board of Control and the staff will serve to bring before the

Keissling Runs For Athletic Board Job

Oscar E. Keissling '23 announced his candidacy as "W" football representative on the Athletic board yesterday.

Keissling won his "W" in football this fall. He made the wrestling squad this winter, and participated in matches against Chicago and Ames. He was a member of the 1919 freshman basketball squad.

Keissling made sophomore high scholastic honors this year, and participated in the sophomore semi-public debates last year. He is a member of the Delta Chi fraternity, and was recently elected to Phi Kappa Phi.

KU KLUX ELECTS

LEGION TO SEEK SENATE OUSTING OF SCIENCE CLUB

University Post Brands Members as Un-American Radicals

Branding the Social Science club of the University of Wisconsin as a small group of un-American radicals and extremists who are inciting unrest among the student body, the university post of the American legion, in a meeting at the Law building last night, resolved to exert all its influence in the abolition of the club from the campus.

With the welfare and good name of the university at heart, the post voted unanimously to petition the Student Senate to act immediately against the Social Science club. The resolution, as read by Commander John C. Fritschler '23 is as follows:

Whereas, a small number of extreme and radical students have combined under the name of the Social Science club to bring radical and extreme speakers to the university, and

Whereas, in the past and present this same group of extremists have attempted under the guise of free speech to compel the university authorities to sanction the use of university buildings for any and all speakers they have seen fit to invite, and

Whereas, the Social Science club after failing to secure university buildings for an address by Kate Richards O'Hare deliberately went over the heads of university authorities and through the fact that they were a recognized university organization and through the suppression of the true facts in the case obtained the use of the state capitol for her address, and

Whereas, from the time of its inception to the present date, the Social Science club has been a source of irritation to the majority of the student body of the university;

Be it hereby resolved that the University of Wisconsin American Legion post 246, with the welfare and good name of the university at heart, do condemn the Social Science club without reserve as a group of un-American radicals and extremists who are inciting unrest among the student body, and

That we respectfully request the Student Senate to take steps towards the abolition of the Social Science club as a recognized university organization and go on record as strongly opposing the uncensored right of irresponsible groups or clubs to bring any and all speakers to the university.

Open Badger Room To Private Parties

The Badger room in the Woman's building has been made available to students for private parties and banquets on Friday and Saturday nights, according to announcement made by Union board yesterday. The hall remains under the supervision of Union board.

Union board formerly gave student dances at the Badger room, but because of the great demand of students for the hall as a place for private parties the board has adopted the policy of sub-letting the room for such parties.

Reservations for the Badger room can be made by calling any member of Union board. Nights on which the hall is not engaged, Union board will give its regular student dances.

MRS. O'HARE'S PRISON STORY QUIETS JEERS

Hissing Crowd of 1,200 Become Listeners to Pitiful Tale

TURN 500 FROM HALL

Telling a story of prison slavery, theft and murder, Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare, center of Madison's controversy for four days, spoke last night to an audience of 1,200 jeering persons in the assembly chamber, quieted them and held their attention with such a pitiful and absorbing tale of convict life, that practically all of them remained after the main talk to listen to her answers to questions from the crowd. Hundreds were standing in the hall and nearly 300 were turned away.

Greet Speakers With Hisses

Mrs. O'Hare, who was convicted during the war under the espionage act, and who served 14 months in Jefferson federal prison, and was later pardoned by ex-President Wilson, was hissed and hooted when she began to speak; but the occasional man who jeered toward the end of the address was hailed with disapproval.

Thomas Amlie '22 introduced Lieut. Gov. G. F. Comings, who presented the speaker. Both were greeted with jeers.

"She was unjustly convicted," declared Mr. Comings, and his voice was drowned out in the confusion. Then Adj. Gen. Orlando Holloway stepped to the front.

Holloway Gets Order

"I don't represent much force," he said. "I'm just one soldier. I rely on your good sense and respect for law. It is you who attempt to destroy the orderly course of this meeting that stultify yourselves and the capitol building." A storm of applause followed. The meeting was orderly thenceforward.

Mr. Comings went on to trace the struggle for truth and free speech through the centuries and to present statements of Mrs. O'Hare's innocence, made by federal officers.

Tells Pitiful Prison Story

"More persons leave the prisons each year than graduate from our universities," said Mrs. O'Hare. "More care should be taken in the appointment of prison wardens and prison boards than in the choice of college professors and college boards.

