CARNIVAL CUPS PLACED IN DRUG STORE WINDOW

Boating Will Be Big Ice Feature

A window full of silver loving cups was placed at the Summer and Crampton drug store yesterday for the university ice carnival which will take place on Lake Mendota Saturday afternoon.

Three cups each have been selected for the inter-sorority and the inter-fraternity relay races. Gamma Phi Beta and Chadbourne have entered teams in the relays already and more entries are expected today and tomorrow. All teams must be entered by Friday.

Faculty Enter

Mildred Rieck '24 is receiving entries for the sorority race and Wasburn Lyon '23 has charge of the fraternity entries. Blanks for the relays and other races have been sent to all the houses in the latin quarter and have been deposited at Morgan's, Summer and Crampton's, the University pharmacy and the gymnasium. A small fee is being charged for each entry.

Both the athletic and military departments have entered four-men teams in the faculty relay. Other university departments contemplate entering teams but had not done so yesterday evening. Teams are being organized for the college relays also.

In addition to the program of skating races, two ice boat races have been scheduled for Saturday afternoon. Every country which is represented in the university by at least one student will be represented in the race by an ice boat driven by some university student. The race will be over approximately a 15 mile course on Lake Mendota.

Rink Is Enlarged

Students will drive boats for state newspapers in the second race of the afternoon. A silver cup will be presented to the newspaper whose boat wins the race.

The athletic department is clearing a large rink on the ice between the hydraulics laboratory and the warming house a short distance past the ski jump. A windbreak of fir trees will be set up on three sides of the rink and lights strewn through the branches. The ice is said to be in perfect condition at the present time.

PROM USHERS TO BE PAID ON THURSDAY

All men who ushered at Junior prom and who were checked off at the door have been requested to call at the Phi Gamma Delta house between 7 and 8 o'clock Thursday for their pay. Men who were not checked off will be given no consideration according to Arthur Ardiel '24, chairman of the floor committee.

Dr. Foster to Give Lecture on "Psychology of Power"

"Psychology of Power" is the subject of a lecture to be given by Dr. Allyn K. Foster, national student secretary, in Music hall at 8 o'clock Thursday. Doctor Foster has been secured by the Campus Religious council to talk to the student body of the university.

The lecturer has spoken before many of the larger colleges and universities in the country and is now on a lecture tour through the Middle West and is addressing several of the Big Ten schools.

Doctor Foster is reputed to be one of the most impressive speakers who is lecturing exclusively to college students. During the period of the World War he was secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in the city of Coblenz. He is a graduate of Yale.

WEATHER: FAIR

Generally fair weather is predicted for Wednesday, with rising temperature on Thursday.

DEAN'S NOTICE

BEGINNING with this semester, admission to student dances which are not strictly invitation affairs can be obtained only by presentation of the student's fee card.

This arrangement is necessary in order to take the student dances out of the category "public dances" as defined by the city ordinances. It will hold for Union Board dances, Union Board mixers, the Friday and Saturday student dances at the Studio, the Cameo Room, Esther Beach, Bernard's Park and any other dances which may be similarly conducted. Those in charge of the above named dances have agreed to work entirely upon this basis.

Students should use great care in preserving their fee cards, for, in accordance with a practice of long standing to the Bursar's office, if a fee card is lost, no duplicate will be issued.

S. H. GOODNIGHT,
(Signed)

AUTHORS BEGIN NEW MAGAZINE

University Men Instrumental in Bi-Monthly Review on Profound Tendencies

A group of 10 writers, most of whom are or have been in some way connected with the university, is publishing a new bi-monthly magazine called the American Review, the first issue of which appeared on the book-stalls during the last week of last semester.

One of the chief instigators of the new publishing venture is Prof. M. C. Otto, of the department of philosophy, whose article, "Hast Thou Any Philosophy In Thee, Shepard" leads off in the initial issue. The task of the magazine according to Professor Otto, is to present its readers with a thoroughgoing, yet non-technical, discussion of the profounder tendencies and movements of American life by those actively connected with them.

Miss Zona Gale is one of the best known writers whose names appear on the editorial staff. "Some Implications Of Novel Making" by this novelist is also contained in the current issue.

Other editors are Prof. Arnold Dresden, of the department of mathematics; B. H. Bode, of the College of Education at Ohio State university who was in the philosophy department here some years ago; A. Eustace Haydon of the Unitarian church in the city; William M. Lieserson, who serves as arbitrator of disputes arising in the interpretation of established agreements governing the working conditions now in force for much of the clothing industry; T. J. MacCormack, principal of the LaSalle township high school; Frankwood E. Williams, medical director of the National Committee for Mental Hygiene; and V. T. Thayer, principal of the Ethical Culture school of New York City and recently of the philosophy department in the university. Messrs. Leiserson and Williams are both graduates of the University of Wisconsin.

Senate to Plan Date For Massmeeting on System

The date for a student massmeeting for an open discussion of the point system will be taken up tonight by the student senate in open session in the Law building.

The massmeeting is being considered as a part of the campaign to acquaint the student body with the advantages and disadvantages of the proposed plan.

A. A. Ebersole, of Chicago, director of the Student Friendship club, will tell the members of the senate of the work of that organization in Russia and the Near East. The club has collected money from various universities in the United States.

FEE CARDS ARE NECESSARY FOR DANCES IS RULE

Requirements Result of Ordinance

Hereafter students will be required to present fee cards for admission to student dances in order to remove these dances from the category of public dances as defined by a city dance ordinance passed last summer, Dean S. H. Goodnight gave out in a formal statement last night.

This ruling applies to student dances at the Cameo room, the Studio, Esther beach, Bernard's park, and all Union board dances. It is necessary for one of the couple to present a fee card at the door, and at Union Board mixers each individual must have a card.

