The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Mr. J. E. Boell, Director
University Archives
443F Memorial Library

Dear Mr. Boell:

I send you herewith ten cans of film and magnetic tape. These are the hidden camera scenes of film on housing discrimination in a medium sized northern city. They are packed in a single, sealed box.

These materials are not to be used or released except on the specific authorization of the University administration.

Cordially yours,

a

L. H. Adolfson
