June 13th 1854

Sir

In compliance with the directions contained in your letter of instructions to me of the 8th instant, I have the honor to state that the subject of entering into a supplemental article to the Treaty of 1838, with the Creek tribe of Indians, was duly brought to the notice of their Delegation now in this City, by me, and the enclosed supplemental treaty herewith will acquaint you with what has been done in the matter.

The Delegation are desirous of returning to their homes with the least possible delay, but they regard it as important that they should convey to their people the result of their mission here.

Very Respectfully

Your Obedt. Servt.

Hon. G. W. Manspenny
