Red Oak Grill - a Grand Opening

Union South has created a new "greenhouse" atmosphere - lots of windows- for members to enjoy breakfast, lunch or dinner. The Red Oak Grill (R.O.G.) offers a new style in dining with three levels of seating. Small tables line the windows facing Johnson Street on two levels of the restaurant. Service is similar to the "fast food" restaurants in that people order and receive their food at the counter, add their own condiments, and take the food to a table.

To celebrate the grand opening of Red Oak Grill there will be activities on Thursday, Jan. 28 and Friday, Jan. 29 with a couple of events spilling over into Saturday. We invite you and your family to join in the fun.

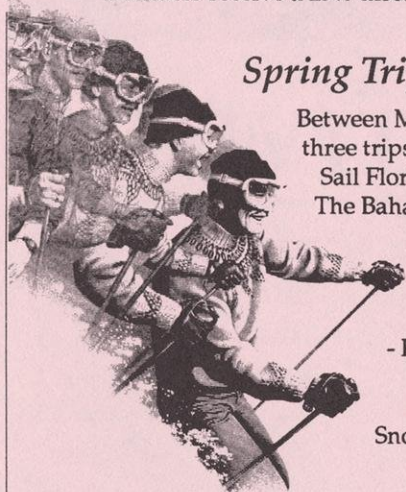

Schedule of Red Oak Grill Grand Opening Activities

Thursday, Jan. 28th, 8 pm	-	Hamonius Wail - Jazz
10 pm	-	Art of Rhythmn
Friday, Jan. 29th, 4 pm	-	Comedy Sportz
5 pm	-	Live "Wheel of Fortune"
7 pm	-	Chronos - World Heritage Improvisational Ensemble
8:30 pm	-	Laotian Band
10 pm	-	Hedzole - African Dance
11 pm	-	Tuschen - Jazz and Poetry

Mini Course Selection

Take a break from this winter's ice and snow and have fun with a Wisconsin Union Mini Course. With over 200 courses and over 30 new ones added throughout the program, you have a great selection from which to choose.

New specialty food courses in Korean and Greek Cooking will bring a new excitement to your menus. For fish lovers, we've added a 'how-to' course, "Cooking and Cleaning the Catch."

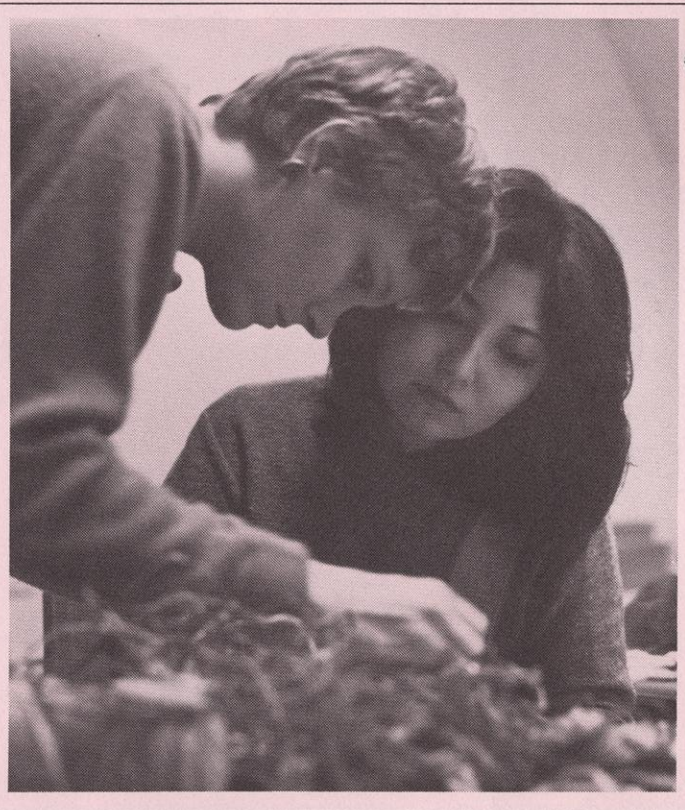

We've found more ways to save you money with our "How to Buy a House the Right Way," and "Buying a Camcorder" for those thinking of buying a video camera.

The photography area has been expanded to include "Polaroids" and "Thinking About Your Photography." While we'll continue to offer the ever popular "Ballroom Dance" and "Jitterbug" classes, we've added two new ones, "African Dance" and "New England Contra Dance."

For those who want to experience more of their inner self, "Hatha Yoga" and "Meditation" are being offered once again. Also, "Tarot Reading" and "Astrology" are now being joined by a class in crystals, "Crystals: Healing Power."