"Convicts are sent to prison to be reformed because they steal, de-

Put Final Touches On Specialties For Jamboree Saturday

Special lighting effects for the annual Varsity Jamboree to be given tomorrow evening in Lathrop hall have been obtained and are being installed today. Most of the special stunts for the affair have received their final touches and are ready for the evening.

The dancing will start immediately after the grand march. The march will be staged while all are in masks but these will have to be removed as soon as the dancing starts. Jesse Cohen '23 and his feature orchestra have been secured to furnish the music.

The tickets for the affair have been selling rapidly, according to Walter A. Frautschi '24, chairman of the sale, but the pasteboards can still be obtained at the University pharmacy. Some tickets will also be on sale at the door. The admission price is 50 cents.

WE HOPE they had a good time at the capitol last evening.

DID you see the editorial yesterday about library fussing?

WE HAVE no sympathy for the poor goof who had an exam the following hour. He should have done his studying earlier. This last minute cramming is what is ruining this university. (Those who failed to read the editorial may purchase copies of it by applying at the business office of this paper any time between 3 and 5 o'clock.)

WE don't see why the writer didn't finish his story and take us along with the couple on their peregrination.

NOW THAT the Orph bill changed yesterday, Jimmie Brader is working hard to catch up in the neglect.

A TEMPEST IN A TEAKETTLE

If one outside the city were to read the accounts of the O'Hare controversy as presented to the public by the Madison newspapers he would not only be puzzled as to what it was all about, but would also be convinced that this university has been the center of a struggle which has stirred it to its foundations.

The Madison newspapers of Wednesday were full of the matter. One of them devoted some 136 column inches of news space, including headlines, and some 32 columns of editorial space to the question. The other used approximately 31 column inches of news space, including headlines, and about 24 column inches of editorial space to present the matter.

Few people in Madison know Mrs. O'Hare personally. Few in the university itself troubled themselves over the fracas. But of those who were interested, of the out-of-town readers who might want to know the whole truth, how many could be sure of their judgments of the case after reading what the local papers had to say on the subject? In one of the city papers for Wednesday we find this subhead:

Blaine Refuses to Prevent Use Of Assembly Chamber For
Espionage Violator's
Meeting

This is undoubtedly true, but it may give a one-sided picture of the governor's position. In the other paper for the same day appeared these subheads:

Meeting Will Be Permitted
As Scheduled, Says
Governor

HITS DISCRIMINATION

This headline is certain to give the reader an entirely different point of view. In the news columns of one paper we found:

The consensus of opinion among those watching the developments closely is that the whole case is being worked up against Mrs. O'Hare as a matter of politics and is being engineered against the Blaine administration by Jackson and his associates.

In the news columns of the other we read:

Superintendent Morrissey has maintained that the university club "put one over on him" when they arranged for the use of the capitol.

Again, in the news columns of one local paper we found this statement:

The full membership of the soldier organizations in the city have been given no opportunity to express their opinions on the proposition.

while in the news columns of the other local paper one found this extract from a telegram sent to State Commander Barrett of the American Legion:

Twenty-five legion men representing representing Madison and University posts entered formal protest in person in a four-hour conference to Governor Blaine without result.

The people of this state, the students of this university, the readers of The Daily Cardinal want to know the truth before condemning or praising anyone. Can they reach the truth by reading news stories giving divergent impressions in different impressions in different papers for the same day? If we have wronged either Mrs. O'Hare or the name of Wisconsin, who is blame for our wrong conclusions?

And, after all, why all this excitement? There are approximately 7,500 students at the university. Of that number, some fifty members of the Social Science club were deeply interested in whether or not Mrs. O'Hare spoke at the capitol. At least 4,000 knew or cared nothing about the whole matter. It is quite likely that today the "O'Hare controversy" is causing more comment in distant cities than in front of Bascom hall itself.

ALL-FOOLS' DAY LAMENT

PERHAPS it is just as well that April 1 comes on Saturday this year. Those who are engaged in that most absorbing of all indoor, mid-semesters, will be deprived of an excellent alibi in case of low scores, though, of course, this lack of opportunity will pass by unheeded by enormous majority of students who always get Ex's.

But, unfortunately, although the season for "All-Fools" is restricted to one day, there are always certain devotees who proclaim open season the year 'round. To these a mere date means nothing; they have a standing excuse denied by none.

