The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

THIS is a cumulative record Of a peculiar people, WHO, for the satisfaction of occult

Race memories,

(AND in open allegiance To a bonnie ancestry)

Take to the woods

With a whisp of canvas,

A typewriter, and a few accouterments Of this decadent age....

There, among strange friends And friendly strangers To find again the Abundance

Which is the right of those

Who were born to be CITIZENS of CAMP GALLISTEL