A city dance hall ordinance passed last summer classes all students dances, except invitation affairs as public dances because they were open to anyone. The Union Board, which conducts week end dances at Lathrop hall and various mixers, proposed a plan to have students present fee cards which would limit the dance to students only.

Several weeks ago Messrs. Thompson and Boyd, proprietors of Madison dance halls, conferred with the Committee on Student Life and Interests to cooperate with them in making their week end dances exclusively for students. Deans Louise F. Nardin and Goodnight approved the plans for the committee.

Friday night dances will be the first to be conducted under this arrangement. Students are urged to use care in preserving their fee cards for the bursar's office will not be lost. This system does not bar town people, but one or the other must be a student.

AGRICULTURE GIVE OUT COMMITTEES OF FARM FESTIVAL

Committees for the Winter Farm festival at the College of Agriculture, February 23 to 24, were published by W. A. Hartman, general chairman of the event, yesterday.

All of the departments in the agriculture college will hold open house during the festival, and a committee has been placed in charge of demonstrations and exhibits in each department.

The list of committees is W. A. Hartman '23, general chairman; R. C. Klussendorf '23, assistant chairman; High School publicity—Donald English '23, chairman; state publicity, T. R. Daniels '23, chairman; Arthur Platten '23, Marvin Schaars '23, Roswell Stinchfield '24 W. P. Meyers '23.

HAREFOOT TRYOUTS ATTRACTS MANY MEN

Haresfoot tryouts attracted more than 200 aspiring female vamps and ingenues, shieks, sailors, foot-light beauties, prestidigitators and stage hands to the initial trials held yesterday in Lathrop concert room.

The men were given a sketch of the play action by Henry Rubel '23, the author, and an outline of the proposed work by the heads of the cast, chorus, business and stage departments.

Tryouts will continue daily until E. Mortimer Shuter, coach arrives from Ann Arbor February 13 to make final selections.

Men who were not able to appear at the tryouts yesterday may still apply for parts in the production by attending the tryouts scheduled in the Cardinal bulletin board today or by calling Koch at B. 191.

ST. PAUL NETS LARGE RETURNS

Twin Cities Swell Union Fund By $10,400, Baker Reports

An active two weeks campaign in St. Paul brought about a $3400 increase in the Memorial Union fund and the formation of a strong alumni club, according to a report received by L. S. Baker of the Memorial Union headquarters here. At the same time Minneapolis subscribed $7,000, making a total of $10,400 from the Twin cities.

The meeting of the alumni of St. Paul was planned for January 16 by George F. O'Neil '96 and Judge Oscar Hallam '89, at the St. Paul Athletic club. St. Paul has never had an active alumni association but new interest has been instilled by the drive for the Memorial Union.

The first meeting resulted in the election of O'Neil for president; Judge Hallam, vice-president; Mrs. C. N. Akers '74, vice-president; and Herman M. Egstad '17 secretary and treasurer. Al Buser '12 now the athletic coach of the Central High school, St. Paul, acted as cheer-leader and general clown for the evening.

John Dollard '22 reports that a campaign carried on in Mayville proved the town to be 100 per cent Wisconsin. The campaign was sponsored by Kurk Ruedebusch '17 and each of the 10 alumni took a life membership which means $500 more for Wisconsin. Dollard left Saturday for a two week trip to New York city where he will assist the New York organization. To date New York has pledged $14,000 in addition to the $2100 pledge two years ago.

Soon after March 1 a campaign is planned for all important cities west of the Mississippi, with Los Angeles, Calif. as the center.

Hibben to Talk Tonight on Condition in Russia

The situation in Russia will be presented in a lecture by Capt. Paxton Hibben, executive secretary of the American commission for relief of Russian children, at 8 o'clock tonight in the Assembly Chamber of the capitol.

Captain Hibben is appearing under the auspices of the Wisconsin Social Science club, the Woman's League for Peace and Freedom, the International club, the Federated Press club, the Woman's Progressive league, Federated Press league, the Collegiate League of Women Voters and the Unity club.

The collection taken at the meeting will go to the American commission for the relief of Russian children.

(Special to The Cardinal)
LAFAYETTE, Ind. Feb. 6—Wisconsin and Purdue last night engaged in one of the most thrilling games ever seen on the local court which resulted in the Badger's losing their hold on first place as the boiler-makers were on the long end of a 17 to 13 count when the game ended.

Holwerda, who started the game at forward, shifted to floor guard when Robbins was put out of the game. He displayed a cool head when performing on the free throw line and sank 11 out of 12 tries. The accurate work of the Boiler-makers was in a large measure the cause of the downfall of the visiting five. Both teams were able to connect with the basket for only three field goals apiece. Gage counted only seven points out of a possible thirteen from the foul line. The score at the half stood nine all.

The Purdue gymnasium was packed to capacity 30 minutes before the game started. The large crowd soon realized after the game was under way that they would be treated to one of the best games seen here this season. Each five sensed the strength of the other and realized a defeat possibly would eliminate their chances for a perch on the top rung of the conference ladder.

The game was barely started when Robbins was caught holding and Gage tickled the draperies for the opening score. Holwerda for

KANSAS BILL BARS CARS FOR STUDENTS

If a bill now before the Kansas state legislature is passed, any student at the state university at Lawrence who uses his motor car for pleasure purposes while attending the institution may be expelled from the school. This bill also applies to the Agricultural college and all other state educational institutions.

At the beginning of the school year, the heads of the state educational institutions sent letters to the parents of students, urging them not to send their children to school with motor cars. The cars were held to detract from the school work, were unnecessary, except in a few exceptional cases, and were helping to destroy the democratic feeling that had so long existed and which was felt to be an integral part of the school activities.

