OPINIONS ON GAME.

Jerry Riordan.

There was a deplorable amount of fumbling in the first half but the Varsity played a much better game in second half.

Phil King.

Beloit has a much better team than last year. Wisconsin played in an indifferent manner in the first half but got together and played good ball in the second.

A LIVE QUESTION

TO BE DISCUSSED BY HESPERIA AND PHILOMATHIA.

Income Tax Will be Debated at Annual Joint Debate Before Christmas.

The question to be discussed by the Joint Debate teams this year is that "the adoption of a general income tax levied by U. S. Government is contrary to best interest of the nations; it being mutually conceded that the government stands in need of revenue; that such a tax would be constitutional; that it become a law; that it remain in operation at least fifteen years; that it be under an efficient civil service; and that an inheritance tax shall not be available for federal purposes. Philomathia has the affirmative, and Hesperia has the negative.

The outlook is very promising, as both sides have been here a good portion of the summer studying up the question. Hesperia who won from Athenae last year will compete against Philomathia. Philomathia which is the youngest society on the "hill," is working hard to win the laurels from Hesperia, who by her victory last year has a great deal of confidence and enthusiasm back of her.

The debate will in all probability come off a week before the Christmas vacation. The debaters are A. V. Smith of Waukesha, Solomon Heubner of Manitowoc and J. E. Brindley of Madison, of Hesperia, and P. W. Bieh of Wausau, N. T. Hancock of Tomah and L. G. Lohr of Milwaukee, of Philomathia.

In 1890 Philomathia was admitted to the debating Union, and in the same year she won the honors from Hesperia, she next lost to Athenae. Athenae then defeated Hesperia and in succession she won from Philomathia. Philomathia then turned the tables and first defeated Athenae, and then Hesperia. In 1898 Philomathia lost to Athenae, and last year Athenae was defeated by Hesperia. Hesperia now holds the championship, and together with age and society backing, will do her best to keep her present standing. As the teams are about evenly matched there is a great interest manifested as to which society will carry off the banner.

Glee Club Work.

The Madison Carnival is interfering considerably with the organization of the Glee Clubs. Several members of the Boys' Glee Club are prevented from participating in work because the University band will take an active part in the Carnival. The activities of this festival will probably also necessitate the postponement of practice of the Ladies' Glee Club until the week following the Carnival. A meeting for the purpose of acting on candidates for membership will probably be held next week. Professor Parker wishes to emphasize the fact that low alto voices are especially required. Applications are coming in fast. About eight positions are to be filled.

—Kappa Kappa Gamma holds its Alumni banquet this evening.

—Mrs. George C. Comstock went to New York City Tuesday.

Literary Societies.

Hesperia.

Hesperia held its usual meeting last night being called to order shortly after 7 o'clock by President Carr. The attendance was quite good, and the meeting was an exceptionally enthusiastic one.

The first debate was on the question of the re-election of McKinley to the presidency. The leaders were Carthew, in support of McKinley, and Carr in opposition. The debate was as animated as it should be, but was marked throughout by sound argument on both sides. The jury decided that McKinley should be turned down.

The question of the second debate was "Resolved, that labor organizations are not to the best interests of society." Haganah for the affirmative won out over Bucklin, the leader of the negative.

Hesperia has already taken in quite a number of new members from the freshman class and the outlook for a most successful year is very bright.

Philomathia.

Philomathia held its regular meeting last evening with a good crowd in attendance. The first debate was on the subject "Resolved that President McKinley was justified in his veto of the canteen bill." The affirmative was ably supported by Messrs. Cady, Hale and Plumb, and the negative by Scholz, Wolfenson, Poage, Maurer and Harvey.

The jury, which consisted of Messrs. Grover, Anderson and Hook, decided in favor of the negative.

The second debate was on the question: "Resolved, that it is now politic for the United States to withdraw from Cuba and allow the Cubans their own government." The affirmative was vigorously upheld by Messrs. Kelling, Scheutte and Collins. Paetow and White were the speakers in behalf of the negative.