Within the Business and Career Development area we've added two new courses, "Winning Presentations" and "Entrepreneurial Excellence."

This is just a sampling of new Mini Courses being offered. You can check out the rest of our selection in the catalogs that will be distributed on Jan. 8. If you haven't received a catalog within a week of this date and you would like to be on our mailing list, call Mini Courses. Registration starts Monday, Jan. 11 with classes beginning Monday, Feb. 1.

Art for the Heart

The Wisconsin Union Directorate (WUD) Art Committee is used to putting its heart into Union art exhibitions. This time they've gone a step farther by starting off the season with HEART PARTY, Jan. 15 through Valentine's Day, Feb. 14th. This exhibition in the Class of 1925 Gallery (MU) is by members of the Wisconsin Center for Paper Arts, a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and promoting the art and craft of handmade paper.

And while viewing Lake Mendota's stilled and icy water, stop in to see the stilled and arty WATERCOLOR WISCONSIN '87. This 22nd annual state competitive exhibition will be shown in the Main and Theater Galleries (MU), Jan. 15 - Feb. 14. This exhibition is on loan from the Charles A. Wustum Museum of Fine Arts in Racine.

A reception/valentine party for HEART PARTY and WATERCOLOR WISCONSIN '87 will be Fri., Feb. 12, 5-8 pm, in the Memorial Union Galleries.

The Susan B. Anthony Gallery at Union South has SCULPTURE: ON AND OFF PAPER from Jan. 15 - Feb. 14. About a dozen students will show their cast bronze sculptures. A reception on Fri., Jan. 29, 7-9 pm, will welcome these artists as well as help celebrate the (US) Red Oak Grill Grand Opening.

February and March exhibitions are being negotiated at this time but two Master of Art and Fine Art exhibitions are scheduled for MU from Mar. 25 - Apr. 4 by previous award winning student exhibitors. Paintings and sculptures entitled "A POST MODERN FEAR" will be in the Main Gallery while the Class of 1925 Gallery will hold wearable metal sculptures.

April is CELEBRATE STUDENT CREATIVITY MONTH. On Fri., Apr. 8, "HERE'S HOW," an all day workshop for UW-Madison students, provides information about becoming a professional artist. This is provided free by WUD.

The 60th ANNUAL STUDENT SHOW, a competitive exhibition open to all UW-Madison student artists, will fill all MU Galleries from Apr. 15 - May 8. Entries are due April 7th.

All exhibitions are selected, designed and installed by "WUD Art Guys," student volunteers who work with the artists. Gallery hours at Memorial Union are 10 am - 8 pm daily, with 10 am - 6 pm daily at Union South. Exhibitions are free and open to the Union public.

What is

Well, you can thank the Wisconsin Union Directorate, or WUD - the student programming board. WUD is composed of student volunteers who run or participate in various programming committees.

Wisconsin Union Theater

Program Endowment Fund Drive - Ensuring the Future: A Role for You

"This theater makes not only the Wisconsin Union but the University a leader in the field." This quote by renowned Theater consultant Lee Simonson in 1939 still rings true today as we prepare for the fiftieth anniversary of the Wisconsin Union Theater during the 1989-90 season.

Can the Wisconsin Union Theater continue to provide the outstanding and innovative programming that it has for almost half a century? Rising production and touring costs along with escalating artists' fees are putting ticket prices beyond the reach of many people especially students. YOU CAN HELP. The Wisconsin Union Theater Program Endowment Fund was created to meet the challenge of maintaining standards of program excellence and the commitment to making cultural opportunities affordable for students.

Your hands - those same hands that have applauded countless past performances - can now help to shape the future of the arts at the Wisconsin Union Theater. With a goal of $500,000 by the end of 1989, the Program Endowment Fund will be used to defray production costs, reduce ticket prices, and ensure another fifty years of stimulating, provocative and exciting programs to educate, entertain, and enlighten future audiences.

With over $300,000 in major gifts and pledges already received, we now look to you, Union members, loyal patrons and friends, to enable us to reach our goal. Whatever you can contribute will be welcome. Individual contributions like yours will make the difference between success and failure. Please take this opportunity to act now.

People interested in contributing to the Wisconsin Union Theater Program Endowment fund may do so through the University of Wisconsin Foundation, 702 Langdon St., Madison, WI 53706. You can contact the UW Foundation at 608-263-4545 or the Wisconsin Union at 608-262-2263 for pledge cards or further information. All contributors will be acknowledged in Theater programs throughout the 50th anniversary season.