The proposed measure is not intended to affect those students so situated that they need cars to reach their classes, but is intended merely to prevent the use for all pleasure purposes.

Ask Auto Taxes On Weights

A graduated license fee based upon weight, is outlined in a tentative highway bill to be brought before the joint highway committee of the legislature at its meeting Wednesday night. This measure, drawn by A. R. Hirst, state chief highway engineer, provides a schedule of fees application of which is estimated to raise $8,000,000 annually.

Under terms of the bill drawn at the direction of the legislative committee, automobiles up to 2,000 pounds would pay 65 cents for each one hundred pounds; between 2,000 pounds and 2,800 pounds 80 cents per each 100 pounds and all over 2,800 pounds would pay $1 on the same basis.

This in effect is an automobile weight surtax, apportioned in such a way as to place the heaviest burden of highway cost on the owner of the heaviest car. It would produce $8,000,000 annually from the 438,000 automobiles which it is estimated, will be used throughout Wisconsin during 1924.

According to tables prepared by Mr. Hirst 64.5 per cent of the automobiles would go in the first weight class; 17.72 per cent would fall in the second class and 17.78 per cent would be in the third class.

Personal property taxes on automobiles in Wisconsin would continue to be levied as in the past, under the committee bill. It is a less comprehensive proposal than that offered by the legislative committee of the county board's association, although estimated to double present returns from automobile owners.

The plan of Governor Blaine for a combined horsepower and weight license fee was blasted by the committee when Mr. Hirst brought in a table showing that 33 makes of cars, more expensive than the Ford had a smaller horse power, resulting in a relatively high tax for the cheaper car.

Following is the table prepared by the highway engineer to show the license fee imposed by the proposed law on a number of makes of automobiles:

Choristers Resume Practice On Faust

The choral union of the university will resume its weekly practice at 7 o'clock tonight at Music hall under the direction of Prof. P. W. Dykema.

Work on the grand opera "Faust" was begun by the organization after the Christmas holidays and this opera will be the theme of their rehearsals until Easter.

New members will be received into the union tonight. Students and local residents can secure membership in the union and can arrange for tryouts by consulting Professor Dykema at the university school of music.

La Follette Congratulates Blaine On Kemp Victory

Sen Robert M. La Follette today sent a message of congratulation to Gov. Blaine on the outcome of the special senatorial election in the 11th Wisconsin district, at which M. A. Kemp, La Follette-Blaine candidate, was victorious. The message follows: "Congratulate you on Superior election. It is another assurance that the people of Wisconsin are unalterably demanding that you shall have the support of a progressive legislature. They have commissioned you to go straight through to the end of the furrow."

TEXAS UNIVERSITY WILL INSTALL MODERN PRESS

A modern perfecting press for the use of the Texas University press will be installed in the near future. The installation of the press will place the Texas university press in the first rank of college presses, with the universities of Michigan and Oklahoma.

BABE ADAMS IS THE GRANDFATHER OF PRESENT BIG LEAGUE PLAYERS

Babe Adams, about to start his nineteenth year in the major leagues, is the granddad of the big shows. Babe is not only the oldest pitcher in the two big leagues, but is probably the oldest active player in the majors, according to the ages recorded. Jake Daubert is probably the second oldest, and Ivan Olson ranks close to Jake. There may be one or two active players who can dispute the positions of Jake and Olson in the age list, but do not care to change the ages by which they have gone for years. Babe, at forty, tops them all, however.

FOULING PLAYS MAJOR PART IN PURDUE'S SCORE

Both Teams Get Only 3 Ringers

Purdue followed suit on Gage's foul. The latter brought the crowd to its feet with a spectacular over the head shot from the side of the floor for the first field goal. He counted again from the foul line on Robbins second foul.

Both teams were playing at a terrific pace. The visitors five men defense was unpenetrable, while on the other hand the boiler-makers had their individual men to watch. Holwerda gave Purdue another point on Spooner's foul. Gullion, the lanky center made a beautiful shot from out on the floor thus tying the count. Robbins appeared to be unlucky as the half was only half up when he fouled again. Gage counted and then Holwerda added one when Gibson broke a rule. Elsom was sent in for Spooner and Diebold took Gibson's place.

The new combination gave Wisconsin the lead on Elsom's field goal from the side of the floor and Gage's two points from the foul line. The score stood 9 to 5 in favor of the visitors. Holwerda came through again with a free throw on Diebold's personal. He added another shortly after Gage had missed two tries on Robbins fourth foul, when Elsom held under the basket. Some pretty work by Eversman and by Tavis who replaced Robbins and Gullion enabled the boiler-makers to work the ball under the basket where the latter of the trio sent it through the basket. This was the finale of the scoring for the first period.

Both teams seemed to have benefited from the rest between periods and continued their fast pace. Tavis got the ball under the basket and counted, giving Purdue the lead for the first time during the game. Holwerda boosted the count three points on Elsom's and Tebell's fouls. Gibson went back in the game for Diebold at this time. Holwerda maintained his cool head and counted again on Gibson's foul. Gage gave the visitors one point shortly after Tavis had scored a field goal. He added one more when Tavis fouled again. The score stood 15 to 11 with Purdue leading and ten minutes left to play.

The Boiler-makers still could not penetrate the wonderful fief man defense of the Badgers and resorted to holding the ball in the visitors territory, until the Cardinal shirted five would leave their five man defense position to get the ball. This style play broke up the defense but Purdue could not score. Spooner reentered the game and scored from under the basket with Eversman hot on his trail. This gave Wisconsin 13 against 15 for Purdue. Holwerda brought the scoring to a close by counting on Gibson's and Williams' fouls. Only five seconds remained to play when he counted the final point.

The Purdue students staged a Badgers out of first place. A free show followed a parade to town.