The jury decided in favor of the negative. Boehm was the critic of the evening.

A business meeting concluded the evening's program.

Athenae.

The Athenaeon society devoted its entire meeting to a debate on the question; Resolved, that the Republican party should be retained in power. The debate was hotly contested from opening to close and resulted in a victory for the Republican side. The McKinley side was led by Knoff and Robert Davis championed the cause of Bryan. A large number of visitors and alumni were present and volunteered in the debate. Those who spoke for Republicanism were Gust, Angell, Leiser, Baldwin, Olbrich, Beule, Buckholz and Cochems. The Democratic speakers were Swaboda, Byrne, Theurer, Bredsteen, Luhmann, Macartney and Joe E. Davies. Nine new members were taken into the society.

Forum, last night, debated the free silver question. The Republican position was defended by Lucas and Carrol and that of the Democrats by Kroncke and Detling. The former won. The second debate, upon the Tariff question was postponed.

—Harry Holden, '00, who is teaching science in the Beloit High School, is in Madison for a visit over Sunday.

—Kappa Alpha Theta gave a house warming last evening and will repeat it tonight.

—Miss Madge Thompson, '03, has been spending the week in Oshkosh.

Telephone over the lines of the Wisconsin Telephone Co., to all Points.

The decisive victory over Beloit today establishes the fact that we have a team which we can confidently expect to do us credit against the big teams to be met later. This game was, in a sense, the crucial contest of the season and now that it has been safely undergone we can look forward to a steady development until the season is ended with the championship banner in our hands.

Students and Carnival.

By next Monday Madison will have put on her gala attire and will be ready to receive the thousands of visitors from all parts of the state and surrounding country who will pour in to attend the joyous carnival. In a sense the students of the University of Wisconsin are joint hosts with citizens in this affair and as such have a duty to perform. Many of the strangers will have come with the opportunity of seeing the state's leading educational institution as a prime motive. They will doubtless be interested and instructed by the magnificent buildings, the beautiful campus, the well organized agricultural station and farm and last but not least by the throng of students going to and from their classes.

The students should see to it that the visitors are courteously treated, that all inquiries should be politely answered and that the impression of the great school at work shall be both a pleasant and an intelligent one. The University secures the support indirectly and directly from the people of the state. Every opportunity by which both may be brought into contact and helpful harmony should be welcomed and that presented by the Madison Carnival is one to be seized with eagerness. It will doubtless be difficult to keep at work during the week's program of attractions but on the whole the jubilee will help more than harm the University and its work.

The Sphinx.

The second number of the Sphinx for the present year was issued this morning. This number, in its literary excellence, surpasses the excellent number that came out two weeks ago. The art work of Beule, Ellis and Krans is of a high standard. Beule's double page view from the sidelines is a good idea well presented. Mr. Ellis' drawing "Pledged to Peace" is exceedingly timely and his idea is faithfully worked out.

A new editorial staff is in charge of the publication consisting of Fred. M. Van Horn, '00, Editor-in-Chief; Eric W. Allen, '01, Managing Editor; Mary F. Cunningham, '03, Asst. Managing Editor; M. W. McArdle, '01, Business Manager; H. F. John and Harry Winkler, Asst. Managing Editors. The general editors are:—Chas. Allen, '99, Mildred Castle, '00, Blanche Brigham, '00, Joseph Koffend, '00, Zach A. Chandler, '01, A. F. Beule, '01, Ralph Rounds, '01, H. O. Sargeant, '01, H. B. Anderson, '01, Clara Froelich, '02, Robert Kraus, '03.

The Mass Meeting.