Yet there are certain advantages in having April 1 and our hardest mid-semester both come on a Monday. For example, we could cut class and declare it all a joke on the instructor, or we could write on French instead of German, knowing that we would be forgiven by the jovial gods that be. On second thought, therefore, we suggest that April 1 be declared Monday this year.

PROFESSORS' SALARIES

Less than two cents a month is the actual monthly salary in American money, of the average university professor in Russia, according to Professor Archibald Coolidge of Harvard, at present in Moscow. As a result, "teachers are forced to eke out their miserable salaries by doing any odd jobs that may present themselves. The average salary of these men is 10,000 rubles a month, or less than two cents. With this wage they must endeavor to buy bread, which costs 17,000 rubles a pound, meat somewhat more, and clothing that costs anywhere from 700,000 rubles for a pair of shoes to two million rubles for a suit of clothes." —Carroll Echo.

4 Board Candidates Endorsed By Staff

student body those candidates whom the staff believes to be best fitted for the positions.

Candidates Have Experience

In endorsing four students for the board vacancies, the staff members have taken into consideration both experience on the staff and experience on the board. Balliette and Swensen were appointed to fill vacancies on the Board of Control last semester. Balliette has served as treasurer and is now president of the board.

Swensen has also had six years of practical newspaper experience as reporter, telegraph editor, and city editor on papers at Eau Claire, Winona, and Madison.

Miss Callsen has served as a reporter on the Cardinal editorial staff for more than a year, and her candidacy was officially endorsed by S. G. A. Wednesday night. She is also vice-president of Y. W. C. A. and a member of W. A. A.

Reynolds has had more than four semesters' experience as a member of the Cardinal editorial staff. He has also been associate editor of the Commerce magazine for two years and is a member of the Commerce club and the advertising club.

Three of the four candidates who are elected to the Cardinal Board of Control will take office immediately after the election, and one of them will take over the board duties next fall. The candidate elected to the two-year term who receives the least number of votes will be the one to hold over until September.

fraud and kill; and we steal from them, defraud them, and kill them there."

She declared that prisoners in Jefferson were starved and dressed in rags when prison authorities were given enough to feed and cloth them well, that prisoners were forced to use the same bath-tubs while 50 per cent of them were infected with disease, and that practically all the kitchen-help were infected with consumption or disease.

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

SAY MICHIGAN LOSS TO EAST WAS EXPECTED

Claim Badgers Could Give Cornell Better Fight

The overwhelming defeat of Michigan at the hands of the Cornell track team in a recent indoor dual meet was expected by close followers of the sport, who realized that Cornell was one of the best teams in the country, while Michigan's 1921-22 showing has been only mediocre.

That Wisconsin could have given closer competition to Cornell is an undoubted fact. The Badger track team rates second only to Illinois in the West, and with Mark Wall again in condition, no easy Cornell victory would result.

Coach Moakley has a well-balanced track squad, which has shown itself as superior in the East as Illinois is in the Mid-West. Four Ithaca records were broken, while the Red squad was winning from Michigan by a 59 to 27 score.

Equal World's Record

A world's record in the 75-yard dash was equalled when Lovejoy, Cornell, tore down the board track floor in 7 3-5 seconds. Three other records beaten were the quarter mile, the pole vault, and the relay. Three Cornell men tied the record of Carl Johnson, former Wolverine star, who had leaped 6 feet and 1-4 inch in the eastern armory.

As was expected, Michigan's best performance came in the pole vault when Landowski, living up to his reputation, cleared the bar at 12 feet, 4 3-4 inches. He barely missed on three attempts to break the world's indoor record of 12 feet, 10 1-2 inches.

Stipe, shot putter, and Sargent in the low hurdles, were the only other Wolverines to win first place. Schmitz, another Maize and Blue athlete, finished second to his mate in the sticks event.

LAW'S DEFEATED 18-7

By a score of 18 to 7 the commerce school quintet last night downed the law school five in an inter-college basketball game.

16 REPORT FOR VARSITY TENNIS AT FIRST MEET

Gotfredson and Treadwell Back From Last Year; Announce Schedule

Sixteen candidates reported for the Varsity tennis squad at its first meeting yesterday noon, an exceptionally good turn-out, considering that there are only four men on the regular team.