PROF. A. T. WEAVER ADDRESSES WOMEN

Prof. A. T. Weaver of the Speech department spoke at a meeting of the Catholic Women's Association of Portage last night. It was the annual open meeting of the society. Professor Weaver spoke on Lincoln and gave several readings from his writings.

Johnny Bennett, Swimmer

CAPT. JOHNNY BENNETT

The "Iron Man" of the Conference is what critics called Johnson Bennett, captain of the Wisconsin swimming team after his remarkable work in the 1922 Conference swim meet held in Bartlett gym, Chicago, last March.

Bennett entered in four events and won places in each. He was individual high scorer and was instrumental in putting the Badgers in second place.

VINER PREPARES TO WIN AGAINST GOPHERS' TEAM

Coach Viner is working hard and late in hopes that he might round a winning squad in shape for Minnesota. The Badgers pusksters meet the strong Minnesota team in two games one Friday afternoon and one Saturday afternoon of this week. Minnesota has a strong team this year and the Badgers will be forced to the limit for a victory.

The exams brought a few changes in the squad. Campbell, a good man and a man with some valuable experience, may be declared ineligible. Haugh another man who was taken to Michigan is also ineligible. Moran who has been showing up well in practice, no doubt will get a chance in the games with Minnesota. Von Czeleski is a very valuable man and is eligible for competition this semester. He will be used against Minnesota and is expected to show up well. These two men are the most helpful men that will be added to the squad in the future games.

Capt. Comebacker will carry the brunt of the burden for the Badgers. He is undoubtedly the best man on the team this year and will be a big factor in the Badger machine. Blodgett is another good man and is showing up well in practice. With Tom Tredwell tending goal the Badgers have a fifty fifty chance with Minnesota.

Coach Viner is negotiating with Marquette for two games to be played at Milwaukee. The definite date has not been set as yet.

Johnny led his team to victory over Indiana in the first dual competition held this season. Although the personnel of the Wisconsin team has not been settled definitely a strong team will represent Wisconsin in the crucial meet with Minnesota at Minneapolis on Saturday. Bennett will have a tough job beating Lanpher and Faircy, Gopher water stars.

SWIMMERS WORK OUT WHILE WAITING MARKS

Despite the fact that the eligibility of several men is hanging fire because of the fact that no reports rived at the gym. Coach Joe Steinauer has every swimmer working in the tank in preparation for the second dual meet of the season to be held at Minneapolis next Saturday. The meet will be a battle royal and very available man will be needed.

Several men are thought to be ineligible because of low scholastic records for the first semester but nothing definite will be known until later today when the reports will arrive at the gym.

Wisconsin defeated the Gophers in a dual meet last year and will attempt to repeat the performance. The showing which Minnesota has made recently makes it a sure thing that the Badgers will have to show their best metal in order to turn the trick.

Minnesota won its dual meet with Chicago recently by an overwhelming score. The work of Gov. and Faircy was of a calibre that is difficult to beat, and Wisconsin will not have an easy time with these men in the running.

Until he knows is eligible, Steinauer will not know what men will comprise the team which will represent Wisconsin against the Gophers.

Carmen at Washington Protest Long Race Course

Carmen of the University of Washington have protested against the four mile Poughkeepsie race in favor of shortening the course to three miles. Cornell and Pennsylvania are standing in favor of the shortened course, while Columbia and Syracuse are against it.

STAR WRESTLER LOST TO SQUAD AS MEET NEARS

The first blow to the wrestling team on the eve of the dual meet with Minnesota to be held Saturday came yesterday in the way of an announcement that Bob Holmes, premier 135 pounder, would be out of the next meet on account of illness. He has been sick for the past week and will not be in shape to enter against Minnesota.

Coach Hitchcock has three men working well in this class, any one of whom he may enter against Halvorson the man in this class representing Minnesota. Morrow, Schaikel, and Haddorff will all receive consideration and one of them will have the opportunity to show his worth Saturday.

While official reports have not yet been received by Hitchcock to prove the eligibility of all his men, the coach has reason to believe that every one of them is eligible for the work of the winter. Individual wrestlers have all reported favorably on the results of the first semester's work.

Wisconsin will try to break the jinx which has camped outside its door every time a Badger squad has taken on a Gopher grappling team. Since the inauguration of wrestling at Wisconsin, Minnesota has consistently won in the dual meets between the two institutions. Hitchcock feels that he will have an even break against the Minnesota and will exert every effort to send the Gophers back on the short end of the score.

Harold Holmes, Wisconsin football star in 1921, worked out on the mats yesterday for the first time since his return to school. While he will not be a candidate for the squad this year, he is a probable successor for Capt. Tempelin in the 175 pound class for the next year.

"Gus," Varsity Cheer Leader to Take a European Tour

Gus Tuckerman '23, Varsity cheer leader, takes a European tour in preference to returning to school this semester. Accompanied by Delvin C. Jacobus, of Wauwatosa, a fraternity brother and a former student at the university, he will sail from New York for England in a couple of weeks.

Gus Leyt Madison with Roll and his German police dog which he received from Germany a few weeks ago. Gus says that he would like to take his dog along on the trip, but, as Rolland suffered severe attacks of sea sickness on the way over, he should not be made to take the return voyage. Beside, meat is scarce in Germany!

As for himself, Gus says that he will stay in Europe as long as he can stand it. The tour will begin in England where Gus will visit an uncle who lives there, and will include travel through Germany and France. Gus anticipates to return to this country in time to enter the summer session to complete his course in the university.

Chicago Student Killed By Shotgun

While the Chicago police claim suicide was the cause of the death of John B. Minahan, a student of the University of Chicago and son of Dr. Minahan who had recently performed an operation in which it was necessary to move a patient's heart, friends firmly believe that his death was the result of an accident. The body was found on the morning of Feb. 2, reclining in a chair with a shotgun between the knees. Minahan had planned to take a hunting trip into New Mexico for his health.