The mass meeting held last evening in Library Hall was a grand success. Great enthusiasm was manifested, and the thousand or more students who attended gave proof of their interest in football and of the support they give the team. A happy feature was the presence of ever so many co-eds. W. C. Sutherland, vice-president of the Athletic Association, presided. The meeting was opened with a great volume of cheers and yells. Professor Bruce gave the first speech and was followed by Profs. Slichter and Meyer. All these speeches were well received and the speakers well deserved the hearty rounds of applause which greeted them. Ed Cochems, Jerry Riordan, and Mr. Joe Davies stirred up still more the enthusiasm of the students by their vigorous statements of what the team wanted of those who supported them.

The point most forcibly emphasized in all the speeches was that the team deserved and demanded the best of support from the students. As we have a team we certainly want them to win; and nothing will make that team work harder than to know that they have the loyal enthusiastic support of the whole University. Last night's mass meeting was an inspiration to every member of the team. The band was present and added materially to the entertainment.

Castalia's Reception.

The reception given last evening by the Castalia literary society was held in the music lecture room at Ladies' Hall. The room was prettily decorated with autumn leaves. The special program given was a violin solo by Miss Norma Stark, reading by Miss Butt and piano solo by Miss Buehlman. Prof. Frankenburg gave a short address. Refreshments were served.

Artie.

A great many students are finding that a typewriter is almost a necessity. When we remember that one can get through with from three to ten times as much work on a typewriter as with a pen it does not seem strange that they are coming into almost universal use.

The Year's Work.

At the fall meeting of the Advisory Committee of the Y. M. C. A. last Wednesday evening, the following report of the year's work of the Association was presented by Mr. Phelps, the General Secretary:

"Gentlemen:—Your General Secretary begs leave to submit the following report of the work of the various departments of the Association during the past year:—

Summer Work.

Letters were sent to the principals of the high schools requesting the names of students who expected to enter the University. To the men whose names were thus secured were sent handbooks and personal letters inviting them to make use of the privileges of the Association.

Fall Campaign.

A week before the opening of the University members of the Association were on hand making preparations for the arrival of new students. The west end of the city was canvassed for rooms and boarding places and for jobs for those who needed something to do to help pay their way.

Students were met at the trains by Association men who directed them to the Y. M. C. A. house where they found lists of boarding places, rooms, roommates, and men ready to furnish such help as was needed in getting untangled from the maze of new things.

The college year's work may be considered under the following heads:—
(1) Social.—During the year the Association held ten men's socials and five joint receptions, entertaining in the aggregate about 1800 students.

(2) Religious meetings were held

32 Sunday afternoons and on 32 Thursday evenings. A strong list of speakers was secured for the Sunday meetings which averaged an attendance of 107. The Thursday evening meetings were led by students and averaged 38 in attendance.

(3)—Bible study classes were organized in "The Life of Christ," "The Acts and the Epistles" and in "Old Testament Characters." 110 men were enrolled in these classes.

(4) Missionary classes were organized in the study of modern missionary fields and medical missions. Nearly $100.00 was raised for Mr. Brockman, our Y. M. C. A. missionary in China.

(5) The Employment Bureau furnished seventy-three jobs to needy students. This year the bureau has furnished over ninety jobs during the first three weeks. One hundred men have applied to it for employment.

(6) The house of the Association has been kept open to the men of the University. A third room has been added to the suite. The daily papers and many of the magazines were kept on file. A larger use of the parlors is evidence of the need of such club rooms.

(7) Finance.—The finances of the Association are on a good basis. The budget amounted to $1100.00. Of this amount, in round numbers, the members of the faculty contributed $400.00, friends in the city $200.00 and the students $500.00. The budget for the coming year will be about the same.

(8) The membership for the year was 247. Of these seventy-five were associate members.

(9) The canvass for the new building has been pushed during the summer. It is not intended to make a popular canvass at present but rather to cultivate the state thoroughly with a view to interesting a large number of friends of the University in the project. Several small subscriptions have been sent in without solicitation.

Respectfully submitted,
G. S. Phelps,
General Secretary.