Only two men are back from last year's team: Gotfredson, and Treadwell. Both of these men are good tennis players, and there is no doubt that they will remain on the regular team again this year. Many of the other fourteen men have competed in the all-university tennis tournament, and have shown good form there.

The candidates are: G. Parker, A. T. Moulding, E. S. Wright, L. G. Hastings, G. V. Bennett, T. M. Gilbert, H. D. Hentzen, F. D. Crane, B. B. Langen, G. Battles, B. Gibson, F. S. Henika, E. P. Meyer, and L. L. Stebbins.

The present bad state of the weather will hinder the men from getting onto the outdoor courts to practice, but some of them have been working out on an indoor court at Wisconsin high school.

The tennis schedule for this spring is as follows:

April 28—Milton College at Madison.

April 29—Northwestern at Madison.

May 4—Southern California at Madison.

May 6—Minnesota at Minneapolis

May 13—Open.

May 19—Chicago at Chicago.

May 26-27—Conference at Chicago.

May 30—Michigan at Madison.

NO FERRIES, NO PONTOON—THEN NO BALL GAME

By CHUCK

They was a ball game scheduled for next Saturday, but almost everybody knows it won't be played, now with the snow and so forth, etc. Only possibility is a telegraph contest or chess battle between the respectful captains.

There's no more chance of playing at Camp Randall than there is of getting a Kappa date at 9 o'clock Saturday night. The old diamond looks like a cross-section of the Dead Sea. There's more water on it than there is at a Deke party. Still that isn't saying so much. If all the water were liquor, the T. N. E.'s could hold annual convention there and still have lots to spare.

The game would be attended by less than nobody. Not a big enough crowd to buy a chew of Eight Brothers for Captain Paddock. Ferries would run from Langdon street to the camp. Bleachers would have to be attached to pontoons. The only person to see the finish would be the umpire. And he gets paid for it.

Then, when the controversy started, the hurler would swim out to the box. He winds up like an eight-day clock. "Rollie" Williams trundles up to take a poke at the horsehide. A splash that would make "Old Faithful" seem like the last dripping of a worn-out medicine-dropper and the game is on....

The crowd would enjoy the contest like Bryan loves Darwin, like "Pussyfoot" Johnson loves Barleycorn, like the Chi Psis love the Alpha Gamma Deltas. The cheering couldn't be heard in a funeral parlor. The only shouting would be done by the players. And that would be directed at the umps.

No, they won't play Saturday. If they did, the list of drowned and dying would sound like a roll-call of Wisconsin athletes.

A CORRECTION

Stuart Hamilton '22 has been elected to Phi Kappa Phi. Announcement of his election was omitted in last Sunday's article on elections.

cists of the country have accepted the invitation of the Physics department to take part in the colloquium. The guests were entertained on Thursday evening by Dean C. S. Slichter at the Madison club at a dinner given in honor of Professor Lorentz.

BASEBALL TILT FOR SATURDAY IS CALLED OFF

Cancel Watertown Battle by Phone; Wet Weather Cause

The baseball game which was to have been played against Northwestern College of Watertown, Wis., on Camp Randall Saturday afternoon has been called off, according to the Athletic department after a telephone communication between the two schools yesterday morning.

The cancellation of the game was a great disappointment not only to Coach Lowman and his squad, but to the hundreds of eager fans who are anxiously waiting to see how the Badger diamond performers stack up this season.

The Watertown aggregation stated that they would be able to come next week if the weather permitted, and it is likely that Coach Lowman will have them here before the Badger team leaves for the south a week from Saturday.

Beloit Due Here Wednesday

Beloit is due here for a game next Wednesday, and the Oshkosh Normal school nine play here the following Saturday. This makes it probable that Northwestern will be invited to Madison on Friday, April 7, if the Camp Randall diamond is in any kind of shape by that time.

A closed practice was held yesterday afternoon at which Coach Lowman sent the team through a couple of hours of signal work. Numerous men were tried in the various positions in order to take some steps towards picking the men who will be carried on the southern training trip.

The Badger squad is under a great handicap in that they are still confined to indoor practice. Coach Lowman has not been able to get any idea as to the hitting strength of his team, nor has it been possible for him to get any definite line on the value of the new material from which he will have to pick the players who will fill the places left vacant by Farington, Lyman, and Davey.

The best that can now be hoped for is that the diamond on Camp Randall will have dried up enough so that the squad can migrate to the field by the first of next week.