CINDER LOSSES WILL NOT KILL VARSITY HOPES

Burke Sees Need of Hurdlers

Despite the loss of eight men, who were declared ineligible on account of scholastic work, the Varsity track team will be able to put a fairly strong team into the field next spring. Headed by Captain Ralph Spetz, the squad of approximately 65 men is working out daily in the annex.

Various preliminary meets and tryouts will be run off from time to time to determine the best available material. Coach Mead Burke hopes to round out a well-balanced aggregation from among the squad members and those trying out for places on the squad.

Some of the most likely looking cinder men in the present squad are Newell, Platten, Johnson, Carter, Read, Ramsay, Schneider, Tschudy and Vallye.

One of the biggest holes to be plugged is in the hurdle events. The loss of Capt. Al Knollin '22 by graduation leaves the squad in poor shape for the stick races. Newell is the best man on the squad at present, but he will need some help. Roberts, Holmes and Muzzy also are working in the hurdles.

Burke is pretty well fortified in the middle distance events and the runs. Wade, lost through ineligibility, will be missed, but Tschudy, Schneider, Perry, Piper, Trier, Vallye, and Rossmel are good men in the longer track events.

The high jump events were hit by the loss of Tuhtar, But Platten and Donohue are capable men in these lists. Donohue also puts the shot.

Niederman, Vallye, Carter, and Bergstresser are good runners in the 880-yard run. Read will probably get the call in the mile.

Eagleburger, Ellison, Chase, Gunderson, Flueck, Lange, McCandless, O'Brien, Ven Ells, Wade and Wiseman are others on the squad at present who will no doubt develop into valuable point winners.

The inter-sorority relay to be run at the end of next week probably will uncover some good material in the middle distance events and the mile. A tryout meet to be run off Friday afternoon will afford an opportunity for a number of aspirants for the squad to show their wares.

While the loss of Knollin, Sundt, and Merrick, besides the men lost through ineligibility will put a big hole in the chances for a contending at Wisconsin, the present squad is by no means lacking in talent and a fast cinder team should result.

Last year's team suffered its worst defeat at the hands of Illinois, but placed second to the Suckers in the Conference indoor meet at Evanston. Minnesota slipped over a victory by the margin of a single point. The Badgers snowed Chicago under in a dual meet here. Last season's team was considered the best that Wisconsin had turned out in six years. While Badger rooters do not look for a championship in track for 1923, it is certain that they will not be pulling for a loser.

Rockefeller Gives $300,000 to Butler

The Rockefeller general education board will make a gift of $300,000 to Butler college, on the condition that a $600,000 endowment fund be raised by Butler, it was announced Monday. A campaign to raise $1,500,000 was begun this week by Butler college, $900,000 to be used for a permanent endowment and $600,000 for campus improvements.

PICKING THE COACH

WO more prospective coaches to pilot the Badger football eleven have been interviewed in Madison by Director Tom Jones.

To the list of candidates has been added Pat Page, Butler college coach, and Bill Juneau, mentor at Kentucky State, two outstanding figures in the western athletic field.

Five men are now being considered by Wisconsin authorities. Jack Ryan, Dartmouth, Harold Ofstie, Mississippi, A. & M., and Harry Hughes, Colorado A. & M. already have been summoned to Madison. From these five men a selection may be made soon.

Selecting a coach for the university football squad is a weighty matter.

If the officials were undertaking the choice of a president for the school, no more time could be required. It is the athletic glory which attracts youths to a university, some athletic enthusiasts declare. Others point out that the popularity of athletics is increasing and that the enhanced importance of athletic coaches is only one natural result.

The fact remains that sports are calling for more attention than ever before. Many Big Ten coaches receive more money than the presidents of the schools.

The condition is not a menace to education. It merely proves that particular pains are being taken to keep athletics in the deserving and profitable place they now occupy.

When the department summons a coach from Colorado, another from Mississippi and still another from Dartmouth, the students may feel assured that every effort is being made to select an efficient football coach.

Coach Jones has declared that a selection will not be made hastily. If it requires three more months to obtain the best coach, The Cardinal hopes that Coach Jones' policy of care will be continued.

THAT POINT SYSTEM

IF you were asked to vote today on a point system, what answer would you give?

One of the democratic features of representative government is the fact that an opportunity is given for the expression of opinion. As public opinion is the key to legislative decisions, so the plan for a mass meeting on the point system may be termed an invitation for student self-expression.

A ballot taken today on the point system would find many students undecided and perplexed. The advantages and disadvantages of such an important measure would be a mystery to the majority of voters.

Whether the point system is feasible and advisable remains for the students to decide. For this purpose a mass meeting has been planned by the Student senate. The date will be fixed at an open session to be held at the Law building tonight.

Students are invited by the senate to attend.

ANOTHER STUDENT CASE

WHEN a man, driving an automobile, accidentally strikes a pedestrian and the victim dies, the result is news which a Chicago newspaper is expected to record although it may not give the fact a sensational banner.

Automobile accidents are matter of fact in our present civilization.

But when a student drives the automobile, the result is sensational news of which the eager public must be informed. What a difference it makes to one Chicago newspaper whether the driver is a college student or not! Scandal is scandal. So is the fact that a college student drove the car.

Hence a glaring headline this week in one sensational Chicago morning newspaper: "Student's Auto Kills Father of 5."

If you aspire to publicity, become a college student and an accident may make you famous.

Historian Comes Without Chaps

Students in History 4 who were expecting to see a traditional movie Texan in chaps and sombrero jump out on the platform in Music hall yesterday morning to give a lecture were greeted by a typical Middle Westerner instead. The lecturer was Prof. C. S. Boucher who succeeds Prof. Carl Russell Fish. Professor Fish has been granted a leave of absence for a semester.

