Book of Friends: May it include the wise, the witty and the shrewd,
And such as own the double art, that makes them friends of head and heart.
May those who stand recorded here grow dearer with each added year;
Acquaintance into friendship grow, and friendship ever brighter glow.
Old friends are best, we lightly say—but, as they fall upon the way,
Keep full the ranks with newer friends, till time the adjective amends.
And if old friends still seem the best, the adage should be thus expressed:
Friends are not best because they're old, but old, because the years that rolled—
The years that try, and mar and mend, have proved them worth the title friend.
—S. W. W. Mitchell.