Professor Boucher has been in Texas for two and a half years doing research work. He took most of his undergraduate work in Illinois and Michigan and also studied in the east.

By the way of introduction, Professor Boucher told several stories about Texas life. He said that he hoped to become acclimated to our sub-zero weather in a short time but intimated that the 70 degree in the shade temperature that he left last week would be rather pleasant in Madison right now.

Professor Boucher paid a high compliment to Professor Fish saying that historians all over the country regard him as a leader in that field.

MOVIE CHATS

"ONE EXCITING NIGHT"
Featuring Carol Dempster, Henry Hull and Porter Strong.
Presented at the Parkway.
Directed by D. W. Griffith.

BY CHATTY

Griffith's done it again! "One Exciting Night", a comedy drama of mystery, this master director's latest production was worth our tiresome 45-minute wait in the theater lobby, and that's saying a lot for any movie. Saturated with the tense scenes Griffith invariably employs, this picture, to us, seems to reach the summit of modern motion picture intensity.

Were it not for the frequent brilliant splashes of humor skillfully interwoven throughout the 2 hours and 15 minutes of thrills, the presentation would have been unbearable.

Only the love scenes between Romeo Washington (Porter Strong) and the colored maid (Irma Harrison)—which sometimes bordered on farce comedy—prevented such a catastrophe.

Mr. Strong is a genuine comedian. We'd like to see him more often. His is a brand of humor that is rarely seen but always appreciated.

Beauty and talent—generally though of as prerequisites to movie fame—are seldom found in as pleasing combination as in Carol Dempster, one of Mr. Griffith's more recent proteges, who here proves herself to be a most brilliant actress.

Henry Hull shows promise. Given a more important part, we feel he will follow the footsteps of other Griffith "finds".

As a whole, every part was well-taken and the acting was good.

The plot is not new but is developed with such unusualness that the audience fails to realize it. Direction, naturally, is good, as is also the photography.

Climaxing a night of uncanny events comes a terrific storm, one which we feel is the best so far filmed. And out in these raging elements is a good place to solve the mystery—but see it yourself!

BLIND STUDENT WINS N. W. SCHOLARSHIP

A blind student at Northwestern university has been granted the Russell Sage scholarship in law, the only scholarship at the disposal of the law school faculty of that school, has been placed on the honor role of the law school for excellence of scholarship, and has been granted the Charles A. Koepke prize for 1922-23, a prize awarded annually to the student who shows greatest promise of future usefulness.

School Pupils Above Average Says Gosling

Pupils of Madison's elementary schools stand far above standard, according to mid-semester exams completed last week in reading, fundamentals of arithmetic, and reasoning, it was announced today by T. W. Gosling, superintendent of schools. Complete tabulation of the tests is being made by the superintendent's office but it is thought from preliminary examination of the papers that the result will show the Madison pupils are far above the standard set for the

PLAN PROGRAM FOR ENGINEERS' SOCIETY MEETING

A full program of lectures, discussions, and business sessions has been arranged for the annual meeting of the Engineering Society of Wisconsin which will be held here Feb. 22-24, according to Prof. L. S. Smith, of the Wisconsin College of Engineering, secretary.

Two joint sessions will be held with the Wisconsin Drainage society. A number of papers will be read by prominent consulting engineers and engineering experts of the state. Drainage, sanitation, pavements, road machinery, and similar topics will be covered. A banquet will be held with the Madison Technical club.

President E. A. Birge, of the university, will give the address of welcome. The well-known lecture on 'Snowflakes' will be given in the evening by Prof. B. W. Snow, chairman of the university department of physics. Prof. E. R. Jones, chairman of the department of agricultural engineering, Wisconsin College of Agriculture, will report for the committee on drainage. Prof. D. W. Mead, of the university department of hydraulic and sanitary engineering, will discuss on "A Code of Ethics for Practicing Engineers."

Through arrangements with the railroad companies, it will be possible for engineers coming to Madison to take advantage of these special rates for the Wisconsin Farm Festival. These certificates can be validated in Madison for a fare and a third.

Ohio University to Judge Papers

A dramatic club is being formed among the Methodist student social center.

Robert C. Eichorn, professional dramatic director, will coach all plays given by the club.

The Rev. Wilbur Fowler, student pastor, explained, 'Students who have talent cannot always become members of other dramatic organizations on the campus, and they will have the chance of following out their desires here. I feel that there is need among students of the university for such a club is planned.'

Stevens Ruling On Districting Schools Void

High Court Reserves Ruling; Superior Bus Law Also Quashed

School districts maintaining high schools, may be united with districts without such schools, despite the resultant increase in taxation for districts not previously maintaining institutions for secondary education, the Supreme court decided today. It reversed a decision of Judge E. Ray Stevens of the Dane county circuit court holding such consolidation unauthorized.

The court held that a school district with a high school was still an ordinary school district and subject to the same laws relating to consolidation as any other similar division. This holding has an important effect on the movement to unite districts of the state.

Until the legislature enacts a law making vocational schools responsible for injury to pupils working on their machines, school districts are not liable for compensation for such injuries, the Wisconsin Supreme court held today.

It sustained a lower court decision holding that a boy Daniel Sullivan of Tomah, who lost three fingers in an unprotected saw in the Tomah High school, could not recover damages.

"The doctrine of nonliability of a municipality for performance of governmental functions is so deeply rooted in jurisprudence that in effect it has virtually attained the force of a statute," Justice Doerfler wrote. "Until the legislature by statute changes this

The Supreme court today held the Superior ordinance regulating routes and conditions of operation of jitney busses, null and void, reversing the lower court decision in the case of Reed Vanderwerker against the city of Superior.

Justice Eschweiler, writing the opinion said that "all questions as to what shall be the general routes and the territory, the character of the service and the hours of operation, all regardless of any other service being then furnished, are by the state jitney bus law, vested in determinations of the railroad commission, subject to judicial review."

They held that the Superior ordinance was beyond the power of the municipality to enforce.

The beautiful overture to "Der Freischütz," with the melodious horn quartet of the introduction and the dramatic portrayal of a fanciful love story, opened the concert given by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra at the university armory last night under the direction of Henri Verbruggen, conductor. The orchestra was brought here by the Madison Orchestral association.

The four movements of the popular and widely known "Peer Gynt," Suite No. 1, by Greig were interpreted in the second half of the program, and these favorites were met with storms of applause from the listeners. The four movements were "Morning in the Mountains," "Aase's Death," "Anitra's Dance," and "Dance in the Hall of the Mountain King." A short and snappy rendition of the Adagietto from suite "L'Arlesienne," by Bizet, was all received.

Included in the program were Beethoven's Symphony No. 5, in C Minor, and preludes to the opera and the third act of Wagner's "Lohengrin." A symphonic poem, "Les Preludes" from Liszt, concluded the program. This selection is an intricate and delightful work based on French a poem of the same title.

BUSINESS GIRL ONLY CAN SOLVE HER PROBLEMS

The business girl has not only serious problems, but ones which she alone can solve, according to Prof. B. R. Andrews of the department of economic science of Columbia university.

Professor Andrews pointed out that an economic plan of life which makes provision for 40 while one is still in the twenties is not considered by the average girl. Her economic problem always appears immediate, although in reality it is part of a lifelong condition. He recommended the discussion by committees of girls.

"There should be a definite understanding in New York state of what a fair wage is," Professor Andrews said. "There is a need of a minimum wage and it should be enforced in such a way that the young people in economic service should receive their just value, which also brings up the point of adequate service for salary received."

$2.50 Hundred For Milk During February

A conditional price of $2.50 per 100 pounds will be paid for milk during the month of February, it was announced by Walter Gregg, secretary of the Madison Milk Producers association, today. This price will be paid upon the condition that butter prices do not drop below the 48 cent mark. In case of a drop in butter, a price of $2.45 per 100 pounds will be paid.

Two Dancers Head Bill For Last Half

Youth, beauty and talent in a dancing offering of elaborate fashion are promised in "Dances of Here and There", in which Miss Beatrice Gardel and Miss Ruth Pryor are to be featured at the Orpheum the last half of the week starting tomorrow. They are asoparno solist, who will offer a few moments of introductory and during the interludes. Outstanding features of this brand new production are the beauty, grace and vivacity and the exceptional versatility of its principals.

With the dainty and strikingly original setting, the act suggests a Dresden print. To reveal in advance what note of distinction has been struck, to prove that there is something new in dance production, would be to derive the auditor of a rare treat. The act will win admiration at the outset, and as the program of dances follows, showing these delectable misses in a variety of mood, in dances from native and foreign shores, it becomes a whirl of color, beauty and rhythm.

Miss Cardel and Miss Pryor have both won great popularity for their distinctive abilities as a premier danseuse. Their expert toe-work and their originality of interpretation have won them enviable reputations.

Progressive Democrat To Lead Senate

Senator Robinson Will Become Leader To Succeed Underwood

Washington Bureau, The Capital Times.

WASHINGTON, D. C. A clear-cut warning that Democratic success in 1924 "will depend upon the platform pronouncements respecting the great domestic and international issues, and our choice for the Presidency," and "it is therefore to the interest of the party that open and prudent counsel dominate both in the platform and the selection of a candidate," was voiced today by Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, in a specially prepared statement.

"I have NOT the slightest idea, nor do I believe anyone else has, as to who will become the standard bearer of the Democratic Party in the coming campaign," Senator Robinson said.

His statement was the first public expression of his views regarding the existing political situation, and Democratic prospects, since it has been conceded he will be chosen to succeed Senator Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, as Democratic leader of the Senate.

Considerable importance was therefore attached to the statement in view of the Democratic leadership he expected to assume in the next Congress and the progressive leanings he is known to possess which led the adherents of former President Woodrow Wilson to first oppose him and put Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, in the field against him.

It is also an open secret that Robinson and the majority of Democratic Senators behind his candidacy as leader are NOT at all friendly to the premature Presidential "boom" of William Gibbs McAdoo which was so thoroughly ventilated here recently when McAdoo paid a flying visit to the national capital.

Dog Guards Body Of Woman; Fights Officers

SUPERIOR, Wis. — Faithful to its mistress even after her death, a small white poodle dog succeeded for a time in preventing the police and Coroner A. Downs from removing to the morgue the body of Ida Howard, age 55, who was found dead in bed in her apartment by a neighbor.

Showing an unconquerable fighting spirit, the dog though small in size, put up a game but losing fight. From the minute assistant police Chief W. A. Mead and Patrol Arthur Zimmerman entered the Howard apartment to investigate the reported death, the dog showed fight. He was sole guardian of his mistress' body. Death is believed to have occurred as a result of rheumatism, according to the police.

Somewhere Lives a Man I Am Looking For and He is Looking For Me

I want a man who worked his way thru college by selling books, aluminum ware, brushes, bonds, maps, views or other specialties; a clean-cut, congenial fellow who has been trained in the science and art of selling merchandise direct to the consumer; has had experience in hiring and training college men to sell specialties; has made a record; a worker who believes in knowing his merchandise; a man who has made and saved money; a man who has ambition backed up by a burning desire and a willingness to pay the price of success; where the reward is only limited by the limitations of the man himself. If you are the man, write me a personal letter, giving me full details of your past experience and tell me why you think you are the right man.

The degree of bachelor of laws was granted to six men who have now completed the regular course and the office apprenticeship. They are: Percy F. Dornbrook, Menasha; Edward L. Hoyer, Madison; Leland Hyzer, Janesville; Gustave J. Keller, Appleton; John L. Nesbit, Oxford, and John Barnard, Superior.

BADGER FACULTY IS BEHIND NEW MAGAZINE

The forward in the first issue of the American Review explains the main purpose of the publication. The magazine's "primary purpose," it reads, "is to furnish a medium for registering, observing and discussing the significant thought and action of the day as these find expression through the important though conflicting currents in history, labor, business, politics, art, education, religion and philosophy."

The second issue of the American Review which will appear in a couple of months will contain among other things, an article on the "Social and Economical Program of the Catholic Church" by Rev. R. A. McGowan, assistant director of the department of social action of the National Catholic Welfare Council. The international situation will also be discussed by Steven P. Duggan, a well-known publicist.

The review is being published at Bloomington, Ill., by G. A. Brown and the annual subscription price is $3.00.

Coach Zuppke Pins Faith on Frosh Stars For 1923

Coach Zuppke is looking to last year's freshman football stars to fill many of the vacancies in the line this year. Many candidates responded to his initial call for squad candidates on Monday. Another meeting was held Tuesday, and today actual drill will start on the Illinois field.

Woman, 45, Drops Plow For Pen, Will Study at Medill

Changing her vocation from farming to journalism, Mrs. Edith W. Locke, of Braidwood, Ill., came to Chicago Saturday to enter the Medill School of Journalism. She intends to take the entire course, even if it takes five years, for she wants to "perfect her style." Mrs. Locke is not a neophyte, having been employed on the Joliet Herald and other papers. She is 45 years old. Mrs. Locke says that she has always wanted to write but until now has had to work. Several short stories which she submitted to Prof. H. E. Harrington, head of the she is a find, are mighty well written, he declares. Her son, Theron Locke, is a sophomore at Northwestern university.

ALUMNI MAGAZINE IS OUT FOR THIS MONTH

The February issue of the Wisconsin Alumni Magazine is out. This magazine is published monthly during the school year by the General Alumni association, 321 State street, Madison. Robert S. Crawford, '03, general secretary of the Wisconsin Alumni association is the editor.

The magazine is a two column, 135 to 150 page affair, with but few advertisements, a frontispiece of the university, and a half dozen or more pictures of prominent University of Wisconsin graduates.

The articles printed in the Wisconsin Alumni Magazine are varied. They include several small articles under "News and Comment", articles on athletics, University of Wisconsin clubs, other universities, and important happenings of the day, and "class news," "alumni News", and "Faculty news". The motto of the paper appears on the first page, "A Magazine Aimed to Preserve and Strengthen the Bond of Interest and Reverence of the Wisconsin Graduate for his Alma Mater."

Religious Forum Plans Discussions

Prof. D. D. Leschmier has been asked by the Forum of Religion promoted by the University Methodist Church, to open the discussion upon "The Negro in American Life," Sunday, February 11, at 7:30 at the University church. This meeting will celebrate Lincoln's birthday.

A very interesting series of discussions for February and March have been planned. Among those to lead the discussions during this time will be Prof. John R. Commons, Attorney Frank W. Hall of the Hall and Baker firm, Dr. John R. Mott, world known religious leader, Prof. J. H. Farley, head of the department of psychology at Lawrence College, and President Samuel Plantz of the Methodist College at Appleton. Meetings are open to the public.

PRESIDENT'S GUARD CHANGES INSIGNIA

The active members of the President's guard, honorary competitive military organization of the University Cadet corps, will soon appear with a new insignia, which consists of a cardinal and white braided silk cord, passing under the left shoulder strap and down under the left arm, with a smaller loop over the left breast. This new designation replaces the red Mar's helmet on a yellow background which was the insignia used last year.

The Guard, with full strength of about 85 men and 3 commissioned officers, will begin its regular Wednesday drill this evening in the armory. Only two meetings were held during the first semester because the tryouts for members were not held until about the middle of December.

Although the drills involve the ordinary military features of the manual of arms, squad and company movements, and formal inspections, special events will be practiced in preparation for the Military ball and for several tentative competitive drills with military academies or with some National Guard unit. Last year a formal guard mount with the aid of the regimental band, was demonstrated before Major General Bell and President Birge on Memorial day. A special event was also planned for the regular official army inspection, but was not presented because of inclement weather.

Besides the regular drills, several social affairs are planned, including a formal dance and an informal dance, and a get-acquainted banquet.

The Engineering in a Curling Iron

What sort of engineering is it that makes a study of the needs and the interests of women and creates products to satisfy them? Does it seem that, in practice at least, this sort of thing is a little different from your understanding of what an engineer really is and does?

After all, when you come to think of it, engineering is concerned with all the facts of life. It takes the old facts and interprets them in new and broader ways; but its big job is the very big job of making more living, fuller living, readily available. It is, in every aspect, a thing worth doing, whether it concerns itself with curling irons or converters, or any of the thousands of products in between.

This is truly the day of the engineer. His judgments and his equipment are sought in almost every phase of living. Engineering is remaking the business of housekeeping. Its methods are being applied to merchandising, to distribution, to the wrapping of bundles and the packing of boxes, to the lighting of streets and the hundreds of things that, a few years back, were strictly "rule-of-thumb". By the time you are at work out in the world, there will be more—though there are only a few of them left.

Whatever is worth doing is worth engineering; engineering effort dignifies itself. Whether it puts more usefulness into transformers or curling irons or turbines does not matter. The thing that counts is the work, the creative, constructive service that is going on for the lasting benefit of mankind.
